I don't recollect. I recollect the 6 puppet but I don't recollect anything around 7 the puppet. You characterized puppet, I 8 characterize it as, I don't know, as a 9 characterization of Andrew. 10 Q. Do you recollect asking Virginia 11 Roberts to sit on Prince Andrew's lap with 12 the caricature of Prince Andrew? 13 A. I do not recollect that. 14 Q. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 19 form and foundation. 20 A. I don't recollect the story as told 21 by Johanna or Virginia. I don't even know 22 who -- I remember the caricature of Prince 23 Andrew and I remember Prince Andrew but I 24 don't recall anything else around the 25 caricature. | Page 292 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 recollect this caricature, you recollect 3 Prince Andrew being there. I don't recollect a party -- first 10 of all, they weren't really parties -- I 11 don't recollect a party -- I don't know what 12 you mean by party in the context of that 13 scenario. 14 Q. As best I recollect. 12 Q. Was it something that you saw at 13 the house in advance of Prince Andrew's 14 arrival? 15 A. Again, I don't real -- I recollect 16 the caricature, I recollect Prince Andrew, I 17 don't recollect much else around the 18 caricature. 19 Q. You don't recollect Virginia 4 Roberts being there? 5 A. No. 6 Q. It was just you and Prince Andrew? 7 A. I am not saying it was just me and 8 Prince Andrew, you are asking me do you 9 remember. I only remember Prince Andrew, I 10 remember Prince Andrew and the caricature but 11 I can't place the caricature and everybody 12 else in the same context, the same timeframe 13 you are asking me. 14 Q. Would Prince Andrew typically 15 travel with Secret Service or some sort of 16 security when he would come to visit you and 17 Jeffrey in New York? 18 A. Typically he would have somebody. 19 Q. Would they be in the house or 20 outside of the house? So my focus has always been 17 the lies and the obvious lies as something I 18 can personally attest to. I cannot possibly 19 talk for anything else. 20 Q. Do you know one of Alexander 19 Dixon's friend by the name of Anuska 20 DiGeorgio? 21 A. I do recollect a person of that 22 name. 23 Q. You don't recollect him saying that 9 to you? 10 A. I don't recollect him saying to me 11 that Virginia didn't meet Prince Andrew. I'm 12 sure that wouldn't be a conversation that we 13 would have. It doesn't effect me whether -- 14 so I'm really only concerned about the lies 15 that were told as regards to me. 16 Q. I would just be speculating on how 6 I remember. I couldn't describe her. 7 Q. Do you recall traveling with her? 8 A. I don't. 9 Q. Did you ever go to her home? 10 A. I don't believe I did. 11 Q. Do you know where she lives? 12 A. I don't. 13 Q. Would you have met her through 14 Jeffrey Epstein? 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 16 form and foundation. 17 A. So what's your -- what recollection 21 do you have of her, do you have a specific 22 recollection of meeting her somewhere, you 23 just don't know when that was or how do you 24 know that name Anuska DiGeorgio? 25 MR. How many massages did you receive 18 from Johanna? 19 A. I really don't recall but a fair 20 amount. 21 Q. Did the massages involve sex? 22 MR. I 5 recognize the name but that's it. 6 Q. Was Johanna Sjoberg a masseuse? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. What are you asking me, I'm sorry? 10 Q. When Johanna Sjoberg worked for 11 Jeffrey Epstein, did she perform massages? 12 A. I've testified that when Johanna 13 came originally, she came to answer 14 telephones. I believe at some point she 15 became a masseuse. I don't recollect when 16 and I personally had massages from Johanna. 17 Q. What did Johanna do for Jeffrey 18 Epstein, did she perform massages, anything 19 else? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. When she came she answered phones 23 and at some point, I believe, I don't have 24 any firm recollection, but I believe she went 25 to school and became a masseuse and I had | Page 309 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 MR. Again, I don't like the 20 characterization of introduction. Johanna 21 came to answer telephones. 22 Q. When did you -- were you the person 23 who brought or introduced or met Johanna for 24 purposes of bringing her to Jeffrey Epstein's 25 home? |

PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 6 form and foundation. 7 A. I can't testify to what was on that 8 computer or not after I was gone. 9 Q. Not when you were gone, when you 10 were there. If Jeffrey wanted to call, for 11 example, say Les Wexner, would someone be 12 able to go to that computer to pull up the 13 address information and phone contact 14 information for that individual? 15 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 16 form and foundation. 17 A. I couldn't possibly say. 18 Q. Did you ever have to keep track of 19 address or phone contact information for 20 Jeffrey Epstein? 21 A. That was not my job. 22 Q. Did you ever do it? 23 A. I am not responsible for keeping 24 his numbers so that wasn't my job at all. 25 Q. But did you ever do it? I know | Page 316 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 form and foundation. 3 Q. Was there a hard copy book as well 4 as something on the computer or was there 5 only electronic information on the phone 6 numbers? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. I can only testify to what I know 10 obviously, and I believe that this is a copy 11 of a stolen document. I would love to know 12 how you guys got it. 13 Q. I'm asking during the time you 14 worked for Jeffrey Epstein, was there a 15 hardcopy document of any kind that kept phone 16 numbers for Jeffrey Epstein, if he needed to 17 contact someone? 18 A. The stolen document I have in front 19 of me that you have is what you are referring 20 to. 21 Q. So there was, during your time when 22 you were there, there was no other, you 23 mentioned there was information on a 24 computer. Was there any hardcopy document 25 that you could refer to to find someone's |
| Page 315 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 it's not your job but did you ever do it, did 3 you ever keep phone contact information for 4 him? 5 A. During the course of the time we 6 were together, if he gave me a telephone 7 number, I would give it to an assistant to 8 put in the computer, I could do that. 9 Q. Would he ask you for contact 10 information for different individuals, if he 11 wanted to contact someone? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 13 form and foundation. 14 A. In the course of the long period of 15 time when I was there, it certainly would be 16 possible for him to ask me for a telephone 17 number and if I had the -- I wouldn't always 18 have it -- I'm sure it happened. 19 Q. Was there a hardcopy book in 20 addition to the computer, a hardcopy book 21 that you could look for numbers that were 22 relevant to Jeffrey Epstein's life and 23 something on the computer or was it just an 24 electronic version? 25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the | Page 317 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 number? 3 A. You have the stolen document in 4 front of you. 5 Q. You had access to this when you 6 worked for Jeffrey Epstein? 7 A. This is, I believe, the book that 8 was stolen, that was the hardcopy of whatever 9 was there. 10 Q. So when you were working for 11 Jeffrey Epstein, you were able to access this 12 book? 13 A. This book -- if this is what this 14 is, I believe it was, this is the stolen 15 document from his house. 16 Q. And you were able to access it when 17 you worked for him? 18 A. It was a document that was printed 19 that you could, if you needed to, look for a 20 number. 21 Q. Do you know how this book was 22 created? 23 A. No. 24 Q. When you referred to it a moment 25 ago, to a stolen document, when Alfredo |

| Page 322 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And then she began working for 4 Jeffrey? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Would you have provided whomever 7 was in charge of keeping this updated with 8 Johanna's cell number so you would be able to 9 contact her if needed? 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 11 form and foundation. 12 A. I don't know. It could have been a 13 number of different ways, it it could have 14 been Jeffrey who gave it to somebody. 15 Q. You just don't remember doing that? 16 A. I do not. 17 Q. Now, as you look -- I want you to 18 take a look at the Florida massage list, it's 19 three columns there. 20 Do you, as you look at those names 21 on the various columns, do you know the ages 22 of any of the girls in this list? 23 A. I don't know. One, I don't know 24 who all the people are on this list and I 25 certainly don't know the ages. | Page 324 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 number of masseuses listed under the Florida 3 massage section? 4 A. When I was there, I would have, of 5 course there would have been some masseuses 6 listed but I could not tell you who or how 7 many and this -- I could not possibly because 8 I wouldn't remember. 9 Q. Do you know why Jeffrey would have 10 had so many names listed under his massage 11 Florida? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 13 and foundation. 14 A. I can't testify to why Jeffrey has 15 so many. 16 Q. Did he use a different masseuse 17 every day? 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 19 form and foundation. 20 Q. You can answer. 21 A. When I was there he had a massage 22 roughly every day, one masseuse, and mostly 23 he would have them at random times, so it 24 would be difficult if you just only had one 25 person, man, woman, for an adult massage, to |

| 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 A. I have knowledge of it. I can't 3 speculate. 4 Q. On the second column, towards the 5 bottom, there is the name, it's one up from 6 the bottom, there is the name Gwendolyn Beck, 7 do you know Gwendolyn Beck? 8 A. I do. 9 Q. Who is she? 10 A. She was a friend of Jeffrey's. 11 Q. Is she a masseuse? 12 A. She, I don't think she was a 13 masseuse, no. 14 Q. Why would be she listed under 15 Florida massages? 16 A. An input error. 17 Q. Is this list any individual that 18 would have sex with Jeffrey? 19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 20 form and foundation. 21 A. I wouldn't have any knowledge of 22 that. 23 Q. Do you know if Jeffrey had sex with 24 Gwendolyn Beck? 25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 around. I can't testify to that. 3 Q. Were you around in 2004, 2005? 4 A. I already testified that I was 5 there when Jeffrey's mother passed away and 6 so you know, I did visit for her passing and 7 I believe I was there for a couple of days in 8 2005. 9 Q. So if an employee of Mr. Epstein in 10 2004 said that you were the employee's direct 11 supervisor, would that be incorrect? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 13 and foundation. 14 A. What employee, what's the 15 circumstances and what is the story, I don't 16 know what you are asking me. 17 Q. If Alfredo Rodriguez said in 2004 18 when he was hired, you were his direct 19 supervisor, would that be true? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Were you in 2004 supervising Sarah 22 Kellen? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 24 and foundation. 25 A. I never supervised Sarah Kellen. |
| 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 and foundation. 3 A. First of all, I wouldn't have any 4 knowledge of that. 5 MS. McCAWLEY: We are going to take 6 a quick break. 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's now 4:39 8 and we are off the record. 9 (Recess.) 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: It's now 4:54 11 and we are as back on the record 12 starting disk number 8. 13 Q. Ms. Maxwell, we were talking 14 earlier about the journal and I believe you 15 said in 2004, 2005, you were no longer 16 working and responsible for that journal, is 17 that correct? 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 19 form and foundation. 20 A. What are we referring to, this 21 document right here? 22 Q. Yes. 23 A. I don't know who is the author of 24 this or I can't tell you what is in here 25 versus what would have been here when I was | 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. Did Sarah Kellen take orders from 3 you? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 5 form and foundation. 6 A. She worked for Jeffrey. 7 Q. If Alfredo Rodriguez said you had 8 knowledge of underage girls coming to 9 Jeffrey's home for the purpose of sex, would 10 you contend that that is truthful? 11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 12 form and foundation of the question. 13 A. I have no idea what you are talking 14 about, I'm sorry. 15 Q. If Alfredo Rodriguez said that you 16 have knowledge of underage girls coming to 17 Jeffrey's home for the purpose of having 18 massages involving sex, would you say that 19 that statement is truthful? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. I can't testify to what Alfredo 23 said or didn't say. 24 Q. I'm saying if Alfredo said that you 25 had knowledge that there were girls coming |

| Page 331 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 have a computer that was your computer 3 located in Jeffrey Epstein's home? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 5 and foundation. 6 A. I've testified to the computer 7 already. Even when I was around, there was a 8 computer that people had access to. 9 Q. So is Alfredo Rodriguez telling the 10 truth when he says that he downloaded that 11 book from your computer? 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 13 form and foundation. 14 A. I couldn't possibly tell you what 15 Alfredo did or didn't do or said or didn't 16 say. 17 Q. Was it on your computer? 18 A. I already testified I have no idea 19 where this document came from. 20 Q. Did you have a list of names of 21 individuals with contact information for 22 Jeffrey Epstein on your personal computer? 23 A. Again, that wasn't my computer. I 24 already said that was a computer that lots of 25 people would have, so I have no recollection | Page 333 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 address book with individuals you knew or was 3 it an address book for your employer, Jeffrey 4 Epstein? 5 A. Jeffrey has his situation and I 6 have no -- this is Jeffrey's, it came from 7 his home, so I can't testify to anything 8 about this in that period of time. 9 Q. So you didn't have on your computer 10 a list of contact information for individuals 11 that was related to Jeffrey Epstein? 12 A. I don't recall exactly what I had 13 back in 2004 and 2005, so I can't say what I 14 had back then that relates to his addresses, 15 I can't recall. 16 Q. So is it possible that someone 17 could have downloaded from your personal 18 computer a list of names and address that 19 were affiliated with Jeffrey Epstein? 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 21 form and foundation. 22 A. This didn't come from any computer 23 of mine. 24 Q. But is it possible that someone 25 could have downloaded a list of names and |

| Page 334 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 addresses affiliated with Jeffrey Epstein 3 from your computer? 4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 5 form and foundation. 6 A. I already said, I didn't have a 7 computer there, so I don't know where this 8 came from, I have no idea. 9 Q. I'm going to read to you some 10 testimony from Alfredo Rodriguez's deposition 11 and it's on page 370 and I want to ask you a 12 question about it, if it's true or false? 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to object 14 unless you show the witness the 15 document. 16 MS. McCAWLEY: I will pass it. We 17 are not going to mark it. We will skip 18 it. 19 Q. Did you ever tell Alfredo Rodriguez 20 that he better watch out and better keep his 21 mouth shut with respect to what occurred at 22 Mr. Epstein's home? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 24 form and foundation. 25 A. It doesn't sound like anything I | Page 336 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 reference to this case with any, anything you 3 just mentioned, I never threatened anyone. 4 Q. Have you ever directed anyone to 5 call any witnesses relevant to this case and 6 threaten them not to testify? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. I never done such a thing. 10 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein or you ever ask 11 any female, regardless of age, to carry 12 Jeffrey's baby for him? 13 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 14 form and foundation. 15 Q. Or anything along those lines? 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 17 form and foundation. 18 A. Can you repeat the question, 19 please? 20 Q. Did you or Jeffrey Epstein ever ask 21 any female, regardless of age, to carry 22 Jeffrey Epstein's baby for him? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 24 form and foundation. 25 A. Are you asking -- |
| Page 335 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 would say. 3 Q. Did you ever threaten Alfredo 4 Rodriguez in any way if he were to disclose 5 information he learned from his employment 6 with Jeffrey Epstein? 7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 8 form and foundation. 9 A. I'm happy to answer. No, I never 10 threatened him in any way. 11 Q. Were you concerned that he was 12 going to disclose that Jeffrey Epstein was 13 trafficking underage girls? 14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 15 form and foundation. 16 A. First of all, there are so many 17 things wrong with that question, but I have 18 no knowledge of what you are talking about. 19 Q. Have you ever contacted or 20 instructed anyone to contact any witness in 21 this case for the purposes of threatening 22 them not to testify in this case? 23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 24 form and foundation. 25 A. I have never called anybody with | Page 337 1 G Maxwell - Confidential 2 Q. To become pregnant, did you or 3 Jeffrey Epstein ever ask any female to become 4 pregnant and carry Jeffrey Epstein's baby for 5 you or for Jeffrey? 6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form 7 and foundation. 8 A. You need to be very specific. I 9 have no idea what you are talking about. 10 That's completely rubbish. 11 Q. Did you or Jeffrey Epstein ask any 12 female to become pregnant and carry his baby 13 for either him or you? 14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 15 form and foundation. Go ahead. 16 A. I can't testify to anything Jeffrey 17 did or didn't do when I am not present, but I 18 have never asked anybody to carry a baby for 19 me. 20 Q. Or anything along those lines? 21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form 22 and foundation. 23 Q. I want to make sure we are talking 24 about the same thing, not physically carry a 25 baby, I mean become pregnant with a baby? |

 2 lawsuit, is that correct?
 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 4 form and foundation.
 5 A. I have legal advice that I took.
 6 Q. But you knew in early January by
 7 making a statement calling Virginia a liar
 8 that you were subjecting yourself to a legal
 9 dispute with her?
 10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 11 form and foundation.
 12 A. I took legal advice as to what
 13 should be said and not be said and the legal 14 advice that came from the United Kingdom
 15 was --
 16 MR. PAGLIUCA: You are not allowed
 17 to talk about any legal advice that you
 18 got from anybody that's a lawyer.
 19 A. Sorry.
 20 Q. So is it correct without telling me
 21 what you talked to your lawyers about that
 22 you knew because this is dated January 10
 23 that when you made this statement in early
 24 January, January 2 of 2015 you knew that
 25 calling Virginia a liar would subject you to

Page 363

 2 a legal action, isn't that correct?
 3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 4 form and foundation. As to what you
 5 knew -- whatever she knows would be
 6 privileged.
 7 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm asking if she
 8 knows. I'm not asking her to tell me
 9 about her privileged communications.
 10 A. All I can say is I asked a question
 11 and received legal advice.
 12 (Maxwell Exhibit 18, email, marked
 13 for identification.)
 14 Q. This is an email dated January 15,
 15 2015 from Jeffrey Epstein to you?
 16 A. Uh-huh.
 17 Q. It states in the first line, do you
 18 want [REDACTED] to come out and say she was the
 19 girlfriend during the time?
 20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 21 form and foundation of the question and
 22 actually the word is [REDACTED], there
 23 is no vowel in there.
 24 MS. McCAWLEY: I was just trying to
 25 pronounce it.

Page 364

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 Q. This email reads do you want
 3 [REDACTED], without a vowel, to come out and say
 4 she was the girlfriend during the time.
 5 Who was Jeffrey Epstein referring
 6 to?
 7 A. I believe he was referring to
 8 [REDACTED].
 9 Q. Why was he asking you if you wanted
 10 [REDACTED] to come out and say she was the
 11 girlfriend?
 12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 13 form and foundation.
 14 A. The way the press and you were
 15 characterizing me is I was with Jeffrey
 16 throughout this entire period of time and I
 17 was not.
 18 Q. Was [REDACTED] with Jeffrey during this 19 period of time?
 20 A. I believe she was.
 21 Q. Did Jeffrey come out and tell the 22 press it was [REDACTED] and not you that was with 23 him as he is proposing here?
 24 A. I don't believe he did.
 25 Q. Did you want him to do that?

Page 365

1 G Maxwell - Confidential
 2 A. No, I didn't ask him to do
 3 anything. No.
 4 Q. So do you know in January of 2015,
 5 was [REDACTED] his girlfriend?
 6 A. 2015, I have no idea who was his
 7 girlfriend in 2015.
 8 Q. I'm sorry, you are correct.
 9 In the period of 1999 to 2002, was 10 [REDACTED] his girlfriend?
 11 A. They spent a lot of time together.
 12 Q. Did you talk to [REDACTED] about going 13 to the press and saying that she was the 14 girlfriend and not you?
 15 A. I have never spoken to [REDACTED]
 16 Q. Was [REDACTED] offered any money to 17 make a statement that she was the girlfriend?
 18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
 19 form and foundation.
 20 A. I have no idea. I have never 21 spoken to [REDACTED] and I don't know anything --
 22 I have no idea.
 23 (Maxwell Exhibit 19, email, marked
 24 for identification.)
 25 Q. That's an email from Jeffrey to

VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

-----X

May 18, 2016

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 in your view?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you ever -- did you at that time
4 wonder why she was traveling with Jeffrey?

5 A. At that time, I did not.

6 Q. Did you later wonder that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what was your impression?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague,
10 speculative.

11 THE WITNESS: I -- we're jumping ahead; is 12 that okay?

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Yes, that's okay.

15 A. A few days later, I remember asking her 16 questions to try to figure out her role, why she was 17 there, and she gave me vague answers and was never 18 specific.

19 And so I thought perhaps she just was an
20 assistant, someone that did massages well. I wanted
21 to believe that she was innocent.

22 Q. Did you ever refer to her as being 23 orphan-like?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. And how did that come about?

1 And I can't recall if they were in the main living
2 areas.

3 Q. Did you see them in the stairwell up to 4 the second story of the house?

5 A. I can't recall.

6 Q. Do you know who -- who the people were in 7 those photos? Were you familiar with any of them?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Were you in any of those photos?

10 A. At one point, yes.

11 Q. And were you naked in that photo?

12 A. Topless.

13 Q. Do you recall seeing any naked photos of 14 Virginia Roberts?

15 A. I do not.

16 Q. Where did you go next, after the New York
17 visit?

18 A. I went to the Virgin Islands.

19 Q. And who told you that you would be going 20 to the Virgin Islands?

21 A. He asked me if I wanted to go, and I said
22 I would still like to go.

23 Q. And do you recall who you -- who went with 24 you to the Virgin Islands?

25 A. I believe -- well, I know Virginia was

1 leading.

2 THE WITNESS: Jeffrey Epstein; Ghislaine
3 Maxwell; AP and PK are the two women I do not
4 recall; Virginia Roberts; and myself.

5 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

6 Q. Do you recall how you flew back from the 7 location in the US Virgin Islands?

8 A. They put me on a commercial flight. I
9 wanted to be home in time for Easter.

10 Q. When you say "they," do you recall who 11 made those arrangements for you?

12 A. It could have been Ghislaine.

13 Q. Did you -- do you recall performing 14 massages while you were in the US Virgin Islands?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who was involved in -- was there more than 17 one?

18 A. Yes. I massaged Ghislaine at one point.
19 And I massaged Jeffrey, Virginia and I, both, on the 20 beach.

21 Q. Were you dressed during the massage that 22 was on the beach?

23 A. Yes. Bikinis probably, most likely.

24 Q. Do you recall what Virginia was wearing?

25 A. I believe she was wearing a bathing suit,

1 Q. Did you ever see Ghislaine Maxwell during
2 that trip laying out by the pool?

3 A. There was one time where we were all by 4 the pool, yes.

5 Q. Was Ghislaine Maxwell ever nude or topless
6 by the pool?

7 A. I don't recall. She was nude when she
8 went swimming in the ocean.

9 Q. At that moment in the USVI home, did you
10 observe any photos there of nude females?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Besides Virginia, who you mentioned, you
13 observed to be young, did you observe any other 14 females that in your view appeared to be essentially 15 under the age of 18?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you observe any females who you
18 thought looked young, younger than you?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you remember an individual by the name
21 of [REDACTED] that you met during your time with Jeffrey
22 Epstein?

23 A. In Palm Beach?

24 Q. Yes.

25 A. Yes.

1 A. Sarah Kellen was there. Ghislaine was
2 there. That's all I recall.

3 Q. Do you recall why you went on the trip to 4 New Mexico?

5 A. To work.

6 Q. Did you perform massages on that trip?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you -- do you recall whether you
9 performed massages with Sarah Kellen on that trip?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you recall in the New Mexico home ever
12 observing nude photos of females there?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. When you would provide massages, would you
15 provide those massages naked?

16 A. On occasion.

17 Q. On average, would you be naked, if it was 18 100 percent of the time, more than 50 percent of the 19 time?

20 A. Can you repeat it?

21 Q. Sure. When you're performing the 22 massages, can you tell me -- you said on occasion.
23 Over the five years that you worked for him, how 24 often did you perform massages naked?

25 A. Somewhere between 25 and 50 percent of the 1 observed her personality to be?

2 A. Sure. She definitely had a great sense of 3 humor, she loved making jokes. I mean, in a very
4 British way. I don't remember her ever laughing,
5 but she was funny.

6 And I remember just thinking, she -- the 7 first weekend that we flew to the Virgin Islands,
8 she flew the helicopter from Saint, wherever we were 9 to little Saint Jeff [sic] or whatever the name of 10 the island was, and I just thought, wow, who is this 11 woman.

12 Q. Would you say that you respected her?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. When you ended up getting in the car with 15 her and this other woman and going back to the 16 house, who was driving the car?

17 A. She was driving.

18 Q. And where did she take you?

19 A. She took me to the house in Palm Beach.

20 Q. And can you describe the house in Palm
21 Beach?

22 A. Sure. It's at the end of El Brillo Way,
23 on the Intracoastal. The house was either white or 24 pink. It was pink at one time it may have been 25 painted. It was nothing fancy, it was large, it was

1 something. That's all I recall.

2 Q. Did you go anywhere with Virginia?

3 A. Oh, my gosh, yes. We went to Phantom of 4 the Opera.

5 Q. Who else went?

6 A. I think it was just she and I. I forgot
7 about that. Thank you for that memory.

8 Q. It's my job.

9 Anything else you remember about that day
10 in New York?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You said you had given a massage to 13 Jeffrey while you were there on that trip or was it
14 a subsequent trip?

15 A. That trip.

16 Q. And how did that come to be?

17 A. Either he or somebody asked me to go and 18 do it. Someone showed me to the room, but I don't 19 remember who it was.

20 Q. Can you describe that room?

21 A. Yes. It was high ceilings, dark. There
22 were, like, dark red walls or dark blue walls or 23 dark blue carpeting or something. It had a massage
24 table set up in the middle, and there was a large --
25 I want to say like a 15-foot photo, either photo or

1 Q. Do you know personally whether anyone else
2 had said no to him?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that they had
5 been in a massage scenario and told him no?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you recall when in your trip the 8 massage occurred?

9 A. Well, it was not the day we landed. It
10 must have been that next day that we were there.

11 Q. Do you remember anything else about 12 Virginia from that trip other than the Prince Andrew
13 thing and Phantom of the Opera?

14 A. Well, we were getting ready to leave to go
15 to the airport, and we were waiting. She and I sat
16 on the steps in the foyer. I do remember just kind
17 of asking a few questions to try to understand her 18 role, because at that point now I knew what he 19 wanted from me in the massage. And -- but she did
20 not make it clear to me that she was participating
21 in that. So I was prodding gently to see if there
22 was anything happening that shouldn't have been,
23 because I was getting the impression that she was --
24 she told me she was 17.

25 Q. She told you she was 17?

1 A. Uh-huh.

2 Q. How did that come up?

3 A. I asked her.

4 Q. Was anyone else present during this
5 conversation?

6 A. No.

7 Q. You mentioned in your earlier testimony
8 that she seemed orphan-like.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. But you said that was something you had 11 said to Ms. McCawley, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. That was not said at the time?

14 A. Right. No. At the time I was getting an 15 impression that she did not have a family or she had 16 walked away from her family. And it seemed to me,
17 you know, they had just sort of adopted her, not as 18 a child, but they would take care of her.

19 Q. Did you observe anyone speaking to her as 20 a child, like make up your bed?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you observe whether she was using 23 drugs during that trip?

24 A. No.

25 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

1 celebration or cake with candles. It was just
2 another day.

3 Q. You said that the Virgin Islands were a
4 part of that second trip, as well?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And do you remember Ghislaine being part
7 of the Virgin Islands the second time?

8 A. Yes. That's when she called -- went to 9 bed and kissed us all on the head and called us her
10 children.

11 Q. Who were the other participants in that 12 session?

13 A. That's who -- I don't recall who was 14 there. I want to say that [REDACTED] was.

15 Q. But Virginia was not there?

16 A. Virginia was not there.

17 Q. Do you recall the point in time in which 18 Virginia went away?

19 A. Sort of. After the trip to New York, I
20 was given her phone number to call. And I remember
21 one time I tried to get ahold of her. Her boyfriend
22 answered. A boyfriend, I would assume, and he 23 sounded like he was high. And I couldn't find out
24 where she was. And then from there on, she was out
25 of the picture.

1 Q. Do you recall how long after the New York
2 trip that occurred?

3 A. I would say it was probably within a month
4 or two.

5 Q. Did she tell you she was working
6 elsewhere?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you ask her?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she mention that she was a waitress?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And worked at Taco Bell?

13 A. Huh-huh.

14 Q. Did you speak to her boyfriend or a 15 boyfriend at any other time associated with her?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you meet her boyfriend?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Her fiancé?

20 A. No.

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

22 BY MS. MENNINGER:

23 Q. When you were on the plane with Jeffrey
24 during these two trips, he was present on all of 25 those flights?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did you observe any sexual behavior
3 happening on the plane?

4 A. No. He told me a story of something that
5 had happened one time.

6 Q. Did it involve Ghislaine Maxwell?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did it involve Virginia Roberts?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And you didn't see anything?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You did give massages to Ghislaine
13 Maxwell, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. On how many occasions?

16 A. Maybe somewhere between five and 10.

17 Q. Was that over the course of the five 18 years?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was there some point during that five 21 years where Ghislaine Maxwell was not around as 22 much?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you recall when that was?

25 A. In the middle.

1 Q. Did you know why that might be?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Is that about the time that you started
4 seeing [REDACTED] more frequently?

5 A. Yeah, I guess she was probably in the 6 picture more. Her and Sarah both had kind of been 7 around the most.

8 Q. Did you observe [REDACTED] or Sarah appearing 9 to act like Jeffrey's girlfriend?

10 A. [REDACTED], not Sarah.

11 Q. What did you observe?

12 A. She was just very loving, kissing him.

13 Q. Did you know how old she was?

14 A. I didn't know.

15 Q. So you gave massages to Ghislaine five or 16 10 times. Was there anything unusual about those 17 massages?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You've been quoted in the press perhaps as 20 saying that she wasn't very picky?

21 A. About massage?

22 Q. About her massages.

23 A. Not like Jeffrey, I guess. I mean, saying
24 that meant that, you know, I would do whatever I
25 wanted to do in the massage; whereas, Jeffrey was,

1 like, Do my foot, do my leg. He would kind of
2 narrate what he wanted. She just wanted a massage.
3 So if that makes sense.

4 Q. She may have been naked under a towel --

5 A. Definitely.

6 Q. -- in a regular massage fashion?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes. Actually, I do recall
9 an instance where I was massaging her and
10 Jeffrey came into the room and he did something
11 sort of sexual to her, whether it was fondling
12 her or slapping her butt or something, and she 13 brushed him off like she was embarrassed.

14 BY MS. MENNINGER:

15 Q. So she never asked you to touch her in a 16 sexual manner, correct?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And she did not rub her breasts on you,
19 for example?

20 A. No.

21 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

22 BY MS. MENNINGER:

23 Q. She did not demand that you perform oral 24 sex on her?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did she did not demand that you undress
2 during your massages?

3 A. No.

4 Q. There was nothing from her that was sexual 5 during the massages that you gave to her?

6 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: Correct.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. Do you recall when the last time you gave 10 her a massage was?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Do you recall meeting with her in about 13 2006 when she was in town for some helicopter
14 training?

15 A. I do recall that.

16 Q. Do you recall giving her some massages
17 during that period?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you remember going out to dinner with 20 her and to a movie?

21 A. I remember to a movie, and I don't
22 remember if we went to dinner. I remember her
23 cooking dinner. That was another way she impressed
24 me: She knew how to cook like a chef. She had done
25 some culinary training.

1 Q. And you guys had a normal type
2 conversation?

3 A. Yes. It was very fun.

4 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

5 MS. MENNINGER: I would like to take about
6 a 5-, to 10-minute break, if that's okay.

7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at
8 11:05.

9 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
10 which the following proceedings were held:)

11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the beginning
12 of Disk 2. On the record at 11:25.

13 BY MS. MENNINGER:

14 Q. Hi. I believe when we left off I was 15 asking you about massages that you gave to 16 Ghislaine.

17 Did Ghislaine pay you when she got a
18 massage from you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you know how much she paid you?

21 A. I believe it was 200. It was the going
22 rate.

23 Q. The same as you were getting paid by 24 Jeffrey, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How much?

2 A. One hundred dollars extra.

3 Can I clarify?

4 Q. Absolutely.

5 A. He didn't ever say he would pay me more,
6 but when the massage was more than just a massage
7 and it was sexual, then he would pay me more.

8 Q. It wasn't a discussion; it's just what
9 happened?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Thank you for clarifying.

12 The things that took place with you and
13 Jeffrey behind closed doors were when you were a
14 consenting adult, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Correct.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. And you did not have knowledge of what 20 took place with other women behind closed doors and
21 Jeffrey, correct?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: Correct.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. Do you recall giving an interview to a

1 reporter from the Mail on Sunday?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. You told that reporter, I believe, that
4 the police report painted a picture that it was a
5 big orgy all the time, but it wasn't?

6 A. What I saw, I did not see anything out in 7 the open sexually. Me, personally.

8 Q. Right. You did not see orgies happening
9 in the pool, for example?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You did not see people engaging in sexual 12 conduct out in the open areas of the home, correct?

13 A. Right.

14 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. When you became aware of the allegations
17 against Jeffrey, those came as a surprise to you,
18 correct?

19 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: Correct.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. And the surprise was that it involved
23 underaged girls making that allegation, correct?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: Correct.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. You were asked some questions with
3 Ms. McCawley about nude photographs that were 4 present in the home? Homes?

5 A. Uh-huh.

6 Q. In Palm Beach, I believe you said there
7 were some in the room where the massage table was?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Can you tell me what you recall seeing?

10 A. It wasn't candid photos. They were all,
11 like, staged.

12 Q. Like a model?

13 A. Yes. And my -- I don't recall necessarily 14 knowing any of the people in those photos. I
15 remember at one point there was a photo of myself, 16 but...

17 Q. Were they fully frontally nude or were 18 they staged, like, with, you know, parts of bodies
19 showing?

20 A. I really only remember topless photos. I
21 don't remember full frontal photos.

22 Q. So exposing the breasts, but not exposing 23 the genitalia?

24 A. Not that I recall. And Ghislaine's
25 bathroom, I believe there was a photo of her

1 topless, or a painting.

2 Q. A painting?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. Did you see any nude or semi-clad photos
5 of young girls?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Preteens, for example?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Something you would consider child
10 pornography?

11 A. Never.

12 Q. Other than in the bathroom or the massage
13 room at the Palm Beach home, do you recall any other 14 place in the Palm Beach home where you saw any of 15 these topless photos of women?

16 A. I remember there being photos everywhere,
17 and the ones that stick out in my memory are the 18 ones -- there was a photo of Ghislaine with the 19 Pope. It would not surprise me if there were naked
20 photos around. I just didn't retain them in my 21 memory.

22 Q. So when you say there were photos
23 everywhere, you mean just photos in general?

24 A. Yes. They had a lot of photos around the 25 house.

1 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

2 BY MS. MENNINGER:

3 Q. And Ghislaine was not topless in a photo
4 with the Pope, just so I'm clear?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. I just want to make sure we get that
7 record really clear.

8 So you recall there being photos
9 everywhere; you just remember a couple sticking out
10 in your brain as being topless?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And the walls on the staircase to the 13 upstairs were not just covered with nude
14 photographs, to your recollection?

15 A. To my recollection, I just -- I don't 16 remember.

17 Q. Did you observe what you would consider to 18 be child pornography on any computer in the home?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did you observe anyone taking photographs
21 of young girls in the home?

22 A. No.

23 Q. The photograph of yourself that you saw,
24 was that something that you had posed for?

25 A. Not, like, professionally. But I was just

1 sitting, and I believe Jeffrey took the photo. I
2 was just sitting on a couch upstairs in the 3 bathroom.

4 Q. It wasn't taken by a hidden camera?

5 A. No. No. I was smiling in the picture.

6 Q. And, likewise, in the New York home, did
7 you see anything -- you described a large painting
8 or a photograph that was in the massage room?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Do you recall any other photos of 11 semi-clad or naked females?

12 A. I don't recall.

13 Q. Anything that you would consider to be 14 child pornography that you saw in the New York home?

15 A. No.

16 Q. And, likewise, in New Mexico?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Do you recall seeing any semi-clad photos
19 in New Mexico at all?

20 A. I do not recall.

21 Q. And the Virgin Islands?

22 A. Yes, in his bathroom, master bathroom.

23 Q. And what do you recall, if anything, about

25 A. There was a photo of me in there.

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And an increase corresponding to massages
3 you were giving to guests, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did any of the guests for whom you gave a
6 massage mention that they expected something sexual?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did they ask you to engage in sexual 9 contact and you refused?

10 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: No.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. Marvin Minsky?

14 A. I don't know that.

15 Q. George Lucas?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Donald Trump?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did you ever massage Donald Trump?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Sorry, I have to ask, but did you ever
22 have sex with Alan Dershowitz in the back of a
23 limousine with Virginia and Jeffrey present?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: Absolutely not.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Do you know who Alan Dershowitz is?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. You would remember --

5 A. I would remember that.

6 Q. Did you ever see Virginia Roberts with any 7 of the people that I just asked you about?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did Virginia ever talk to you about having 10 been with any of those people?

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: No.

13 BY MS. MENNINGER:

14 Q. Did she tell you that she had met any of 15 those people?

16 A. No.

17 Q. I believe you saw in that police report a 18 reference to a friend of Jeffrey named Glenn and his 19 wife?

20 A. Uh-huh.

21 Q. Do you remember them?

22 A. Vaguely.

23 Q. Tell me what you remember.

24 A. I remember they had an apartment in -- on 25 Breakers Row. I went up there and massaged. It may

1 have been more than once, but I only really remember
2 one time. But there was nothing sexual.

3 Q. Neither with the wife, nor with Glenn?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Do you remember the apartment?

6 A. I only remember that I had to carry my 7 massage table up some stairs.

8 Q. So you actually gave the massage on a
9 massage table?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Does that help you place it in time as to 12 when that might have occurred? In other words --

13 A. Well --

14 Q. -- did you get your massage license at 15 some point and a massage table?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. He bought me my 18 massage table around the time that I went to 19 massage school. So it could have been any time
20 after. If I thought really hard, I could
21 remember when I went to school. But it -- I
22 want to say it's around 2003.

23 BY MS. MENNINGER:

24 Q. Nothing sexual happened with Glenn?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did Glenn ask you to give him a massage on
2 the floor of the home?

3 A. I don't recall.

4 Q. Did you ever discuss Glenn with Virginia?

5 A. Not to my recollection.

6 Q. Did you ever go to Virginia's home?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know where she lived?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she talk about it?

11 A. Not that I remember.

12 Q. Did you see anything in your interactions
13 with Virginia that led you to believe that she was a 14 sex slave?

15 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 BY MS. MENNINGER:

18 Q. Did you see anyone forcing her to remain
19 in the home?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you see her look traumatized at some 22 point?

23 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

24 THE WITNESS: No.

25

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Did you see anything that led you to
3 believe Virginia Roberts had been trafficked,
4 sexually trafficked to third parties?

5 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

6 THE WITNESS: No.

7 BY MS. MENNINGER:

8 Q. Did Virginia ever tell you that she had 9 been trafficked?

10 A. No.

11 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

12 BY MS. MENNINGER:

13 Q. Did you hear anyone direct Virginia
14 Roberts to go have sex with someone?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did Jeffrey ever ask you to go have sex
17 with another person?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to go
20 have sex with another person?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to give 23 a massage to someone else?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did Ghislaine Maxwell ever ask you to 1 Q. Okay. That's fine.

2 A. Yeah, sure.

3 Q. If it doesn't, it doesn't. I'm just 4 asking.

5 Did Virginia say anything to you about
6 having met Prince Andrew before this time in New 7 York?

8 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

9 THE WITNESS: She did not say.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Did Prince Andrew say or do anything that 12 led you to believe that he had met Virginia prior to 13 that time?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. Did you ever see Al Gore on the island?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you see his wife, Tipper Gore, on the 18 island?

19 A. No.

20 Q. What is your understanding of what the 21 lawsuit we are here today is about?

22 A. I understand that Ghislaine is calling
23 Virginia a liar, and so Ghislaine is suing Virginia.
24 I'm sorry. Strike that. Reverse it.

25 Right, Virginia is suing Ghislaine for

1 always covered himself with a towel.

2 Q. I believe I asked this, but I just want to
3 clarify to make sure that I did: Did Maxwell ever
4 ask you to bring other girls over to -- for Jeffrey?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Yes?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what did you -- did you do anything in 9 response to that?

10 A. I did bring one girl named [REDACTED] --
11 no. [REDACTED] -- it was some girl named [REDACTED]
12 that I had worked with at a restaurant. And I
13 recall Ghislaine giving me money to bring her over;
14 however, they never called her to come.

15 Q. And then I believe you mentioned that one
16 of your physical fitness instructors, you brought a
17 physical fitness instructor; was that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And what did she do?

20 A. She gave him a -- like a training session,
21 twice.

22 Q. Twice.

23 Did anything sexual in nature happen
24 during the session?

25 A. At one point he lifted up her shirt and

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 expected to have sexual intercourse with Jeffrey?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And when was that?

4 A. 2005.

5 MS. McCAWLEY: That's it. I just do want
6 to also put on the record that we're
7 designating the testimony as confidential under
8 the protective order.

9 F U R T H E R E X A M I N A T I O N

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Okay. You just testified that you have
12 knowledge -- you had knowledge that -- of what
13 Jeffrey was doing behind closed doors with other
14 girls. Was that your testimony?

15 A. Based on what he had told me.

16 Q. Okay. So Jeffrey told you things that he
17 had done with other girls?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You did not observe any of those things?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You did not talk to any of those girls
22 about what they had done with Jeffrey behind closed
23 doors?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

25

1 Q. When I say "girl," I really mean women,
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. There were other women around who hung out
5 with Jeffrey, and you don't know what they did
6 behind closed doors, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. So when you heard the implication that she 9 wanted other girls around to take the pressure off
10 of her sexually, in your mind that meant other adult
11 women that he had in his life, correct?

12 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: Correct, doing what I was 14 expected to do in a massage, you know.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. Ghislaine didn't have anything to do with 17 you bringing this woman over for a physical workout
18 with Jeffrey, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. She asked you to bring another girl to 21 be -- to perform massages at the home?

22 A. Yes. Well, she was always asking if I
23 knew anyone else. And so I brought this one girl
24 that I didn't even know I worked with her at a
25 restaurant. So I didn't care what she thought of me

1 if anything happened. And so -- but it never turned
2 into anything.

3 Q. She was an adult?

4 A. She was an adult.

5 Q. Working at a restaurant with you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What restaurant was that?

8 A. It's a restaurant that's closed. It's 9 called BD's Mongolian Barbecue.

10 Q. You were asked about the famous people.
11 You said you met Michael Jackson?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. But you did not give him a massage?

14 A. No.

15 Q. There were other famous people, perhaps,
16 who were around Jeffrey's home that you didn't meet,
17 correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Do you know whether Virginia Roberts has 20 told the truth about the age she was when she met
21 Ghislaine Maxwell?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection. Exceeds the
23 scope of cross.

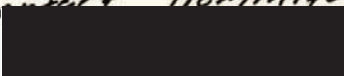

24 THE WITNESS: I don't have any idea what 25 she told them in terms of her age.

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO ENFORCE THE COURT'S ORDER AND DIRECT
DEFENDANT TO ANSWER DEPOSITION QUESTIONS FILED UNDER SEAL¹

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions. On June 20, 2016, this Court Ordered Defendant to sit for a second deposition because her refusal to answer questions posed in her first Deposition (June 20, 2016 Sealed Order, filed in redacted version at D.E. 264-1). Yet, during her second deposition, Defendant again refused to answer numerous questions regarding sexual activity related to Jeffrey Epstein in contravention of this Court's Order. Accordingly, the Court should direct her to fully answer the relevant questions.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

As the Court is aware, this defamation case involves Ms. Giuffre's assertions that she and other females were recruited by Defendant to be sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein under the guise of being "massage therapists." See Complaint, DE1, at ¶ 27 (Giuffre "described Maxwell's role as one of the main women who Epstein used to procure under-aged girls for sexual activities

Numerous other witnesses, with knowledge of Defendant’s activities, have testified to the same:

- See Schultz Declaration (“Schultz Decl.”) at Composite Exhibit 1, Excerpts from May 18, 2016, Deposition of Johanna Sjoberg at p. 34:20-35:1. “Q. And did you -- what did you understand her to mean? A. [Maxwell] was implying that I did not get Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it. Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you mean bring him to orgasm? A. Yes.” . . . “How long did you work for Jeffrey and Ghislaine? A: I believe it was five years, 2001 to 2006. Q. And how many massages did Epstein receive per day on average? THE WITNESS: Three.” Id. at pg. 30:15-25. . . “Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you why he received so many massages from so many different girls? A. He explained to me that, in his opinion, he needed to have three orgasms a day. It was biological, like eating.” Id. at p.32: 9-16.
- See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 2, Excerpts from June 24, 2016, Deposition of Tony Figueroa at pg. 200:5-18; 96:8-15. “Q. . . .when Ghislaine Maxwell would call you during the time you were living with Virginia, she would ask you what specifically? A. Just if I had found any other girls just to bring to Jeffrey. Q. Okay. A. Pretty much every time there was a conversation with any of them it was either asking Virginia where she was at, or asking me to get girls.” “Q What has -- what is that? A. That her [Virginia] and Maxwell and Jeffrey would obviously be doing stuff, all three of them together. Like I said that they would all go out to clubs to pick up girls and try to find them to bring back for Jeffrey. And then she told me about how, like I said, her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey were all intimate together on multiple occasions.”
- See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 3, Excerpts of June 21, 2016, Deposition of Detective Recarey at pg. 29:11-20. “Q. “Okay. During your investigation, what did you learn in terms of Ghislaine Maxwell's involvement, if any? THE WITNESS: Ms. Maxwell, during her research, was found to be Epstein's long-time friend. During the interviews, Ms. Maxwell was involved in seeking girls to perform massages and work at Epstein's home.”
- See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 4, Excerpts from June 10, 2016, Deposition of Rinaldo Rizzo at pg. 52:8. “A. What happens next when Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein and a 15-year-old girl walk into Eva Anderson's home? . . . “A. She proceeds to tell my wife and I that, and this is not -- this is blurting out, not a conversation like I'm having a casual conversation. That quickly, I was on an island, I was on the island and there was Ghislaine, there was Sarah, she said they asked me for sex, I said no. And she is just rambling, and I'm like what, and she said -- I asked her, I said what? And she says yes, I was on the island, I don't know how I got from the island to here. Last afternoon or in the afternoon I was on the island and now I'm here. And I said do you have a -- this is not making any sense to me, and I said this is nuts, do you have a passport, do you have a phone? And she says no, and she says Ghislaine took my passport. And I said what, and she says Sarah took her passport and her phone and gave it to Ghislaine Maxwell, and at that point she said that she was threatened.” Id. at pg. 56:2-24

- See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 5, Excerpts from June 1, 2016, Deposition of John Alessi at pg. 28:6-15. “Q. And over the course of that 10-year period of time while Ms. Maxwell was at the house, do you have an approximation as to the number of different females -- females that you were told were massage therapists that came to the house? THE WITNESS: I cannot give you a number, but I would say probably over 100 in my stay there.” Id. at pg. 30:15-25 “Q: Did you go out looking for the girls -- A. No. Q. -- to bring -- A. Never. Q. -- as the massage therapists? A. Never. Q. Who did? A. Ms. Maxwell, Mr. Epstein and their friends, because their friends relayed to other friends they knew a massage therapist and they would send to the house. So it was referrals.”

In response to Ms. Giuffre’s assertions about Defendant recruiting of females for sexual purposes, Defendant has made the sweeping claim that Ms. Giuffre’s assertions are “entirely false” and “entirely untrue.” Complaint, DE 1, at ¶ 31. Accordingly, this Court directed as follows:

Defendant is ordered to answer questions relating to Defendant’s own sexual activity (a) with or involving Jeffrey Epstein (“Epstein”), (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed or intended might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be, or believed might become, known to Epstein. Defendant is also directed to answer questions relating to her knowledge of sexual activities of others (a) with or involving Epstein, (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed were known or might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein. (FN. Each of the aforementioned lists are disjunctive.) The scope of Defendant’s answers are not bound by time period, though Defendant need not answer questions that relate to none of these subjects or that is clearly not relevant, such as sexual activity of third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to the key events, individuals, or locations of this case.

See Schultz Decl. at Exhibit 6, Sealed June 20, 2016, Order at p. 10 (Emphasis added).

Despite this instruction from the Court, during her deposition, Defendant refused to answer many questions related to “sexual activity with or involving Jeffrey Epstein, with or involving Plaintiff . . . or involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed were known to might become known to Epstein.” The result was that at a number of points throughout her deposition, Defendant refused to answer questions about subjects integral to this lawsuit, including questions about a student, Joanna Sjoberg, who Defendant recruited from her school to give massages to, and have sex with, Jeffrey Epstein under the guise of hiring her to answer phones.

For example, Defendant refused to answer questions about recruiting Ms. Sjoberg for sex with Epstein:

Q. So is it fair to say that Johanna was initially hired to answer telephones, according to your testimony?

MR. PAGLIUCA: This has already been testified to Mr. Boies. We are repeating testimony now.

MR. BOIES: I think in the context of the witness' answers, these are fair questions. Now, I've asked you before, if you want to instruct her not to answer, if you want to go to the judge, we are happy to do that, but I would suggest in the interest of moving it along, that you stop these speeches.

MR. PAGLIUCA: You are not moving it along is the problem, so maybe we should call the court and get some direction here, because I am not going to sit here and rehash the testimony we already gave.

MR. BOIES: That's fin[e]. [At this point a telephone call was placed to Judge Sweet's chambers].

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Excerpts from July 22, 2016, Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell at pg.78:17-79:14.

MR. BOIES: So how did it happen, Ms. Maxwell, that Joanna, who had been hired to answer the phones, ended up giving massages to you and Mr. Epstein.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to instruct you not to answer the question. This has been previously, the subject of your former deposition, it doesn't fall into any of the categories ordered by the court, and so you don't need to answer that.

Id. at pg.81:15-25.

Defendant's counsel's instruction not to answer was improper. This Court's Order stated: "Defendant is also directed to answer questions relating to her knowledge of sexual activities of others . . . involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein.” Ms. Sjoberg is an important witness in this case – one of the witnesses Ms. Giuffre has deposed. She is an individual Defendant knew to be known to Epstein, who knew and interacted with Ms. Giuffre when Ms. Giuffre was underage, and who participated in massage and sexual activities with Epstein. Defendant knew that Ms. Sjoberg was known to Epstein as Defendant recruited her to massage Epstein and participate in sexual activities during those massages. And Ms. Sjoberg testified directly about Defendant’s involvement, including Defendant’s offer of an expensive camera in exchange for sex:

Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do in order to get the camera?

A: I did not know that there were expectations of me to get the camera until after. She [Maxwell] had purchased the camera for me, and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage. I did not know that she was in possession of the camera until later. She told me -- called me after I had left and said, I have the camera for you, but you cannot receive it yet because you came here and didn't finish your job and I had to finish it for you.

Q. And did you -- what did you understand her to mean?

A. She was implying that I did not get Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you mean bring him to orgasm?

A. Yes.

See Schultz Declaration at Composite Exhibit 1, Excerpts from May 18, 2016 Deposition of Johanna Sjoberg at p. (P. 34:5-35:1).

Q: What did you understand Maxwell to mean when she said you hadn't finished the job, with respect to the camera?

A: She implied that I had not brought him to orgasm.

Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging Jeffrey?

A: Yes, I took that conversation to mean that is what was expected of me.”

Id. at p. 142:25-143:14 (Emphasis added).

In the wake of this specific deposition testimony from Ms. Sjoberg, during her own recent deposition, Defendant continued to refuse to testify about Ms. Sjoberg's massages and sexual activity with Epstein:

Q. Did Mr. Epstein pay Johanna for the massages that she gave Mr. Epstein?

Mr. Pagliuca: You just asked this question, and I told her not to answer. I will tell her not to answer again for the same reasons.

Q. Do you know how much Mr. Epstein paid Johanna to give massages?

Mr. Pagliuca: Same instruction to the witness. Why do you believe this is within the scope of the court's order?

Mr. Boies: Because of the court's reference to massages, and because I think how much a girl who was hired to answer the phone was paid to give a "massage" goes to whether there actually was or was not sexual activity involved.

Mr. Pagliuca: The witness has testified there wasn't.

Mr. Boies: Perhaps it will surprise you, I think it should not, that I do not believe in my deposition I need to simply accept her characterization without cross-examination. Now that's something the judge can decide, but a question as to how much this young girl was being paid for a "massage," I think goes directly to the issue of sexual activity.

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Excerpts from July 22, 2016 Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell at pg. 82:25-84:6.

Additionally, Defendant refused to answer questions concerning the sexual abuse involving herself, Mr. Epstein, and Annie and Maria Farmer, described in a Vanity Fair article:

"What do you have on the girls?" [Epstein] would ask the question over and over again. What I had "on the girls" were some remarkably brave first-person accounts. Three on-the-record stories from a family: a mother and her daughters [Maria Farmer, Annie Farmer, and their mother] who came from Phoenix. The oldest daughter, an artist whose character was vouchsafed to me by several sources, including the artist Eric Fischl, had told me, weeping as she sat in my living room, of how Epstein had attempted to seduce both her and, separately, her younger sister, then only 16. He'd gotten to them because of his money. He promised the older sister patronage of her art work; he'd promised the younger funding for a trip abroad that would give her the work experience she needed on her resume for a place at an Ivy League university, which she desperately wanted - and would win. The girls' mother told me by phone that she had thought her daughters would be safe under Epstein's roof, not least because he phoned her to reassure her, and she also knew he had Ghislaine Maxwell with him at all times. When the girls' mother learned that Epstein had, regardless, allegedly molested her 16-year-old daughter, she'd wanted to fight back.

"I Tried to Warn You about Sleazy Billionaire Jeffrey Epstein in 2003," Vicky Ward, January 6, 2015, Daily Beast Article (Emphasis added). Defendant would not answer many questions concerning her role with in the molestation of these girls while she was sharing a house with Maria Farmer and Jeffrey Epstein:

Q. Do you know whether or not Maria Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in Ohio?

Mr. PAGLIUCA: Can you tell me how that relates to this order, counselor?

MR. BOIES: Yes, I think it goes directly to the sexual activity related to Maria Farmer and what Mr. Epstein was doing with Maria Farmer. Again, you can instruct not to answer.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to understand why you are asking these questions before I -

MR. BOIES: I'm asking these questions because these are people who not only have been publicly written about in terms of the sexual activity that they were put into in connection with Mr. Epstein, but the person who wrote about them is someone who talked to the witness about it, and I think that this is more than easily understood cross-examination.

MR. PAGLIUCA: Your question was, do you know whether or not Maria Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in Ohio.

MR. BOIES: Yes. And if you let her answer, you will see where it leads. If you won't let her answer, the judge is going to determine it. And I just suggest to you that you stop these speeches and stop debating, because you are not going to convince me not to follow-up on these questions. If you can convince the court to truncate the deposition, that's your right, but all you're doing is dragging this deposition out.

MR. PAGLIUCA: You have the opportunity to give me a good faith basis why you are asking these questions.

MR. BOIES: I have given you a good faith basis.

MR. PAGLIUCA: You haven't.

MR. BOIES: Then instruct not to answer.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I am giving you the opportunity to say why you are asking the questions, and why I'm telling her not to answer and I am entitled to know that.

MR. BOIES: You are not entitled to know why I'm asking the question. You are only entitled to know that it relates to the subject matter that I am entitled to inquire about, and I don't think the judge is going to think that, you know, where Mr. Epstein shipped Maria Farmer off to is outside the scope of what I'm entitled to inquire about.

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Excerpts from July 22, 2016 Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell at pg. 99:6-101:20.

Defendant's counsel also stopped a line of questioning in which Defendant was asked if she recalled several girls Tony Figueroa brought over to give a "massage" to Epstein. The Court will recall that Mr. Figueroa previously testified in this case that he brought underage girls to Epstein at Defendant's behest, and that Defendant called him, asking him to bring the girls.² Accordingly, at Defendant's recent deposition, Ms. Giuffre's counsel attempted to follow up on this subject:

Q. Have you ever heard the name of Carolyn Andriamo, A-N-D-R-I-A-M-O?

A. I don't recollect that name at all.

² Tony Figueroa testified that Defendant called him and asked him to bring girls over, and that there were no "legitimate" massages: "Q. Any of the girls that you are aware of having gone to the house - either because you brought them or Virginia - as you sit here today, do you believe any of them were brought over to be legitimate masseuse? A. Nope." See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 2, Excerpts from June 24, 2016, Deposition of Tony Figueroa at pg. 245:1-8. "Q. And how long would you and one of these girls sit there and have this small talk with Ms. Maxwell? A. No more than 10 or 15 minutes. Q. All right and what were you waiting for? A. Pretty much her to take them upstairs. And then I would leave. Like I would have to wait for them to be like, 'All right. Well we're ready.' And I would be like 'All right. See you later.' And then I'd leave. And they would go do whatever." Id. at pg. 193:14-25. "Q. During this 2001 period, if you were driving Virginia and other girl to the house, what type of girls would you be driving? A. Pretty much like young looking teenagers 16, 17. Really pretty. You know." Id. at pg. 182:4-10.

MR. PAGLIUCA: Mr. Boies, those names are on Exhibit 26, which we have already gone over and she said she didn't recognize those people, so now we are just repeating things that we went over.

MR. BOIES: I am in the context of seeing if I can refresh her recollection, because these are women that [REDACTED] who she also does not recall, brought over to Mr. Epstein's residences, and I also want to make a very clear record of what her testimony is and is not right now.

Again, you can instruct her not to answer if you wish.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to get to nonrepetitive questions here. You basically asked the same question three times. Then we get a pile of notes that get pushed up to you, you read those. Then you ask those three times, and then we go to another question. So it's taking an inordinately long amount of time and it shouldn't.

MR. BOIES: I think that is a demonstrably inaccurate statement of what has been going on, and I attribute -- maybe I shouldn't attribute it at all. But if you want to instruct not to answer, instruct not to answer. If you don't, again, all I will do is request that you cease your comments. I can't do that. All I can do is seek sanctions afterwards.

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Excerpts from July 22, 2016, Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell at pg. 154:20-156:10.

Based on Defendant's refusal to answer questions related to specific girls, Mr. Boies was forced to discontinue asking questions about these victims.

Defendant also refused to answer questions concerning the "sexual activities of others . . . involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein," when she refused to answer a question about the records she kept of the young girls who would perform massage and sexual activities with Epstein:

Q. Was there a list that was kept of women or girls who provided massages?

MR. PAGLIUCA: This has been previously deposed on. This is not part of the court's order, I will tell her not to answer.

MR. BOIES: You are going to tell her not to answer a question that says was there a list of women or girls who provided massages?

MR. PAGLIUCA: She has been previously deposed on this subject.

MR. BOIES: I think this is squarely in the court's order, but if you instruct her not to answer, you instruct her not to answer.

MR. PAGLIUCA: We'll find out.

Id. at pg. 184:14-185:6.

Q. "In 2005, were you aware of any effort to destroy records of messages you had taken of women who had called Mr. Epstein in the prior period?"

MR. PAGLIUCA: Don't answer that question. It's outside the court's order.

Id. at pg. 177:5-11.

Ample evidence in this case establishes that not only did Defendant recruit underage girls for massage and sexual activities with Epstein, but that she participated in calling the girls; getting other people to bring girls; talking to the girls; taking massages from and leaving messages about the girls; and scheduling the girls to come over. Accordingly, questions concerning written records documenting Defendant's involvement in, and knowledge of, the girls who "massaged" Epstein is clearly within the ambit of this Court's Order. For example, a message from July of 2004 records Defendant, "Ms. Maxwell," giving a message to Mr. Epstein as message from [REDACTED] (an underage girl who was 14 years old on the date of the message) that "[REDACTED] is available on Tuesday no one for tomorrow." See GIUFFRE001465.

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 8, Messages Involving Defendant³. In the investigation of Mr. Epstein's sex crimes against minors, law enforcement was able to confirm identities of underage victims through the use of the names recorded these messages, which were recovered from Epstein's trash.⁴ Accordingly, the messages, and the girls described therein, are fully within the ambit of this Court's Order.

⁴ Palm Beach Police Officer Recarey was deposed about information pulled by police officers from trash discarded by Epstein from his home:

Q. The next line down is what I wanted to focus on, April 5th, 2005. This trash pull, what evidence is yielded from this particular trash pull?

THE WITNESS: The trash pull indicated that there were several messages with written items on it. There was a message from HR indicating that there would be

Finally, Defendant also refused to answer foundational questions that are necessary to precede questions authorized by this Court, such as:

- “In terms of preparing for this deposition, what documents did you review?” See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 7, Excerpts from July 22, 2016, Deposition of Ghislaine Maxwell at 174:2-4.
- Now, have you ever engaged in oral sex? Id. at 18:14-15.
- Q. Did you ever have oral sex with anyone in any of Mr. Epstein's five homes that you've identified other than Mr. Epstein? Id. at 20:7-10.
- Did you, in the 1990s and 2000s, engage in sexual activities other than intercourse with women other than what you have testified to already? Id. at 89:24-90:3.

an 11:00 appointment. There were other individuals that had called during that day.

Q. And when you would -- when you would see females' names and telephone numbers, would you take those telephone numbers and match it to -- to a person?

THE WITNESS: We would do our best to identify who that person was.

Q. And is that one way in which you discovered the identities of some of the other what soon came to be known as victims?

THE WITNESS: Correct.

See Schultz Decl. at Composite Exhibit 3, Excerpts of June 21, 2016 Deposition of Detective Recarey at pg. 42:14-43:17. Recarey went on to describe the importance of the information:

Q. Did you find names of other witnesses and people that you knew to have been associated with the house in those message pads?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

Q. And so what was the evidentiary value to you of the message pads collected from Jeffrey Epstein's home in the search warrant?

THE WITNESS: It was very important to corroborate what the victims had already told me as to calling in and for work.

Id. at 78:25 -79:15.

In sum, Defendant refused to answer important questions relating to the following topics that were authorized by this Court's Order: (1) Defendant's information relating to and knowledge of the circumstances of Johanna Sjoberg performing massages and sex acts upon Epstein; (2) Defendant's information relating to and knowledge of the circumstances relating to the abuse of Maria Farmer and her sister by Defendant and Epstein; (3) Defendant's information relating to and knowledge of any lists or records of girls who gave "massages" to Epstein; (4) Defendant's involvement with messages (or related documents) showing Defendant's knowledge of, and involvement in, the scheduling of underage girls for massage and sex with Epstein, and any destruction of evidence related to these messages (or related records); (5) foundational questions that were necessary precedent to asking questions authorized by this Court's Order; and (6) all related questions that arise out of any response Defendant provides within the parameters of the Court's June 20, 2016, Order.

DISCUSSION

The Court should compel Ms. Maxwell to answer questions in the topic areas where she refused to answer during her recent deposition. Topics 1 - 4 above are central parts of this case, and Topics 5 and 6 link directly to central parts of this case. Ms. Giuffre, and now other knowledgeable witnesses, have explained and testified that Defendant not only had knowledge of Epstein's massages and sexual activity with others, but she actively facilitated the sexual massages through recruiting young females and underage girls for the purpose of "massage" and sexual activity. And proof that Defendant both had knowledge of, and was involved in, these schemes and encounters, will further help prove that Defendant's statements to the press that Virginia's allegations were "obvious lies" was itself an obvious lie.

The questions Defendant refused to answer fall squarely within this Court's earlier order. Defendant can have no legitimate basis for obstructing the search for truth by refusing to answer. The Court should, again, compel Defendant to answer all these questions. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 37(a)(3)(B)(i); see, e.g., Kelly v. AI Tech., No. 09 CIV. 962 LAK MHD, 2010 WL 1541585, at *20 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 12, 2010) ("Under the Federal Rules, when a party refuses to answer a question during a deposition, the questioning party may subsequently move to compel disclosure of the testimony that it sought. The court must determine the propriety of the deponent's objection to answering the questions, and can order the deponent to provide improperly withheld answers during a continued deposition" (internal citations omitted)). Of course, the party objecting to discovery must carry the burden of proving the validity of its objections, particularly in light of "the broad and liberal construction afforded the federal discovery rules" John Wiley & Sons, Inc. v. Book Dog Books, LLC, 298 F.R.D. 184, 186 (S.D.N.Y. 2014). For purposes of a deposition, the information sought "need not be admissible at the trial if the discovery appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence." Chen-Oster v. Goldman, Sachs & Co., 293 F.R.D. 557, 561 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (citing Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(1)).

Defendant cannot claim that such questions were outside the scope of this Court's order, as they directly relate to (1) her knowledge of individuals who provided "massage" to Epstein and (2) her knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein. Defendant's knowledge of the individuals involved in the sex/"massages" relating to Epstein, and her knowledge about the sex/"massage" related to Epstein is precisely what this Court directed her to answer. See also, Condit v. Dunne, 225 F.R.D. 100, 113 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (in defamation case, "Plaintiff is hereby ordered to answer questions regarding his sexual relationships in so far as they are relevant to a defense of substantial truth, mitigation of damages, or impeachment of plaintiff.”); Weber v. Multimedia Entm't, Inc., No. 97 CIV. 0682 PKL THK, 1997 WL 729039, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 24, 1997) (“While discovery is not unlimited and may not unnecessarily intrude into private matters, in the instant case inquiry into private matters is clearly relevant to the subject matter of the suit. Accordingly, plaintiff Misty Weber shall respond to defendants’ interrogatories concerning her sexual partners . . .”). Moreover, generally speaking, instructions from attorneys to their clients not to answer questions at a deposition should be “limited to [issues regarding] privilege.” Morales v. Zondo, Inc., 204 F.R.D. 50, 54 (S.D.N.Y. 2001). In this case, defense counsel once again ranged far beyond the normal parameters of objections and gave instructions directly in contravention of this Court’s Order directing Defendant to answer exactly the type of questions posed to her.

In light of Defendant’s willful refusal to comply with this Court’s Order directing Defendant to answer questions related to the Court’s June 20, 2016, Order, including topics enumerated above, Ms. Giuffre also seeks attorneys’ fees and costs associated with bringing this motion, as well as fees and costs associated with re-taking Defendant’s deposition.

CONCLUSION

Defendant should be ordered to sit for a follow-up deposition and directed to answer questions regarding the topics enumerated above.

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 Q. Did you observe her to be young when you
2 met her?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague as to
4 time.

5 THE WITNESS: All of the women were
6 generally young. I did not know the ages of
7 really anyone, so...

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. How many massages did Jeffrey receive on
10 average in a given day?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Three a day.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Let me back up for a moment.

15 How long did you work for Jeffrey and
16 Ghislaine?

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I believe it was five years,
20 2001 to 2006.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. And how many massages did Epstein receive
23 per day on average?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

25 THE WITNESS: Three.

1 to object and then you can still answer. No
2 one is going to stop you from answering. I
3 just need to get the objection on the record,
4 in the same way she needs to be able to talk
5 before you. My apologies. I'm not trying to
6 cut you off, but I am supposed to get it in
7 before you answer.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you why he received
10 so many massages from so many different girls?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. You can answer.

14 A. He explained to me that, in his opinion,
15 he needed to have three orgasms a day. It was
16 biological, like eating.

17 Q. And what was your reaction to that
18 statement?

19 A. I thought it was a little crazy.

20 Q. And what did -- do you recall what -- when
21 you observed the other females giving massages, do
22 you recall what they would dress like? Did they
23 wear scrubs or did they typically wear normal
24 clothes?

25 A. Normal clothes.

1 camera?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do
6 in order to get the camera?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

8 THE WITNESS: I did not know that there
9 were expectations of me to get the camera until
10 after. She had purchased the camera for me,
11 and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage.
12 I did not know that she was in possession of
13 the camera until later.

14 She told me -- called me after I had left
15 and said, I have the camera for you, but you
16 cannot receive it yet because you came here and
17 didn't finish your job and I had to finish it
18 for you.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. And did you -- what did you understand her
21 to mean?

22 A. She was implying that I did not get
23 Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

24 Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you
25 mean bring him to orgasm?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Ghislaine ever describe to you what
3 types of girls Jeffrey liked?

4 A. Model types.

5 Q. Did Ghislaine ever talk to you about how
6 you should act around Jeffrey?

7 A. She just had a conversation with me that I
8 should always act grateful.

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you that he took a
10 girl's virginity?

11 A. He did not tell me. He told a friend of
12 mine.

13 Q. And what do you recall about that?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay,
15 foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: He wanted to have a friend
17 of mine come out who was cardio-kickboxer
18 instructor. She was a physical trainer.

19 And so I brought her over to the house,
20 and he told my friend Rachel that -- he said,
21 You see that girl over there laying by the
22 pool? She was 19. And he said, I just took 23 her virginity. And my friend Rachel was 24 mortified.

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1 Q I guess my question is: Did she ever tell
2 you that she had started as a regular masseuse for
3 him and then transitioned to something other than a
4 masseuse?

5 A No. She never said that it transitioned.
6 But she ended up explaining to me what had happened
7 before, so...

8 Q What has -- what is that?

9 A That her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey would
10 obviously be doing stuff, all three of them
11 together. Like I said, that they would all go out
12 to clubs to pick up girls and try and find them to 13 bring back for Jeffrey. And then she told me about
14 how, like I said, her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey
15 were all intimate together on multiple occasions.

16 Q When did she tell you this?

17 A I'm not exactly sure on the dates.

18 Q Was it while you were still together?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you -- had you met Ms. Maxwell?

21 A Yeah, I had met her a couple of times.

22 Q When did you meet Ms. Maxwell?

23 A Dates, I'm unsure of. But it was pretty
24 much, like I said, at Jeffrey's house in the
25 kitchen.

1 Foundation. Vague as to time and place.

2 BY MR. EDWARDS:

3 Q Sorry. Let me rephrase the question.

4 During this 2001 period, if you were
5 driving Virginia and another girl to the house, what
6 type of girls would you be driving?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

8 Foundation.

9 A Pretty much like young-looking teenager
10 girls. I mean, 16, 17. Really pretty. You know.

11 BY MR. EDWARDS:

12 Q All right. How did you know that that's 13 what was being requested, that that age range and 14 that look and that's what was --

15 A I just assumed that that's what most guys
16 are into, you know, so...

17 Q Girls who looked like Virginia?

18 A Yeah.

19 Q All right. When you would bring girls
20 over to the house, were you looking for some 21 professional masseuse or somebody with massage
22 experience?

23 A Like I said, I would just get friends that
24 I knew from school, so...

25 Q And that's what Jeffrey wanted?

1 you can think to one of the occasions where you
2 brought a girl into the kitchen other than 3 Virginia --

4 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

5 Q -- and Ms. Maxwell is in the kitchen, did
6 you and this other girl that you were bringing over
7 sit there and together have this small talk with 8 Ms. Maxwell?

9 A Yeah.

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.
11 Foundation.

12 A Yes.

13 BY MR. EDWARDS:

14 Q And how long would you and one of these 15 other girls sit there and have this small talk with 16 Ms. Maxwell?

17 A No more than, like, 10 or 15 minutes.

18 Q All right. And what were you waiting for?

19 A Pretty much her to take them upstairs.
20 And then I would leave.

21 Like, I would wait for them to be, like,
22 "All right. Well, we're ready."

23 And I would be, like, "All right. See you
24 later." And then I'd leave. And they would go do
25 whatever.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.
2 Foundation.

3 A For Jeffrey.

4 BY MR. EDWARDS:

5 Q All right. Let me fix this. Ghislaine --
6 when Ghislaine Maxwell would call you during the
7 time that you were living with Virginia, she would
8 ask you what, specifically?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.
10 Foundation.

11 A Just if I had found any other girls just
12 to bring to Jeffrey.

13 BY MR. EDWARDS:

14 Q Okay.

15 A Pretty much every time there was a
16 conversation with any of them, it was either asking
17 Virginia where she was at, or asking her to get
18 girls, or asking me to get girls.

19 Q All right. Let's go to that second
20 category you just identified, which is asking
21 Virginia to get girls. How many times were you in a
22 room where specifically Ghislaine Maxwell would ask
23 Virginia to bring girls?

24 A None that I can recall.

25 Q Okay. How many times -- when you say they

1 Q Okay. Any of the girls that you are aware
2 of having gone to the house -- either because you
3 brought them or Virginia -- as you sit here today,
4 do you believe any of them were brought over to be a
5 legitimate masseuse?

6 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

7 Foundation. Opinion.

8 A Nope.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q All right. How long after Virginia left 11 to go to Thailand did you continue to bring girls to 12 Jeffrey Epstein?

13 A Not, like, at all. Maybe, like, once.
14 Like I said, pretty much after she left and did not 15 come back, he was gone, I think, also. And then he 16 came back and was, like, "Oh, where is Virginia?"
17 And that was pretty much, like I said, he was just 18 throwing in, "Can you bring somebody by," just to 19 make it seem like he wanted me to still be around.
20 I was, like -- and pretty much after she was gone,
21 that was basically it.

22 Q All right. You described that every time
23 that you would bring girls, Jeffrey Epstein would 24 pay you $200 apiece; correct?

25 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

I. Prior Proceedings

Familiarity with the prior proceedings and facts of this case as discussed in the Court's prior opinions is assumed. See Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS), 2016 WL 831949 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 29, 2016); Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS) (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2016).

Plaintiff filed her motion for clarification of the Court's March 17, 2016 Order and for forensic examination on April 13, 2016. By Order dated April 15, 2016, the motion for clarification was denied on the basis that further clarification was unnecessary. Oral argument was held with respect to forensic examination on May 12, 2016, at which time the matter was deemed fully submitted.

Defendant filed her motion to compel Plaintiff to disclose ongoing criminal investigations by law enforcement, or in the alternative to stay proceedings, on April 18, 2016. Oral argument was heard and the motion granted in part and denied in part on April 21, 2016. Plaintiff was directed to submit the relevant materials for in camera review. Plaintiff did so on April 28, 2016.

Plaintiff filed her motion to compel Defendant to answer deposition questions on May 5, 2016. Oral argument was held on May 12, 2016, at which time the matter was deemed fully submitted.

Defendant filed her motion to compel non-privileged documents on May 20, 2016. By Order dated May 23, 2016, the motion was set for argument on June 2, 2016. The motion was taken on submission on that date. Defendant filed a reply on June 6, 2016.

Plaintiff filed her letter motion for leave to serve three depositions subpoenas by means other than personal service. By Order dated May 27, 2016, the motion was set for argument on June 2, 2016. The motion was taken on submission on that date.

Defendant filed her motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product on May 26, 2016. By Order dated May 27, 2016, the motion was set for argument on June 2, 2016. The motion was taken on submission on that date. Defendant filed a reply on June 6, 2016.

Plaintiff filed her motion to exceed the presumptive ten deposition limit on May 27, 2016. By Order dated June 6, 2016, the motion was set returnable on June 16, 2016, at which time the motion was deemed fully submitted.

Plaintiff filed her motion for leave to file excess pages on June 1, 2016.

II. Applicable Standards

Rule 26 "create[s] many options for the district judge . . . [to] manage the discovery process to facilitate prompt and efficient resolution of the lawsuit." Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 599, 118 S. Ct. 1584, 1597, 140 L. Ed. 2d 759 (1998). It "vests the trial judge with broad discretion to tailor discovery narrowly and to dictate the sequence of discovery." Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 598, 118 S.

Ct. 1584, 1597, 140 L. Ed. 2d 759 (1998). The District Court may expand or limit the permitted number and time limits of depositions, direct "the time, place, and manner of discovery, or even bar discovery on certain subjects," and may "set the timing and sequence of discovery." Id. at 598-99; Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(A).

Consequently, the Court has wide discretion in deciding motions to compel. See Grand Cent. P'ship. Inc. v. Cuomo, 166 F.3d 473, 488 (2d Cir.1999). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 states:

Parties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense—including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons who know of any discoverable matter. For good cause, the court may order discovery of any matter relevant to the subject matter involved in the action.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. If a party objects to discovery requests, that party bears the burden of showing why discovery should be denied. Freydl v. Meringolo, 09 Civ. 07196(BSJ) (KNF), 2011 WL 256608-7, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2011).

III. The Motion For an Order of Forensic Examination Is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f)(3)(C) requires the parties to state their views and proposals as to preservation of electronically stored information ("ESI") and the form of production of ESI. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(3)(C). Defendant having admitted to deletion practices that indicate relevant documents and also refused to detail document search methods, good cause exists to warrant court supervised examination of her electronic devices. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion is granted in part,

Defendant is ordered to collect all ESI by imaging her computers and collecting all email and text messages on any devices in Defendant's possession or to which she has access that Defendant used between the period of 2002 to present. Defendant is further directed to run mutually-agreed upon search terms related to Plaintiff's requests for production over the aforementioned ESI and produce responsive documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

IV. The Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Disclose Ongoing Criminal Investigations is Denied

The public interest privilege "exists to encourage witnesses to come forward and provide information in criminal investigations carried out by . . . [law enforcement] without fear that the information will be disclosed." Sanchez by Sanchez v. City of New York, 201 A.D.2d 325, 326, 607 N.Y.S.2d 321 (1994). A party seeking disclosure of such information "first must demonstrate a compelling and particularized need for access" beyond "[g]eneral and conclusory allegations." Id. The Court then weighs application of the qualified privilege by balancing the need for production against the potential harm to the public from disclosure. Id.

After review of the materials in camera, the qualified public interest privilege as set forth in Sanchez has been established with respect to the submitted documents. Defendant has articulated no need for the documents. Accordingly, the balance weighs in favor of the privilege, and the motion to compel is denied. To preserve the record, Plaintiff is directed to file under seal a comprehensive copy of the log and documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

V. The Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition
Questions is Granted

Plaintiff seeks to compel Defendant to answer questions regarding her knowledge of adult sexual activity, which defense counsel instructed Defendant not to answer during her deposition.

"Where a party objects to a discovery request, the objecting party bears the burden of demonstrating specifically how, despite the broad and liberal construction afforded the federal discovery rules, each request is not relevant or how each question is overly broad, burdensome or oppressive by submitting affidavits or offering evidence revealing the nature of the burden." John Wiley & Sons, Inc. v. Book Dog Books, LLC, 298 F.R.D. 184, 186 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (citations, internal quotation marks and brackets omitted).

Defendant has submitted that she has not put her private affairs at issue, and that such questions are highly intrusive. Notwithstanding, the questions are directed to reveal relevant answers regarding Defendant's knowledge of Plaintiff's allegations. That knowledge goes directly to the truth or falsity of the alleged defamation, a key element of Plaintiff's claim.

Furthermore, privacy concerns are alleviated by the protective order in this case, drafted by Defendant.

Defendant is ordered to answer questions relating to Defendant's own sexual activity (a) with or involving Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein"), (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed or intended might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be, or believed might become, known to Epstein. Defendant is also directed to answer questions relating to her knowledge of sexual activities of others (a) with or involving Epstein, (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed were known or might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein.¹ The scope of Defendant's answers are not bound by time period, though Defendant need not answer questions that relate to none of these subjects or that is clearly not relevant, such as sexual activity of third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to the key events, individuals, or locations of this case.

VI. The Motion to Compel Non-Privileged Documents is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Defendant has sought to compel the following documents: (1) attorney-client communications regarding media advice; (2) pre-existing documents transmitted to counsel; (3) documents shared with or communicated to unidentified third parties; (4) documents primarily for the purpose of providing business advice; (5) documents subject to an unidentified common interest or joint defense protection.

Plaintiff has represented that all responsive "attachments" Defendant seeks to compel have been produced. Accordingly, this request is denied.

Defendant seeks to compel attorney-client communications that include "third parties" on the basis that Plaintiff's privilege log is deficient for identifying individuals as "professionals retained by attorneys to aid in the rendition of legal advice." A review of Plaintiff's privilege log shows Plaintiff has expressly claimed privilege, described the nature of the withheld documents, communications, and tangible things not produced, and generally logged communications in compliance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A)(ii). "Unless the client waives privilege, an attorney or his or her employee, or any person who obtains without the knowledge of the client evidence of a confidential communication made between the attorney or his or her employee and the client in the course of professional employment, shall not disclose, or be allowed to disclose such communication, nor shall the client be compelled to disclose such communication." N.Y. C.P.L.R. 4503 (McKinney) (emphasis added). The conduct explicitly described by statute as privileged does not operate as waiver, and again Defendant has provided no factual basis to suggest Plaintiff has misrepresented the identity or role of the third-parties listed. Defendant's request is denied.

Defendant's challenge to the common interest privilege claims is likewise unavailing. Regardless of whether Plaintiff has reflexively claimed the common interest privilege in each entry does not vitiate the otherwise applicable privilege claims made, and Defendant has provided no factual foundation to establish waiver or failure of the other claimed privileges.

Finally, with respect to the media and business advice communications, Defendant has marshaled no evidence to support her speculation that the documents logged as privileged are improperly withheld other than the fact that one member of

Plaintiff's legal team is an author. Plaintiff has represented to the Court and via a detailed privilege log that the communications in question are privileged. Stan Pottinger, the author in question, is a barred attorney of record in this case, incomparable to Defendant's media agent (and non-attorney) Ross Gow. That Pottinger has written non-legal material, or even whether his "primary occupation in the most recent years [is] as a novelist," is irrelevant to whether his communication with Plaintiff as her counsel was for the purpose of providing legal advice. Similarly, Bradley Edwards, who Defendant has already challenged, is an attorney of record in this case, and Defendant has provided no evidence other than the fact of his representation of Plaintiff's non-profit to doubt that the communications logged are privileged.

Having provided no grounds to doubt the sworn representations of Plaintiff's counsel, Defendant's motion to compel these communications is denied. Defendant is granted leave to refile the motions with respect to media and business advice on the basis of relevant and non-specious factual support. Court intervention should not be invoked to resolve routine discovery matters on the basis of a supposition of bad faith. Further filing of frivolous or vexatious motions lacking sufficient factual support to support a colorable argument (or on the basis of misrepresented or false facts or law) will be met with sanctions.

VII. The Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas By Means Other than Personal Service is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Plaintiff seeks to compel subpoenas to serve Nadia Marcinkova, Sarah Kellen, and Jeffrey Epstein. The request is denied with respect to Epstein as moot. No opposition having been filed and the testimony of Marcinkova and Kellen being relevant to falsity of the defamation at issue, the motion is granted with respect to Marcinkova and Kellen.

VIII. The Motion to Compel Attorney-Client Communications and Work Product is Denied

Defendant argues that "Edwards and Cassell preemptively filed an action against Dershowitz proclaiming they did not violate Rule 11 . . . [and i]n doing so, they voluntarily put at issue and relied on: a) their good faith reliance on information communicated to them by Plaintiff, and b) their work product

showing that their filing was reasonably investigated and substantially justified." Def.'s Reply in Supp. Mot. to Compel all Att'y-Client Comms. and Att'y Work Product at 8-9 (Def.'s Reply on AC"). The Broward County, Florida Court ruled on this argument in Edwards and Cassell v. Dershowitz and Defendant argues in reply that this order is non-binding, and was issued prior to Plaintiff's testimony. Id. at 1.

Defendant was not a party to the Florida case. Nevertheless, Defendant's argument is nearly identical to Dershowitz's. Defendant argues Plaintiff's testimony arose after the ruling in the Florida case, however, the principle of that argument is the same: Defendant placed her attorney-client communications with Edwards and Cassell at issue by relying on the content of those communications in Edwards and Cassell v. Dershowitz. The Florida Court's ruling is therefore highly relevant privilege has not been waived.² The motion is accordingly denied.

² The Court declines to address the choice of law issue, as application of Florida or New York at-issue doctrines are not outcome determinative in this instance and thus no determination is necessary. Compare Coates v. Akerman, Senterfitt & Eidson, P.A., 940 So. 2d 504, 510 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2006) ("for waiver to occur under the at issue doctrine, the proponent of a privilege must make a claim or raise a defense based upon the privileged matter and the proponent must necessarily use the privileged information in order to establish its claim or defense.") with Chin v. Rogoff & Co., P.C., No. 05 CIV.

IX. The Motion to Exceed the Ten Deposition Limit is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

As of the filing of Plaintiff's reply on June 13, 2016, Plaintiff has deposed Defendant, Ms. Sjoberg, Mr. Alessi, Mr. Rodgers, and Mr. Rizzo and scheduled the depositions of Mr. Epstein, Mr. Gow, [REDACTED], Ms. Kellen, Ms. Marcinkova, Mr. Recarey, and Mr. Brunel. Plaintiff now seeks leave of the Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(2)(A)(i) take three additional depositions: Mrs. Alessi, Mr. Reiter, and newly raised in Plaintiff's reply, Former President Clinton.

Discovery being well under way and depositions having been scheduled for more than ten individuals, the motion is timely. "The court must grant a request to exceed ten depositions unless the additional depositions would be unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, the requesting party had a prior opportunity in discovery to obtain the information sought, or the burden or expense of additional depositions would outweigh any likely benefit." In re Weatherford Int'l Sec. Litig., No. 11 CIV. 1646 LAK JCF, 2013 WL 5762923, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2013). Plaintiff proposes limiting the length of the proposed depositions to limit any undue burden that might result. Defendant argues the depositions would be unduly cumulative and duplicative.

This case revolves around factual issues between Plaintiff and Defendant. The testimony of Mrs. Alessi concerning relevant facts may tend to either establish or negate falsity of the allegedly defamatory statement. The limited burden of this additional deposition, further mitigated as Plaintiff proposes, is therefore outweighed by the benefit of resolving this case on the merits. The motion with respect to this additional deposition is granted.

The relevance of the testimony of Mr. Reiter and President Clinton have not been adequately established. The motion as to these two depositions is denied. Defendant's request for costs and fees is denied pursuant to this Court's previous ruling with respect to costs and fees.

X. The Motion for Leave to File Excess Pages is Granted

Plaintiff sought leave to file excess pages in response to Defendant's motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product. To the extent the motion is not moot, leave is granted.

XI. Conclusion

As set forth above: the motion for an order of forensic examination is granted in part and denied in part; the motion to compel to compel Plaintiff to disclose alleged on-going criminal investigations by law enforcement is denied; the motion to compel Defendant to answer deposition questions is granted; the motion to compel non-privileged documents is denied; the motion for leave to serve three deposition subpoenas by means other than personal service is granted in part and denied in part; the motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product is denied; the motion to exceed the presumptive ten deposition limit is granted; the motion for leave to file an opposition brief in excess of the 25 pages permitted under this Court's Individual Rules of Practice is granted. This opinion resolves ECF Nos. 96, 101, 143, 155, 160, 164, 172, and 182.

For purposes of managing the filings in this case, the parties are further directed to comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice by providing all future motion papers in their full non-redacted form, complete with related declarations and exhibits, in a single complete bound hard copy delivered to Chambers at the time of filing. All soft-copies must be provided by attachment of a single PDF in its full non-redacted form, including all related declarations and exhibits irrespective of whether each attachment or declaration is intended to be filed under seal. Soft-copies must be provided in addition to, not in lieu of, hard-copies.

This matter being subject to a Protective Order, the parties are directed to meet and confer regarding redactions to this Opinion consistent with that Order. The parties are further directed to jointly file a proposed redacted version of this Opinion or notify the Court that none are necessary within two weeks of the date of receipt of this Opinion.

It is so ordered.

10 should call the court and get some 11 direction here, because I am not going 12 to sit here and rehash the testimony we 13 already gave.

14 MR. BOIES: That's fine.

15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 16 10:51 a.m. and we are going off the 17 record.

18 (Whereupon, an off-the-record
19 discussion was held.)

20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
21 10:56 a.m. and we are going back on the 22 record. This begins DVD No. 3.

23 MR. BOIES: We have just had a call
24 with Judge Sweet's chambers, Judge Sweet
25 is not available and his chambers

2 or argue this in front of Judge Sweet.

3 But I will simply start referring
4 you back to the transcript and
5 instructing the witness not to answer
6 when I think we are getting into some
7 things that have been asked and answered
8 already.

9 MR. BOIES: Exactly the procedure
10 that I have proposed from the beginning.
11 If you think a question is out of 12 bounds, instruct not to answer and we 13 will then let the judge decide it.

14 BY MR. BOIES:

15 Q. How did it happen, Ms. Maxwell,
16 that Johanna, who had been hired to answer
17 the phones, ended up giving massages to you
18 and Mr. Epstein?

19 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to 20 instruct you not to answer the question.
21 This has been previously, the subject of 22 your former deposition, it doesn't fall
23 into any of the categories ordered by 24 the court, and so you don't need to 25 answer that.

Page 82

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. Was Johanna paid for the massages
3 that she gave you?

4 A. I didn't pay her, so I believe she 5 was paid.

6 Q. Who paid her?

7 A. I don't know who paid her.

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Again, you've
9 already answered that there was no
10 sexual activity between yourself and 11 Mr. Epstein related to these massages.
12 That's record testimony today. That's
13 within the scope of the court's order.
14 The rest of this is outside the scope of 15 the court's order, and I instruct you
16 not to answer.

17 MR. BOIES: You are taking the 18 position that as long as she said says
19 that a massage did not involve sexual 20 activity, we cannot ask about massages.
21 That's your view?

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: On this particular
23 questioning, yes.

24 BY MR. BOIES:

25 Q. Did Mr. Epstein pay Johanna for the

Page 83

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 massages that she gave Mr. Epstein?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: You just asked this
4 question, and I told her not to answer.
5 I will tell her not to answer again for 6 the same reasons.

7 Q. Do you know how much Mr. Epstein
8 paid Johanna to give massages?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same instruction to 10 the witness. Why do you believe this is
11 within the scope of the court's order?

12 MR. BOIES: Because of the court's
13 reference to massages, and because I
14 think how much a girl who was hired to 15 answer the phone was paid to give a
16 "massage" goes to whether there actually
17 was or was not sexual activity involved.

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: The witness has 19 testified there wasn't.

20 MR. BOIES: Perhaps it will
21 surprise you, I think it should not,
22 that I do not believe in my deposition I
23 need to simply accept her
24 characterization without
25 cross-examination. Now, that's

Page 84

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 something the judge can decide, but a
3 question as to how much this young girl
4 was being paid for a "massage", I think
5 goes directly to the issue of sexual 6 activity.

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Here is the problem,
8 Mr. Boies, at the first deposition,
9 there were very limited instructions not 10 to answer and the witness was not told
11 not to answer questions about how much
12 people were paid or not paid or any of 13 those subject matters. The witness was 14 only instructed not to answer about 15 sexual activity concerning adults in the 16 home.

17 None of this came up during the 18 deposition, and you just don't get a 19 chance to redo the deposition because 20 you feel like you want to.

21 So the judge's order is in the 22 context of the instructions to the 23 witness not to answer in the first
24 deposition, which is simply sexual 25 activity involving adults, which was the

2 were sex toys or devices used in sexual
3 activities in Mr. Epstein's property in the 4 Virgin Islands?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
6 and foundation.

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know whether Mr. Epstein
9 possessed sex toys or devices used in sexual
10 activities?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
12 and foundation.

13 A. No.

14 Q. Did you ever assist Mr. Epstein in 15 obtaining sex toys or devices used in sexual
16 activities?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
18 and foundation.

19 A. No.

20 Q. In the 1990s and 2000s, did you
21 ever have possession of or use sex toys or 22 devices used in sexual activities?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you, in the 1990s and 2000s,
25 engage in sexual activities other than

2 intercourse with women other than what you
3 have testified to already?

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: First of all, I
5 object to the form and foundation and
6 it's also outside of the court's order
7 because it's unclear as you question,
8 and I specifically direct you to the 9 last line of the court's order: Sexual
10 activity of third parties who bear no
11 knowledge or relation to key events,
12 individuals or locations in this case.

13 MR. BOIES: This simply asks yes or 14 no, and I think that it is an 15 appropriate question given some of the 16 witness' prior answers, but there is no
17 point in debating it, because if you
18 instruct her not to answer, the judge
19 will decide whether it's appropriate.

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm just telling you
21 if you tie it to something in this case,
22 I will let her answer.

23 MR. BOIES: Are you instructing her
24 not to answer?

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Yes, unless you tie

2 A. I don't recall ever hearing such a
3 thing.

4 Q. You know Mr. Les Wexner, correct?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. Do you know whether or not Maria
7 Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in 8 Ohio?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Can you tell me how
10 that relates to this order, counselor?

11 MR. BOIES: Yes, I think it goes
12 directly to the sexual activity related 13 to Maria Farmer and what Mr. Epstein was 14 doing with Maria Farmer.

15 Again, you can instruct not to 16 answer.

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to 18 understand why you are asking these 19 questions before I --

20 MR. BOIES: I'm asking these 21 questions because these are people who 22 not only have been publicly written
23 about in terms of the sexual activity
24 that they were put into in connection
25 with Mr. Epstein, but the person who

Page 100

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 wrote about them is somebody who talked
3 to this witness about it, and I think
4 that this is more than easily understood
5 cross-examination.

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Your question was,
7 do you know whether or not Maria Farmer
8 was ever at Mr. Wexner's property in
9 Ohio.

10 MR. BOIES: Yes. And if you let 11 her answer, you will see where it leads.
12 If you won't let her answer, the judge
13 is going to determine it. And I just 14 suggest to you that you stop these
15 speeches and stop debating, because you
16 are not going to convince me not to 17 follow-up on these questions. If you
18 can convince the court to truncate the 19 deposition, that's your right, but all
20 you're doing is dragging this deposition
21 out.

22 MR. PAGLIUCA: You have the 23 opportunity to give me a good faith
24 basis why you are asking these
25 questions.

Page 101

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. BOIES: I have given you a good
3 faith basis.

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: You haven't.

5 MR. BOIES: Then instruct not to
6 answer.

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: I am giving you the 8 opportunity to say why you are asking
9 the question, and why I'm telling her
10 not to answer and I am entitled to know
11 that.

12 MR. BOIES: You are not entitled to 13 know why I'm asking the question. You
14 are only entitled to know that it
15 relates to the subject matter that I am
16 entitled to inquire about, and I don't 17 think the judge is going to think that,
18 you know, where Mr. Epstein shipped
19 Maria Farmer off to is outside the scope
20 of what I'm entitled to inquire about.

21 THE WITNESS: Can we take a break?

22 MR. BOIES: Only if you commit not 23 to talk to your counsel during the 24 break.

25 THE WITNESS: That's ludicrous.

2 Q. Insofar as you were aware, did
3 Virginia Roberts ever have a male friend that
4 visited her at the Epstein residences?

5 A. I don't recall ever seeing a man
6 with Virginia. I believe she had a fiance
7 that I was aware of, I think, but that's all.

8 Q. When were you aware that Virginia
9 Roberts had a fiance?

10 A. I can't say I became aware from 11 reading all this stuff, or I was aware of it
12 at the time. I don't know.

13 Q. Did you ever meet Virginia Roberts'
14 fiance?

15 A. I don't think I ever did. I don't 16 recall meeting any men with Virginia.

17 Q. Do you know [REDACTED],

18 [REDACTED]

19 A. I never heard that name before.

20 Q. Have you ever heard the name of 21 Carolyn Andriamo, A-N-D-R-I-A-M-O?

22 A. I don't recollect that name at all.

23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Mr. Boies, those 24 names are on Exhibit 26, which we have 25 already gone over and she said she

Page 155

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 didn't recognize those people, so now we
3 are just repeating things that we went
4 over.

5 MR. BOIES: I am in the context of 6 seeing if I can refresh her
7 recollection, because these are women
8 that Mr. Figueroa, who she also does not
9 recall, brought over to Mr. Epstein's
10 residences, and I also want to make a
11 very clear record of what her testimony
12 is and is not right now.

13 Again, you can instruct her not to 14 answer if you wish.

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm trying to get to 16 nonrepetitive questions here. You
17 basically asked the same question three 18 times. Then we get a pile of notes that 19 get pushed up to you, you read those.
20 Then you ask those three times, and then 21 we go to another question. So it's 22 taking an inordinately long amount of 23 time and it shouldn't.

24 MR. BOIES: I think that is a
25 demonstrably inaccurate statement of

Page 156

1 G. Maxwell - Confidential
2 what has been going on, and I
3 attribute -- maybe I shouldn't attribute
4 it at all.

5 But if you want to instruct not to
6 answer, instruct not to answer. If you
7 don't, again, all I will do is request
8 that you cease your comments. I can't
9 do that. All I can do is seek sanctions
10 afterwards.

12 Q. Ms. Maxwell.

13 A. Mr. Boies.

14 Q. What?

15 A. I'm replying. You said Ms.

16 Maxwell, I said Mr. Boies.

17 Q. Do you have a question?

18 A. No.

19 Q. I have a question.

20 A. I'm sure you do.

2 court's order.

3 Q. In terms of preparing for this
4 deposition, what documents did you review?

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: To the extent I
6 provided you with any documents to 7 review, I will tell you that's both --
8 it's privileged and I instruct you not 9 to answer.

10 Q. Did your lawyer provide you with 11 any documents to review in preparation for 12 this deposition that refreshed your 13 recollection about any of the events that 14 occurred?

15 MR. PAGLIUCA: You can answer that
16 question.

17 A. No.

18 Q. How many documents did your lawyer
19 provide you with?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: You can answer.

21 A. One, I believe.

22 Q. One document. Was that a document
23 that had been prepared by your attorney, or 24 was it a document from the past?

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: I will tell you not

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Don't answer that
3 question. It's outside the court's

5 Q. In 2005, were you aware of any
6 effort to destroy records of messages you had 7 taken of women who had called Mr. Epstein in 8 the prior period?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Don't answer that
10 question. It's outside the court's
11 order.

12 MR. BOIES: I said I would give you
13 a break every hour. It's been an hour.

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Do you want a break
15 or do you want to keep going?

16 THE WITNESS: Keep going.

17 MR. BOIES: What I told you before,
18 you asked for a break every hour. I am
19 happy to give you a break at a fixed
20 time. What I'm not happy to do is 21 interrupt a chain of examination.

22 So if you want a break now, we will

7 guessing, I don't know him.

8 Q. Nicole?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Colleen?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Crystal?

13 A. I don't know who these people are.

14 Q. Was there a list that was kept of 15 women or girls who provided massages?

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: This has been
17 previously deposed on. This is not part
18 of the court's order, I will tell her
19 not to answer.

20 MR. BOIES: You are going to tell
21 her not to answer a question that says
22 was there a list of women or girls who 23 provided massages?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: She has been
25 previously deposed on this subject.

2 MR. BOIES: I think this is
3 squarely in the court's order, but if

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: We'll find out.

7 BY MR. BOIES:

8 Q. I take it you don't know the ages
9 of any of these people?

10 A. The ones that I did recognize were 11 roughly my age. The ones I don't know, I
12 wouldn't have a clue.

13 Q. Did you, or insofar as you are 14 aware anyone, maintain a list of females that 15 provided massage services to Mr. Epstein at 16 his residences?

17 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
18 and foundation.

19 You can answer if you can.

20 A. I don't know anything about a list.

21 Q. Let me go back to Exhibit 28. I

1 Q I guess my question is: Did she ever tell
2 you that she had started as a regular masseuse for
3 him and then transitioned to something other than a
4 masseuse?

5 A No. She never said that it transitioned.
6 But she ended up explaining to me what had happened
7 before, so...

8 Q What has -- what is that?

9 A That her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey would
10 obviously be doing stuff, all three of them
11 together. Like I said, that they would all go out
12 to clubs to pick up girls and try and find them to 13 bring back for Jeffrey. And then she told me about
14 how, like I said, her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey
15 were all intimate together on multiple occasions.

16 Q When did she tell you this?

17 A I'm not exactly sure on the dates.

18 Q Was it while you were still together?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you -- had you met Ms. Maxwell?

21 A Yeah, I had met her a couple of times.

22 Q When did you meet Ms. Maxwell?

23 A Dates, I'm unsure of. But it was pretty
24 much, like I said, at Jeffrey's house in the
25 kitchen.

1 Q Was it earlier in the time you were with
2 her, or...

3 A It was about -- I'd say about six months
4 or so. I don't know. I'm not exactly positive.

5 Q All right. So at the time you met
6 Ms. Maxwell, had Ms. Roberts already told you that
7 she had been intimate?

8 A No. She had told me about that, I
9 believe, after I had max- -- after I had already met
10 her.

11 Q Okay. And tell me everything that you
12 remember about what Ms. Roberts said about being 13 intimate with Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein at the
14 same time.

15 A I remember her talking about, like,
16 strap-ons and stuff like that. But, I mean, like I
17 said, all the details are not really that clear.
18 But I remember her talking about, like, how they
19 would always be using and stuff like that.

20 Q She and Ms. Maxwell and Mr Epstein would
21 used strap-ons?

22 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

23 Q How did you feel about that?

24 A I just -- obviously not happy about it.

25 Q What did you say?

1 A I did not.

2 Q When the FBI interviewed you, did you
3 mention this to them?

4 A I mentioned -- anything they asked me, I
5 did not hold anything back.

6 Q Okay. Do you recall specifically talking
7 about sex with the Prince?

8 A I -- I don't recall talking to them about
9 that, but, I mean, it's -- it could be possible.

10 Q Other than sex with the Prince, is there
11 anyone else that Jeffrey wanted Ms. Roberts to have
12 sex with that she relayed to you?

13 A Mainly, like I said, just Ms. Maxwell and
14 all the other girls.

15 Q Ms. Maxwell wanted -- Jeffrey wanted
16 Virginia to have sex with Ms. Maxwell?

17 A And him, yeah.

18 Q And did she tell you whether she had ever
19 done that?

20 A Yeah. She said that she did.

21 Q And when did she tell you that?

22 A I'm not sure on the date.

23 Q And what did she describe having happened?

24 A I believe I already told you that. With
25 the strap-ons and dildos and everything.

1 Q Was it one event or more than one event?

2 A I'm positive it was more than one.

3 Q Why do you say that?

4 A Because they were always with each other.

5 Like, any time she would talk to me about them going
6 to do stuff, it was with her and Ms. Maxwell. Like,
7 they were always out, like, trying to get girls and
8 whatnot.

9 Q Okay. Did you ever participate in getting
10 girls?

11 A Yes. But...

12 Q Tell me what you mean. What did you do?
13 When you say 'get girls,' what do you mean?

14 A Pretty much I got some of my friends that
15 I knew, because Virginia was looking for other girls
16 to go over there, because Jeffrey was giving us $200
17 apiece for every one that we brought over. And
18 I'll -- pretty much I would get friends that I went 19 to school with, and I would take them over there and
20 introduce them, and then I would just leave.

21 Q What did you tell them they were going to 22 do?

23 A A masseuse, like, and then I told them --
24 I was, like, "Now, listen." I was, like, "I'm
25 letting you know I don't know what he's going to ask

VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

-----X

May 18, 2016

9:04 a.m.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 All right. Do you know a female by the
3 name of Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when did you first meet Ms. Maxwell?

6 A. 2001. March probably. End of
7 February/beginning of March.

8 Q. And how did you meet her?

9 A. She approached me while I was on campus at 10 Palm Beach Atlantic College.

11 Q. And what happened when she approached you?

12 A. She asked me if I could tell her how to
13 find someone that would come and work at her house.
14 She wanted to know if there was, like, a bulletin
15 board or something that she could post, that she was
16 looking for someone to hire.

17 Q. And what did you discuss with her?

18 A. I told her where she could go to -- you
19 know, to put up a listing. And then she asked me if 20 I knew anyone that would be interested in working
21 for her.

22 Q. Did she describe what that work was going
23 to be?

24 A. She explained that she lived in Palm Beach
25 and didn't want butlers because they're too stuffy.

1 And so she just liked to hire girls to work at the
2 house, answer phones, get drinks, do the job a
3 butler would do.

4 Q. And did she tell you what she would pay
5 for that kind of a job?

6 A. At that moment, no, but later in the day,
7 yes.

8 Q. And what did she say?

9 A. Twenty dollars an hour.

10 Q. Was there anybody else with Ms. Maxwell
11 when you met her?

12 A. There was another woman with her. I don't 13 recall her or what she looks like or how old she
14 was.

15 Q. And what happened next?

16 A. And then she asked me if I would be
17 interested in working for her. And she told me that
18 she was -- I could trust her and that I could jump
19 in her car and go check out the house at that moment
20 if I wanted.

21 And so I said, Sure, let's do it, and went
22 to her home with her.

23 Q. And where was that home?

24 A. In Palm Beach.

25 Q. And did she describe that home as being

1 Q. And how long did you work in that position
2 answering phones and doing --

3 A. Just that one day.

4 Q. Just that one day.

5 And did your duties change?

6 A. Well, the next time she called me, she
7 asked me if I wanted to come over and make $100 an
8 hour rubbing feet.

9 Q. And what did you think of that offer?

10 A. I thought it was fantastic.

11 Q. And did you come over to the house for 12 that purpose?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when you came over to the house, was 15 Maxwell present?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. And what happened that second time you
18 came to the house?

19 A. At that point, I met Emmy Taylor, and she
20 took me up to Jeffrey's bathroom and he was present.
21 And her and I both massaged Jeffrey. She was
22 showing me how to massage.

23 And then she -- he took -- he got off the
24 table, she got on the table. She took off her
25 clothes, got on the table, and then he was showing

1 me moves that he liked. And then I took my clothes
2 off. They asked me to get on the table so I could
3 feel it. Then they both massaged me.

4 Q. So it was more than a foot massage at that
5 point?

6 A. Yeah, it was mostly, like, legs and back.

7 Q. Was everybody in the room without clothes
8 on?

9 A. When they were on the massage table, yes.

10 Q. Did they -- when they got off the massage 11 table to perform the massage, did they dress or 12 did --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. They dressed.

15 And do you recall who paid you for that 16 first day that you did the massages?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Do you recall whether Maxwell was at the 19 house during that first day when you were doing the 20 massage with Emmy and Jeffrey?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, asked and
22 answered.

23 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

24 Q. You can answer.

25 A. I don't recall.

1 A. No, I only -- to you, I said that to you.
2 I just saw her as perhaps someone who may not have
3 had a strong family, and they took her under their 4 wing.

5 Q. Now, you mentioned remembering going to
6 Atlantic City.

7 Did you go -- where did you go after
8 Atlantic City?

9 A. Once we landed in New York, Emmy and I
10 went in a car and drove around the city for a half
11 hour or so, just to see some of the city.

12 Q. And then where did you go after doing the 13 sightseeing?

14 A. We went to the townhouse on East 71st.

15 Q. And can you describe that location for me?

16 A. Sure. Between Madison and Park. I think
17 the address might have been 9 East 71st Street.

18 Q. And who owned that home?

19 A. As far as I knew, Epstein.

20 Q. Can you describe for me physically what --

21 A. Palatial. When you walk up, it looks like
22 a normal door to a townhouse, and when you walk
23 in -- I thought there were four floors. I heard
24 there were seven floors. I didn't see them all.

25 Q. And do you recall who, if anybody, was at

1 Jeffrey's home when you arrived?

2 A. Yes. When I first walked in the door, it
3 was just myself, and Ghislaine headed for the 4 staircase and said -- told me to come up to the 5 living room.

6 Q. And what happened at that point, when you
7 came up to the living room?

8 A. I came up and saw Virginia, Jeffrey,
9 Prince Andrew, Ghislaine in the room.

10 Q. And did you meet Prince Andrew at that
11 time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what happened next?

14 A. At one point, Ghislaine told me to come
15 upstairs, and we went into a closet and pulled out
16 the puppet, the caricature of Prince Andrew, and 17 brought it down. And there was a little tag on the 18 puppet that said "Prince Andrew" on it, and that's 19 when I knew who he was.

20 Q. And did -- what did the puppet look like?

21 A. It looked like him. And she brought it
22 down and presented it to him; and that was a great
23 joke, because apparently it was a production from a
24 show on BBC. And they decided to take a picture
25 with it, in which Virginia and Andrew sat on a

1 couch. They put the puppet on Virginia's lap, and I
2 sat on Andrew's lap, and they put the puppet's hand
3 on Virginia's breast, and Andrew put his hand on my 4 breast, and they took a photo.

5 Q. Do you remember who took the photo?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Did you ever see the photo after it was 8 taken?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. And Ms. Maxwell was present during the -- 11 was Ms. Maxwell present during that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What happened next?

14 A. The next thing I remember is just being 15 shown to which room I was going to be staying in.

16 Q. When you exited the room that you were in 17 where the picture was taken, do you recall who 18 remained in that room?

19 A. I don't.

20 Q. Do you recall seeing Virginia exit that 21 room?

22 A. I don't.

23 Q. During this trip to New York, did you have 24 to perform any work when you were at the New York
25 house?

1 A. I performed at least one massage that I
2 recall.

3 Q. And who instructed you to give that 4 massage?

5 A. Jeffrey.

6 Q. And can you describe for me what happened
7 during that massage?

8 A. Near the end, he asked me to rub his 9 nipples while he masturbated.

10 Q. And did that take place?

11 A. It did not.

12 Q. And why not?

13 A. I was not comfortable with it. And so I
14 left the room.

15 Q. Did you have any -- did you say anything
16 to him before leaving the room?

17 A. I believe I said, "I'm done."

18 Q. Do you recall what his reaction was to 19 that?

20 A. I do not. At the time, at that moment, I
21 do not.

22 Q. Did you recall later what --

23 A. Well, we had a conversation a little 24 later, talking about his expectations, and that was 25 the conversation where he said that the next trip

1 Q. Did you observe her to be young when you
2 met her?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague as to
4 time.

5 THE WITNESS: All of the women were
6 generally young. I did not know the ages of
7 really anyone, so...

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. How many massages did Jeffrey receive on
10 average in a given day?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Three a day.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Let me back up for a moment.

15 How long did you work for Jeffrey and
16 Ghislaine?

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I believe it was five years,
20 2001 to 2006.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. And how many massages did Epstein receive
23 per day on average?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

25 THE WITNESS: Three.

1 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

2 Q. Were the massages performed by the same
3 girl or different females?

4 A. Different.

5 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. What did the females who performed the 8 massages look like?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

10 THE WITNESS: They all looked different.
11 Some of them were ethnic, some were blond, some 12 were short, some were tall. Everyone was thin.

13 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

14 Q. Were the girls who performed the massages
15 young or old?

16 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

17 THE WITNESS: I don't recall anyone being 18 old.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. Do you recall anybody being over the age
21 of, say, 25?

22 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, form.

23 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I believe there was 24 probably a few women that were older than 25.

25 MS. MENNINGER: I'm sorry. I get a chance

1 to object and then you can still answer. No
2 one is going to stop you from answering. I
3 just need to get the objection on the record,
4 in the same way she needs to be able to talk
5 before you. My apologies. I'm not trying to
6 cut you off, but I am supposed to get it in
7 before you answer.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you why he received
10 so many massages from so many different girls?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. You can answer.

14 A. He explained to me that, in his opinion,
15 he needed to have three orgasms a day. It was
16 biological, like eating.

17 Q. And what was your reaction to that
18 statement?

19 A. I thought it was a little crazy.

20 Q. And what did -- do you recall what -- when
21 you observed the other females giving massages, do
22 you recall what they would dress like? Did they
23 wear scrubs or did they typically wear normal
24 clothes?

25 A. Normal clothes.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

2 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

3 Q. Do you believe that from your
4 observations, Maxwell and Epstein were boyfriend and
5 girlfriend?

6 A. Initially, yes.

7 Q. Did Maxwell ever share with you whether it
8 bothered her that Jeffrey had so many girls around?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading,
10 hearsay.

11 THE WITNESS: No. Actually, the opposite.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. What did she say?

14 A. She let me know that she was -- she would 15 not be able to please him as much as he needed and 16 that is why there were other girls around.

17 Q. Did there ever come a time -- did you ever
18 take a photography class in school?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did there ever come a time when
21 Maxwell offered to buy you a camera?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. Did Maxwell ever offer to buy you a

1 camera?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do
6 in order to get the camera?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

8 THE WITNESS: I did not know that there
9 were expectations of me to get the camera until
10 after. She had purchased the camera for me,
11 and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage.
12 I did not know that she was in possession of
13 the camera until later.

14 She told me -- called me after I had left
15 and said, I have the camera for you, but you
16 cannot receive it yet because you came here and
17 didn't finish your job and I had to finish it
18 for you.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. And did you -- what did you understand her
21 to mean?

22 A. She was implying that I did not get
23 Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

24 Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you
25 mean bring him to orgasm?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Ghislaine ever describe to you what
3 types of girls Jeffrey liked?

4 A. Model types.

5 Q. Did Ghislaine ever talk to you about how
6 you should act around Jeffrey?

7 A. She just had a conversation with me that I
8 should always act grateful.

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you that he took a
10 girl's virginity?

11 A. He did not tell me. He told a friend of
12 mine.

13 Q. And what do you recall about that?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay,
15 foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: He wanted to have a friend
17 of mine come out who was cardio-kickboxer
18 instructor. She was a physical trainer.

19 And so I brought her over to the house,
20 and he told my friend Rachel that -- he said,
21 You see that girl over there laying by the
22 pool? She was 19. And he said, I just took 23 her virginity. And my friend Rachel was 24 mortified.

25

1 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

2 Q. Based on what you knew, did Maxwell know
3 that the type of massages Jeffrey was getting
4 typically involved sexual acts?

5 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
6 leading.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

9 Q. What was Maxwell's main job with respect
10 to Jeffrey?

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Well, beyond companionship,
13 her job, as it related to me, was to find other 14 girls that would perform massages for him and 15 herself.

16 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

17 Q. Did Maxwell ever refer to the girls in a
18 particular way?

19 A. At one point when we were in the islands,
20 we were all watching a movie and she called us her
21 children.

22 Q. Did anybody respond to that?

23 A. I don't recall.

24 Q. Did she ever refer to herself as a mother?

25 A. Yes, like a mother hen.

1 time.

2 Q. Did Epstein try to make the massages
3 sexual?

4 A. On occasion.

5 Q. Would Epstein have you rub his nipples?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Would he masturbate during the massages?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did he use sex toys or vibrators on you?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Would he leave the sex toys or vibrators 12 out after the massage or would he clean up after 13 himself?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague, form.

15 THE WITNESS: He did not ever clean up.

16 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

17 Q. Do you believe that your experience during 18 the years you were with Jeffrey and Maxwell damaged
19 you?

20 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

21 THE WITNESS: It affected me. "Damaged"
22 is a strong word.

23 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

24 Q. And in what way did it affect you?

25 A. It affected future relationships with men,

1 trust issues, expectation issues.

2 Q. Did you observe Nadia Marcinkova and
3 Ghislaine at the house at the same time?

4 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. On the USVI trip, the second trip that you
8 took, do you recall Nadia Marcinkova being present?

9 A. I believe she was present at that trip.

10 Q. Do you recall Maxwell being present on 11 that trip?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you know an individual by the name of 14 [REDACTED]?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And who is [REDACTED]?

17 A. She was one of the girls that was around.

18 Q. Was [REDACTED] around both Jeffrey Epstein
19 and Ghislaine Maxwell?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. Do you recall where you first met [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED]?

23 A. In Palm Beach.

24 Q. At Jeffrey Epstein's home?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And what -- do you recall any observations
2 about [REDACTED] when you met her?

3 A. To speak with, she was a little rough
4 around the edges, and I could see the progression of 5 her being groomed a little. They got her braces.
6 She had terrible posture. And with a lot of 7 massages, she learned to stand up straight. So I
8 just saw her become a much more confident person.

9 Q. Do you recall how old she was when you
10 first met her?

11 A. I assumed she was 18, but I do not know
12 her age.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: We're going to take a break
14 really quickly and then we will be back. So we 15 are going to go off the record.

16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at 9:48.

17 (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after
18 which the following proceedings were held:)

19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 9:58.

20 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

21 Q. I'm just going to resume. I have a few
22 more questions for you.

23 You mentioned visiting the US Virgin
24 Islands.

25 Do you recall doing any activities with

1 Maxwell when you were on the visit to the USVI?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, vague as to
3 time.

4 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

5 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

6 Q. Do you recall ever going hiking with her?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did Maxwell ever ask you to try to bring
9 other girls over for Jeffrey?

10 A. At that time?

11 Q. Yes.

12 A. No.

13 Q. Any other time?

14 A. Well, she had asked me if I knew anyone 15 that could perform massages that would come to the 16 house.

17 Q. And what was your understanding of that 18 request?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: Well --

21 MS. MENNINGER: Form.

22 THE WITNESS: -- I just wondered why they 23 wouldn't just call me.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. And did you bring anybody else over to

1 perform massages?

2 A. I did not.

3 Q. When you were either in the USVI or in
4 Palm Beach, did you ever observe any females either
5 topless or naked out by the pool?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What did you observe?

8 A. Mostly skinny-dipping.

9 Q. Do you know who the individuals were that 10 you observed?

11 A. Sarah Kellen and Ghislaine.

12 Q. Anybody else?

13 A. Yes, but I don't recall who.

14 Q. Did that happen on more than one occasion?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. How often do you remember making those 17 observations?

18 A. Three times.

19 Q. Do you recall giving a statement to the 20 police regarding Jeffrey Epstein?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you recall when you gave that
23 statement?

24 A. I don't recall the date.

25 Q. Do you recall the year?

1 post that she needed help.

2 She then asked me if I knew anyone, and I
3 didn't know who she was, I didn't want to take the 4 responsibility of finding someone to work for her,
5 and so I said, Sorry, I don't.

6 And then she said, Well, maybe what about
7 you?

8 And I was at a point in life, I was super
9 spontaneous and willing to skip school.

10 So she said, Come to my house, come in my 11 car and check it out.

12 And so I did.

13 Q. Okay. So for those of you -- of us who 14 don't know, is this like a college campus, like a 15 traditional college campus, or is it in a city
16 setting?

17 A. It's in a city setting. I mean, Palm 18 Beach is not a big city. So it's on the 19 Intracoastal, and there was a big grassy area that 20 were surrounded by buildings, so she was inside of 21 the campus.

22 Q. And she was looking for a bulletin board
23 where she could post a job?

24 A. Something like that, yes.

25 Q. Did she have any kind of flyers --

1 the news channel 12 showed up at my door asking me
2 questions.

3 Q. When Jeffrey was pressuring you to do more
4 than you felt comfortable with, did you observe him
5 being more aggressive in general? Outside of the 6 massage context?

7 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: No.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q. Do you know whether he was taking any type
11 of steroids?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did you ever see him wearing a patch or 14 something like that?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Did you tell anyone that Jeffrey was 17 becoming more aggressive with you contemporaneous
18 with when it was happening?

19 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: No.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. When Jeffrey asked you to do other things
23 besides a normal massage, did he offer to pay you
24 additionally?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How much?

2 A. One hundred dollars extra.

3 Can I clarify?

4 Q. Absolutely.

5 A. He didn't ever say he would pay me more,
6 but when the massage was more than just a massage
7 and it was sexual, then he would pay me more.

8 Q. It wasn't a discussion; it's just what
9 happened?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Thank you for clarifying.

12 The things that took place with you and
13 Jeffrey behind closed doors were when you were a
14 consenting adult, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Correct.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. And you did not have knowledge of what 20 took place with other women behind closed doors and
21 Jeffrey, correct?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: Correct.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. Do you recall giving an interview to a

1 story out, because this is when Dershowitz --
2 Dershowitz was saying nothing was happening and
3 he was calling her a liar. And she was just 4 trying to find people to back up her story.

5 BY MS. MENNINGER:

6 Q. And what did you understand her story to 7 be? Did she tell you?

8 A. That she was recruited to give massages, 9 sexual massages, and have sex with people such as 10 Dershowitz and Andrew. But I knew none of that at 11 the time.

12 Q. Right. Did you tell them anything -- did 13 you tell them during that meeting that you knew of 14 anything about her being recruited to give sex to 15 either Jeffrey or to other people?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Can you rephrase?

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Yes. That wasn't a very good question.
20 What did you say during this meeting with 21 Virginia and her investigator?

22 A. Basically that I believed her, even though
23 I -- she never spoke to me specifically about what 24 was going on; that once I learned everything that 25 happened based on reading the police report, I

1 believed her side of the story.

2 Q. And did she tell you what her side of the 3 story was?

4 A. You know, just that she wasn't a liar;
5 that, you know, she was there to have sex with men
6 that Jeffrey wanted her to sleep with.

7 Q. Did she tell you in that meeting who she 8 had sex with?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did she name any of the famous people?

11 A. Only Dershowitz came up.

12 Q. Did you two talk about the incident in New 13 York with the puppet?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. And you formed this opinion about whether 16 she was a liar based on things that you've read in 17 the police report?

18 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: I formed my opinion based on 20 my experience in the house.

21 BY MS. MENNINGER:

22 Q. Okay. And what experience in the house
23 helped you form your opinion that what Virginia is 24 saying is true?

25 A. You know, Jeffrey being open with me about

1 A. Flight logs.

2 Q. Any other documents?

3 A. No.

4 Q. What did Ms. McCawley or Mr. Edwards or
5 any of the other lawyers say to you about Ghislaine
6 Maxwell?

7 A. They just asked impressions. They never
8 said anything about her.

9 Q. Were you shown a copy of any report that 10 came out of that interview?

11 A. Which interview?

12 Q. The one with the -- Virginia's attorneys.

13 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

14 THE WITNESS: No.

15 BY MS. MENNINGER:

16 Q. You testified earlier about an incident
17 with a camera that Ghislaine Maxwell had given you.
18 I want to ask you some questions about that.

19 A. Sure.

20 Q. Do you know when that was?

21 A. That was in 2002.

22 Q. And why does that date stick out?

23 A. Because I was living -- where I was living
24 specifically and where I had the phone call.

25 Q. Tell me what you remember about the

1 conversation.

2 A. I had been over to her house prior
3 massaging Jeffrey. And I got a phone call from her,
4 and she told me she had a camera for me for my 5 photography class, but yet, she couldn't give it to 6 me yet because during the massage I didn't finish my 7 job and she had to finish it for me.

8 Q. Did she say what she meant?

9 A. No, but I knew.

10 Q. Was there any other time that you had 11 discussed with her finishing your job?

12 A. Not that I recall.

13 Q. Any other time you just recall discussing 14 with her anything about your sexual contact with 15 Jeffrey?

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: No.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Did she give you the camera?

20 A. I did get the camera.

21 Q. Okay. When did she give you the camera?

22 A. I guess the next time I went to the house.

23 Q. What was said at that time?

24 A. I honestly don't know that she handed it
25 to me. I remember it being there for me.

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1 landing.

2 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

3 Q. Do you recall witnessing any sexual acts
4 on the plane?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did Emmy ever talk to you about performing 7 sexual acts on the plane?

8 A. No.

9 Q. We looked earlier at the police report,
10 and I just want to clarify, you identified some 11 areas where there were discrepancies in that report.

12 And you can take another look at it if you
13 want, but other than the discrepancies you pointed 14 out, is that a recollection of what you remember
15 telling the detective?

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, outside the
18 scope of cross.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. You mentioned that there was a time when 21 you noticed that Maxwell was around a little bit
22 less?

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. And I believe you said that was during the 25 middle of the time you were with Jeffrey.

1 Do you remember approximately when that
2 was year-wise?

3 A. I don't. I would say it was probably
4 sometime between 2003 and 2004.

5 Q. And what made you think that?

6 A. I just saw her less and less at the house.

7 Q. Were you there more at the house during 8 that time period?

9 A. No, not necessarily. It's just at the 10 beginning, she was around a lot. And then I would 11 see her occasionally without him. The one time we 12 spent a few days together in 2006, she wasn't there
13 at all.

14 Q. So you saw her in the -- is it fair to say
15 that you saw her in the 2005 and 2006 time frame?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Then we were talking about the photography
18 earlier and about the photographs.

19 Did Maxwell ever ask you to take nude
20 photos of yourself for Jeffrey?

21 A. She asked me to take photos of myself for 22 Jeffrey, yes.

23 Q. And did you do that?

24 A. I did not.

25 Q. And the photos that were around that were

1 in the bathroom, that you mentioned a couple of
2 times places that there were photos of you, who took 3 those?

4 A. He did.

5 Q. And when we were talking about the Palm
6 Beach house and you were describing an area where 7 there were just a lot of photographs, is it fair to 8 say that there could have been nude photographs
9 amongst those photos that you saw?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And earlier you testified that you don't 12 have knowledge of what happens behind closed doors,
13 but you also said that Jeffrey had told you what 14 other girls did for him and that he wanted you to do
15 those things for him.

16 Is it fair to say that you knew that other
17 girls were performing sexual acts?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, foundation,
20 form.

21 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

22 Q. And I know you mentioned previously that 23 your relationship and the interaction with him
24 progressed over time.

25 Did there come a time when you were

| 9 1 head or shake your head, and she can't take that down. 2 A All right. 3 Q It's also very easy to say uh-huh or huh-uh, 4 but it kind of looks the same on paper, so you can't do 5 that either. I'm going to wait until you finish your 6 answer, and you have to wait until I finish my question, 7 because if we talk over one another, then the court 8 reporter can't get it down. 9 A Okay. Yes, sir. 10 Q All right. So if you don't understand the 11 question, tell me you don't understand and I'll try to 12 ask a better question. 13 A Yes. 14 Q Okay. So you were hired in November of 2004 15 to be the housekeeper for Mr. Epstein? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And when you were hired, who exactly hired 18 you, who -- let me strike that. 19 When you were hired to be the housekeeper for 20 Mr. Epstein, who did you interview with? 21 A Ms. Maxwell. 22 Q Is that Ghislaine Maxwell or just 23 Laine Maxwell? 24 A Ghislaine Maxwell. 25 Q And where did the interview take place?                                                                                                    | 11 1 that it's clean and appropriately, what's this.. 2 Q And as I understand this property, there is a 3 main house and then there's also a staff house on the 4 property; is that right? 5 A Yes, sir. 6 Q And when the guests would come over, would you 7 stay in the main house, or would you go to the staff 8 house? 9 MR. REINHART: Can we get a time frame to the 10 question? 11 BY MR. EDWARDS: 12 Q Over the last five years while you worked 13 there. 14 A I usually stay in the staff house and do the 15 laundry, then I go to the kitchen and then tidy the 16 kitchen. 17 Q You were hired in November of 2004, and what 18 were your hours that you worked there back in November 19 of 2004 when you were hired? 20 A Eight to five. 21 Q How many days a week? 22 A Depends. 23 Q How would the schedule be relayed to you? 24 A When Mr. Epstein is there, then I'm supposed 25 to report, but usually it's five days a week.                                                                                     |
| 10 1 A At 358 El Brillo Way. 2 Q And what did Ms. Maxwell and you speak about 3 prior to your being hired as the housekeeper? 4 A My duties. 5 Q And what did she tell you your duties would 6 be? 7 A To tidy, to make beds, do laundry. 8 Q Did she tell you what would take place in the 9 house on a day-to-day basis? 10 A No. 11 Q So going into that position, you had no idea 12 who the guests would be or who the people coming in the 13 house would be, or what would generally go on? 14 A Can you simplify the question? 15 Q Sure. When you talked about with 16 Ghislaine Maxwell at this interview, your duties being 17 you would make the bed and tidy up, did she also tell 18 you that there would be a lot of guests, there would be 19 a few guests, did she talk to you about that at all? 20 A She mentioned that if there are guests, we 21 have to, like, you know, prepare the room, and, what's 22 this, attend to the guests. 23 Q And what did you understand that to mean that 24 you have to attend to the guests? 25 A You have to prepare the room and see to it | 12 1 Q So am I correct in understanding that there 2 was one schedule when Mr. Epstein was in town, and the 3 schedule may be a little bit different if Mr. Epstein 4 was out of town? 5 A Yes, sir. 6 Q All right. Tell me the differences when 7 Mr. Epstein is in town versus when Mr. Epstein was not 8 in town. 9 A If he stays like three or four days, then I'm 10 supposed to be there, and then the house is to be 11 cleaned. And then when they do not come, then I can 12 either go there, or I'm given free days off. 13 Q Three days off? 14 A No. A free day. 15 Q Oh, okay. But typically back in 2004 when you 16 were hired, you worked an average of about five days a 17 week; is that correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q All right. And I guess by the way that you're 20 explaining it, if Mr. Epstein was in town for a longer 21 period of time, you may work more than five days, and if 22 Mr. Epstein was not in town, you may work less than five 23 days? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Okay. Did you ever talk to Mr. Epstein prior |

| 13 1 to being hired? 2 A No, sir. 3 Q Where did this meeting, within the house where 4 did the meeting with Ghislaine Maxwell take place? 5 A In the living room. 6 Q Aside from telling you that you were going to 7 be required to make the beds and just generally tidy up, 8 did she specify anything else that you would be required 9 to do? 10 A No. 11 Q Where had you worked prior to working for 12 Mr. Epstein? 13 A I work as a certified nursing assistant. 14 Q Where? 15 A At that time I was doing private duty. 16 Q How long have you been a certified nursing 17 assistant? 18 A Since about ten years. 19 Q And what made you change professions from 20 being a certified nursing assistant to be a housekeeper 21 for Mr. Epstein? 22 A The agency called me that there is an 23 interview; if I like, I go to, so that's how it started. 24 Q And when you went to the interview, obviously 25 you're going to this very big house and you talked to | 15 1 Q Did she tell what you would be paid at that 2 time? 3 A Not yet. 4 Q Did you show up that Saturday? I guess that's 5 November 17th of 2004? 6 A No, that's not. 7 Q No. Was it prior to November 17th of 2004, or 8 after? 9 A After. 10 Q Okay. The interview that you first went to 11 was November 17th, 2004 with Ms. Maxwell; is that the 12 date that you gave us? 13 A I cannot remember. 14 Q The only reason I'm using that date is I 15 believe the question I asked was when did you start 16 working for Mr. Epstein, and I thought the date that you 17 gave me was November 17th, 2004. 18 A Yes. 19 Q Okay. And in the course of this whole thing, 20 it sounds like you interviewed with Ghislaine Maxwell, 21 there were other interviewees, you received a call and 22 you were asked to try out on a Saturday? 23 A Yes. 24 Q And where does that Saturday fall in related 25 to November 17th, 2004? |
| 14 1 Ghislaine Maxwell, right? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And did you decide right then that you liked 4 this and that you were going to change professions and 5 you were going to be his housekeeper? 6 A No. 7 Q Okay. Then walk me through that, how did you 8 go about eventually accepting the position? 9 A I didn't expect to be hired, because there 10 were other interviewers (sic), interview people that 11 were to be interviewed. 12 Q Okay. 13 A And then I receive a call from Ms. Maxwell if 14 I like, I can do a try-out. 15 Q Okay. Did she tell you how long this try-out 16 period would last? 17 A No. 18 Q And what did you tell her when she made that 19 offer for you to try out? 20 A I told her that I am still taking care of this 21 patient, so she said if you like, you can come Saturday 22 and try it. 23 Q Okay. And what did you tell her, did you 24 accept that? 25 A Yes, I did.                                                                | 16 1 A When I accepted the job offer. 2 Q Okay. And did they tell you at that time when 3 you accepted the job offer how much you were going to be 4 paid? 5 A Yes. 6 Q What was that? 7 A It was 32,000 per annum. 8 Q And has your salary increased over time? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q And can you walk us through the increments of 11 increase in your salary? 12 A It was promised yearly increase. 13 Q By whom? 14 A Ms. Maxwell. 15 Q Was that at the time when you were 16 interviewed, or took the job? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q Did she promise you what your yearly increase 19 would be? 20 A No. 21 Q And have you received a yearly increase every 22 year? 23 A I did. 24 Q And what has that yearly increase been? 25 A Up to 42.                                                                                                                                                                                        |

| 62 1 MR. CRITTON: Form, predicate. 2 THE WITNESS: 2006? After. 3 BY MR. EDWARDS: 4 Q Okay. And while you were up there with 5 Ghislaine Maxwell, did you talk to her about the 6 criminal investigation of Mr. Epstein? 7 A No, sir. 8 Q At any point in time when you were up there, 9 did she say to you or you overheard -- let me ask you 10 this way: Did she say to you that the allegations are 11 false -- 12 MR. CRITTON: Form. 13 BY MR. EDWARDS: 14 Q -- that are being made against him? 15 MR. CRITTON: Form. There's no predicate that 16 a discussion ever took place about anything. 17 THE WITNESS: There was no discussion about 18 that. 19 MR. EDWARDS: Mr. Critton, if you could just 20 object to the form. Obviously this witnesses just 21 takes your words and she's going to recite them to 22 me. If you want to say lack of predicate, okay, 23 fine. But to say no discussion took place and then 24 she says no discussion took place, we're leading 25 the witness here, it's obvious. | 64 1 A Yes. 2 Q While you were up there, during any of the 3 times that you were up there, did you have any 4 conversations with Ghislaine Maxwell? 5 A I think once. But it was oh, and what's this, 6 it was just oh, I'm sorry about the bad news. That's 7 it. 8 Q You said that? 9 A Because we have only, like, short 10 conversation, we just don't really, like, talk-talk. 11 Q When you're saying that a statement was made 12 I'm sorry about the bad news, who made the statement to 13 whom; she made it to you, or you made it to her? 14 A She made it. But that was -- I really cannot 15 remember how it was how, but it was, like, I'm sorry 16 about the news. 17 Q Okay. What news was she referring to when she 18 said to you I'm sorry to hear about the bad news? 19 A She not say anything. I just -- I do not say 20 anything about what the bad news is. 21 Q Okay. I guess what I'm asking is did you have 22 a death in the family or something happen to you 23 personally? Or why would she say this to you, if you 24 know? 25 A No. |

EDWARDS: 6 Q And did she elaborate on the news about 7 Mr. Epstein? 8 A No, sir. 9 Q During that conversation where she makes a 10 statement that she's sorry about the news, did she ever 11 tell you that the allegations being made against him are 12 false or unfounded or untrue? 13 MR. CRITTON: Form. 14 THE WITNESS: Our conversation was short. 15 BY MR. EDWARDS: 16 Q So the answer is no? 17 A No. 18 Q What is your understanding of 19 Ghislaine Maxwell's role in Jeffrey Epstein's life back 20 in 2004 and 2005 and 2006? 21 MR. CRITTON: Form. 22 THE WITNESS: She told me he was his boyfriend 23 (sic). 24 BY MR. EDWARDS: 25 Q Ghislaine Maxwell told you that                  | 67 1 Q What did she say when you answered the phone? 2 A Oh, she was happy. I was happy to hear her 3 voice. And then she said oh, she was also happy to -- 4 she was so nice on the phone. 5 Q What did she say? 6 A Oh, nice talking to you, Louella. 7 Q Then did she ask to speak to somebody else? 8 A To Mr. Epstein. 9 Q Aside from the telephone call one month ago, 10 how many times has she called the house in the last 11 year? 12 A That was my only, what's this, my -- the time 13 that I was answer the phone and it was Ms. Maxwell. 14 Q Do you know why she called Mr. Epstein? 15 A I do not know, sir. 16 Q Have you ever seen scheduling logs, either on 17 a computer or on paper, with girls' names on it and 18 numbers? 19 A No. No, sir. 20 Q Have you ever seen the names of these females 21 that are alleged to have been masseuses written on 22 anything? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q What have you seen them written on? 25 A I just saw names, and that's it.                       |
| 66 1 Jeffrey Epstein was her boyfriend? 2 A When I was hired. 3 Q And then over the next year and a half when 4 Jeffrey Epstein was in West Palm Beach, you only saw 5 Ghislaine Maxwell at the house approximately three 6 times? 7 A Yes, sir. 8 Q Did you still believe that Ghislaine Maxwell 9 and Jeffrey Epstein were boyfriend and girlfriend? 10 MR. CRITTON: Form. 11 THE WITNESS: At that time or what time? 12 BY MR. EDWARDS: 13 Q Yeah. Back then in 2004, 2005. 14 A Yes. 15 Q All right. Is it your understanding that they 16 are still boyfriend and girlfriend today? 17 A I don't know. 18 Q Ghislaine Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein, do they 19 still talk to one another today? 20 A I do not know, sir. 21 Q What is the last time that you talked to 22 Ghislaine Maxwell? 23 A She called the house and I answered the phone. 24 Q How long ago? 25 A About a month ago. | 68 1 Q Just the names, or the telephone numbers as 2 well? 3 MR. CRITTON: Form. 4 THE WITNESS: I cannot remember. 5 BY MR. EDWARDS: 6 Q Where did you see this? 7 A We have like butler's pantry and there's a 8 telephone there. 9 Q Is this in the staff house or the main house? 10 A No. The main house. 11 Q And do you know who wrote the names? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q How do you know that these were the names of 14 the females that were alleged to have been masseuses? 15 A Because there is time. 16 Q What do you mean, there is time? 17 A Sometimes name and then the time, that's it. 18 Q What does the time indicate? 19 A I cannot remember. 20 Q The time to you -- you know, I'm watching what 21 you're doing, but the court reporter is not able to draw 22 a picture of it. So I guess what I'm asking is you're 23 saying there is -- on the left-hand side there is a 24 name, and on the right-hand side corresponding to that 25 name there is a time written down? Is that what you |

| 81 1 A When I came back to report, that's how I 2 learned. 3 Q Elaborate on that for me. What do you mean, 4 when you came back to report that's how I learned? 5 A I reported in the afternoon, and then that's 6 how I learned that the police came. 7 Q All right. And when were you -- you're now 8 saying you came back to report and you learned that the 9 police had already come to the house, right? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q Prior to that occasion, when was the previous 12 time that you were at the house? 13 A The day before. 14 Q Okay. And the day before you left your shift 15 at roughly five o'clock? 16 A I cannot remember. I usually leave 5:00 or 17 5:30. 18 Q But sometime late in the afternoon? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And as of that time, the day before the search 21 warrant was issued, you had seen no police officers in 22 or around the house? 23 A No. 24 Q And then the next day you reported to the job 25 at what time? | 83 1 Q So are we talking about the day the police 2 went to Jeffrey Epstein's house you did not go in the 3 morning, but you went after lunch and the police had 4 already left? 5 A Oh. No. When I went there nobody was there, 6 no policemen were around. 7 Q Who was at the house then? 8 A Janusz, and Douglas, the architect. 9 Q Schoettle? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And did you have a discussion with them? 12 A No. 13 Q How did you know the police had been to the 14 house? 15 A Janusz told me. 16 Q When? 17 A When I arrive. 18 Q That's what I was asking you when I said did 19 you have a discussion with them, meaning Janusz and 20 Douglas. 21 A Okay. Being because them -- with Janusz only. 22 Q What did he say? 23 A He said the police came and, what's this, took 24 away some stuff. 25 Q Did he say what they took?                                                                          |
| 82 1 A The next day? 2 Q The next day. 3 A I report in the afternoon. 4 Q Was there a reason why you reported in the 5 afternoon? 6 A Ms. Maxwell called me. 7 Q When did she call you? 8 A During that day, she said Louella, you can 9 report in the afternoon. 10 Q She called you early in the morning? 11 A Not early. 12 Q Normally you would report to the house between 13 eight and nine o'clock, right? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q So in order for you not to arrive at the 16 house, she had to have called you before eight or 17 nine o'clock, right? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Okay. So approximately what time does 20 Ms. Maxwell call you to tell you you can report to the 21 house later on that day? 22 A I cannot remember really the time. 23 Q Okay. What time did you actually report to 24 the house? 25 A After lunch, about -- maybe after lunch.                                                                                             | 84 1 A He said pictures. 2 Q Did he tell you which pictures? 3 A No, sir. 4 Q Aside from pictures, what else did the police 5 take, as Janusz told you? 6 A He did not elaborate. 7 Q All right. Prior to the police going to the 8 house and taking pictures, do you remember seeing 9 pictures around Mr. Epstein's house? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Do you remember seeing pictures of naked or 12 nude females around Mr. Epstein's house? 13 A Not around, in his closet. 14 Q In Mr. Epstein's closet you would see -- 15 describe what you would see related to females in 16 pictures. 17 A Some have topless. 18 Q Is this a big closet? 19 A No. Not really big, it's just this big, not 20 so big. 21 Q Okay. Were these pictures that could be seen 22 by -- strike that. 23 Do you know of any other pictures of females 24 that were confiscated by the police that did not come 25 from Mr. Epstein's closet? |

Deposition of DAVID RODGERS, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

2 flyer person, then you would reduce it to an
3 initial?

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
5 foundation.

6 MR. REINHART: You can answer the
7 question.

8 You can answer the question, if you can
9 answer the question. You are allowed to answer
10 the question, if you understand the question.

11 BY MR. EDWARDS:

12 Q. I'm trying to understand your testimony.

13 Is it, if you came to know that person --

14 A. Uh-huh.

15 Q. -- as a frequent flyer passenger, you
16 would begin to reduce that person's name to an 17 initial at some point?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection.

19 THE WITNESS: Well, we don't really have a
20 frequent flyer program that we do, so to speak.
21 A lot of times I would do it because if you
22 would write out everybody's name there is not
23 enough space, you know, to get everybody's name
24 in that little square there.

2 Q. -- is that right?

3 And is that -- is Ghislaine Maxwell
4 somebody that through the years 1995 through 2013
5 was somebody who flew very frequently?

6 A. What were the years again?

7 Q. The years of this book, 1995 --

8 A. I wouldn't say through 2013. But, yes,
9 '95 through 2000 sometime. Probably, I would have 10 to go back and -- well, you can see in there.

11 Q. We will get to it.

12 A. There will be a point where you don't see 13 her much. But to say it went through 2013 would not 14 be accurate.

15 Q. Let's do it this way: The person that you
16 have reflected on numerous notations --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- through here as GM --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- just by the initials, are we able to 21 safely know that that is Ghislaine Maxwell?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
24 foundation.

25 MR. EDWARDS: Court reporter, did you get

2 the answer?

3 THE REPORTER: Yes. The answer came
4 before the objection.

5 BY MR. EDWARDS:

6 Q. So on the next flight, the next day, from 7 Palm Beach to SAF. Is SAF Santa Fe?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And it indicates JE and GM.

10 Are we able to then know that those 11 passengers on that flight were Jeffrey Epstein and 12 Ghislaine Maxwell?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
15 foundation.

16 BY MR. EDWARDS:

17 Q. And where would you land at SAF? Is that 18 an airport?

19 A. It is an airport.

20 Q. Is it a private airport?

21 A. No. It's -- airlines go in there.

22 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein also have a landing
23 strip at his property in New Mexico?

24 A. He did at one time.

25 Q. What would that -- do you remember what

2 that code would be?

3 A. I don't believe there was a code.

4 Q. All right. Were there times that you
5 landed either the Gulfstream or the Boeing --

6 A. No.

7 Q. No.

8 MR. REINHART: Let him finish the question
9 before you answer.

10 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry.

11 BY MR. EDWARDS:

1 written down anywhere?
 2 A. No.
 3 Q. It's my understanding that C. and T.
 4 either came to his house alone to visit with Mr.
 5 Epstein or brought other girls in their age group
 6 to Mr. Epstein.
 7 Were you familiar with that type of
 8 recruitment process of girls bringing other girls?
 9 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 10 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 11 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 12 Q. Can you tell me more about what you know
 13 about girls bringing other girls that are 14 relatively the same age to come to Jeffrey
 15 Epstein's house and to use your words, have a good
 16 time?
 17 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 18 THE WITNESS: It's hard to know who they 19 knew. But I think that was -- they feel
 20 better themselves when they're in a group
 21 than going by themselves, but I don't know
 22 somebody recruiting.
 23 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 24 Q. Okay. And you've talked about, at least 25 referred to yourself I believe to the police and

1 for now we'll call it a massage -- as well as 2 anybody who brought that person over to the house,
 3 they would both get paid cash. Are you familiar
 4 with that?
 5 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 6 THE WITNESS: No.
 7 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 8 Q. If C. brought another girl over to the 9 house and C. stayed downstairs but this other girl
 10 went upstairs with Mr. Epstein, which one would 11 you pay?
 12 A. I don't know because I was told who to 13 pay.
 14 Q. And Sarah Kellen always told you?
 15 A. Sarah told me pay so and so.
 16 Q. So if we were going to ask anybody else
 17 about the exact method in terms of who would get 18 paid and for what, who would the people be? I
 19 mean, other than Mr. Epstein who else could we ask
 20 these questions?
 21 A. Sarah.
 22 Q. Sarah Kellen?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. She would know this?
 25 A. Yes.

1 as well today as a human ATM machine. Right?
 2 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 3 THE WITNESS: Something like that. I was
 4 supposed to carry cash at all times.
 5 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 6 Q. One of the primary reasons why you
 7 carried cash was to pay the girls in this age
 8 group of C. and T. for whatever happened at the 9 house. Right?
 10 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 11 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 12 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 13 Q. That's a fair statement. Right?
 14 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 15 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 16 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 17 Q. Okay. And when C., let's use her for 18 example, would bring somebody else to the house,
 19 did you pay C. as well as whomever she brought to 20 the house, pay them both?
 21 A. No, I pay only one person.
 22 Q. Okay. My understanding, and tell me if 23 this is wrong or you can corroborate this, is that 24 Mr. Epstein would pay the girl that was actually
 25 performing whatever was happening in the room --

1 Q. What about Ghislaine Maxwell?
 2 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 3 THE WITNESS: You're talking about the
 4 boss. I don't know.
 5 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 6 Q. To your knowledge was Ghislaine Maxwell
 7 aware of these girls that are in the age group of 8 C. and T. coming to Jeffrey Epstein's house to 9 have a good time?
 10 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 11 THE WITNESS: I have to say something.
 12 Mrs. Maxwell called me and told me not to 13 ever discuss or contact her again in a
 14 threaten way.
 15 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 16 Q. When was this?
 17 A. Right after I left because I call one of 18 the friends for a job and she told me this, but,
 19 you know, I feel intimidated and so I want to keep 20 her out.
 21 Q. What exactly did she say? First of all,
 22 was this a telephone call?
 23 A. Yes, she was in New York.
 24 Q. She called you on your cell phone?
 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Is this the cell phone that was issued to
2 you by Mr. Epstein?
3 A. No, it was my personal phone. I was
4 already --
5 Q. Gone?
6 A. Yeah, this is three, four months down the 7 road.
8 Q. So if you left in --
9 A. February, March -- it was May or June.
10 Q. Of 2005?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And you got a call from Ghislaine Maxwell
13 out of the blue?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And do you know what prompted that 16 telephone call?
17 A. Because I contact somebody in New York to 18 get a job.
19 Q. Who was that person?
20 A. I contact Jean-Luc and I contact Eva, the 21 Swedish girl, she used to be very good friends
22 with Mr. Epstein because she asked me she need
23 somebody in New York.
24 Q. What does Eva do?
25 A. Eva was a model many years ago and he

1 precisely did she say?
2 A. She said I forbid you that you're going
3 to be -- that I will be sorry if I contact any of 4 her friends again.
5 Q. Okay. Other than you will be sorry if
6 you contact any of my friends again did she say
7 anything else about what you know about Mr.
8 Epstein and/or what goes on at his house?
9 A. She said something like don't open your 10 mouth or something like that. But you have to 11 understand, I'm a civil humble, I came as an 12 immigrant to service people, and right now you
13 feel a little -- I'm 55 and I'm afraid. First of 14 all, I don't have a job, but I'm glad this is on 15 tape because I don't want nothing to happen to me.
16 This is the way they treat you, better do this and 17 you shut up and don't talk to nobody and --
18 Q. When you say this is the way they treat,
19 who specifically are you talking about when you
20 say the word they?
21 A. Maxwell.
22 Q. And usually when you say the word they,
23 you're not only talking about one person --
24 A. Wealthy people.
25 Q. Are you also putting Jeffrey Epstein in

1 married -- Eva is the mother of the girl who was
2 on the wall.
3 Q. Who is on the wall of Mr. Epstein's
4 house?
5 A. Yeah.
6 Q. All right. There is a younger girl model
7 that's on the wall of Mr. Epstein's house and this
8 lady Eva is her mother?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And at some point in time you called her
11 in New York to get a job?
12 A. That's right.
13 Q. And you also called Jean-Luc Bernell?
14 That's his name. Right?
15 A. Jean-Luc, yeah, I don't remember his last 16 name.
17 Q. Does that sound familiar to you, Jean-Luc
18 Bernell?
19 A. Yeah.
20 Q. What did Eva and/or Jean-Luc say about 21 employing you?
22 A. No, they said they're going to find out
23 and obviously the first thing they did was talk to 24 Mrs. Maxwell.
25 Q. She made a telephone call to you and what

1 that category?
2 MR. CRITTON: Form.
3 THE WITNESS: I didn't talk to him
4 directly most of the time.
5 BY MR. EDWARDS:
6 Q. What's the reason why if you were his
7 head of security that you wouldn't have more
8 direct contact with him? Why is that?
9 MR. CRITTON: Form.
10 THE WITNESS: He wanted that way, you
11 know, so, yeah, I have to talk to Sarah,
12 Sarah is not available talk to Lesley in New 13 York. He didn't want to be disturbed.
14 BY MR. EDWARDS:
15 Q. Even while you were in the same house
16 with him he still had other people you could talk
17 to directly but he was not one of them?
18 A. Yeah.
19 Q. When you were fired you were not fired
20 directly by him?
21 A. No.
22 Q. It was through somebody else?
23 A. Ms. Maxwell.
24 Q. Okay. But it was for upsetting him for 25 taking the wrong car?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. Okay. Ever since this communication that
 3 Ms. Maxwell made to you where she called you
 4 sometime in May or June of 2005, and have you felt
 5 threatened?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 8 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 9 Q. Have you felt reluctant to come forward
 10 and give truthful, honest, and full disclosure of 11 all information that you know about this case?
 12 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 13 THE WITNESS: I said this off the record
 14 but I will say it on the record, being in 15 the Epstein case for me resulted in two 16 years I have -- I won't bring the names but 17 I was in the third interview to get hired as 18 a household manager in Palm Beach and they
 19 told me you are the Jeffrey Epstein guy.
 20 Not in the sense I did something wrong
 21 because of the scandal, so they shun the job
 22 away from me. And so I was afraid that --
 23 this is very powerful people and one phone
 24 call and you finish, so I'm the little guy.
 25 Even I'm wearing a tie I'm a -- I'm talking

1 this. Because I went through -- the first
 2 time I went to the deposition I was in Palm
 3 Beach and I did my duty, I mean, I tell what
 4 I know, but now I know there is more
 5 digging, all I want is this to be to get on 6 with my normal life and stuff.
 7 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 8 Q. So when you come here today to testify,
 9 your main objective is to get back to your normal
 10 life and get out of the spotlight of this case.
 11 Yes?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. And in doing so have you held back some 14 of the details that you know about that happened
 15 in this case to remove yourself from the 16 spotlight?
 17 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 18 THE WITNESS: No, sir.
 19 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 20 Q. Okay. Have you ever talked to Ghislaine
 21 Maxwell after that telephone call where she called 22 you and you felt threatened?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. Okay. So going back to where we started
 25 here was, does Ghislaine Maxwell have knowledge of

1 from my heart. This is the way it is.
 2 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 3 Q. I feel for you, I'm sorry that you have
 4 to be in this position.
 5 MR. CRITTON: Move to strike this.
 6 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 7 Q. Well, when you applied for these jobs and 8 they turned you down and gave you the reason that 9 you're the person involved in the Jeffrey Epstein 10 scandal, was it that they are associated or 11 friends with Jeffrey Epstein or is it that you
 12 have information and you have this confidentiality
 13 but you're revealing some certain information that 14 Mr. Epstein would not like?
 15 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 16 THE WITNESS: Both.
 17 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 18 Q. Both?
 19 A. Both.
 20 Q. And since then given what you just told
 21 us about these people being very powerful, are you
 22 afraid for your life given the fact that you're 23 involved to some extent in this case?
 24 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 25 THE WITNESS: I just start thinking about

1 the girls that would come over to Jeffrey
 2 Epstein's house that are in roughly the same age
 3 group as C. and T. and to have a good time as you
 4 put it?
 5 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 6 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 7 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 8 Q. And what was her involvement and/or 9 knowledge about that?
 10 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 11 THE WITNESS: She knew what was going on.
 12 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 13 Q. You referred to her at one point in time
 14 as Jeffrey Epstein's companion. But then later on 15 you said that if she flew she flew on a different 16 airplane and oftentimes or sometimes she slept in 17 a different bed from Mr. Epstein. Did that seem 18 unusual to you?
 19 MR. CRITTON: Form.
 20 THE WITNESS: It was odd but, I mean, and 21 again, everything is odd in Palm Beach.
 22 BY MR. EDWARDS:
 23 Q. Okay, I don't mean to laugh.
 24 A. Mr. Epstein fly to Jet Aviation, she fly
 25 to Galaxy Aviation, but they never flew the same

1 BY MR. LANGINO:

2 Q. Are you currently in fear of Mr. Epstein?

3 A. Not at this particular moment but it's
4 something I have to be worry about, yes.

5 Q. Are you personally afraid of criminal
6 prosecution?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you believe that you did anything
9 illegal?

10 A. Illegal, no.

11 MR. LANGINO: I have no further
12 questions. Thank you.

13 MR. CRITTON: We're going to break in 14 about 15 minutes. Do you want to start and 15 go for 15 minutes or do you want to -- it's 16 up to you.

17 MS. EZELL: I'll start.

18 MR. WILLITS: When are we going to quit,
19 folks?

20 MR. CRITTON: In 15 minutes.

21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Might as well change
22 tapes.

23 MR. EDWARDS: Bob has to get back so
24 we've agreed we're going to come back some 25 other time.

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre (“Ms. Giuffre”), by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Response in Opposition to Defendant’s Motion to Compel and her baseless Motion for Sanctions (DE 354).

I. INTRODUCTION

For the third time, Defendant attempts to elevate a routine discover dispute into something over which she seeks sanctions, despite the complete lack of a basis for sanctions and a complete lack of case law supporting her request.<sup>1</sup> All three of Defendant’s requests for sanctions have been frivolous, legally unreasonable, without factual foundation, and for an improper purpose. Rule 11 provides for the imposition of sanctions in those circumstances. See Elghanian v. Schachter, 1997 WL 607546, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. 1997) (Sweet, J.)

Indeed, in Defendant’s entire “argument” for sanctions, she only cites one case - a case from the District of the District of Columbia - for the proposition that Plaintiff should be sanctioned because her interrogatory responses were unsigned.<sup>2</sup> However, Defendant’s interrogatory responses are also unsigned. Defendant’s thirty-seven page brief is riddled with these half-truths in a grasping attempt to distort reality as the documentary and testimonial evidence piles up against her. By Defendant’s logic, Ms. Giuffre should have already moved for sanctions against Defendant for Defendant’s unsigned interrogatories, but unlike Defendant, Ms. Giuffre would not burden the Court with a frivolous request for sanctions.

II. DEFENDANT’S ENTIRE MOTION SHOULD BE DENIED

Defendant’s motion violates Local Rule 37.1, and should be denied for that reason before the Court even reaches the merits. Local Rule 37.1 states that, “upon any motion or application involving discovery or disclosure requests or responses under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37, the moving party shall specify and quote or set forth verbatim in the motion papers each discovery request and response to which the motion or application is addressed.” For the majority of discovery items upon which Defendant moves, Defendant has wholly failed to do this. Instead, Defendant edits out a great deal of Ms. Giuffre’s answers and objections to the interrogatories, skipping entire data sets put forth in response to the interrogatories, and skipping Ms. Giuffre most cogent objections.

This is improper conduct. Upon a motion to compel, a Court is called upon to evaluate the discovery requests as well as the responses and objections. Local Rule 37.1 is designed to protect against the exact type of self-serving editing of the opposing party’s objections that Defendant has done in this brief. Accordingly, the Court should deny Defendant’s motion in its entirety for failure to comply with Local Rule 37.1. See Blodgett v. Siemens Industry, Inc., 2016 WL 4203490, at *1 (E.D.N.Y., 2016) (denying motion without prejudice for failure to comply with Local Rule 37.1 (which is the same rule in the Eastern District of New York)).

III. MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES SHOULD BE DENIED

A. Interrogatory No. 5

1. Ms. Giuffre’s Counsel’s Communications With the Media Are Outside the Scope of Rule 26 and Any Attempt at Collection Would be Unduly Burdensome

Interrogatory No. 5 seeks a catalogue of Ms. Giuffre and her counsel’s communications with the media, broadly defined, and without limitation of time or subject matter. First, the interrogatory request should be denied because Ms. Giuffre already produced her communications with the media, which included production of close to 200 e-mails. Despite having these key communications, Defendant is now pushing for all communications that any of her counsel ever had with any media without any time or subject matter limitation. The search for, and production of, all communications involving her counsel and the media is unduly burdensome and wholly irrelevant. Given the nature of Ms. Giuffre's counsel's practices, the media reach out to Ms. Giuffre's counsel frequently, regarding a number of issues, and none of Ms. Giuffre's counsel catalogue or record any of these communications. Complete retrieval would be inordinately burdensome. Even Defendant's more limited request put forth in the instant motion seeking communications with the media regarding this case is overly broad. This would require a marshaling of enormous resources, and under Rule 26(b)(1), there is no need expressed by Defendant to justify this heavy burden. Notably, Defendant has deposed Ms. Giuffre in detail on topics relating to media inquiries and she also has of Ms. Giuffre's e-mail communications with the media produced by Ms. Giuffre. This request should be denied on these grounds alone.

Though she claims Ms. Giuffre's counsel's communications with the media somehow go to her defenses, tellingly, Defendant fails to explain how they do, or put forth any case law in support this proposition. Additionally, there's no explanation (or case law) as to how any such communications could go to Defendant's damages. Defendant does not explain and does not elaborate. Defendant has failed to articulate relevance or any supporting case law for this discovery, and the request should be denied for this reason as well.

2. Defendant is Already in Possession of Ms. Giuffre's Communications With the Media

Regarding Ms. Giuffre's communications with the media, Defendant already has them. And, importantly, Defendant didn't have to hunt and peck for these communications, as she is trying to lead the Court to believe. Ms. Giuffre's communications with the media consist of email communications between Ms. Giuffre and Sharon Churcher, and Ms. Giuffre and Jarred

Weissfeld. The overwhelming majority of them were produced in her second rolling production and continued on a rolling basis through the fifth production (all of which were small productions). Specifically, there are approximately 175 of these documents, and all were produced within a narrow Bates range.<sup>3</sup> Defendant had knowledge of these documents as soon as Ms. Giuffre produced them. Moreover, these documents are featured in Defendant's briefs, Defendant issued subpoenas to both Sharon Churcher and Jarred Weissfeld months ago, and Defendant has deposed Ms. Giuffre about her media contacts. See McCawley Decl. at Composite Exhibit 1, Defendant's May 31, 2016, Subpoenas to Churcher and Weissfeld.

Yet, Defendant cited a number of cases wherein discovery was buried amid voluminous productions so as to be hidden or to cause delayed or cumbersome discovery of them. They are inapposite. Defendant didn't have to "comb through literally thousands of pages of documents" to "find" these. Again, they were presented to Defendant in small production batches, starting with the second production. Moreover, Defendant can gather all of these documents via an electronic search with a simple keystroke.

By suggesting to the Court that Ms. Giuffre's communications with the media were somehow hidden or buried in her production, Defendant makes an argument in bad faith. Indeed, Defendant's argument is tantamount to making a false representation to the Court.

Finally, all of these communications were email communications. So, on their face, they tell Defendant "the date of any such Communication;" "the form of any such Communication, whether oral or written and if written, the format of any such Communication;" "the identities of all the persons involved in such Communication" (this is revealed from the to/from/cc lines); and the other data. Defendant also knows, very well, the identities of the individuals involved

(including the identity of the organization with which they are affiliated), particularly as the communicators each received one of Defendant's subpoenas.

At the end of the day, the only thing Ms. Giuffre could do to answer this any more than she already has is to go through the burdensome and redundant exercise of writing down, for each of the approximately 175 emails, (1) the fact that it is an email; (2) what name appears in the "to" field; (3) what name appears in the "from" field; (4) what name appears in the "cc" field; and (5) what date appears on the email. Ms. Giuffre submits to the Court that making such a catalogue is a redundant exercise that is not appropriate under Rule 26(b)(1) which, under the 2015 amendment, takes into account "the parties' relative access to relevant information." Ms. Giuffre also submits to the Court that moving to compel Ms. Giuffre to make such a list based on documents she already produced to the Defendant is frivolous and a waste of resources.

B. Interrogatory No. 6

Defendant's Interrogatory No. 6 seeks any "false statements" attributed to Defendant that were published. Defendant also seeks the date, place, and form of publication, publishing entity, the URL address, etc., of all such statements. Ms. Giuffre knows, with certainty, of certain statements made by Defendant, and, together, they are the subject of this action. Ms. Giuffre made a listing of various websites that published those statements in response to this interrogatory. This compilation was part of Ms. Giuffre's interrogatory answer that Defendant misleadingly omits from her motion in violation of Local Rule 37.1. Based upon Ms. Giuffre's answer, there is nothing else to compel. Yet, Defendant moves to compel answers that Ms. Giuffre does not have.

Specifically, Ms. Giuffre does not have the knowledge (and certainly does not have the documents relating to) every time Defendant may have defamed her. That is information that lies solely in the possession of the Defendant. Indeed, Ms. Giuffre sought this very information from Defendant in her Requests Nos. 17 and 18, in which she requested documents “concerning any statement made by You or on Your behalf to the press or any other group or individual, including draft statements, concerning Ms. Giuffre, by You, Ross Gow, or any other individual, from 2005 to the present, including the dates of any publications, and if published online, the Uniform Resource Identifier (URL) address” and “all documents concerning which individuals or entities You or Your agents distributed or sent any statements concerning Ms. Giuffre referenced in Request No. 17 made by You or on Your behalf.” Defendant objected to these requests and refused to produce any documents. Ms. Giuffre’s motion to compel is pending.

As stated above, Ms. Giuffre knows that Defendant defamed her through the statement issued on her behalf by Ross Gow, and she knows Defendant defamed her when she affirmed that statement on video the next day in New York. But, she doesn’t know all Defendant’s defamatory statements, nor does she know where Defendant made them, or to whom she issued them. Defendant is trying to turn logic on its head with this request which, essentially, says: “You tell me the people to whom I have sent my own defamatory statements.” Indeed, Defendant’s own language belies her argument. In the instant brief, Defendant says: “The interrogatory required Plaintiff, among other things, to provide each “exact false statement” that she attributes to Ms. Maxwell and that was published anywhere in the world.” How Ms. Giuffre can know every person to whom Defendant made defamatory statements is unexplained. For example, if Defendant took her defamatory statements to a media outlet that chose not to publish them, there is no way for Ms. Giuffre to know that. The only person who knows the full extent of Defendant’s defamation of Ms. Giuffre is defendant, which is why Ms. Giuffre sent her a request for the same information.

However, to make a good faith effort of a response, Ms. Giuffre compiled many examples of Defendant's defamation, examples that were absent from Defendant's brief, in contravention of Rule 37.1:

The allegations made by Victoria Roberts against Ghislaine Maxwell are untrue. The original allegations are not new and have been fully responded to and shown to be untrue. Each time the story is re told it changes with new salacious details about public figures and world leaders and now: it is alleged by Ms. Roberts that Alan Dershowitz is involved in having sexual relations with her, which he denies. Ms. Roberts's claims are obvious lies and should be treated as such and not publicized as news, as they are defamatory, Ghislaine Maxwell's original response to the lies and defamatory claims remains the same. Maxwell strongly denies allegations of an unsavoury nature, which have appeared in the British press and elsewhere and reserves her right to seek redress at the repetition of such old defamatory claims. |

Spending hours trolling the Internet for additional examples of entities that have published Defendant's defamatory statements is not appropriate under Rule 26(b)(1), which takes into account "whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs the likely benefit." Here, scouring the Internet for additional examples of the publication of the defamatory statements that are already known (and, illogically, for those that are unknown) is not an appropriate discovery request.

If Defendant would respond to Ms. Giuffre's requests, Ms. Giuffre would be able to answer this interrogatory in full. Only Defendant has access to a comprehensive list of her defamatory statements and of the outlets to which she distributed them. Indeed, as the Court knows from the documents it reviewed in camera and found were not privileged, Defendant and Dershowitz were regularly communicating regarding how best to attack Ms. Giuffre.

Accordingly, the Court should deny Defendant's motion

C. Interrogatory No. 7

This interrogatory seeks a catalogue of all of defamatory statements made against Ms. Giuffre. This Interrogatory calls for a legal conclusion as to what statements constitute "defamation," and is, thus, improper, particularly as it is not limited to what has already been determined to be defamatory. Specifically, this interrogatory calls for Ms. Giuffre to search for any statements made about her, throughout the internet and other sources, and determine whether or not they constitute defamation. Accordingly, this request is overly broad. See December 29, 2005 Discovery Order, American Civil Liberties Union, et. al. v. Alberto R. Gonzales, No. 98--5591, at p. 6 (E.D. Pa. Dec. 29, 2005) (“I find that interrogatory P is over-broad because it is not limited to speech defendant has already determined to be ‘harmful to minors’ under COPA but appears to command defendant to search for all speech over the entire internet and determine whether it is harmful to minors. As a result, defendant need not response to plaintiffs’ interrogatory P.”), at McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, for ease of reference.

Alan Dershowitz is the only other known person to defame Ms. Giuffre. As with Interrogatory No. 5, there is no way for Ms. Giuffre to know the full extent of Alan Dershowitz’s defamation of her. She knows that he has called her a “prostitute” and a “bad mother” during his press conferences. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 3, Local 10 News article dated January 22, 2015. But, Ms. Giuffre does not know the full extent of Alan Dershowitz’s defamation, nor has she conducted legal analysis regarding any such defamation.

Any party could attempt a Google search of such things to locate certain sources on the internet, but that is not what is contemplated by Rule 26(b)(1), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as such an exercise is unduly burdensome, and such information is well outside of Ms. Giuffre’s possession, custody, and control. Moreover, only Alan Dershowitz (Defendant’s joint defense partner) knows the comprehensive list of his defamatory statements and of the outlets to which he distributed them. Rule 26(b)(1) limits the scope of discovery based on an evaluation of “the parties’ relative access to relevant information.” As Dershowitz himself has admitted, he is actively involved with Defendant in this litigation. Defendant’s access to this information relative to Ms. Giuffre’s is unparalleled. It is unduly burdensome for Ms. Giuffre to troll the internet for any instances of Dershowitz defaming her. He is not a party to this action. And, Ms. Giuffre's single count of defamation does not allege in facts in relation to Dershowitz. Accordingly, the Court should deny Defendant's motion.

D. Interrogatory No. 8

Defendant seeks a list of all the individuals to whom Epstein trafficked Ms. Giuffre. Under Local Rule 33.3 interrogatories "may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition, or (2) if ordered by the Court." Defendant has already lit upon "a more practical method of obtaining the information sought." She asked Ms. Giuffre for this information in her deposition. Moreover, Dershowitz, Defendant's joint defense partner, asked for this information when he took her deposition, and Ms. Giuffre produced that deposition transcript to Defendant.

This request is redundant, as this information has already been sought and Ms. Giuffre responded to questions at her May 3, 2016, deposition. See, e.g., May 3, 2016, Giuffre Dep. Tr. at 192-193, 200; 14; 191-193; 193-194; 201-202; 2020-203; 204; January 16, 2016, Giuffre Dep. Tr. at 15; 34; 50-51; 24; 41; 45; 51-54; 6; 38; 24-25; 18-19; 21; 61; 17-18; 20-21; 33; 18; 15-16; and 21.

E. Interrogatory No. 13

1. Ms. Giuffre Has Answered Interrogatory No. 13 Completely

As discussed above, Defendant's entire motion violates Local Rule 37.1, but she does so most egregiously here. This interrogatory seeks Ms. Giuffre's health care provider for any physical, mental, or emotional condition, prior to the Defendant's defamation. Defendant does not include Ms. Giuffre's hard-won and fulsome answer, which includes a bevy of providers going back many years. The reason for Defendant's Rule violation with regard to this interrogatory is quite obvious, and done in bad faith. Ms. Giuffre listed every physician known to her. The list is extensive. It looked like this:

“Health Care Providers known to Ms. Giuffre who may have provided treatment subsequent to the defamation are as follows<sup>4</sup>:

<sup>7</sup> On information and belief, this occurred after 1999 and prior to the January 3, 2015 defamation. Based on the uncertainty of the exact date, Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to revise, amend, and supplement her responses to Interrogatories 12 and 13.

<sup>8</sup> Records from Medicare Australia are generally limited to 3 years. Ms. Giuffre is continuing to pursue additional records from prior to July 19, 2013 through their offices in Australia.

<sup>9</sup> Ms. Giuffre has now identified Dr. Wah Wah San and Dr. Wah San to be the same provider to the best of her knowledge. She had previously listed both names.

Additionally, since Ms. Giuffre served this answer, she has learned of three other physicians who may have treated her, and have served Defendant with that information:

- Dr. Timothy D. Hartwig, D.O. was identified in records produced by CVS pharmacy. Ms. Giuffre has requested those records, see GIUFFRE008346-8348.
- Dr. James T. Nichols, M.D. was identified in records produced by CVS pharmacy. Ms. Giuffre has requested those records, see GIUFFRE008349-8351.
- Dr. Rodolfo Torres Jr., M.D. was identified in records produced by CVS pharmacy. Ms. Giuffre has requested those records, see GIUFFRE008352-8354.

Local Rule 37.1 exists for a reason. These answers are nowhere in Defendant's brief. Ms. Giuffre is not withholding any medical records after 1999, including her pediatric records. The Court should deny Defendant's request.

2. This Court Has Already Ruled Against Defendant on Pre-1999 Medical Records, so Defendant is Estopped From Bringing This Argument regarding Interrogatory No. 13

Defendant makes another argument bad faith. Defendant tries to argue - to the very Court that held otherwise - that medical records are discoverable prior to 1999. That is false. That was not the Court's holding. The Court already, and specifically, rejected Defendant's argument:

MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, the next topic are plaintiff's medical records.

THE COURT: I think I understand that. There is one thing, though. Are there any pre '99 medical records?

MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, the case law is quite clear that injuries that were preexisting --

THE COURT: I'm sorry. Excuse me. Go ahead.

THE COURT: What's the basis of your statement that we will call it the flashback?

MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I believe --

THE COURT: Because, quite frankly, I was unaware of that. Is that my error? Are you telling me something that's not quite right?

***

THE COURT: . . . The medical records of the period '99 to 2002 will be produced and the plaintiff will indicate whether that production is complete or, if it isn't complete, when it will be complete.

As for the pre-'99 medical records, based on where we are at the moment, I do not believe that those are relevant. Because the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation. If that changes in any way, I will revisit that issue.

April 21, 2106 Hr. Tr. at 11:15-12:25; 20:17-25.

Nothing since the hearing has changed. Ms. Giuffre has not added a claim or a new category of damages or made any representations concerning her pre-1999 medical history. The Court has heard Defendant's argument, and correctly rejected it. Defendant puts forth no new argument or facts that should disturb this ruling.

Defendant tries to argue that she only wants the "names" of the physicians, and not the records. This argument is fatally flawed. The names of Ms. Giuffre's physicians are necessarily part of her medical records. Additionally, the identity of a physician's name also gives information regarding the type of medical treatment Ms. Giuffre received, particularly if that physician is specialist or works within a certain field.

██████████ The tail is already wagging the dog regarding Ms. Giuffre’s search for, and production of, her medical records from 1999 to the present, the overwhelming majority of which are not at all relevant to this defamation case. Again, this Court held that Ms. Giuffre does not have to disclose her pre-1999 medical records, and Defendant gives no reason to disturb that ruling. Defendant is thus estopped from making this argument.

3. Interrogatory No. 13 is Disallowed Under New York Law

████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████
████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████████ Being granted some medical discovery is not unlimited under New York law. See, e.g., Manassis v. New York City Dep’t of Transp., No. 02 CIV. 359SASDF, 2002 WL 31115032, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 24, 2002) (concluding that “ability to pursue discovery regarding [plaintiff’s] medical records should be limited in some manner”); Evanko v. Electronic Systems Assoc., Inc., No. 91 Civ. 2851, 1993 WL 14458 at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 8, 1993) (applying the New York state physician-patient privilege, and holding that where plaintiff claimed that she suffered emotional distress, defendants did not have “a license to rummage through all aspects of the plaintiff’s life in search of a possible source of stress or distress,” including plaintiff’s medical records) (emphasis added); Wachtman v. Trocaire College, 532 N.Y.S.2d 943, 944 (N.Y. App. Div. 1988) (holding that the scope of a waiver of the physician-patient privilege in personal injury cases is “limited and does not permit discovery of information involving unrelated illnesses and treatment”). Even in a personal injury action (as opposed to a defamation action), the opposing party does not have carte blanche access to all medical records. See Sgambellone v.

Wheatley, 165 Misc.2d 954, 958, 630 N.Y.S.2d 835, 838 (N.Y. Sup.Ct. 1995) (holding that in a personal injury action, plaintiff's waiver of the physician-patient privilege "is not a wholesale waiver of all information about the plaintiff's entire physical and mental conditions but a waiver only of the physical and/or mental condition that is affirmatively placed in controversy")).

4. Interrogatory No. 13 is Overly Burdensome

Defendant's request for Ms. Giuffre's pediatric medical records is also overly burdensome. Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, if requested documents are not yielded in a "reasonable inquiry," Ms. Giuffre is not obligated to expend all of her time and resources on a quest to gather medical files from her birth to the present. Defendant wrongly suggests that it is only burdensome because her "mental condition was so complex or required so much medical attention that it would be unduly burdensome for her to 'track down' all her medical providers." This is mere fiction, like much of Defendant's brief, but even Defendant's fictitious argument cuts against her request: she admits it is burdensome. At any rate, Ms. Giuffre made no such claim about the nature of the burden. It is one thing for Defendant to argue the law, but it is improper to make up facts. Ms. Giuffre's claim of burden is based on the fact that it is burdensome for anyone to track down pediatric medical records from one's childhood because such records are hard if not impossible to find. Like all children, as a child, Ms. Giuffre was not responsible for seeking, arranging, paying for, or managing her health care. She does not remember any physicians or their names or any treatments.<sup>10</sup> There is no practicable or non-burdensome way of obtaining that information. This Court already denied this request for good reason.

<sup>10</sup> Ms. Giuffre has provided pediatric records that she was able to collect from the time period she was with Defendant an Epstein including an emergency hospital visit when Ms. Giuffre was underage that Defendant and Epstein took her to in New York City.

Defendant's request for pediatric records is also overly-broad because, as this Court correctly noted, Ms. Giuffre is not seeking damages based on anything prior to Defendant abusing her. Defendant has told the Court that before she was sexually trafficked her as a minor, Tellingly, Defendant does not state upon what basis she makes the claim that they are relevant, nor does she say what relevance it has on Defendant's defamation of her in 2015. Of course, Defendant has no supporting case law.

Finally, Ms. Giuffre does not allege that she was trafficked by Defendant in 1999. Through discovery, Ms. Giuffre has been able to obtain documents that established that Defendant trafficked her starting in the summer 2000. Ms. Giuffre was 16 until August 9 of 2000, and was 17 thereafter. Defendant seems to think that it is much better, or even excusable to traffic a 16 or 17 year old than a 15 year old. Maxwell Dep. Tr. 33:3-4 (April 22, 2016) ("Virginia Roberts who your [sic] are referring to was a masseuse aged 17"). See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 4. Of course, like the other young girls they abused, Ms. Giuffre was not a massage therapist.<sup>11</sup> Despite Defendant's view that being a older than 15 is fine for massaging her convicted pedophile boyfriend, the law makes it illegal to traffic humans at any age; particularly when they are children under the age of 18.

5. The Physician-patient Privilege Applies to Information sought by Interrogatory No. 13

The physician patient privilege most certainly applies to an individual's pediatric medical records. The identity of a physician's name also gives information regarding the type of medical treatment Ms. Giuffre received, particularly if that physician is specialist. Defendant cites no case law whatsoever in her argument that no privilege applies to this information.

<sup>11</sup> See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5, Recarey Dep. Tr. at 125:16-23 ("Q. Did you ever ascertain whether or not FP had any formal training in massage therapy? THE WITNESS: She did not. None of the high school girls that I interviewed or anyone under the age of 18 had any formal massage training.")

Defendant says that Ms. Giuffre's claim of medical damages somehow necessitates Defendant having access to Ms. Giuffre's childhood medical records. This argument is without merit. As Defendant knows, as was explained in detail in Ms. Giuffre's Rule 26 disclosures, Ms. Giuffre's claim of damages relates to the harm she suffered by being publically defamed by Defendant, who was also her abuser. Defendant has no case law to back up the claim that Ms. Giuffre's childhood records are necessary for any category of damages; therefore, it should be denied.

F. Interrogatory No. 14

Defendant asks for a list of all of the people who have subjected Ms. Giuffre to sexual abuse prior to 1999. This request is plainly harassing, and covers sexual abuse Ms. Giuffre experienced in the years prior to turning 16.

1. This Discovery sought in Interrogatory No. 14 is Barred by FRE 412

This discovery is not relevant as this evidence is barred under Federal Rule of Evidence 412, which applies to civil cases. Defendant's argument under Federal Rule Evidence 412 is completely misplaced. The Rule absolutely applies in this defamation action. Defendant cannot show evidence of a child being raped in order to show that her defamatory statements are untrue or did not harm Ms. Giuffre's reputation. Such an argument is unsupported by case law, and Defendant cites to none. Defendant defamed Ms. Giuffre when she was thirty-one years old. There is no way that Defendant can make a credible argument that someone raping Ms. Giuffre when she was 14 somehow affects the truth of Defendant's 2015 defamatory statements. Nor can the rape of a child prove an absence of damage to Ms. Giuffre's reputation as an adult. Indeed, Defendant is wrongfully attempting to publicize the fact that Ms. Giuffre was raped as a 14 year old (See Motion for Protection Order DE 335). Neither logic nor case law support this position.

This request is particularly improper as it cannot conceivably lead to admissible evidence. While Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 controls the limits of discovery, FRE 412 informs discovery over the boundaries of the proper inquiry into an alleged sexual assault victim's sexual conduct and history. Silva v. Pioneer Janitorial Servs., Inc., No. CIV.A. 10-11264-JGD, 2011 WL 4729783, at *1 (D. Mass. Oct. 4, 2011). See also Gibbons v. Food Lion, Inc., No. 98-1197-CIV-T-23F, 1999 WL 33226474, at *2 (M.D. Fla. Feb. 19, 1999) (stating that a majority of courts that have considered whether Fed. R. Evid. 412 is applicable to discovery “have found that Rule 412 has significance in the resolution of a discovery dispute”).

“As explained in the Advisory Committee Notes regarding the 1994 amendments to Rule 412, ‘[t]he rule aims to safeguard the alleged victim against the invasion of privacy, potential embarrassment and sexual stereotyping that is associated with public disclosure of intimate sexual details and the infusion of sexual innuendo into the factfinding process.’ Moreover, although the Advisory Committee Notes acknowledge that the procedures set forth in the Rule for determining the admissibility of evidence relating to an alleged victim's past sexual conduct or predisposition do not apply to discovery, they nevertheless provide as follows:

In order not to undermine the rationale of Rule 412 ... courts should enter appropriate orders pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) to protect the victim against unwarranted inquiries and to ensure confidentiality. Courts should presumptively issue protective orders barring discovery unless the party seeking discovery makes a showing that the evidence sought to be discovered would be relevant under the facts and theories of the particular case, and cannot be obtained except through discovery. In an action for sexual harassment, for instance, while some evidence of the alleged victim's sexual behavior and/or predisposition in the workplace may perhaps be relevant, non-workplace conduct will usually be irrelevant.”

Silva, 2011 WL 4729783, at *1. (emphasis added). Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre objects to this request based on the Federal Rules of Evidence and prevailing case law applying such Rules.

2. Interrogatory No. 14 is Propounded for Improper Purposes and Harassment

Interrogatory No. 14 seeks information concerning Ms. Giuffre being sexually abused as a child. It is worth recalling that this request is being propounded by Defendant, who sexually abused Ms. Giuffre as a child. The purpose of this request appears to be nothing other than harassment. Defendant is not entitled to a full-scale production of everything that has happened to Ms. Giuffre through the entire course of her life time, particularly with regard to events that clearly predate Defendant's meeting and abusing Ms. Giuffre. A victim of sexual abuse should not be re-abused by having to disclose to one of her abusers (plus all the abusers who are her joint defense partners, including Jeffrey Epstein) details of other childhood sexual abuse.

This Court's Protective Order allows convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein to see all discovery in this case, even that marked confidential. The discovery sought here is not pertinent to any issue in the case and would merely serve to feed Defendant Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein's prurient and continued interest her.

It has become increasingly clear that Defendant's counsel is seeking these documents for the improper purpose of harassment. Ms. Giuffre was only 14 years old at the time of the sexual assault. Yet Defendant's responses to Ms. Giuffre's interrogatories shockingly called this child victim of sexual abuse a "sexually permissive woman." (Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories). This blame-the-victim strategy is ironic for two reasons. First, Ms. Giuffre was a minor child, not a "woman," when Defendant sexually abused her. Second, it was Defendant and Mr. Epstein who trafficked her to other individuals - therefore, it was Defendant and Mr. Epstein's "permission" given to others to use Ms. Giuffre's sexually. In any event, Defendant can have no legitimate purpose for this discovery.

3. Interrogatory No. 14 Seeks Irrelevant Information

Furthermore, discovery concerning Ms. Giuffre's prior sexual assault is not relevant to the claim at issue in this case, the defenses at issue, or the damages claimed, and therefore well outside the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre's sexual abuse as minor child neither proves nor disproves Defendant and Epstein's sexual abuse; therefore, it is not within the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, particularly since the December 1, 2015, amendments to the Rule. "Parties may obtain discovery regarding any non-privileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Engaging in discovery on such irrelevant, but painful, topics would be extraordinarily embarrassing, oppressive, and traumatic for Ms. Giuffre, and it is wholly irrelevant to any party's claim or defense. Accordingly, such discovery is not sought in good faith.

Additionally, to the extent that it is available to Ms. Giuffre, all of this information is already in the possession of Maxwell as she obtained and produced police reports regarding Ms. Giuffre, which Ms. Giuffre did not have in her possession. Ms. Giuffre was also questioned for seven hours in her May 3, 2016, deposition by Defendant's attorney.

4. Sexual Assault Records are Records a Medical Event, and Are Barred by This Court's Order - Discovery Related to Interrogatory No. 14 is Inappropriate

Moreover, this Court has excluded the production of medical records from prior to 1999, stating, "the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation." (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 20:23-24). This holding applies equally to pre-1999 sexual assault records for two reasons. First, sexual assault is not only a crime, but a physical injury, and an injury for which medical treatment is often needed and for which a forensic medical exam is often performed. Accordingly, any documentation of sexual assault is necessarily akin to a medical record, and, therefore, precluded under the Court's April 21, 2016 Order.

5. Information Sought in Interrogatory No. 14 related to Ms. Giuffre's Sexual Abuse is Protected by Florida Statutes

Finally, this abuse took place in Florida, and information relating to those events is protected from disclosure by law. Florida statutes protect "[a]ny information in a videotaped statement of a minor who is alleged to be or who is a victim of sexual battery . . . which reveals that minor's identity." Fla. Stat. § 119.071. Additionally, Fla. Stat. § 985.036 protects records where a juvenile is a victim of a crime. Further, Fla. Stat § 794.026 creates a civil right of action against an individual who communicates to others, identifying information concerning the victim of a sexual offense. Additionally, Second, Fla. Stat. § 985.04 and Fla. Stat. § 985.054 make juvenile law enforcement records confidential from members of the public, and states that information obtained by a law enforcement agent participating in the assessment of a juvenile is confidential. Finally, certain of the police reports implicate Ms. Giuffre's involvement with the Florida Department of Children and Families, see e.g., GM_00750, and if such reports are part of the State's Department of Children and Families' records, they are confidential pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 39.202(6).

While Defendant, a sex abuser of minors, says that the Protective Order is all the privacy Ms. Giuffre needs regarding being raped as a 14 year old, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Federal Rules of Evidence, Florida statutes, and case law say otherwise. Indeed, Defendant is engaging in double-speak on the Protective Order: her joint defense partner Alan Dershowitz is attempting, through his baseless motion to intervene, to challenge the confidential designations of various documents in the case, and strip away the Protective Order's protections. Finally, Defendant incorrectly states "[n]one of this illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault is within the right to privacy.” Defendant cites no case law or statutes to back this up. Of course, the opposite is true, as evidenced by the statutes and case law cited above.

6. Defendant Makes Misrepresentations to the Court regarding Interrogatory No. 14

Defendant wrongly states, in the public record, there is “an abundance of evidence suggesting that well before she met Ms. Maxwell, Plaintiff had engaged in illegal sex activities or falsely claimed she was the victim of illegal sex activities.” This is a lie. There is evidence that Ms. Giuffre was raped as a child and there is evidence that she was abused as a child. There is no evidence that Ms. Giuffre did anything illegal sexually and there is no evidence that she “falsely claimed” she was raped. It is an old story to discredit the victim of sexual abuse by lying about and using that victim’s sexual past. See “Rape and the Culture of the Courtroom,” by Andrew Taslitz (1999). Federal Rule of Evidence 412, and all the rape shield laws, were erected to forbid this inappropriate tactic. Id. With no self-reflection, Defendant asserts that she is seeking documents relating to Ms. Giuffre’s sexual activities as a child “whether she was a willing participant.” However, the time-frame on this request was before Ms. Giuffre’ could possibly be a “willing participant,” because she was well under the age of consent.

7. Defendant Has Violated the Court’s Protective Order (DE 62) in Her Argument Concerning Interrogatory No. 14

Defendant’s statements about Ms. Giuffre “falsely claiming” to be a victim constitute a misrepresentation to the Court, and it is violation of the Protective Order. Ms. Giuffre has designated police reports concerning her rape as a fourteen year old to be confidential under the Protective Order. In contravention of that Order and in contravention of Ms. Giuffre’s designation, Defendant put that in the public realm by her filing DE 354, which did not redact this information. This Court should sanction Defendant for such behavior.

IV. PLAINTIFF'S ANSWERS TO DEFENDANT'S REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS ARE NOT DEFICIENT AND DEFENDANT'S MOTION SHOULD BE DENIED

Before rebutting Defendant's unsupported arguments, she notes for the Court that for 27 out of 33 answers to Request for Admission Ms. Giuffre served upon Defendant, Defendant began her answer with the phrase, "Denied in Part." Now, Defendant complains that Ms. Giuffre used the same phraseology in response to some of Defendant's Requests for Admission. Such a complaint is unfounded.

A. Requests for Admission Nos. 1-8 and 13

At the time of filing the Complaint, to the best of her recollection, Ms. Giuffre recollected that she met Defendant in the summer 1999 when she was working at Mar-a-Lago, a club in Palm Beach, Florida. Based on documents produced pursuant to litigation, Ms. Giuffre has learned that, instead, she met Defendant at the Mar-a-Lago club in 2000. During the summer of 2000, Ms. Giuffre was 16 until August 3, when she turned 17. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre has learned that she did not meet Defendant when she was 15, but, rather, likely at 16. Either way, Ms. Giuffre was indisputably a minor when Defendant recruited her to have sex with convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein, with whom Defendant shared a household. Thereafter, Ms. Giuffre flew on Epstein's private jets with over Defendant 23 times while she was a minor.

Defendant makes much ado that she recruited a 16 or 17 year old for sex with Epstein rather than a 15 year old, and makes much ado over Ms. Giuffre's mistaken memory. Ms. Giuffre did not attend middle school or high school in a linear fashion, nor did she have any continuity of residence during those years. Instead, Ms. Giuffre's middle school and high school years were tumultuous. Based on her Palm Beach County, Florida records, it appears that, according to those records, for the 1993-1994 school year, when Ms. Giuffre's was 10, Ms.

Giuffre attended fifth grade in Florida, at the Loxahatchee Elementary School.<sup>12</sup> However, for the 1994-1995 and the 1995-1996 school years, there are no records.<sup>13</sup> Indeed, it appears that for the 1996-1997 school years, when she was 13, Ms. Giuffre attended Crestwood Middle School, but was only present, at most, 40 days of the 180-day school year.<sup>14</sup> For the 1997-1998 school years, when Ms. Giuffre was 14, it appears she attended Royal Palm Beach High School, but was absent 33 days, failed the grade, and had to repeat it. It is unsurprising that school year had so many absences and lack of academic standing: when she was 14 years old, she was raped. In both January and February of that school year, she was reported missing by her mother. GM_000752-754; GM_00783. Later in February, Ms. Giuffre was the victim of sexual assault. GM_00756-758; GM_00759; GM_00766.

Ms. Giuffre has no records for the following school year. For the 1998-1999 school year, records show that when Ms. Giuffre was supposed to be repeating 9th grade, Ms. Giuffre was absent at least 25 days. GM_00888. After 9th grade, Ms. Giuffre doesn't continue school. In, the next school year, from 1999-2000, the transcript first reflects that there were no courses taken in 1999, and starting in June of 2000, the transcripts reflects a "Grade 30" school code. "Grade 30" means that Ms. Giuffre was supposed to be on a GED course plan. GM_00888; 00893. After that, flight logs show, and Epstein's pilot testified, that Ms. Giuffre was on 44 flights on Epstein's jet, before she turned 18, flying all over the country and internationally. During this time period, according to school records, Ms. Giuffre attended school for, at most, 13 days at Royal Palm Beach High School (GM_0888) for 10th grade, then spent, at most, possibly 56 days at Survivor's Charter school (out of a 180 day school year). (GM00888). Ms. Giuffre then was back with Defendant and Epstein, and went on five more flights on Epstein's plane before finally escaping abroad.

Accordingly, the records and testimony in this case establish that Ms. Giuffre had no continuity of education or residence or other markers that normally anchor specific events in time for a high schooler. Instead, she attended multiple schools sporadically, she was sexually assaulted at 14, she ran away from home multiple times, and then ended up being abused by Defendant and Epstein, traveling all around. It is not surprising that Ms. Giuffre had trouble identifying specific calendar dates.

At any rate, in compliance with Rule 36(a)(4), Ms. Giuffre stated which part of the statement she denies. She denies statements involve her age. She was not 15, but 16, turning 17 in August the summer she was trafficked by Defendant and when she met Epstein. She was sexually trafficked as a minor child by Defendant and Epstein; she did celebrate one of her teenage birthdays with Defendant; Defendant did tell her that she would soon be too old for [convicted pedophile] Jeffrey Epstein's taste; she did work at Mar-a-Lago the summer of 2000 when she was a minor; she did work for Epstein from 2000-2002. Ms. Giuffre will not deny those parts of Defendant's requests for admission; and she did see recall seeing Al Gore during the time she was with Epstein and Defendant.

B. Requests for Admission Nos. 12

Ms. Giuffre's objection to Request for Admission No. 12 is correct pursuant to Rule 36(a)(5), Fed. R. Civ. P.<sup>15</sup> Rule 36(a)(5) states "[t]he grounds for objecting to a request must be stated. A party must not object solely on the ground that the request presents a genuine issue for trial." Ms. Giuffre's objections are compliant with this Rule. Here, Defendant has made up a fictitious scenario and asks Ms. Giuffre to admit or deny it. This fictitious scenario is not something that Ms. Giuffre has ever alleged. As stated in the objection, Defendant has interposed and comingled facts which comprise the foundation of this request for admission. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre has never alleged that “she had a conversation with Bill Clinton regarding him flying with Ghislaine Maxwell in a helicopter.” Instead, Ms. Giuffre has been quoted by a reporter as saying, “I flew to the Caribbean with Jeffrey and then Ghislaine Maxwell went to pick up Bill [Clinton] in a huge black helicopter that Jeffrey had bought her.” Sara Nathan, Bill Clinton Pictured with Jeffrey Epstein’s Social Fixer, Daily Mail, (12 January 2015).

As a threshold matter, a court must determine whether the statements set forth in a request for admissions satisfy the formal requirements of Rule 36: “(e)ach request for admissions must be direct, simple and ‘limited to singular relevant facts,’” United States v. Consolidated Edison Co., 1988 WL 138275 (E.D.N.Y. [Dec. 15, 1988] ) (quoting S.E.C. v. Micro-Moisture Controls, 21 F.R.D. 164, 166 (S.D.N.Y.1957)), so that “it can be admitted or denied without explanation.” [8 C. Wright & A. Miller,] Federal Practice and Procedure, § 2258 [(1970)]. A request “should not state ‘half a fact’ or ‘half-truths’ which require the answering party to qualify responses.” Havenfield Corp. v. H & R Block, Inc., 67 F.R.D. 93, 96–97 (W.D.Mo.1973); Dubin, 125 F.R.D. at 375–76. See also Thalheim v. Eberheim, 124 F.R.D. 34, 35 (D.Conn.1988) (court must consider phraseology of requests as carefully as that of answers or objections).

At the end of the day, in making a determination under Rule 35(a)(5), “the Court is reminded that the ‘purpose of the rule is to reduce the costs of litigation by eliminating the necessity of proving facts that are not in substantial dispute, to narrow the scope of disputed issues, and to facilitate the presentation of cases to the trier of fact.’” Spin Master Ltd. v. Bureau Veritas Consumer Products Service, Inc., 2016 WL 690819, at *18 (W.D.N.Y., 2016)

(emphasis added), quoting T. Rowe Price Small-Cap Fund, Inc. v. Oppenheimer & Co., Inc., 174 F.R.D. 38, 43 (S.D.N.Y. 1997). Admitting or denying this statement does not eliminate the necessity of proving facts, as this is not a fact in dispute. It does not narrow the scope of disputed issues. It does not facilitate the presentation of the case to the trier of fact. Admitting or denying this request for admission no more furthers the case than asking Ms. Giuffre, for example, to admit or deny that the sky is green. Ms. Giuffre has made neither statement - therefore, it is outside the scope of requests for admission.

Of course, what Defendant is attempting with this request for admission is obvious. Defendant has made up a scenario Ms. Giuffre never claimed to have happened in order to induce her to deny it, so that Defendant can, later, falsely claim to a jury that Ms. Giuffre lied about the scenario. The Court should not countenance this type of blatant gamesmanship. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre had objected to answering this request for admission as it is based on “half-truths,” which make it impossible to answer without a qualified response.

V. PLAINTIFF’S RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT’S OVERLY BROAD REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION ARE COMPLIANT WITH HER DISCOVERY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE APPLICABLE RULES AND DEFENDANT’S MOTION SHOULD BE DENIED

A. Request for Production No. 1

Defendant puts forth no case law in support of her motion to compel Request No. 1. Request No. 1 seeks “[a]ll communications and documents identified in Interrogatories 5-14, above. Again, in violation of Local Rule 37.1, Defendant fails to tell the Court what those interrogatories are. The Court should know that Defendant’s Interrogatories 5-14 are as follows:

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 5, as described above, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her communications with the media, and a request for communications among her counsel and the media is overly-broad to the point of total impracticality and absurdity. Therefore, this request should be denied.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 6, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents (or world-wide-web links to documents) in which Defendant has defamed her. Any more exhaustive search of the internet for additional documents, is not something contemplated by the Local Rules. Additionally, Ms. Giuffre has no documents related to any other defamation of Ms. Giuffre Defendant may have caused. Therefore, there is nothing further to “compel,” and this request should be denied. Defendant should be producing this responsive material, not Ms. Giuffre.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 7, Ms. Giuffre does not have documents relating to other’s defamation of her. She knows of a few statements made by Alan Dershowitz, but causing Ms. Giuffre to go through a time-consuming, burdensome, and, frankly, emotionally upsetting, exercise of searching around for whatever else he may have said is outside the scope of Rule 26, as discussed above, particularly as Ms. Giuffre has not based any part of her claim off of those statements. Accordingly, this request should be denied.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 8, seeking all documents relating to individuals to whom Ms. Giuffre was trafficked, Ms. Giuffre has already produced the documents in her possession. She has produced the photo of her when she was 17, taken inside Defendant's apartment, with Prince Andrew's hand around her bare waist while she was standing next to Defendant, and she has produced the deposition transcript wherein she testified about to whom she was trafficked, in Edwards v. Cassell, Broward County Case Number CACE 15-000072 on January 16, 2016. See GIUFFRE005094- GIUFFRE007566. Ms. Giuffre additionally testified regarding the subject matter requested in this interrogatory on in the above-captioned case in her deposition on May 3, 2016, and that deposition transcript is also within Defendant's possession. Because Ms. Giuffre has provided an answer to this interrogatory in her deposition, which was a more practical method of obtaining the information sought, this interrogatory is improper under the Local Rules as well as wholly duplicative.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 9, which seeks Ms. Giuffre's employment history, Ms. Giuffre has already answered that, and produced any corresponding documents she has and has obtained since the commencement of litigation. Ms. Giuffre dropped her claim for lost wages in her Amended Rule 26 disclosures rendering this interrogatory irrelevant which seeks over 20 years of employment information. Defendant puts forth no case law for the proposition that she is entitled to this discovery. Accordingly, Defendant's request should be denied.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 10 requests information concerning Ms. Giuffre's income. Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive document, including bank statements showing electronic funds transfers. Accordingly, there is nothing to compel regarding this Interrogatory, and Defendant's request should be denied.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 11, which concerns facts about Ms. Giuffre's lost wages, Ms. Giuffre has withdrawn her lost wage claim, and therefore, this interrogatory is no longer relevant.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 12, concerns Ms. Giuffre's health care providers subsequent to the defamation. Ms. Giuffre has already produced the documents and medical records associated with these providers, as described above. Accordingly, there is nothing to compel regarding this Interrogatory, and Defendant's request should be denied.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 13, concerns Ms. Giuffre's health care providers prior to the defamation. Not only has Ms. Giuffre disclosed her health care providers from 1999 through the present, but she has retrieved and produced her medical records, and executed and sent releases for each and every one of them. Regarding any documents that may exist relating to any pre-1999 medical records, Ms. Giuffre incorporates her argument regarding the same, above, including the doctor-patient privilege.

Regarding documents related to Interrogatory No. 14, which concerns sexual assault Ms. Giuffre experienced as a young teenager, prior to Defendant's sexual assault of her while still a minor, Ms. Giuffre has no documents beyond the police reports that Defendant produced. This request should be denied, anyway, pursuant to the statutes and case law set forth above.

Despite Defendant's efforts to hide the vast categories of documents that fall within the ambit of Interrogatory No. 1 (in contravention of Local Rule 37.1), as the Court can see, Interrogatory No. 1 is a sprawling, over-broad, request, that seeks documents that are either (1) non-discoverable pursuant to this Court's April 21, 2016, Order; (2) protected by statutes and case law; (3) protected by the doctor-patient privilege; (4) are wholly irrelevant to this action; and (5) seek documents that are not within the possession, custody or control of Ms. Giuffre, or are unduly burdensome. As described in full above, Ms. Giuffre has produced what documents she has in response to these requests. This Court should deny Defendant's motion to compel the documents related to this request for all of the foregoing reasons.

B. Request for Production No. 4

Defendant puts forth no case law in support of her motion to compel Request for Production No. 4. In this request, Defendant deliberately targets attorney-client privileged communication by seeking communications between Ms. Giuffre's attorneys and the nearly 100 individuals on Ms. Giuffre's witness list, with no date or subject matter limitations. This is an improper request. Certain attorneys for Ms. Giuffre represent other individuals listed on the Rule 26 Disclosures in separate legal matters, and revelation of such communications would violate privileges that do not belong to Ms. Giuffre, but rather belong to other victims of sexual abuse who have not waived such privileges.

In her brief, Defendant urges the Court to overlook the facial overbreadth of her requests and, instead, read them "reasonably." Based on a reasonable reading of this request, Ms. Giuffre has produced her counsel's communications with the attorneys for witnesses on Ms. Giuffre's disclosures that took place subsequent to filing the complaint,<sup>16</sup> including communications with counsel for Johanna Sjoborg (which is also responsive to Defendant's Request No. 7, seeking those communications specifically). Requiring anything further would be overly burdensome, and would violate the attorney-client privilege of third-parties.

C. Request for Production No. 9

---

<sup>16</sup> The overwhelming majority of Ms. Giuffre's counsel's communications with witnesses' counsel were email communications on which Defendant's counsel were copied. Ms. Giuffre did not produce email communications in which Defendant's counsel were copied, as such an exercise is unnecessary. Instead, Ms. Giuffre's counsel produced communications with witnesses' counsel upon which Defendant's counsel was not copied.

Defendant's Request for Production No. 9 is, possibly, the best example of facial overbreadth in this entire dispute. Therefore, it is unsurprising that Defendant puts forth no case law in support of her motion to compel Request for Production No. 9. In this request, Defendant seeks all documents concerning any communications between Ms. Giuffre's attorneys and "any witness" in the case captioned Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States, Case no. 08-cv-90736-KAM, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida (the Crime Victim's Rights Act case, or "CVRA case"). Some background on the CVRA case is necessary to address the overbreadth of this Request.

In 2008, one of Ms. Giuffre's attorneys, Bradley J. Edwards (soon joined by co-counsel, and former United States District Court Judge, Professor Paul Cassell) filed a pro bono action in the Southern District of Florida under the Crime Victims' Rights Act (CVRA), 18 U.S.C. § 3771. Filed on behalf of Jane Doe 1 (and later Jane Doe 2) the CVRA action alleged that federal government had failed to protect the rights of Jane Doe 1 and other-situated victims of sex crimes committed by Jeffrey Epstein, a politically-connected billionaire. See Complaint filed in Jane Doe 1 v. United States, No. 9:08-cv-80736, DE 1 (S.D. Fla. July 7, 2008). It will not surprise the Court that the victims alleged that, while they were underage girls, Epstein and his co-conspirators sexually abused them in his Florida mansion under the guise of obtaining "massages." The victims further alleged that the Government concealed from them a plea bargain under which the federal government extended to Epstein a non-prosecution agreement (NPA) in exchange for Epstein's guilty plea to low level state offenses. The CVRA case has been litigated for nearly eight years, with litigation continuing to date.

Jane Does 1 and 2 have achieved many precedent-setting victories in the case, including a ruling that the CVRA rights of victims could apply before charges were filed, Does 1 and 2 v.

United States, 817 F. Supp. 2d 1337 (S.D. Fla. 2011); that they had standing to challenge the non-prosecution agreement reached between the Government and Epstein, Jane Does 1 and 2 v. United States, 950 F. Supp. 2d 1262 (S.D. Fla. 2013); and that Epstein’s plea negotiations were not protected from disclosure by any federal rule of evidence, Does v. United States, 749 F.3d 999 (11th Cir. 2014). Congress has also followed the developments in the case closely, recently amending the CVRA to insure that in the future crime victims receive notice of any non-prosecution agreement entered into by the Government. See Pub. L. 114-22, Title I, § 113(a), (c)(1), May 29, 2015, 129 Stat. 240, 241 (adding 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(9) to give victims “[t]he right to be informed in a timely manner of any plea bargain or deferred prosecution agreement).

With regard to communications by Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials, because Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys represent not only Ms. Giuffre (Jane Doe 3) in the CVRA matter, but also Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, and Jane Doe 4. Any communications between the four Jane Does, via Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, plainly would be subject to attorney-client protection, joint prosecution protection, and work product protection as well.

With regard to contact with “witnesses,” the request is vague, unduly burdensome, and overbroad. The CVRA case centers on issues surrounding whether the U.S. Government failed to confer and otherwise protect the rights of victims (including Janes Does 1, 2, 3, and 4) during plea negotiations with Jeffrey Epstein. Accordingly, some of the main “witnesses” in the case are the Government prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations. Several of the same prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations are also involved in defending the CVRA case. The CVRA has been in litigation for nearly eight years, and there have extensive communications with the prosecutors (including communications concerning approximately 10,000 pages of documents that were requested by victims’ counsel and provided to Judge Marra for in camera review). The request appears designed to target all of these communications, and such communications, going back eight years, would necessitate a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications with the Government prosecutors. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Whatever communications Ms. Giuffre's attorneys would have had with government prosecutors about CVRA notifications concerning a prosecution of Epstein would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defamed Ms. Giuffre.

Moreover, many materials related to this case remain under Judge Marra's protective order. Accordingly, before Ms. Giuffre's counsel could even have the option to release certain materials that the Government has provided to him as an attorney in the case, defendant Maxwell would have to approach Judge Marra and seek a modification of the protective order.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what "witnesses" Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre's lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz connected with procedural and other aspects of this case. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because the case has spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult and overly burdensome. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre's attorneys will collecting such communications when she can collect them in other ways.

Defendant fails to make an argument addressing Ms. Giuffre's overbreadth argument and undue burden argument. Defendant also fails to make an argument explaining any relevance of these documents. And, again, Defendant puts forth no case law in support of her position to compel. The Court should deny this request.

D. Request for Production No. 10

This request seeks the same documents as Request No. 9 with regard to the Dershowitz litigation.<sup>17</sup> Defendant sets forth no new or differentiated argument with regard to this request, and Defendant puts forth no case law in support of her motion to compel Request for Production No. 10. This request has nearly all of the same defects as Request No. 9. For the reasons stated above, it should be denied.

E. Requests for Production No. 11 and No. 12

With these requests, Defendant seeks “statements” obtained from witnesses in the CVRA case and the Dershowitz case, described above. This request directly targets privileged documents. In this discussion, Defendant puts forth her one and only example of case law. However, Defendant’s District of Ohio case is not applicable. It holds that affidavits are not normally protected as work product. Even should this Court adopt this premise, and adopt Defendant’s argument, there are not affidavits to produce. Based on the best of their recollection, Ms. Giuffre’s counsel do not have any affidavits that are (1) not part of the docket/filings in the CVRA case in the Southern District of Florida, or (2) not already produced to Defendant in this litigation.

Even looking for such documents it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. Again, the CVRA case centers on issues surrounding whether the U.S. Government failed to confer and otherwise protect the rights of victims (including Janes Does 1, 2, 3, and 4) during plea negotiations with Jeffrey Epstein. It has been in litigation for nearly eight years, and there have been extensive communications with the prosecutors (including communications concerning approximately 10,000 pages of documents that were requested by victims' counsels and provided to Judge Marra for in camera review). It is not clear whether the request is designed to request all of these communications as "statements," but if it does capture these communications going back eight year, it would involve a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications with the Government prosecutor. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Whatever statements Ms. Giuffre's attorneys obtained from government prosecutors about CVRA notifications concerning a prosecution of Epstein would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defamed Ms. Giuffre. Moreover, many materials remain under Judge Marra's protective order. Accordingly, before Ms. Giuffre's counsel could even have the option to release certain materials that the Government has provided to him as an attorney in the case, defendant Maxwell would have to approach Judge Marra and seek a modification of the protective order.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what "statements" Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre's lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz connected with procedural and other aspects of this case. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because the case has spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult.

Finally, if Defendant is now seeking sworn affidavits, there is no practicable way to search for those things. As stated above, upon counsel's best memory, any affidavits are part of the CVRA case docket or already produced in this litigation. If there happen to be others, to search for them, through 8 years of litigation, would certainly be a Herculean task, and not one that would necessarily yield any responsive documents. Defendant's requests are poorly drafted. Defendant's arguments are unavailing. And, Defendant's sole case does not go to this request regarding "statements." Even an attempt at compliance would be grossly overly burdensome. The Court should deny Defendant's motion to compel with regard to these requests.

VI. CONCLUSION

Defendant's brief is bereft of case law, lacking the authority upon which this Court can grant her overly-broad requests, many of which have already been fully satisfied. Similarly, Defendant's motion for sanctions is completely baseless, and should be denied. For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests Defendant's Motion to Compel and for Sanctions be denied in its entirety.

Alan Dershowitz: 'Sex slave' accuser is serial liar, prostitute

Famed attorney slams woman who claims he had underaged sex with her

PEMBROKE PARK, Fla. -

Well-known attorney and Miami Beach resident Alan Dershowitz emphatically denied allegations made in newly-filed court papers that he had sex six times with an underage girl who at the time was serving as a "sex slave" for wealthy financier -- and convicted sex offender -- Jeffrey Epstein.

Related: Billionaire's 'sex slave' details allegations against Prince Andrew, Dershowitz

"This is a woman who is a serial liar," Dershowitz told Local 10 News reporter Bob Norman. "She's lied, lied, lied, lied."

"But she wasn't lying about being sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein," said Norman.

"That is a different issue," said Dershowitz. "That is between her and Jeffrey Epstein."

The woman is Virginia Roberts, one of as many as 40 women who allege that Epstein recruited them while they were minors into a sex ring based at Epstein's Palm Beach mansion.

Roberts alleges in a 14-page affidavit -- which included newly-released photos she said were taken by Epstein when she was 15 -- that Epstein groomed her as "sex slave" to gratify not only him but his powerful friends.

She wrote that she was introduced to Epstein at the mansion by heiress Ghislaine Maxwell, the daughter of the late British publisher Robert Maxwell, on the pretext that she would be paid to give him a "massage," which she wrote was Epstein's "code word for sexual encounters."

"From the first time I was taken to Epstein's mansion that day, his motivations and actions were sexual, as were Maxwell's," Roberts writes in the affidavit. "My father was not allowed inside. I was brought up some stairs. There was a naked guy, Epstein, on the table in the room. Epstein and Maxwell forced me into sexual activity with Epstein ... I was paid $200."

She wrote that she then began working for Epstein, and traveling around the country and world with him.

"Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell trained me to do what they wanted, including sexual activities and the use of sexual toys," she wrote. "The training was in New York and Florida at Epstein's mansions. It was basically every day and was like going to school ... I was trained to be 'Everything a man wanted me to be.' It wasn't just sexual training -- they wanted me to be able to cater to all the needs of the men they were going to send to me."

In the affidavit, she alleges that Dershowitz was one of those men and that she had sex with him six times beginning when she was 16 at Epstein's residences, as well as on his jet and private island. She also added details about her allegations that Epstein -- who served 13 months in jail after being convicted of soliciting a minor for sex in 2008 -- ordered her to have sex on three occasions with Prince Andrew in London at the age of 17, paying her $15,000 after the first instance.

Read the entire 14-page affidavit here.

Dershowitz said Roberts was a prostitute and questioned whether she is now, at the age of 31, a fit mother for her three children.

"She's now an admitted prostitute," said Dershowitz. "I can tell you she is still a prostitute: she is selling these false stories now for money about me. That is a form of prostitution."

"Do you have any concern calling her a prostitute when she was victimized at such an early age by a wealthy man?" Norman asked.

"She was not victimized ... she made her own decisions in life," said Dershowitz.

"But at the age of 15 some would say ... she was taken advantage of," said Norman.

"I'm talking about the age of 19," said Dershowitz.

"But it started when she was 15," said Norman.

"I am not involved in that," he said. "I have no knowledge of that. That's between her, and the federal government and the people who victimized her. All I know is she has victimized me. At the age of 31 she has made up false allegations against me. She is a mother of three children, and she is now living a lie to her three children and the question is whether she is an adequate mother of her three children going around selling her false stories of prostitution."

Dershowitz is an admitted long-time friend of Epstein's who frequented his homes at the time Roberts and other young girls were in Epstein's employ. But he insisted he never saw an underage girl in Epstein's company. A former Epstein employee, the late Alfredo Rodriguez, testified under oath that Dershowitz was at the Palm Beach mansion at the same time underage girls were at the home.

"That's not true," said Dershowitz. "I was never in Jeffrey Epstein's house or any of the houses in the presence of any young woman. Now were there other young women in other parts of the house giving massages when I wasn't around? I have no idea of that. I can only say I never saw a young underage woman. If I had I would have left the house and never come back, period."

He told Norman that he had one massage at Epstein's home and it was with an adult woman.

"I kept my underwear on during the massage," he said. "I don't like massages particularly."

One of the more salacious allegations made by Roberts is that Dershowitz "was so comfortable with the sex that was going on that he would even come and chat with Epstein while I was giving oral sex to Epstein." Dershowitz called that allegation absurd.

"Alan Dershowitz was standing there and talking about what? The weather, the stock market? It's the most preposterous thing imaginable," said Dershowitz.

Dershowitz, who has issued a denial to Roberts' basic claims in a sworn affidavit of his own, said he would willingly be deposed on the matter. Roberts' attorneys have claimed that Dershowitz has refused to submit to deposition.

When questioned about it, Dershowitz said he would be deposed in the case, but only after Roberts and her two lawyers are deposed. The lawyers have sued Dershowitz for defamation after he alleged they should be disbarred for initially putting Roberts' allegations in court papers.

"I am happy today to express my willingness to be deposed after the three of them are deposed," he said. "That's the order it should occur because they are the accusers. I am the one who is defending myself against their accusations."

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Response (“Response”) in Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion for Protective Order and Motion for the Court to Direct Defendant to Disclose All Individuals to Whom Defendant Has Disseminated Confidential Information (“Motion”) (Doc. #335), and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff does not want to make public police reports which already are public and are freely available to any private citizen, media outlet or company who lodges a simple request with the relevant law enforcement agency. Her motives for hiding the information from the public eye are easily discernible from a simple review of the police reports. In painstaking detail, the reports contemporaneously document the falsity of Plaintiff’s claims against Ms. Maxwell, and therefore the substantial truth of statements attributed to Ms. Maxwell. The police reports are among the best records of Plaintiff’s lies. They are public documents and there is no good faith basis for Plaintiff’s attempt to render them hidden from public view, in her public lawsuit designed to promote her well-orchestrated media campaign.

The police reports reflect as to the late 1990s and early 2000s, Plaintiff’s substantial substance abuse, her lack of credibility, her failures of memory and her selective use of law enforcement. Regarding the year 2015, the police reports demonstrate Plaintiff’s tumultuous home life, bearing no relationship to any press statements or alleged defamation and providing alternative causation to any of Plaintiff’s now-claimed emotional distress. It makes perfect sense that Plaintiff would want to shield from the public eye these unflattering truths about her past and current circumstances. Yet, just because a document is unflattering does not make it “confidential,” under the terms of the protective order at issue in this case.

Factual Background

Through sheer investigative determination, and in the face of Plaintiff's sworn denial that she has had any contact with law enforcement officials from 1996 to the present apart from supposed "active investigations involving Ghislaine Maxwell," counsel for Defendant unearthed numerous records of such contacts. In the time period just before and during her alleged "sexual slavery" to Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell, Plaintiff interacted with law enforcement on numerous occasions.

- November 1997 - Plaintiff, then 14 years old, was observed by law enforcement officers drunk in the backyard of a home during the middle of the school day. She was not "raped," as the Motion claims. She was observed engaging in a simulated sex act with her boyfriend who was then 17 years old. As all of the witnesses described, Plaintiff had voluntarily become intoxicated, made numerous passes at various members of their group, almost fallen into a canal, and then, when spotted by the school truancy officer, offered to have sex with him in exchange for not telling her parents she had failed to go to school that day. Both Plaintiff and her 17-year old boyfriend verified they had had sexual intercourse in the days before the report, and the boyfriend was charged with having sexual contact with a minor. Those were not the false allegations of sexual contact. Rather, on the way to the detox unit at the hospital, Plaintiff claimed she had been forcibly sexually assaulted by her friends. Plaintiff's claim of forced sexual assault was expressly refuted by the witnesses, who also verified Plaintiff's attempt to get out of trouble by offering to have sex with the truancy officer. While the young man was charged with statutory rape based on the admitted sexual intercourse, charges against him were ultimately dropped. Declaration of Laura A. Menninger ("Menninger Decl."), Ex. A (GM00784-00801). Consistent with Florida law, the records were redacted by the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office for the identities and other identifying information of all juveniles as well as Plaintiff's parents.
- January 1998 – In contradiction to Plaintiff's sworn testimony that she ran away from home at the age of 13, lived on the street for "months" without word from her family, and ultimately was rescued by the FBI in a SWAT raid from the clutches of a sexual predator named Ron Eppinger, the police documented a call from Plaintiff's mom that she ran away from home due to her recent "attitude change," "drug use" and "possible cult activities," was found four days later by her brother and returned to her family who had decided to involuntarily place her in a drug rehabilitation facility. Menninger Decl., Ex. B (GM00750-00754, 00783-00785). No reference to Ron Eppinger, an FBI SWAT raid, or months without family contact are reflected in the reports.

- February 1998 - This report by the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office documents Plaintiff's second false allegation of sexual assault in a four month period. Plaintiff, during the four days she was a runaway from home, asked to go out "partying" with two male friends of her boyfriend. After a ten-month investigation which included line-ups, witness interviews, and other police investigation, the prosecuting authorities decided against filing charges against the two based on Plaintiff's "lack of credibility" and "no substantial likelihood of success at trial." Menninger Decl., Ex. C (GM00755-00775). Consistent with Florida law, the records were redacted for the identity and identifying information as pertains to Plaintiff.

These same reports document that Plaintiff was a resident at a drug rehabilitation facility from at least February 1999 until December 1999, whereas she has sworn in deposition testimony, in affidavits, in pleadings, and in the Complaint in this case, that she was a "sex slave" to Jeffrey Epstein beginning in June 1999.

- June 10, 2001 – Plaintiff's ex-fiancé, Michael Austrich, called the police after Plaintiff and her boyfriend, entered the apartment and the boyfriend punched Austrich in the face. Plaintiff apparently fled the scene with her boyfriend prior to the arrival of the police. The report documents that Plaintiff had a fiancé in or around June 2001, when she claims she was a "sex slave" to Jeffrey Epstein, that she lived in an apartment, and that she freely came and went with her boyfriend, including leaving the scene of a crime. Menninger Decl., Ex. D (GM00780-782). Plaintiff was not a claimed victim of this crime.
- August 3, 2001 – Plaintiff (then a week shy of her 18th birthday) called police regarding a theft of cash from her shirt pocket in her apartment, during a party she was hosting there with a number of friends. The police took a report from Plaintiff, questioned her friends, but failed to apprehend a suspect. Menninger Decl., Ex. E (GM00777-00779). This report is during the time Plaintiff allegedly was a "sex slave" to Jeffrey Epstein. The report documents that she was not then being held captive by Mr. Epstein, was living independently in an apartment with her boyfriend and another friend, and that she obviously possessed the wherewithal at that time to contact law enforcement for perceived criminal law violations.
- March 4, 2002 – Plaintiff (then 18) was charged with theft from her employer, the Roadhouse Grill. According to the police reports and court records, Plaintiff left mid-shift at approximately 7:45 p.m. and took all of the money from the tip jar. Menninger Decl., Ex. F (GM00802-809) The reports contradict Plaintiff's claimed "sexual slavery," by demonstrating she was working as a waitress at the same time. They also show that Plaintiff had an active warrant for her arrest at the time she moved to Australia in September 2002. Plaintiff was not a juvenile at the time and was charged as an adult.
- June 2, 2002 Police report reflects Plaintiff's call for a civil assist. Plaintiff (then 18 years old) complained that her then landlord threw her abandoned belongings out as trash after she moved to a new location. The landlord said she had abandoned the items and yelled as she left: "You can keep the rest you bastard!"

Notably, the police report documents that neither the residences she was moving from or to involved the apartment Plaintiff claims was rented for her by Jeffrey Epstein and where she testified she lived exclusively from June 1999 until September 2002. Menninger Decl., Ex. G (GM00748-00749). Plaintiff was not a juvenile and the case was not documented as a crime.

Likewise, in Colorado, police records reflect that in March 2015, Plaintiff and her husband went to a bar drinking in the middle of the day, became intoxicated and returned home, wherein they became involved in a fight regarding the welfare of the family dog. Menninger Decl., Ex. H (GM00810-00840). Plaintiff alleges she was assaulted by her husband as witnessed by at least one of their children. Plaintiff's husband was charged with domestic violence, pled guilty and was placed on probation.

Designation as Confidential

After receiving Defendant's production of the police reports pursuant to Rule 26 disclosures, Plaintiff wrote a letter requesting the Documents be designated Confidential. Counsel for Ms. Maxwell promptly responded that the documents are publicly available and therefore should not be designated as "Confidential." See Declaration of Meredith Schultz, Ex. 1. While Plaintiff wrote a letter outlining the same frivolous legal arguments she incorporates here and as addressed more fully below, defense counsel never acquiesced to her request and she failed to pursue a judicial determination of the matter until August 8, 2016, nearly three months later, thus, Plaintiff has waived any claim of confidentiality.

I. THE DOCUMENTS AT ISSUE ARE NOT CONFIDENTIAL

A. Plaintiff's Police Records Are Publicly Available from Law Enforcement Agencies in Florida and Colorado

Any private citizen, media outlet, or public entity can legally obtain the police reports at issue by interposing a simple request to the law enforcement agency and paying any applicable copying and redaction fees. As such, there is no “privacy” interest in preserving these documents obtained in such fashion as “Confidential” under the Protective Order.

Indeed, in February 2015, the New York Daily News apparently obtained the police reports concerning Plaintiff’s false claim of sex assault from February 1998, interviewed one of the two boys accused and the lawyer for the other, and published substantial details obtained from the police reports. See Oren Yaniv, “Alleged ‘sex slave’ of Jeffrey Epstein, Prince Andrew accused 2 men of rape in 1998, but was found not credible,” New York Daily News (Feb. 23, 2015), <http://www.nydailynews.com/news/world/sex-slave-prince-andrew-accused-2-men-rape-1998-article-1.2125569> (last accessed Feb. 24, 2016). Remarkably, Plaintiff’s counsel provided an interview for that article and gave her own inaccurate characterization of the prosecuting authority’s findings. See, id. (“For the prosecutors to describe her as not credible means only that they did not think they had sufficient evidence to win. But she was raped,’ the lawyer said in a statement.”). Unfortunately, counsel’s characterization of the police reports is directly contradicted by the police reports themselves, which found that Plaintiff “lacked credibility” and there was a “no reasonable probability of success at trial.” Compare id. and Menninger Decl., Ex. C (GM00775) (“this case is no filed due to the victim’s lack of credibility and no substantial likelihood of success at trial”). The prosecutor did not say (as counsel claimed in the news article) that they lacked “sufficient evidence” to win. Now, Plaintiff’s counsel having put her own false public spin on the Palm Beach authorities’ findings wants to preclude others from correcting the public record with the actual findings contained in the report.

The records are not confidential because they are accessible by the public, can be (and have been) accessed by the media, and Plaintiff’s counsel has inaccurately characterized the finding regarding Plaintiff's credibility to the media, and thus cannot be heard to complain that the records – exposing her mischaracterization – should be kept from the public eye.

B. No State Statute Forbids Disclosure of the Documents

There is no merit to Plaintiff's seriously misleading—and groundless—argument that various Florida and Colorado statutes forbid disclosure of the police reports. They do not. Plaintiff cites sections Florida Statutes 39.202(6), 119.071, 794.026 and 985.04 & .036 and Colorado Revised Statutes §§ 13-90-107(k) & 19-1-301, et seq., as support for her arguments.<sup>1</sup> None of these statutes support her arguments.

Florida Laws

Section 39.202 does not apply to the Documents. That provision relates to records held by the Florida Department of Children and Families. Each Florida document at issue here is stamped prominently as “Certified Copy by the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office.” Menninger Decl., Ex. A-F. None of the Documents were obtained from the Department of Children and Families. Section 39.202 relates to records held by that Department related to child abuse and neglect. None of the Florida documents relates to child abuse or neglect.

Section 119.071 exempts from Florida's open-records laws any videotaped statement of a minor who is allegedly the victim of sexual battery. First, there is no “videotaped statement” of Plaintiff contained within the Documents. Fla. Stat. § 119.071(2)(j)(2)(a). Second, the prohibitions only apply to the identity of the alleged victim. See id. & subsection (2)(h)1.b (“the identity of a person who is a victim of any sexual offense” exempt from Florida open-records laws). Here, the defense obtained identity-redacted copies of the police reports and disclosed them to Plaintiff. Indeed, the Sheriff's Office completed and provided a form with a list of state requirements regarding redaction and, consistent with their practice, checked the box indicating redactions pursuant to “119.071(2)(h)(1) Identity of victim of sexual battery, lewd and lascivious offense upon a person less than 16 years old, child abuse, sexual offense.” Menninger Decl., Ex. C (GM00755) and Ex. B (GM00784). Accordingly, the Sheriff’s Office did not violate section 119.071 by producing identity-redacted copies of police reports concerning Plaintiff.

Florida Statutes Section 985.036 and 985.04(1)(a) pertain to juvenile-justice records, none of which are included within the Documents. In fact, a “child” is defined by that subsection to apply only to “mean[] any person under the age of 18 or any person who is alleged to have committed a violation of law occurring prior to the time that person reached the age of 18 years.” The records pertaining to Plaintiff’s commissions of crimes occurred after she was 18 years old. Florida Stat. 985.03. None of the Documents are juvenile-justice records; they are police reports.

Finally, section 794.026 bears no relevance to the Florida Documents. That statute creates a cause of action by a sexual crime victim against any person who, “prior to open judicial proceedings,” communicates “the name, address, or other specific identifying information” concerning the victim. The statute is irrelevant here. One, the identifying information in the police reports in this case was redacted, and therefore was not communicated to anyone. No “name, address or other specific identifying information” is contained in the documents. Two, the case at bar is an “open judicial proceeding”<sup>2</sup> involving Plaintiff as a person who falsely has claimed to be a sexual assault crime victim; a number of such open judicial proceedings have preceded this one and, accordingly, the statute is inapplicable.

Colorado Statutes

Plaintiff also cites Colorado statutes which, she claims, support the proposition that her identity as the victim of domestic violence is protected by Colorado law. It is not. Section 13-90-107(k),<sup>3</sup> is a testimonial privilege statute, not a document-confidentiality statute. That provision forbids a victim's advocate from being required to testify concerning any communications with an alleged victim of domestic violence or assault. No one has sought testimony from any victim's advocate in these proceedings. The Colorado documents also do not contain Plaintiff's communications to any victim's advocate. Menninger Decl., Ex. H.

Plaintiff also cites Colorado Rev. Stat. § 19-1-301 and 302 for the proposition that the identities of her children cannot be disclosed. Those provisions maintain the confidentiality of records pertaining to juvenile justice actions against children. The documents at issue do not relate to any such action; the children were witnesses to an alleged crime committed by Plaintiff's husband against her, not the subjects of any criminal action themselves.

C. All Documents Were Redacted Appropriately By the Law Enforcement Agencies

The police reports from Florida that pertain to juveniles who are alleged victims of criminal sexual conduct (as opposed to Plaintiff's own criminal conduct as an adult and her request for civil assist as an adult) were redacted consistent with Florida law. Indeed, both reports wherein she made allegations of sexual misconduct were provided along with a checklist demonstrating that the law enforcement agency redacted the reports consistent with Florida law. The Florida law protects the identity of the alleged victim and the police reports produced by Defendant were all identity-redacted. See Menninger Decl., Ex. C and B (GM00755 and 00784).

<sup>3</sup> "A victim's advocate shall not be examined as to any communication made to such victim's advocate by a victim of domestic violence...or a victim of sexual assault, in person or through the media of written records or reports without the consent of the victim." C.R.S. § 13-90-107(k)(1).

Plaintiff has not cited any authority for the redaction of information from the Colorado police reports.

II. PLAINTIFF HAS WAIVED ANY ARGUMENT AS TO CONFIDENTIALITY

A. Plaintiff Failed to Timely Move this Court to Uphold Her Designation of the Documents as Confidential

The Protective Order in this case puts the onus on the person seeking a “Confidential” designation to either (a) resolve the matter with the opposing party, or (b) seek Court resolution.

The Protective Order at ¶ 11 provides:

“If the parties cannot resolve the objection within ten (10) business days after the time the notice is received, it shall be the obligation of the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL to file an appropriate motion requesting that the Court determine whether the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order. If such a motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. If the designating party fails to file such a motion within the prescribed time, the disputed information shall lose its designation as CONFIDENTIAL and shall not thereafter be treated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Protective Order.” (Doc. # 62)

It is undisputed that the defense challenged Plaintiff’s designation of the materials as Confidential on May 18, 2016 and it is also undisputed that the parties could not resolve the objection within ten days after notice of the objection was received. Plaintiff did not file a motion requesting the Court to determine whether the material should be subject to the Protective Order for three months, hence, she did not file such a motion within the prescribed time, and the Protective Order now commands that the “disputed information shall lose its designation as Confidential” and “shall not thereafter be treated as Confidential.” Id.

B. Plaintiff’s Counsel Has Repeatedly and Publicly Filed In This Case Numerous Publicly Available Police Reports With Redacted Juvenile Information

In complete contradiction to her legal position in this Motion, Plaintiff and her counsel have repeatedly filed in public documents associated with this case, police reports from Florida pertaining to alleged victims of sexual abuse by Jeffrey Epstein. Beginning December 10, 2015 when Plaintiff filed her Response in Opposition to the Motion to Stay (Doc. # 21-7), then again on March 14, 2016 (Doc. # 55-2) and on May 5, 2016 (Doc. #144-3), May 11, 2016 (Doc. # 153-6), and May 27, 2016 (Doc. # 173-8), Plaintiff filed on ECF Palm Beach Police Department reports that contain references to alleged juvenile victims of sexual misconduct, with the names of the alleged victims redacted. If Plaintiff truly believes that police reports with redacted identifying information such as these are “confidential,” why has she been the one to publicly disseminate such reports? Where did she obtain these reports? Was it “theft” of “sealed juvenile records” for her to have those police reports?

It would seem the juveniles referenced in the reports filed by Plaintiff, juveniles who have never brought public defamation lawsuits, juveniles who have never been paid hundreds of thousands of dollars by the tabloids for their stories, are entitled to more protection from publicity than is Plaintiff. Her position that identity-redacted police reports should be kept Confidential is belied by her own repeated, public, self-serving court filings in this case.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Ms. Maxwell requests the Court enforce the Protective Order, deny Plaintiff’s motion to make publicly available police reports “Confidential” under the terms of the Protective Order in this case, and award attorneys’ fees and costs associated with the filing of this Response to Ms. Maxwell.

Dated: August 18, 2016.

On 11/4/97 at 1052 hours, I responded to 156 Martin Circle in regards to six juveniles acting suspicious in the backyard of 156 Martin Circle. On arrival I met with Adella Onen a elderly b/f complainant at 10:55 hours. Ms. Onen stated that at approximately 1045 hours, she woke from her sleep. Onen stated that she looked into her backyard and observed six juveniles in her back yard three w/m's and three w/f's. Onen stated that while she was watching the juveniles she observed that a blonde w/f was acting very intoxicated. Onen stated that she observed a w/m wearing a jacket and baggy black pants kissing and laying on top of the intoxicated w/f. Onen stated that while the intoxicated w/f was laying on the ground all of the other subjects were slapping her across the face yelling at the intoxicated w/f to wake up. I then walked into the backyard of [REDACTED]

I observed the six subjects laying on the ground near the canal. As I was walking towards the subjects I observed a w/m laying on top of a blonde, w/f. I observed that the w/f was wearing a multi colored dress which was above her hips, she had her legs wrapped around the w/m's hips and her ankles were locked together. I observed that the w/m was moving his hips side to side and he was moving his pelvic area in a up and down motion.

I then identified the two on top of each other as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. I then observed the other four juveniles who were just west of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The two females were sitting in an upward position and they are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The two other males who were laying down was [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The four subjects appeared to be watching [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and laughing.

I then had [REDACTED] get off of [REDACTED]. I observed that [REDACTED] was very intoxicated, she was unable to stand on her legs. She was unable to crawl and she was clutching onto [REDACTED] crying, holding his leg's and around his neck.

Based on [REDACTED] intoxicated condition, a ambulance was called to transport her to [REDACTED] to check on her condition. I then met with [REDACTED] and his mother. I advised [REDACTED] of his Miranda rights, which he stated that he understood. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] came over to his home at [REDACTED] at 0930 hours. Collazo stated that his mother was upset to see the five inside her home and not in school. [REDACTED] stated his mother made all the subjects leave the house. [REDACTED] stated that after his ride did not show up to take him to a job interview he went outside, talked to a neighbor, then took some pictures of his home that was recently placed on the market. [REDACTED] stated that while he was standing outside, one of the subjects that was at his home earlier ran up to him and stated that [REDACTED] was in bad shape because of her intoxicated condition and she needed [REDACTED] help. [REDACTED] stated that he ran into the backyard of [REDACTED] and observed [REDACTED] rolling around on the grass and almost falling into the canal. [REDACTED] stated that the other parties in the backyard was not helping her and he feared that [REDACTED] was going to fall into the canal. [REDACTED] stated that he laid on top of [REDACTED] to keep her from falling into the canal.

I then asked [REDACTED] if he did or ever has had sexual intercourse with [REDACTED] and if he was the person that gave [REDACTED] that liquor she drank. [REDACTED] stated he did not give [REDACTED] any liquor and he said that he has never had sexual relations with [REDACTED].

The six juvenile's were handled in the following manner. Mr. [REDACTED] was turned over to his mother at [REDACTED] Mr. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were transported back to [REDACTED] by Officer Wikse. On 11/5/97 at 1113 hours, I was dispatched as a backup unit to 156 Martin Circle in reference to a juvenile call.

Upon arrival I met with Sgt. T. Hughes who was standing with a group of six juveniles, three w/m and three w/f. Ofc. Mancino was present and had already run all of the names through dispatch who had called the [REDACTED] and confirmed that all present was truant, with the exception of [REDACTED] who is not enrolled in school. RPB EMS was also on scene dealing with one of the w/f who was identified as [REDACTED]. It appeared that [REDACTED] had been drinking and she was unable to stand and was hysterical. EMS transported [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] and Sgt. Hughes asked me to transport one of the w/m's. [REDACTED] back to the High School and obtain a contact number for [REDACTED] parents. Upon my arrival at the High School I dropped [REDACTED] off at the student services office and I proceeded to the nurses offices where I obtained four emergency contact numbers for [REDACTED] parents. I attempted all of these numbers numerous times to no avail. I called down to the [REDACTED] and asked to speak with paramedics. I spoke with [REDACTED] who told me that [REDACTED], while enroute to the hospital, had found grass and twig material in the patients panties and had received a spontaneous statement from the patient in reference to being raped. I notified Sgt, Hughes of this and he had me respond to the E.R. to stand by for detectives. Upon arrival, at the E.R., I met with [REDACTED] who stated that while enroute to the E.R. she was conducting a head to toe evaluation when the patient stated that she had to urinate. Paramedic [REDACTED] was assisting [REDACTED] remove her panties when she noticed grass and twig particles in the crotch area of [REDACTED] panties as well as a small amount of blood, an unknown clear substance, and a substance which appeared to be semen. She also saw abrasions on [REDACTED] buttocks. [REDACTED] began screaming, "they held me down, they fucked me, they fucked me!" "I told them to stop, I thought they were my friends! Why would they do this to me? Am I pregnant?! Am I pregnant?!" I told [REDACTED] that I would need a witness statement from her in reference to these statements. She advised that she would complete the witness statement at the Fire Station and drop it off at the Police Station.

I remained at the E.R. and made several more attempts to contact [REDACTED] parents, again to no avail. Approximately 20 minutes later Detectives Pervenecki and Robeson responded to the E.R. and took over. I returned to the Police Department where Sgt. Hughes told Ofc. Wensyel and I to go find [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Sgt. Hughes told us that their clothing would be needed for possible evidence and to ask them to come in on a voluntary basis. While enroute to [REDACTED] residence at [REDACTED] Ofc. Wensyel and I were southbound on Wildcat Way at Willows Park when we noticed [REDACTED] crossing the road. Ofc. Wensyel stopped and spoke with Ian who agreed to come in voluntarily. We then proceeded to [REDACTED] where I was able to locate [REDACTED] and notify his mother of the situation. Marcus also agreed to come in voluntarily. Ofc. Wensyel transported both individuals to the P.D. while I remained and took four photo's of the residence/yard located at [REDACTED]. Upon completing this I responded to [REDACTED] and made contact with w/m, [REDACTED] who also agreed to come in on a voluntary basis.

Upon arrival at the Royal Palm Beach Police Department I made contact with Ofc. Mancino and gave him the pictures that I had taken. All juveniles had been separated and notifications were made to their parents. Det. Robkin responded and was briefed on the situation. I took each individual into the traffic office and had them change clothes. I placed their old clothing into evidence bags and Ofc. Mancino placed these bags into evidence bins.

On Tuesday, November 4, 1997 I was dispatched to Palm's West Hospital in reference to a suspicious incident. The juvenile victim, [REDACTED] was transported to the hospital by Royal Palm Beach Fire Department. There were allegations made by [REDACTED] that she may have been forced to have sex. (See original report).

Patricia Badu-Tweneboah, Counselor/Advocate from Victim Services was dispatched to the hospital. Patricia met with the victim and the parents of [REDACTED] in reference to the incident. A rape kit was done at the hospital by [REDACTED]

I interviewed [REDACTED] parents, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the hospital. After explaining the incident to them, they stated that [REDACTED] had met [REDACTED] at school. On Sunday, November 2, 1997, the [REDACTED] first met [REDACTED]. They spent the entire day with [REDACTED] and eventually dropped him off at his residence. On Tuesday, November 4, 1997, [REDACTED] stated that she dropped [REDACTED] off at [REDACTED] for school. They also stated that [REDACTED] had previously been sexually active but, felt that she was not currently sexually active.

After the examination was done by [REDACTED] I interviewed [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said that she didn't go to school and was with [REDACTED] and a group of friends. There were males and females in the group. Some of the juveniles [REDACTED] didn't know because she only met them today. [REDACTED] said that she remembers her legs being opened and being touched by individuals. She stated that her friends were laughing and saying something to the effect of "you will like it or enjoy it". [REDACTED] had her clothes on during the incident. She said that she had about five sips of alcohol and all her friends were drinking. [REDACTED] said that she had known [REDACTED] only a few days and she had been sexually active with him. She also remembered being kissed on her lips by a female that possibly was her friend, [REDACTED]. Virginia appeared to be very lethargic during the interview.

After the interview, I transported the collected evidence to the police station and proceeded to the [REDACTED] residence at [REDACTED]. I met with Mr. and Ms. [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] said that she saw a group of juveniles in front of her residence at around 9:00 A.M. [REDACTED] was at home, so she questioned him about the juveniles and found out they were some of his friends. At around 9:30 A.M., Ms. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that the group had to leave from her residence. Around 10:00 A.M., [REDACTED] told his mother that he was going to take pictures of their residence for their neighbor (the neighbor is helping them sell their residence). At about 11:00 A.M., Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she saw the Royal Palm Beach Fire Rescue with an unknown girl. Mr. [REDACTED] said that he wasn't missing any liquor from his residence.

SUPPLEMENT
Reported By: ROBKin, ROBERT G. 11/04/97
Entered By.: DRAHOS, KATHLEEN E. 11/26/97

On 11/4/97 at approximately 1215 hours, this investigator received a phone call at my home advising me of a possible sexual battery investigation. I was told to go to Palms West Hospital and met with Sgt. D. Pervenecki and if possible the victim.

This Detective arrived at the hospital at approximately 1300 hours and met with Sgt. Pervenecki, Detective J. Robeson and the victim's parents. After a brief conference with the above, I went to the Police Station to meet with the responding officers and to conduct this investigation.

After speaking with the responding officers, I then began to conduct interviews with [REDACTED] (S-1) [REDACTED] (S-2), and [REDACTED] (S-3). They were all at the Police Station.

I first met with S-3, [REDACTED]. I advised him that he was not under arrest and that he was under no obligation to answer any of my questions. I also asked him if he knew that this investigation was about. He told me that he thought it was because the victim had gotten very drunk.

I asked [REDACTED] to relate what had occurred this date, he stated that he had seen S-1 [REDACTED] prior to school at [REDACTED] house and there had been some discussion about skipping school. [REDACTED] says that he went to school and since he is in the "on the job training program" he gets out early. He is employed at "Tree's Wings", even though they are not open.

When he got out of school, he ran into [REDACTED] and his girlfriend and another girl, later identified as [REDACTED]. They all walked to [REDACTED] house where they met [REDACTED] and the victim. [REDACTED] says that they hung out at [REDACTED] house until his mother got mad and told [REDACTED] to have his friends leave. They were sitting in the driveway of the house and he says that he heard [REDACTED] and his mother yelling at each other.

All of the kids then went into the backyard. [REDACTED] says that he does not know where the victim got liquor from, but she became very drunk. He says that she was so drunk that she fell down several times and had to be pulled up an incline by her legs, to keep from falling into a canal. She was also acting very drunk by talking and laughing.

According to [REDACTED] they had only hung out for 15 or 20 minutes before the police arrived. [REDACTED] says that he did not see anyone molest or sexually violate the victim. [REDACTED] wrote out a statement, it is included in this record.

It should be noted that I was unable to record [REDACTED] statement because of a malfunction with the tape recorder. I then interviewed [REDACTED]. He was also advised that he was under no obligation to talk to me, he stated that he understood. I asked him to tell me what he had done on this date. This statement was taped. He told me that he had got up at 7:08 AM and left for school. He ran into Nissensohn and he had told him that they were going to cut school today. [REDACTED] was with the victim (they are boyfriend and girlfriend). AT approximately 0845 to 0900 hours, [REDACTED] says that he, the victim, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] all met and went to his house to skip and hang out. While they were there sometime around 0930 hours, his mother told him to have his friends go away. He says that he did. He also says that at this time he was also approached by his neighbor, [REDACTED] who is a real estate agent and is selling his parents house. [REDACTED] said that he needed to take pictures of the house. [REDACTED] states that after he sent his friends away, he took some pictures and approximately 40 to 45 minutes later, his friend, [REDACTED] (S-2) came and got him. He was told that his girlfriend was drunk and out of control. he then went behind the house at [REDACTED] and found the victim to be very drunk. She was falling down and scooting along the canal bank. It was necessary for him and the other subjects to physically pull her up the bank by her legs and at times also carry her away from the canal to prevent her from falling in. [REDACTED] says that at one point, in order to control her he found it necessary to sit a straddle on her. It was at this point that the police arrived. [REDACTED] says that he has no knowledge of anyone "messaging" with the victim.

Since the victim and this subject are boyfriend and girlfriend, I asked [REDACTED] if he was having intercourse with the victim. [REDACTED] refused to answer this question. I then asked if he had had sex with the victim on this date he then stated no, not today. [REDACTED] also wrote out a statement, it is a part of this report.

The last person that I interviewed was [REDACTED] his story is similar to the others except he states that [REDACTED] after everyone arrived at his house produced the bottle of liquor.

He says that he, his girlfriend [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and the victim all were at [REDACTED] house skipping school. He says that he watched the victim drink from the bottle and get very drunk. He also says that in order to cut the taste of the liquor, they took oranges from the orange tree in the yard where they were. [REDACTED] says that [REDACTED] tried to sober up the victim, he even went and got some food and coffee to give her, but nothing worked. According to [REDACTED] all six of them were sitting around, under some trees at the canal bank, drinking at different times [REDACTED] and the victim might have kissed, but there was no serious petting or touching that he saw. He did say that the victim was crawling around on her seat and butt, and at times she would scoot about on her fanny and her dress and panties would ride up. It was necessary for them to physically restrain her to keep her from falling into the canal. AT one point, it became necessary for [REDACTED] to sit on top of the victim to keep her from going into the canal. It was then that the police arrived.

This statement was taped and he also wrote out a statement which is included in this report.

After taking these statements from the above subjects, they were all released to their parents. Their clothing was confiscated and placed into property by the responding officers, to be sent to the lab for testing. See property receipts.

This investigator then conducted an interview with Fire/Rescue Officer Ellen F. Delai who was in the rescue wagon with the victim while she was being transported to the hospital. She states that the victim had indicated to her that she had been assaulted, and she had also seen what appears to be blood on the victims underpants. See her written statement for details and also the Fire/Rescue report.

Detective Robeson, who had been at the hospital with the victim returned to the station. He had the victims clothes and the contents of the "Rape Kit", these were placed into property. Det. Robeson also took a taped statement from the victim at the hospital, this is also in property.

AT approximately 1700 hours, I received a phone call from [REDACTED]. He told me over the phone at this time that he wanted to keep the record straight and he then stated that he and the victim were actively having sex. He said that the last time that they had sex was on 11/3/97 in the morning. [REDACTED] also asked e if he could come to the station and talk to me about the case. I told him to come on in.

He arrived at my office at approx. 1730 hours, he was with his father. After I explained this investigation to Mr. [REDACTED] the son [REDACTED] requested to speak with me in private. [REDACTED] told me that he was very upset at the possibility that some of his friends might have abused his girlfriend and he wanted me to know that he was willing to cooperate in anyway that he could to get to the bottom of this incident. During this conversation [REDACTED] also told me that he had supplied the liquor to the other teenagers but he did not expect the victim to get so drunk.

At this time, [REDACTED] also admitted to me that he and the victim are sexually active and the last time that they had intercourse was on Monday morning (11/3/97), he also says that they always use protection when they make love. This statement was not recorded nor taped. I asked [REDACTED] what he knew about the other people involved. He said that as far as he knew, these people were his friends. He had known them for a long while. I asked him if he knew the subject [REDACTED] he sated that she was new to the school and he had just recently met her. Her boyfriend is someone named [REDACTED]

I then asked [REDACTED] to tell me about the subject [REDACTED]. He told me that she is Ian's girlfriend, and that she is "bi", I asked how he knew this and [REDACTED] told me that he had seen her kissing other girls. He also told me that she tells people that she is "bi". [REDACTED] repeated several times that he was very upset about his girlfriend being assaulted. I advised him to not do anything that would get him into trouble, and if he learned or heard any information for him to contact me. He agreed to do so.

On 11/5/97 at approx. 1600 hours the victim, [REDACTED] came to the police station with her parents to be interviewed by this investigator. I first met with the victim and her parents and explained the investigation to this point, I also answered several questions that they had.

I then met privately with the victim to discuss her recollection of the events of the previous day. The victim told me that she had gone to school on 11/4/97, but as planned she and her friends cut after the first hour. They went to her boyfriend's [REDACTED] house and hung around until Mrs. [REDACTED] ran them off. She then says that she and the others, minus [REDACTED] went in back of some houses at a canal and started to drink. She says that she became very drunk and does not remember much. She does remember falling down and someone grabbing at her legs, but she does not know who. She also says that she has a vivid recollection of being kissed by a girl, but she is not sure if it is [REDACTED], and she thinks that she was being held down. People told her to relax, that she would like it, but she does not recall anything happening. I asked the victim if she recalls anything being inserted into her at anytime. She stated "no".

I also asked her if she was having any discomfort or soreness in her vaginal area or buttocks area, she again replied no, also asked if it was time for her period, or if she was having any types of cramps, she stated, NO. I asked the victim if she was sexually active, she told me that she and [REDACTED] were. I then asked her when was the last time that they had had sex. She told me Monday morning (11/3/97). She also said that they used a rubber, they always used protection.

I then asked her if she could explain why there might be traces of blood in her panties. She could offer no explanation. She also repeated that she is past her period and she is not injured that she knows of. I also inquired as to the victim's relationship with [REDACTED]. She says that they are friends, I asked her if [REDACTED] is gay or "bi", she then told me that [REDACTED] had told her that she was "bi". I asked the victim if she had ever fooled around with [REDACTED], she said no.

I asked her if she remembered the ride to the hospital, she told me that it was very vague, she does not recall her conversation with the rescue personnel. Because of certain statements that were made by the victim to the fire/rescue people, I felt that it was necessary to clear up some points. The victim had stated to the rescue people that "they had fucked me". I asked her if she knew the meaning of the word "fuck", she said that it meant to have sex. The victim had asked the fire/rescue personnel several times if she were pregnant because of what happened. I then asked the victim if she knew how a person becomes pregnant. She then told me that you get pregnant from having sex.

After conducting this interview the victim requested that some of her property be returned to her. She wanted her book bag and some clothing that was not submitted as evidence. These items were returned to her (see property receipt).

On this same date approximately 1830 hours, this investigator went to [REDACTED] and met with [REDACTED]. Her parents were not home, but she agreed to speak with me. I asked her to relate to me the vents of the day before. [REDACTED] told me that she had cut school with the other kids and had gone to [REDACTED] house. She told me that [REDACTED] Mom had told them to leave. [REDACTED] had supplied them with a bottle of liquor and they had drank some of it. [REDACTED] had to leave to do something and he left the victim who according to [REDACTED] was already drunk. This was somewhere around 1000 to 1030 hours. [REDACTED] says that the victim was so drunk that she was scooting and crawling around on the grass with her dress up and she was also making passes at the other boys who were there.

[REDACTED] states that she saw the victim grab Ian by the butt and by the crouch and she also attempted to do the same to [REDACTED] she would also ask them for sex. [REDACTED] states that she thinks the victim thought they were [REDACTED], because she kept asking for him. I asked [REDACTED] if she saw anyone in any way have any sexual contact with the victim, she states that the only thing that she saw at anytime was S-1 kissing the victim, but there was never any sex. I also asked her if at anytime did she kiss the victim or caress her in anyway. She stated "no".

I then asked her if she saw the victim place anything inside herself, she again said no. I then asked if she had anything to add before ending this interview. Crystal then asked me if I knew what the victim had said to the police officer when they came to the scene. I advised her no, for her to tell me. [REDACTED] states that when the police first arrived, the victim was very belligerent and was denying being drunk. When she (victim) realized that the police were going to take some sort of action, she told one of the officers that, "If you don't tell my parents, I'll fuck you". According to [REDACTED] the officer ignored this comment. This concluded the interview. The phone number shown for [REDACTED] on the report is not right, the correct phone number is 792-9076.

I then went to [REDACTED] and met with [REDACTED] and her parents. AS before, I asked her to tell me about the vents of the day before. She told me that she had cut school at around 0830 hours and she and her friend had gone to [REDACTED] house. [REDACTED] says that she arrived there at around 0900 hours she thins, she also states that the victim was already drunk when she got there. [REDACTED] states that she thinks that she was with the other people for around 2 hours. During that time she did not see anyone do anything to the victim. She did say, as did [REDACTED], that the victim made passes at the other boys who were present but no one did anything with her. I asked her if she saw [REDACTED] make any pass at the victim, or if she saw her kiss the victim. Kristin said no to this. [REDACTED] also told me that the victim had propositioned the police officer who came to the scene. I also, asked her how well she knew the victim, she told me that this was the first time that she had ever met her. [REDACTED] and nothing else to add at this time. This concludes the interviews with the people involved.

All of the evidence that has been collected will be sent to the PBSO for testing and analysis. It is unknown at this time as to why the victim had blood in her panties or where it came from. The victims parents were advised by this officer to seek medical advice and aid for their daughter, as well as possible counseling of some type.

All of the clothing submitted and confiscated are being submitted to the crime lab for testing. See attached lab request. The information contained in this report will be sent to the State Attorney's Office for review in regard to possible charges of Lewd and Lascivious conduct to a child under 16 years of age against Collazo, because of his admission and the victims admission to having sexual intercourse. This is in violation of FSS 800.04 (2).

Besides this admission, a simulation of sexual intercourse was also witnessed by the responding officer upon his arrival, This is a violation of the same statute. All the evidence, (clothing, liquor and lab evidence etc. has been sent to the crime lab on 11/7/97).

It should be noted that [REDACTED] was arrested on 11/6/97 for Aggravated Battery in an unrelated case. He is now in the County Jail and is charged as an adult.

OFFENSE NO. 1 FLORIDA STATE STATUTE: 794 011 CIS CODE 110A

ON 3-31-98 AT 3:00PM, I INITIATED A SWORN TAPED STATEMENT WITH [REDACTED]
IN REFERENCE TO A SEXUAL BATTERY INVESTIGATION.
[REDACTED] HAD A VERY QUIET DEMEANOR AND AT TIME SEEMED VERY RELUCTANT TO DISCUSS SENSITIVE FACTS ABOUT THIS CASE, WHICH IS NOT UNUSUAL. [REDACTED] AT TIME WAS EMOTIONAL AND CRIED DURING THE INTERVIEW.
[REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE MET THE SUSPECTS FROM THIS INCIDENT
AT A PARTY SEVERAL WEEKS PRIOR TO THE ASSAULTS, WHICH OCCURRED SOMETIME
AROUND THE 1ST OF FEBRUARY. ON THE NIGHT OF THE ASSAULT, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] WAS AT HER BOYFRIEND'S HOUSE PLAYING VIDEO GAMES ([REDACTED] DOES NOT WANT TO DISCLOSE THE IDENTITY OF HER BOYFRIEND AT THIS TIME).
THE SUSPECTS PULLED UP TO [REDACTED]'S BOYFRIEND'S HOUSE AT APPROXIMATELY 10:00PM ON THE DATE OF THE ASSAULT AND ASKED HIM IF HE WANTED TO GO OUT DRINKING. [REDACTED] BOYFRIEND COULD NOT GO, BUT HE TOLD THE SUSPECTS THAT [REDACTED] WAS THERE THAT SHE HAD RUN AWAY. SUSPECTS CAME INSIDE OF THE RESIDENCE AND ASKED [REDACTED] IF SHE WANTED TO GO DRINKING WITH THEM. AS STATED EARLIER, [REDACTED] HAD MET THE SUSPECT BEFORE AND SHE SAID SHE FIGURED IT WOULD MEAN FREE DRINKS SO SHE DECIDED TO GO.
[REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE AND THE SUSPECTS DRANK FOR ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES AT HER BOYFRIEND'S HOUSE PRIOR TO LEAVING. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE DRANK A FEW SHOTS OF EITHER TEQUILLA OR VODKA BEFORE THEY LEFT. ONCE IN THE CAR, [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE HAD ABOUT FIVE BEERS AND SHE WENT ON TO TELL ME THAT SHE BECAME VERY DRUNK.
I ASKED [REDACTED] WHICH OF THE TWO SUSPECTS WAS DRIVING THE CAR AND SHE REPLIED "KEVIN" (UNKNOWN LAST NAME). [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE AND THE TWO SUSPECTS ARRIVED AT A WOODED AREA IN LOXAHATCHEE CALLED "WOODSIES". I ASKED [REDACTED] FOR A DESCRIPTION OF KEVIN'S CAR AND SHE SAID THE CAR HAD "NORMAL SEATS" LIKE VELVET, WHICH INDICATES THEY PROBABLY WERE CLOTH SEATS. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE DID NOT KNOW THE MAKE OR MODEL OF THE CAR, BUT SHE SAID THAT IT WAS AN OLDER CAR, EITHER PURPLE OR MAROON IN COLOR. [REDACTED] DID NOT KNOW IF IT WAS A TWO DOOR OR FOUR DOOR OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION. I ASKED [REDACTED] FOR A DESCRIPTION OF KEVIN AND SHE SAID THAT HE IS A WHITE MALE, APPROXIMATELY TWENTY-THREE YEARS OF AGE, LONG BLONDE HAIR, MODERATELY OVERWEIGHT, APPROXIMATELY 5'11, WITH A DIRTY BLONDE GOATEE AND DIRTY BLONDE SIDEBURNS. [REDACTED] SAID THAT THE SUSPECT NEVER MENTIONED A PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT OR JOB TYPE DURING THEIR CONVERSATION.

[REDACTED] AT THIS TIME SAID SHE DID NOT FEEL COMFORTABLE IDENTIFYING SUSPECT NUMBER 2 BECAUSE SHE IS CLOSE FRIENDS WITH HIS BROTHER AND SHE FEELS THIS WOULD JEOPARDIZE THAT FRIENDSHIP.

AFTER ARRIVAL AT "THE WOODSIES" [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE PASSED OUT. WHEN SHE AWOKE, SHE WAS LYING ON THE FRONT SEAT OF KEVIN'S CAR WITH HER PANTS AROUND HER ANKLES AND SUSPECT NUMBER 2 (THE UNIDENTIFIED SUSPECT) ON TOP OF HER ENGAGING IN FORCED VAGINAL INTERCOURSE. [REDACTED] SAID THAT KEVIN (SUSPECT 1) WAS ATTEMPTING TO FORCE HER TO PERFORM ORAL SEX ON HIM.

[REDACTED] SAID THAT THE SUSPECTS WOULD TAKE TURNS FORCING VAGINAL INTERCOURSE ON HER. I ASKED [REDACTED] ABOUT SUSPECT NUMBER 1 FORCING ORAL SEX ON HER AS SHE PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED AND SHE SAID THAT HE FORCED THE HEAD OF HIS PENIS IN HER MOUTH. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE TOLD THE SUSPECTS THAT SHE WAS TIRED AND THAT SHE DID NOT WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS ACTIVITY. [REDACTED] WENT ON TO TELL ME THAT SHE WAS HAVING HER PERIOD DURING THE ASSAULT AND SHE REMEMBERS WAKING UP AND FINDING HER PANTS AROUND HER ANKLES AND SHE HAD A FEMININE PAD INSIDE OF HER. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE REMEMBERS TELLING THE SUSPECTS SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT OF "YOU'RE HAVING SEX WITH ME WHILE I'M ON MY PERIOD AND THAT'S GROSS".

I ASKED [REDACTED] IF THE SUSPECTS SAID ANYTHING WHILE THIS WAS HAPPENING AND SHE THEN SAID THAT SHE REMEMBERS THEM SAYING SOMETHING STUPID LIKE, ARE YOU HAVING FUN BABY. [REDACTED] ALSO SAID KEVIN WOULD LAUGH AND MAKE STUPID COMMENTS TO HER DURING THE ASSAULT.

I ASKED [REDACTED] IF EITHER OF THE SUSPECTS USED PROTECTION AND SHE SAID THEY DID NOT. [REDACTED] WAS UNSURE IF EITHER OF THE SUSPECTS EJACULATED INSIDE OF HER. [REDACTED] ESTIMATED THAT THE ASSAULT PROBABLY LASTED AROUND FIVE TO SEVEN HOURS.

[REDACTED] REPORTED THAT KEVIN (SUSPECT #1) FORCED SEXUAL INTERCOURSE WITH HER AT LEAST ONE TIME, BUT WAS UNSURE OF ANY ADDITIONAL ENCOUNTERS.

[REDACTED] SAID THAT SUSPECT #2 (UNIDENTIFIED SUSPECT) FORCED SEXUAL INTERCOURSE

ON HER MORE THAN TWICE.

AFTER THE ASSAULT IN THE WOODED AREA, [REDACTED] RETURNED WITH SUSPECT #2 TO HIS RESIDENCE WHERE HE HAD SEXUAL INTERCOURSE WITH [REDACTED]. SUSPECT #2 TOLD [REDACTED] THAT IT WAS HER TURN, (MEANING SHE WAS TO BE ON TOP DURING SEXUAL INTERCOURSE). [REDACTED] TOLD HIM SHE WAS TOO TIRED TO DO ANYTHING. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SUSPECT #2 PARENTS AND BROTHER WERE HOME AT THE TIME OF THE ENCOUNTER AT HIS RESIDENCE. [REDACTED] SAID THAT HER FRIEND (SUSPECT #2'S BROTHER) SAW HER INSIDE OF THE RESIDENCE IN THE MORNING.

I ASKED [REDACTED] IF SHE TOLD ANYONE WHAT HAPPENED AND SHE SAID SHE TOLD HER BOYFRIEND THAT SHE HAD CONSENTED TO SEXUAL INTERCOURSE WITH THE SUSPECTS. I ASKED [REDACTED] IF SHE GOT ALL OF HER CLOTHING AND PERSONAL ITEMS BACK FROM KEVIN'S CAR. SHE SAID SHE IS MISSING A CLEAR PLASTIC PURSE WITH BLACK TRIM WHICH CONTAINED MAKEUP AND OTHER PERSONAL EFFECTS. [REDACTED] DOES NOT REMEMBER IF ANY OF HER CLOTHES WERE LEFT IN KEVIN'S CAR.

IN CONCLUDING THE INTERVIEW, I ASKED [REDACTED] IF ANYTHING ELSE HAPPENED THAT WE DID NOT DISCUSS AND SHE SAID "THEY PERFORMED ORAL SEX ON ME". I ASKED [REDACTED] IF BOTH SUSPECTS DID THIS AND SHE REPLIED "KEVIN DID, I DON'T REMEMBER IF JOSH DID". WITH THAT LAST QUOTE, [REDACTED] INADVERTENTLY IDENTIFIED SUSPECT NUMBER #2 AS JOSH. AT THE TIME [REDACTED] MENTIONED JOSH'S NAME, SHE DID NOT REALIZE IT.

I ASKED [REDACTED] ABOUT THE BEER THE SUSPECTS GAVE HER AND SHE SAID THAT THEY GAVE HER FIVE BOTTLES OF BEER AND SHE SAID IT WAS EITHER MICHELOB OR BUSCH.

I ASKED [REDACTED] IF THE SUSPECTS GAVE HER ANY DRUGS AND SHE REPLIED "MARIJUANA". I ASKED HER WHO GAVE HER MARIJUANA AND SHE REPLIED "JOSH". [REDACTED] THEN REALIZED THAT SHE HAD IDENTIFIED JOSH AS THE OTHER SUSPECT AND SHE BECAME VERY UPSET WITH HERSELF AND STARTED TO CRY. I ASKED [REDACTED] HOW MUCH POT SHE SMOKED AND SHE SAID A COUPLE OF JOINTS. THIS CONCLUDED THE INTERVIEW AND I SWORE [REDACTED] IN AGAIN AFTER THE INTERVIEW TO CONFIRM THAT ALL THE INFORMATION SHE HAD GIVEN WAS THE TRUTH AND SHE SWORE THAT IT WAS.

ON 4-1-98 AT 1515HRS, I SPOKE WITH MRS. [REDACTED] ABOUT MY INTERVIEW WITH [REDACTED]. I ASKED HER IF SHE COULD PROVIDE [REDACTED]'S BOYFRIEND'S NAME AND SHE SAID THAT SHE WOULD FIND HIS NAME AND CALL ME BACK.

AT 1535HRS ON 4-1-98, MRS. [REDACTED] CALLED ME BACK WITH [REDACTED]'S BOYFRIEND'S NAME. MRS. [REDACTED] SAID HIS NAME IS TONY FIGUEROA AND HIS PHONE NUMBER IS 792-9076. MRS. [REDACTED] ALSO SPOKE ABOUT HER DAUGHTER'S PAST DRUG ABUSE AND ALSO HOW MANY KIDS IN ROYAL PALM BEACH ARE INVOLVED IN DRUGS, WITCHCRAFT AND ANIMAL SACRIFICE. MRS. [REDACTED] SAID THAT SHE HAS ATTEMPTED TO DISCUSS THE DRUG PROBLEM WITH THE PRINCIPAL AT ROYAL PALM

AS REPORTED IN THE PREVIOUS SUPPLEMENT, [REDACTED] MADE A POSITIVE IDENTIFICATION THAT JOSH BUNNER WAS ONE OF THE SUBJECTS THAT RAPED HER ON/OR ABOUT MARCH 1ST, 1998. THE PBSO PALMS COMPUTER SHOWED A CURRENT ADDRESS OF BUNNER FOR 15396 SANDIEGO DR. IN LOXAHATCHEE.

ON 8-13-98, I RESPONDED TO THAT ADDRESS IN AN ATTEMPT TO MAKE CONTACT WITH BUNNER. THERE WAS A LOCKED GATE AND NO ONE APPEARED TO BE HOME. I CONTACTED PBSO DISPATCH TO SEE IF THEY COULD FIND A NUMBER FOR THE RESIDENCE AND THIS MET WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS. I LEFT MY BUSINESS CARD AT THE RESIDENCE WITH A NOTE TO HAVE JOSH CALL ME AT THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

ON 8-17-98 AT APPROXIMATELY 3:30PM, I AGAIN RESPONDED TO 15396 SANDIEGO DR. IN AN ATTEMPT TO MAKE CONTACT WITH JOSHUA BUNNER AND THIS TIME I WAS SUCCESSFUL. I ASKED JOSH IF HE WOULD BE WILLING TO SPEAK WITH ME IN REGARDS TO AN ONGOING SHERIFF'S OFFICE INVESTIGATION AND HE AGREED TO DO THIS. I TOLD JOSH THAT HE WAS NOT REQUIRED TO BE SUBJECT TO THIS INTERVIEW AND IF HE DECIDED TO CONDUCT THE INTERVIEW HE COULD TERMINATE THE INTERVIEW AT ANY TIME. PRIOR TO GOING ON TAPE, I ONLY ASKED JOSH BUNNER ABOUT HIS FRIEND KEVIN AND ABOUT ANY TYPE OF HOBBIES THAT HE AND THOMPSON ENGAGE IN TOGETHER.

AT 3:48PM, I INITIATED A TAPED INTERVIEW WITH JOSH BUNNER INSIDE OF MY UNMARKED VEHICLE PARKED IN THE FRONT OF BUNNER'S RESIDENCE AT 15396 SANDIEGO DR. AGAIN, I TOLD JOSH THAT HE COULD TERMINATE THE INTERVIEW ANY TIME THAT HE WANTED TO AND GO BACK INSIDE OF HIS HOUSE. JOSH SAID THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THIS.

BUNNER WENT ON TO TELL ME THAT THEY WERE DRINKING BEERS IN A WOODED AREA IN LOXAHATCHEE CALLED THE WHOOPTIES. JOSH INITIALLY SAID THAT [REDACTED] ROBERTS HAD TWO OR THREE BEERS. JOSH ALSO SAID THAT [REDACTED] WAS PLAYING LIKE SHE WAS GOING TO GO TO SLEEP WHILE THEY WERE IN THE WOODS.

I ASKED JOSH BUNNER TO TELL ME EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENED THAT NIGHT AND HE SAID "WE HAD SEX BASICALLY". I ASKED JOSH WHO HE MEANT BY SAYING WE HAD SEX AND HE REPLIED "ALL OF US", REFERRING TO JOSH, KEVIN THOMPSON AND [REDACTED]. I ASKED JOSH WHERE THIS HAPPENED AND HE REPLIED "IN THE CAR".

I ASKED JOSH BUNNER ABOUT HIS SEXUAL ENCOUNTER WITH [REDACTED] AND HE SAID "IT JUST HAPPENED, LIKE THAT, IT'S NOT SOMETHING YOU PLAN FOR". I ASKED BUNNER IF HE USED ANY PROTECTION AND HE SAID THEY USED A CONDOM. I ASKED BUNNER IF HE OR KEVIN WAS THE FIRST ONE TO HAVE SEX WITH [REDACTED] AND HE SAID "THAT WOULD PROBABLY BE ME".

I ASKED BUNNER HOW THE SEXUAL ACTIVITY GOT STARTED AND HE REPLIED "SHE WAS DRINKING AND SHE WAS ABOUT TO PASS OUT AND I SAID YOU CAN'T GO TO SLEEP, WE'RE STILL DRINKING BEERS". JOSH SAID [REDACTED] REPLIED "I'M GOING TO GO TO SLEEP" AND HE SAID "NO, YOU CAN'T GO TO SLEEP". JOSH SAID THAT [REDACTED] SAID TO HIM SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT OF WHY DON'T YOU KEEP ME AWAKE.

I TOLD HIM THAT [REDACTED] MADE A REPORT THAT HE AND KEVIN RAPED HER AND I EXPLAINED I WAS ATTEMPTING TO GET THE STATEMENTS FROM HE AND KEVIN AS TO EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENED. AT THAT POINT, KEVIN TOLD ME THAT [REDACTED] HAS SLEPT AROUND.

I ASKED BUNNER IF SHE ([REDACTED]) HAD CLOTHES ON AND HE SAID SHE HAD PANTS AND A SHIRT ON. I ASKED HIM HOW HE WAS ABLE TO HAVE SEXUAL INTERCOURSE WITH HER WITH HER CLOTHES ON AND HE SAID THAT SHE TOOK THEM OFF. JOSH INDICATED THAT [REDACTED] WAS ON TOP OF HIM AT ONE POINT DURING THE SEXUAL INTERCOURSE. I ASKED JOSH BUNNER WHAT KEVIN THOMPSON WAS DOING AT THAT POINT AND HE SAID "WATCHING". JOSH WENT ON TO TELL ME THAT "AT NO POINT DID I HEAR NO, I GUESS THAT'S THE IMPORTANT THING".

I NEVER HEARD NO OUT OF HER MOUTH". I ASKED JOSH HOW KEVIN AND [REDACTED] ENDED UP HAVING SEXUAL INTERCOURSE AND HE REPLIED "I GUESS I JUST FINISHED AND THEY PROCEEDED".

I ASKED JOSH BUNNER HOW KEVIN AND [REDACTED] WERE POSITIONED AND HE SAID "AT ONE POINT, I GUESS [REDACTED] WAS FACING HIM, BUT THEN THEY WERE ON THE SEAT AND THEY WERE AT AN ANGLE TOWARDS THE STEERING WHEEL I GUESS".

I ASKED JOSH WHAT HIS DEFINITION OF SEXUAL INTERCOURSE WAS AND HE SAID "PENIS FLOWING THROUGH THE VAGINA". I ASKED JOSH WHAT HIS DEFINITION OF ORAL SEX WOULD BE AND HE SAID "CARESSING PRIVATE PARTS". I TOLD JOSH WHEN I USED THE TERM ORAL SEX THAT I MEAN IN REGARDS TO A FEMALE WOULD BE HER PUTTING HER MOUTH ON A PENIS AND IN REGARDS TO A MALE IT WOULD BE HIM PUTTING HIS MOUTH ON A VAGINA. I ASKED HIM IF HE UNDERSTOOD THAT AND HE SAID THAT HE DID. I ASKED JOSH IF [REDACTED] PERFORMED ORAL SEX ON KEVIN AND HE REPLIED "NO". JOSH BUNNER THEN SAID "MAY I ASK WHAT THIS IS ABOUT". I REMINDED JOSH THAT I HAD ANSWERED THAT QUESTION EARLIER AND I AGAIN WENT ON TO TELL HIM THAT [REDACTED] REPORTED THAT SHE WAS RAPED BY HE AND KEVIN THOMPSON. I ASKED JOSH IF HE REMEMBERED ME TELLING HIM THAT EARLIER IN THE INTERVIEW AND HE REPLIED "I REMEMBER NOW, I HAVE A BAD MEMORY".

PRIOR TO ASKING KEVIN THOMPSON THE FACTS CONCERNING THE ALLEGATIONS IN THIS CASE, I READ HIM HIS MIRANDA RIGHTS AND HE CONFIRMED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THOSE MIRANDA RIGHTS AND SIGNED A MIRANDA RIGHTS CARD. KEVIN THOMPSON ADMITTED THAT HE HAD ENGAGED IN SEXUAL RELATIONS WITH [REDACTED] ON OR ABOUT THE DATE IN QUESTION AND THOMPSON ADMITTED THAT JOSHUA BUNNER WAS THERE ALSO. PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, files this Response in Opposition to Defendant's Motion for a Protective Order Regarding Financial Information (DE 370). Defendant's financial information is highly relevant to this case, particularly in light of Ms. Giuffre's punitive damages claim as well as press reports suggesting that the Defendant may be selling her assets in New York and transferring the money outside the jurisdiction. Accordingly, Defendant's motion for a protective order should be denied.<sup>1</sup>

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

As recounted by Defendant (DE 370 at 1-3), Ms. Giuffre has served discovery requests on Defendant, seeking certain financial information from the Defendant. The requests are narrowly tailored to the time frame related to this case, as the requested information concerns financial information from just the time during which Defendant has defamed Ms. Giuffre (2015 to present).

<sup>1</sup> Contemporaneous with the filing of this response to Defendant's motion for a protective order regarding financial information, Ms. Giuffre has also filed a motion to compel Defendant to produce the requested financial information. This parallel filing is apparently required because Ms. Giuffre does not simply seek the negative relief of denial of Defendant's requested protective order but also the affirmative relief of a Court order requiring production of the materials.

As with most of the other discovery requests she has received, Defendant has chosen not to produce any information. Instead, she has filed this motion for a blanket protective order, arguing that financial discovery has no relevance whatsoever to any issue in this case. Of course, given the broad scope of discovery, the Court can grant Defendant's motion only if no relevance exists at all. But in fact, Defendant's financial information is highly relevant to at least three issues in this case. First, Defendant's recent efforts to conceal assets from the reach of this Court proves consciousness of her guilt of sex trafficking. Second, Defendant's financial affairs will show dependence on Epstein for financial support, an issue highly relevant to motive.<sup>2</sup> Third, as Defendant herself appears to admit, the discovery is relevant to the size of the punitive damage award that the jury should enter in this case. Facts relevant to each of these three points are set out in order below.

A. Discovery of Financial Information is Relevant to Show Defendant's Transfer of Assets Out of the Jurisdiction after the Commencement of Litigation and thus Her Consciousness of Guilt.

The requested financial information is relevant to issues relating to Defendant's apparent attempt to conceal assets from the Court. The timing of recent events is telling here. As the Court will recall, in court pleadings filed December 30, 2014, Ms. Giuffre initially publicly alleged Defendant had sexually abused her. On September 21, 2015, Ms. Giuffre filed her lawsuit against Defendant here in the Southern District of New York. (DE 1.) Ms. Giuffre is seeking at least $50 million in compensatory and punitive damages from Ms. Maxwell. Just a few months after the suit was filed, on April 28, 2016, the New York Post reported that

Defendant, “the daughter of the late disgraced press baron Robert Maxwell, has sold her townhouse at 116 E. 65th St. for $15 million.” See <http://nypost.com/2016/04/28/alleged-epstein-madam-sells-16m-manhattan-townhouse/>. When questioned about the sale, Defendant’s representative refused to comment. See id. (broker Shari Scharfer Rollins, of Douglas Elliman, did not return calls).

The transfers of assets, likely out of the jurisdiction of this Court, provides evidence of consciousness of criminal guilt and civil liability. Clearly, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to explore all the circumstances surrounding the timing and consummation of this sale, including whether Defendant has now secreted these assets someplace where they may be difficult to reach, such as in the United Kingdom (where, on information and belief, Maxwell is a UK citizen holding a UK passport) or elsewhere.

Maxwell’s removal and apparent concealment of assets takes place against a backdrop of disregard of court orders by Maxwell and others involved in the Epstein sex trafficking organization. In 2009, before suit was ever filed in this case, Maxwell was served with a subpoena for a deposition in a civil case against Jeffrey Epstein. After extensive discussion and coordinating a convenient time and place, as well as ultimately agreeing to a confidentiality agreement prepared by Maxwell’s attorney, at the eleventh hour Maxwell’s attorney informed plaintiff’s counsel that Maxwell’s mother was very ill and that consequently Maxwell was leaving the country with no plans to return. The deposition was cancelled. Yet a short time later, Maxwell was photographed at Chelsea Clinton’s wedding in Rhinebeck, New York, confirming the suspicion that she was indeed still in the country and willing to say anything to avoid her deposition.

Similarly, the Court is familiar with the long (and still on-going) effort of Ms. Giuffre’s efforts to take the depositions of those who participated with Defendant in sexual abuse -- including Jeffrey Epstein, Nadia Marcikova, and Sarah Kellen – depositions that have thus far been defeated by evasions of service of process and other similar maneuvers. See DE 160, Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas by Means Other than Personal Service, which this Court granted on June 20, 2016; DE 308, Motion for Finding Civil Contempt against Sarah Kellen for Ignoring Subpoena (pending); DE 310, Motion for Finding of Civil Contempt against Nadia Marcinkova for Ignoring Subpoena (pending). Similarly, the Court will recall that Ms. Giuffre was recently forced to resort to the Hague Convention in an effort to depose Maxwell’s spokesman, Ross Gow, about statements he made on Defendant’s behalf. See DE 306, Motion for Extension of Time to Complete Discovery to Serve and Depose Ross Gow (pending); DE 330 and 331, Application for Letters Rogatory (application granted and letter issued by the Court on August 11, 2016 (DE 358)).

Against the backdrop of these repeated evasion efforts, Defendant’s sale of $15 million in assets appears even more alarming. And, evidence of consciousness of guilt is admissible in criminal cases, even where the standard of proof is much higher than in a civil case. See, e.g., United States v. Amuso, 21 F.3d 1251, 1258 (2d Cir. 1994) (recognizing admissibility of evidence from which a jury could find consciousness of guilt). Ms. Giuffre is entitled to explore all the circumstances surrounding Ms. Maxwell’s apparent efforts to hide assets.<sup>3</sup>

B. Discovery of Financial Information is Relevant to Show a Financial Link to Epstein.

In addition to providing evidence Defendant is hiding assets, the financial information will help to establish an important link between Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein. Drawing again

<sup>3</sup> The Court should review Defendant’s reply to this pleading carefully to see if she represents to the Court that the $15 million in assets she has apparently concealed will be made available to satisfy any judgment that Ms. Giuffre might obtain in this case. If Defendant fails to make such a representation, the Court can draw the obvious inference that Defendant is attempting to hide her assets to escape responsibility for paying any ultimate judgment here.

on a published article from the New York Post, it appears that Defendant's townhouse (among other assets) might be part of a covert payoff from Epstein to Defendant. As the Post reports, "[a] lawyer with links to Epstein reportedly bought the townhouse for Maxwell, who has allegedly never earned enough or inherited enough to make the purchase on her own."

<http://nypost.com/2016/04/28/alleged-epstein-madam-sells-16m-manhattan-townhouse/>. This article suggests that Defendant is reliant upon Epstein for tremendous financial support, which certainly provides a strong motive for her to provide favors to Epstein – including providing him with underage girls for sex. It also provides a strong motive for her to lie at trial about Epstein's (and her own) sex trafficking. Indeed, to conceal these facts, other media reports suggest that the reason that Defendant was trying to sell her townhouse "quietly" was perhaps "to put some distance between herself and Epstein, who owns a mansion a few blocks away."

<http://pagesix.com/2015/02/02/accused-epstein-madam-quietly-selling-ues-townhouse/>.

Again, perhaps there is some innocent explanation for these secretive efforts. But, if so, Defendant has declined to provide it. See id. (noting Defendant's "rep didn't comment").

C. Discovery of Financial Information is Relevant to the Issue of the Size of any Punitive Damages.

Financial information regarding Defendant is also highly relevant to Ms. Giuffre's punitive damages claim. Of course, it is well-settled law that "evidence of a tortfeasor's wealth is traditionally admissible as a measure of the amount of punitive damages that should be awarded." City of Newport v. Fact Concerts, Inc., 453 U.S. 247, 270 (1981). As explained by the Reporters of the American Law Institute's Restatement of Torts, when considering the size of punitive damages "[t]he wealth of the defendant is also relevant, since the purposes of exemplary damages are to punish for a past event and to prevent future offenses, and the degree of punishment or deterrence resulting from a judgment is to some extent in proportion to the means of the guilty person.” Restatement (Second) of Torts § 908, cmt. e (1979).

Defendant does not attempt to quarrel with the proposition that her vast wealth is relevant to Ms. Giuffre’s punitive damages claim. See, e.g., DE 370 at 6 (citing case allowing information about a defendant’s wealth to be presented to the jury). Instead, it appears that her only argument concerns the timing of the disclosure of such information, an issue discussed below. For purposes of setting out the salient facts, then, it is enough to note here that even Defendant has to ultimately concede that discovery about her financial information is relevant to this case.

II. DISCUSSION

Because discovery regarding Defendant’s financial circumstances and recent transactions is relevant to this case for multiple reasons, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to discovery regarding that information. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), a party may request that another party produce documents in her possession so long as the documents are within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b), which allows for broad discovery regarding any non-privileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim or defense. Information within this scope of permitted discovery need not be admissible in evidence to be discoverable. Relevance is still to be “construed broadly to encompass any matter that bears on, or that reasonably could lead to other matter that could bear on” any party’s claim or defense. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Fayda, No. 14CIV9792WHPJCF, 2015 WL 7871037, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 3, 2015) (granting motion to compel). For reasons explained above, the financial information sought is relevant to issues in this case, and, accordingly Defendant’s motion for a protective order should be denied. There is also no sound reason for delaying discovery on these issues.

A. Discovery of Financial Information is Appropriate Pre-Trial to Avoid the Need to Summon Two Separate Juries to Hear the Evidence in the Case.

Seemingly recognizing the fact that discovery regarding her financial information is appropriate, Defendant's ultimate argument appears not to be that the discovery is improper, but rather that it should be delayed until after the trial starts. Thus, Defendant's first specific argument section is that financial "discovery is not appropriate pre-trial." DE 370 at 6. In support of this proposition, Defendant's lead citation is a forty-year-old New York case, Rupert v. Sellers, 48 A.D.2d 265 (4th Dept. 1975). But as much more recent authority from the Southern District of New York explains, Rupert is inapplicable to discovery issues because the case relates solely to the sequence with which evidence can be produced at trial:

[Defendant's] reliance on Rupert v. Sellers, 48 A.D.2d 265, 368 N.Y.S.2d 904 (4th Dep't 1975), for the proposition that punitive damages discovery is not appropriate until a plaintiff has first established liability is misguided since federal law and not state law governs questions of procedure such as discoverability. Hazeldine v. Beverage Media, Ltd., No. 94 Civ. 3466 (CSH), 1997 WL 362229, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. June 27, 1997) (citations omitted). Moreover, while the Second Circuit "has cited Rupert with approval, it has done so for the proposition that evidence of a defendant's wealth should not 'be brought out at trial unless and until the jury has brought in a special verdict that the plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages.' " Id. (citations omitted). It has not held that financial discovery such as that sought here may only be taken after a liability determination.

Pasternak v. Dow Kim, 275 F.R.D. 461, 463 (S.D.N.Y. 2011).

Defendant also cites another decision from this court, Collens v. City of New York, 222 F.R.D. 249, 254 (S.D.N.Y. 2004). DE 370 at 7. But Collens does not stand for the proposition that financial discovery is broadly barred, but only that on the facts of that case no such discovery was required. As a recent case from the District of New Jersey explains in allowing pre-trial discovery of financial information for punitive damages purposes:

Defendants assert that until there has been a finding of liability by the jury, punitive damage discovery is not appropriate. Defendants rely on Collens, where the court stated that because the issue of punitive damages is generally bifurcated from issues of liability, and punitive damages issues thus may never arise, punitive damage discovery was not necessary at the pretrial stage. See Collens, 222 F.R.D. at 254. Plaintiffs assert that the same jury will decide both liability and punitive damages issues and that, as a practical matter, there is no time to conduct discovery—including depositions of the individual police officers—between the liability verdict and the charge to the jury on punitive damages. Plaintiffs' counsel represented at oral argument that if Defendants are concerned with maintaining the confidentiality of the individual police officer defendants' personal information, Plaintiffs will agree to a confidentiality order and the sealing of those portions of the deposition transcripts and documents that disclose such information until such time as there is a finding of liability, if any, as to the individual police officer defendants. . . . Insofar as Plaintiffs assert a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Court notes that “evidence of a tortfeasor's wealth is traditionally admissible as a measure of the amount of punitive damages that should be awarded[.]” City of Newport v. Fact Concerts, Inc., 453 U.S. 247, 270 (1981). Therefore, interrogatories seeking information about Defendants' financial condition are reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence on the issue of punitive damages.

Graham v. Carino, No. CIV.09-4501 JEI/AMD, 2010 WL 2483294, at *3 (D.N.J. June 4, 2010).

That pre-trial discovery on financial matters is allowed when a punitive damage issue is present in a case is confirmed by Tillery v. Lynn, 607 F. Supp. 399, 402-03 (S.D.N.Y. 1985). To leave the discovery until later would be burdensome on the jury – meaning that a common approach is to allow financial discovery to proceed pre-trial and then to later bifurcate the trial itself into liability and punitive damages phases:

Discovery as to defendant's personal assets may be undertaken by plaintiff at this time. It would be unduly burdensome to plaintiff, and most particularly a jury and the court, to delay resolution of the issue as to the amount of punitive damages, if any, which should be awarded until discovery as to defendant's personal assets had been completed. However, as the New York courts have recognized, “defendant's wealth should not be a weapon to be used by plaintiff to enable him to induce the jury to find the defendant guilty of malice, thus entitling plaintiff to punitive damages.” Rupert v. Sellers, 48 A.D.2d 265, 272, 368 N.Y.S.2d 904, 912 (4th Dep't 1975). Accord, Chilvers v. New York Magazine Company, Inc., 114 Misc.2d 996, 453 N.Y.S.2d 153 (N.Y.Co.Sup.Ct.1982). Accordingly, in the interest of justice and to avoid any undue prejudice during the liability phase of this action, the trial will be bifurcated. . . . Therefore, defendant's motions for partial summary judgment and to stay discovery as to his financial status are denied.

Tillery v. Lynn, 607 F. Supp. 399, 402-03 (S.D.N.Y. 1985) (Motley, J.).

The holding in Tillery was endorsed in Hazeldine v. Beverage Media, Ltd., No. 94 CIV. 3466 (CSH), 1997 WL 362229, at *2-*3 (S.D.N.Y. 1997), which explained” “Tillery followed this preferred course by bifurcating the trial, see Simpson, 901 F.2d at 283, but allowing pre-trial financial discovery to proceed.” Most cases in most jurisdictions outside the Southern District of New York have reached exactly the same conclusion and allowed pre-trial discovery of financial information for punitive damage purposes.<sup>4</sup>

FV Seafarer, 153 F.R.D. 491 (D.R.I.1994) (plaintiffs were not required to establish prima facie case on issue of punitive damages before they could obtain pretrial discovery of financial information of defendants; plaintiffs had alleged facts sufficient to make a non-spurious claim for punitive damages and that was sufficient to warrant discovery);

Defendant also cites a decision from Judge Cote in Tyco Intern. Ltd. v. Walsh, which allowed a delay in seeking discovery of financial information in that case because it was not clear if the issue would become relevant. But that case involved peculiar circumstances, which permitted discovery of financial information to be bi-furcated without any burden on the Court. Specifically, that case involved a bench trial, which allowed a delay between the liability phase and punitive damages phases of the trial. As the Court explained. “it would be premature to force the defendant to produce his net worth information at this time. If necessary, plaintiff will have an opportunity to obtain discovery on the defendant's financial circumstances as part of any post-trial discovery. Since the trial in this matter is a bench trial, no jury will be burdened by any delay occasioned by this discovery period.” Tyco Int’l Ltd. v. Walsh, No. 02-CV-4633 (DLC), 2010 WL 3000179, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. July 30, 2010).

Of course, exactly the opposite situation exists here. Defendant would apparently have the Court delay until the jury returns with its verdict in favor of Ms. Giuffre before allowing discovery to proceed on Defendant’s financial circumstances. As a practical matter, this would seem to require sending the jury empaneled to hear liability issues home and then selecting a new, second jury on punitive damages issues – a new jury which would have to somehow be shown all of the previous testimony from the liability phase. See Hazeldine v. Beverage Media, Ltd., No. 94 CIV. 3466 (CSH), 1997 WL 362229, at *2-*3 (S.D.N.Y. 1997) (“allowing pre-trial plaintiffs' net worth; California limitations on such discovery did not apply in federal court);

Pa. 1994) (“In products liability action, plaintiffs would be allowed discovery of defendants’ financial statements and total sales revenue on the ground they are relevant to the issue of punitive damages; information regarding punitive damages is as discoverable as information that relates to liability, and discovery could proceed without prior proof of prima facie case on punitive damages.”).

discovery [of financial information] avoids the inefficiency of a discovery delay between the liability and damages phases of trial, as well as the need to assemble a second jury.”).

Finally, Defendant relies upon Guccione v. Flynt, for the proposition that financial discovery is not appropriate on punitive damages issues here. But that case was sui generis with peculiar facts that render it inapplicable here. See Guccione v. Flynt, No. 83 CIV. 8020 RWS, 1985 WL 255, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 6, 1985) (“It should be apparent to anyone forced to review these papers and the issues presented by this action that two men with ample resources are employing lawyers and occupying space and time in the justice system to continue their personal feud. Regrettably there is to date no apparent basis to avoid the unappetizing task of ruling on these motions.”). Moreover, in that case, the Court in fact ordered the Defendant to produce financial information to be turned over to plaintiff’s counsel at the time of trial. See id. at 1. While that solution may have worked well in that case, it is not satisfactory here. Defendant is not an established businessperson with regularly-kept disclosure statements reporting income and related financial information. Instead, Defendant is participant in a covert, sex trafficking organization with mysterious financial arrangements and apparent, recent efforts to conceal assets. In such circumstance, Ms. Giuffre is not required to take the Defendant’s net worth statement at face value, but instead is entitled to receive it well in advance of trial so that she may investigate its accuracy.

Finally, this Court has previously rejected exactly the same arguments that are being made here. This Court explained that “[w]hile bifurcation may be the preferred method of resolving disputed issues of liability and damages, as it prevents prejudice to the defendants by keeping financial evidence out of the liability phase of the trial, this does not mean that plaintiffs should be denied pretrial financial discovery.” Hamm v. Potamkin, No. 98 CIV. 7425 (RWS), 1999 WL 249721, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 28, 1999). This Court explained that “[a]s far as the general timing of financial disclosures is concerned, plaintiffs need not wait until after a finding of liability or a preliminary finding of damages to obtain discoverable financial information from defendants.” Id. Those conclusions were well-reasoned then, and remain well-reasoned now. Just as the Court refused to deny pretrial financial discovery to the plaintiff in that case, it should not deny Ms. Giuffre pretrial financial discovery here. Pre-trial discovery is the only way to ensure that Ms. Giuffre will be able to discover all the information that she needs for each of the three purposes outlined in Part I above.

B. Discovery of Financial Information Should Not Be Delayed until a Ruling on Defendant’s Summary Judgment Motion.

Defendant also tries to interpose one last stalling argument: That discovery of financial information should await a ruling on her anticipated summary judgment motion. This argument should be rejected for two reasons: First, any argument that Defendant might advance in a summary judgment motion would border on frivolous given the overwhelming evidence establishing her involvement in sex trafficking. Second, because the trial is drawing near, waiting for summary judgment motions to be decided would unreasonably compress the time available to Ms. Giuffre’s counsel to investigate Defendant’s financial information.

Defendant anticipates that she will “likely” file a summary judgment motion which will include an argument concerning the “substantial truth” of Defendant’s statements. DE 370 at 9. The Court will notice that even Defendant herself is not prepared to write that she will be able to prove the truth of her statements – inserting the qualifying word “substantial” in front of the word “truth,” presumably, because of the avalanche of evidence showing her deep involvement in Epstein’s sex trafficking. Defendant does not explain, for instance, how she will argue that the Court should grant summary judgment rather than allow the jury to hear Ms. Sjoberg’s testimony of how Defendant lured her from her school to have sex with Epstein under the guise of answering phones cannot be given to the media.<sup>5</sup> Similarly, Defendant fails to explain why a jury shouldn't be allowed to consider Mr. Rizzo's testimony about how Defendant took the passport of a 15-year-old Swedish girl and threatened her when she refused to have sex with Epstein.<sup>6</sup> And certainly a reasonable jury could reach a verdict in Ms. Giuffre's favor based solely on Mr. Alessi's testimony about how Defendant brought girls over for Epstein,<sup>7</sup> or Mr. Figueroa's testimony about how Defendant would call him to bring over underage girls, and how Defendant and Epstein would have threesomes with Ms. Giuffre.<sup>8</sup>

The Court is familiar with that avalanche of mounting evidence showing sex trafficking,<sup>9</sup> which is presumably why Defendant makes only a half-hearted effort to suggest that she has a serious summary judgment motion based on "substantial truth." Instead, she gamely suggests that summary judgment might be proper on grounds that Ms. Giuffre is somehow a "libel-proof" plaintiff. DE 370 at 9. Here, too, Defendant's argument that the facts on this issue will be so

Tr. at 8-9, 13, 33-35, 142-143 (testifying that Defendant recruited her for sex with Epstein under the guise of answering phones, a job that lasted one day, because her second day Defendant asked her to start giving massages, and it soon made it clear that Sjoborg's purpose was to bring Epstein to orgasm so Defendant didn't have to all of the time).

Vol. 1 at 96-97 and 103 (Figueroa testified that Plaintiff told him about threesomes with Defendant and Epstein which included the use of strap-ons); and Vol. 2 at 200 (Figueroa testified that Defendant called him inquiring if he had found any other girls for Epstein) clear-cut as to deprive Ms. Giuffre of her right to jury trial borders on frivolous. Ms. Giuffre is a courageous young woman who has come forward to reveal the broad dimensions of a sex trafficking ring – a criminal conspiracy that involved Defendant. That fact, alone, is enough to send the issue of damages to Ms. Giuffre’s reputation to a jury, particularly because any other approach would “require[] the Court to make factual findings regarding plaintiff’s reputation for a particular trait.” Church of Scientology Int’l v. Time Warner, Inc., 932 F. Supp. 589, 594 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) (refusing to grant summary judgment on a libel proof plaintiff argument), aff’d 238 F.3d 168 (2d Cir. 2001); see also id. citing Liberty Lobby, Inc. v. Anderson, 746 F.2d 1563, 1568 (D.C. Cir. 1984) (“To begin with, we cannot envision how a court would go about determining that someone’s reputation had already been ‘irreparably’ damaged—i.e., that no new reader could be reached by the freshest libel” (Scalia, J.) (emphasis in original)), vacated on other grounds, 477 U.S. 242 (1986).

Defendant also predicts that Ms. Giuffre will “have a nearly insurmountable task to demonstrate that [Defendant] acted with the requisite degrees of malice.” DE 370 at 10 (emphasis added). Of course, the qualifier gives away the game – a “nearly” insurmountable task is not one on which summary judgment is appropriate. And, in any event, once Ms. Giuffre proves at trial (as she will) that Defendant was deeply involved in Epstein’s sex trafficking ring, it becomes obvious that Defendant’s attacks on Ms. Giuffre’s credibility were uttered with malice. Defendant knew full well, for example, that Ms. Giuffre’s statements that Defendant was involved in Epstein’s sex trafficking were not “obvious lies.” She knew that because she had been involved in (among other things) procuring multiple underage girls for Epstein to sexually abuse<sup>10</sup> – including Ms. Giuffre herself.

Further proof of malice comes from Defendant's extraordinary lack of memory about her involvement in the abuse.<sup>11</sup> For instance, Defendant cannot even recall a single flight on Epstein's private jet with Ms. Giuffre, even though flight logs show that Defendant had 23 flights with Ms. Giuffre while Ms. Giuffre was underage, and Epstein's own pilot confirmed those records.<sup>12</sup> And Defendant cannot recall the circumstances under which a photograph was taken of her, Ms. Giuffre, and Prince Andrew – all inside Defendant's London apartment. Based on Defendant's convenient and near total amnesia about documented incriminating events alone, a reasonable jury could find that she acted deliberately and maliciously when she arranged for false and defamatory statements about Ms. Giuffre to be transmitted (literally) around the globe.

Defendant is also less than forthcoming about the evidence that Ms. Giuffre will be able to produce at trial. Presumably recognizing that the statements her press agent (Ross Gow) released to the media were false and defamatory, Defendant states that there is "no other indicia of [Defendant] authorizing any statement [by Gow] regarding [Ms. Giuffre]." DE 370 at 10. While there are many problems with that claim, perhaps it is enough to point out that Defendant's motion was filed on August 12, 2016 – and then, just four days later, on August 16, 2016 – defense counsel disclosed to Ms. Giuffre's counsel an email revealing quite clearly that Defendant and Gow had been coordinating the attacks on Ms. Giuffre. In November 10, 2015, after this defamation suit was filed, Defendant continued to use Gow as her press agent, as demonstrated in her email addressed to “Ghislaine [Maxwell] and Philip [Barden, attorney for Maxwell]”, Gow forwarded a press inquiry from the New York Times and then asked “[p]lease advise how you wish to respond.” See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 8. In addition, since Defendant filed the instant motion, Ms. Giuffre has discovered an article that refers to a yet another of Defendant’s defamatory statements, not previously known to Ms. Giuffre. It is quoted in an article from The Sun (online), titled: “Prince Andrew’s pal Ghislaine ‘groped teen girls,’” located at <https://www.thesun.co.uk/archives/news/6754/prince-andrews-pal-ghislaine-groped-teen-girls/>.

Presumably, if further evidence of the linkages between Defendant and her press agent are required, those will be established during the deposition of Gow – which likely explains why Defendant has refused to make her press agent available for deposition, forcing Ms. Giuffre to resort to the Hague Convention to try to obtain his testimony. See DE 358, this Court’s Issuance of a Letter Rogatory.

Finally, waiting until any summary judgment is decided will effectively make it impossible for Ms. Giuffre to investigate financial issues. As things stand now, summary judgment motions must be filed by October 28, 2016. Given the ordinary time required for a response and a reply – and then a further decision by this Court – very little time would remain for the Ms. Giuffre to evaluate and investigate any financial information that might be provided by Defendant at that time. Clearly, the better approach is to allow that discovery now. See, e.g., Munoz v. Manhattan Club Timeshare Ass’n, Inc., No. 11-CV-7037 JPO, 2012 WL 479429, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 8, 2012).

III. DISCOVERY OF DEFENDANT’S FINANCIAL INFORMATION SHOULD NOT BE CONFINED TO A NET WORTH STATEMENT.

Perhaps recognizing that it is inevitable that her financial information will be relevant in this case, Defendant makes one last argument that discovery of financial information should be “limited to a sworn affidavit of net worth.” DE 370 at 13. Whatever may have been the circumstance warranting limitations in other cases, the circumstances here make that approach highly inappropriate. Once again, it is important to remember that this is not a case involving, for example, a public-traded company with audited financial statements, or a situation involving otherwise-incontestable financial information. Cf. Hamm v. Potamkin, No. 98 CIV. 7425 (RWS), 1999 WL 249721, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 28, 1999) (for purposes of pre-trial punitive damages discovery, directing corporate defendants “to produce a financial affidavit containing a statement of its total net worth and listing its income, assets, and liabilities for the past three years”).

Instead, this case involves a shadowy criminal organization, involving a kingpin with vast wealth (Jeffrey Epstein, a reported billionaire), and multi-million dollar transactions to others in the organization such as Defendant (e.g., the apparent concealed transfer, through an attorney associated with Epstein, of an apartment to Defendant worth, in 2015, $15,000,000). Given the strong possibility of wrongdoing lurking here, a mere declaration of net worth promises to be next to worthless. To provide a simple example, if Defendant were to testify at trial she had a net worth of only ten million dollars – and not provide information about where she had hidden the fifteen million dollars associated with the sale of her apartment – then Ms. Giuffre will have little effective way to challenge the claim. Moreover, as noted above, the record is replete with multiple examples of Defendant failing to recall obvious and highly incriminating facts. Given Defendant’s amnesia about important events, it seems obvious that she may similarly be forgetful about how many assets she has available to satisfy a judgment in this case – forgetfulness that can be easily concealed with an unelaborated net worth statement.

In addition, a net worth statement will not give Ms. Giuffre all the evidence to which she is entitled. For example, Defendant has refused to comply with a discovery request seeking information about her connection to the Clinton Foundation, claiming that such a request is “obviously intended to harass and embarrass” her. DE 370 at 11. Nothing could be further from the truth. It is Defendant who intends to argue at trial that Ms. Giuffre has made inaccurate statements about various interactions with former-President Bill Clinton. Of course, if Defendant (or any of her organizations) is receiving funding from the Clinton Foundation, that would provide a clear motive for her to slant testimony on this subject. Ms. Giuffre is entitled to explore this clear possibility of bias by obtaining information of the financial connections between Defendant and the Clinton Foundation.

Indeed, upon information and belief, Defendant owns and controls at least two corporations: Ellmax, LLC, and The TerraMar Project. Ms. Giuffre lawfully served both entities with a Rule 45 Subpoena requesting documents.<sup>13</sup> No response was made by either entity. Defendant can use both of these entities as vehicles for hiding her assets.

Defendant makes no argument that it will be difficult for her to assemble the information in question. And given that much of the information requested involves readily accessible information (such as a bank statement), no such claim is plausible. Instead, her argument ultimately rests that on the claim that the inquiries involve confidential information that is unduly intrusive. But at this discovery stage of the proceedings, all of Defendant’s financial information can be provided to Ms. Giuffre’s counsel under the protection of the existing Protective Order

(DE 62). As this Court has previously explained, in allowing discovery of financial information for punitive damage purposes, “any privacy interests defendants may have in confidential financial information produced to plaintiffs can be secured by the protective order issued by this Court.” Hamm v. Potamkin, No. 98 CIV. 7425 (RWS), 1999 WL 249721, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 28, 1999). Nothing in Defendant’s motion establishes that Ms. Giuffre should be barred from the kinds of ordinarily discovery that often accompanies cases in which the financial dealings of a defendant are discoverable.

This argument is also belied by the fact that Defendant sought, and received, Ms. Giuffre’s personal financial information. Specifically, she sought any payment information relating to the media. See Defendant’s First Set of Requests for Production at No. 30. Ms. Giuffre provided documents responsive to this request, which included her personal bank records. Defendant takes the contradictory and self-serving position that discovery concerning the personal finances of Ms. Giuffre is appropriate, yet discovery concerning her own finances is somehow inappropriate.

At the very least, the Defendant should be required to produce a “statement of [her] total net worth and listing [her] income, assets, and liabilities for the [relevant] years,” as this Court ordered in a previous case. Hamm v. Potamkin, No. 98 CIV. 7425 (RWS), 1999 WL 249721, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 28, 1999). But because that formulation came from an earlier case involving reputable corporate entities with (apparently) audited financial statements, the discovery here should be much broader – and should include all of the significant requests made by Ms. Giuffre. For example, Defendant should also be required to identify all financial transactions involving (directly or indirectly) Jeffrey Epstein, the Clinton Foundation, Ellmax LLC, The TerraMar Project, and any other person listed in the Rule 26 disclosures of either side in this case. Transactions with potential witnesses in this case are highly relevant to bias and other trial issues. And because of concern that the Defendant is concealing assets, she should also be required to reveal all significant (greater than $10,000) assets or other monetary transfers in since the beginning of January 1, 2015, as well as all transfers of assets or money outside of this Court's jurisdiction, including transfers overseas.

IV. CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that this Court deny Defendant's motion for a protective order barring discovery into her financial situation. In a contemporaneously-filed motion to compel, Ms. Giuffre also respectfully requests that the Court grant a motion to compel Defendant to answer questions about her financial information.

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 All right. Do you know a female by the
3 name of Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when did you first meet Ms. Maxwell?

6 A. 2001. March probably. End of
7 February/beginning of March.

8 Q. And how did you meet her?

9 A. She approached me while I was on campus at 10 Palm Beach Atlantic College.

11 Q. And what happened when she approached you?

12 A. She asked me if I could tell her how to
13 find someone that would come and work at her house.
14 She wanted to know if there was, like, a bulletin
15 board or something that she could post, that she was
16 looking for someone to hire.

17 Q. And what did you discuss with her?

18 A. I told her where she could go to -- you
19 know, to put up a listing. And then she asked me if 20 I knew anyone that would be interested in working
21 for her.

22 Q. Did she describe what that work was going
23 to be?

24 A. She explained that she lived in Palm Beach
25 and didn't want butlers because they're too stuffy.

1 And so she just liked to hire girls to work at the
2 house, answer phones, get drinks, do the job a
3 butler would do.

4 Q. And did she tell you what she would pay
5 for that kind of a job?

6 A. At that moment, no, but later in the day,
7 yes.

8 Q. And what did she say?

9 A. Twenty dollars an hour.

10 Q. Was there anybody else with Ms. Maxwell
11 when you met her?

12 A. There was another woman with her. I don't 13 recall her or what she looks like or how old she
14 was.

15 Q. And what happened next?

16 A. And then she asked me if I would be
17 interested in working for her. And she told me that
18 she was -- I could trust her and that I could jump
19 in her car and go check out the house at that moment
20 if I wanted.

21 And so I said, Sure, let's do it, and went
22 to her home with her.

23 Q. And where was that home?

24 A. In Palm Beach.

25 Q. And did she describe that home as being

1 Q. And how long did you work in that position
2 answering phones and doing --

3 A. Just that one day.

4 Q. Just that one day.

5 And did your duties change?

6 A. Well, the next time she called me, she
7 asked me if I wanted to come over and make $100 an
8 hour rubbing feet.

9 Q. And what did you think of that offer?

10 A. I thought it was fantastic.

11 Q. And did you come over to the house for 12 that purpose?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when you came over to the house, was 15 Maxwell present?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. And what happened that second time you
18 came to the house?

19 A. At that point, I met Emmy Taylor, and she
20 took me up to Jeffrey's bathroom and he was present.
21 And her and I both massaged Jeffrey. She was
22 showing me how to massage.

23 And then she -- he took -- he got off the
24 table, she got on the table. She took off her
25 clothes, got on the table, and then he was showing

3 Q. Do you believe that from your
4 observations, Maxwell and Epstein were boyfriend and
5 girlfriend?

6 A. Initially, yes.

7 Q. Did Maxwell ever share with you whether it
8 bothered her that Jeffrey had so many girls around?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading,
10 hearsay.

11 THE WITNESS: No. Actually, the opposite.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. What did she say?

14 A. She let me know that she was -- she would 15 not be able to please him as much as he needed and
16 that is why there were other girls around.

17 Q. Did there ever come a time -- did you ever
18 take a photography class in school?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did there ever come a time when
21 Maxwell offered to buy you a camera?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. Did Maxwell ever offer to buy you a

1 camera?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do
6 in order to get the camera?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

8 THE WITNESS: I did not know that there
9 were expectations of me to get the camera until
10 after. She had purchased the camera for me,
11 and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage.
12 I did not know that she was in possession of
13 the camera until later.

14 She told me -- called me after I had left
15 and said, I have the camera for you, but you
16 cannot receive it yet because you came here and
17 didn't finish your job and I had to finish it
18 for you.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. And did you -- what did you understand her
21 to mean?

22 A. She was implying that I did not get
23 Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

24 Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you
25 mean bring him to orgasm?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Ghislaine ever describe to you what
3 types of girls Jeffrey liked?

4 A. Model types.

5 Q. Did Ghislaine ever talk to you about how
6 you should act around Jeffrey?

7 A. She just had a conversation with me that I
8 should always act grateful.

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you that he took a
10 girl's virginity?

11 A. He did not tell me. He told a friend of
12 mine.

13 Q. And what do you recall about that?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay,
15 foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: He wanted to have a friend
17 of mine come out who was cardio-kickboxer
18 instructor. She was a physical trainer.

19 And so I brought her over to the house,
20 and he told my friend Rachel that -- he said,
21 You see that girl over there laying by the
22 pool? She was 19. And he said, I just took 23 her virginity. And my friend Rachel was 24 mortified.

25

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1 when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2 respect to the camera?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

4 THE WITNESS: She implied that I had not
5 brought him to orgasm.

6 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7 Q. So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8 you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9 Jeffrey?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form,
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I can answer?

13 Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14 is what was expected of me.

15 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16 Q. And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17 you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18 story about sex on the plane. What was that about?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay.

20 THE WITNESS: He told me one time Emmy was
21 sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22 ready to land. And he went and woke her up,
23 and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24 job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25 said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

1           Q     I guess my question is: Did she ever tell
2     you that she had started as a regular masseuse for
3     him and then transitioned to something other than a
4     masseuse?

5           A     No. She never said that it transitioned.
6     But she ended up explaining to me what had happened
7     before, so...

8           Q     What has -- what is that?

9           A     That her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey would
10    obviously be doing stuff, all three of them
11    together. Like I said, that they would all go out
12    to clubs to pick up girls and try and find them to 13    bring back for Jeffrey. And then she told me about
14    how, like I said, her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey
15    were all intimate together on multiple occasions.

16          Q     When did she tell you this?

17          A     I'm not exactly sure on the dates.

18          Q     Was it while you were still together?

19          A     Yes.

20          Q     Did you -- had you met Ms. Maxwell?

21          A     Yeah, I had met her a couple of times.

22          Q     When did you meet Ms. Maxwell?

23          A     Dates, I'm unsure of. But it was pretty
24    much, like I said, at Jeffrey's house in the
25    kitchen.

1 Q Was it earlier in the time you were with
2 her, or...

3 A It was about -- I'd say about six months
4 or so. I don't know. I'm not exactly positive.

5 Q All right. So at the time you met
6 Ms. Maxwell, had Ms. Roberts already told you that
7 she had been intimate?

8 A No. She had told me about that, I
9 believe, after I had max- -- after I had already met
10 her.

11 Q Okay. And tell me everything that you
12 remember about what Ms. Roberts said about being 13 intimate with Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein at the
14 same time.

15 A I remember her talking about, like,
16 strap-ons and stuff like that. But, I mean, like I
17 said, all the details are not really that clear.
18 But I remember her talking about, like, how they
19 would always be using and stuff like that.

20 Q She and Ms. Maxwell and Mr Epstein would
21 used strap-ons?

22 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

23 Q How did you feel about that?

24 A I just -- obviously not happy about it.

25 Q What did you say?

1           A     I did not.

2           Q     When the FBI interviewed you, did you
3 mention this to them?

4           A     I mentioned -- anything they asked me, I
5 did not hold anything back.

6           Q     Okay. Do you recall specifically talking
7 about sex with the Prince?

8           A     I -- I don't recall talking to them about
9 that, but, I mean, it's -- it could be possible.

10          Q     Other than sex with the Prince, is there
11 anyone else that Jeffrey wanted Ms. Roberts to have
12 sex with that she relayed to you?

13          A     Mainly, like I said, just Ms. Maxwell and
14 all the other girls.

15          Q     Ms. Maxwell wanted -- Jeffrey wanted
16 Virginia to have sex with Ms. Maxwell?

17          A     And him, yeah.

18          Q     And did she tell you whether she had ever
19 done that?

20          A     Yeah. She said that she did.

21          Q     And when did she tell you that?

22          A     I'm not sure on the date.

23          Q     And what did she describe having happened?

24          A     I believe I already told you that. With
25 the strap-ons and dildos and everything.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

2 Foundation.

3 A For Jeffrey.

4 BY MR. EDWARDS:

5 Q All right. Let me fix this. Ghislaine --
6 when Ghislaine Maxwell would call you during the
7 time that you were living with Virginia, she would
8 ask you what, specifically?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

10 Foundation.

11 A Just if I had found any other girls just
12 to bring to Jeffrey.

13 BY MR. EDWARDS:

14 Q Okay.

15 A Pretty much every time there was a
16 conversation with any of them, it was either asking
17 Virginia where she was at, or asking her to get
18 girls, or asking me to get girls.

19 Q All right. Let's go to that second
20 category you just identified, which is asking
21 Virginia to get girls. How many times were you in a
22 room where specifically Ghislaine Maxwell would ask
23 Virginia to bring girls?

24 A None that I can recall.

25 Q Okay. How many times -- when you say they

Mr. Gow,
Good day. I am a reporter for the Times and it is my understanding that you represent Ghislaine Maxwell.
I am working on an article about the legal fallout from the Jeffrey Epstein case.
I anticipate mentioning the lawsuit filed earlier this year by Virginia Roberts Guiffie against Ms. Maxwell.
How does she respond?
Kindly advise by close of business Thursday, November 12, 2015.
And call me if you have any questions.
Regards,

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc.:

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

-----x

June 21, 2016
9:17 a.m.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOSEPH RECAREY, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

3 Q. Then there's a category, victim
4 information, and then we have listed, I believe, a
5 total of 17 individuals that the Palm Beach Police
6 Department incident report lists as alleged victims
7 in this case, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And are you aware as to whether or not
10 that list was supplemented after July 25th, 2006, in
11 the investigative incident report?

12 A. I'm not sure if it was updated or not.

13 MR. PAGLIUCA: I don't know if we want to
14 mark this or not. I can hand you what I
15 believe to be a more recent, or I think you
16 actually brought one with you --

17 THE WITNESS: I did.

18 MS. SCHULTZ: If you're talking about the
19 document that he brought with him, I had it
20 Bates labeled.

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: We can show him that. I
22 think I have the same document here. And we
23 can -- I guess we'll mark that as 11.

25

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 (The referred-to document was marked by
3 the court reporter for Identification as
4 Deposition Exhibit 11.)

5 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

6 Q. If you look at the -- is that what you're
7 looking at?

8 MS. SCHULTZ: That's mine. I just wanted
9 to make sure it's the same.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. If you go into the third -- I think it's
12 the third page of that document, we then end with VI
13 17 Juno.

14 Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So that would tell me that there were no
17 individuals listed as additional victims as of the 18 conclusion of your investigation in this case; is
19 that correct?

20 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
21 foundation.

22 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. Okay. So let's stick with Exhibit 1, and
25 let's go to Narrative No. 1, which is on page 11 of

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Exhibit 1. Are you with me?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. Okay. Again, this was information that
5 was obtained by Detective Pagan, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And it's true, is it not, that this
8 alleged victim never claimed to have been recruited
9 by Ghislaine Maxwell; true?

10 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Correct.

13 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

14 Q. And this individual, alleged victim No. 1,
15 never identified Ghislaine Maxwell as being at
16 Mr. Epstein's house when she was there, correct?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so.

20 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

21 Q. You don't believe so --

22 A. I don't believe so.

23 Q. That she ever identified Ghislaine Maxwell
24 as being in the house?

25 A. Right.

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. Okay. She never -- this individual,
3 victim No. 1, never claimed that Ghislaine Maxwell
4 paid her any money, correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And this individual No. 1 never claimed
7 that Ms. Maxwell instructed her what to wear,
8 correct?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. This individual never claimed that
11 Ghislaine Maxwell told her how to act, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. This individual never claimed to have met
14 Ghislaine Maxwell ever, correct?

15 A. I don't believe so, no.

16 Q. This individual never claimed to even have
17 spoken to Ghislaine Maxwell ever, correct?

18 A. I don't believe so, no.

19 Q. And when you say "I don't believe so, no,"
20 that means my statement to you is correct; is that
21 right?

22 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form, foundation.

23 THE WITNESS: Well, you're saying "ever."

24 I don't know if she's ever, ever spoken to --

25

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

3 Q. To Detective Pagan.

4 A. Right. To my knowledge, I don't know,
5 because Detective Pagan is the one who actually
6 interviewed her. So I don't know to the answer of
7 "ever." So not to my knowledge.

8 Q. Certainly, nothing in Exhibit 1, Narrative
9 1 reflects that this individual ever met or talked
10 to or spoke to Ghislaine Maxwell, right?

11 A. Right. Not to my knowledge.

12 Q. And, indeed, you would agree with me that 13 if this individual claimed that Ms. Maxwell had
14 something to do with the events listed in Narrative
15 1, you would have folded up on it, as the
16 investigating detective, right?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

18 THE WITNESS: Either myself or Detective
19 Pagan would have.

20 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

21 Q. Sure. And when you got the case six
22 months later, if there hadn't been follow-up, you
23 would have followed up on it, right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

25 THE WITNESS: Correct.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And then you asked various individuals who
4 was there when you went to Mr. Epstein's house,
5 right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And you then, to the best of your ability,
8 recorded those answers, I take it, as to who was
9 there, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And with regard to AH, she never said
12 anything about Ghislaine Maxwell being at
13 Mr. Epstein's house, did she?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
15 foundation.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. To you?

18 A. I don't believe she did.

19 Q. Okay. And if she did, it's likely that
20 you would have recorded it, correct?

21 A. Correct, and it would be on the -- it
22 would be on the tape.

23 Q. Right.

24 She never claimed, ■■■, that Ms. Maxwell
25 paid her, right?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
3 foundation.

4 THE WITNESS: Correct.

5 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

6 Q. She never claimed that -- ■ never claimed
7 that Ms. Maxwell instructed her about what to wear,
8 correct?

9 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

10 THE WITNESS: Correct.

11 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

12 Q. ■ never claimed that Ms. Maxwell told her
13 how to act at Mr. Epstein's house, correct?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

15 THE WITNESS: Correct.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. ■ never claimed to have met Ghislaine
18 Maxwell anywhere, correct?

19 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

20 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so, no.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. Okay. If we go on to individual alleged
23 victim No. 3, AY, the same question: AY never 24 identified Ms. Maxwell as someone she knew or
25 interacted with in any fashion, correct?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. No, she did not?

6 A. No, she did not.

7 Q. Okay. The same with individual No. 4,
8 alleged victim FP: Again, FP never claimed to have
9 met with Ms. Maxwell, correct?

10 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so, no.

13 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

14 Q. Okay. And FP never identified Ms. Maxwell
15 as someone being at Mr. Epstein's house, correct?

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

19 Q. And if you need to look at your report --

20 A. No, I don't -- I don't believe so. The 21 only people that recalled Ghislaine at the house
22 was --

23 Q. Sjoberg?

24 A. Johanna Sjoberg.

25 Q. Who was over the age of 18, correct?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
3 foundation.

4 THE WITNESS: And Venero, Christina
5 Venero.

6 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

7 Q. Who is an adult as well?

8 MS. O'CONNOR: Object to form.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. So out of your entire report, the only two 12 people who ever said anything about Ms. Maxwell were 13 Ms. Sjoberg, who I believe was 23 when you
14 interviewed her?

15 A. Right, but she was --

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 THE WITNESS: She was -- she had worked
19 there for quite some time, so you would have to 20 back up, I think, a year or two.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. She was an adult when she worked there?

23 A. Right. She was over the age of 18, right,
24 let's put it that way.

25 Q. And she was not listed by you as a victim

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 as part of this case, right?

3 A. Correct, because it was between two
4 consenting adults.

5 Q. Exactly.

6 And so that's Ms. Sjoberg, and then the
7 other individual, I think you said Bolero; is that
8 right?

9 A. Venero, Christina Venero. She's a --

10 Q. Adult masseuse, correct?

11 A. Yes. I remember she had lots of tattoos.

12 Q. Tatts, right.

13 But the 17 individuals that you listed in
14 Exhibit 1, none of those individuals ever said the 15 word -- the words "Ghislaine Maxwell" during the
16 course of this investigation to you, correct?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so. It
20 would be on the tapes if they did.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. Well, or it would be in your report,
23 right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
25 foundation.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And then Mr. Epstein is arrested and ends
4 up pleading guilty and all of that, right?

5 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

6 THE WITNESS: I think there was a
7 non-prosecution agreement prepared between the
8 Feds and some kind of agreement was made. But,
9 yes, he did end up pleading guilty.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. All right.

12 Now, based on the questions that were
13 asked of you in the grand jury, it's fair to say
14 that Ms. Maxwell was not a target of the grand
15 jury's investigation, correct?

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 THE WITNESS: Not based on the questions
19 that the state was asking me, no, the state
20 wasn't...

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. In fact, it's fair to say that you never
23 said Ms. Maxwell's name in the grand jury, right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
25 foundation.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 THE WITNESS: No. Based on the questions
3 that the state was asking, no.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. Were you aware of who was being issued
6 subpoenas by the grand jury?

7 A. No. But it wasn't the actual subpoena
8 from the grand jury; it came from the State
9 Attorney's Office.

10 Q. At the direction of the grand jury,
11 though, right?

12 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
13 foundation.

14 THE WITNESS: I don't know. Again, I
15 don't know.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. I would like to talk a little bit about
18 the surveillance that you initiated at Mr. Epstein's
19 house, okay?

20 Can you tell me when the surveillance
21 began?

22 A. It would have started under Detective
23 Pagan and gone through --

24 Q. The entire investigation?

25 A. Pretty much trash pulls. We stopped the

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. And so these were video cameras?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And so whoever was coming and going,
5 whenever -- an officer saw somebody coming or going,
6 they would videotape that person; is that correct?

7 A. Or they would just leave the video
8 rolling, time lapse.

9 Q. And did you have the opportunity to
10 observe any of that video?

11 A. I did observe a couple, but the person who
12 actually set it up would review it and then submit a
13 supplement to the report.

14 Q. Okay. It's true that none of the video of 15 the surveillance led to the identification of
16 Ghislaine Maxwell as coming or leaving the house
17 during the time of surveillance, correct?

18 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
19 foundation.

20 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I didn't see
21 all of the video, so I can't -- I can't attest
22 to that.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. Okay. Did anybody report to you that
25 Ms. Maxwell was seen coming or going?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form, foundation.

3 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. If someone had reported to you that
6 Ms. Maxwell was seen coming or going, you would have
7 recorded it in your Palm Beach Police Department
8 incident report, Exhibit No. 1, correct?

9 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
10 foundation.

11 THE WITNESS: I would have told the
12 officer who was conducting the surveillance or 13 reviewing the video to document it in the
14 supplements.

15 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

16 Q. And there is no documentation in the
17 supplement of Ms. Maxwell either coming or going
18 from Mr. Epstein's house during this time frame,
19 correct?

20 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

21 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so. I
22 don't -- I don't -- I don't believe so.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. And, again, so we're on the same page,
25 when you say "I don't believe so," I interpret that

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 as her name is not in here as someone who was
3 incoming or going; am I correct in my
4 interpretation?

5 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
6 foundation.

7 THE WITNESS: Again, I don't know. I
8 don't believe so.

9 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

10 Q. I'm just trying to understand what "I
11 don't believe so" means, okay?

12 A. I don't -- I don't believe it's in the
13 report, no.

14 Q. Okay. "I don't believe it's in the 15 report" that she was ever seen coming or going,
16 right?

17 A. Right, that's what I'm saying.

18 Q. All right. We're on the same page.

19 The trash pulls, do you recall how many
20 trash pulls were done?

21 A. There were numerous trash pulls done.
22 There was trash pulls down under Detective Pagan and
23 under my request.

24 Q. As I understand the trash pull protocol,
25 you or someone at your direction or Detective

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. I don't believe clothing was seized.

3 Q. To your knowledge, did you seize any 4 property belonging to Ghislaine Maxwell from the
5 home?

6 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
7 foundation.

8 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure. Not to my
9 knowledge.

10 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

11 Q. Okay. No one ever came to you and said,
12 Could you please return these items to Ms. Maxwell,
13 correct?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

15 THE WITNESS: No.

16 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

17 Q. All right.

18 You did that with Janush?

19 A. Yes, he had photos and --

20 Q. But nothing like that ever happened with 21 Ms. Maxwell, correct?

22 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

23 THE WITNESS: No.

24 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

25 Q. Ms. Maxwell was not present when you

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Did you observe any child pornography when
3 you were in Mr. Epstein's home?

4 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

5 THE WITNESS: Not in that area where I was 6 at, no.

7 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

8 Q. Well, you had to walk into the house,
9 right? Through an entranceway?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You didn't observe any child pornography
12 in the entranceway, correct?

13 A. No.

14 Q. And then you had to walk from the 15 entranceway to where the office was, correct?

16 A. Which was straight back, it was right
17 there.

18 Q. You are going through a hallway and a kind
19 of an open area, correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. You didn't observe any pictures of 22 neighborhood children when you were walking through 23 that area, did you?

24 A. I don't recall.

25 Q. That's something that would have stuck out

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 in your mind, right? Correct?

3 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes.

5 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

6 Q. And you're a peace officer, obligated to 7 arrest when a felony is committed in your presence,
8 correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And the possession of child pornography is 11 a felony, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And had you seen any child pornography in 14 Mr. Epstein's house when you were there installing 15 these cameras, you would have done something about 16 it, correct?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object for form.

18 THE WITNESS: Right.

19 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

20 Q. You wouldn't have just walked out and 21 said, Nice pics, have a nice day, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. So is it fair to say the entire time you
24 were in Epstein's house, whether it's 2002, 2003,
25 you did not observe any child pornography, right?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

3 THE WITNESS: Not in the areas I was in.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. You don't recall seeing any pictures of 6 naked women, do you?

7 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

8 THE WITNESS: Again, I was only confined
9 to where that desk was. That's where I set up
10 the camera, and then after it was set up, I
11 left.

12 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

13 Q. Okay. But, again, all I'm asking you is 14 wherever you were, you didn't see any pictures of 15 naked women?

16 A. Right. No, I didn't see any.

17 Q. And at the time you recall that he had 18 these surveillance cameras already installed; is 19 that true? Other cameras, the clock cameras?

20 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure if he had the 22 cameras installed or not. I can't recall.

24 Q. Why would he need your cameras if he

10 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so, no.

11 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

12 Q. None of them reported that to you?

13 A. Not reported, correct.

14 Q. None of them reported to you that they

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

17 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so.

5 THE WITNESS: No.

6 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

7 Q. Okay. Do you recall who it is?

8 A. It would have been FP.

9 Q. Okay. Was on Mr. Epstein's airplane?

11 THE WITNESS: I believe so.

13 Q. Would that be reflected in Exhibit 1?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

15 THE WITNESS: But she flew alone. It
16 wasn't like Epstein was there. She went 17 someplace else, not to his private island,
18 nothing to do with Epstein. It was something 19 she wanted to do. And I think she flew on his 20 plane, but it was, like, her by herself.

21 THE WITNESS: Some did, some did not.

25 Jeffrey Epstein's house similar?

1 Q I guess my question is: Did she ever tell
2 you that she had started as a regular masseuse for
3 him and then transitioned to something other than a
4 masseuse?

5 A No. She never said that it transitioned.
6 But she ended up explaining to me what had happened
7 before, so...

8 Q What has -- what is that?

9 A That her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey would
10 obviously be doing stuff, all three of them
11 together. Like I said, that they would all go out
12 to clubs to pick up girls and try and find them to 13 bring back for Jeffrey. And then she told me about
14 how, like I said, her and Ms. Maxwell and Jeffrey
15 were all intimate together on multiple occasions.

16 Q When did she tell you this?

17 A I'm not exactly sure on the dates.

18 Q Was it while you were still together?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you -- had you met Ms. Maxwell?

21 A Yeah, I had met her a couple of times.

22 Q When did you meet Ms. Maxwell?

23 A Dates, I'm unsure of. But it was pretty
24 much, like I said, at Jeffrey's house in the
25 kitchen.

1           Q     Was it earlier in the time you were with
2     her, or...

3           A     It was about -- I'd say about six months
4     or so. I don't know. I'm not exactly positive.

5           Q     All right. So at the time you met
6     Ms. Maxwell, had Ms. Roberts already told you that
7     she had been intimate?

8           A     No. She had told me about that, I
9     believe, after I had max- -- after I had already met
10    her.

11          Q     Okay. And tell me everything that you
12    remember about what Ms. Roberts said about being 13    intimate with Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein at the
14    same time.

15          A     I remember her talking about, like,
16    strap-ons and stuff like that. But, I mean, like I
17    said, all the details are not really that clear.
18    But I remember her talking about, like, how they
19    would always be using and stuff like that.

20          Q     She and Ms. Maxwell and Mr Epstein would
21    used strap-ons?

22          A     Uh-huh (affirmative).

23          Q     How did you feel about that?

24          A     I just -- obviously not happy about it.

25          Q     What did you say?

1           A     I did not.

2           Q     When the FBI interviewed you, did you
3 mention this to them?

4           A     I mentioned -- anything they asked me, I
5 did not hold anything back.

6           Q     Okay. Do you recall specifically talking
7 about sex with the Prince?

8           A     I -- I don't recall talking to them about
9 that, but, I mean, it's -- it could be possible.

10          Q     Other than sex with the Prince, is there
11 anyone else that Jeffrey wanted Ms. Roberts to have
12 sex with that she relayed to you?

13          A     Mainly, like I said, just Ms. Maxwell and
14 all the other girls.

15          Q     Ms. Maxwell wanted -- Jeffrey wanted
16 Virginia to have sex with Ms. Maxwell?

17          A     And him, yeah.

18          Q     And did she tell you whether she had ever
19 done that?

20          A     Yeah. She said that she did.

21          Q     And when did she tell you that?

22          A     I'm not sure on the date.

23          Q     And what did she describe having happened?

24          A     I believe I already told you that. With
25 the strap-ons and dildos and everything.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

2 Foundation.

3 A For Jeffrey.

4 BY MR. EDWARDS:

5 Q All right. Let me fix this. Ghislaine --
6 when Ghislaine Maxwell would call you during the
7 time that you were living with Virginia, she would
8 ask you what, specifically?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Form.

10 Foundation.

11 A Just if I had found any other girls just
12 to bring to Jeffrey.

13 BY MR. EDWARDS:

14 Q Okay.

15 A Pretty much every time there was a
16 conversation with any of them, it was either asking
17 Virginia where she was at, or asking her to get
18 girls, or asking me to get girls.

19 Q All right. Let's go to that second
20 category you just identified, which is asking
21 Virginia to get girls. How many times were you in a
22 room where specifically Ghislaine Maxwell would ask
23 Virginia to bring girls?

24 A None that I can recall.

25 Q Okay. How many times -- when you say they

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant

Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 All right. Do you know a female by the
3 name of Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when did you first meet Ms. Maxwell?

6 A. 2001. March probably. End of
7 February/beginning of March.

8 Q. And how did you meet her?

9 A. She approached me while I was on campus at 10 Palm Beach Atlantic College.

11 Q. And what happened when she approached you?

12 A. She asked me if I could tell her how to
13 find someone that would come and work at her house.
14 She wanted to know if there was, like, a bulletin
15 board or something that she could post, that she was
16 looking for someone to hire.

17 Q. And what did you discuss with her?

18 A. I told her where she could go to -- you
19 know, to put up a listing. And then she asked me if 20 I knew anyone that would be interested in working
21 for her.

22 Q. Did she describe what that work was going
23 to be?

24 A. She explained that she lived in Palm Beach
25 and didn't want butlers because they're too stuffy.

1 And so she just liked to hire girls to work at the
2 house, answer phones, get drinks, do the job a
3 butler would do.

4 Q. And did she tell you what she would pay
5 for that kind of a job?

6 A. At that moment, no, but later in the day,
7 yes.

8 Q. And what did she say?

9 A. Twenty dollars an hour.

10 Q. Was there anybody else with Ms. Maxwell
11 when you met her?

12 A. There was another woman with her. I don't 13 recall her or what she looks like or how old she
14 was.

15 Q. And what happened next?

16 A. And then she asked me if I would be
17 interested in working for her. And she told me that
18 she was -- I could trust her and that I could jump
19 in her car and go check out the house at that moment
20 if I wanted.

21 And so I said, Sure, let's do it, and went
22 to her home with her.

23 Q. And where was that home?

24 A. In Palm Beach.

25 Q. And did she describe that home as being

1 Q. And how long did you work in that position
2 answering phones and doing --

3 A. Just that one day.

4 Q. Just that one day.

5 And did your duties change?

6 A. Well, the next time she called me, she
7 asked me if I wanted to come over and make $100 an
8 hour rubbing feet.

9 Q. And what did you think of that offer?

10 A. I thought it was fantastic.

11 Q. And did you come over to the house for 12 that purpose?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when you came over to the house, was 15 Maxwell present?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. And what happened that second time you
18 came to the house?

19 A. At that point, I met Emmy Taylor, and she
20 took me up to Jeffrey's bathroom and he was present.
21 And her and I both massaged Jeffrey. She was
22 showing me how to massage.

23 And then she -- he took -- he got off the
24 table, she got on the table. She took off her
25 clothes, got on the table, and then he was showing

2 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

3 Q. Do you believe that from your
4 observations, Maxwell and Epstein were boyfriend and
5 girlfriend?

6 A. Initially, yes.

7 Q. Did Maxwell ever share with you whether it
8 bothered her that Jeffrey had so many girls around?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading,
10 hearsay.

11 THE WITNESS: No. Actually, the opposite.

12 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

13 Q. What did she say?

14 A. She let me know that she was -- she would 15 not be able to please him as much as he needed and
16 that is why there were other girls around.

17 Q. Did there ever come a time -- did you ever
18 take a photography class in school?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did there ever come a time when
21 Maxwell offered to buy you a camera?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

24 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

25 Q. Did Maxwell ever offer to buy you a

1 camera?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

5 Q. Was there anything you were supposed to do
6 in order to get the camera?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading.

8 THE WITNESS: I did not know that there
9 were expectations of me to get the camera until
10 after. She had purchased the camera for me,
11 and I was over there giving Jeffrey a massage.
12 I did not know that she was in possession of
13 the camera until later.

14 She told me -- called me after I had left
15 and said, I have the camera for you, but you
16 cannot receive it yet because you came here and
17 didn't finish your job and I had to finish it
18 for you.

19 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

20 Q. And did you -- what did you understand her
21 to mean?

22 A. She was implying that I did not get
23 Jeffrey off, and so she had to do it.

24 Q. And when you say "get Jeffrey off," do you
25 mean bring him to orgasm?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did Ghislaine ever describe to you what
3 types of girls Jeffrey liked?

4 A. Model types.

5 Q. Did Ghislaine ever talk to you about how
6 you should act around Jeffrey?

7 A. She just had a conversation with me that I
8 should always act grateful.

9 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell you that he took a
10 girl's virginity?

11 A. He did not tell me. He told a friend of
12 mine.

13 Q. And what do you recall about that?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, hearsay,
15 foundation.

16 THE WITNESS: He wanted to have a friend
17 of mine come out who was cardio-kickboxer
18 instructor. She was a physical trainer.

19 And so I brought her over to the house,
20 and he told my friend Rachel that -- he said,
21 You see that girl over there laying by the
22 pool? She was 19. And he said, I just took 23 her virginity. And my friend Rachel was 24 mortified.

25

1 exposed her bra, and she grabbed it and pulled it
2 down.

3 Q. Anything else?

4 A. That was the conversation that he had told
5 her that he had taken this girl's virginity, the
6 girl by the pool.

7 Q. Okay. Did Maxwell ever say to you that it
8 takes the pressure off of her to have other girls
9 around?

10 A. She implied that, yes.

11 Q. In what way?

12 A. Sexually.

13 Q. And earlier Laura asked you, I believe, if
14 Maxwell ever asked you to perform any sexual acts,
15 and I believe your testimony was no, but then you
16 also previously stated that during the camera
17 incident that Maxwell had talked to you about not
18 finishing the job.

19 Did you understand "not finishing the job"
20 meaning bringing Jeffrey to orgasm?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, leading, form.

22 BY MS. McCAWLEY:

23 Q. I'm sorry, Johanna, let me correct that
24 question.

25 What did you understand Maxwell to mean

1     when she said you hadn't finished the job, with
2     respect to the camera?

3             MS. MENNINGER:  Objection, leading, form.

4             THE WITNESS:  She implied that I had not
5     brought him to orgasm.

6     BY MS. McCAWLEY:

7             Q.     So is it fair to say that Maxwell expected
8     you to perform sexual acts when you were massaging
9     Jeffrey?

10            MS. MENNINGER:  Objection, leading, form,
11     foundation.

12            THE WITNESS:  I can answer?

13            Yes, I took that conversation to mean that
14     is what was expected of me.

15     BY MS. McCAWLEY:

16            Q.     And then you mentioned, I believe, when
17     you were testifying earlier that Jeffrey told you a
18     story about sex on the plane.  What was that about?

19            MS. MENNINGER:  Objection, hearsay.

20            THE WITNESS:  He told me one time Emmy was
21     sleeping on the plane, and they were getting
22     ready to land.  And he went and woke her up,
23     and she thought that meant he wanted a blow
24     job, so she started to unzip his pants, and he
25     said, No, no, no, you just have to be awake for

2 Q. Did you learn whether your
3 perception was correct?

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same objection.

5 A. It was younger. Yes, I did.

6 Q. How old was this girl?

7 A. 15 years old.

8 Q. What happens next when Ghislaine
9 Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein and a 15-year-old
10 girl walk into Eva Anderson's home?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form.
12 Foundation.

13 A. They proceed into the dining room
14 area, which is across from the living room
15 area. I go into the kitchen and I hear a 16 conversation start. Very muffled, I could 17 not hear any particulars about the 18 conversation whatsoever.

19 My wife and I are in the kitchen
20 preparing the evening meal. Eva brings the 21 young girl into the kitchen. In the kitchen,
22 there is an island with three barstools. Eva 23 instructs the young girl to sit to the 24 furthest barstool on the right.

25 Q. Describe for me what the girl

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential

2 looked like, including her demeanor and
3 anything else you remember about her when she
4 walks into the kitchen.

5 A. Very attractive, beautiful young
6 girl. Makeup, very put together, casual
7 dress. But she seemed to be upset, maybe
8 distraught, and she was shaking, and as she
9 sat down, she sat down and sat in the stool
10 exactly the way the girls that I mentioned to 11 you sat at Jeffrey's house, with no
12 expression and with their head down. But we 13 could tell that she was very nervous.

14 Q. What do you mean by distraught and 15 shaking, what do you mean by that?

16 A. Shaking, I mean literally
17 quivering.

18 Q. What happens next?

19 A. We were, again, the absurdity,
20 never introduced. Like you would walk into a 21 room and say this is -- so my wife and I are 22 in the kitchen and this young girl is sitting
23 there. It was a very uncomfortable moment.
24 I look at my wife. And so I want to ease the 25 moment, and so I introduced myself and I

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential

2 introduced my wife, and she doesn't really
3 respond.

4 And I asked her, are you okay? And
5 she doesn't really respond. Nothing verbal,
6 no cues, her head is still down. I ask her
7 if she would like some water, tissue,
8 anything, and she basically doesn't respond.

9 Q. You ask her for a tissue?

10 A. If she would like a tissue or some 11 water at the time.

12 Q. Was she crying at the time?

13 A. My perception, she was on the verge 14 of crying. And I'm trying to loosen the 15 situation every way I know how, so the only 16 way I knew how, and I thought maybe this will 17 comfort her, I said oh, by the way, do you
18 work for Jeffrey.

19 And she says that, I guess kind of 20 made her feel comfortable, because maybe it
21 was that comment or my persistence, and she 22 said yes. So I said, what do you do? And 23 she says I'm Jeffrey's executive assistant,
24 personal assistant. Which, from looking at 25 her, just didn't seem to suit.

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential

2 And I blurted out: You're his
3 executive personal assistant? What do you
4 do? And she says I was hired as his 5 executive personal assistant. I schedule his 6 appointments.

7 And I'm shocked, and I blurt out:
8 You seem quite young, how did you get a job?
9 How old are you? And she says to me, point
10 blank: I'm 15 years old.

11 And I said to her: You're 15 years
12 old and you have a position like that? At 13 that point she just breaks down hysterically,
14 so I feel like I just said something wrong,
15 and she will not stop crying. My wife and I
16 were at a loss for words, and I keep on 17 trying to console her, and nothing I was 18 saying, are you all right, do you need a
19 tissue, do you need water, consoles her.

20 And then in a state of shock, she 21 just lets it rip, and what she told me was 22 just unbelievable.

23 Q. What did she say?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form

1 R. Rizzo - Confidential

2 A. She proceeds to tell my wife and I
3 that, and this is not -- this is blurting
4 out, not a conversation like I'm having a
5 casual conversation. That quickly, I was on 6 an island, I was on the island and there was 7 Ghislaine, there was Sarah, she said they
8 asked me for sex, I said no.

9 And she is just rambling, and I'm
10 like what, and she said -- I asked her, I
11 said what? And she says yes, I was on the 12 island, I don't know how I got from the 13 island to here. Last afternoon or in the 14 afternoon I was on the island and now I'm 15 here. And I said do you have a -- this is 16 not making any sense to me, and I said this 17 is nuts, do you have a passport, do you have 18 a phone?

19 And she says no, and she says
20 Ghislaine took my passport. And I said what,
21 and she says Sarah took her passport and her
22 phone and gave it to Ghislaine Maxwell, and 23 at that point she said that she was 24 threatened. And I said threatened, she says
25 yes, I was threatened by Ghislaine not to

2 discuss this.

3 And I'm just shocked. So the
4 conversation, and she is just rambling on and 5 on, again, like I said, how she got here, she
6 doesn't know how she got here. Again, I
7 asked her, did you contact your parents and 8 she says no.

9 At that point, she says I'm not
10 supposed to talk about this. I said, but I
11 said: How did you get here. I don't
12 understand. We were totally lost for words.

13 And she said that before she got
14 there, she was threatened again by Jeffrey
15 and Ghislaine not to talk about what I had 16 mentioned earlier, about -- again, the word
17 she used was sex.

18 Q. And during this time that you're
19 saying she is rambling, is her demeanor
20 continues to be what you described it?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Was she in fear?

23 A. Yes.

6 Q. What happens with this 15-year-old

10 A. As she is trying to explain, and 11 I'm asking questions because I'm as feared as 12 she is at this point. We hear people
13 approach and she just shuts up.

14 Q. What happens next?

15 A. Eva comes in and tells her that she 16 will be working for Eva in the city.

17 Q. As what?

18 A. As a nanny.

19 Q. Did you see this girl again?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And when?

22 A. On a flight maybe a month or so to 24 Q. What was the purpose of the flight?

25 A. We were going to Sweden for the

3 Q. Who was on the flight?

4 A. The Dubin family.

5 Q. As well as this girl?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What happens?

8 A. One thing that I forgot to mention
9 is during our initial conversation, I asked
10 her what her name was and she said her name
11 was Caroline.

12 Q. What happened with Caroline?

13 A. We flew to Sweden, we stopped at an 14 airport that we didn't usually stop at and 15 she got off the plane.

16 Q. Just so that I make sure I
17 understand, who it was that she says asked
18 her for sex on the island, who was that?

19 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form.

21 A. She didn't specify who asked for 22 sex. She said that they asked for sex.

24 Sarah into the conversation.

25 Q. Taking her passport?

9 A. Not that I can recall.

10 Q. This last event that you described,
11 what's the timeframe when that occurred?

12 A. Late 2004, 2005.

13 Q. When did you resign your employment
14 from the Dubin family?

15 A. I think roughly October.

16 Q. Of what year?

17 A. 2005.

18 Q. Why?

19 A. My wife and I had discussed these

2 Q. And where did the massage therapists --
3 where did they come from?

4 A. Most, they came from Palm Beach. Palm

6 Q. And over the course of that 10-year period
7 of time while Ms. Maxwell was at the house, do you
8 have an approximation as to the number of different

12 Q. Okay. And that is after both a massage

14 Q. Why would you put the dildo or sex toy in 16 A. Because I knew that's where they were 17 kept.

18 Q. How did you know that the sex toys were 19 kept in Ms. Maxwell's closet?

20 A. Because I know where everything was in 21 that house. Every single room, every single thing,
22 it was a place, it was placed by me, by the cleaning
23 lady or my wife. Every -- everything that happened

8 A. I saw it.

9 Q. So you knew where to put it back?

10 A. Yeah. We had to open the closet, clean
11 the closet, put the clothes in place, put the shoes
12 in place, put everything in place. So it was a 13 matter of tidying things up.

14 Q. Did you ever find any costumes?

15 A. I saw one shiny black costume, but I
16 didn't even know --

17 Q. Where did you see it?

18 A. The same place.

19 Q. In Ms. Maxwell's closet?

20 A. Yes.

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre (“Ms. Giuffre”), by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Reply in Support of her Motion to Compel (DE 345).

I. ARGUMENT

A. This Court should Order Production of Documents Responsive to Requests Nos. 1-3

Defendant characterizes the police reports (and information therein) concerning Ms. Giuffre as a minor as both “highly relevant” (Br. at 4) and “irrelevant” to this action (Br. at 5). On page 4, Defendant claims that actual police reports are “highly relevant,” stating: “the publicly available, redacted police reports are part of the record and constitute highly relevant evidence in this action.” But, on the very next page, when discussing the information gleaned from those police reports that Mr. Pagliuca had prior to the conferral call, Defendant claims the information from the police reports is “irrelevant,” stating: “The records requested are irrelevant. Plaintiff has asserted a single claim for defamation based on Ms. Maxwell’s denial of her outrageous allegations of ‘sex trafficking.’ The dispositive question is whether the denial was defamatory. RFP No. 1 seeks documents Mr. Pagliuca allegedly ‘reviewed and/or relied upon’ in allegedly making statements stating that Plaintiff previously made false accusations of sexual assault.” (Br. at 5). (Emphasis original).

How Defendant purports to distinguish between the actual police reports as “relevant,” and the information contained in the police reports as “irrelevant,” is unexplained. However, logic would dictate that if the police reports are “relevant,” so, too, is the information contained therein and how it was acquired. For that reason, this Court should grant Ms. Giuffre’s requests Nos. 1-3.

Defendant states that the material responsive to Ms. Giuffre’s requests Nos. 2-3 constitute “privileged communications between (a) Ms. Maxwell’s attorneys and Ms. Maxwell, (b) defense counsel and their agents, and between (c) defense counsel with joint defense or common interest privileges concerning obtaining or receiving ‘local police[] findings or opinions’ and ‘statements made by law enforcement or any state attorney.’’ (Br. at 9). Ms. Giuffre understands this winding sentence to mean that documents responsive to Requests Nos. 2-3 constitute communications between Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein and Alan Dershowitz or their counsel. As discussed at length in the moving brief, Defendant bears the burden to show that there is a joint defense agreement among them, but she refuses to disclose the joint defense agreement, and this Court, months ago, has already ordered Defendant to turn over her communications with Epstein and Dershowitz that she purported were privileged. (See April 15, 2016 Order). Accordingly, this Court should grant Ms. Giuffre’s requests Nos. 2-3.

B. This Court should Order Production of Documents Responsive to Requests Nos. 6-7; 9-10; and 11.

These requests concern joint defense agreements between and among Defendant, Epstein, and Dershowitz, and communications among counsel for Defendant and Epstein and Dershowitz. In Defendant’s objections submitted to Ms. Giuffre in response to the request for the joint defense agreement between her and Dershowitz, she stated that she “has been unable to locate any documents responsive to this Request.” In her brief, she says that “there is no joint defense agreement to produce.” (Br. at 9). There are two problems with this position.

First, Defendant is withholding responsive documents consisting of communications between Dershowitz/Dershowitz’s counsel and Epstein/Epstein’s counsel. Defendant does not, and cannot, refute the case law that puts the burden on establishing a joint defense privilege applies on the party claiming it, which must be shown through evidence. Defendant has put forth no evidence of these agreements. In fact, Defendant states that no such agreement exists with Dershowitz, and she is refusing to reveal the agreement with Epstein. Even if any privileges apply to the actual joint defense agreement with Epstein (and, in many cases, Courts find no privilege applies whatsoever), Defendant has to make that showing. This response brief does not make that showing. “Such showings must be based on competent evidence, usually through affidavits, deposition testimony, or other admissible evidence.” Egiazaryan v. Zalmayev, 290 F.R.D. 421, 428 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (citations omitted). Defendant has put forth no affidavits or testimony, but, instead, filed declarations of counsel for Epstein and Dershowitz, indicating their “belief” that a common interest exists.<sup>1</sup> Should the Court consider these declarations to be “competent evidence” to establish that a joint defense agreement exists between Defendant and Dershowitz and Epstein (though neither declaration state that an agreement exists), Ms. Giuffre submits that it should not have taken motion practice to elicit such “evidence” as it is Defendant’s burden to produce this evidence.

Second, these agreements are plainly relevant to the defamation claim in this case. This Court has previously ordered Defendant to produce emails in which both Epstein and Dershowitz were active in assisting Defendant draft defamatory statements against Ms. Giuffre. See April 15, 2016 Order. Defendant has set forth the defense that her defamatory statements are “substantially true,” and “cannot realistically have cause impairment to Plaintiff’s reputation.” The emails between and among Defendant, Epstein, and Dershowitz, show that that the three of them conspired specifically to damage Ms. Giuffre’s reputation. They also reveal that Defendant’s defamatory statements are not “substantially true.” The joint defense agreement(s) show Defendant’s ongoing and continued relationship with Dershowitz and Epstein, which is relevant to her defenses. Both of these individuals had a hand in Defendant’s statements to the public. At the very least, the Court should conduct an in camera review of any joint defense agreements that exist to determine their relevance to both the defamation claim and the multiple affirmative defenses offered by Defendant. See Steuben Foods, Inc. v. GEA Process Engineering, Inc., 2016 <sup>1</sup> Strangely, Defendant redacted both the names of counsel and the names of Epstein and Dershowitz in these filings.

WL 1238785, at *2 (W.D.N.Y., 2016) (granting Plaintiff's motion to compel production of paragraph 5 of defendant's joint defense agreement, since that paragraph is relevant to the claims and defenses).

C. This Court should Order Production of Documents Responsive to Requests No 12.

In this request, Ms. Giuffre seeks the documents that concern her. Defendant tells the Court, "[c]onspicuously missing is any explanation of why a request for 'all documents concerning' Plaintiff would not require review and production of every document the defense has in this case." (Br. at 14). Both common sense and common attorney competencies belies this statement.<sup>2</sup> First, it is expected that the overwhelming majority of documents "concerning" Ms. Giuffre are attorney-client communications or work product created after the filing of this lawsuit. Such documents do not even require extensive review as they are protected by privilege, and can be categorically logged pursuant to the Local Rules and governing case law.<sup>3</sup> Therefore, there is no merit to Defendant's burden claim.

Moreover, throughout the months of motion practice concerning these issues, and throughout all of the meet and confers, Defendant's counsel has never presented a case supporting the far-fetched position that non-privileged documents in the possession of the

<sup>3</sup> See also Southern District of New York Local Civil Rule 26.2(c); Am. Broad. Companies, Inc. v. Aereo, Inc., 2013 WL 139560, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 11, 2013) ("the Court notes that [parties] . . . are presented with a number of option that . . . could mitigate the burden . . . including . . . exclusion from the privilege logs of documents created after the commencement of litigation . . .") (Emphasis added); United States v. Bouchard Transp., 2010 WL 1529248, at *2 (E.D.N.Y. Apr. 14, 2010) ("First, privilege logs are commonly limited to documents created before the date litigation was initiated. This is due to the fact that, in many situations, it can be assumed that all documents created after charges have been brought or a lawsuit has been filed and withheld on the grounds of privilege were created "because of" that pending litigation.") (Emphasis added).

Defendant, and containing explicit references to Ms. Giuffre, are irrelevant and not subject to discovery.

What should be reviewed and produced are the documents in Defendant's possession concerning Ms. Giuffre that are outside the scope of privilege. This would include, for example, Defendant's communications with third parties that concern Ms. Giuffre. The Court has already seen examples of some of these communications in its in camera review, and it ordered Defendant to produce Defendant's communications concerning Ms. Giuffre that she exchanged with Epstein, Ross Gow, and others. This request targets documents like those. Defendant has not argued any burden applies to such a collection.

Furthermore, if Defendant had collected her electronic data pursuant to this Court's order, an electronic search - few key strokes - would both identify these documents and eliminate the communications to/from Defendant's attorneys that fall under the ambit of privilege.

This is a basic request for documents concerning one of the parties, and one that would be issued in almost any litigation. Defendant's continued refusal to produce documents concerning Ms. Giuffre is made in bad faith and shows that she is hiding additional incriminating documents<sup>4</sup> (including those regarding a recently-discovered defamatory statement in the January 8, 2015, article, discussed, infra, at p. 6-7). An adverse inference instruction is appropriate in this circumstance, as more fully briefed in Ms. Giuffre's August 8, 2016, Memorandum of Law on the same (DE 338).

D. This Court Should Order Production of Documents Responsive to Requests No 17 and 18.

Requests Nos. 17 and 18 seek documents “concerning any statement made by You or on Your behalf to the press or any other group or individual, including draft statements, concerning Ms. Giuffre, by You, Ross Gow, or any other individual, from 2005 to the present, including the dates of any publications, and if published online, the Uniform Resource Identifier (URL) address” and “all documents concerning which individuals or entities You or Your agents distributed or sent any statements concerning Ms. Giuffre referenced in Request No. 17 made by You or on Your behalf.” In other words, Ms. Giuffre is seeking what statements about Ms. Giuffre Defendant distributed and to whom. This is another basic request, particularly in a defamation case. Moreover, the only person who knows the full extent of Defendant’s defamation of Ms. Giuffre is Defendant.

In her brief, Defendant states that “the defense previously produced responsive documents.” It is likely that Defendant is referring to the press release email communication from Mr. Gow to various media outlets. The defamatory statements contained therein are referenced in Ms. Giuffre’s Complaint.

Since filing the instant motion, Ms. Giuffre has become aware that Defendant caused additional defamatory statements to be published. This is important. Ms. Giuffre has discovered an article that refers to a different defamatory statement, not contained in the above-state press release. See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 2, January 8, 2015, The Sun (online) article: “Prince Andrew’s pal Ghislaine ‘groped teen girls,’” (Miss Maxwell’s spokesman branded the accusations against her a “web of lies and deceit” — adding: “None of these allegations are on oath. “These girls are saying anything they want for money.”). Communications bearing this language are responsive to these requests, as is the publication in which Ms. Giuffre discovered

it. Defendant has produced no documents at all related to this statement made by her representative.

This is a statement made to a major publication on behalf of Defendant. “Reasonable inquiry,” as required by Rule 26, Fed. R. Civ. P., would have easily yielded documents relating to this statement issued on Defendant’s behalf. Yet, Defendant did not produce documents relating to that defamatory statement, and is now caught in another discovery violation for her failure to produce documents related to that January 8, 2015, statement.

Defendant cannot refuse to provide Ms. Giuffre with the extent of the publication of Defendant’s defamatory statements nor can she decide, merely, to provide self-selected documents relating to the defamatory statements Ms. Giuffre knows about at the time. Wanting to hide the fact that her defamation was on a greater scale than originally known to Ms. Giuffre is not a proper objection, and withholding from discovery Defendant’s additional defamation constitutes a discovery violation. The Court should order Defendant to fully comply with the requests in Nos. 17 and 18, including the production of documents related to the statement issued on her behalf to The Sun as reported in the January 8, 2015, article, above.

E. The Documents Improperly Logged

Defendant has withheld communications with Alan Dershowitz’s counsel claiming a common interest/joint defense privilege. As stated above, Defendant claims that there exist no joint defense agreement between her and Mr. Dershowitz. (Br. at 9). Yet, Defendant has agreed to provide non-party Dershowitz all the discovery materials in this case, and Dershowitz has clearly agreed to assist Defendant in this litigation.

It is Ms. Giuffre’s position that an agreement must still be evidenced in order to invoke the common interest/joint defense privilege by affidavit or similar evidence. See Von Bulow by Auersperg v. Von Bulow, 811 F.2d 136, 147 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, 481 U.S. 1015, 107 S.Ct.

1891, 95 L.Ed.2d 498 (1987); Bowne of N.Y.C., Inc. v. AmBase Corp., 150 F.R.D. 465, 472 (S.D.N.Y.1993). Egiazaryan v. Zalmayev, 290 F.R.D. 421, 428 (S.D.N.Y. 2013). A “declaration” from Dershowitz’s counsel stating that she “believe[s] Professor Dershowitz and Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell have a common interest”<sup>5</sup> is not evidence of a joint defense agreement, and Defendant still fails to carry her burden. Accordingly, this Court should compel the production communications with Dershowitz’s counsel. The “declaration” of Epstein’s counsel similarly falls short. See Indyke Dec. at ¶ 4 (“I consider Mr. Epstein and his lawyers and Ms. Maxwell and her lawyers to have a common interest.”) Therefore, if the Court finds that these declarations do not satisfy Defendant’s burden under Egiazaryan, it should compel Defendant to produce those documents.

F. A Forensic Review is Appropriate in these Circumstances

Since filing the instant motion, Defendant has produced another communication between her and Ross Gow, and another email between her and Jeffrey Epstein. Defendant explained that they were not produced “following the Court’s in camera review in April” due to “clerical error.” See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 3, August 16, 2016 letter from Laura Menninger.<sup>6</sup> One of these documents is an April 2015, email between Defendant and Epstein.

Defendant complains to the Court that a forensic review would invade her privacy (br. at 20-21), while at the same time, she and her joint defense partner both seek to strip away Ms. Giuffre’s privacy by revealing confidential documents under the Protective Order. However,

<sup>6</sup> In one of the communications, she states that she would like “Barden” to reply to “one further allegation” and Epstein writes back, “ok.” This document was not produced until after the close of discovery, and therefore, Defendant was never deposed on (1) why she was seeking Epstein’s permission for a having Barden make a “reply;” (2) what Epstein’s relationship was with Barden; (3) or who drafted the original communication at the bottom of the email, as it does not appear to have been created by either Defendant or Epstein. (Pending before this Court is Ms. Giuffre’s motion to reopen Defendant’s deposition.) (DE 315/356). See GM_01143-1144.

Defendant fails to mention that a forensic review would not give Ms. Giuffre - or the Court, or anyone in the world - access to, or knowledge of “highly sensitive information” that is not directly responsive or directly relevant to this case. Ms. Giuffre requested a forensic exam by an independent, third-party technician (not conducted by Ms. Giuffre or her agents), who would be bound by the terms of this Court’s Protective Order or any other strictures necessary to maintain Defendant’s privacy. Therefore, this argument is without merit.

Additionally, Defendant’s case law is easily distinguishable. Abidor v. Napolitano, 990 F. Supp. 2d 260, 280 (E.D.N.Y. 2013), is a case brought by criminal defense lawyers challenging the inspection by governmental entities (Immigration and Customs Enforcement and Customs and Border Protection) of electronic devices individuals brought across the border under Fourth Amendment grounds.<sup>7</sup> Of course, there are no Fourth Amendment implications in this case raised by having a neutral third-party (who is not a state actor) assist Defendant in recovering relevant/deleted material from her electronic data in this civil case. Similarly, U.S. v. Galpin, 720 F.3d 436, 447 (2d Cir. 2013), is a criminal case involving possession of child pornography, evidence of which was found through a government search of a party’s computer. These cases are inapposite.

Furthermore, in her Rule 45 subpoenas to Microsoft and Apple, Defendant sought unfettered access all of Ms. Giuffre’s sent and received email (and attendant metadata), regardless of the relevance, and regardless of content. Defendant’s subpoenas, combined with her argument made to this Court to support them, surely belies Defendant’s expressed concern about privacy. (This Court quashed those subpoenas, see June 23, 2016, Minute Entry). Defendant cannot argue to the Court in June that it is appropriate for her to receive unfettered access to every email Ms. Giuffre ever sent or received from two accounts, and then, in August, argue to the Court that it is inappropriate for a neutral third-party to review Defendant's electronic documents for deleted (or unproduced) responsive documents - a process through which, importantly, neither Ms. Giuffre nor the Court gets access to all of Defendant's data (unlike Defendant's subpoenas which would give all data directly to her). To the contrary, neither Ms. Giuffre nor the Court would ever see or know about Defendant's personal data unless it is non-privileged, and directly responsive to the requests for production that this Court has already, specifically allowed.

<sup>7</sup> Of course, the Fourth Amendment protects individuals from search and seizure by state actors, and states: “[t]he right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.” U.S. Const. amend. IV.

Finally, Defendant denies using her gmax1@mindspring.com account for anything other than spam, despite the fact that the account was set up by Jeffrey Epstein for the purpose of sending electronic communications to members of his household. See DE 338; Alessi Dep. Tr. at 223:5-225:17. (June 1, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 4); Banasiak Dep. Tr. at 56:13-17; 5:2-14; 58:1-7; 60:21-61:7 (February 16, 2010) (Emphasis added) (McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 5). Defendant denies knowledge of her [REDACTED], and has not pursued access to that account, despite the fact that the account name bears her initials and was part of her contact information gathered by the police from Epstein's home, and turned over to the Palm Beach County State Attorney as part of the investigation and prosecution of Epstein. See (DE 280-2), Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office, Public Records Request No.: 16-268, Disc 7 at p. 2305 (GIUFFRE007843). Yet, Defendant has not disclosed what email account she did use while she abused Ms. Giuffre, and has never searched that account nor produced documents from it. Accordingly, a forensic exam is called for at this time.

1 Q. Is your computer in your office --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Let me finish. Is the computer in your
4 office linked up with the three computers that were
5 removed from the house? Meaning, can you look at 6 the system and see what is on those three computers?

7 A. No, no.

8 Q. Is it your understanding that those three
9 computers are linked with one another or do you
10 know?

11 A. I don't know, but I, I doubt it. They are
12 separate I guess.

13 Q. Okay. Were you aware that Mr. Epstein
14 used a Citrix program to link various computers?
15 Did you know that?

16 A. Yeah. I use Citrix too in my computer for
17 exchanging e-mails and get through Internet.

18 Q. Okay. So, is it your understanding that
19 the only connection then through Citrix with these 20 computers, these various computers that were in 21 Mr. Epstein's home, was for e-mail purposes?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, you're not
24 familiar with those computers sharing other files or
25 information?

1 A. No.

2 Q. That's not something that you were, you
3 were privy to? You weren't, you weren't in the loop
4 of the sharing of information in the house in terms
5 of the computers being connected through any server?

6 A. I don't really know what, how, how to answer
7 your question because Citrix is for the whole
8 organization to exchange e-mail between employees.

9 Q. All right. You used the term?

10 A. So, even my computer is connected to Citrix.
11 I can receive mail and I can e-mail information to 12 employee within organization. But I don't know if you
13 can see to each computer what is going on on another
14 computer.

15 Q. You don't know about --

16 A. Is that your question?

17 Q. You don't know about shared files?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You only know that the one computer can
20 e-mail the other?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. But that can happen with any two computers
23 in the world pretty much. You can send e-mails to 24 each other, right.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You have used the term organization, you
2 can share within the organization. What do you --
3 just so I can understand what you're calling the
4 organization, what do you mean by that word?

5 A. People employed by Jeffrey Epstein. There are
6 a few groups of people, his office in New York and I
7 guess --

8 Q. Who are those people by name that you
9 would consider within the Jeffrey Epstein
10 organization?

11 A. His accountant, his --

12 Q. Who is that?

13 A. Bella Klen.

14 Q. What is it?

15 A. Bella Klen. K-l-i-n. E-n, I'm sorry.

16 Q. Bella, B-e-l-l-a?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is that somebody in New York?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that a male or female?

21 A. Female.

22 Q. And you understand that's his accountant?

23 A. Right.

24 MR. GOLDBERGER: Just to get the spelling
25 correct is it K-l-e-i-n?

1 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

2 BY MR. EDWARDS:

3 Q. We'll go back to that but I tell you why I
4 ask. If you don't know then you don't know, but in
5 the course of Mr. Epstein's -- you're aware that he
6 did plead guilty to a couple felonies in state
7 court, right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Well, in the course of the negotiation
10 with the federal government and the U.S. Attorney's
11 Office, they, the agreement between Mr. Epstein and 12 the U.S. Attorney's office mentions people that are
13 called co-conspirators of Epstein. And Leslie Groff
14 is named as one of those co-conspirators.

15 Do you know what involvement, if any, that
16 she had with the crimes that were being
17 investigated?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I am not aware of this.

21 Q. Okay. The other people mentioned as
22 co-conspirators are Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, and
23 Nadia Marcinkova. So we'll get to them in a minute
24 but first just so we stay on the track of who was in
25 the organization, is Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross and

1       Nadia Marcinkova all people that you would also
2       consider within the organization?

3           A.    Yes.

4           Q.    Okay.  So, we just added three more names
5       to it.  Who else would you consider, Ghislaine
6       Maxwell?

7           A.    Yes.

8           Q.    And who else?

9           A.    Who was working there?

10          Q.    Bella, Richard Kahn, Leslie Groff,
11       Ghislaine Maxwell, Nadia, Sarah, Adriana.

12          A.    I think Harry was involved with the 13       accounting.

14          Q.    Okay.

15          A.    I don't recall his last name.

16          Q.    Somebody else involved with the
17       accounting?

18          A.    Yes.

19          Q.    Okay.  Any of those people that you just 20       named, were any of those people that you just named
21       the person that you described as the gentleman that
22       assisted Adriana in removing the computers from the
23       house prior to the search warrant being executed?

24          A.    No.  You mean the one who show up to do those
25       computers?

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE A SUR-REPLY
OR, ALTERNATIVELY, TO STRIKE
PLAINTIFF'S MISREPRESENTATIONS OF FACT TO THE COURT

Laura A. Menninger
Jeffrey S. Pagliuca
HADDON, MORGAN, AND FOREMAN, P.C.
150 East 10th Avenue
Denver, CO 80203

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Motion for Leave to File a Sur-Reply or, Alternatively, to Strike Plaintiff’s Misrepresentations of Fact from her Reply In Support of Motion For Protective Order And To Direct The Defendant To Disclose All Individuals To Whom Defendant Has Disseminated (sic) Confidential Information (Doc. #388), and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff’s Reply makes material misrepresentations of fact. Those misstatements cannot stand in a filed, albeit redacted, pleading. Ms. Maxwell has never “admitted” to having “threesomes with multiple different girls.” (Reply at 4). That is a misstatement of fact compounded by Plaintiff’s intentional omission of the previous page of deposition testimony which exposes the falsehood. Similarly, Detective Joe Recarey never “testified that Defendant procured underage girls for Epstein.” (Reply at 4) To the contrary, he testified that all of the underage girls he interviewed never mentioned Ms. Maxwell at all.

These are but a few of the misrepresentations of fact contained in Plaintiff’s Reply. Accordingly, Ms. Maxwell seeks leave of the Court to file a Sur-Reply or, alternatively, moves the Court to strike from Plaintiff’s Reply the misstatements of fact.

PLAINTIFF’S MISSTATEMENTS OF FACT

1. “Defendant’s own admission of how she and Epstein had threesomes with multiple different girls whose names she can’t even remember...” (Reply at 4). Ms. Maxwell testified that on a “few occasions” she engaged in sexual activity with Jeffrey Epstein and another adult woman. Specifically, when asked to describe the woman, Ms. Maxwell testified:

Q. Can you describe any of the people with whom you engaged in sexual activities at Mr. Epstein's home in Palm Beach?

A. The description that I have is somebody who is roughly my age, and I recall a blond and I recall a brunette, and that's pretty much what I recall.

(Tr. at 57:5-13).

Q. The women with whom you engaged in sexual activities with Mr. Epstein and yourself and the other women, were they older or younger than you?

A. Same age as me.

(Tr. at 62:10-14).

It is an outright misrepresentation to this Court that Ms. Maxwell admitted to any sexual contact with a “multiple different girls.” A “girl” is a female child. See, e.g., Cambridge University Dictionary, “Girl: a female child or young woman, especially one still at school” (<http://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english/girl>) (last accessed August 25, 2016). Ms. Maxwell described these few occasions as occurring in the late 1990s when she was in her late 30s, with women who were the “same age as me.” Plaintiff well knows that it is irrelevant to this lawsuit whether Ms. Maxwell engaged in consensual, adult sexual activities with women. There is no allegedly defamatory statement that has anything to do with Ms. Maxwell’s private adult sex life. It is an abuse of this litigation process to even ask Ms. Maxwell such questions.

Instead, Plaintiff’s flagrant misrepresentation is designed to support her false assertion that Ms. Maxwell participated in sexual activities with underage girls, which she did not and indeed, no witness other than Plaintiff has claimed that she has. Plaintiff intentionally omitted the deposition pages from Ms. Maxwell’s testimony which clarified the age and misstated in her Reply that she “admitted” to “threesomes with multiple girls.” This was an intentional misrepresentation of fact.

2. “Ms. Giuffre was the child victim of sexual abuse, which is undisputed.” (Reply at 9) If there is one thing this litigation makes clear, it is heavily disputed that Ms. Giuffre was the child victim of sexual abuse. Ms. Maxwell has absolutely no evidence whatsoever that Ms. Giuffre was the child victim of any sexual abuse. As she testified at her deposition:

Q. Do you know what happened during the massage appointments with Jeffrey Epstein and Virginia Roberts?

A. No.

Q. Were you ever present to view a massage between Jeffrey Epstein and Virginia Roberts?

A. I don't recollect ever seeing Virginia and Jeffrey in a massage situation.

Q. Do you ever recollect seeing them in a sexual situation?

A. I never saw them in a sexual situation.

Q. Did you ever participate in sex with Virginia Roberts and Jeffrey Epstein?

A. I never ever at any single time at any point ever at all participated in anything with Virginia and Jeffrey. And for the record, she is an absolute total liar and you all know she lied on multiple things and that is just one other disgusting thing she added.

(4/22/16 Tr. at 75-76). The Palm Beach State's Attorney's Office, the Palm Beach Police Department and the Royal Palm Beach Police Departments all likewise have never concluded that Plaintiff was a "child victim of sexual abuse." Rather their reports reflect Plaintiff's false allegations of being a "child victim of sexual abuse" in situations such as getting in trouble for running away from home, getting in trouble for not attending school, getting in trouble for using alcohol and marijuana. There is absolutely nothing "undisputed" about Plaintiff's claim of victimhood.

Furthermore, Plaintiff left unredacted her assertion that it is "undisputed" that Ms. Roberts was the child victim of sexual abuse, leaving the mis-impression with the public that Ms. Maxwell has in some way conceded that to be true. She has not.

3. "Detective Joseph Recarey ... testified that Defendant procured underage girls for Epstein" (Reply at 3, n.4). In fact, Detective Recarey testified that none of the underage girls interviewed in connection with his investigation into Epstein claimed to have been hired by Maxwell; in fact, none of them mentioned Ms. Maxwell at all. The two women he interviewed who were hired by Ms. Maxwell both said they gave professional, adult massages to Epstein.

Q. So out of your entire report, the only two people who ever said anything about Ms. Maxwell were Ms. Sjoberg, who I believe was 23 when you interviewed her?

A. Right, but she was -- She was -- she had worked there for quite some time, so you would have to back up, I think, a year or two.

Q. She was an adult when she worked there?

A. Right. She was over the age of 18, right, let's put it that way.

Q. And she was not listed by you as a victim as part of this case, right?

A. Correct, because it was between two consenting adults.

Q. Exactly. And so that's Ms. Sjoberg, and then the other individual, I think you said Bolero; is that right?

A. Venero, Christina Venero. She's a --

Q. Adult masseuse, correct?

A. Yes. I remember she had lots of tattoos.

Q. Tatts, right. But the 17 individuals that you listed in Exhibit 1, none of those individuals ever said the word -- the words "Ghislaine Maxwell" during the course of this investigation to you, correct?

A. I don't believe so. It would be on the tapes if they did.

(Tr. 194-195).

4. "Ms. Sjoberg's testimony of how Defendant lured her from her school to have sex with Epstein under the guise of answering phones..." (Reply at 4). In truth, Ms. Sjoberg (an adult at the time, attending college) testified that Ms. Maxwell asked her to "massage feet," which is something she had recently been doing on her mission trip, that she later became a professional masseur, that she came to engage in "consensual, adult" sexual contact with Epstein through no involvement of Ms. Maxwell, that any sexual intercourse with Epstein took place in 2005 when Ms. Maxwell was no longer around, and that Ms. Maxwell never participated in nor asked her to participate in any sexual conduct. (Tr. at 8, 13, 49, 50-52, 99, 101, 147).

5. "Mr. Rizzo's testimony about how Defendant took the passport of a 15-year-old Swedish girl and threatened her when she refused to have sex with Epstein" (Reply at 4). Plaintiff's continued reliance on the testimony of Mr. Rizzo is tantamount to suborning perjury.

Mr. Rizzo's testimony is vehemently denied by all individuals involved, including his former employers, a respected medical professional and her husband a well-respected businessman. His account does not accord with any reports made to law enforcement (Mr. Rizzo himself did not make any reports to law enforcement regarding the events that he says occurred 12 years ago). Further, Mr. Rizzo said the events were so "shocking" that he quit his job, but he later admitted he returned to the same job a short time later. Mr. Rizzo has been in litigation against his employers and admitted he contacted Mr. Edwards to represent him hoping he could make more money from this case.

6. "Mr. Alessi's testimony about how Defendant brought girls over for Epstein"

(Reply at 4). In truth, Mr. Alessi testified that the massage therapists for Mr. Epstein were over the age of 18 and that he only assisted Ms. Maxwell in hiring adult massage therapists from high end spas such as Breakers Hotel, Mar-a-Lago, or Boca Raton Resort and Hotel. The only underage person he saw at the house was [REDACTED] and she was never naked or participating in massages. (Tr. at 165, 182, 188).

7. "Mr. Figueroa's testimony about how Defendant would call him to bring over underage girls and how Defendant and Epstein would have threesomes with Ms. Giuffre"

(Reply at 4). In fact, convicted felon Tony Figueroa denied that Ms. Maxwell called him at all.

Q: Did you ever bring a girl to Ms. Maxwell?

A: No.

Q: Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you to bring a girl to her?

A: No.

Q: Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you to bring a girl to Jeffrey?

A: No.

(Tr. at 106-07).

He had no personal knowledge whether anything other than massage occurred with the females that went over to Mr. Epstein's home:

Q. Well, you said you observed bringing a girl over.

A. No. I'm just saying -- like, I brought them over, yes. But I have never observed anything, like, sexual. Never anything -- like to where it would be an illegal activity. Like, any time I was there, everybody was dressed. They were all talking like it was just, like, people hanging out in a room, you know what I mean? There was never anything going on when I was there, so...

Q Do you have any personal knowledge as to whether anything other than a massage took place between Jeffrey and these girls?

A No.

Q You did not see anything?

A Nope.

Q They didn't tell you afterwards anything happened?

A Nope.

(Tr. at 116). He testified that all of the females he brought over were his age, or at most a year younger, and he was 20. (Tr. at 234) Further, he never saw any sexual activity occur between Plaintiff and Mr. Epstein:

Q Ms. Roberts described sexual acts that she participated in with Jeffrey; correct?

A Yes.

Q And you did not observe that?

A No.

(Tr. at 121).

8. "Defendant and/or Her Joint Defense Partners Previously Fed [Plaintiff's False Claims of Sexual Assault] to the Media" (Reply at 9). Ms. Maxwell, and her "joint defense partners," have never "fed" to the media anything about Plaintiff's various false claims of sexual abuse. To the contrary, all of the email exchanges between Ms. Maxwell, Mr. Gow, Mr. Epstein and others indicate Ms. Maxwell's extreme reluctance to be involved with the media. The email quoted by Plaintiff in her Reply at page 5 simply shows that Mr. Gow picked up on the media's independent reports of Plaintiff's false allegations of sexual assault and sent that information to Ms. Maxwell. There is nothing in Mr. Gow's email then or afterwards which suggests he or Ms. Maxwell or anyone else they know "leaked" the story. Indeed, there is nothing to suggest that Ms. Maxwell had access to Plaintiff's police reports in February 2015. The police reports were obtained, by Plaintiff's admission, in April 2016. This is pure unsupported speculation and slander on the part of Plaintiff's counsel, ironically, the very people who misrepresented to the press the contents of the police reports and hid from production all of the other instances of Plaintiff's contact with law enforcement.

ARGUMENT

None of these factual assertions bear on the issue before the Court -- whether Plaintiff's publicly available criminal files should be deemed "confidential" under the Protective Order. None of the witnesses has anything to do with Plaintiff's false claims of sexual assault as a child, nor her domestic violence. Indeed, in what is an almost daily occurrence in this case, Plaintiff has selectively misquoted portions of deposition transcript testimony in an effort to mislead the Court into believing there is evidence of Ms. Maxwell's guilt, a topic in the exclusive province of the jury, so as to improperly influence the Court's discovery rulings.

Ms. Maxwell cannot stand idly by while Plaintiff misrepresents to the Court and says, for example, that she confessed to participating in threesomes with "girls." Reply at 4. No such admission occurred. It is a violation of candor to the Court to claim otherwise. Likewise, Detective Recarey never concluded in his investigation that Ms. Maxwell "procured underage girls for Epstein." In fact, quite the opposite, Detective Recarey found no evidence that Ms. Maxwell ever even met any of the underage girls he interviewed.

Ms. Maxwell seeks leave of the Court to file a Sur-Reply to refute these baseless, false misrepresentations to the Court that Plaintiff included within her Reply, if Plaintiff does not honor her obligations under Rule of Professional Conduct 3.3 to withdraw them of her own accord.

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHANNA SJOBERG, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 Q. Okay. Great.

2 All right. Do you know a female by the
3 name of Ghislaine Maxwell?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And when did you first meet Ms. Maxwell?

6 A. 2001. March probably. End of
7 February/beginning of March.

8 Q. And how did you meet her?

9 A. She approached me while I was on campus at 10 Palm Beach Atlantic College.

11 Q. And what happened when she approached you?

12 A. She asked me if I could tell her how to
13 find someone that would come and work at her house.
14 She wanted to know if there was, like, a bulletin
15 board or something that she could post, that she was
16 looking for someone to hire.

17 Q. And what did you discuss with her?

18 A. I told her where she could go to -- you
19 know, to put up a listing. And then she asked me if 20 I knew anyone that would be interested in working
21 for her.

22 Q. Did she describe what that work was going
23 to be?

24 A. She explained that she lived in Palm Beach
25 and didn't want butlers because they're too stuffy.

1 Q. And how long did you work in that position
2 answering phones and doing --

3 A. Just that one day.

4 Q. Just that one day.

5 And did your duties change?

6 A. Well, the next time she called me, she
7 asked me if I wanted to come over and make $100 an
8 hour rubbing feet.

9 Q. And what did you think of that offer?

10 A. I thought it was fantastic.

11 Q. And did you come over to the house for 12 that purpose?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when you came over to the house, was 15 Maxwell present?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. And what happened that second time you
18 came to the house?

19 A. At that point, I met Emmy Taylor, and she
20 took me up to Jeffrey's bathroom and he was present.
21 And her and I both massaged Jeffrey. She was
22 showing me how to massage.

23 And then she -- he took -- he got off the
24 table, she got on the table. She took off her
25 clothes, got on the table, and then he was showing

1 (The referred-to document was marked by
2 the court reporter for Identification as
3 Sjoberg Exhibit 4.)

4 BY MS. MCCAWLEY:

5 Q. I'm just going to ask that you take a look
6 at that. As you can see, under the narrative line
7 there, there is a name. It says, "Reported by 8 Recarey, Joseph." Is that a name you recall meeting
9 with, a Detective Recarey?

10 A. Yes. I mean, I don't recall his name,
11 only except that he had been following me around,
12 and he left me cards, like, on my car and in my 13 door. I tried to avoid him for a long time.

14 Q. And can you just look at the text
15 underneath there?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Take a moment to look at that.

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. Does that refresh your recollection as to 20 what you told the police during the investigation?

21 A. There are errors in here. I was not 23
22 when I met him. I was 21.

23 Q. Anything else that doesn't look correct?

24 A. The same error: That I had met him three 25 years ago, and it obviously had been closer to five.

1                   There is also the error, he obviously
2       misunderstood me: He did not pay for my tuition at 3       college. I'm still paying those school loans. But 4       he did pay for me to go to massage school and to 5       cosmetology school.

6                   Okay. It pretty much ends here.

7           Q.     Yes. Right. About halfway through the
8       page.

9           A.     Okay.

10           MS. McCAWLEY: So, Johanna, that concludes 11       my initial piece. I'm going to reserve the 12       rest of my time for redirect. I'm going to 13       turn it over to Laura.

14           MS. MENNINGER: Can we take just a little
15       break?

16           MS. McCAWLEY: Sure, no problem.

17           THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record at 18       10:05.

19                   (Thereupon, a recess was taken, after 20       which the following proceedings were held:)

21           THE VIDEOGRAPHER: On the record at 10:14.

22                   E X A M I N A T I O N

23       BY MS. MENNINGER:

24           Q.     Hi.

25           A.     Hello.

1 Q. We've never met before today, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Can you tell me a little bit about your
4 current job?

5 A. Sure. I just purchased a salon. I'm a
6 salon owner. I'm a hairstylist.

7 Q. Congratulations.

8 A. Thank you.

9 Q. How long have you been a hairstylist?

10 A. For 10 years.

11 Q. And what did you do before that?

12 A. I briefly did massage in a spa for about a 13 year and a half. And before that I was a nanny, and 14 before that I was in school.

15 Q. And I believe you said you studied
16 psychology in school?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Did you graduate?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. With a degree in psychology?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Where did you get training to be a massage
23 therapist?

24 A. A school called Palm Beach Academy of 25 Health and Beauty in Lake Park, Florida.

1 Q. And when did do you that?

2 A. That would have been, I believe, in 2003.

3 Q. And how long did you study there?

4 A. I think it was a six-month program.

5 Q. And you worked in a spa thereafter?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. What was the name of the spa again?

8 A. The Lane Spa in Palm Beach Gardens.

9 Q. And are you married?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you have children?

12 A. No.

13 Q. And how old are you now?

14 A. Thirty-six.

15 Q. Can you tell me about your first meeting
16 with Ghislaine Maxwell?

17 A. Sure. I was sitting on a bench [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] She approached me.

19 I was getting ready to go to a class. It was my 20 junior year. Yes, it was the second semester of my 21 junior year. And she and another woman approached
22 me. The other woman didn't speak that I recall.

23 And she asked me about -- she had a house
24 in Palm Beach, and she was looking for someone that 25 she could hire to work at the house, where she could

1 Q. Ghislaine was not present when you were
2 giving massages to Jeffrey, correct?

3 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: Correct.

5 BY MS. MENNINGER:

6 Q. At some point Jeffrey became more
7 aggressive with you, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. At what point was that?

12 A. In the last year.

13 Q. And what does that mean to you, "became 14 more aggressive"?

15 A. He was pressuring me to do more than I was 16 comfortable with doing.

17 Q. Is that what ultimately caused you to 18 leave working for Jeffrey?

19 A. What caused me to leave was when it was 20 made public what I was doing.

21 Q. What do you mean by that?

22 A. Well, after I had spoken with the police
23 report -- the police and there was a police report,
24 I did not realize that was public knowledge,
25 journalists would get a hold of. So at one point

1 Q. How much?

2 A. One hundred dollars extra.

3 Can I clarify?

4 Q. Absolutely.

5 A. He didn't ever say he would pay me more,
6 but when the massage was more than just a massage
7 and it was sexual, then he would pay me more.

8 Q. It wasn't a discussion; it's just what
9 happened?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Thank you for clarifying.

12 The things that took place with you and
13 Jeffrey behind closed doors were when you were a
14 consenting adult, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

17 THE WITNESS: Correct.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. And you did not have knowledge of what 20 took place with other women behind closed doors and
21 Jeffrey, correct?

22 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: Correct.

24 BY MS. MENNINGER:

25 Q. Do you recall giving an interview to a

1 expected to have sexual intercourse with Jeffrey?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And when was that?

4 A. 2005.

5 MS. McCAWLEY: That's it. I just do want
6 to also put on the record that we're
7 designating the testimony as confidential under
8 the protective order.

9 F U R T H E R E X A M I N A T I O N

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. Okay. You just testified that you have
12 knowledge -- you had knowledge that -- of what
13 Jeffrey was doing behind closed doors with other
14 girls. Was that your testimony?

15 A. Based on what he had told me.

16 Q. Okay. So Jeffrey told you things that he
17 had done with other girls?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You did not observe any of those things?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You did not talk to any of those girls
22 about what they had done with Jeffrey behind closed
23 doors?

24 MS. McCAWLEY: Objection.

Deposition of JOHN ALESSI, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 at 358 El Brillo Way; is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now, when counsel for the Plaintiff was 5 asking you questions, he kept referring to females
6 as girls, okay?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So is it fair to say that other than [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED], you understood at the time that any of the 10 massage therapists that were being -- giving 11 massages at 358 El Brillo Way were over the age of 12 18; is that correct?

13 MR. EDWARDS: Objection, argumentative,
14 counsel testifying.

15 THE WITNESS: Most of them.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUSCA:

17 Q. Okay. And you talked a little bit about 18 paying for massages. Now, as I understand it,
19 people who were getting massages at 358 El Brillo
20 Way were paid $100 per massage; is that right?

21 A. That was -- everybody got $100 an hour.

22 Q. Okay. And you never paid more than $100
23 to anyone who gave a massage, correct?

24 A. Not for one, but I paid more if they were 25 four massages; I would pay $400, $500.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 his equipment for yoga and exercising there. They
3 have a treadmill, exercise equipment. They have a
4 bathroom. And there was the pool.

5 And behind the pool was the lake, the 6 Intracoastal lake, and we had a boat, a couple -- we 7 had -- at one time we had those jet -- jet flows.

8 Q. Jet skis?

9 A. Jet skis. We had a couple of those. And 10 that was it.

11 Q. Was the pool private?

12 A. Very much, yeah. It was no access to the 13 street. There was no access -- no view from any 14 neighbors or anything like that.

15 Q. Okay. You were asked some questions by 16 Mr. Edwards about [REDACTED]; is that right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. To your knowledge, she was the only person
19 at El Brillo that was under the age of 18?

20 A. To my knowledge, yes.

21 Q. Okay. And you recall seeing her with her
22 mother at the house, correct?

23 A. The first couple of times, after, she came 24 with her mother.

25 Q. And you don't ever recall her spending the

2 person; I recommend her to you?

3 A. Yes, he would give to me the number.

4 Q. And most of the people, I take it, were 5 from these spas or clubs; is that right? Most of 6 the massage people?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And do you know, did they have what I'll 9 call regular day jobs at the spas, and then they 10 would come into Mr. Epstein's after?

11 MR. EDWARDS: Objection, speculation.

12 THE WITNESS: I think so.

13 BY MR. PAGLIUSCA:

14 Q. Okay. And why do you think so?

15 A. Because they were working at the Breakers,
16 and sometimes I have to get in touch with these 17 people. I used to call -- have to call the Breakers
18 or the Mar-a-Lago or the -- all the clubs. There be 19 clubs, even in Boca Raton, the Boca Raton Resort and 20 Hotel. They have a great spa. I had to call these 21 people, Can you come in at 10:00 tonight?

22 Q. You would know they were working there
23 because you would talk to them there?

24 A. Yes.

1 Q Do you know her name?

2 A I think it was Carolyn -- Caroline,
3 Carolyn -- I don't know -- something like that.

4 Q Did Jeffrey call you directly about
5 getting more girls?

6 A Yes.

7 Q On the phone?

8 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

9 Q What did he say?

10 A He was just asking me if I had any other
11 girls that wanted to come work.

12 Q Okay. Is that the term that he used?

13 A Yeah.

14 Q And did he pay -- he paid you personally?

15 A Yeah. He handed me $200 for every girl
16 that I walked in that door, whether they did stuff
17 with him or not.

18 Q In cash?

19 A Cash.

20 Q Did you ever get paid by Ms. Maxwell for 21 that?

22 A No.

23 Q Did you ever bring a girl to Ms. Maxwell?

24 A No.

25 Q Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you

1 to bring a girl to her?

2 A No.

3 Q Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you
4 to bring a girl to Jeffrey?

5 A No.

6 Q All right. Approximately what period of
7 time were you doing this bringing of girls?

8 A I'd say probably, like, about six months
9 before she left. Because mainly, like I said, I
10 mean, she would get them with Ms. Maxwell or whoever
11 else. And whenever we were around, like I said, I
12 would find friends that I went to school with or 13 whatever that were willing to go there, so...

14 Q I'm sorry. What did you start that 15 sentence with? She would get them from Ms. Maxwell?

16 A No. Her and Ms. Maxwell would go get them
17 for him.

18 Q Did you see Virginia with Ms. Maxwell
19 at --

20 A I had never. Like I said, aside from 21 going to the mansion, I had never went out with them
22 anywhere. I've never been out to clubbing with 23 them. I've never been to New York or anything. I
24 never went on any trips with them. So anything that 25 happened, I was not there for, so...

1       happen, so...

2               Q       Well, you said you observed bringing a
3       girl over.

4               A       No. I'm just saying -- like, I brought
5       them over, yes. But I have never observed anything,
6       like, sexual. Never anything --

7               Q       Okay.

8               A       -- like to where it would be an illegal
9       activity. Like, any time I was there, everybody was 10      dressed. They were all talking like it was just,
11      like, people hanging out in a room, you know what I
12      mean? There was never anything going on when I was 13      there, so...

14              Q       Do you have any personal knowledge as to 15      whether anything other than a massage took place
16      between Jeffrey and these girls?

17                      MR. EDWARDS: Form.

18              A       No.

19      BY MS. MENNINGER:

20              Q       You did not see anything?

21              A       Nope.

22              Q       They didn't tell you afterwards anything
23      happened?

24              A       Nope. Like I said, the only people
25      with -- some would ask to go back; some wouldn't.

1 Q Right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q But you did not observe that?

4 A No.

5 Q Ms. Roberts described sexual acts that she
6 participated in with Jeffrey; correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And you did not observe that?

9 A No.

10 Q Ms. Roberts described sexual acts she 11 participated in with Ms. Maxwell; correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q You did not observe that?

14 A No.

15 Q When you saw Ms. Roberts and Ms. Maxwell
16 in the same room, was there anything sexual going on 17 between them?

18 A No.

19 Q How much money did you see Ms. Roberts
20 possessing at any given time?

21 A I mean, it could of -- up to a couple
22 thousand at a time to, like, just a few hundreds at 23 a time. I mean, it was never like, overly amounts.
24 Like, not like $10,000, $20,000, nothing like that.
25 But, I mean, it was every time she would come back,

1 Q It pays better than the vet office?

2 A Yeah.

3 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

4 BY MS. MENNINGER:

5 Q The information about other girls going
6 back to Jeffrey without you was information you
7 heard thirdhand --

8 A Yes.

9 Q -- correct?

10 Did you have conversations with these 11 girls about their ages?

12 A The ones that I took?

13 Q The two, [REDACTED] and Carolyn.

14 A No. They were my age. That's what I'm 15 saying, they were literally at -- at most, like, a
16 year younger than me.

17 Q The girls that you were in the car when 18 Virginia took --

19 A Those, I did not even ask.

20 Q You did not ask?

21 A No.

22 Q Did you hear her discussing anything about
23 age with them?

24 A No.

25 Q Did you hear them discussing you have to

1 Q You didn't know her to work at any retail
2 places?

3 A Not that I'm aware of.

4 Q Do you recall her working as a waitress?

5 A I believe so, yes.

6 Q When was that?

7 A I don't know the exact date.

8 Q Was it while you-all were dating?

9 A I'm pretty -- it might have been, yes.

10 Q Did you ever go to her restaurant?

11 A No. I did not have a car.

12 Q Did Ms. Roberts have a car?

13 A She did, yeah.

14 Q What kind of car did she have?

15 A It was a -- I'm pretty sure it was a 16 white -- a white Pontiac, I think it was, at first.

17 Q Like a '93?

18 A Yeah, I think so. And then she ended up
19 buying a truck.

20 Q When did she buy the truck?

21 A It was a little bit before she left, but 22 not too long.

23 Q What kind of truck?

24 A It was a Dodge Dakota extended cab.

25 Q Do you know what happened to that when she

1 did not come back from Thailand?

2 A Yeah. I ended up getting in some trouble
3 with it, and I got it impounded. And her dad got 4 it, I guess, because I obviously couldn't.

5 Q What kind of trouble did you get into with 6 that truck?

7 A I ended up getting arrested for grand
8 theft. I ended up taking a bunch of Xanax and 9 stealing a bunch of stuff on the way back from 10 dropping her off at the airport to go to Thailand.

11 Q In that -- in that --

12 A In that truck, yes.

13 Q Okay. How was that case resolved?

14 A I ended up getting charged with a felony.
15 And, I mean, I got my rights back, like, last year,
16 so...

17 Q Great.

18 Did you have to serve any time?

19 A I did. I went to jail for -- I'm not 20 exactly sure. But then I was on probation for a
21 long time, so...

22 Q And that all stemmed from an incident
23 where you were driving Ms. Roberts' truck?

24 A That was the exact -- when I was dropping 25 her off at Thailand -- or to the airport to go to

1 Thailand -- in Miami. And it was literally that 2 night. I made it back to West Palm and then got
3 caught in West Palm and woke up in jail.

4 Q Was that truck in her name?

5 A That, I'm not sure.

6 Q Were you with her when she got the truck?

7 A Together as in her boyfriend? Or with her
8 when she bought it?

9 Q With her when she bought it.

10 A No.

11 Q You were her boyfriend?

12 A Yeah, I was. But I was not there when she 13 got the truck. I mean, I don't even know when it
14 was, but I know she bought it, though.

15 Q Was it new or used?

16 A No, it was not new. I believe it was a
17 few years old. I'm not positive. But it was a
18 while ago, so, I mean, that kind of an old truck
19 is -- I mean, I'm not sure exactly if it was new 20 then or not, you know.

21 Q Got it.

22 At the time she left for Thailand, she had 23 the Dodge Dakota, and you did not have a vehicle?

24 A Yeah.

25 Q Before the Dodge Dakota, she was driving a

1 Q Was it one event or more than one event?

2 A I'm positive it was more than one.

3 Q Why do you say that?

4 A Because they were always with each other.

5 Like, any time she would talk to me about them going
6 to do stuff, it was with her and Ms. Maxwell. Like,
7 they were always out, like, trying to get girls and
8 whatnot.

9 Q Okay. Did you ever participate in getting
10 girls?

11 A Yes. But...

12 Q Tell me what you mean. What did you do?
13 When you say 'get girls,' what do you mean?

14 A Pretty much I got some of my friends that
15 I knew, because Virginia was looking for other girls
16 to go over there, because Jeffrey was giving us $200
17 apiece for every one that we brought over. And
18 I'll -- pretty much I would get friends that I went 19 to school with, and I would take them over there and
20 introduce them, and then I would just leave.

21 Q What did you tell them they were going to 22 do?

23 A A masseuse, like, and then I told them --
24 I was, like, "Now, listen." I was, like, "I'm
25 letting you know I don't know what he's going to ask

1       you to do. But, you know, he obviously has money
2       willing to pay for stuff. So whatever happens, I
3       don't." You know, I don't know. I've never been up
4       there. I've never seen what happens up there.

5                You know, I -- you know. But as far as I
6       told them, it was just a masseuse job.

7                But any time someone: Oh, you're going to 8       be a masseuse, like, they always jump to the 9       conclusion, you know, happy endings, blah, blah,
10      blah, blah, you know, so...

11           Q     You never had any direct conversations
12      with these girls?

13           A     No. I never asked them what had happened,
14      ever.

15           Q     What are the names of some of these girls
16      that you remember?

17           A     I remember taking [REDACTED]
18      [phonetic]. And I know she ended up bringing some 19      other girls, also.

20                But we met this other girl -- well, it was 21      actually her boyfriend we met. I met him -- I think 22      it was at Gold Coast or South Area. It was one of 23      those schools that I met him at. And his girlfriend
24      ended up working for him, also. And I think she got 25      more girls for him, as well.

1 Q Do you know her name?

2 A I think it was Carolyn -- Caroline,

25 Q Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you

1 to bring a girl to her?

2 A No.

3 Q Did Ms. Maxwell ever call you and ask you
4 to bring a girl to Jeffrey?

5 A No.

6 Q All right. Approximately what period of

2 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

3 A Weed, coke, bars, Xanax -- which are bars,
4 obviously. I mean, that's mainly what we were
5 doing. I mean, we tripped a couple of times.

6 BY MS. MENNINGER:

7 Q Tripped on what?

8 A Acid.

9 Q Was there ecstasy?

10 A I mean, honestly, I really was not too big 11 into ecstasy. But back then, I mean, a lot of the 12 nights could have been with some, and just I don't 13 remember. I mean, that's a good possibility. I
14 used to get pretty messed up myself, so...

15 Q How frequently did you see Ms. Roberts
16 using cocaine?

17 A Not very --

18 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

19 A -- often at all, actually.

20 BY MS. MENNINGER:

21 Q How often did you see her using weed?

22 A That -- that, we did, like, daily.

23 Q What money was used to purchase the weed,
24 if you know?

25 A I pretty much bought that myself. Like, I

1 always smoked weed, and I always had my own, so...

2 Q And where did you get your money at that
3 time?

4 A What's that?

5 Q Where were you getting your money at that
6 time?

7 A I was actually working at Denny's at the 8 time before she started -- before I met her. I was 9 a cook.

10 Q After you met her, did you stop working at 11 Denny's?

12 A Yeah, I did stop working there. But then
13 I ended up getting a job at Dunkin' Donuts
14 eventually, and just bouncing around from different
15 places and...

16 Q Were you living off of her money?

17 A Somewhat, yes.

18 Q She was paying the rent?

19 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

20 Q Yes or no?

21 A Yes. Sorry.

22 Q You made your own purchases of weed?

23 A Uh-huh (affirmative).

24 Q You --

25 A Yeah. My neighbor actually across the

1 street from me, he used to -- he was my guy I got my
2 weed from. So he would just always, "Here you go."

3 Q How often did you see Ms. Roberts taking 4 Xanax?

5 A Not very often. And then -- I mean, but
6 the thing about Xanax is, like, you don't remember
7 much. So whenever it was, obviously, I was taking
8 it, too. So I couldn't exactly recall the amounts
9 of times, you know.

10 Q So the two of you took Xanax together?

11 A Yeah.

12 Q And your experience is that when you were 13 taking Xanax, you can't remember things that well?

14 A Yeah.

15 Q Did you ever observe her taking up to 16 eight Xanax per day?

17 A That, I'm not exactly sure on the number,
18 so I don't know.

19 Q Did you observe her under the influence of 20 any drugs?

21 A Yeah. Like I said, whenever we took them
22 together. When she was off doing her own thing with 23 them, I have no clue what they were doing.

24 Q Do you know whether Jeffrey wanted her to 25 use drugs or did not want her to use drugs, or

1 anything about it?

2 A I don't know. I know he didn't do
3 anything. But I don't know what he told her not to 4 do or do, so...

5 Q Did you have any concerns, since she had
6 been in a rehabilitation program, before about her
7 drug use?

8 A No. Because as I stated before, I was not 9 exactly a standup guy back then either. So I was 10 not really the best person to get advice from. You
11 know, I was kind of doing the same stuff and getting 12 in trouble. So I was not really trying to tell
13 people how to live their life, you know?

14 Q Is it fair to say you were both partying
15 together?

16 A Yes.

17 Q You had parties at your apartment?

18 A Yeah.

19 Q People came over?

20 A Yeah.

21 Q You bought and supplied drugs for those 22 people?

23 A Yeah.

24 Q They came over to your house specifically
25 to party?

1 MR. EDWARDS: Object to the form.

2 A Um, no. Because they were my friends. I
3 mean, they would hang out just to play video games,
4 you know. It was just sometimes it got wild,
5 sometimes it didn't. You know, sometimes we were 6 all just chilling, smoking; sometimes we weren't.
7 You know, it's just, like, it just all depended on 8 who was there and what was going on at the time. It
9 was not like we always had random people just 10 showing up at the apartment. It was always pretty 11 much, like, the same group of people that would come
12 over.

13 Because that guy Anthony, he actually was 14 staying in the apartment across from us with, I
15 believe -- I can't remember these two brothers'
16 names. But there was them over there, and then
17 there was -- damn, I can't remember their names.
18 But there was two brothers that lived there. Them
19 two, Anthony, my friend Mario. Like, it was just 20 pretty much the same people that always would just 21 come over and just, you know, hang out and chill.
22 My friend Wes.

23 Q Anthony was living in an apartment in the 24 same complex?

25 A Yeah.

Dearest marianne,

While all of this information would be great to have brought to light, it is in no favour or intention for me to put myself and story out there for nothing. I w contact Brad Edwards to see if he would still like to do a piece with Emily, and maybe even later down the track, when all is said and done there just might be a helluva piece for the page 6.

God Bless you and yours...Take Care,
Jenna

Dear Jenna –

While I believe that your Jeffrey Epstein exposé has tremendous merit, the only role that we can play is one where we are not recompensed unless we are hired to do Public Relations and make a story happen at some later point.

Lord Colin Campbell and I do have huge respect for his countrywoman, the English-born Emily Smith. Colin is Scottish as his nephew is the Duke of Argyll, one of Scotland's primary, noble families.

Today Emily is one of the most noted, plus influential columnists in the United States, and yes, she is a friend of mine. We can pop off an arresting column item as a favor to her – if indeed the item is applicable for Page Six? But it must have true gravitas.

No money changes hands in such a news release to a publication! If it helps, have your attorney write a suggested column-oriented item re your case and if it's written in 'journalistic style,' Colin and I can pop it off to Emily, as a possible piece f her renowned Page Six column. It's called 'pure favor time' to Emily from the owner of the item, plus the press person wh may or may not elect to pop it into print.

I certainly do feel that down the long, winding road, your case has merit! God willing that it puts that piece of human scum back behind bars! Should you win the day, yes, I do believe that you can create a mighty manifesto on prostitution as it exists in the U.S.A. in the years leading up to 2014 – one that has real literary possibilities. If you win the case, contact us and perhaps we can get it printed in a N.Y.C. newspaper? If you lose, a press release has nothing favorable for you, obviously, and should be avoided.

Good luck and God Bless,
Marianne Strong

Hi Marianne,

I hope you have been well since our last conversation, we have been enjoying the amazing pre-spring heat here in Florida, I hope you do visit soon the weather is absolutely splendid this year and it would be finally nice to meet you in person with so much we already know about each other and hopefull more to come!!

About the NYC Post, as you already know I have an extremely informative piece of the recent proceedings to tell both truth and justice as well as the past history of the ill-esteemed billionaire and registered sex offender, Jeffrey Epstein, that I unfortunately served four years as his personal and abused sex slave to, most of those years underage, and trust me I would like nothing more than the world to know all about the inequality of the government to act appropriately and violate our rights as victims by giving Jeffrey Epstein a plea bargain and immunity to only take accreditation for one account of the sensitive subject of procuring us underage girls for the usage of prostitution internationally to some of the world's most influential people. But with that comes a lot of responsibility for me to consider or "my neck on the line too" so to speak. Even though there is over forty women that were once vulnerable girls that looked like the "sweet girl next door" but now that they have been taken advantage of by this "disgusting wall street tyrant" most of them have led a very unhealthy lifestyle since having served Jeffrey, such as drug addictions and prostitution and do not hold accreditation to talk...according to Jeffrey and his team of minion lawyers. Miraculously since I came to light with the truth and speaking out against him in 2011, the FBI have reopened the case which as you know has current proceedings in which I am involved in. There are many branches that lead out on this incredibly taunting story of perversion of the governmental system and the one's that seem to fly above the law. I am not giving up or giving in this to me is something I must do to break a large chain of serial sex abuse happening for too long now.

We have spoken in great deal about what kind of piece you would like to present to the NYC Post but we haven't spoken about any contract of any sort and I do need to know as much as you and the Post do, that we will all be "legally" okay bringing out this story as long as everything that is printed is 100% factual and prove worthy.

There is also another major paper that has followed the story for a while and has worked with me before, they're asking me again for the exclusive story but updated and obviously the end outcome from the judicial decision. I have held out because you told me about your contact Emily with the NYC Post and I appreciate you trying to make big headlines for the story and hopefully one day the book... plus I just like working with someone I can somewhat trust, which is a rare find in this world! But if they're selling something this headline worthy and going to sell many papers and not to mention the "online" inputs, I would also like to know that I am going to profit from this as well.

If the NYC Post can agree to arrange a reasonable contract, above the competitors offer, then I will be able to give you all of the factual information that would give your mate Emily a great piece that I know is proceeding to be a rarity in the justice system, as well as being so rare of an atrocity, a new article pertaining to Jeffrey, has just been written into state law, which I also have a copy of.

I look forward to your response and hopefully more to come. Call me if needed. [REDACTED]

All the best,
Jenna

I. INTRODUCTION

The Court has before it a request from a non-party (Alan Dershowitz) to intervene in this case for the purpose of extracting and publicizing several emails and a draft manuscript from the Protective Order that has long been entered in this case. Dershowitz does not seek public access of these documents for the legitimate purpose of informing the public on this Court's adjudication of its Article III powers. Instead, Dershowitz make clear that his purpose is to advance his own agenda, and continue to wage his media war on Ms. Giuffre, as he has already appeared on national news calling her a "prostitute" and a "bad mother."<sup>1</sup> This is not the typical intervention case where a non-party seeks documents it lacks access to, or where a news organization seeks to inform the public on court proceedings. Here, Alan Dershowitz seeks to inject himself into this litigation for the wrongful purpose of conducting a public smear campaign of Ms. Giuffre. He has no interests beyond his own. And, he has already violated another court order directing him to stop wrongfully leaking confidential information to the media. Unsurprisingly, Dershowitz's motion fails to cite a single case in which a court granted a non-party, who already possessed the sealed documents in dispute, the right to freely disseminate those documents in the public domain for self-serving purposes.

His motion for permissive intervention is committed to the discretion of the Court, and the Court should deny it. Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b)(3); Liz Claiborne, Inc. v. Mademoiselle Knitwear, Inc., 1996 WL 346352, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. June 26, 1996) (Sweet, J.) (denying leave to intervene); Levin v. U.S., 633 Fed. Appx. 69, 70 (2nd Cir. 2016) (affirming denial of motion to intervene, "[b]ecause of the fact-intensive nature of an intervention decision, we review for 'abuse of discretion' a district court's order denying intervention . . . by permission.")

Indeed, the documents in question could hardly “confirm his absolute innocence.” DE 364 at 1. The documents do not directly bear on Ms. Giuffre’s sworn and detailed statements about how Dershowitz sexually abused her, statements that are corroborated by a mountain of supporting evidence.<sup>2</sup> Instead, according to Dershowitz, these materials create some sort of a web of circumstantial inferences suggesting his innocence. His attenuated reasoning hardly provides the kind of compelling reason needed to pierce the Protective Order. Instead, Dershowitz seeks these documents for the primary purpose of conducting a media blitz against Ms. Giuffre in advance of trial – clearly to assist his joint defense partner, Defendant Maxwell, by poisoning the jury pool in this case.

Dershowitz has no legal basis for his request. The documents in questions are not judicial documents, and thus neither a First Amendment nor common law right of access applies. Moreover, both the parties in this case have long reasonably relied on the existing Protective Order. Under that order, numerous documents involving child sex abuse and other sensitive subjects have been placed under seal. If Dershowitz is permitted to cherry pick the documents that he finds favorable and extract them from the protective order to serve his purposes, it would seem only fair that Ms. Giuffre be permitted to lift the protective order from currently-confidential documents and testimony in the court file which would support her position.

This Court entered the Protective Order “upon a showing of good cause.” Dershowitz is not a party to this litigation and provides no sound reason for modification. Accordingly, this Court should deny Dershowitz’s motion in its entirety.

<sup>2</sup> As an overview, Dershowitz, who touted Epstein as a close friend, flew on Jeffrey Epstein’s private jet 15 times from 1996 through 2006, which was during the time period that Jeffrey was actively assaulting a number of minor children. Twice Dershowitz flew with Sarah Kellen, who was Defendant’s right hand recruiter of these underage girls. McCawley Dec at 2, Dershowitz Flights. While Dershowitz said he was “never” in the places where Virginia was during the period of 2000 – 2002, public records directly contradict this statement and show that he actually had an apartment in New York not far from Epstein’s home for a year from 2000 – 2001. McCawley Dec. at 3. While there is mounting evidence to support Ms. Giuffre’s allegations of Dershowitz’s involvement, that issue is not something the Court needs to decide because this case is about Defendant Maxwell’s conduct, not Dershowitz.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. Abundant Evidence Supports Ms. Giuffre's Sworn Testimony That Alan Dershowitz Sexually Abused Her

Dershowitz says he needs to see several documents because they will somehow “demonstrate that the allegations of sexual misconduct . . . are nothing more than a recent fabrication . . .” DE 364 at 2. To the contrary, they will in no way prove the allegations are a “fabrication,” given the mountain of evidence supporting Ms. Giuffre's sworn testimony.

Ms. Giuffre has not made vague assertions, but described in detail what Dershowitz did to her and where.<sup>3</sup> In response to Ms. Giuffre's sworn testimony, Dershowitz does not argue that any witnesses will be able to prove his innocence. Instead, he tries to build a circumstantial case that he could not have committed the sexual abuse. Dershowitz now claims, for example, that at the time of the abuse, he was merely “acquainted with Mr. Epstein through academic events . . .” DE 364 at 4.<sup>4</sup> But in 2005 (before news of Epstein's criminal prosecution broke), Dershowitz stated “I'm on my 20th book . . . The only person outside of my immediate family that I send drafts to is Jeffrey.”<sup>5</sup> Dershowitz has also been quoted as saying that, even if Epstein went bankrupt, “I would be as interested in him as a friend if we had hamburgers on the boardwalk in Coney Island and talked about his ideas.”<sup>6</sup>

Dershowitz also claims that he never saw “Epstein in the presence of underage girls.” DE 364 at 3.<sup>7</sup> This lack of observation is remarkable given that Epstein brazenly and repeatedly

abused numerous underage girls in his Florida mansion, his New York mansion, and several other places that Dershowitz apparently admits he visited on multiple occasions.

In 2009, one of Epstein's household employees, Juan Alessi, testified about the parade of young "massage therapists" entering Epstein's Palm Beach mansion, and that Ms. Giuffre was one of the girls who came to Epstein's mansion.<sup>8</sup> Alessi also saw many celebrities came to the Florida mansion, including "a very famous lawyer that I'm sure you know, Alan Dershowitz." Id. at 70:9-25. Alessi testified that Dershowitz came to the mansion "pretty often . . . at least four or five times a year" and would stay overnight "two [or] three days." Id. at 73:22-25. Ms. Giuffre came to the house when Dershowitz was there. Id. at 73:18-20. And, importantly, Dershowitz got massages while he was visiting Epstein's home. Id. at 74:1-4.<sup>9</sup> The private, upstairs room where Dershowitz got his "massages" was the room where Defendant Maxwell had "a laundry basket . . . full of those toys." Id. at 76:11-15.

In 2009, Epstein's butler, Alfredo Rodriguez, testified that Dershowitz was at Epstein's mansion when underage girls were there to give massages.<sup>10</sup> Rodriguez also testified that Dershowitz was present alone at the home of Jeffery Epstein, without his family, in the presence of young girls.<sup>11</sup> It also appears that Rodriguez would later circle Dershowitz's name in Epstein's address book as among the people with important information for the FBI to collect regarding sex trafficking. In addition, Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova, and Adrianna Mucinska all implicated Dershowitz by invoking their Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination<sup>12</sup> when asked questions about Dershowitz's connection to Epstein's abuse, including a specific question about whether Dershowitz had been involved with massages by young girls. McCawley Dec., Composite Ex. 9.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>9</sup> While Dershowitz loudly proclaimed to the media that he had "never" received a massage at Jeffrey Epstein's home, he later retracted that knowingly false statement and admitted to having a massage. McCawley Dec at Exhibit 7.

<sup>10</sup> Alfredo Rodriguez Depo. at 278:13-25, 279:9-280:2, Jane Doe No. 2 v. Epstein (excerpts attached as Exhibit 8).

Finally, in Dershowitz's vociferous attacks on Ms. Giuffre here, the Court will see an eerie parallel to the Jeffrey Epstein criminal investigation. Back in 2005, when the Palm Beach Police Department was first investigating Epstein's sexual abuse, the Department accumulated overwhelming evidence placing underage girls at Epstein's residence who gave statements that they were being sexually abused, the accounts bearing chillingly similar details. As he did to Ms. Giuffre, Dershowitz called those girls liars and defamed them as prostitutes,<sup>14</sup> in an effort to convince the State Attorney that these girls could not even believably establish that they had ever even gone to Epstein's mansion. Later, Dershowitz would remarkably write to tell the Justice Department that "Epstein never targeted minors."

B. The Litigation Involving Dershowitz - The Florida Defamation Case<sup>15</sup>

<sup>12</sup> In a civil proceeding such as this one, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to an inference in her favor when a witness takes the Fifth Amendment rather than answer a relevant question where that witness is associated with the other side of the case or otherwise in an adverse position to the victims. LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 124 (2d Cir. 1997).

<sup>13</sup> Dershowitz also refers to an "investigation" he paid for by former FBI Director Louis Freeh in an effort to proclaim his innocence. DE 364 at 5. Interestingly, while Dershowitz has provided a one-paragraph summary of the investigation to the press, he has not chosen to make the specifics of the investigation public, including what Freeh learned about Defendant Maxwell's involvement in Jeffrey Epstein's sex trafficking organization.

<sup>14</sup> "How Alan Dershowitz Bullied Rape Victims to Protect a Serial Child Molester," by Rania Khalek, January 10, 2015, <https://electronicintifada.net/blogs/rania-khalek/how-alan-dershowitz-bullied-rape-victims-protect-serial-child-molester>; see also McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 10, Recarey Dep. Tr. at 109:13-110:3 ("Q. What -- what types of persuasions did Alan DERSHOWITZ use in an attempt to dissuade the prosecution of Alan DERSHOWITZ [sic] or his associates? THE WITNESS: Let's see. He not only had -- when they went out and badgered the victims, they went through all social media, found photographs of these victims either holding an alcoholic beverage and calling them -- you see they're not saints. You know, they're consuming alcohol under the age of 21. Basically trying to dirty the victim as much as possible.")

Dershowitz also misleadingly describes the Florida defamation action<sup>16</sup> between himself and Cassell and Edwards. Remarkably, Dershowitz fails to note that same documents he seeks here (to use in the next installment of his media campaign) are the exact type of documents that Judge Lynch quashed from Dershowitz's subpoena he served on Ms. Giuffre in the Florida Action. In short, a judge has already ruled that Dershowitz should be denied access to these documents. This baseless motion is nothing more than an attempt to make an end-run around Judge Lynch's Order, by coming to this Court, and asking for what he was denied by another court.

Indeed, Dershowitz fails to reveal three significant facts to this Court. First, Dershowitz fails to reveal to this Court is that he has already been sharply rebuked by a Florida judge for his efforts to take confidential materials to the media. Second, Dershowitz fails to tell this Court that the only ongoing component to his Florida Action concerns sanctions against him for violating that Court's Order by his continuing to reveal confidential materials.<sup>17</sup> Third, Dershowitz fails to tell this Court that the judge in the Florida Action already denied his request to access these materials.<sup>18</sup> The parties to the Florida Action have settled all claims. Accordingly, there is no "compelling need" to reveal these documents to the media as they are wholly immaterial to whether Dershowitz should be sanctioned for violating Judge Lynch's order, as it pertained to non-party Ms. Giuffre. In other words, the content of these confidential documents has no bearing on the disposition of the Florida Appeal, and Dershowitz cannot claim otherwise.

Ms. Giuffre was not a party to the litigation between the attorneys in the Florida Action. During the course of the litigation, however, Dershowitz subpoenaed discovery from Ms.

Giuffre. In particular, Dershowitz sought to obtain from Ms. Giuffre (a non-party to the action) all of her emails with the media. The Court granted in part Ms. Giuffre's Motion to Quash and, among other things, denied Dershowitz's discovery request relating to communications with media and denied Dershowitz's request for "manuscripts or writings."<sup>19</sup> Dershowitz produced many documents in the course of discovery in that case – ironically, documents that he quickly placed under a protective order in Florida. Id.

Dershowitz claims that the Churcher email somehow exonerates him, but the brief mention does no such thing. Indeed, while asserting that there is no "proof" that Dershowitz is a pedophile, Ms. Churcher also stated that "[w]e all suspect Alan is a pedo[phile]."<sup>20 21</sup> Similarly, Dershowitz believes that an excerpt from Ms. Giuffre's manuscript she was somehow suggests his innocence, even though the passage in question recounts Dershowitz intruding on Epstein while he was sexually abusing Ms. Giuffre. DE 364 at 9. Apparently Dershowitz believes that because he is not described more often and prominently in the manuscript, that is proof of her

<sup>19</sup> Judge Lynch Quashed discovery from non-party Virginia Giuffre on the Following: (1) Request 9 – "All documents concerning any communications by Jane Doe #3 or on Jane Doe #3's behalf with any media outlet concerning Dershowitz or the Federal Action whether or not such communications were "on the record" or "off the record;" (2) Request 17 "All documents concerning any actual or potential book, television or movie contracts or deals concerning Jane Doe #3's allegations about being a sex slave;" (3) Request 18 "All documents concerning any monetary payments or other consideration received by Jane Doe #3 from any media outlet in exchange for her statements whether 'on the record' or 'off the record' regarding Epstein, Dershowitz, Prince Andrew, Duke of York, and/or being a sex slave;" (4) Request 20 "All documents showing any payments or remuneration of any kind made by Epstein or any of his agents or associates to you from January 1, 1999 through December 31, 2002;" and (4) Request 23: "All manuscripts and/or other writings whether published or unpublished, created in whole or in part by Jane Doe #3 concerning Epstein and any of his agents or associates."

<sup>20</sup> Dershowitz asserts that before this May 11, 2011, email was sent by Ms. Churcher, that Ms. Giuffre "did not in any way accuse Professor Dershowitz of sexual abuse . . . ." DE 364 at 9-10. But the support for this assertion appears to be a statement from Asst. U.S. Attorney Jeff Sloman that Dershowitz's name had not come up in 2006 to 2008 when Dershowitz was helping to negotiate Jeffrey Epstein's plea deal. Dershowitz Dec., ¶ 5 (referring to unnamed Asst. U.S. Attorney). However, because of Dershowitz's penchant for twisting words, Mr. Sloman has sent a corrective note that he left the U.S. Attorney's Office in 2008 and does not know what the investigation of Epstein revealed after that time. Also, Dershowitz does not recount in his statement of facts that in March 2011, two months before Ms. Churcher sent the email in question to Ms. Giuffre, Ms. Giuffre had told attorney Jack Scarola in a recorded interview that Dershowitz has relevant information about Epstein's sexual abuse.

<sup>21</sup> Dershowitz wrongly suggests to this Court that Ms. Giuffre answered questions incorrectly in her deposition. Ms. Giuffre answered questions to the best of her recollection. Ms. Giuffre had never sent an email to Ms. Churcher with Dershowitz's name in it – instead, as Dershowitz recounts, Ms. Churcher turns out to have sent one email to Ms. Giuffre with Dershowitz's name in it.

innocence. But this inference is inconsistent with Ms. Giuffre's description of the manuscript, in which she explained "[n]ot everything in it is – not everything is in there . . . ." McCawley Dec. at 13, Giuffre Dep. Tr. at 41.

II. DERSHOWITZ RELEASES CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION IN VIOLATION OF A FLORIDA COURT ORDER

The pending sanction motion in the Florida Court is an illustrative example of how Dershowitz willingly violates Court orders. On December 11, 2015, in a transparent attempt to play his case to the media rather than try it before the court, Dershowitz filed a false affidavit with the Florida court purporting to describe confidential settlement communications with Giuffre's counsel and attempting to discredit Giuffre. He filed his affidavit in the public court file, despite knowing Ms. Giuffre's standing objections. He then alerted the media (specifically the New York Times) to these statements. After Giuffre filed an emergency motion to seal the affidavit, the court found in favor of Ms. Giuffre that the communications in the affidavit were in fact confidential settlement negotiations that should not have been disclosed and granted Giuffre's motion. McCawley Dec., Ex. 15. During the hearing, the Florida court admonished Dershowitz not to reveal any other confidential settlement negotiations:

MS. MCCAWLEY: Your Honor, if the intent here is to continue to spew the confidential settlement negotiations and have Dershowitz go to New York or other locations to say these things again, I would object to that. I think this Court needs to be very stern in its response that these are not appropriate to be disclosed.

THE COURT: Well, I think he is aware of that.

MR. SAFRA [Dershowitz's attorney]: I'm aware, and I will convey to my client. . .<sup>22</sup>

Ms. Giuffre had a pending motion for sanctions against Dershowitz for his conduct in wrongfully revealing and flatly mischaracterizing these settlement disclosures. McCawley Dec.

Sealed Ex. 16, Motion for Sanctions. Before that motion was heard, Dershowitz willfully violated the court's order and again disclosed the confidential settlement communications, for which Giuffre again sought sanctions. McCawley Dec. Sealed Ex. 17, Supplement to Motion for Sanctions. However, before the sanction motions were heard, Dershowitz settled the underlying litigation. Dershowitz has insisted upon keeping confidential the monetary settlement that resolved the claims against him.<sup>23</sup> The trial court declined to retain jurisdiction to hear Ms. Giuffre's sanctions claims after the settlement. Ms. Giuffre's attorneys have appealed the ruling to the Florida Court of Appeals and filed an opening brief on August 25, 2016.

III. THE PROTECTIVE ORDER IN THIS CASE

This is a case concerning sex abuse of minors, brought by a woman who was herself a minor victim of sex abuse. Accordingly, this Court has recognized from the outset the paramount importance of a protective order in this case, announcing at one of the first hearings in the case that that "of course there should be a protective order in this case."<sup>24</sup> Thereafter, on March 18, 2016, "[u]pon a showing of good cause," the Protective Order was entered (DE 62 at p.1). The following month, this Court sought even greater strictures regarding the Protective Order.<sup>25</sup>

Furthermore, as this Court will remember, it twice allowed the parties to submit suggested redactions to the public versions of its Orders (DE 135; June 20, 2016, Order<sup>26</sup>). While

IV. ARGUMENT

A. Legal Standard

The Court may deny Dershowitz's motion without even reaching the merits of whether the contested documents are judicial documents, which they absolutely are not. Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b)(3); Liz Claiborne, Inc. v. Mademoiselle Knitwear, Inc., 1996 WL 346352, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. June 26, 1996) (Sweet, J.) (denying leave to intervene); Levin v. U.S., 633 Fed. Appx. 69, 70 (2nd Cir. 2016) (affirming district court's denial of motion to intervene, explaining "[b]ecause of the fact-intensive nature of an intervention decision, we review for 'abuse of discretion' a district court's order denying intervention . . . by permission."). Accordingly, this Court can deny Dershowitz's motion on the grounds that taking these documents to the media would prejudice Ms. Giuffre and because, having sat on the documents for months, the motion is untimely.<sup>28</sup>

Dershowitz's motion mentions, then proceeds to ignore, the policy rationale that underlies both the First Amendment and common law right of access to judicial documents. Both

<sup>27</sup> Without a good faith basis, Defendant proposed redacting this Court's reference to Jeffrey Epstein's name (44 times) and the Court's reference to Alan Dershowitz's name (10 times) from this Court's Order. DE 135 Ms. Giuffre made no objection to Defendant's self-serving maneuver to avoid being closely associated with Epstein and Dershowitz in the public eye.

<sup>28</sup> The Court should not even reach the substance of Dershowitz's motion, as he has failed to meet the requirements for permissive intervention, which, as Dershowitz admits, include timeliness. MasterCard Intern. Inc. v. Visa Intern. Service Ass'n, Inc., 471 F.3d 377, 390 (2d Cir. 2006). In MasterCard the Second Circuit affirmed the district court's denial of a motion for permissive intervention on timeliness grounds. That decision is highly persuasive here. First, Dershowitz has known of his potential "interest" in this case long before it was filed in September of 2015, as evidenced by the email communications between Dershowitz and Defendant the Court reviewed in its in camera review before ordering Defendant to produce them. Yet Dershowitz waited until after discovery closed and until after he was safe from receiving a notice of deposition in this matter, before he filed his intervention motion. Unsurprisingly, his motion is devoid of any claim that his motion is timely, because such an argument could never succeed given Dershowitz's long-held knowledge of Ms. Giuffre and her allegations, the disposition of this case, and the fact that he sat on these documents for months before seeking relief.

legal principles exist so that courts may have accountability to the public; they do not exist to enable individuals on a personal vendetta to advance a public smear campaign against a victim of childhood sexual abuse. U.S. v. Amodeo, 71 F.3d 1044, 1048 (2d Cir. 1995) (“Amodeo II”) (“The presumption of access is based on the need for federal courts, although independent—indeed, particularly because they are independent—to have a measure of accountability and for the public to have confidence in the administration of justice.”). Indeed, the motion to intervene is devoid of any citations to precedent that allows an individual to exploit these bedrock legal principles solely for his personal benefit, rather than the public at large. Furthermore, the Court should not overlook the fact that that Dershowitz already possesses these documents because they were sent to him by Maxwell’s counsel who has named him as a witness, and, as demonstrated below, the Second Circuit does not provide a right of access to protected material when an individual seeks to use it solely for harm.

B. These Are Not Judicial Documents and Therefore Should Not be Disclosed

The Court can end its legal analysis of this motion quickly, as, contrary to Dershowitz’s suggestion, the documents in question are not judicial documents. This fact is fatal to the motion, as neither the First Amendment nor the common law right of access applies in a scenario where the materials in question are not judicial documents. U.S. v. Amodeo, 44 F.3d 141, 145 (2d Cir. 1995) (“Amodeo I”) (noting material must be a “judicial document” to be “accessible to the public”).

Dershowitz only became aware of the documents he now seeks because Ms. Giuffre produced them in discovery. It is established law in the Second Circuit that documents simply exchanged in the civil discovery context do not come within the purview of the First Amendment or the common law right of access. “Documents that play no role in the performance of Article III functions, such as those passed between the parties in discovery, lie entirely beyond the presumption's reach..." Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1050. Dershowitz suggests that because a subpoenaed third party filed one of the documents as an attachment to a motion to quash, and because Defendant filed the others as an exhibit to an opposition to extend discovery, that converts them into judicial documents and triggers the presumption of access. This argument is unavailing. The Second Circuit has held that the "mere filing of a paper or document with the court is insufficient to render that paper a judicial document subject to the right of public access. We think that the item filed must be relevant to the performance of the judicial function and useful in the judicial process in order for it to be designated a judicial document." Amodeo I, 44 F.3d at 145.

A review of the case law reveals that every circuit to have directly addressed this point has found that documents filed as exhibits to non-dispositive discovery motions do not qualify as judicial documents. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006) ("We have, however, carved out an exception to the presumption of access to judicial records for a sealed discovery document [attached] to a non-dispositive motion, such that the usual presumption of the public's right of access is rebutted") (internal citation and quotations omitted); Bond v. Utreras, 585 F.3d 1061, 1075 n. 8 (7th Cir.2009); Chi. Tribune Co. v. Bridgestone/Firestone, Inc., 263 F.3d 1304, 1312–13 (11th Cir.2001) (holding that "material filed with discovery motions is not subject to the common-law right of access, whereas discovery material filed in connection with pretrial motions that require judicial resolution of the merits is subject to the common-law right"); Anderson v. Cryovac, Inc., 805 F.2d 1, 10 (1st Cir.1986) ("Although we agree that the public has a right of access to some parts of the judicial process, we conclude that this right does not extend to documents submitted to a court in connection with discovery proceedings."); Leucadia, Inc. v. Applied Extrusion Technologies, Inc., 998 F.2d 157, 164 (3d Cir. 1993) (“holding that discovery motions and supporting materials are subject to a presumptive right of access would make raw discovery, ordinarily inaccessible to the public, accessible merely because it had to be included in motions precipitated by inadequate discovery responses or overly aggressive discovery demands. This would be a holding based more on expediency than principle.”).

Therefore, five federal appellate courts have already rejected the argument that Dershowitz advances here. Dershowitz acknowledges that the Second Circuit has not yet reached this specific issue, but the holdings in Amodeo I and Amodeo II demonstrate that when the Second Circuit reaches this issue, it will reach exactly the same result. In Amodeo II the Second Circuit held that documents “passed between the parties in discovery, lie entirely beyond the presumption’s reach...” Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1050. In Amodeo I the Second Circuit noted the “mere filing of a paper or document with the court is insufficient to render that paper a judicial document subject to the right of public access.” Amodeo I, 44 F.3d at 145. Additionally, in the case cited by Dershowitz, S.E.C. v. TheStreet.Com, 273 F.3d 222, 233 (2d Cir. 2001), the Second Circuit rejected an argument that would “transform every document that a court reviews into a ‘judicial document’ presumptively open to the public, despite well-settled law to the contrary.”

The Second Circuit has held (1) discovery materials are not judicial documents; (2) the mere filing of a document with the court does not render it a judicial document; and (3) a court simply reviewing a piece of discovery material does not make the document a “judicial document.” Therefore, there is no question that the Second Circuit would resolve the issue at hand in exactly the same way that every other circuit to address the issue has. This Court should follow every other circuit, and the guidance from the Second Circuit, and find that the mere filing of a piece of discovery material as part of a non-dispositive discovery motion does not convert the material into a judicial document.

Finally, the Churcher emails cannot qualify as “judicial documents” on the separate and independent basis that the Court has not considered them, as the motion to which they are attached is still pending.<sup>29</sup> Here again, Dershowitz’s motion misses the point of the First Amendment and common law rights of access. It is not the filing of a piece of discovery that makes it a judicial document, it is the Court’s review and consideration of that document that converts the document’s status. Gosmile, Inc. v. Dr. Jonathan Levine, D.M.D. P.C., 2012 WL 1382557, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (“Court did not weigh these documents [attached as exhibits] in its review of the parties’ motions, considers them immaterial to the motions, and therefore does not consider them to be judicial documents.”). As Ms. Giuffre has shown, these principles exist for the accountability of the courts to the public, not for the personal benefit of an individual.

In the face of this uniform precedent from the courts of appeal, Dershowitz cites only to a handful of district court opinions, many of which do not support the relief he seeks. For example, in Dershowitz’s first-cited case, Alexander Interactive, Inc. v. Adorama, Inc., No. 12 Civ. 6608, 2014 WL 4346174, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 2, 2014), the Court proceeded to deny access and instead sealed the materials at issue. In Dandong v. Pinnacle Performance Ltd., No. 10 Civ. 8086, 2012 WL 6217646, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 3, 2012) the court noted the materials at issue were nothing more than legal argument, and it gave the parties time to show “good cause” for keeping the documents sealed. The Court can reject these outlier opinions out of hand, as they do not comport with the holdings of the First, Third, Seventh, Ninth and Eleventh Circuits, nor are they in-line with the Second Circuit’s case law in Amodeo I, Amodeo II and TheStreet.Com.

<sup>29</sup> It may well be the case that the Court never considered Ms. Giuffre’s draft manuscript in ruling on the motion for extension of time in relation to the opposition motion to which it was attached. The Order makes no mention of it. DE June 20, 2016, Order. If the Court did not consider those exhibits, they do not qualify as judicial documents.

There simply is no legal basis for this Court to find that the documents Dershowitz seeks qualify as “judicial documents.” First, it is not clear that this Court has even reviewed or considered them, and if it has not, that fact alone is dispositive. Second, the law throughout the country is clear that routine, raw discovery materials submitted as exhibits to non-dispositive discovery motions do not convert into “judicial documents” and trigger a right of public access. The Court should find that these documents are not “judicial documents” and summarily deny Dershowitz’s motion.

C. Even Were the Court to Deem the Documents to be Judicial Documents, the Presumption of Access is Weak

Even if the Court found these documents to be judicial documents - which they categorically are not - Dershowitz’s motion still fails because the common law presumption of access is extremely weak and easily overcome here by countervailing factors. Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 119–20 (2d Cir. 2006) (noting that if a court finds documents to be judicial, it must then assess the weight of the presumed access and determine if countervailing factors override the presumption).

Once again, Dershowitz’s own cited cases are his undoing. In Alexander Interactive, the Court found that because the documents were submitted merely as exhibits to a motion to compel, “the presumption in favor of public access is weak.” 2014 WL 4346174 at *2. It then proceeded to seal the documents in question, despite acknowledging the public right of access. See also Stern v. Cosby, 529 F.Supp.2d 417, 422 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“the presumption of public access - if any - that attaches to the transcript and videotape is low, at best. No such presumption attaches at all to the videotape, and even if the transcript is filed for purposes of a motion to compel, the presumption that would attach to the transcript would be low. On any such motion, I would not be making any decision on the merits, but I would simply be reviewing excerpts of the transcripts to resolve a discovery dispute.”).

This ruling is in-line with the Second Circuit’s directive regarding how to assess the weight of the presumption of access. “[T]he presumption of access must be governed by the role of the material at issue in the exercise of Article III judicial power and the resultant value of such information to those monitoring the federal courts. Generally, the information will fall somewhere on a continuum from matters that directly affect an adjudication to matters that come within a court's purview solely to insure their irrelevance.” Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1049. This is not a situation where the documents were relied upon as part of a dispositive summary judgment motion (where the presumption is highest). If the Court relied on the documents at all, which is not clear, it was for the limited purpose of determining entitlement to discovery. In this context, as the courts in Alexander Interactive, Stern and Amodeo II noted, the presumption is weakest. Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1050 (“Where testimony or documents play only a negligible role in the performance of Article III duties, the weight of the presumption is low and amounts to little more than a prediction of public access absent a countervailing reason.”). Joy v. North, 692 F.2d 880, 893 (2d Cir.1982) (“Discovery involves the use of compulsory process to facilitate orderly preparation for trial, not to educate or titillate the public.”); In re Zyprexa Injunction, 474 F.Supp.2d 385, 423 (E.D.N.Y. 2007) (“Nonparties who are prohibited from accessing confidential documents . . . cannot claim an infringement on their freedom of speech: The right to speak and publish does not carry with it the unrestrained right to gather information. . . . Discovery involves the use of compulsory process to facilitate orderly preparation for trial, not to educate or titillate the public.”) (internal citations and quotations omitted); Dorsett v. County of Nassau, 762 F.Supp.2d 500, 519 (E.D.N.Y. 2011) (“Assuming for the sake of argument that the IAU Report did satisfy the judicial document inquiry, since the Report was passed between the parties in discovery, it lies entirely beyond the presumption's reach.”).

Given that the presumption of access here is weak, if it exists at all, Ms. Giuffre easily overcomes it with her countervailing evidence. With regard to her draft manuscript, it is protected under trade secret and copyright law, and Dershowitz has no legal right to disseminate it to a public audience.<sup>30</sup> Courts routinely seal materials in support of filings when they contain proprietary or similarly protected content.<sup>31</sup> Louis Vuitton Malletier, S.A. v. My Other Bag, Inc., 156 F.Supp.3d 425, 445 N7 (S.D.N.Y. 2016) (“As for competing considerations that counsel in favor of allowing the parties to file their briefs under seal, the privacy interests of the parties in preventing the public disclosure of private business figures and communications are not insignificant. The Court therefore concludes that the balance of interests is in favor of allowing the parties' briefs to be filed under seal.”). This decision is particularly instructive here, as it involved summary judgment filings, where the access presumption is highest, as opposed to the discovery brief exhibits at issue here, where the presumption is lowest.

Finally, the privacy and sensitivity of the information here is particularly compelling in light of what Dershowitz intends to do if the Court allows him to disseminate these documents. His prior conduct reveals, without a shred of doubt, that he has a personal vendetta against Ms. Giuffre, and he will take these documents and attempt to publicly disparage Ms. Giuffre, as he has done in the recent past. The Second Circuit does not allow a court to unseal private and otherwise protected material to enable a non-party to conduct a public smear campaign. Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1051 (“The nature and degree of injury must also be weighed. This will entail consideration not only of the sensitivity of the information and the subject but also of how the person seeking access intends to use the information...personal vendettas...need not be aided.”) (Emphasis added).

<sup>30</sup> Ms. Giuffre has testified at her deposition in this case that her draft manuscript does not contain everything that happened to her. McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 13, Giuffre Dep. Tr. at 41. Tellingly, Dershowitz does not seek to lift the confidentiality of the testimony of all the witnesses in this case which reveals a significant sex trafficking ring. Instead, Dershowitz seeks to reveal evidence which he can spin in an attempt to legitimize his public relations campaign against her, while keeping secret the evidence that would directly refute his spin.

In sum, the documents Dershowitz seeks involve no presumption of access whatsoever, as they are not judicial documents, but were the Court to find otherwise, the applicable presumption of access would be the lowest that exists under Second Circuit law. Ms. Giuffre requests that, in accord with the governing law, the Court hold that her proprietary interests outweigh any weak presumption of access.

D. No Right of Access Exists Under the First Amendment

Dershowitz should not have advanced a First Amendment right of access argument because it is wholly without merit. First and foremost, the documents at issue must be “judicial documents” to trigger a First Amendment right of access, and, as stated above, the materials at issue here are not. Newsday LLC v. County of Nassau, 730 F.3d 156, 166 (2d Cir. 2013) (“We must conduct an independent review of the Report to determine (a) whether it is a judicial document to which the First Amendment right applies”) (emphasis added).

Should the Court find otherwise, there remains no right of access under the First Amendment. As the Second Circuit has said, “[e]ven when it applies, moreover, the First Amendment right creates only a presumptive right of access.” Id. at 164 (Emphasis original). The right does not attach here because Dershowitz’s motion fails the Second Circuit’s “experience and logic” test for triggering a First Amendment right of access. That test “asks both whether the documents have historically been open to the press and general public and whether public access plays a significant positive role in the functioning of the particular process in question.” Id.

Dershowitz's motion fails both parts of the test. "Protective orders prohibiting dissemination of materials discovered before trial are not the kind of classic prior restraint that require[ ] exacting First Amendment scrutiny." In re Zyprexa Injunction, 474 F.Supp.2d at 417 (Internal quotations omitted).

He argues that materials filed as part of discovery motions are routinely filed and available for public view. That argument is meritless, as it ignores the existence of the Protective Order in this case. Moreover, there is no "historical openness" to the press of a party's raw discovery materials, quite the opposite. As Ms. Giuffre established above, the Second Circuit has found that there is no public right of access to material exchanged in discovery. Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1050 (documents "passed between the parties in discovery, lie entirely beyond the presumption's reach..."). And again, the Court should not lose sight of the policy rationale behind the First Amendment right of access: the accountability of the courts to the public. Dershowitz does not want to monitor this Court in any way whatsoever; instead, he wants to use this Court as a vehicle to conduct a public relations campaign against Ms. Giuffre.

The Court will recall that Dershowitz has a joint-defense agreement with Defendant and is fully aligned with her interests in this case. Far from assisting the public in reviewing this Court's work, Dershowitz seeks to spread misinformation, engage in hateful personal attacks, and taint the jury pool that will hear Ms. Giuffre's case. The Court should not allow such callous abuse of a First Amendment right, particularly as there is no merit to Dershowitz's claim (Br. at 21) that "public monitoring has an important role to play here." This claim is a smokescreen to cover his improper motives. Dershowitz suggests there has been "significant public interest" in Ms. Giuffre's allegations against him, but that is irrelevant here for two reasons. First, Ms. Giuffre is not lodging accusations against Dershowitz in this case. Those allegations appeared in the CVRA case Dershowitz references, and the Court will note that the CVRA court denied as moot Dershowitz's intervention attempt there. Second, public interest in a case would only matter if the material was sought to allow the public to monitor the Court's actions (which is why the courts in this district often recognize a news agency's standing to challenge protective orders<sup>32</sup>), not to feed any purported interest in Dershowitz personally. Again, the First Amendment right protects the public's right to oversee the function of the Court; it does not exist to assist Dershowitz in pursuing his personal vendetta against Ms. Giuffre. Newsday, 730 F.3d at 164 ("the need for public access to court proceedings is grounded in the need for federal courts ... to have a measure of accountability and for the public to have confidence in the administration of justice.") (emphasis added). The Court must reject Dershowitz's misguided attempt to manipulate a public right for his personal benefit.

E. The Second Circuit Has a Presumption Against Modifying Protective Orders Upon Which Parties Reasonably Relied

The Second Circuit has expressly acknowledged that its protective order modification test has, as a general matter, a "strong presumption against the modification of a protective order, and orders should not be modified absent a showing of improvidence in the grant of the order or some extraordinary circumstance or compelling need." In re Teligent, Inc., 640 F.3d 53, 59 (2d Cir. 2011) (affirming denial of motion to lift confidentiality provisions of the protective order).<sup>33</sup>

1. The Record in this Case Shows That the Protective Order Was Not Improvidently Granted

---

<sup>32</sup> Not only is Dershowitz not a news agency, and therefore, should not be allowed to challenge the Protective Order, but his interests are fully represented by Defendant, as evidenced by Defendant's privilege log (showing communications between Dershowitz's counsel and Defendant's counsel); Defendant's sharing confidential documents with Dershowitz; and the 2015 email, sent over 9 months prior to this action, between Dershowitz and Defendant (that this Court ordered Defendant to produce to Ms. Giuffre after its in camera review) discussing Ms. Giuffre. Defendant cannot credibly claim that his and Defendant's interests are not aligned.

<sup>33</sup> 8A Richard L. Marcus, Federal Practice and Procedure § 2044.1 (3d ed. Westlaw 2012) (asserting that the Second Circuit has "embraced a very restrictive attitude toward modification of protective orders," "emphasiz[ing] the need to foster use of protective orders as a means of facilitating discovery as a reason for resisting modification that would tend to make the orders appear unreliable").

Despite Dershowitz's argument, the Protective Order, entered "[u]pon a showing of good cause," was not improvidently granted. (DE 62 at p.1). Indeed, even after the entry of the Protective Order, this Court has articulated its concern for preserving the protections of the Protective Order: "I want to be sure that we can enforce the confidential aspect of that agreement, and I think that could be critical down the line."<sup>34</sup> Indeed, "once a discovery protective order is in place, the applicable standard requires plaintiff seeking to modify the order to show improvidence in the grant of the protective order or some extraordinary circumstance or compelling need." In re September 11 Litigation, 262 F.R.D. 274 (S.D. N.Y. 2009). Dershowitz's attempts to claim improvidence, carelessness, or shortsightedness of this Court in granting the Protective Order are unavailing. To the contrary, this Court has, twice, found the case warrants a stringent Protective Order, and has specifically expressed concern for its ongoing efficacy.<sup>35</sup> Dershowitz cannot point to a single reason why the Protective Order was improvidently granted other than the fact that it hinders the ability of him, a third party, to select certain documents to use in a pre-trial smear campaign against one of the parties. Ms. Giuffre submits that one of the merits of the Protective Order is that it forecloses a pre-trial any media circus (created by either side) which would taint the jury pool.

2. The Parties and Deponents in This Case Have Reasonably Relied Upon the Protective Order

The Second Circuit has been hesitant to permit modifications that might "unfairly disturb the legitimate expectations of the parties or deponents." Dorsett v. County of Nassau, 289 F.R.D. 54, 64 (E.D.N.Y. 2012). Indeed, "[i]t is presumptively unfair for courts to modify protective orders which assure confidentiality and upon which the parties have reasonably relied." Id., 289 F.R.D. at 64 (E.D.N.Y. 2012) (internal citations and quotations omitted) (denying motion to lift confidentiality of report of policing failures surrounding the murder of a young mother).

“Consequently, in a major decision in this field, Martindell v. International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., 594 F.2d 291 (2d Cir.1979), the Second Circuit determined that ‘absent a showing of improvidence in the grant of a Rule 26(c) protective order or some extraordinary circumstance or compelling need ... a witness should be entitled to rely upon the enforceability of a protective order against any third parties.’” Id., quoting Martindell v. International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., 594 F.2d at 296 (denying governmental access for criminal investigative purposes civil deposition transcripts taken under a protective order).

In this case, Ms. Giuffre - and multiple other deponents - reasonably relied on this Court’s Protective Order in giving testimony and producing documents. Indeed, Ms. Giuffre has given testimony about being sexually assaulted in reasonable reliance upon the privacy of the Protective Order; furnished personal medical records under in reasonable reliance upon the Protective Order; and produced personal emails with close family members in reasonable reliance upon of the Protective Order. Medical Diagnostic Imaging, PLLC v. Carecore Nat., LLC, 2009 WL 2135294, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (denying motion to modify protective order because parties and third parties have reasonably relied upon the terms of the protective order). Under Martindell, this Court cannot take away those protections after the fact.<sup>36</sup>

3. Dershowitz Seeks These Materials For an Illegitimate Purpose Which Disqualifies Him from Relief

“A litigant's purpose in seeking modification of an existing protective order is also relevant for determining whether to grant a modification. Requests to modify protective orders so that the public may access discovery materials is arguably subject to a more stringent presumption against modification because there is no public right of access to discovery materials.” Dorsett, 289 F.R.D. at 65 (Internal citations and quotations omitted). Dershowitz’s own words admit the true purpose behind the instant motion, and wholly contradict the flimflam he has presented to this Court: “My goal is to bring charges against the client and require her to speak in court.”<sup>37</sup>

<sup>36</sup> “The Second Circuit has explicitly rejected the notion that the Martindell standard should be limited to cases where the government seeks to modify a protective order. Rather, Martindell has been applied even when the third party seeking access to discovery is a private litigant. Dorsett v. County of Nassau, 289 F.R.D. at 66, citing Iridium India Telecom Ltd. v. Motorola, Inc., 165 Fed.Appx. 878, 880 (2d Cir.2005).

Indeed, in over 50 statements to the press, he has explained to the world (if not this Court) his reasons for maintaining his attacks on Ms. Giuffre in the media, in which he has publicly called her a “prostitute” and a “bad mother” to her three minor children. McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 20, Local 10 News, January 22, 2015. For example, Dershowitz has made the following statements:

- “The end result of this case should be she [Jane Doe No. 3] should go to jail, the lawyers should be disbarred and everybody should understand that I am completely and totally innocent.” McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 21, CNN International, New Day, January 6, 2015.
- Dershowitz also stated, in an interview in Newsmax, that he is “considering” bringing a lawsuit against Jane Doe No. 3. “And we’re considering suing her for defamation as well, but right now she was trying to hide in Colorado and avoid service, but we found her and we served her and now she’ll be subjected to a deposition.”<sup>38</sup>

By his own words, Dershowitz wants to intimidate and harass Ms. Giuffre with the specter of his sending her “to jail.”<sup>39</sup>

Even Dershowitz’s own cited cases militate against the Court feeding his proposed public relations campaign: Nixon v. Warner Communications, Inc., 98 S.Ct. 1306, 1312, 435 U.S. 589, 598 (1978) (“It is uncontested that the right to . . . copy judicial records is not absolute . . . access has been denied where court files might have become a vehicle for improper purposes”). <sup>38</sup> McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 23, Newsmax, April 8, 2015

<sup>39</sup> Dershowitz has previously written: “There’s an old saying: ‘If you have the law on your side, bang on the law. If you have the facts on your side, bang on the facts. If you have neither, bang on the table.’ I have never believed that, but I do believe in a variation on that theme: If you don’t have the law or legal facts on your side, argue your case in the court of public opinion.” ALAN DERSHOWITZ, TAKING THE STAND: MY LIFE IN THE LAW (2013).

Nixon, the Supreme Court warned that lower courts should “exercise an informed discretion as to the release” of materials, because, “[o]therwise, there would exhibit a danger that the court could become a partner in the use of the subpoenaed material to gratify private spite or promote public scandal, with no corresponding assurance of public benefit.” Nixon v. Warner Communications, Inc., 98 S.Ct. at 1315, 435 U.S. at 603 (internal citations and quotations omitted). Under Nixon, this Court should not allow itself to be Dershowitz’s partner in gratifying his private spite and promoting public scandal that would necessarily prejudice Ms. Giuffre.<sup>40</sup>

4. Under This Court’s Order, Non-Parties Cannot Challenge Confidentiality Designations and Dershowitz has Already Agreed to be Bound by the Parties’ Confidentiality Designations in Exchange for Receipt of Documents

The Protective Order (DE 62) does not allow non-parties, like Dershowitz, to make a challenge to the confidentiality designations or the efficacy of the Order. To the contrary, the Protective Order only states that parties can object to the confidentiality designations: “A party may object to the designation of particular CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information . . . it shall be the obligation the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL to file an appropriate motion requesting that the Court determine whether the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order.” (DE 62 at ¶ 11, p. 4). This Court’s Protective Order does not allow for non-parties to challenge these designations. Accordingly, Dershowitz cannot challenge the designations under this Order.

<sup>40</sup> Similarly, under applications to intervene under Rule 24(a), numerous courts have declined to allow a mere “reputational” interest to justify intervention. Calloway v. Westinghouse Elec. Corp., 115 F.R.D. 73, 74 (M.D. Ga. 1987) (“interest in his reputation alone . . . does not constitute the required interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the present action necessary to allow intervention”); Flynn v. Hubbard, 82 F.2d 1084, 1093 (1st Cir. 1986) (“the church “merely claim[ed] a generalized injury to reputation [that] identifies no legal detriment arising from a default judgment against Hubbard.”); Edmondson v. State of Neb. ex. rel. Meyer, 383 F.2d 123 (8th Cir. 1967) (“The mere fact that Edmondson’s reputation is thereby injured is not enough [to support intervention.]”); Forsyth County v. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, 2009 WL 1312511, at *2 (N.D. Ga. May 8, 2009) (interest in protecting its reputation . . . is not direct, substantive, or derived from a legal right”).

Importantly, Dershowitz admits that he has agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Protective Order in exchange for receiving the documents. Accordingly, he has agreed to the confidentiality restrictions placed on the documents, no matter what the documents contained. As Dershowitz explicitly admits that he agreed to be bound by the Protective Order so that he could be privy to all of the discovery in this case, he also agreed to be bound by its confidentiality provisions, as well as the provisions that only allow parties to bring challenges to the Protective Order.

V. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Court should deny Dershowitz's motion in its entirety.

| 1 us. 2 Q. Where would he sleep? 3 A. In the main room, the main guest bedroom. 4 That was the blue room. 5 Q. And, so, when he would come and stay, during 6 that time would he frequently have massages? 7 MR. CRITTON: Form. 8 THE WITNESS: I would says, daily massages. 9 They have a daily massage. 10 BY MS. EZELL: 11 Q. Was it sometimes more than one a day? 12 A. I can't remember if he had more than one, but 13 I think it was just a massage for him. We set up the 14 tables and -- 15 Q. Do you have any recollection of V.R. coming to 16 the house when Prince Andrew was there? 17 A. It could have been, but I'm not sure. 18 Q. Not sure. When Mr. Dershowitz was 19 visiting, -- 20 A. Uh-huh. 21 Q. -- how often did he come? 22 A. He came pretty -- pretty often. I would says, 23 at least four or five times a year. 24 Q. And how long would he stay typically? 25 A. Two, three days.              | 1 MR. LANGINO: Go ahead. Sure. 2 BY MS. EZELL: 3 Q. You said that you set up the massage tables. 4 And would you also set up the oils and the towels? 5 A. Yes, ma'am. 6 Q. And I think I read one time you said they used 7 40 or 50 towels a day? 8 MR. CRITTON: Form. 9 THE WITNESS: That's correct. There was a 10 tremendous amount of work in the house, especially 11 laundry towels, because they were -- we have 12 towels, piles of towels. And they use in the pool. 13 There was a lot of people in the pool and there 14 were a towel that went in the floor, we have to go 15 and pick it up, wash it. So it was -- it was a lot 16 of towels, yes. 17 BY MS. EZELL: 18 Q. And did you ever have occasion to go upstairs 19 and clean up after the massages? 20 A. Yeah, uh-huh. 21 Q. Did you ever find any vibrators in that area? 22 A. Yes. I told him, yes. 23 MS. EZELL: And did you ask that? I'm sorry. 24 MR. CRITTON: Yes. 25 MS. EZELL: I don't know how I missed that.                                                                                                                       |

| 1 Q. Did he have massages sometimes when he was 2 there? 3 A. Yes. A massage was like a treat for 4 everybody. If they want it, we call the massage and 5 they have a massage. 6 Q. Now, Mr. Trump had a home in Palm Beach, 7 correct? 8 A. Uh-huh. 9 Q. So he didn't come and stay there, did he? 10 A. No, never. 11 Q. He would come for a meal? 12 A. He would come, have dinner. He never sat at 13 the table. He eat with me in the kitchen. 14 Q. Did he ever have massages while he was there? 15 A. No. Because he's got his own spa. 16 Q. Sure. 17 MS. EZELL: I don't have any other questions 18 right now. I'd just like to reserve if something 19 comes up to ask. But, otherwise, you may go ahead. 20 MR. LANGINO: It is noon, so I don't know what 21 everybody else's schedule is. I don't know how 22 you're feeling. 23 THE WITNESS: I am fine. 24 MS. EZELL: I do have another question. May I 25 ask it? | 1 BY MS. EZELL: 2 Q. Since I did miss it, if you don't mind, let me 3 just ask you again. 4 Would you describe for me what kinds of 5 vibrators you found? 6 A. I'm not familiar -- not too familiar with the 7 names, but they were big dildos, what they call the big 8 rubber things like that (indicating). And I used to go 9 and put my gloves on and pick them up, put them in the 10 sink, rinse it off and put it in Ms. Maxwell -- 11 Ms. Maxwell had in her closet, she had, like, a laundry 12 basket, one of those laundry basket that you put laundry 13 in. She have full of those toys. And that was -- and 14 that was me being professional, leaving the room ready 15 for bed when he would come back to the room again. 16 Q. Okay. 17 A. That happened a few times, few times. 18 Q. Were there other sex toys that you found in 19 the area -- 20 A. No. 21 Q. -- sometimes? You mentioned she kept them in 22 a basket in her closet? 23 A. She kept them in her basket. She had some 24 videos there and she have a costume there. I know that 25 she bought it, that she brought it with her. |

You don't know whether or not he was a 6 lawyer -- acting as a lawyer or whether he was 7 there as a friend? 8 A. I believe as a friend. 9 Q. Were there also young ladies in the house 10 at the time he was there? 11 MR. CRITTON: Form. 12 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. 13 BY MS. EZELL: 14 Q. Can you tell me where those were? 2 A. One in the kitchen, and the one in the 3 formal -- the main entrance. And there was one 4 more added later on, but there is two when I was 5 working there. 6 Q. Could you just give me a rough sketch of 7 the house of where the main entrance was and where 8 the kitchen was? 9 A. I'm not an architect but it's something 10 like this. This is the kitchen, this is the main 11 entrance. 12 Q. Will you mark the kitchen with a K, 13 please, and the main entrance with ME? 14 A. This is the pool. 15 Q. The pool? 16 A. Yes, ma'am. 17 Q. And in the upper left? 18 A. In the terrace, yeah, there was a balcony 19 here. 20 Q. And where were the staircases? 21 A. This is one, the kitchen, one in the 22 foyer, and the pool. 23 Q. Okay. And would you just put an F where 24 the foyer staircase began? And KS where the 25 kitchen staircase began. |

And do you have any idea whether or not 4 Mr. Dershowitz was also receiving massages? 5 A. I don't know, Ma'am. 6 Q. I want to ask you to take this piece of 7 paper, please, and a pencil -- 8 MR. WILLITS: Can anybody hear me? 9 MS. EZELL: Yes. Can you hear me? 10 MR. WILLITS: I've heard nothing for 11 about a minute or so. 12 MR. CRITTON: Can you hear me now? 13 MR. WILLITS: Yes. 14 MS. EZELL: I'm asking questions, I'm 15 sorry. 16 MR. CRITTON: Why don't we go off the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Page 282 1 And you said that later another staircase 2 was added? 3 A. Yeah, we rehabilitated this, you know, 4 but you asked me how many stairs there were, to 5 answer your question there were three. 6 Q. Three. So where was the third one? 7 A. The pool, this leads to the pool. 8 Through the outside master bedroom you could go 9 downstairs to the pool. 10 Q. Okay. A stairway then from the outside, 11 from outside the master bedroom? 12 A. Yes, ma'am. 13 Q. Down to the pool? 14 A. Yes, ma'am. 15 Q. One of your duties was to answer the 16 door. Is that correct?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

EZELL: 23 Q. Mr. Rodriguez, you indicated that there 24 were several staircases in the house? 25 A. Yes, ma'am.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 17 A. Yes, ma'am. 18 Q. Which door would you answer? 19 A. Mainly the kitchen. 20 Q. And why was that, why would people mainly 21 come to the kitchen? 22 A. I'll say it was for practicable reasons 23 because not to go to the main -- it was shorter 24 because the entrance was here, so this was the 25 driveway and we used to take into the back door of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

3 your entire life have you ever seen soap in the 4 shape of a penis and vagina?

5 A. Not that I recall.

6 Q. Do you ever recall being in Ohio?

7 MR. RHEINHART: Ever in her life?

8 MR. KUVIN: The state, ever in her life.

9 BY MR. KUVIN:

10 Q. Let's start there, recall being in the 11 State of Ohio for any reason?

12 A. Maybe for a layover, but not that I
13 specifically remember.

14 Q. Okay. Do you know an Ivan Robles?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Have you seen a gentleman by the name of 17 Alan Dershowitz at the home of Jeffrey Epstein
18 before?

19 MR. RHEINHART: Objection to the form.
20 Standing objection, presumes knowledge of 21 Jeffrey Epstein or his home. Instruct the 22 witness not to answer.

23 THE WITNESS: On the instruction of my
24 lawyer, I must exercise my Fifth Amendment

7 THE WITNESS: On the instruction of my

10 BY MR. KUVIN:

3 BY MR. KUVIN:

4 Q. Do you agree that these corporations that 5 I just mentioned were utilized by Jeffrey Epstein in 6 an attempt to have sexual relationships with 7 underage girls?

8 MR. RHEINHART: Objection to the form as 9 to compound, and also assumes knowledge of 10 Mr. Epstein, asks for more than one answer to 11 the question. I would instruct her not to 12 answer based on her Fifth Amendment privilege
13 because the question assumes knowledge of 14 Mr. Epstein.

15 THE WITNESS: Upon instruction of my
16 lawyer I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

17 MR. KUVIN: I think I am done. Hang on 18 one second.

19 All right. I appreciate it. That's all 20 the questions I have at this time. Reserve the 21 right to ask any follow-up questions if other 22 attorneys raise new and different issues by 23 their questioning.

24 MR. RHEINHART: Understood.

25 MR. KUVIN: Pass the witness at this time.

Page 316

1 It is otherwise compound and objectionable.

2 THE WITNESS: On the instruction of my
3 lawyer, I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

4 MR. WEISSING: Let's go off the record for 5 a moment.

6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Are we all good with
7 going off the record?

12 Q. With regard to the minor children procured
13 for him at that location, were they school children
14 in the New York area?

15 MR. RHEINHART: The previous question,

19 answered.

20 THE WITNESS: On the instruction of my
21 lawyer, I must invoke my Fifth Amendment

1 know what the Edge Group was, but whatever, you can
2 answer the question.

3 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
4 I must choose to invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

5 BY MS. EZELL:

6 Q. Do you know Max Brockman?

7 MR. REINHART: I'm sorry, can you repeat?

8 BY MS. EZELL:

9 Q. Do you know a Max Brockman?

10 MR. REINHART: I believe that was asked and 11 answered already, but --

12 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
13 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

14 BY MS. EZELL:

15 Q. Have you ever been photographed with Max
16 Brockman at an Edge Science dinner?

17 A. At the instruction of my lawyer, I must invoke
18 my Fifth Amendment right.

19 MR. REINHART: You should let me -- I need to 20 object to the form of the question first, but go
21 ahead. I know we all want to get out of here. Go
22 ahead.

23 THE WITNESS: Say it again.

24 MR. REINHART: No, you are okay. Go ahead,
25 Ms. Ezell. Thank you.

Page 434

1 BY MS. EZELL:

2 Q. Do you know whether Jeffrey Epstein attended
3 the Edge Science dinner in Monterey, California?

4 MR. REINHART: Objection to the form, lack of
5 foundation. Instruct the witness not to answer.

6 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
7 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

8 BY MS. EZELL:

9 Q. You testified a moment ago that you were 10 photographed nude by your boyfriend or a former 11 boyfriend and that you hoped there are no photographs
12 disseminated elsewhere.

13 At what age were those photographs taken?

14 MR. REINHART: I'm going to instruct her not 15 to answer that. It has nothing to do with 16 anything. It's not reasonably calculated to lead
17 to discoverable evidence. We can move on.

18 BY MS. EZELL:

19 Q. Were you in any way damaged by that
20 experience?

21 MR. REINHART: Same instruction. Let's move
22 on.

23 BY MS. EZELL:

24 Q. Do you have any regrets?

25 MR. REINHART: Same instruction. Move on.

Page 435

1 BY MS. EZELL:

2 Q. Do you want to respond? I didn't give you
3 time.

4 MR. REINHART: I've instructed her not to 5 answer the question. Let's move on.

6 BY MS. EZELL:

7 Q. Do you recall a dinner at El Brillo Way
8 attended by David Copperfield where Jane No. 103 was a
9 guest?

10 MR. REINHART: Objection to the form, lack of 11 foundation, and a standing objection as to her
12 knowledge of anything involving El Brillo Way or 13 Jeffrey Epstein. Instruct her not to answer.

14 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
15 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

16 BY MS. EZELL:

17 Q. What is the relationship between Jeffrey
18 Epstein and David Copperfield?

19 MR. REINHART: Objection to form, lack of 20 foundation as to her knowledge of either one of 21 those people. Instruct her not to answer.

22 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
23 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

24 BY MS. EZELL:

25 Q. To your knowledge, do they recruit girls for

Page 436

1 one another?

2 MR. REINHART: Object to the form, compound,
3 and again, lack of foundation. Instruct her not to
4 answer.

5 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
6 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

7 BY MS. EZELL:

8 Q. To your knowledge, are they involved in any 9 sexual trafficking of young women?

10 MR. REINHART: Object to the form for the 11 reasons previously stated. Also calls for a legal 12 conclusion as to what sexual trafficking is.
13 Instruct her not to answer.

14 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
15 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

16 BY MS. EZELL:

17 Q. I believe you asked about Allen Dershowitz
18 earlier.

19 MR. REINHART: Twice.

20 BY MS. EZELL:

21 Q. And were instructed not to answer.

22 MR. REINHART: Twice.

23 BY MS. EZELL:

24 Q. All right. I'm going to ask again on behalf
25 of my client. Are you aware of the friendship between 18 (Pages 433 to 436)

Page 437

1 Allen Dershowitz and Jeffrey Epstein?

2 MR. REINHART: And for the third time, I'll
3 object to the form and instruct her not to answer
4 the question.

5 THE WITNESS: For the third time, I take the 6 advice of my lawyer and invoke my Fifth Amendment
7 right.

8 BY MS. EZELL:

9 Q. When Allen Dershowitz comes to Palm Beach, he 10 stays at the El Brillo mansion, doesn't he?

11 MR. REINHART: Objection to the form. There
12 is no foundation for her having any knowledge of 13 anything having to do with a person by the name of 14 Allen Dershowitz. I instruct her not to answer.

15 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
16 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

17 BY MS. EZELL:

18 Q. When Allen Dershowitz, or has Allen Dershowitz
19 ever been there when young ladies came to give massages?

23 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

24 BY MS. EZELL:

25 Q. Has Allen Dershowitz ever been the beneficiary

Page 438

1 of those massages?

2 MR. REINHART: Same objection and same
3 instruction.

4 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
5 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

6 BY MS. EZELL:

7 Q. Do you know John Casablanca?

8 A. Never heard that name before.

9 Q. Have you ever heard of a world-famous
10 illusionist whose stage name is David Copperfield?

11 MR. REINHART: That's also been asked at least 12 three times. I'll instruct her again not to answer
13 the question.

14 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
15 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

16 BY MS. EZELL:

17 Q. Have you ever gone to one of David
18 Copperfield's shows?

19 MR. REINHART: Objection to form, lack of 20 foundation as to knowledge of any person by the 21 name of David Copperfield. Instruct her not to 22 answer.

23 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
24 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

25

Page 439

1 BY MS. EZELL:

2 Q. Do you know that when David Copperfield is in 3 town, he gives Jeffrey Epstein tickets and Jeffrey gives
4 some to young women to attend those shows?

5 MR. REINHART: Object to the form, multiple,
6 compound question, and a complete lack of
7 foundation. Instruct the witness not to answer.

8 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
9 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

10 BY MS. EZELL:

11 Q. And do you know that those girls are invited
12 back stage after the show?

13 MR. REINHART: Same objection, complete lack 14 of foundation, and standing objection previously 15 stated.

16 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
17 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

18 BY MS. EZELL:

19 Q. Do you remember on or about, in or about March
20 of 2005 having conversations with one of the young women
21 who came to the house to give massages about her
22 conversations with Jane No. 103?

23 MR. REINHART: Objection to the form, standing
24 objection, lack of foundation. Instruct the 25 witness not to answer, because the question implies

Page 440

1 that she has any knowledge at all of El Brillo Way.

2 BY MS. EZELL:

3 Q. Same question -- sorry.

4 A. At the instruction of my lawyer, I must choose
5 to invoke my Fifth Amendment privilege.

6 Q. Same question as to March of 2006.

7 MR. REINHART: Same objection and same
8 instruction.

9 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
10 I must choose to invoke my Fifth Amendment
11 privilege.

12 BY MS. EZELL:

13 Q. Do you have any recollection of a conversation
14 in which one of the young women told Jane No. 103 that 15 those girls who, those girls who would help Jeffrey in 16 regard to the investigation would be compensated and 17 those who would not or who would hurt him in the 18 investigation would be dealt with?

19 MR. REINHART: Objection to the form, lack of 20 foundation, compound question. Instruct the 21 witness not to answer, because the question implies
22 some knowledge of anything relating to a person by 23 the name of Jeffrey Epstein.

24 THE WITNESS: At the instruction of my lawyer,
25 I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell moves under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(a)(3)(B) to compel Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre to provide responsive answers to Ms. Maxwell's Second Set of Discovery Requests, attached as Exhibit A to Declaration of Laura A. Menninger ("Menninger Decl.").

Certificate of conferral. Undersigned counsel certifies counsel for Ms. Maxwell has conferred with Plaintiff's counsel regarding the subject matter of this Motion. Based on the conferral, Plaintiff's counsel wrote a letter declining to supplement any of the responses to the Second Set of Discovery Requests.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff has brought a lawsuit alleging Ms. Maxwell defamed her. The defamation consisted of Ms. Maxwell's defensive statements denying Plaintiff's repeated, false allegations that Ms. Maxwell had subjected plaintiff to "sex trafficking" while Plaintiff was 15 years old. Plaintiff alleged in her Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii) disclosures that she has suffered noneconomic injury of "not less than" $30 million, medical expenses of "not less than" $100,000, and lost earnings of "not less than" $5 million.<sup>1</sup> She also has requested punitive damages of $50 million.

Despite claiming defamation damages exceeding $80 million, Plaintiff routinely has stonewalled our efforts to obtain basic information about the nature of the alleged defamation and the scope of her alleged damages. Plaintiff's frustration of our discovery efforts has impeded our ability to prepare a defense.

Illustrative is Interrogatory No. 6, propounded on Plaintiff in Ms. Maxwell's Second Set of Discovery Requests, which are at issue in this Motion. We are entitled to know each allegedly defamatory statement that is the subject of this lawsuit. Plaintiff and her counsel have alleged that Ms. Maxwell has published “numerous” false statements, yet Plaintiff stubbornly refuses to identify each of these allegedly false statements. Interrogatory No. 6 asked simply that for each allegedly false statement, Plaintiff “identify ... the exact false statement.” True to form, Plaintiff identified only statements referenced in her Complaint and refused to provide any other “exact false statement[s]” allegedly published by Ms. Maxwell.

ARGUMENT

This Motion concerns improper objections and evasive and other improper responses to six interrogatories, eleven requests for admissions, and six requests for production of documents. See Menninger Decl., Ex. B (Plaintiff’s Responses and Objections to Ms. Maxwell’s Second Set of Discovery Requests). The Court should compel Plaintiff to:

- submit responsive answers to the interrogatories, and identify what information, if any is being withheld on the basis of which objection;
- answer the requests for admissions in compliance with Rule 36(a)(4);
- for each objection to a request to produce, identify what documents are being withheld on the basis of which objection; and
- produce all documents that are the subject of requests for production at issue in this Motion.

We respectfully submit that Plaintiff’s responses were not made in good faith and the objections were not interposed in good faith and, accordingly, the Court should award Ms. Maxwell reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in bringing this Motion.

I. Plaintiff’s interrogatory responses are deficient.

Interrogatory No. 5. Identify each Communication that You or Your Attorneys have had with any author, reporter, correspondent, columnist, writer, commentator, investigative journalist, photojournalist, newspaper person, freelance reporter, stringer, or any other employee of any media organization or independent consultant to the same, including:

- a. the date of any such Communication;
- b. the form of any such Communication, whether oral or written and if written, the format of any such Communication;

- c. the identities of all persons involved in such Communication, including the identity of the media organization with whom the agent is or was affiliated;
- d. the article title, date of publication, and means of publication of any article, report, or re-printing of any such Communication made by You or Your Attorneys;
- e. the amount of Income that You and/or Your Attorneys received in exchange for any such Communication;
- f. the dates on which You and/or Your Attorneys received any such Income for any such Communication.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product protections, and any other applicable privilege or protection as stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it is not limited in time, manner, or subject matter. The request is grossly over broad in that it does not require the communication to have any connection with Ms. Giuffre or this case whatsoever. Indeed, a response to this interrogatory would require each of Ms. Giuffre's attorneys to research and find any communication they have ever had with a journalist, for every year of their practice, regardless of what case was involved, and regardless of what year the communication was made. Ms. Giuffre's attorney's, collectively, have worked on hundreds (if not thousands) of matters, and collectively have well over 100 years of combined practice experience. Accordingly, a request that each of these attorneys list all communications with the media is facially overbroad.

Additionally, Ms. Giuffre objects to this Interrogatory because a response would cause Ms. Giuffre the incredible and undue burden of having to catalogue literally hundreds of communications that she has already produced in this case.

Moreover, Ms. Giuffre objects because this interrogatory calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Communications with the media regarding cases that bear no relation to the subject matter of this case, from decades in the past, are facially invalid and not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to the extent that this interrogatory seeks the communications of her attorneys, any author, reporter, correspondent, columnist, writer, commentator, investigative journalist, photojournalist, newspaper person, freelance reporter, stringer, or any other employee of any media organization or independent consultant as such interrogatory is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Furthermore, Ms. Giuffre is not obligated to produce anything currently in the possession of Defendant Maxwell or her attorneys.

Notwithstanding such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive communications, which are found in documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566.

Objection 1.<sup>2</sup>

The interrogatory does not exceed the limit. Plaintiff alleged Interrogatory No. 5 exceeds the 25-interrogatory limit. Plaintiff is wrong. She failed to take into account that the Second Set of Discovery Requests merely repeated five (5) interrogatories that were propounded in the First Set of Discovery Requests. Defendant objected in her Responses to the First Set on the ground the interrogatories were propounded prematurely. Plaintiff double-counted those interrogatories.

Second, Plaintiff's argument is wrong because she counted every subpart as a separate interrogatory, regardless of whether all the subparts are related by subject matter. That is an improper way to count interrogatories. Rule 33(a)(1) itself provides that for a subpart to count as a separate interrogatory, it must be "discrete." Among the courts that have dealt with this issue, "there has developed a common denominator on how to weigh an interrogatory's subparts as independent and discrete." Bartnick v. CSX Transp., No. 1:11-CV-1120 GLS/TRF, 2012 WL 1565057, at *2 (N.D.N.Y. Apr. 27, 2012). An interrogatory's subparts are to be counted as separate and discrete subparts only "if they are not logically or factually subsumed within and necessarily related to the primary question," id. (citing cases).

Further, Local Rule 26.3(c) provides a uniform meaning of "identify" with respect to persons and documents and requiring the "type," date, addressee and recipient of documents or, alternatively, production of same and as to persons, the name, addresses and last known place of employment. Here, each of the interrogatories—even those like No. 5 with subparts—propounded by Ms. Maxwell constitute a single interrogatory under Rule 33(a)(1).

---

Objection 2.

Plaintiff's unreasonable reading of the interrogatory. Plaintiff objected that the interrogatory is not limited in “time, manner or subject matter.” The objection is not well taken. Local Rule 26.4(b) provides in part that “[d]iscovery requests shall be read reasonably” (emphasis supplied). So read, this interrogatory is limited to communications Plaintiff and her attorneys have had with media representatives concerning the subject matter of this lawsuit. Notably, setting aside Plaintiff’s unreasonable interpretation of the interrogatory, Plaintiff provided no responsive answer whatsoever.

Plaintiff also argued that with respect to her attorneys the interrogatory required the attorneys to disclose their communications with media representatives “for every year of their practice, regardless of what case was involved, and regardless of what year the communication was made.” That is an unreasonable—absurd—interpretation of the interrogatory.

Objection 3.

There is no undue burden. Plaintiff objected that the interrogatory imposes upon her an “undue burden” because she would have to “catalogue literally hundreds of communications that she has already produced in this case.” So long as Plaintiff admitted—as she does—that her and her attorneys’ communications with media representatives regarding the subject matter of this lawsuit are relevant, she cannot complain of an “undue burden” because she and her attorneys have communicated “hundreds” of times with media representatives. Such an unreasonable view of the law would permit a party to resist providing relevant information by claiming she has too much relevant information.

Objection 4.

The requested information is relevant. Piggybacking on Objection 2, Plaintiff objected that “Communications with the media regarding cases that bear no relation to the subject matter of this case, from decades in the past, are ... not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence” (emphasis supplied). As already discussed, the interrogatory requested information about Plaintiff’s and her attorneys’ communications with media representatives concerning the subject matter of this action. Plaintiff and her attorney’s communications with the media are directly relevant to numerous defenses available to Ms. Maxwell, including without limitation, her self-defense privilege, whether Plaintiff is a limited public figure, Ms. Maxwell’s right to fair comment, that Ms. Maxwell’s comments did not affect Plaintiff’s reputation, Plaintiff’s contributory negligence, Plaintiff’s failure to mitigate, and Plaintiff’s damages are the proximate result of her own conduct or the conduct of others.

Objection 5.

No privilege applies. Plaintiff has interposed the attorney-client privilege and the work product doctrine.<sup>3</sup> It is inconceivable that Plaintiff or her attorneys have a good faith basis to interpose the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine over their communications with media representatives. In any event, they have failed to explain any factual basis for interposing the privilege or doctrine.

---

<sup>3</sup>Plaintiff also attempted to interpose “any” objection listed in her “general objections.” In her “general objections” Plaintiff asserted—generally and redundantly—“any applicable privilege, including but not limited to, attorney client privilege, work product privilege, joint defense privilege, public interest privilege, and any other applicable privilege [sic].” Such a broad, general and generic assertion of privilege is ineffective to preserve any privilege, even if one existed. P. & B. Marina, Ltd. P’ship v. Logrande, 136 F.R.D. 50, 54 (E.D.N.Y. 1991) (“A general allegation or blanket assertion that the privilege should apply is insufficient to warrant protection.”), aff’d sub nom. P&B Marina Ltd. v. LoGrande, 983 F.2d 1047 (2d Cir. 1992).

Plaintiff's deficient answer. "Notwithstanding" her objections, Plaintiff "answered" by referring the defense to 7,566 pages of documents ("Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive communications, which are found in documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566."). The vast majority of these documents do not contain any communications between Plaintiff and her lawyers, on the one hand, and media representatives, on the other. The answer is improper. See, e.g., In re Ethicon, Inc., Pelvic Repair Sys. Prod. Liab. Litig., No. MDL 2327, 2013 WL 8744561, at *3 (S.D.W. Va. July 26, 2013) (finding interrogatory responses insufficient where they instructed plaintiffs to search mass of documents for requested information); Nickerman v. Remco Hydraulics, Inc., No. C 06-2555SI, 2007 WL 3407437, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2007) ("Despite repeated admonitions against doing so, plaintiffs continue to provide general and vague responses and to direct defendants to masses of documents.... Neither defendants nor the Court should be expected to comb through literally thousands of pages of documents searching for documents that might support plaintiffs' IIED claims.").

Interrogatory No. 6. Identify any "false statements" attributed to Ghislaine Maxwell which were "published globally, including within the Southern District of New York" as You contend in paragraph 9 of Count 1 of Your Complaint, including:

- a. the exact false statement;
- b. the date of its publication;
- c. the publishing entity and title of any publication containing the purportedly false statement;
- d. the URL or internet address for any internet version of such publication; and
- e. the nature of the publication, whether in print, internet, broadcast or some other form of media.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects because the information interrogatory above is in the possession of Defendant who has failed to comply with her production obligations in this matter, and has failed to comply with her production obligations with this very subject matter. See Document Request No. 17 from Ms. Giuffre's Second Request for Production of Documents to Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell.<sup>1</sup> Maxwell has not produced all "URL or Internet addresses for any internet version of such publication" that she directed her agent, Ross Gow, to send.

Ms. Giuffre further objects because the information requested above is in the possession of Defendant's agent, who caused the false statements to be issued to various media outlets. Ms. Giuffre has not had the opportunity to depose Maxwell's agent Ross Gow; therefore, this answer remains incomplete. Consequently, Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to modify and/or supplement her responses, as information is largely in the possession of the Defendant and her agent.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request because it is in the public domain. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Notwithstanding such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive communications, which are found in documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566.

---

Objection 6.

Plaintiff cannot answer by stating that Ms. Maxwell already has the information.

Plaintiff "object[ed]" to the interrogatory because the answer to the interrogatory, she alleged, "is in the possession of [Ms. Maxwell]" and her agent, or "is in the public domain." Such an objection is improper:

[T]o the extent defendant objects that certain requests ... seek information equally available to plaintiff, "courts have unambiguously stated that this exact objection is insufficient to resist a discovery request." St. Paul Reinsurance Co., Ltd., CNA v. Commercial Fin. Corp., 198 F.R.D. 508, 514 (N.D. Iowa 2000); see also City Consumer Servs., Inc. v. Horne, 100 F.R.D. 740, 747 (D. Utah 1983) ("It is 'not usually a ground for objection that the information is equally available to the interrogator or is a matter of public record.'" (citation omitted)); United States v. 58.16 Acres of Land, 66 F.R.D. 570, 573 (E.D. Ill. 1975) ("Generally, an interrogatory is proper although the information sought is equally available to both parties."). Thus, plaintiff's motion to compel a response to Interrogatory no. 13 should be granted.

National Acad. of Recording Arts & Scis., Inc. v. On Point Events, LP, 256 F.R.D. 678, 682 (C.D. Cal. 2009).

Subpart objection. Plaintiff argued Ms. Maxwell’s interrogatories exceed the limit. This already is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 1.

Objection 7.

No privilege applies. Plaintiff objected that the information requested in the interrogatory is “protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege.” The assertion of privilege is frivolous. The interrogatory requested the false statements that Plaintiff attributes to Ms. Maxwell and that were published anywhere in the world. These statements are the very subject of this lawsuit. No such statement is subject to a privilege belonging to Plaintiff.

Plaintiff’s deficient answer. “Notwithstanding” her objections, Plaintiff answered by referring the defense to the documents she previously had produced “Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566.” As discussed above, it is improper to answer an interrogatory by referring to an undifferentiated mass of documents.

Plaintiff also “supplement[ed]” her answer with a “list of publications.” This answer is non-responsive. The interrogatory required Plaintiff, among other things, to provide each “exact false statement” that she attributes to Ms. Maxwell and that was published anywhere in the world. This entire case centers on Plaintiff’s claim that Ms. Maxwell published false statements about Plaintiff and now Plaintiff refuses to identify those statements. The question is not whether Ms. Maxwell knows what statements have been made in the press; the question is which statements does Plaintiff contend are false.

Interrogatory No. 7. State whether You believe that You have ever been defamed by anyone other than Ghislaine Maxwell. If so, as to each alleged act of Defamation, state

- a. the exact false statement;
- b. the date of its publication;
- c. the publishing entity and title of any publication containing the purportedly false statement;
- d. the URL or internet address for any internet version of such publication; and
- e. the nature of the publication, whether in print, internet, broadcast or some other form of media.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Without waiving the aforementioned objections, Alan Dershowitz published statements about Ms. Giuffre in January 2015 and thereafter that remain in the public realm. Ms. Giuffre does not have knowledge as to every time and place that she was defamed by Dershowitz, and she is not required to provide such an exhaustive list as all relevant instances of defamation are available through public sources, and identification of the numerous publically made statements would be unduly burdensome. Furthermore, upon information and belief, all defamatory statements made towards Ms. Giuffre by Dershowitz are within the knowledge and possession of Maxwell and her attorneys or can be easily obtained by contacting Dershowitz.

Subpart objection. This is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 1.

Privilege assertion. This is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 7. For the same reasons discussed there, this interrogatory does not request any privileged information. It is inconceivable that a statement about Plaintiff that allegedly is false and published would be protected from discovery by a privilege held by Plaintiff.

Plaintiff's deficient answer. "Notwithstanding" her objections, Plaintiff purported to answer the interrogatory. The answer is woefully deficient. She answered that she had been defamed by Alan Dershowitz, but she failed to provide any information about the allegedly defamatory statements made by Mr. Dershowitz. For example, she failed to disclose “[t]he exact false statement[s]” made by Mr. Dershowitz, the date of the publication, the publishing entity, and the other information required in the interrogatory.

As justification for her failure to answer the interrogatory fully, Plaintiff argued she “does not have knowledge as to every time and place that she was defamed by Dershowitz.” That argument is meritless. This interrogatory required Plaintiff to disclose her knowledge as to each of the interrogatory’s subparts. She improperly failed to disclose this information.

Plaintiff argued that “identification of the numerous publically [sic] made statements would be unduly burdensome.” She also argued that Mr. Dershowitz’s defamatory statements “are within the knowledge and possession of [Ms. Maxwell] and her attorneys or can be easily obtained by contacting [Mr. Dershowitz].” Neither was a responsive answer. To the extent they were offered as objections, they are meritless. See National Acad. of Recording Arts & Scis., 256 F.R.D. at 682 (cited in discussion of Objection 5).

Interrogatory No. 8. Identify the individuals referenced in Your pleadings filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2 v. United States of America, 08-cv-80736-KAM, as the “high-profile non-party individuals” to whom Mr. Jeffrey Epstein sexually trafficked You, “including numerous prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known Prime Minister, and other world leaders,” including as to each episode of alleged sexual trafficking:

- a. the date of any such sexual trafficking;
- b. the location of any such sexual trafficking;
- c. any witnesses to any such sexual trafficking;
- d. any Income You received in exchange for such sexual trafficking; and
- e. any Documents You have to support or corroborate Your claim of such sexual trafficking.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre refers to the list of witnesses identified in her Revised Rule 26 Disclosures. Also, notwithstanding previously-noted objections, Ms. Giuffre testified in Edwards v. Cassell, Broward County Case Number CACE 15-000072 on January 16, 2016, regarding the subject matter requested. See GIUFFRE005094- GIUFFRE007566. Ms. Giuffre additionally testified regarding the subject matter requested in this interrogatory on in the above-captioned case in her deposition on May 3, 2016. Additionally, Ms. Giuffre was trafficked to other individuals whose name she never learned or whose names she does not remember. Identification of any other individuals would be irrelevant and unduly burdensome. Moreover, as specifically provided in Rule 33.3(b), “[d]uring discovery, interrogatories other than those seeking information described in paragraph (a) [] may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition or (2) if ordered by the Court.” Because Ms. Giuffre has provided an answer to this interrogatory in her deposition, which was a more practical method of obtaining the information sought, this interrogatory is improper under the Local Rules as well as wholly duplicative.

Privilege assertion. This is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 6. It is inconceivable that any privilege applies to the identities of individuals to whom Plaintiff alleges she was sexually trafficked. This is a frivolous assertion of privilege.

Plaintiff’s deficient answer. Instead of identifying individuals as required by the interrogatory, Plaintiff instead “refer[red]” to her Rule 26 disclosures, her testimony in a Florida state case, and her earlier deposition in this case. This is non-responsive and evasive, in violation of Rule 37(a)(3). See, e.g., Public Storage v. Sprint Corp., No. CV 14-2594-GW PLAX, 2015 WL 1057923, at *17 (C.D. Cal. Mar. 9, 2015) (“Plaintiffs may not answer the interrogatory by generally referring Defendant to the pleadings filed in this case, documents produced, opt-in questionnaires, depositions, or declarations.... [A] responding party may not answer an interrogatory by directing the party propounding the interrogatory to find answers from previously produced documents or identified witness lists.”), appeal dismissed (Mar. 30, 2016); Smith v. Trawler Capt. Alfred, Inc., No. 2:12-CV-2866-DCN, 2014 WL 1912067, at *3 (D.S.C. May 13, 2014) (“Smith’s cursory references to the pleadings, his deposition, and his medical records are not responsive answers to defendants’ interrogatories.”); DirectTV, Inc. v. Puccinelli, 224 F.R.D. 677, 680 (D. Kan. 2004) (“defendant may not direct plaintiffs to find answers from previously produced documents or identified witness lists”) (internal quotations omitted).

Interrogatory No. 13. Identify any Health Care Provider from whom You received any treatment for any physical, mental or emotional condition, including addiction to alcohol, prescription or illegal drugs, that You suffered from prior to the Alleged Defamation by Ghislaine Maxwell, including:

- a. the Health Care Provider’s name, address, and telephone number;
- b. the type of consultation, examination, or treatment provided;
- c. the dates You received consultation, examination, or treatment;
- d. whether such treatment was on an in-patient or out-patient basis;
- e. the medical expenses to date;
- f. whether health insurance or some other person or organization or entity has paid for the medical expenses; and
- g. For each such Health Care Provider, please execute the medical and mental health records release attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory because it violates this Court’s Order. The Court has excluded the production of medical records from prior to 1999, stating, “the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation.” (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 20:23-24). This holding applies to pre-1999 medical records. As this interrogatory is not limited to the time period ordered by this Court, Ms. Giuffre objects.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it is overbroad and not limited in scope to the medical information relating to the abuse she suffered from Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein.

Ms. Giuffre objects because Rule 26 does not allow discovery that is so burdensome as to require a Herculean effort by an adult to track down every possible prescription ever written for Ms. Giuffre, or every physician who ever treated Ms. Giuffre, even as a small child. Such a request is not only impractical and unduly burdensome, but likely impossible. Accordingly, such an interrogatory is merely for the purpose of imposing a burden on Ms. Giuffre and her attorneys, not to mention the purposes of harassment.

Pursuant to the Rules, if requested documents are not yielded in a “reasonable inquiry,” Ms. Giuffre is not obligated to expend all of her time and resources on a quest to gather medical files from her birth to the present to find any prescriptions ever written for her for anything at all.<sup>[4]</sup> Ms. Giuffre is not certain as to her the sum of her medical expenses from 1999 to the present, and therefore is unable to answer that subpart. Ms. Giuffre is not aware of what health insurance carrier or other organization paid for her historical medical expenses unless it is identified on the records produced to the Defendant.

Finally, Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the doctor-patient privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre further objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre further objects to this request in that it is overbroad and seeks confidential medical information of a sex abuse victim and is not limited in scope to the issues in this case.

Without waiving such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, and supplements such documents as follows....<sup>[5]</sup>

Objection 8.

Pre-1999 medical records are discoverable. Plaintiff had requested damages allegedly suffered from being the “victim of sex trafficking” dating back to 1999. On April 21, 2016, the Court ruled that Plaintiff’s damages are limited to harm from the alleged defamation. Regarding Ms. Maxwell’s request for records pre-dating 1999, the Court said: “As for the pre-’99 medical records, based on where we are at the moment, I do not believe that those are relevant ... [b]ecause the damage issue relates ... solely to the defamation.” Tr. 20:21-24 (Apr. 21, 2016).

Plaintiff objected to this interrogatory on the ground it requested pre-1999 medical information in “violat[ion]” of the Court’s ruling. The objection should be overruled. The issue before the court in April concerned discovery of Plaintiff's medical records because those records bore on her claim she had suffered "sex trafficking" damages. Interrogatory No. 13 does not seek medical information for that purpose.

Plaintiff has alleged she has suffered more than $30 million in noneconomic damages from the alleged defamation; she intends to request an additional $50 million in punitive damages related at least in part on the alleged conduct that caused the noneconomic damages. The defense intends to show that Plaintiff for financial and other improper reasons manufactured her allegations of "sex trafficking" and created from whole cloth her alleged $30 million in noneconomic damages from "defamation." Some of the most relevant and material evidence concerns pre-1999 medical records and information, which contradict some of Plaintiff's sworn testimony about the alleged "sex trafficking." For example, Plaintiff has testified Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell subjected her to sex trafficking in 1998. Yet, in 1998 Plaintiff was an inpatient resident at a drug rehabilitation facility. As another example, Plaintiff has alleged that Ms. Maxwell's denial in 2015 of Plaintiff's allegations of sex trafficking caused her to ingest ever greater quantities of anti-anxiety and other prescription medications, for which Plaintiff is seeking noneconomic damages. Yet, Plaintiff's pre-1999 medical records will establish that Plaintiff was a longtime drug addict—addicted to prescription and other drugs.

Additionally, based on Plaintiff's claims of having suffered $30 million in mental pain and anguish, among other noneconomic damages, Ms. Maxwell is entitled to pre-1999 medical records to establish the mental and emotional baseline for Plaintiff and to determine her preexisting mental and emotional condition, since under no circumstances is Ms. Maxwell liable for Plaintiff's preexisting mental and emotional condition. See, e.g., Bauman v. 2810026 Canada Ltd., No. 15-CV-374A(F), 2016 WL 402645, at *1 (W.D.N.Y. Feb. 3, 2016); Pokigo v. Target

Corp., 2014 WL 6885905, at **2-3 (W.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2014) (plaintiff's preexisting mental and physical conditions relevant to plaintiff's damage claim); Bruno v. CSX Transp., Inc., 262 F.R.D. 131, 133-34 (W.D.N.Y. 2009) (granting discovery of plaintiff's medical records relating to plaintiff's substance abuse and mental health treatment where disclosure was likely to reveal evidence of alternative or intervening causes for the damages claimed by plaintiff).

Objection 9.

The interrogatory is not overbroad. The interrogatory required Plaintiff to identify healthcare providers who treated her for specified conditions, e.g., mental conditions and addiction, "prior to" any alleged defamation of her by Ms. Maxwell. Plaintiff's "overbreadth" objection argued that the interrogatory was not "limited in scope to the medical information relating to the abuse she suffered from Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein." The premise is wrong. Plaintiff, who is suing for more than $80 million in damages and who claims to have suffered more than $30 million in noneconomic damages, including "pain and suffering," cannot be heard to complain about an interrogatory requesting the identities of healthcare providers who treated her before the alleged defamation-related injuries. Plaintiff's pre-defamation physical and mental condition is the baseline for her claim for damages and is therefore highly relevant. See, e.g., This Mot., at 15-16 (citing cases).

The interrogatory is not unduly burdensome. We incorporate here the discussion above on Objection 3, and supplement as follows. Plaintiff implicitly concedes that her physical and mental condition before the alleged defamation is relevant to this lawsuit. Her complaint about burdensomeness suggests only that her "pre-defamation" physical and mental condition was so complex or required so much medical attention that it would be unduly burdensome for her to "track down" all her medical providers. The simple answer is twofold. One, relevant and discoverable information does not become immune from discovery or “unduly burdensome” because there is a lot of it. Two, when a plaintiff alleges, as here, that she has suffered more than $30 million in physical and mental injury from an allegedly defamatory denial of her claim of sex trafficking, the defense is entitled to know her physical and mental condition before and after the alleged defamation.

Relatedly, Plaintiff argued that if she has made a “reasonable inquiry,” she cannot be required to “expend all of her time and resources on a quest to gather medical files.” To begin with, the interrogatory does not require Plaintiff to “gather medical files.” Additionally, the interrogatory does not require Plaintiff to expend “all of her time and resources” to gather documents, and Plaintiff has not done so. Finally, although Plaintiff has provided the identity of some healthcare providers, it is far from clear she has made a “reasonable inquiry” required by the interrogatory.

No privilege applies. The assertion of the doctor-patient privilege is frivolous. The identities of Plaintiff’s healthcare providers are not subject to privilege. Regardless, Plaintiff has placed her physical and mental condition and the identities of those who treated her condition in issue by alleging $50 million worth of physical and mental injuries.

Subpart objection. This is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 1.

Plaintiff’s deficient answer. “Without waiving [her] objections,” Plaintiff answered she “has already produced her responsive documents” and referred the defense to 7,566 pages of undifferentiated documents. The answer is non-responsive. Interrogatory 13 is not a request for production of documents. Additionally, as discussed above at page 7 of this Motion, it is improper for a party to answer an interrogatory by reference to an undifferentiated mass of documents.

By way of example only, Plaintiff's mother, father, boyfriend, and ex-fiance all have testified that in 1998 and 1999, [REDACTED]

Further, Plaintiff has claimed as losses "medical expenses of 'not less than' $100,000," yet her interrogatory response states simply that she "is not certain as to her the sum of her medical expenses from 1999 to the present, and therefore is unable to answer that subpart. Ms. Giuffre is not aware of what health insurance carrier or other organization paid for her historical medical expenses." This is non-responsive. It is insufficient to claim that one is "not certain" of the answers as to medical expenses when she is seeking 'not less than' $100,000 in damages from that category.

Interrogatory No. 14. Identify any Person who You believe subjected You to, or with whom You engaged in, any illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault prior to June 1999, including the names of the individuals involved, the dates of any such illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault, whether Income was received by You or anyone else concerning such event, whether a police report was ever filed concerning such event and the outcome of any such case, as well as the address and location of any such event.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is overbroad and invades Ms. Giuffre right to privacy (including her constitutionally-protected right of privacy) by seeking confidential information relating to the sexual abuse of a minor sex abuse victim. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it seeks sexual assault information for a period prior to the sexual abuse at issue in this matter, and for a period when she was a minor child. The Court has excluded the production of medical records from prior to 1999, stating, "the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation." (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 20:23-24). This holding applies equally to pre-1999 sexual assault....

Additionally, it has become increasingly clear that Defendant's counsel is seeking these documents for the improper purpose of harassment ....

Ms. Giuffre also objects to this request because such events would have taken place in Florida, and information relating to those events is protected from disclosure by law. Florida statutes protect “[a]ny information in a videotaped statement of a minor who is alleged to be or who is a victim of sexual battery . . . which reveals that minor’s identity.” Fla. Stat. § 119.071. Additionally, Fla. Stat. 985.036 protects records where a juvenile is a victim of a crime. Further, Section 794.026, Fla. Stat., creates a civil right of action against an individual who communicates to others, identifying information concerning the victim of a sexual offense. Additionally, Second, Fla. Stat. § 985.04 and Fla. Stat. § 985.054 make juvenile law enforcement records confidential from members of the public, and states that information obtained by a law enforcement agent participating in the assessment of a juvenile is confidential. Finally, certain of the police reports implicate Ms. Giuffre’s involvement with the Florida Department of Children and Families, see e.g., GM_00750, and if such reports are part of the State’s Department of Children and Families’ records, they are confidential pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 39.202(6). Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre objects to this request ....

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to this request in that it is sought solely to harass, and intimidate Ms. Giuffre who is a victim of sexual abuse by the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre objects on the basis that Defendant is not entitled to a full-scale production of everything that has happened throughout the entire course of her life time [sic], particularly the time sought in this request which predates Defendant’s meeting and abuse of Ms. Giuffre....

Furthermore, discovery concerning Ms. Giuffre’s prior sexual assault is not relevant to the claim at issue in this case, the defenses at issue, or the damages claimed, and therefore well outside the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26.... Giving testimony on such irrelevant, but painful, topics would be extraordinarily embarrassing, oppressive, and traumatic for Ms. Giuffre, and it is wholly irrelevant to any party’s claim or defense. Accordingly, such discovery is not sought in good faith.

This request is particularly improper as it cannot conceivably lead to admissible evidence....

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as it, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Additionally, to the extent that it is available to Ms. Giuffre, all of this information is already in the possession of Maxwell as she obtained and produced police reports regarding Ms. Giuffre, which Ms. Giuffre did not have in her possession. Ms. Giuffre was also questioned for seven hours in her May 3, 2016, deposition by Defendant’s attorney....

Objection 10.

Plaintiff has no valid “privacy” objection. This interrogatory requested the identity of individuals who Plaintiff believes “subjected [her] to, or with whom [she] engaged in, any illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault prior to June 1999,” and basic information relating to such improper actions, e.g., date, whether a police report was filed. None of this illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault is within the right to privacy. To the extent any right of privacy is applicable, the Court’s Protective Order affords Plaintiff all the privacy to which she is entitled.

Objection 11.

There is no “harassment.” Federal Rule of Evidence 412, commonly referred to as the rape-shield law, does not apply in a defamation action such as this where the evidence would be offered to show that the alleged defamatory statements are true or did not damage plaintiff’s reputation. See Advisory Committee Notes, 1994 Amendments, Federal Rule of Evidence 412 (“in a defamation action involving statements concerning sexual misconduct in which the evidence is offered to show that the alleged defamatory statements were true or did not damage the plaintiff’s reputation, neither Rule 404 nor this rule will operate to bar the evidence”). Certainly, if evidence of prior alleged sexual assaults (whether unfounded or not) are admissible in this action, ipso facto they are discoverable under the standards of Rule 26 previously articulated.

Plaintiff has alleged Ms. Maxwell’s denial of Plaintiff’s allegations of sex trafficking caused her to suffer in excess of $30 million in compensatory damages. There is an abundance of evidence suggesting that well before she met Ms. Maxwell, Plaintiff had engaged in illegal sex activities or falsely claimed she was the victim of illegal sex activities. Information relating to this subject is hardly harassing. To the contrary, it constitutes evidence relevant to the defense of this action.

Objection 12.

No law bars a responsive answer to this interrogatory. Plaintiff argued that Florida laws bar the interrogatory and relieve her of the obligation to provide a responsive answer. This is a frivolous argument. The Florida laws prohibit Florida agencies from disclosing certain information about sexual assault victims. Plaintiff is not a state agency. None of the laws is relevant to this action, where a defamation plaintiff claiming to be the victim of sexual trafficking sues a defendant for reputational injury and is required in discovery to provide information about illegal sex activities.

Subpart objection. This is addressed above in the discussion of Objection 1.

No privilege applies. The discussion above relating to Objection 6 applies here. None of Plaintiff's illegal sex activities, whether she was a willing participant or a victim, is cloaked with any privilege.

Plaintiff's deficient answer. Plaintiff suggested she is not required to answer because the requested information "is already in the possession of [Ms. Maxwell]." As discussed on page 8 of this Motion, a party may not resist a discovery request by asserting that the party seeking discovery "already is in possession" of the requested information.

II. Plaintiff's answers to the requests for admission are deficient.

Plaintiff's responses to the following requests for admissions are deficient:

---

RFA No. 1. Admit that you were not 15 years old when you first met Ghislaine Maxwell.

Response:

Denied in part. At the time Ms. Giuffre made the statement, many years after the events occurred, she firmly believed she was 15 years old when she was recruited away from her job at Mar-a-Lago by Ghislaine Maxwell. She later obtained some records from Mar-a-Lago which indicated that she was employed there during the year 2000. From January, 2000 through August 9, 2000, she was 16 years old; from August 9, 2000 through December 2000 she was 17 years old. While she now knows, based on this discovery, that she was not 15 years old, she now has conclusive proof that she was an underage minor when Ghislaine Maxwell approached her, recruited her, introduced her to Jeffrey Epstein, and sexually trafficked her as an underage minor.

RFA No. 2. Admit that you were not 15 years old when you first met Jeffrey Epstein.

Response:

Denied in part. At the time Ms. Giuffre made the statement, many years after the events occurred, she firmly believed she was 15 years old when she was recruited away from her job at Mar-a-Lago by Ghislaine Maxwell. She later obtained some records from Mar-a-Lago which indicated that she was employed there during the year 2000. From January, 2000 through August 9, 2000, she was 16 years old; from August 9, 2000 through December 2000 she was 17 years old. While she now knows, based on this discovery, that she was not 15 years old, she now has conclusive proof that she was an underage minor when Ghislaine Maxwell approached her, recruited her, introduced her to Jeffrey Epstein, and sexually trafficked her as an underage minor.

RFA No. 3. Admit that you were not 15 years old at the time you claim you were sexually trafficked by Jeffrey Epstein.

RFA No. 13. Admit that You never observed Al Gore on the island of Little St. James.

Response:

Denied in part. Her memory from 15 or more years ago is that it was on the island where she met Mr. Gore, although she has testified that she could have been incorrect on that location. While traveling with Epstein and Maxwell, she met so many people and was taken to so many places as a minor that perfect recall of exact locations is difficult, but based on her best recollection, denied.

In Request for Admissions Nos. 1-8 and 13, Plaintiff answered “[d]enied in part” and then provided a narrative that implicitly admitted the request for admission while explaining why she believed otherwise at an earlier time. None of these responses is proper. Rule 36(a)(4) provides in relevant part:

If a matter is not admitted, the answer must specifically deny it or state in detail why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it. A denial must fairly respond to the substance of the matter; and when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer or deny only a part of a matter, the answer must specify the part admitted and qualify or deny the rest.

(emphasis supplied). Plaintiff denied only “a part of a matter” and therefore was required to “specify the part admitted.” In Request for Admissions Nos. 1-8 and 13, Plaintiff failed to specify any part that was admitted. Her answers violate Rule 36.

---

Request for Admission No. 12. Admit that You never had a conversation with Bill Clinton regarding him flying with Ghislaine Maxwell in a helicopter.

Response:

Objection. Defendant Maxwell has clearly incorrectly interposed and comingled the facts which comprise the foundation of this request for admission. Ms. Giuffre has never alleged that she “had a conversation with Bill Clinton regarding him flying with Ghislaine Maxwell in a helicopter.” Instead, Ms. Giuffre has alleged, “I flew to the Caribbean with Jeffrey and then Ghislaine Maxwell went to pick up Bill [Clinton] in a huge black helicopter that Jeffrey had bought her.” Sara Nathan, Bill Clinton Pictured with Jeffrey Epstein’s Social Fixer, Daily Mail, (12 January 2015).

As a threshold matter, a court must determine whether the statements set forth in a request for admissions satisfy the formal requirements of Rule 36 ....

Consequently, Ms. Giuffre objects to answering this request for admission as it is based on “half-truths,” which make it impossible to answer without a qualified response.

---

Plaintiff objected to this request for admission and provided no answer. That is improper. The request required Plaintiff to admit whether she had a conversation with President Clinton regarding him flying in a helicopter with Ms. Maxwell. Either she is able to admit this request in full or in part, or she is able to deny the request in full or in part, as Rule 36 requires. She may not object and refuse to admit or deny.

III. Plaintiff’s responses to requests for production are deficient.

---

RFP No. 1. All Communications and Documents identified in Interrogatories 5-14, above.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is wildly overly broad and unduly burdensome, and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, as described more fully above in response to the interrogatories. For example, Interrogatory Number 5, would cover documents spanning over 100 years collectively from attorneys, and compliance with this production request would be literally impossible due to the untethered scope of the request. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it seeks to invade the privacy rights of a sex abuse victims, and is meant for the improper purpose of harassing and intimidating this victim.

No privilege applies. As discussed above in connection with Plaintiff's assertion of privilege in her interrogatory responses, see, e.g., This Motion, at 9, no privilege applies to the information requested in Interrogatory Nos. 5-14. Nor does any privilege apply to the communications and documents identified in those interrogatories.

The RFP is not overbroad. Plaintiff's overbreadth objection appears to be the same as its overbreadth objection interposed in response to the interrogatories. For the reasons discussed in response to Plaintiff's Objection 9, see This Motion, at 16, the objection is meritless.

The RFP is not unduly burdensome. Plaintiff's burdensomeness objection is premised on an unreasonable reading of the interrogatories. That objection is meritless. See This Motion, at 5.

The RFP does not implicate Plaintiff's right to privacy. As discussed above, see This Motion, at 20, Plaintiff has no right to privacy to the information requested in the interrogatories or to the related communications and documents.

---

RFP No. 4. All Documents relating to any Communications between or among You or Your attorneys or any agent for You or Your attorneys, and any of the following individuals or with their attorneys, agents or representatives:

- a. Any witness disclosed in Plaintiff's Rule 26(a) disclosures;
- b. Any witness disclosed in Defendant's Rule 26(a) disclosures;
- c. Any witness identified by You in response to Interrogatory No. 8 and No. 14.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objection to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome in that it is not limited in time, and it seeks documents relating to hundreds of individuals. Ms. Giuffre objects because compliance with this request is unduly burdensome. For example, this request seeks documents relating to over 100 individuals, and has no date or time limitations or subject matter limitations whatsoever. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that documents responsive to this request are within the possession, custody and control of the defendant and Jeffrey Epstein with whom she claims a joint defense privilege and defendant has refused to produce responsive documents to Ms. Giuffre's request seeking communications between the Defendant and Ms. Giuffre and between Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Giuffre. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Specifically, counsel's communications with witnesses are protected under the work product doctrine. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is sought solely to harass and intimidate Ms. Giuffre, and invade her privacy, by seeking her private communications with her various family members, including aunts, uncles and parents and siblings. Ms. Giuffre further objects as this request calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Ms. Giuffre is withholding production of documents that are privileged pursuant to the attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, and the public interest privilege. Ms. Giuffre is also withholding electronic renditions of photographs that depict the faces of her minor children, including school portraits and other photographs taken that reveal the faces of her minor children.

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to the extent that this request seeks the communications of her attorneys, as such request is overly broad and unduly burdensome. This is especially true given that certain attorneys for Ms. Giuffre additionally represent other individuals listed on the Rule 26 Disclosures in separate legal matters, and revelation of such communications would violate privileges that do not belong to Ms. Giuffre, but rather belong to other victims of sexual abuse who have not waived such privileges. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre is withholding these documents from production based on her objections.

Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, which includes her communications with many of the individuals set forth in this request. However, producing documents with the additional, newly-added individuals would be overly burdensome, as there is no limitation as to time period, scope or subject-matter.

The objections are meritless. As to burdensomeness, the relevance of the requested communications is obvious, as the witnesses all have information relevant to the factual issues in this case. Plaintiff argued that the request encompasses “over 100” witnesses; notably, however, Plaintiff did not claim she and her attorneys have communicated with even 20, let alone 100, witnesses, nor has she disclosed the volume of documents actually implicated by this request; so Plaintiff has failed even to make a prima facie case of burdensomeness. As to “privacy,” no such right to privacy is implicated in this request; even if it were, the Court’s Protective Order more than adequately protects that right. As to assertions of privilege or immunity over any responsive document, to the extent any privilege or immunity applies, Plaintiff must comply with her duties under Local Rule 26.2 and Federal Rule 26(b)(5).

The “objection” that Plaintiff has no duty to produce because the defense “already has” the requested documents is meritless. See This Motion, at 8 (citing cases).

That Plaintiff’s attorneys represent or have represented other clients and have had non-privileged, non-immunized communications with the witnesses described in the request is not a relevant fact for purposes of discovery in this case. So long as the Plaintiff and her attorneys have responsive documents, those documents must be produced.

Plaintiff’s deficient response. Notwithstanding her objections, Plaintiff responded that she previously produced 7,566 documents, some of which, she said, include requested documents. That is a deficient response. In violation of Rule 34(b)(2)C), Plaintiff has failed to state whether she is withholding documents. Additionally, Plaintiff may not answer a Rule 34 request by referring the defense to a mass of undifferentiated documents. DirecTV, 224 F.R.D. at 682 (holding that Rule 34 response referring opponent to previous production was “improper”: “Plaintiff was required to identify the particular documents or to organize and label them to correspond to these specific requests. There is nothing in the record indicating that Plaintiff did so. Thus, Plaintiff’s partial responses to these requests did not comply with Rule 34(b).”).

RFP No. 9. All Documents concerning any Communications between You or Your attorneys and any witness in the case captioned Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States, Case No. 08-ev-80736-KAM, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida (“CVRA” case).

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

With regard to communications by Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials, because Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys represent not only Ms. Giuffre (Jane Doe 3) in the CVRA matter, but also Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, and Jane Doe 4. Any communications between the four Jane Does, via Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, would be plainly be subject to attorney client protection, not to mention work product protection as well.

With regard to contact with “witnesses,” the request is vague, unduly burdensome, and overbroad. The CVRA case centers on issues surrounding whether the U.S. Government failed to confer and otherwise protect the rights of victims (including Janes Does 1, 2, 3, and 4) during plea negotiations with Jeffrey Epstein. Accordingly, some of the main “witnesses” in the case are the Government prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations. Several of the same prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations are also involved in defending the CVRA case. The CVRA has been in litigation for nearly eight years, and there have extensive communications with the prosecutors (including communications concerning approximately 10,000 pages of documents that were requested by victims’ counsel and provided to Judge Marra for in camera review). The request appears designed to target all of these communications, and such communications, going back eight years, would necessitate a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications with the Government prosecutors. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Whatever communications Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys would have had with government prosecutors about CVRA notifications concerning a prosecution of Epstein would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defames Ms. Giuffre in attacking her as, for example, a liar.

Moreover, many materials related to this case remain under Judge Marra’s protective order. Accordingly, before Ms. Giuffre’s counsel could even have the option to release certain materials that the Government has provided to him as an attorney in the case, defendant Maxwell would have to approach Judge Marra and seek a modification of the protective order.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what “witnesses” Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz connected with procedural and other aspects of this case. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because the case has spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult and overly burdensome. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys with collecting such communications when she can collect them in other ways.

RFP No. 10. All Documents concerning any Communications between you or your attorneys and any witness or potential witness in Edwards and Cassell v Dershowitz (“Dershowitz” case).

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. It is not clear what the phrase “concerning” is designed to cover. As a third-party witness in that action, Ms. Giuffre had numerous communications with, for example, her attorneys in relation to that matter, and therefore, these communications are subject to the attorney client privilege and protected by the work product doctrine. It is unclear what documents “concerning” communications with “witnesses” refers to, and it could expansively cover a vast number of documents, emails, and other communications that have taken place over the course of this litigation.

With regard to communications by Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials (or materials covered by the work product doctrine).

With regard to “witnesses” or “potential witnesses,” the request is vague, unduly burdensome, and overbroad. The Dershowitz case centers on issues surrounding whether the Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers (Edwards and Cassell) had conducted a sufficient investigation before filing a motion to join Jane Doe 3 (and Jane Doe 4) into the CVRA case. That investigation involves not only attorney-client materials, but also work product protections for Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2. This request, then, covers communications going back eight years, and it would involve a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications relevant to the potential “witnesses” who might have been able to shed light on the claims in the CVRA case and, in turn, whether sex abuse had been committed by Alan Dershowitz. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Such a burden is not countenanced by Rule 26 or the prevailing case law. Whatever communications Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys may have had as part of their (work product protected) investigation would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defames Ms. Giuffre in attacking her as, for example, a liar.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what “witnesses” Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because their investigations have spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys with collecting such communications when she can collect them in other ways. Indeed, in light of the fact that Maxwell and Dershowitz have a close working relationship, it is unduly burdensome that Maxwell seeks these items not from her ally but from attorneys for her legal adversary.

RFP Nos. 9 and 10 request documents concerning communications between Plaintiff or her attorneys and various witnesses. Because the responses are substantially identical, we combine here the discussion of both RFPs and Plaintiff’s respective responses.

As to alleged burdensomeness and overbreadth, we refer the Court to the discussion above of the same objections interposed in response to RFP No. 4. As to relevance, such communications with witnesses certainly bear on Plaintiff’s claim and Ms. Maxwell’s defense, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). As to assertions of privilege or immunity over any responsive document, to the extent any privilege or immunity applies, Plaintiff must comply with her duties under Local Rule 26.2 and Federal Rule 26(b)(5).

RFP No. 11. Any statement obtained by You or Your attorneys from any witness or potential witness in the CVRA case.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre objects because the term “statement” is vague and ambiguous, unduly burdensome and overbroad. With regard to communications to Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials, because Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys represent not only Ms. Giuffre (Jane Doe 3) in the matter, but also Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, and Jane Doe 4.

RFP No. 12. Any statement obtained by You or Your attorneys from any witness or potential witness in the Dershowitz case.

Response:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. ---

RFP Nos. 11 and 12 request statements Plaintiff has obtained from witnesses in related cases. Because the responses are substantially identical, we combine here the discussion of both RFPs and Plaintiff's respective responses.

As to alleged burdensomeness and overbreadth, we refer the Court to the discussion above of the same objections interposed in response to RFP No. 4. As to relevance, the written statements of the witnesses certainly bear on Plaintiff's claim and Ms. Maxwell's defense, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). As to Plaintiff's blanket assertions of privilege or immunity over witness statements, to the extent any privilege or immunity applies, Plaintiff must comply with her duties under Local Rule 26.2 and Federal Rule 26(b)(5). While some witness statement might qualify for work product protection, it is clear that some do not, e.g., witness statements that do not reveal an attorney's mental impressions. See, e.g., Tuttle v. Tyco Elecs. Installation Servs., Inc., No. 2:06-CV-581, 2007 WL 4561530, at *2 (S.D. Ohio Dec. 21, 2007) ("Affidavits are normally not protected by the work product doctrine for the very reason that an affidavit purports to be a statement of facts within the personal knowledge of the witness, and not an expression of the opinion of counsel. Further, Defendants should not be frustrated in their ability to test the perception and credibility of these affiants.") (internal quotations omitted).

Plaintiff has failed to sign her interrogatory responses.

Rule 33(b)(5) requires that a party answering interrogatories sign her answers. Plaintiff has failed to do so, despite a request from defense counsel. This violation of Rule 33(b)(5) subjects Plaintiff to sanctions. See, e.g., Walls v. Paulson, 250 F.R.D. 48 (D.D.C. 2008)

Ms. Maxwell is entitled to attorney fees incurred in making this Motion.

Under Rule 37(a)(5), if a party is required to file a motion to compel discovery responses and the motion is granted or disclosure or discovery is provided after filing, “the court must, after giving an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion, the party or attorney advising that conduct, or both to pay the movant’s reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney’s fees.” By signing the objections, Plaintiff’s counsel certified the responses and objections were: (i) consistent with these rules and warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law, or for establishing new law; (ii) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g)(1). The sanction for improper certifications of objections requires “the court, on motion or on its own, must impose an appropriate sanction on the signer, the party on whose behalf the signer was acting, or both. The sanction may include an order to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney’s fees, caused by the violation.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g)(3).

Sanctions are appropriate here. Plaintiff’s counsel have interposed improper, sometimes frivolous, objections, and Plaintiff without any substantial justification has simply refused to answer discovery requests.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court should compel Plaintiff to:

1. Overrule Plaintiff’s objections to discovery requests;
2. Provide complete responses Interrogatories 5-8, 13-14, and state what information, if any, information is being withheld on the basis of objection;
3. Provide answers to requests for admissions that comply with Rule 36;
4. Specifically state for each objection made to the requests for production what, if any, documents are being withheld and the specific objection under which it is being withheld;

5. Undertake a reasonable and diligent inquiry for all documents requested in RFP Nos. 1, 4, 9-12 that are in her possession, custody or control, and produce them.

EXHIBIT B

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION AND DEFENDANT'S INTERROGATORIES, PLAINTIFF'S ANSWERS TO DEFENDANT'S REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 33, 34, Plaintiff hereby serves her responses and objections to Defendant's Second Set of Discovery Requests and serves her Answers to Defendant's Requests for Admission.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Defendant's Discovery Requests violate Rule 33, Fed. R. Civ. P., which provides "a party may serve on any other party no more than 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts" – in that Defendant has served a total of 59 interrogatories in this case, including subparts, in violation of Rule 33.

Ms. Giuffre objects to Defendant's Second Set of Discovery Requests to the extent they seek information that is protected by any applicable privilege, including but not limited to, attorney client privilege, work product privilege, joint defense privilege, public interest privilege, and any other applicable privilege.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent Defendant's Second Set of Discovery Requests call for the production of documents or information that is already in the possession, custody, or control of the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre further objects to the requests to the extent that Defendant's Second Set of Discovery Requests are duplicative of documents and information that can equally or more readily be obtained by the Defendant.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they seek documents that are not relevant, material, or necessary to this action and, thus, are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Ms. Giuffre further objects because Defendant's Second Set of Requests for Production seeks documents that are in no way limited to their relation to this case. Indeed, they seek documents that are not important to resolving the issues; documents that are not relevant to any party's claim or defense; and documents that are not proportional to the needs of the case. Such requests would create a heavy burden on Ms. Giuffre that outweighs any benefit. Such discovery is prohibited by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly under the 2015 amendments to Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P., and is wholly inappropriate.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they are overly broad and unduly burdensome, as individually logging all privileged responsive documents would be overly burdensome. Plaintiff contends that requests targeting such privileged information are overly broad under Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous and ever-increasing privileged communications between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel after the date litigation commenced on September 21, 2015. Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous privileged documents between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel related to Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States,

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Case no. 08-80736 CIV-Marra, pending in the Southern District of Florida; Bradley Edwards and Paul Cassell v. Alan Dershowitz, Case no. CACE 15-000072, from the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County, Florida; and Jane Doe No. 102 v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 09-80656-CIV-Marra/Johnson (Southern District of Florida). Accordingly, due to the undue burden of individually logging responsive privileged documents related to Defendant's overly broad requests, Plaintiff has employed categorical logging of such privileged responsive documents pursuant to Local Civil Rule 26.2(c).

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests in that they seek to invade her privacy for the sole purpose of harassing and intimidating Ms. Giuffre who was a minor victim of sexual trafficking.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent they are overly broad and unduly burdensome.

Ms. Giuffre's responses to Defendant's Second Set of Discovery Requests as being made after reasonable inquiry into the relevant facts, and are based only upon the information and documentation that is presently known to her. Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to modify and/or supplement her responses. Ms. Giuffre has produced documents and information in response to these Requests.

Ms. Giuffre incorporates her above-listed general objections in the responses herein.

INTERROGATORIES

5. Identify each Communication that You or Your Attorneys have had with any author, reporter, correspondent, columnist, writer, commentator, investigative journalist, photojournalist, newspaper person, freelance reporter, stringer, or any other employee of any media organization or independent consultant to the same, including:

- a. the date of any such Communication;

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

- b. the form of any such Communication, whether oral or written and if written, the format of any such Communication;
- c. the identities of all persons involved in such Communication, including, the identity of the media organization with whom the agent is or was affiliated;
- d. the article title, date of publication, and means of publication of any article, report, or re-printing of any such Communication made by You or Your Attorneys;
- e. the amount of Income that You and/or Your Attorneys received in exchange for any such Communication;
- f. the dates on which You and/or Your Attorneys received any such Income for any such Communication.

Response to Interrogatory No. 5:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product protections, and any other applicable privilege or protection as stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it is not limited in time, manner, or subject matter. The request is grossly over broad in that it does not require the communication to have any connection with Ms. Giuffre or this case whatsoever. Indeed, a response to this interrogatory would require each of Ms. Giuffre's attorneys to research and find any communication they have ever had with a journalist, for every year of their practice, regardless of what case was involved, and regardless of what year the communication was made. Ms. Giuffre's attorney's, collectively, have worked on hundreds (if not thousands) of matters, and collectively have well over 100 years of combined practice experience. Accordingly, a request that each of these attorneys list all communications with the media is facially overbroad.

Additionally, Ms. Giuffre objects to this Interrogatory because a response would cause Ms. Giuffre the incredible and undue burden of having to catalogue literally hundreds of communications that she has already produced in this case.

Moreover, Ms. Giuffre objects because this interrogatory calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Communications with the media regarding cases that bear no relation to the subject matter of this case, from decades in the past, are facially invalid and not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to the extent that this interrogatory seeks the communications of her attorneys, any author, reporter, correspondent, columnist, writer, commentator, investigative journalist, photojournalist, newspaper person, freelance reporter, stringer, or any other employee of any media organization or independent consultant as such interrogatory is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Furthermore, Ms. Giuffre is not obligated to produce anything currently in the possession of Defendant Maxwell or her attorneys.

Notwithstanding such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive communications, which are found in documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566.

6. Identify any "false statements" attributed to Ghislaine Maxwell which were "published globally, including within the Southern District of New York" as You contend in paragraph 9 of Count I of Your Complaint, including:

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

- a. the exact false statement;
- b. the date of its publication;
- c. the publishing entity and title of any publication containing the purportedly false statement;
- d. the URL or internet address for any internet version of such publication; and the nature of the publication, whether in print, internet, broadcast or some other form of media.

Response to Interrogatory No. 6:

Ms. Giuffre objects because the information interrogatory above is in the possession of Defendant who has failed to comply with her production obligations in this matter, and has failed to comply with her production obligations with this very subject matter. See Document Request No. 17 from Ms. Giuffre's Second Request for Production of Documents to Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell.<sup>1</sup> Maxwell has not produced all "URL or Internet addresses for any internet version of such publication" that she directed her agent, Ross Gow, to send.

<sup>1</sup> Request No. 17 stated: Produce all documents concerning any statement made by You or on Your behalf to the press or any other group or individual, including draft statements, concerning Ms. Giuffre, by You, Ross Gow, or any other individual, from 2005 to the present, including the dates of any publications, and if published online, the Uniform Resource Identifier (URL) address. In response, Defendant stated: "Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request on the grounds that it is cumulative and duplicative. Ms. Maxwell also objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information that exists within the public domain, the internet or in public court records and which are equally available to both parties and can be obtained from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, and less expensive. Ms. Maxwell further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents or information protected by the attorney/client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. Ms. Maxwell is not producing documents that are available in the public domain. Ms. Maxwell has been unable to locate any additional documents responsive to this Request."

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Ms. Giuffre further objects because the information requested above is in the possession of Defendant's agent, who caused the false statements to be issued to various media outlets. Ms. Giuffre has not had the opportunity to depose Maxwell's agent Ross Gow; therefore, this answer remains incomplete. Consequently, Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to modify and/or supplement her responses, as information is largely in the possession of the Defendant and her agent.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request because it is in the public domain. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Notwithstanding such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents responsive to this request; Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, and supplements such responsive documents with the following list of publications. While the identification of an exhaustive responsive list would be unduly burdensome, in an effort to make a good faith effort towards compliance, Ms. Giuffre provides the following examples, which are incomplete based on the aforementioned reasons:

| Date            | Nature   | Publishing Entity | Statement/URL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

Response to Interrogatory No. 7:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Without waiving the aforementioned objections, Alan Dershowitz published statements about Ms. Giuffre in January 2015 and thereafter that remain in the public realm. Ms. Giuffre does not have knowledge as to every time and place that she was defamed by Dershowitz, and she is not required to provide such an exhaustive list as all relevant instances of defamation are available through public sources, and identification of the numerous publically made statements would be unduly burdensome. Furthermore, upon information and belief, all defamatory statements made towards Ms. Giuffre by Dershowitz are within the knowledge and possession of Maxwell and her attorneys or can be easily obtained by contacting Dershowitz.

8. Identify the individuals referenced in Your pleadings filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Jane Doe I and Jane Doe 2 v. United States of America, 08-cv-80736-KAM, as the “high-profile non-party individuals” to whom Mr. Jeffrey Epstein sexually trafficked You, “including numerous prominent American politicians, powerful business executives, foreign presidents, a well-known Prime Minister, and other world leaders,” including as to each episode of alleged sexual trafficking:

- a. the date of any such sexual trafficking;
- b. the location of any such sexual trafficking;
- c. any witnesses to any such sexual trafficking;
- d. any Income You received in exchange for such sexual trafficking; and
- e. any Documents You have to support or corroborate Your claim of such sexual trafficking.

Response to Interrogatory No. 8:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre refers to the list of witnesses identified in her Revised Rule 26 Disclosures. Also, notwithstanding previously-noted objections, Ms. Giuffre testified in Edwards v. Cassell, Broward County Case Number CACE 15-000072 on January 16, 2016, regarding the subject matter requested. See GIUFFRE005094- GIUFFRE007566. Ms. Giuffre additionally testified regarding the subject matter requested in this interrogatory on in the above-captioned case in her deposition on May 3, 2016. Additionally, Ms. Giuffre was trafficked to other individuals whose name she never learned or whose names she does not remember. Identification of any other individuals would be irrelevant and unduly burdensome. Moreover, as specifically provided in Rule 33.3(b), “[d]uring discovery, interrogatories other than those seeking information described in paragraph (a) [] may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition or (2) if ordered by the Court.” Because Ms. Giuffre has provided an answer to this interrogatory in her deposition, which was a more practical method of obtaining the information sought, this interrogatory is improper under the Local Rules as well as wholly duplicative.

11. Identify any facts upon which You base Your contention that You have suffered as a result of the Alleged Defamation by Ghislaine Maxwell “past and future lost wages and past and future loss of earning capacity and actual earnings – precise amounts yet to be computed, but not less than $5,000,000.”

Response to Interrogatory No. 11:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as it, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre also objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre incorporates by reference herein her Revised Rule 26 disclosures. Notably, Ms. Giuffre's Rule 26 disclosures have been revised to reflect that she is not seeking a specific monetary damage in the form of a specific lost wage claim.

13. Identify any Health Care Provider from whom You received any treatment for any physical, mental or emotional condition, including addiction to alcohol, prescription or illegal drugs, that You suffered from prior to the Alleged Defamation by Ghislaine Maxwell, including:

- a. the Health Care Provider's name, address, and telephone number;

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

- b. the type of consultation, examination, or treatment provided;
- c. the dates You received consultation, examination, or treatment;
- d. whether such treatment was on an in-patient or out-patient basis;
- e. the medical expenses to date;
- g. whether health insurance or some other person or organization or entity has paid for the medical expenses; and
- h. For each such Health Care Provider, please execute the medical and mental health records release attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Response to Interrogatory No. 13:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory because it violates this Court's Order. The Court has excluded the production of medical records from prior to 1999, stating, "the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation." (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 20:23-24). This holding applies to pre-1999 medical records. As this interrogatory is not limited to the time period ordered by this Court, Ms. Giuffre objects.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it is overbroad and not limited in scope to the medical information relating to the abuse she suffered from Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein.

Ms. Giuffre objects because Rule 26 does not allow discovery that is so burdensome as to require a Herculean effort by an adult to track down every possible prescription ever written for Ms. Giuffre, or every physician who ever treated Ms. Giuffre, even as a small child. Such a request is not only impractical and unduly burdensome, but likely impossible. Accordingly, such an interrogatory is merely for the purpose of imposing a burden on Ms. Giuffre and her attorneys, not to mention the purposes of harassment.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Pursuant to the Rules, if requested documents are not yielded in a “reasonable inquiry,” Ms. Giuffre is not obligated to expend all of her time and resources on a quest to gather medical files from her birth to the present to find any prescriptions ever written for her for anything at all. See, e.g., Manassis v. New York City Dep't of Transp., No. 02 CIV. 359SASDF, 2002 WL 31115032, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 24, 2002) (concluding that “ability to pursue discovery regarding [plaintiff's] medical records should be limited in some manner”); Evanko v. Electronic Systems Assoc., Inc., No. 91 Civ. 2851, 1993 WL 14458 at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 8, 1993) (applying the New York state physician-patient privilege, and holding that where plaintiff claimed that she suffered emotional distress, defendants did not have “a license to rummage through all aspects of the plaintiff's life in search of a possible source of stress or distress,” including plaintiff's medical records); Wachtman v. Trocaire College, 532 N.Y.S.2d 943, 944 (N.Y. App. Div. 1988) (holding that the scope of a waiver of the physician-patient privilege in personal injury cases is “limited and does not permit discovery of information involving unrelated illnesses and treatment”); Sgambellone v. Wheatley, 165 Misc.2d 954, 958, 630 N.Y.S.2d 835, 838 (N.Y. Sup.Ct. 1995) (holding that in a personal injury action, plaintiff's waiver of the physician-patient privilege “is not a wholesale waiver of all information about the plaintiff's entire physical and mental conditions but a waiver only of the physical and/or mental condition that is affirmatively placed in controversy”) (emphasis in original).

Finally, Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the doctor-patient privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre further objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as its subparts, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre further objects to this request in that it is overbroad and seeks confidential medical information of a sex abuse victim and is not limited in scope to the issues in this case.

Without waiving such objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced her responsive documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, and supplements such documents as follows:

The records in the chart above bear the date of treatment, the type of treatment, and indicate whether the treatment was inpatient or outpatient. Ms. Giuffre is not certain as to her the sum of her medical expenses from 1999 to the present, and therefore is unable to answer that subpart. Ms. Giuffre is not aware of what health insurance carrier or other organization paid for her historical medical expenses unless it is identified on the records produced to the Defendant. Subpart (h) is an inappropriate interrogatory; however, for each provider listed above, Ms. Giuffre already submitted medical releases for all records related to Ms. Giuffre.

14. Identify any Person who You believe subjected You to, or with whom You engaged in, any illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault prior to June 1999, including the names of the individuals involved, the dates of any such illegal or inappropriate sexual contact, conduct or assault, whether Income was received by You or anyone else concerning such event, whether a police report was ever filed concerning such event and the outcome of any such case, as well as the address and location of any such event.

Response to Interrogatory No. 14:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is overbroad and invades Ms. Giuffre right to privacy (including her constitutionally-protected right of privacy) by seeking confidential information relating to the sexual abuse of a minor sex abuse victim. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it seeks sexual assault information for a period prior to the sexual abuse at issue in this matter, and for a period when she was a minor child. The Court has excluded the production of medical records from prior to 1999, stating, “the damage issue relates, in my view, solely to the defamation.” (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 20:23-24). This holding applies equally to pre-1999 sexual assault for two reasons. First, sexual assault is not only a crime, but a physical injury, and an injury for which medical treatment is needed and for which a forensic medical exam is often performed. Accordingly, any documentation of sexual assault is necessarily akin to a medical record, and therefore precluded under the Court's April 21, 2016 Order. Furthermore, this Court's holding likely expands specifically to sexual abuse and assault prior to 1999, because the holding was in response to the following argument from Ms. Menninger: “She has also alleged, for example, that many, several, three, I think, at last count, or four individuals had sexually abused her prior to ever meeting Mr. Epstein.” (April 21, 2016, Hearing Transcript at 11:24-12:2).

Additionally, it has become increasingly clear that Defendant's counsel is seeking these documents for the improper purpose of harassment as part of Defendant's counsel's campaign to blame the victim and make Ms. Giuffre (who was 15 years old or younger at the time of the requested documents). Maxwell's counsel has used offensive language in this proceeding at every turn. First, Ms. Menninger called Ms. Giuffre a “professional victim” in open court. (January 14, 2016 Hearing Transcript at 5:9). Then, Mr. Pagliuca stated that Ms. Giuffre “cried rape" in reference to police reports describing incidents that took place when Ms. Giuffre was fourteen years old. (March 21, 2016, meet and confer call). Then, Defendant's responses to Ms. Giuffre's interrogatories shockingly called this victim of sexual abuse a "sexually permissive woman." (Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories). This last blame-the-victim contention is strange and ironic for two reasons. First, Ms. Giuffre was a minor child, not a "woman," when Defendant sexually abused her. Second, it was Defendant and Mr. Epstein who trafficked her to other individuals - therefore, it was Defendant and Mr. Epstein's "permission" given to others to use Ms. Giuffre's sexually. Such language from Defendant and her counsel is wholly inappropriate.

Ms. Giuffre also objects to this request because such events would have taken place in Florida, and information relating to those events is protected from disclosure by law. Florida statutes protect "[a]ny information in a videotaped statement of a minor who is alleged to be or who is a victim of sexual battery . . . which reveals that minor's identity." Fla. Stat. § 119.071. Additionally, Fla. Stat. 985.036 protects records where a juvenile is a victim of a crime. Further, Section 794.026, Fla. Stat., creates a civil right of action against an individual who communicates to others, identifying information concerning the victim of a sexual offense. Additionally, Second, Fla. Stat. § 985.04 and Fla. Stat. § 985.054 make juvenile law enforcement records confidential from members of the public, and states that information obtained by a law enforcement agent participating in the assessment of a juvenile is confidential. Finally, certain of the police reports implicate Ms. Giuffre's involvement with the Florida Department of Children and Families, see e.g., GM_00750, and if such reports are part of the State's Department of Children and Families' records, they are confidential pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 39.202(6). Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre objects to this request for the reasons stated in this paragraph.

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to this request in that it is sought solely to harass, and intimidate Ms. Giuffre who is a victim of sexual abuse by the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre objects on the basis that Defendant is not entitled to a full-scale production of everything that has happened throughout the entire course of her life time, particularly the time sought in this request which predates Defendant's meeting and abuse of Ms. Giuffre. A victim of sexual abuse should not be re-abused by having to disclose events that occurred prior to the time that she was sexually abused by Maxwell and her co-conspirators.

Furthermore, discovery concerning Ms. Giuffre's prior sexual assault is not relevant to the claim at issue in this case, the defenses at issue, or the damages claimed, and therefore well outside the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre's sexual abuse as minor child neither proves nor disproves Defendant and Epstein's sexual abuse; therefore, it is not within the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, particularly since the December 1, 2015, amendments to the Rule. "Parties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Giving testimony on such irrelevant, but painful, topics would be extraordinarily embarrassing, oppressive, and traumatic for Ms. Giuffre, and it is wholly irrelevant to any party's claim or defense. Accordingly, such discovery is not sought in good faith.

This request is particularly improper as it cannot conceivably lead to admissible evidence. While Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 controls the limits of discovery, FRE 412 informs discovery over the boundaries of the proper inquiry into an alleged sexual assault victim's sexual conduct and history. Silva v. Pioneer Janitorial Servs., Inc., No. CIV.A. 10-11264-JGD, 2011 WL 4729783, at *1 (D. Mass. Oct. 4, 2011). See also Gibbons v. Food Lion, Inc., No. 98-1197-CIV-T-23F, 1999 WL 33226474, at *2 (M.D. Fla. Feb. 19, 1999) (stating that a majority of courts that have considered whether Fed. R. Evid. 412 is applicable to discovery “have found that Rule 412 has significance in the resolution of a discovery dispute”).

“As explained in the Advisory Committee Notes regarding the 1994 amendments to Rule 412, ‘[t]he rule aims to safeguard the alleged victim against the invasion of privacy, potential embarrassment and sexual stereotyping that is associated with public disclosure of intimate sexual details and the infusion of sexual innuendo into the factfinding process.’ Moreover, although the Advisory Committee Notes acknowledge that the procedures set forth in the Rule for determining the admissibility of evidence relating to an alleged victim's past sexual conduct or predisposition do not apply to discovery, they nevertheless provide as follows:

In order not to undermine the rationale of Rule 412 ... courts should enter appropriate orders pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(c) to protect the victim against unwarranted inquiries and to ensure confidentiality. Courts should presumptively issue protective orders barring discovery unless the party seeking discovery makes a showing that the evidence sought to be discovered would be relevant under the facts and theories of the particular case, and cannot be obtained except through discovery. In an action for sexual harassment, for instance, while some evidence of the alleged victim's sexual behavior and/or predisposition in the workplace may perhaps be relevant, non-workplace conduct will usually be irrelevant.

Silva, 2011 WL 4729783, at *1. (emphasis added). Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre objects to this request based on the Federal Rules of Evidence and prevailing case law applying such Rules.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this interrogatory in that it violates Rule 33 as it, in combination with the other interrogatories, exceed the allowable twenty-five interrogatories. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Additionally, to the extent that it is available to Ms. Giuffre, all of this information is already in the possession of Maxwell as she obtained and produced police reports regarding Ms. Giuffre, which Ms. Giuffre did not have in her possession. Ms. Giuffre was also questioned for seven hours in her May 3, 2016, deposition by Defendant's attorney. Finally, where a party possesses records and documents obtained or generated illegally, the court has the equitable power to vindicate and protect the rights of the parties affected. Socialist Workers Party v. Attorney Gen. of U.S., 666 F. Supp. 621, 623 (S.D.N.Y. 1987). For all of the foregoing reasons, Ms. Giuffre objects to this request.

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Admit that you were not 15 years old when you first met Ghislaine Maxwell.

Response to Request For Admission No. 1:

Denied in part. At the time Ms. Giuffre made the statement, many years after the events occurred, she firmly believed she was 15 years old when she was recruited away from her job at Mar-a-Lago by Ghislaine Maxwell. She later obtained some records from Mar-a-Lago which indicated that she was employed there during the year 2000. From January, 2000 through August 9, 2000, she was 16 years old; from August 9, 2000 through December 2000 she was 17 years old. While she now knows, based on this discovery, that she was not 15 years old, she now has conclusive proof that she was an underage minor when Ghislaine Maxwell approached her, recruited her, introduced her to Jeffrey Epstein, and sexually trafficked her as an underage minor.

2. Admit that you were not 15 years old when you first met Jeffrey Epstein.

Response to Request For Admission No. 9:

Denied. After thorough investigation, she has only been able to discover the year in which she worked at Mar-a-Lago was 2000, and consequently was recruited by Ghislaine Maxwell, for sex with Epstein. The month has not been made available, therefore denied.

10. Admit that You never observed Ghislaine Maxwell ever have any sexual contact with any person under the age of 18.

11. Admit that You never observed Bill Clinton on the island of Little St. James.

Response to Request For Admission No. 11:

12. Admit that You never had a conversation with Bill Clinton regarding him flying with Ghislaine Maxwell in a helicopter.

Response to Request For Admission No. 12:

Objection. Defendant Maxwell has clearly incorrectly interposed and comingled the facts which comprise the foundation of this request for admission. Ms. Giuffre has never alleged that she "had a conversation with Bill Clinton regarding him flying with Ghislaine Maxwell in a helicopter." Instead, Ms. Giuffre has alleged, "I flew to the Caribbean with Jeffrey and then Ghislaine Maxwell went to pick up Bill [Clinton] in a huge black helicopter that Jeffrey had bought her." Sara Nathan, Bill Clinton Pictured with Jeffrey Epstein's Social Fixer, Daily Mail, (12 January 2015).

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

As a threshold matter, a court must determine whether the statements set forth in a request for admissions satisfy the formal requirements of Rule 36: "(e)ach request for admissions must be direct, simple and 'limited to singular relevant facts,'" United States v. Consolidated Edison Co., 1988 WL 138275 (E.D.N.Y. [Dec. 15, 1988] ) (quoting S.E.C. v. Micro-Moisture Controls, 21 F.R.D. 164, 166 (S.D.N.Y.1957)), so that "it can be admitted or denied without explanation." [8 C. Wright & A. Miller,] Federal Practice and Procedure, § 2258 [(1970)]. A request "should not state 'half a fact' or 'half-truths' which require the answering party to qualify responses." Havenfield Corp. v. H & R Block, Inc., 67 F.R.D. 93, 96–97 (W.D.Mo.1973); Dubin, 125 F.R.D. at 375–76. See also Thalheim v. Eberheim, 124 F.R.D. 34, 35 (D.Conn.1988) (court must consider phraseology of requests as carefully as that of answers or objections).

Consequently, Ms. Giuffre objects to answering this request for admission as it is based on "half-truths," which make it impossible to answer without a qualified response.

13. Admit that You never observed Al Gore on the island of Little St. James.

Response to Request For Admission No. 13:

Denied in part. Her memory from 15 or more years ago is that it was on the island where she met Mr. Gore, although she has testified that she could have been incorrect on that location. While traveling with Epstein and Maxwell, she met so many people and was taken to so many places as a minor that perfect recall of exact locations is difficult, but based on her best recollection, denied.

14. Admit that You never had sexual contact with Alan Dershowitz.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

1. All Communications and Documents identified in Interrogatories 5-14, above.

Response to Request For Production No. 1:

Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is wildly overly broad and unduly burdensome, and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, as described more fully above in response to the interrogatories. For example, Interrogatory Number 5, would cover documents spanning over 100 years collectively from attorneys, and compliance with this production request would be literally impossible due to the untethered scope of the request. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it seeks to invade the privacy rights of a sex abuse victims, and is meant for the improper purpose of harassing and intimidating this victim.

2. All Documents reviewed or relied upon in answering Interrogatory Nos. 5-14 above.

Response to Request For Production No. 2:

Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is overly broad incorporating the interrogatories that total 59 subparts. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request for the reasons stated above in response to interrogatories, and in that it seeks to invade the privacy rights of a sex abuse victim and is meant for the improper purpose of harassing and intimidating this victim.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

3. All Documents reviewed or relied upon in answering Requests for Admission Nos. 1-15 above.

Response to Request For Production No. 3:

Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is overly broad incorporating the interrogatories that total 59 subparts. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it seeks to invade the privacy rights of a sex abuse victims and is meant for the improper purpose of harassing and intimidating this victim.

Subject to and without waving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre is withholding production of documents that are privileged pursuant to the attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, and the public interest privilege. Ms. Giuffre is also withholding electronic renditions of photographs that depict the faces of her minor children, including school portraits and other photographs taken that reveal the faces of her minor children.

Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566.

4. All Documents relating to any Communications between or among You or Your attorneys or any agent for You or Your attorneys, and any of the following individuals or with their attorneys, agents or representatives:

- a. Any witness disclosed in Plaintiff's Rule 26(a) disclosures;
- b. Any witness disclosed in Defendant's Rule 26(a) disclosures;
- c. Any witness identified by You in response to Interrogatory No. 8 and No. 14.

Response to Request For Production No. 4:

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Ms. Giuffre objection to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome in that it is not limited in time, and it seeks documents relating to hundreds of individuals. Ms. Giuffre objects because compliance with this request is unduly burdensome. For example,, this request seeks documents relating to over 100 individuals, and has no date or time limitations or subject matter limitations whatsoever. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that documents responsive to this request are within the possession, custody and control of the defendant and Jeffrey Epstein with whom she claims a joint defense privilege and defendant has refused to produce responsive documents to Ms. Giuffre's request seeking communications between the Defendant and Ms. Giuffre and between Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Giuffre. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections. Specifically, counsel's communications with witnesses are protected under the work product doctrine. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is sought solely to harass and intimidate Ms. Giuffre, and invade her privacy, by seeking her private communications with her various family members, including aunts, uncles and parents and siblings. Ms. Giuffre further objects as this request calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Ms. Giuffre is withholding production of documents that are privileged pursuant to the attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, and the public interest privilege. Ms. Giuffre is also withholding electronic renditions of photographs that depict the faces of her minor children, including school portraits and other photographs taken that reveal the faces of her minor children.

Ms. Giuffre additionally objects to the extent that this request seeks the communications of her attorneys, as such request is overly broad and unduly burdensome. This is especially true given that certain attorneys for Ms. Giuffre additionally represent other individuals listed on the Rule 26 Disclosures in separate legal matters, and revelation of such communications would violate privileges that do not belong to Ms. Giuffre, but rather belong to other victims of sexual abuse who have not waived such privileges. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre is withholding these documents from production based on her objections.

Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, which includes her communications with many of the individuals set forth in this request. However, producing documents with the additional, newly-added individuals would be overly burdensome, as there is no limitation as to time period, scope or subject-matter.

5. All photographs or video containing any image of You and the following individuals. To the extent You have such photographs and video in their original, native format, please produce them in that format (not a paper copy).

- a. Any of the individuals identified by You in response to Interrogatory No. 8 and No. 14.

Response to Request For Production No. 5:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that documents responsive to this request are within the possession, custody and control of the Defendant and Jeffrey Epstein with whom she claims a joint defense privilege and defendant has refused to produce responsive documents to Ms. Giuffre's request seeking communications between the Defendant and Ms. Giuffre and between Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Giuffre.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, and will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request and will continue to supplement her production limited to documents that do not depict images of her minor children. Ms. Giuffre does not have "original, native format," as requested so she is producing the paper copies she has in her possession, custody and control.

Furthermore, Ms. Giuffre has now produced the pictures in her possession related to the above-referenced case. Any remaining photographs not produced are solely in the possession of the Defendant and her co-conspirators.

6. All Documents concerning any Communications between you or your attorneys and any witness or any potential witness in Giuffre v. Maxwell.

Response to Request For Production No. 6:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it seeks documents relating to hundreds of individuals, and calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Ms. Giuffre objects because compliance with this request is unduly burdensome. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that documents responsive to this request are within the possession, custody and control of the defendant and Jeffrey Epstein with whom she claims a joint defense privilege, and defendant has refused to produce responsive documents to Ms. Giuffre's request seeking communications between the Defendant and Ms. Giuffre and between Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Giuffre.

Ms. Giuffre further objects to this request to the extent it seeks documents protected by the attorney client, work product, joint defense, public interest or any other applicable privilege.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is sought solely to harass and intimidate Ms. Giuffre, and invade her privacy, by seeking her private communications with her various family members, including aunts, uncles and parents and siblings.

Subject to and without waving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre is withholding production of documents that are privileged pursuant to the attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, and the public interest privilege. Ms. Giuffre is also withholding electronic renditions of photographs that depict the faces of her minor children, including school portraits and other photographs taken that reveal the faces of her minor children.

Subject to and without waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre has already produced documents Bates labelled GIUFFRE000001 to GIUFFRE007566, and will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request limited to documents that do not depict images of her minor children as described supra and will continue to supplement this production. Ms. Giuffre will produce Ms. Giuffre's counsel's communications with attorneys for witnesses in this case from the date of filing this litigation to the present that are related to this litigation.

7. All Documents concerning any Communications between You and Your attorneys and Johanna Sjoberg or her lawyer, Marshall Dore Louis.

Response to Request For Production No. 7:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to and not waiving the above objections, Ms. Giuffre will produce Ms. Giuffre's counsel's communications with Marshall Dore Louis from the date of filing this litigation to the present.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

8. All Documents concerning any Communications between You and Your attorneys and Allyson Chambers or her lawyer, Marshall Dore Louis.

Response to Request For Production No. 8:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Ms. Giuffre will produce Ms. Giuffre's counsel's communications with Marshall Dore Louis from the date of filing this litigation to the present relating to the above-captioned case.

9. All Documents concerning any Communications between You or Your attorneys and any witness in the case captioned Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States, Case No. 08-ev-80736-KAM, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida ("CVRA" case).

Response to Request For Production No. 9:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

With regard to communications by Ms. Giuffre's attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials, because Ms. Giuffre's attorneys represent not only Ms. Giuffre (Jane Doe 3) in the CVRA matter, but also Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, and Jane Doe 4. Any communications between the four Jane Does, via Ms. Giuffre's attorneys, would be plainly be subject to attorney client protection, not to mention work product protection as well.

With regard to contact with "witnesses," the request is vague, unduly burdensome, and overbroad. The CVRA case centers on issues surrounding whether the U.S. Government failed to confer and otherwise protect the rights of victims (including Janes Does 1, 2, 3, and 4) during plea negotiations with Jeffrey Epstein. Accordingly, some of the main "witnesses" in the case are the Government prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations. Several of the same prosecutors who handled the plea negotiations are also involved in defending the CVRA case. The CVRA has been in litigation for nearly eight years, and there have extensive communications with the prosecutors (including communications concerning approximately 10,000 pages of documents that were requested by victims' counsel and provided to Judge Marra for in camera review). The request appears designed to target all of these communications, and such communications, going back eight years, would necessitate a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications with the Government prosecutors. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Whatever communications Ms. Giuffre's attorneys would have had with government prosecutors about CVRA notifications concerning a prosecution of Epstein would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defames Ms. Giuffre in attacking her as, for example, a liar.

Moreover, many materials related to this case remain under Judge Marra's protective order. Accordingly, before Ms. Giuffre's counsel could even have the option to release certain materials that the Government has provided to him as an attorney in the case, defendant Maxwell would have to approach Judge Marra and seek a modification of the protective order.

This document is CONFIDENTIAL under the Court's Protective Order (DE 62)

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what "witnesses" Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre's lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz connected with procedural and other aspects of this case. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because the case has spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult and overly burdensome. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre's attorneys with collecting such communications when she can collect them in other ways.

10. All Documents concerning any Communications between you or your attorneys and any witness or potential witness in Edwards and Cassell v Dershowitz ("Dershowitz" case).

Response to Request For Production No. 10:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. It is not clear what the phrase "concerning" is designed to cover. As a third-party witness in that action, Ms. Giuffre had numerous communications with, for example, her attorneys in relation to that matter, and therefore, these communications are subject to the attorney client privilege and protected by the work product doctrine. It is unclear what documents "concerning" communications with "witnesses" refers to, and it could expansively cover a vast number of documents, emails, and other communications that have taken place over the course of this litigation.

With regard to communications by Ms. Giuffre's attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials (or materials covered by the work product doctrine).

With regard to "witnesses" or "potential witnesses," the request is vague, unduly burdensome, and overbroad. The Dershowitz case centers on issues surrounding whether the Ms. Giuffre's lawyers (Edwards and Cassell) had conduct a sufficient investigation before filing a motion to join Jane Doe 3 (and Jane Doe 4) into the CVRA case. That investigation involves not only attorney-client materials, but also work product protections for Jane Doe 1 and Jane Doe 2. This request, then, covers communications going back eight years, and it would involve a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications relevant to the potential "witnesses" who might have been able to shed light on the claims in the CVRA case and, in turn, whether sex abuse had been committed by Alan Dershowitz. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Such a burden is not countenanced by Rule 26 or the prevailing case law. Whatever communications Ms. Giuffre's attorneys may have had as part of their (work product protected) investigation would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defames Ms. Giuffre in attacking her as, for example, a liar.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what "witnesses" Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre's lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because their investigations have spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre's attorneys with collecting such communications when she can collect them in other ways. Indeed, in light of the fact that Maxwell and Dershowitz have a close working relationship, it is unduly burdensome that Maxwell seeks these items not from her ally but from attorneys for her legal adversary.

11. Any statement obtained by You or Your attorneys from any witness or potential witness in the CVRA case.

Response to Request For Production No. 11:

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly as it calls for the production of documents that are irrelevant to this action and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and because it would require the review of hundreds of thousands of documents which would take hours upon hours of attorney time. Ms. Giuffre objects in that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client/work product privilege, and any other applicable privilege stated in the General Objections.

Ms. Giuffre objects because the term "statement" is vague and ambiguous, unduly burdensome and overbroad. With regard to communications to Ms. Giuffre's attorneys, this request seeks clearly privileged materials, because Ms. Giuffre's attorneys represent not only Ms. Giuffre (Jane Doe 3) in the matter, but also Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, and Jane Doe 4.

The CVRA case centers on issues surrounding whether the U.S. Government failed to confer and otherwise protect the rights of victims (including Janes Does 1, 2, 3, and 4) during plea negotiations with Jeffrey Epstein.

The CVRA has been in litigation for nearly eight years, and there have extensive communications with the prosecutors (including communications concerning approximately 10,000 pages of documents that were requested by victims' counsels and provided to Judge Marra for in camera review). It is not clear whether the request is designed to request all of these communications as "statements," but if it does capture these communications going back eight year, it would involve a review of several hundreds of thousands of emails over that time to identify communications with the Government prosecutor. The burden would be substantial and the relevance would be essentially non-existent. Whatever statements Ms. Giuffre's attorneys obtained from government prosecutors about CVRA notifications concerning a prosecution of Epstein would not shed light on whether Defendant Maxwell defames Ms. Giuffre in attacking her as, for example, a liar. Moreover, many materials remain under Judge Marra's protective order. Accordingly, before Ms. Giuffre's counsel could even have the option to release certain materials that the Government has provided to him as an attorney in the case, defendant Maxwell would have to approach Judge Marra and seek a modification of the protective order.

The request is also vague because it is not clear precisely what "statements" Defendant Maxwell is concerned about. There have, for example, been communications between Ms. Giuffre's lawyers and lawyers for Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz connected with procedural and other aspects of this case. Again, the relevance of such communications seems basically non-existent to the action. But because the case has spanned eight years, collecting such communications would be difficult. Moreover, Defendant Maxwell has a close working relationship and/or joint defense arrangement with both Mr. Epstein and Mr. Dershowitz. There is no reason to burden Ms. Giuffre's attorneys with collecting such statements when she can collect them in other ways.

12. Any statement obtained by You or Your attorneys from any witness or potential witness in the Dershowitz case.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

At nearly 78 years of age, Alan M. Dershowitz, the highly regarded Harvard Law professor, criminal defense lawyer, and author, is entitled to enjoy the reputation for strict personal rectitude that he has earned. Unfortunately, however, over the course of the last year and a half, that reputation has been unfairly sullied, tainted by false and grotesque allegations of pedophilia and rape peddled to the press by Virginia Giuffre, the plaintiff in this lawsuit, and republished all over the world. Professor Dershowitz has done everything in his power to combat this assault on his reputation, from proclaiming his innocence in public, to marshalling every bit of information within his control to demonstrate that the allegations cannot be true, to submitting to a full investigation of the charges by former federal judge and FBI Director Louis Freeh, who exonerated him. And still the stories keep coming.

Now, having been named as a witness in this action by both plaintiff and defendant, Professor Dershowitz has been granted access to certain materials subject to this Court's stipulated Protective Order and filed under seal—and those materials, some of them in Ms. Giuffre's own words, confirm his absolute innocence. They demonstrate that Ms. Giuffre did not accuse Professor Dershowitz of sexual misconduct until years after she first named other prominent men who she claimed had abused her; that there was “no proof” that Professor Dershowitz had ever done anything wrong; and that Ms. Giuffre concocted her malicious allegations against Professor Dershowitz, and used his name in her statements and book proposal, not because he abused her—he didn't—but because he is famous and she believed that his name would help sell the book.

In this application, Professor Dershowitz seeks to intervene in this case for the limited purpose of obtaining relief that is modest and narrowly tailored: the unsealing of portions of a brief filed in connection with a motion to quash a subpoena (“Reply Brief”), and certain emails submitted as part of that same motion (“Emails”), as well as a draft of Ms. Giuffre’s memoir (“Manuscript”) that was filed in connection with a motion to extend the parties’ deadline for deposition discovery. Unsealing of these three documents (the “Requested Documents”) is required because they are all judicial documents to which a presumption of public access applies. In the alternative, if the Court declines to unseal the Requested Documents on the basis that they are judicial documents, Professor Dershowitz seeks modification of the Court’s March 18, 2016 stipulated Protective Order to permit the dissemination of the Requested Documents. The Requested Documents concern allegations by Ms. Giuffre whose substance has already been widely aired in public—including, apparently, on camera to ABC News—and which have been widely circulated for sale to publishers and journalists. Ms. Giuffre’s efforts to gain publicity and a book deal based on public interest in her claims should forfeit any asserted right to maintain the confidentiality of these documents.

Separately and together, the Requested Documents demonstrate that the allegations of sexual misconduct against Professor Dershowitz—which were lodged by Ms. Giuffre in public court filings and repeated worldwide in the press—are nothing more than a recent fabrication, a made up story designed to increase commercial interest in Ms. Giuffre’s book and promote its sale to a publisher and eventually to readers. Accessing these materials without restriction, and making them public, is essential to Professor Dershowitz’s ability to defend himself.

There is no basis for the Requested Documents to remain secret, much less for their secrecy to be maintained by court order. Ms. Giuffre has done everything in her power to publicize her false allegations against Professor Dershowitz: through her lawyers, she publicly filed the accusations in a federal court proceeding; she and her lawyers stood by her claims, in both court filings and public statements to the media, even after her lawyers had issued a public statement acknowledging that filing them had been a “mistake;” she shopped a book manuscript to agents, publishers, and the press with the goal of maximizing the public attention paid to her slanderous story; and she even sought and obtained a lengthy interview with ABC News with the intent that it be broadcast on national television news programs. Ms. Giuffre and her attorneys cannot credibly argue that documentary evidence undermining the accusations she has spent years working to make public are “secret” and should be kept so under the authority of this Court.

Disclosing the Requested Documents would violate no right of privacy. By publicly leveling false accusations against Professor Dershowitz in graphic detail and seeking to publicize those accusations in the media, Ms. Giuffre has forfeited any claim that her own (defamatory) words are somehow confidential. Indeed, what Ms. Giuffre’s own counsel have referred to as the “strong current media interest in the case”—which Ms. Giuffre has worked to sustain, including by selling her story—bolsters the public’s right to access the Requested Documents. Were Ms. Giuffre to prevail in her efforts to suppress these documents of high public interest, the result would be absurd and unfair: Ms. Giuffre’s false allegations would remain in the public record, while the innocent victim of her slanders would be barred from using her own words to disprove them. No one should be permitted to game the legal system so perversely.

The law recognizes Professor Dershowitz’s right to the Requested Documents under the First Amendment, the common-law right of access to judicial documents, and governing Second Circuit jurisprudence, which forbids sealing and secrecy for their own sake. Here, having waived any privacy interest she may have had by both disseminating the allegations against Professor Dershowitz and by filing this lawsuit against Ghislaine Maxwell, Ms. Giuffre should not be heard to say that her own words, and the words of those with whom she communicated, are somehow “confidential.” They are not. This Court should grant Professor Dershowitz the right to intervene in this action and unseal the Requested Documents.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

I. MS. GIUFFRE’S ALLEGED RELATIONSHIP WITH JEFFREY EPSTEIN AND BELATED ACCUSATIONS AGAINST PROFESSOR DERSHOWITZ

In 2006, Professor Dershowitz was retained by financier Jeffrey Epstein to join a team of lawyers hired to defend Epstein against accusations that he had solicited sex workers and had inappropriate sexual encounters with underage girls.<sup>1</sup> Declaration of Alan M. Dershowitz (“Dershowitz Decl.”) ¶¶ 6-7. In 2008, Epstein pleaded guilty to certain offenses involving sex with minors. Id. ¶ 7. Ms. Giuffre has alleged that she was one of Epstein’s victims, although Epstein was neither charged nor convicted of any conduct toward her. Id. ¶ 8. Ms. Giuffre claims that she was held as a “sex slave” and trafficked by Epstein, who she alleges facilitated sexual encounters with a number of men. Id.

In the period from 2006 through 2014, Ms. Giuffre submitted to interviews with law enforcement, told her story to the media, drafted a tell-all memoir, and filed a lawsuit alleging that Mr. Epstein had trafficked her to many of his prominent associates. Id. ¶¶ 10-14. During this period, Ms. Giuffre never once claimed to have had any sexual contact with Professor Dershowitz, much less that he had sexually abused her. Id. Then, in December 2014, Ms. Giuffre—represented by attorneys Bradley Edwards and Paul Cassell—filed a motion to join an action (the “CVRA Action”) that had been initially filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida in 2008 by another of Mr. Epstein’s alleged victims, who was designated as “Jane Doe.” Jane Doe #1 v. United States of America, No. 08 Civ. 80736 (S.D. Fla.) (hereinafter, Doe v. USA); Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 16. In late 2014 and early 2015, Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers alleged in public court filings in the CVRA Action that Mr. Dershowitz had had sex with Ms. Giuffre on numerous occasions while she was a minor, including in Florida, on

<sup>1</sup> Professor Dershowitz had been acquainted with Mr. Epstein through academic events for a number of years prior to his retention as Mr. Epstein’s counsel, but had neither witnessed nor heard about allegations of sexual misconduct by Mr. Epstein before being hired to represent him. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 6.

Mr. Epstein’s private planes, in the British Virgin Islands, in New Mexico, and in New York. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 17. Unlike much of the record in the CVRA Action, these allegations were not sealed; instead, they were filed publicly without any evidence to support them and without affording Professor Dershowitz an opportunity to dispute them. Id. Although Ms. Giuffre elaborated these false allegations in subsequent filings, eventually, the presiding judge in the CRVA Action struck them as a sanction against the lawyers who had filed them. But the damage to Professor Dershowitz’s reputation had been done—and it would persist. Id. ¶¶ 18-19.

In the wake of the grotesque allegation that he is a pedophile and a sex criminal, Professor Dershowitz loudly and publicly defended himself. In January 2015, Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys, Mr. Edwards and Mr. Cassell, sued Professor Dershowitz for defamation, citing comments he made in his own defense. Id. ¶ 21. During discovery in that action, Ms. Giuffre never produced the Emails or the Manuscript despite a court order requiring her to provide all statements referencing Professor Dershowitz by name; she also falsely testified under oath in her deposition that she never exchanged emails with Sharon Churcher or other members of the press about Professor Dershowitz. Id. ¶¶ 22-23. The defamation action ultimately settled in April 2016, and the parties released a joint statement in which attorneys Cassell and Edwards admitted that it was a mistake to accuse Professor Dershowitz of sexual misconduct in their filings in the CVRA Action and withdrew those allegations. Id. ¶ 24 & Ex. H. Also in April 2016, Professor Dershowitz released the results of a thorough investigation led by former FBI Director and federal judge Louis Freeh, which found that “the totality of the evidence” “refutes the allegations made against” Professor Dershowitz by Ms. Giuffre. Id. ¶ 25 & Ex. I.

II. MS. GIUFFRE AND HER ATTORNEYS’ CONTINUING INSISTENCE ON, AND REPETITION OF, ACCUSATIONS AGAINST PROFESSOR DERSHOWITZ

Despite the settlement of the defamation case and the resulting joint statement, the court order striking the “lurid” allegations against Professor Dershowitz in the CVRA Action, and the results of Judge Freeh’s investigation, Ms. Giuffre and her counsel have republished Ms. Giuffre’s allegations against Professor Dershowitz. Id. ¶ 26. For example, on April 8, 2016, just after the settlement of the defamation case, Mr. Cassell and Mr. Edwards made a court filing that stated that Ms. Giuffre “reaffirms” her allegations against him, and that their mistake in filing those allegations in the CVRA Action was merely “tactical.” Id. ¶ 26 & Ex. J. David Boies, another of Ms. Giuffre’s attorneys in this case, was described as saying that Ms. Giuffre “stands by her allegations” against Professor Dershowitz. See Casey Sullivan, Alan Dershowitz Extends Truce Offer to David Boies Amid Bitter Feud, BLOOMBERG LAW (Apr. 11, 2016), <https://bol.bna.com/alan-dershowitz-extends-truce-offer-to-david-boies-amid-bitter-feud/>. These statements—which falsely imply that Professor Dershowitz is guilty of sexual misconduct—are highly injurious to his reputation, especially when they come from otherwise-credible lawyers. Id. ¶ 26. The claim that Professor Dershowitz engaged in sexual misconduct with Ms. Giuffre has also continued to receive attention in the press. See id. ¶ 27 & Ex. K. Professor Dershowitz has learned that Ms. Giuffre sat for an interview with ABC News, presumably as part of her efforts to increase public interest in (and the commercial value of) her “story.” Id. ¶ 27. The interview was announced on social media by an organization with which Mr. Edwards is associated and was said to be slated to appear on ABC’s Good Morning America, World News Tonight, and Nightline programs. Id. While the ABC News interview apparently has not yet run, there is no assurance that it will not run in the future. Id.

III. THE EXCULPATORY EMAILS, REPLY BRIEF, AND MANUSCRIPT

Each of the Requested Documents corroborates Professor Dershowitz’s claims of innocence and undermines both Ms. Giuffre’s credibility generally and the veracity of her accusations against Professor Dershowitz specifically.

First, the Emails, consisting of one exchange dated May 10-11, 2011 and another dated June 8, 2011, discuss, among other topics, Ms. Giuffre's Manuscript, which purports to recount her experiences with Epstein and other prominent people. Id. ¶ 34. Within the May 2011 exchange, Ms. Giuffre writes to Ms. Churcher on May 10, 2011:

"Hello gorgeous, I hope this message comes to you on a bright, sunny day!!! I took your advice about what to offer Sandra and she accepted. Were drawing up a contract through her agent right now and getting busy to meet my deadline. Just wondering if you have any information on you from when you and I were doing interviews about the J.E. story. I wanted to put the names of these assholes, oops, I meant to say, pedo's, that J.E. sent me to. With everything going on my brain feels like mush and it would be a great deal of help!..."

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. A at GIUFFRE004096-97. In an e-mail dated May 11, 2011, Ms. Churcher replies to Mrs. Giuffre, urging her to use Professor Dershowitz's name in her book proposal despite the lack of any evidence of his involvement in wrongdoing:

Don't forget Alan Dershowitz...JE's buddy and lawyer..good name for your pitch as he repped Claus von Bulow and a movie was made about that case...title was Reversal of Fortune. We all suspect Alan is a pedo and tho no proof of that, you probably met him when he was hanging put [sic] w JE."

Id. at GIUFFRE004096.<sup>2</sup>

The June 8, 2011 exchange shows Ms. Churcher corresponding with a book agent to promote Ms. Giuffre's book; Ms. Giuffre is copied on the message. Ms. Churcher mentions Professor Dershowitz as one of Epstein's lawyers, together with Kenneth Starr, but not as an abuser:

Hi Jarred

Hopefully you have Virginia's book pitch by now.

She has some amazing names which she can share with you in confidence and I think she also has a human interest story that could appeal to the Oprah/female set as well as the Wall Streeters who follow Epstein — a hedge fund king.

Here are a few of our stories about Virginia, plus some examples of the massive US and other international media pickup. Vanity Fair are doing a piece I believe in their August issue. The FBI have reopened the Epstein case due to Virginia's revelations. I also am attaching a link to a NY Magazine profile of Epstein.....written before his world combusted. The FBI believe he was essentially running a private — and mobile -- brothel for some of the world's richest and most influential men.

He got off the first time round after retaining Kenneth Starr (who witchhunted Bill Clinton) and Alan Dershowitz (von Bulow's appeal lawyer, who inspired the movie Reversal of Fortune). The US Justice Dept is investigating corruption allegations against at least one prosecutor involved in the case.

Best regards,

Sharon

Id. at GIUFFRE004028-29.

The Emails were filed under seal in connection with Ms. Churcher's motion to quash her deposition subpoena. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 38. The Reply Brief, also filed under seal in pertinent part, characterizes these emails from Ms. Churcher's perspective, asserting as follows:

Churcher makes no suggestion that [Ms. Giuffre] had sexual contact with Dershowitz. To the contrary, she states that there was 'no proof' that he was a 'pedo'—which directly contradicts such a suggestion in itself—but only that [Ms. Giuffre] 'probably met him when he was hanging out with [Jeffrey Epstein]'.

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. M at 8.

Finally, the Manuscript—which was filed in connection with Ms. Maxwell's opposition to Ms. Giuffre's request for an extension of the deposition discovery deadline—further corroborates that Ms. Giuffre's allegations against Professor Dershowitz are a recent fabrication. The draft mentions Professor Dershowitz only once, claiming, falsely, that he once walked into a room while Ms. Giuffre was in bed after a sexual encounter with Jeffrey Epstein:

Jeffrey's business was running well from the looks of his attentiveness the office he owned in the Upper East Side of Manhattan. Alan Dershowitz, his colleague in finances and personal solicitor, a bird of the same feather, I had seen hanging around the island and Jeffrey's Manhattan mansion, more and more these days. Alan's taste for the young and beautiful was a bias for a blooming business relationship between him and Jeffrey. After an explicit session of Jeffrey's vulgar pilgrimage into my body, we were interrupted by a knock at the door by Jeffrey's good friend, Alan. I wrapped myself up in Jeffrey's pink bed sheets, which is the color preference he chose to sleep in because it reminded him of the same color of his own words "Pussy", and covered my face from the unexpected intrusion. Jeffrey got up and wrapped a towel around his loins and answered the door completely calm. Opening the bedroom door and letting Alan inside they began to converse about business immediately, right in front of me. Jeffrey started to tell Alan what needed to be done while he jostled some notes down quickly. I peeked my head from underneath the covers thinking they were too wrapped up in their work to notice me get up and dressed, and Jeffrey turned back to me and told me to just stay there this would only take a second. Going back to Alan he turned his focus back into work and hustled out a few more orders before letting Alan out of the door and returning his attention to me.

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. B at 112. Putting aside that this account is a complete fabrication—Professor Dershowitz had no business dealings with Mr. Epstein and was not his lawyer at the time in question—the Manuscript contains no mention anywhere of any sexual contact between Professor Dershowitz and Ms. Giuffre, or between Professor Dershowitz and any other person. Indeed, though the Manuscript describes sexual encounters Ms. Giuffre allegedly had with a different member of the Harvard faculty—whom she identifies by name and physical characteristics—it levels no such accusation against Professor Dershowitz. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 37.

The Requested Documents, taken together with other evidence currently in the public record, prove the following:

- Before her email correspondence with Sharon Churcher in 2011, Ms. Giuffre did not in any way accuse Professor Dershowitz of sexual abuse, even though she had accused other prominent people of abusing her and had plenty of opportunity to do so.

- In an exchange of emails in 2011, Ms. Churcher, who was advising Ms. Giuffre about how to maximize her payments for selling her story, first raised the idea of mentioning Professor Dershowitz in connection with the alleged abuse, despite the fact that there was “no proof” that he was involved.
- After receiving this email, Ms. Giuffre did in fact put Mr. Dershowitz in her book draft, but she conspicuously did not accuse him of sexual abuse or even any sexual contact, even though she explicitly named others who she claimed had abused her.
- In a subsequent email exchange between Ms. Churcher, Ms. Giuffre, and Mr. Weisfeld, Ms. Churcher described several categories of prominent individuals with whom Ms. Giuffre claimed to have had sexual encounters. Professor Dershowitz’s name, along with that of Kenneth Starr, is mentioned in the email, but only as one of the lawyers who negotiated Mr. Epstein’s plea agreement, not as one of the “amazing names” of those who allegedly abused Ms. Giuffre.
- Ms. Giuffre lied during her deposition in the defamation case brought by her lawyers against Professor Dershowitz, testifying that there were no emails between herself and Ms. Churcher that mentioned Professor Dershowitz by name. Her lawyers did not correct this testimony.
- In her Reply Brief, Ms. Churcher has confirmed that Professor Dershowitz was not among the prominent individuals that Ms. Giuffre was accusing of sexual misconduct. The Reply Brief affirmatively argues that Ms. Churcher was “not suggesting” that Professor Dershowitz had sex with Ms. Giuffre, but merely mentioned him to remind Ms. Giuffre that Epstein and Professor Dershowitz knew each other.

Id. ¶ 43.

The Requested Documents strongly corroborate Professor Dershowitz’s denials of Ms. Giuffre’s malicious and false allegations against him, and undermine her credibility by showing that she has lied under oath about him before. Id. ¶ 44. Because Ms. Giuffre and her lawyers continue to publicly stand by Ms. Giuffre’s accusations against Professor Dershowitz, he has a compelling need to use the Requested Documents in defending his reputation. Id. ¶ 47.

IV. THE REVELATION OF THE EXCULPATORY DOCUMENTS TO PROFESSOR DERSHOWITZ

In or about May 2016, Professor Dershowitz was named as a witness in this case by both plaintiff and defendant. Id. ¶ 29. Thereafter, he was contacted by defense counsel Ms. Laura Menninger, in anticipation of his possible future testimony. Id. ¶ 30. After Professor Dershowitz agreed to abide by the terms of the stipulated Protective Order in this case (the “Protective Order”), Ms. Menninger sent Professor Dershowitz the Requested Documents to review pursuant to a provision permitting documents produced confidentially in discovery to be shown to potential witnesses. See id. ¶¶ 30, 32; Ex. L. Professor Dershowitz was previously unaware that the Requested Documents existed. Id. ¶¶ 40-41.

ARGUMENT

I. PROFESSOR DERSHOWITZ SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO INTERVENE UNDER FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 24(B)

“On timely motion, the court may permit anyone to intervene,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b)(1), provided the proposed intervenor “has a claim or defense that shares with the main action a common question of law or fact,” id. R. 24(b)(1)(B). The decision to permit intervention under Rule 24(b) is discretionary, U.S.P.S. v. Brennan, 579 F.2d 188, 191 (2d Cir. 1978), though the Court “must consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the original parties’ rights,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(b)(3). “Additional relevant factors include the nature and extent of the intervenors’ interests, the degree to which those interests are adequately represented by other parties, and whether parties seeking intervention will significantly contribute to the full development of the underlying factual issues in the suit and to the just and equitable adjudication of the legal questions presented.” Diversified Grp., Inc. v. Daugerdas, 217 F.R.D. 152, 157 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (internal quotation marks and alteration omitted).

“It is well-settled that intervention pursuant to Rule 24(b) is the proper procedure for a third party to seek to modify a protective order in a private suit.” Id. (collecting authorities).

Likewise, permissive intervention “has generally been found to be most appropriate for a non-party to intervene in order to assert the right to public access” for judicial documents. United States v. Erie Cnty., No. 09 Civ. 849, 2013 WL 4679070, at *5 (W.D.N.Y. Aug. 30, 2103) (collecting authorities), rev’d on other grounds, 763 F.3d 235 (2d Cir. 2014). Here, all relevant considerations support granting Professor Dershowitz’s motion for permissive intervention.

A. There Is Significant Overlap Between the Subject Matter of the Original Action and This Motion

Many courts have held that a non-party’s assertion of a right to access sealed or confidential litigation materials itself presents a question of law common among the parties and the proposed intervenor, satisfying the prerequisites for permissive intervention. “[W]hen a district court enters a closure order, the public’s interest in open access is at issue and that interest serves as the necessary legal predicate for intervention.” Jessup v. Luther, 227 F.3d 993, 998 (7th Cir. 2000). “Because an intervenor asserting the right of public access is not becoming a party to the underlying merits of a case, further specificity is not required.” Erie Cnty., 2013 WL 4679070, at *5. Even if a more particularized showing of factual or legal commonality were needed, Professor Dershowitz could easily make it. This lawsuit concerns the veracity of Ms. Giuffre’s allegations of sexual abuse—allegations of which Professor Dershowitz has been a repeated target. The Requested Documents are relevant to the credibility both of Ms. Giuffre’s claims generally and of her allegations against Professor Dershowitz specifically. Both parties have listed Professor Dershowitz as a key witness in this case, Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 29, and he is likely to provide testimony as the litigation proceeds.

B. There Is No Risk of Undue Delay or Prejudice

Professor Dershowitz’s motion seeks extremely narrow and tailored relief: the unsealing of a small number of already-filed documents or the modification of a blanket Protective Order as to one discovery document. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 3. In the context of this complex case, where a number of discovery disputes and other applications have been submitted to the Court in just the last few weeks, this modest request is unlikely to appreciably affect the schedule of the litigation or to delay its ultimate disposition. See Schiller v. City of N.Y., No. 04 Civ. 7922, 2006 WL 2788256, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 27, 2006) (noting that intervention “for the limited purpose of challenging strictures on the dissemination of information should not impede the progress of the litigation”).

C. Professor Dershowitz Has a Compelling Interest in Access That Is Not Represented by Any Existing Party

As the Supreme Court has recognized, the public’s right to access judicial proceedings and documents extends well beyond those with direct interests in the subject matter of the litigation at issue: “American decisions generally do not condition enforcement of this right on a proprietary interest in the document or upon a need for it as evidence in a lawsuit.” Nixon v. Warner Commc’ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 597 (1978) (noting that “the citizen’s desire to keep a watchful eye on the workings of public agencies” is a sufficient basis to compel access). Even if a more concrete stake were needed, Professor Dershowitz has a compelling interest in obtaining and disclosing the Requested Documents, which corroborate his denials of Ms. Giuffre’s heinous allegations against him and undermine her credibility. He also plans to rely on them to defend against a request for sanctions against him that is pending on appeal in a Florida court. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 46. Although Professor Dershowitz has valiantly fought to clear his name—by, among other efforts, marshaling incontrovertible proof of his innocence, asserting defamation claims in court, and commissioning a thorough investigation led by a respected former federal judge that exonerated him—he has found himself unable to stem the tide of media reports and public statements by Ms. Giuffre and her lawyers labeling him a pedophile and sexual abuser. Professor Dershowitz seeks to intervene here to assert his First Amendment and federal common-law rights to access information he needs to defend his hard-earned reputation. That interest is more than a sufficient basis to permit intervention under Rule 24(b).

II. THE FIRST AMENDMENT AND THE COMMON LAW REQUIRE PUBLIC ACCESS TO THE REQUESTED DOCUMENTS

A. Legal Standard

“Federal courts employ two related but distinct presumptions in favor of public access to court proceedings and records: a strong form rooted in the First Amendment and a slightly weaker form based in federal common law.” Newsday LLC v. Cnty. of Nassau, 730 F.3d 156, 163 (2d Cir. 2013). “Underlying that First Amendment right of access is the common understanding that a major purpose of that Amendment was to protect the free discussion of governmental affairs.” Westmoreland v. CBS, Inc., 752 F.2d 16, 22 (2d Cir. 1984) (quoting Mills v. Alabama, 384 U.S. 214, 218 (1966)). Similarly, the common law right of access, which “is said to predate the Constitution,” United States v. Amodeo (Amodeo I), 44 F.3d 141, 145 (2d Cir. 1995), rests on “the need for federal courts, although independent—indeed, particularly because they are independent—to have a measure of accountability and for the public to have confidence in the administration of justice,” United States v. Amodeo (Amodeo II), 71 F.3d 1044, 1048 (2d Cir. 1995).

Both the First Amendment and common law rights of access create a presumption against secrecy for “judicial documents.” See Newsday, 730 F.3d at 164 (First Amendment); Amodeo I, 44 F.3d at 145-46 (common law). The Second Circuit has explained that “the item filed must be relevant to the performance of the judicial function and useful in the judicial process in order for it to be designated a judicial document.” Amodeo I, 44 F.3d at 145. Once an item’s status as a “judicial document” has been established, the common law and the First Amendment demand distinct analyses to determine whether the presumption of access is overcome.

1. The Common Law Test

In determining the applicability of the common-law right of access to a given document, courts are charged with determining the weight of the presumption of access under the particular circumstances presented. The presumption applies to all judicial documents, but the strength of the presumption varies according to the importance of a given document in the judicial process. The weight afforded to the presumption of access is “governed by the role of the material at issue in the exercise of Article III judicial power and the resultant value of such information to those monitoring the federal courts.” Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onodaga, 435 F.3d 110, 119 (2d Cir. 2006). The Second Circuit has explained that “documents that directly affect an adjudication and play a significant role in determining litigants’ substantive rights receive the benefit of a relatively strong presumption, while the public interest in other documents is not as pressing.” United States v. Graham, 257 F.3d 143, 153 (2d Cir. 2001) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). “Finally, after determining the weight of the presumption of access, the court must balance competing considerations against it.” Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 120 (internal quotation marks omitted). “Such countervailing factors include but are not limited to the danger of impairing law enforcement or judicial efficiency and the privacy interests of those resisting disclosure.” Id. (internal quotation marks omitted).

2. The First Amendment Test

Even where the common law right of access is found to be inapplicable, the First Amendment may still require disclosure of judicial documents. The First Amendment right of access is “stronger than its common law ancestor and counterpart.” United States v. Erie Cnty., 763 F.3d 235, 239 (2d Cir. 2014). In deciding First Amendment access claims, the Second Circuit considers “(a) whether the documents have historically been open to the press and general public (experience) and (b) whether public access plays a significant positive role in the functioning of the particular process in question (logic).” Id. (internal quotation marks omitted). “Once a First Amendment right of access to judicial documents is found, the documents may be sealed only if specific, on the record findings are made demonstrating that closure is essential to preserve higher values and is narrowly tailored to serve that interest.” Id. (internal quotation marks and alteration omitted).

B. The Requested Documents Are Judicial Documents

For a document to appropriately be deemed a “judicial document,” “[i]t is sufficient that the document was submitted to the Court for purposes of seeking or opposing an adjudication.” United States v. Sattar, 471 F. Supp. 2d 380, 385 (S.D.N.Y. 2006). Here, the Emails and the Reply Brief have been submitted to the Court in connection with Ms. Churcher’s efforts to quash her deposition subpoena and Defendant’s opposition to those efforts, while the Manuscript was submitted to the Court in connection with a motion to extend the deposition discovery deadline. Accordingly, all qualify as “judicial documents.”

Courts in this district<sup>3</sup> have repeatedly held that documents submitted in support of or opposition to a discovery motion are judicial documents. See, e.g., Alexander Interactive, Inc. v. Adorama, Inc., No. 12 Civ. 6608, 2014 WL 4346174, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 2, 2014) (“Here, the documents to be submitted are in support of a motion to compel discovery and presumably will be necessary to or helpful in resolving that motion. They are, therefore, judicial documents.”); Dandong v. Pinnacle Performance Ltd., No. 10 Civ. 8086, 2012 WL 6217646, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 3, 2012) (applying presumption of public access to papers filed in connection with a motion for reconsideration of a discovery order); Gucci Am., Inc. v. Guess?, Inc., No. 09 Civ. 4373, 2010 WL 1416896, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 8, 2010) (holding that “declarations and a memorandum of law” seeking to limit discovery “clearly constitute ‘judicial documents’”); In re Omnicom Grp., Inc. Secs. Litig., No. 02 Civ. 4483, 2006 WL 3016311, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 23, 2006) (holding that letter briefs and attached exhibits submitted to the court in connection with a privilege dispute were “submitted in this case to request the court to exercise its adjudicative powers in favor of the parties’ respective views of a discovery dispute” and therefore were judicial documents); Schiller, 2006 WL 2788256, at *5 (holding that briefs and supporting papers submitted in connection with a dispute over the confidentiality of discovery materials were “created by or at the behest of counsel and presented to a court in order to sway a judicial decision” and were therefore “judicial documents that trigger the presumption of public access”); S.E.C. v. Oakford Corp., No. 00 Civ. 2426, 2001 WL 266996, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 16, 2001) (applying presumption of access to judicial documents to motion papers filed in connection with a discovery dispute); see also In re Gushlak, No. 11-MC-0218, 2012 WL 3683514, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. July 27, 2012) (holding that documents filed in support of and opposition to a motion for discovery assistance, including motions to quash, were judicial documents). The Requested Documents were submitted to the Court to influence its adjudication of the motion to quash and the motion to extend the deposition deadline, and they are therefore judicial documents.

<sup>3</sup> Some federal Courts of Appeals have suggested that the presumption of access does not apply to documents filed in connection with discovery motions. See, e.g., Chi. Tribune Co. v. Bridgestone/Firestone, Inc., 263 F.3d 1304, 1312-13 (11th Cir. 2001); Leucadia, Inc. v. Applied Extrusion Techs., Inc., 998 F.2d 157, 165 (3d Cir. 1993); Anderson v. Cryovac, Inc., 805 F.2d 1, 11 (1st Cir. 1986). But the Second Circuit has never adopted such a rule, and the weight of district court authority in the Southern District of New York rejects this approach.

C. The Common Law Right of Access Applies to the Requested Documents

1. The Weight of the Presumption of Access Is Strong

Treating materials submitted in connection with a discovery motion as judicial documents that the public may presumptively access gives effect to the purposes of the common law right, which is to facilitate public monitoring of the exercise of judicial power. “Monitoring both provides judges with critical views of their work and deters arbitrary judicial behavior.”

Amodeo II, 71 F.3d at 1048.

The motion in connection with which the Emails and the Reply Brief were submitted concerns whether the Court should overrule a claim of privilege and compel testimony on pain of contempt. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(g) (providing that the court “may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey [a] subpoena or an order related to it”). Compelling testimony is a quintessential exercise of coercive judicial power that the public is entitled to monitor. See United States v. Bryan, 339 U.S. 323, 331-32 (1950) (elaborating the importance of balancing “the great power of testimonial compulsion” against exemptions “grounded in a substantial individual interest which has been found, through centuries of experience, to outweigh the public interest in the search for truth”). Just as disclosure of pretrial suppression proceedings in criminal cases “enhances the basic fairness of the judicial process and the appearance of fairness that is essential to public confidence in the system,” In re N.Y. Times Co., 828 F.2d 110, 114 (2d Cir. 1987), affording access to proceedings concerning the permissibility of civil discovery provides an important check on the exercise of Article III power.

Likewise, the Court should afford a strong presumption of access to the Manuscript, which was submitted as part of Defendant’s opposition to a request to extend a discovery deadline. The Second Circuit has recognized that a district court’s decisions concerning the scope and timing of discovery may “affect a party’s substantial rights.” Long Island Lighting Co. v. Barbash, 779 F.2d 793, 795 (2d Cir. 1985). As one court has aptly explained:

The discovery process is clearly an important element of civil litigation. The manner in which it proceeds may prove decisive to the outcome of particular disputes, and the availability of mandatory discovery has greatly affected the way in which our courts do justice. Moreover, discovery procedures have become a continuing focus of controversy and reform within the judiciary and the legal community. This debate has arisen precisely because discovery is so important in trial practice. If we take as our standard that the public’s right of access attaches to decisions ‘of major importance to the administration of justice, then discovery motions and hearings fall within the ambit of this right.

Mokhiber v. Davis, 537 A.2d 1100, 1112 (D.C. Ct. App. 1988) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). Courts in this district have repeatedly recognized that filings submitted in connection with a motion to alter the pace or schedule of litigation are subject to public access. See, e.g., Lenart v. Coach Inc., 131 F. Supp. 3d 61, 72 (S.D.N.Y. 2015) (applying presumption of public access to “papers filed in connection with [a] motion to stay”); Skyline Steel, LLC v. PilePro, LLC, No. 13 Civ. 8171, 2015 WL 556545, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 2015) (same).

“While adjudication of the ultimate merits of the case arguably triggers the highest degree of protection against sealing, this does not imply that motion papers addressed to a discovery dispute do not trigger the public-access presumption.” In re Omnicom Grp., 2006 WL 3016311, at *4. Because the Requested Documents were submitted by the parties in connection with discovery motions to be adjudicated by the Court, “those documents are entitled to the strongest presumption of public access.” In re Gushlak, 2012 WL 3683514, at *4.

2. There Are No Countervailing Interests That Outweigh the Right of Access

The limited unsealing Professor Dershowitz seeks threatens none of the harms courts have recognized as sufficient to outweigh the right of access to judicial documents. As an initial matter, Professor Dershowitz seeks to reveal unflattering (and false) statements about himself. Thus, the general rule “that the common law right of access is qualified by recognition of the privacy rights of the persons whose intimate relations may thereby be disclosed,” In re Newsday, Inc., 895 F.2d 74, 79 (2d Cir. 1990), has no application. Nor does Ms. Giuffre possess any claim to privacy concerning the information Professor Dershowitz seeks to unseal. The Requested Documents discuss her allegations against a number of public figures, and relate to the preparation of a book manuscript with the goal of international publication and distribution.

Nothing could be less private. Indeed, both Ms. Giuffre’s relationship with Ms. Churcher and the nature of her allegations against Professor Dershowitz have been the subject of publicly available court filings in this and other actions and of numerous media stories. Dershowitz Decl. ¶¶ 15-20, 26-27; Ex. K. Any claim to confidentiality has been waived. See infra Part III.

In short, the Requested Documents contain none of the kinds of information that give courts pause in granting public access to judicial documents. “The information at issue . . . does not involve the type of medical, health-related, family, or personal financial matter to which courts grant the greatest protection.” United States v. Martoma, No. S1 12 Cr. 973, 2014 WL 164181, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 9, 2014). It involves only contemporaneous evidence of a scheme to cook up false and defamatory allegations against Professor Dershowitz. He is entitled to access and use that evidence to defend himself.

D. The First Amendment Guarantees Access to the Requested Documents

Even if the common law did not compel the conclusion that the Requested Documents must be made public, the First Amendment would supply an alternative basis for their disclosure. The First Amendment presumption of access to judicial documents applies when “experience and logic” indicate that “the documents have historically been open to the press and general public,” and that “public access plays a significant positive role in the functioning of the particular process in question.” Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 120 (internal quotation marks omitted).

With respect to the experience prong, the Second Circuit has held that “the notion of public access to judicial documents is a capacious one: the courts of this country have long recognized a general right to inspect and copy public records and documents, including judicial records and documents,” in order to facilitate public monitoring. Erie Cnty., 763 F.3d at 241 (internal quotation marks omitted). Discovery motions and the documents supporting them are routinely filed in courts across the country without sealing and with the understanding that such documents are publicly accessible. And while the relatively recent history of modern civil discovery practice means there is no ancient common-law analogue to the contemporary discovery motion, “[t]his absence, of course, is not surprising, for compelled discovery is a child of the first Federal Rules of Civil Procedure adopted in 1938.” Mokhiber, 537 A.2d at 1111. “It would make little sense to shut off access for what is, practically speaking, a new kind of judicial process just because that particular procedure did not exist at common law. Instead, the public should enjoy the right to view new kinds of proceedings when they are like traditional ones in this significant respect: that access will serve the same values and policies which underlie” the public right of access. Id. at 1112.

As to the logic prong of the Second Circuit’s test, it is clear that public monitoring has an important role to play here. Ms. Giuffre’s allegations against Professor Dershowitz have been the subject of significant public interest and have been discussed at length in an array of international news stories. Indeed, in the CVRA Action, Ms. Giuffre’s own counsel cited “strong current media interest in the case” to oppose sealing the pleadings, pointing to Ms. Churcher’s stories among others as examples. Doe v. United States, No. 08 Civ. 80736 (S.D. Fla.), ECF No. 51, at 7. “The issues involved are manifestly ones of public concern and therefore ones which the public has an interest in overseeing.” Erie Cnty., 763 F.3d at 242.

Because experience and logic dictate that the First Amendment right of access applies to the Requested Documents, their continued sealing would only be permissible on the basis of “specific, on-the-record findings that higher values necessitate a narrowly tailored sealing.” Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 126. Here, no such findings have ever been made; indeed, the Court has granted boilerplate sealing applications with no findings or judicial scrutiny whatsoever. See, e.g., ECF No. 254. There would be no basis to find that continuing secrecy is warranted, let alone “essential to preserve higher values.”

III. ALTERNATIVELY, THE PROTECTIVE ORDER SHOULD BE MODIFIED TO PERMIT DISCLOSURE OF THE REQUESTED DOCUMENTS

Even where discovery materials are found not to be judicial documents, that does not automatically entitle them to confidential treatment. See Vazquez v. City of N.Y., No. 10 Civ. 6277, 2014 WL 11510954, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2014). Here, although Professor Dershowitz is in rightful possession of the Requested Documents, he is prohibited from disseminating them by the parties' stipulated, blanket Protective Order. See Dershowitz Decl. Ex. L. That order permits the parties to designate documents as confidential without particularized judicial scrutiny, which is how the Requested Documents became subject to a protective order in the first instance. Because there is no basis for judicial protection of the Requested Documents, the Protective Order should be modified to permit its disclosure.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) permits issuance of a protective order only upon "good cause shown," and requires that such orders issue only "to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense." "[I]f good cause is not shown, the discovery materials in question should not receive judicial protection and therefore would be open to the public for inspection." Gambale v. Deutsche Bank AG, 377 F.3d 133, 142 (2d Cir. 2004) (internal quotation marks omitted). A protective order requires "particular and specific demonstration of fact as distinguished from stereotyped and conclusory statements" showing the harm that would result from disclosure. Louissier v. Universal Music Grp., Inc., 214 F.R.D. 174, 177 (S.D.N.Y. 2003).

The Second Circuit's general rule that a protective order should not be modified "absent a showing of improvidence in the grant of the order or some extraordinary circumstance or compelling need," S.E.C. v. TheStreet.com, 273 F.3d 222, 229 (2d Cir. 2001), applies only when the parties have reasonably relied on the protective order in producing discovery. That is not the case here, where the protective order is a sweeping and generic stipulation permitting the parties, and not the Court, to set the standards for access. “A blanket protective order is more likely to be subject to modification than a more specific, targeted order because it is more difficult to show a party reasonably relied on a blanket order in producing documents or submitting to a deposition.” In re EPDM Antitrust Litig., 255 F.R.D. 308, 319 (D. Conn. 2009).

“An examination of Second Circuit case law reveals the following factors are relevant when determining whether a party has reasonably relied on the protective order[:] (1) the scope of the protective order; (2) the language of the order itself; (3) the level of inquiry the court undertook before granting the order; and (4) the nature of reliance on the order.” In re September 11 Litig., 262 F.R.D. 274, 277 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (internal quotation marks omitted). Here, all four factors weigh against a finding of reasonable reliance. First, the Protective Order contains “expansive language granting the parties broad latitude to self-designate materials” as confidential, making it unreasonable for any party to rely on the prospect of indefinite and ironclad confidentiality protections in producing discovery. See EPDM, 255 F.R.D. at 320. Second, the Protective Order allows challenges to confidentiality designations, see Dershowitz Decl., Ex. L ¶ 11, and permits the Court to modify the order “at any time” for good cause, id. ¶ 14. “Given this provision, it is difficult to see how the [parties] can reasonably argue that they produced documents in reliance on the fact that the documents would always be kept secret.” Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 126.

Third, “[t]he level of inquiry undertaken before the Order was entered also weighs in favor of modification because the Court ‘so ordered’ the parties’ stipulation without having cause to determine whether all the documents covered actually warranted protection.” Tradewinds Airlines, Inc. v. Soros, No. 08 Civ. 5901, 2016 WL 3951181, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. July 20, 2016). While this practice can be salutary to the extent it preserves judicial resources and promotes efficiency in complex civil discovery, it strongly weakens the parties' claim to a reasonable expectation that every document marked confidential will remain subject to a Rule 26(c) order indefinitely. See EPDM, 255 F.R.D. at 319. "Finally, the nature of the reliance on the Order weighs in favor of modification because there is no indication that the [parties] relied on the Order to produce documents they would not have otherwise disclosed." Tradewinds Airlines, 2016 WL 3951181, at *2. Indeed, Ms. Giuffre could not reasonably have believed that she could avoid disclosing her own descriptions of, and communications about, the very subject matter of this lawsuit, which she commenced. See Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 125.

Even if the parties' reliance on the Protective Order could be deemed reasonable, which it cannot, Professor Dershowitz would handily satisfy TheStreet.com's requirement of a compelling need or extraordinary circumstance. First, as one Court in this district explained recently, "courts within this circuit have found there to be a 'compelling need' or 'extraordinary circumstance' warranting modification where a blanket protective order is entered without a showing of good cause." Tradewinds Airlines, 2016 WL 3951181, at *2 (collecting authorities). More importantly, under the circumstances, Professor Dershowitz's need for the Requested Documents is undeniable. They strongly corroborate his denials of the sexual abuse allegations Ms. Giuffre belatedly levied against him, which were themselves first presented in documents filed publicly on a federal court docket. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 43. Professor Dershowitz has a compelling need to use all available evidence to defend himself against Ms. Giuffre's allegations, which have persisted despite a thorough investigation exonerating him and continue to be republished in the media. Dershowitz Decl. ¶¶ 16, 18, 45. Professor Dershowitz will also use the Requested Documents to defend against a sanctions motion that is pending in a state court in Florida, providing an independent basis to modify the Protective Order. See id. ¶ 46.

In contrast, there is no basis for a finding of good cause to protect the content of the Requested Documents, all of which concern Ms. Giuffre’s own allegations. She cannot credibly claim that disclosure will cause her “annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense,” see Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Indeed, Ms. Giuffre has waived any claimed to confidentiality. She has publicly filed her accusations of sexual misconduct against an array of individuals, including Professor Dershowitz, in at least two lawsuits besides this one. Dershowitz Decl. ¶¶ 10-12, 15-20. She has sold her story to the media and sat for extensive interviews with Ms. Churcher and other reporters about the very same allegations that are the subject of the Requested Documents. Id. ¶¶ 13, 26-27. She even “agreed to waive her anonymity” in order to disseminate her story publicly. Sharon Churcher, Exclusive: Girl at Center of Underage Sex Procurement Case That Scandalised America Describes How She Was Introduced to the Prince, MAIL ON SUNDAY, Feb. 27, 2011. More recently, Ms. Giuffre sat for an interview with ABC News, hoping to increase public interest in her allegations. Dershowitz Decl. ¶ 27. Although the interview has not yet aired, it could be broadcast at any time, likely repeating once again the same allegations for which Ms. Giuffre has claimed confidentiality in the context of litigation discovery. See id. And her lawyers have continued to give interviews insinuating Professor Dershowitz’s guilt even after reaching a settlement with him and agreeing to release a public statement withdrawing their own public filing of the accusations against him. See Dershowitz Decl., Ex. H.

In short, disseminating the information contained in the Requested Documents, which she has designated “confidential” in the context of this lawsuit, has been Ms. Giuffre’s life’s work for years. Having made every effort to publicize these allegations for personal and commercial gain, Ms. Giuffre should not be permitted now to make an abrupt about-face and claim that they are entitled to this Court’s protection from public dissemination.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Professor Dershowitz respectfully requests that the Court grant his motion for permissive intervention and unseal the Requested Documents, or in the alternative modify the Protective Order to permit their dissemination.

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF’S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO ENFORCE THE COURT’S ORDER AND DIRECT DEFENDANT TO ANSWER DEPOSITION QUESTIONS

Plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, files this Reply in Support of her Motion to Enforce the Court’s Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions. Defendant argued that Mr. Boies’ questions were outside this Court’s Order. That is simply untrue. Defendant refused to answer questions that go to heart of the type of questions this Court specifically ordered Defendant to answer: they could not be more on-point.

None of Defendant’s arguments change the language of this Court’s Order. None of Defendant’s arguments change the questions Defendant refused to answer. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre’s motion should be granted.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendant begins her brief with snippets of her self-serving testimony. As the Court is aware, all of this testimony is directly contradicted by the myriad of other witnesses in this case who have testified at deposition, including Defendant’s own witness, Tony Figueroa. Defendant has claimed in her deposition that she did not procure girls for sex with Epstein nor notice the hundreds of young girls who came and went from the home she shared with Epstein. Her testimony is directly refuted by multiple witnesses.

Tony Figueroa, Defendant's own witness, testified that Defendant called him directly, asking him to bring girls over, that he did bring girls under the age of 18 over, and that he knew about Defendant's threesomes with Ms. Giuffre and Epstein.<sup>1</sup>

Johanna Sjoberg testified that Defendant recruited her for sex with Epstein under the guise of answering phones. That phone job lasted one day, because her second day Defendant asked her to start giving massages, and it soon made it clear that Sjoberg's purpose was to bring Epstein to orgasm so Defendant didn't have to all of the time.<sup>2</sup>

Chillingly, Rinaldo Rizzo, Defendant's friend's house manager, through tears, described how Defendant tried to force a 15 year old Swedish girl to have sex with Epstein through threats and stealing her passport.<sup>3</sup>

Juan Alessi, Epstein's house manager, testified that Defendant was one of the people who procured the over 100 girls he witnessed visit Epstein, and that he had to clean Defendant's sex toys.<sup>4</sup>

Lynn Miller testified that Defendant became Ms. Giuffre's "new momma,"<sup>5</sup> though Defendant claims that she would not even remember Ms. Giuffre were it not for these proceedings (apparently, also forgetting the 23 flights she shared with Ms. Giuffre on Epstein's private jet,<sup>6</sup> known colloquially as the "Lolita Express"<sup>7</sup>).

Vol. 1 at 96-97 and 103 (Figueroa testified that Plaintiff told him about threesomes with Defendant and Epstein which included the use of strap-ons); and Vol. 2 at 200 (Figueroa testified that Defendant called him inquiring if he had found any other girls for Epstein).

Police Detective Joseph Recarey, who led the investigation of Epstein, testified that Defendant procured underage girls for Epstein.<sup>8</sup> Indeed, on the morning that Recarey executed the search warrant on Epstein's Palm Beach Property, Defendant, herself, called Epstein's housekeeper Louella Rabuyo, and told her not to come over to their house that day until the afternoon.<sup>9</sup>

And though Defendant refused to admit that she flew with Ms. Giuffre,<sup>10</sup> Epstein's pilot, Dave Rodgers, testified that the passenger listed on his flight log bearing the initials – GM – was in fact Ghislaine Maxwell and Rodgers was the pilot on at least 23 of the flights in which Defendant flew with Plaintiff.<sup>11</sup>

Both Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcinkova invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked about Defendant trafficking girls<sup>12</sup> in a previous action, and both failed to show up for their depositions in this case.

Also in a previous action, Alfredo Rodriguez, another house manager, testified that Defendant “knew what was going on” with the underage girls, and threatened him about telling others.<sup>13</sup>

Tellingly, Defendant has not been able to procure a single witness - not one - who can testify that Defendant did not procure girls for sex with Epstein and did not participate in the sex. Even one of her own witnesses, Tony Figueroa, testified that she both procured girls and participated in the sex. Indeed, those who knew her well, who spent considerable time in her and Epstein’s shared household, have testified that she was Epstein’s procuress.

With every deposition taken, the chorus of voices accusing Defendant of being a procurer of girls for Epstein grows louder and stronger, corroborating Ms. Giuffre’s account, and proving that Defendant defamed her when she called her a liar.<sup>14</sup>

In her Response brief, Defendant puts forth the number of questions posed to her in her deposition; however, the important number is omitted: how many questions she actually answered. What Defendant fails to tell the Court is how many questions - and how much deposition time - was taken up by Defendant engaging in improper behavior. Defendant spent much of her time refusing to answer basic questions so that they had to be repeated multiple times. She also spent much of her time feigning incomprehension of simple sentences and common words, also causing the same question to be posed to her multiple times. For example, defendant pretended not to understand the question, “Do you believe that Epstein abused minors?,” causing it to be repeated multiple times.

Q. . . . do you believe that Jeffrey Epstein abused any minor children?
 A. Can you repeat the question please and break it down so it's more understandable.
 Q. Now that you have the police report that I showed you this morning that you had an opportunity to look at.
 A. You gave it to me, I did not look at it.
 Q. The questions that I asked you about the police report -- you are aware there is a police report?
 A. I am aware there is a police report.
 Q. You are aware there was a criminal investigation of Jeffrey Epstein?
 A. I am aware that there was that.
 Q. Now that you are aware of those two things and having talked to Jeffrey Epstein, do you believe Jeffrey Epstein sexually abused minors?
 A. Can you reask the second part of that question please.
 Q. Sure. The two documents we were talking about, the document and the investigation, you said you are aware of and after having talked to Jeffrey Epstein, do you believe Jeffrey Epstein sexually abused minors?
 A. What do you mean I talked to Jeffrey, you need to break the question down further.

***

Q. Let's take those two things. After knowing those two things, do you believe that Jeffrey Epstein abused minor children?
 A. Can you explain what you mean by the question actually.
 Q. I think the question speaks for itself. I will try again. I will say it one more time because I want you to be able to understand it. Knowing that you have the police report here and knowing about the criminal investigation, do you believe that Jeffrey Epstein sexually abused minors?

This sequence goes on and on. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre had to ask Defendant whether she believed Epstein abused minors fourteen more times after this exchange.<sup>15</sup> Still, Defendant never answered the question. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, Maxwell’s April 22, 2016 Dep.

<sup>15</sup> See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, Maxwell’s April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 170, 171, 173 (twice), 174 (twice), 175 (twice), 176 (twice), 178, 182 (twice), and 183. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre had to repeat other questions when Defendant did not answer them (e.g., asking about Defendant’s knowledge of abuse of minors in Epstein’s home, See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 1, Maxwell’s April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 90, 168-169).

Tr. at 168:18 - 181:24. It appears that Defendant's misleading tally of questions posed to her includes all the times questions were repeated or needlessly re-worded due to her obstructionist deposition tactics.

Indeed, Defendant, who claimed her professional role with Epstein was to pay the pool guy,<sup>16</sup> has a master's degree from Oxford University's Balliol College. Yet, throughout the deposition, she feigned incomprehension of basic questions, and even of basic words. Defendant pretended she did not know what a "puppet" is. See McCawley Decl at Exhibit 1, Maxwell's April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 287-290. Other examples of Defendant's feigned incomprehension of basic questions to avoid answering questions can be found attached at Exhibit 1, Maxwell's April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 8:23-9:18 (pretending she did not know what a "female" is); 51:13 - 54:14 (pretending she didn't understand what "sexual acts" were); 69:25-71:16 (pretending she doesn't know what "sex toys" are); 87:8-91:3 (pretending that the dozens of police reports made by underage girls abused by Epstein were all "lies").

Defendant also repeatedly asked for simple questions to be rephrased, pretending that she did not understand. Specifically, she requested that questions be repeated or re-asked at least twenty-eight times. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, Maxwell's April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 9, 13, 22, 26, 39, 50, 85, 93, 97, 98, 105, 121, 168-169, 187, 189, 201, 221 (two times), 239, 241, 257, 267, 278-279, 287, 289, 291, 336, and 377. Sometimes changing tact, she also asked for the questions to be broken down/apart. See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 1, Maxwell's April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 26, 93-94, 168-169, 170. Defendant is correct that there was much repetition in her deposition: many questions were asked multiple times when Defendant did not provide an answer, and many were asked multiple times at Defendant's own request.

Defendant complains in her brief about the length of time she was deposed. That, too, was her own-doing. Her deposition would have been much shorter (and the second one avoided entirely) if she answered the questions posed to her the first time. Indeed, she was playing games, giving non-answers, and feigning incomprehension. It was Defendant's refusal to answer questions that caused this Court to order her to sit for a second deposition. That could have been avoided by simply answering the questions the first time. Defendant's behavior not only wasted everyone's time, but revealed that she could provide no answer to those questions that could aid in her defense.

Moreover, Defendant put forth a detailed chart to show that certain questions were "duplicative or redundant," but, tellingly, did not include Defendant's responses in the chart. The reason is clear: Defendant's non-communicative "non-answers" from her first deposition necessitated their repetition.

II. DISCUSSION

The Court's Order was clear. Among other things, the Court ordered Defendant to answer questions related to her knowledge of the sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein.

Defendant is ordered to answer questions relating to Defendant's own sexual activity (a) with or involving Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein"), (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed or intended might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be, or believed might become, known to Epstein. Defendant is also directed to answer questions relating to her knowledge of sexual activities of others (a) with or involving Epstein, (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed were known or might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein. (FN. Each of the aforementioned lists are disjunctive.) The scope of Defendant's answers are not bound by time period, though Defendant need not answer questions that relate to none of these subjects or that is clearly not relevant, such as sexual activity of third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to the key events, individuals, or locations of this case.

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2, June 20, 2016 Sealed Order at p. 10 (Emphasis added).

As articulated in the moving brief, Defendant refused to answer four categories of questions that were directly within the ambit of this Court's Order.

First, Defendant refused to answer many questions about Johanna Sjoberg, who was recruited by Defendant, and subsequently abused by and had sex with Jeffrey Epstein. Questions relating to her involvement with Epstein and Defendant are directly within the ambit of the Court's Order. The Court should direct the Defendant to answer questions relating to Johanna Sjoberg because they are "questions relating to [Defendant's] knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein."

Second, Defendant refused to answers concerning Maria and Annie Farmer. Defendant was involved in Epstein's sexual abuse, and grooming for sexual abuse, of Maria Farmer and Annie Farmer, respectively. Notably, Annie Farmer was only 16 years old at the time: a familiar yet still disturbing theme running through Defendant and Epstein's lifestyle. Therefore, questions relating to Defendant's involvement with, knowledge of, and observations of both Annie and Maria Farmer are within the ambit of this Court's Order because they are "questions relating to [Defendant's] knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein."

Third, Defendant refused to answer questions regarding girls brought to "massage" Epstein by Tony Figueroa. Questions regarding the girls who Defendant asked Mr. Figueroa to bring to the house to "massage" Epstein are also directly within the ambit of this Court's Order.

Fourth, and related to the third topic, questions about Maxwell's knowledge of, and interactions with, any of the girls who came over to "massage" Epstein are all within the ambit of the Court's Order. Questions concerning Defendant's knowledge of and involvement with these girls are (1) "questions relating to [Defendant's] knowledge of sexual activities of others with or involving Epstein;” (2) “questions relating to [Defendant’s] knowledge of sexual activities of others . . . with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed were known or might become known to Epstein;” (3) “questions relating to [Defendant’s] knowledge of sexual activities of others . . . involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein.”

Defendant also refused to answer foundational questions that are necessary precedent to the question authorized by this Court. The Court should direct Defendant to answer those questions, and all related questions that arise out of any response Defendant provides within the parameters of the Court’s June 20, 2016 Sealed Order.

As recounted more fully in the moving brief, the questions Defendant refused to answer fall squarely within this Court’s earlier order. Defendant can have no legitimate basis for obstructing the search for truth by refusing to answer. The Court should, again, compel Defendant to answer all these questions.

Defendant claims that “[i]t is difficult to discern precisely what questions Plaintiff is complaining about in her Motion because of her generalized and non-specific complaints.” Br. at 9. To the contrary, Ms. Giuffre set forth excerpts from the deposition transcript showing exactly what questions Defendant refused to answer. To wit, Defendant failed to answer “So is it fair to say that Johanna was initially hired to answer telephones, according to your testimony?” (Plaintiff’s Brief at 4); “So, how did it happen, Ms. Maxwell, that Joanna, who had been hired to answer the phones, ended up giving massages to you and Mr. Epstein?” (Id.); “Did Mr. Epstein pay Johanna for the massages that she gave Mr. Epstein?” (Plaintiff’s Brief at 6); and “Do you know whether or not Maria Farmer was ever at Mr. Wexner’s property in Ohio?” (Plaintiff’s Brief at 7). The brief also set for the instance wherein Mr. Pagliuca instructed the Defendant not to answer any more questions with respect to whether she knows certain girls who came over to Epstein's home to massage him, "Q. Have you ever heard the name Carolyn Andriamo, A-N-D-R-I-A-M-O? A. I don't recollect that name at all. MR. PAGLIUCA: those names are on Exhibit 26, which we have already gone over and she said she didn't recognize those people, so now we are just repeating things that we went over. MR. BOIES: I am in the context of seeing if I can refresh her recollection, because these are women that Mr. Figueroa, who she also does not recall, brought over to Mr. Epstein's residences, and I also want to make a very clear record of what her testimony is and is not right now." (Plaintiff's Brief at 8-9). See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 3, Excerpts from Maxwell July 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 154-156.

Defendant cannot make a credible argument that these questions, or their subject matter, are outside the scope of the Court's Order. All of them relate to Defendant's knowledge of individuals who "massaged" Jeffrey Epstein (Johanna Sjoberg), who were brought to their house to "massage" Jeffrey Epstein (Carolyn Andriamo and myriad other girls who Figueroa brought at Defendant's behest); and who were massaged by Defendant herself (Annie Farmer at 16 and Maria Farmer). Mr. Boies' unanswered questions are all directly within the ambit of this Court's Order. Again, Defendant's arguments do not change the language of this Court's Order; nor do they change the questions Defendant refused to answer. Defendant must answer these questions.

III. CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that this Court grant her Motion, and direct the Defendant to answer the disposition questions Mr. Boies posed to her.

I. Prior Proceedings

Familiarity with the prior proceedings and facts of this case as discussed in the Court's prior opinions is assumed. See Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS), 2016 WL 831949 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 29, 2016); Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS) (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2016).

Plaintiff filed her motion for clarification of the Court's March 17, 2016 Order and for forensic examination on April 13, 2016. By Order dated April 15, 2016, the motion for clarification was denied on the basis that further clarification was unnecessary. Oral argument was held with respect to forensic examination on May 12, 2016, at which time the matter was deemed fully submitted.

Defendant filed her motion to compel Plaintiff to disclose ongoing criminal investigations by law enforcement, or in the alternative to stay proceedings, on April 18, 2016. Oral argument was heard and the motion granted in part and denied in part on April 21, 2016. Plaintiff was directed to submit the relevant materials for in camera review. Plaintiff did so on April 28, 2016.

Defendant filed her motion to compel non-privileged documents on May 20, 2016. By Order dated May 23, 2016, the motion was set for argument on June 2, 2016. The motion was taken on submission on that date. Defendant filed a reply on June 6, 2016.

Defendant filed her motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product on May 26, 2016. By Order dated May 27, 2016, the motion was set for argument on June 2, 2016. The motion was taken on submission on that date. Defendant filed a reply on June 6, 2016.

Plaintiff filed her motion to exceed the presumptive ten deposition limit on May 27, 2016. By Order dated June 6, 2016, the motion was set returnable on June 16, 2016, at which time the motion was deemed fully submitted.

Plaintiff filed her motion for leave to file excess pages on June 1, 2016.

II. Applicable Standards

Rule 26 "create[s] many options for the district judge . . . [to] manage the discovery process to facilitate prompt and efficient resolution of the lawsuit." Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 599, 118 S. Ct. 1584, 1597, 140 L. Ed. 2d 759 (1998). It "vests the trial judge with broad discretion to tailor discovery narrowly and to dictate the sequence of discovery." Crawford-El v. Britton, 523 U.S. 574, 598, 118 S.

Ct. 1584, 1597, 140 L. Ed. 2d 759 (1998). The District Court may expand or limit the permitted number and time limits of depositions, direct "the time, place, and manner of discovery, or even bar discovery on certain subjects," and may "set the timing and sequence of discovery." Id. at 598-99; Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(A).

Consequently, the Court has wide discretion in deciding motions to compel. See Grand Cent. P'ship. Inc. v. Cuomo, 166 F.3d 473, 488 (2d Cir.1999). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 states:

Parties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense—including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons who know of any discoverable matter. For good cause, the court may order discovery of any matter relevant to the subject matter involved in the action.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. If a party objects to discovery requests, that party bears the burden of showing why discovery should be denied. Freydl v. Meringolo, 09 Civ. 07196(BSJ)(KNF), 2011 WL 256608-7, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2011).

III. The Motion For an Order of Forensic Examination Is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f)(3)(C) requires the parties to state their views and proposals as to preservation of electronically stored information ("ESI") and the form of production of ESI. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(3)(C). Defendant having admitted to deletion practices that indicate relevant documents and also refused to detail document search methods, good cause exists to warrant court supervised examination of her electronic devices. Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion is granted in part.

Defendant is ordered to collect all ESI by imaging her computers and collecting all email and text messages on any devices in Defendant's possession or to which she has access that Defendant used between the period of 2002 to present. Defendant is further directed to run mutually-agreed upon search terms related to Plaintiff's requests for production over the aforementioned ESI and produce responsive documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

IV. The Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Disclose Ongoing Criminal Investigations is Denied

The public interest privilege "exists to encourage witnesses to come forward and provide information in criminal investigations carried out by . . . [law enforcement] without fear that the information will be disclosed." Sanchez by Sanchez v. City of New York, 201 A.D.2d 325, 326, 607 N.Y.S.2d 321 (1994). A party seeking disclosure of such information "first must demonstrate a compelling and particularized need for access" beyond "[g]eneral and conclusory allegations." Id. The Court then weighs application of the qualified privilege by balancing the need for production against the potential harm to the public from disclosure. Id.

After review of the materials in camera, the qualified public interest privilege as set forth in Sanchez has been established with respect to the submitted documents. Defendant has articulated no need for the documents. Accordingly, the balance weighs in favor of the privilege, and the motion to compel is denied. To preserve the record, Plaintiff is directed to file under seal a comprehensive copy of the log and documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

V. The Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions is Granted

Plaintiff seeks to compel Defendant to answer questions regarding her knowledge of adult sexual activity, which defense counsel instructed Defendant not to answer during her deposition.

"Where a party objects to a discovery request, the objecting party bears the burden of demonstrating specifically how, despite the broad and liberal construction afforded the federal discovery rules, each request is not relevant or how each question is overly broad, burdensome or oppressive by submitting affidavits or offering evidence revealing the nature of the burden." John Wiley & Sons, Inc. v. Book Dog Books, LLC, 298 F.R.D. 184, 186 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) (citations, internal quotation marks and brackets omitted).

Defendant has submitted that she has not put her private affairs at issue, and that such questions are highly intrusive. Notwithstanding, the questions are directed to reveal relevant answers regarding Defendant's knowledge of Plaintiff's allegations. That knowledge goes directly to the truth or falsity of the alleged defamation, a key element of Plaintiff's claim.

Furthermore, privacy concerns are alleviated by the protective order in this case, drafted by Defendant.

Defendant is ordered to answer questions relating to Defendant's own sexual activity (a) with or involving Jeffrey Epstein ("Epstein"), (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed or intended might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be, or believed might become, known to Epstein. Defendant is also directed to answer questions relating to her knowledge of sexual activities of others (a) with or involving Epstein, (b) with or involving Plaintiff, (c) with or involving underage females known to Epstein or who Defendant believed were known or might become known to Epstein, or (d) involving or including massage with individuals Defendant knew to be or believed might become known to Epstein.<sup>1</sup> The scope of Defendant's answers are not bound by time period, though Defendant need not answer questions that relate to none of these subjects or that is clearly not relevant, such as sexual activity of third-parties who bear no knowledge or relation to the key events, individuals, or locations of this case.

VI. The Motion to Compel Non-Privileged Documents is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Defendant has sought to compel the following documents: (1) attorney-client communications regarding media advice; (2) pre-existing documents transmitted to counsel; (3) documents shared with or communicated to unidentified third parties; (4) documents primarily for the purpose of providing business advice; (5) documents subject to an unidentified common interest or joint defense protection.

Plaintiff has represented that all responsive "attachments" Defendant seeks to compel have been produced. Accordingly, this request is denied.

Defendant seeks to compel attorney-client communications that include "third parties" on the basis that Plaintiff's privilege log is deficient for identifying individuals as "professionals retained by attorneys to aid in the rendition of legal advice." A review of Plaintiff's privilege log shows Plaintiff has expressly claimed privilege, described the nature of the withheld documents, communications, and tangible things not produced, and generally logged communications in compliance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A)(ii). "Unless the client waives privilege, an attorney or his or her employee, or any person who obtains without the knowledge of the client evidence of a confidential communication made between the attorney or his or her employee and the client in the course of professional employment, shall not disclose, or be allowed to disclose such communication, nor shall the client be compelled to disclose such communication." N.Y. C.P.L.R. 4503 (McKinney) (emphasis added). The conduct explicitly described by statute as privileged does not operate as waiver, and again Defendant has provided no factual basis to suggest Plaintiff has misrepresented the identity or role of the third-parties listed. Defendant's request is denied.

Defendant's challenge to the common interest privilege claims is likewise unavailing. Regardless of whether Plaintiff has reflexively claimed the common interest privilege in each entry does not vitiate the otherwise applicable privilege claims made, and Defendant has provided no factual foundation to establish waiver or failure of the other claimed privileges.

Finally, with respect to the media and business advice communications, Defendant has marshaled no evidence to support her speculation that the documents logged as privileged are improperly withheld other than the fact that one member of

Plaintiff's legal team is an author. Plaintiff has represented to the Court and via a detailed privilege log that the communications in question are privileged. Stan Pottinger, the author in question, is a barred attorney of record in this case, incomparable to Defendant's media agent (and non-attorney) Ross Gow. That Pottinger has written non-legal material, or even whether his "primary occupation in the most recent years [is] as a novelist," is irrelevant to whether his communication with Plaintiff as her counsel was for the purpose of providing legal advice. Similarly, Bradley Edwards, who Defendant has already challenged, is an attorney of record in this case, and Defendant has provided no evidence other than the fact of his representation of Plaintiff's non-profit to doubt that the communications logged are privileged.

Having provided no grounds to doubt the sworn representations of Plaintiff's counsel, Defendant's motion to compel these communications is denied. Defendant is granted leave to refile the motions with respect to media and business advice on the basis of relevant and non-specious factual support. Court intervention should not be invoked to resolve routine discovery matters on the basis of a supposition of bad faith. Further filing of frivolous or vexatious motions lacking sufficient factual support to support a colorable argument (or on the basis of misrepresented or false facts or law) will be met with sanctions.

VII. The Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas By Means Other than Personal Service is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

Plaintiff seeks to compel subpoenas to serve Nadia Marcinkova, Sarah Kellen, and Jeffrey Epstein. The request is denied with respect to Epstein as moot. No opposition having been filed and the testimony of Marcinkova and Kellen being relevant to falsity of the defamation at issue, the motion is granted with respect to Marcinkova and Kellen.

VIII. The Motion to Compel Attorney-Client Communications and Work Product is Denied

Defendant argues that "Edwards and Cassell preemptively filed an action against Dershowitz proclaiming they did not violate Rule 11 . . . [and i]n doing so, they voluntarily put at issue and relied on: a) their good faith reliance on information communicated to them by Plaintiff, and b) their work product

showing that their filing was reasonably investigated and substantially justified." Def.'s Reply in Supp. Mot. to Compel all Att'y-Client Comms. and Att'y Work Product at 8-9 (Def.'s Reply on AC"). The Broward County, Florida Court ruled on this argument in Edwards and Cassell v. Dershowitz and Defendant argues in reply that this order is non-binding, and was issued prior to Plaintiff's testimony. Id. at 1.

Defendant was not a party to the Florida case. Nevertheless, Defendant's argument is nearly identical to Dershowitz's. Defendant argues Plaintiff's testimony arose after the ruling in the Florida case, however, the principle of that argument is the same: Defendant placed her attorney-client communications with Edwards and Cassell at issue by relying on the content of those communications in Edwards and Cassell v. Dershowitz. The Florida Court's ruling is therefore highly relevant privilege has not been waived.<sup>2</sup> The motion is accordingly denied.

<sup>2</sup> The Court declines to address the choice of law issue, as application of Florida or New York at-issue doctrines are not outcome determinative in this instance and thus no determination is necessary. Compare Coates v. Akerman, Senterfitt & Eidson, P.A., 940 So. 2d 504, 510 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2006) ("for waiver to occur under the at issue doctrine, the proponent of a privilege must make a claim or raise a defense based upon the privileged matter and the proponent must necessarily use the privileged information in order to establish its claim or defense.") with Chin v. Rogoff & Co., P.C., No. 05 CIV.

IX. The Motion to Exceed the Ten Deposition Limit is Granted in Part and Denied in Part

As of the filing of Plaintiff's reply on June 13, 2016, Plaintiff has deposed Defendant, Ms. Sjoberg, Mr. Alessi, Mr. Rodgers, and Mr. Rizzo and scheduled the depositions of Mr. Epstein, Mr. Gow, [REDACTED], Ms. Kellen, Ms. Marcinkova, Mr. Recarey, and Mr. Brunel. Plaintiff now seeks leave of the Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(2)(A)(i) take three additional depositions: Mrs. Alessi, Mr. Reiter, and newly raised in Plaintiff's reply, Former President Clinton.

Discovery being well under way and depositions having been scheduled for more than ten individuals, the motion is timely. "The court must grant a request to exceed ten depositions unless the additional depositions would be unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, the requesting party had a prior opportunity in discovery to obtain the information sought, or the burden or

8360(NRB), 2008 WL 2073934, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. May 8, 2008) ("New York courts have held that an 'at issue' waiver occurs "where a party affirmatively places the subject matter of its own privileged communication at issue in litigation, so that invasion of the privilege is required to determine the validity of a claim or defense of the party asserting the privilege, and application of the privilege would deprive the adversary of vital information.").

expense of additional depositions would outweigh any likely benefit." In re Weatherford Int'l Sec. Litig., No. 11 CIV. 1646 LAK JCF, 2013 WL 5762923, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2013).

Plaintiff proposes limiting the length of the proposed depositions to limit any undue burden that might result.

Defendant argues the depositions would be unduly cumulative and duplicative.

This case revolves around factual issues between Plaintiff and Defendant. The testimony of Mrs. Alessi concerning relevant facts may tend to either establish or negate falsity of the allegedly defamatory statement. The limited burden of this additional deposition, further mitigated as Plaintiff proposes, is therefore outweighed by the benefit of resolving this case on the merits. The motion with respect to this additional deposition is granted.

The relevance of the testimony of Mr. Reiter and President Clinton have not been adequately established. The motion as to these two depositions is denied. Defendant's request for costs and fees is denied pursuant to this Court's previous ruling with respect to costs and fees.

X. The Motion for Leave to File Excess Pages is Granted

Plaintiff sought leave to file excess pages in response to Defendant's motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product. To the extent the motion is not moot, leave is granted.

XI. Conclusion

As set forth above: the motion for an order of forensic examination is granted in part and denied in part; the motion to compel to compel Plaintiff to disclose alleged on-going criminal investigations by law enforcement is denied; the motion to compel Defendant to answer deposition questions is granted; the motion to compel non-privileged documents is denied; the motion for leave to serve three deposition subpoenas by means other than personal service is granted in part and denied in part; the motion to compel attorney-client communications and work product is denied; the motion to exceed the presumptive ten deposition limit is granted; the motion for leave to file an opposition brief in excess of the 25 pages permitted under this Court's Individual Rules of Practice is granted. This opinion resolves ECF Nos. 96, 101, 143, 155, 160, 164, 172, and 182.

For purposes of managing the filings in this case, the parties are further directed to comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice by providing all future motion papers in their full non-redacted form, complete with related declarations and exhibits, in a single complete bound hard copy delivered to Chambers at the time of filing. All soft-copies must be provided by attachment of a single PDF in its full non-redacted form, including all related declarations and exhibits irrespective of whether each attachment or declaration is intended to be filed under seal. Soft-copies must be provided in addition to, not in lieu of, hard-copies.

This matter being subject to a Protective Order, the parties are directed to meet and confer regarding redactions to this Opinion consistent with that Order. The parties are further directed to jointly file a proposed redacted version of this Opinion or notify the Court that none are necessary within two weeks of the date of receipt of this Opinion.

It is so ordered.

LORETTA A. PRESKA, Senior United States District Judge:

Before the Court are letter-motions filed by Intervenor Julie Brown and Miami Herald Media Company, (dkt. no. 1321), and Intervenor Alan Dershowitz, (dkt. no. 1323), seeking to unseal in part docket entry 1026-3 to disclose the identities of the Jane and John Does. For the reasons set forth below, the letter-motions to unseal docket entry 1026-3 are DENIED.

First, docket entry 1026-3 is not an accurate list of non-party names. Since this filing, the parties have provided the Court with an updated list of non-party names ("Document"), and disclosure of docket entry 1026-3, which is now outdated, would therefore compound, not "avoid," the "spread of incorrect information." (See dkt. no. 1321 at 2.)

Second, even so, the privacy interests at stake outweigh any presumption of public access to the Document. The public does not have an absolute right to access and inspect court documents; rather, courts may exercise their supervisory power to ensure that records are not used as “vehicle[s] for improper purposes,” including, for example, “to promote public scandal.” See Nixon v. Warner Commc’ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 598 (1978); see also Brown v. Maxwell, 929 F.3d 41, 51 (2d Cir. 2019) (explaining the same). This Document is akin to a summary exhibit under Federal Rule of Evidence 1006 – a mere aid prepared by the parties to assist the Court in carrying out its work. It includes the Does’ names, pseudonyms, home addresses, and the document(s) in which each Doe appears. Importantly, the underlying documents, akin to the evidence, have already been ordered unsealed with respect to most of the Does.<sup>1</sup> (See dkt. no. 1315.) Moreover, the Court’s December 18 Order set forth an anonymized list of Does, the documents in which each appears, and the Court’s reasoning for granting or denying unsealing. Thus, disclosing the Document will contribute nothing to the public’s information that is not already knowable from the underlying documents and the Court’s December 18 Order.

At the same time, unsealing the Document poses a danger to the privacy interests of the parties whose identities the Court has declined to unseal. Even if those Does’ names were redacted in an unsealed version of the Document, the alphabetical order of the list could easily lead to speculation about the identities of the as-yet-unnamed Does. This outcome is particularly likely in the wake of the recent media frenzy about some supposed "Epstein List" and the mass speculation about the identities of those on it. The Document includes minor victims, health care providers, members of law enforcement, and mere bystanders who have not sought publicity on these matters, and the Court has already found that their privacy interests outweigh any presumption of public access. Those same reasons for denying unsealing continue to apply and to outweigh the public's interest in this Document.

<sup>1</sup> With respect to the remaining Does, the Court has explained its reasons for declining to unseal their names, and any party dissatisfied with those reasons can appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Accordingly, the letter-motions to unseal in part docket entry 1026-3 (dkt. nos. 1321, 1323) are DENIED.

Re: Giuffre v. Maxwell, Case No. 15-cv-7433-LAP

Dear Judge Preska,

Pursuant to the Court's December 18, 2023, unsealing order, and following conferral with Defendant, Plaintiff files this set of documents ordered unsealed. The filing of these documents ordered unsealed will be done on a rolling basis until completed. This filing also excludes documents pertaining to Does 105 (see December 28, 2023, Email Correspondence with Chambers), 107, and 110 (see ECF No. 1319), while the Court's review of those documents is ongoing.

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL DATA FROM DEFENDANT'S UNDISCLOSED
EMAIL ACCOUNT AND FOR AN ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION

Plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, files this Motion to Compel Data from Defendant's Undisclosed Email Account and for An Adverse Inference Instruction regarding the data from that account, and states as follows. Defendant has not disclosed, nor produced data from, the email account she used while abusing Ms. Giuffre from 2000-2002 in violation of this Court's Order [DE 352]. Ms. Giuffre hereby moves to compel Defendant to produce this data, and requests that this Court enter an adverse inference jury instruction for this willful violation of this Court's orders.

I. BACKGROUND

The earliest-dated email Defendant has produced in this litigation is from July 18, 2009. (GM_00069). Ms. Giuffre is aware of two email addresses that appear to be the email addresses Defendant used while Ms. Giuffre was with Defendant and Epstein, namely, from 2000 - 2002. Defendant has denied that she used those accounts to communicate, but she has not disclosed the account she did use to communicate during that time, nor produce documents from it.

Importantly, Defendant has never denied using an email account for communication from 1999-2009, and the facts and circumstances show that it is exceedingly unlikely that Defendant did not use an email account to communicate those years.<sup>1</sup>

For example, according to United States Department of Commerce, “eighty-eight percent of adult Internet users sent or received e-mail” in 2000. See Eric C. Newburger, “Home Computers and Internet Use in the United States: August 2000,” U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, ECONOMICS AND STATISTICS ADMINISTRATION, U.S. CENSUS BUREAU, September 2001. Additionally, the Pew Research Center published findings that certain demographics have higher internet usage, including many demographics to which Defendant belongs. For example, higher rates of internet usage are found among younger adults (Defendant was 38 in 1999); those with college educations (Defendant has a master’s degree); those in households earning more than $75,000 (Defendant was in a household headed by a billionaire during that time, and that household had its own private email server and account); whites or English-speaking Asian-Americans (Defendant is white); and those who live in urban areas (Defendant lived in Palm Beach and Manhattan). See Andres Perrin and Maeve Duggan, ‘Americans’ Internet Access: 2000-2015,” PEW RESEARCH CENTER, June 26, 2015.

Additionally, her boyfriend, Jeffrey Epstein, with whom she shared a household from 1999-2002 (and other years), implemented an entire, private email system to communicate with his household and employees, including Defendant. Accordingly, given Defendant’s extraordinary economic resources, her high-level social connections, and her elaborate residential email/internet configuration she had during that time, it is extraordinarily unlikely that she would not employ an almost ubiquitous communication tool, nor has she denied it.

<sup>1</sup> On Friday, September 23, 2016, counsel for Ms. Giuffre sent a letter to Defendant inquiring about the undisclosed account. As of the date of this motion, Defendant has made no response.

A. The [REDACTED] Account

Ms. Giuffre has knowledge of the [REDACTED] account because it was listed as part of Defendant's contact information (including phone number) on documents gathered by the police from Epstein's home, and turned over to the Palm Beach County State Attorney as part of the investigation and prosecution of Epstein.

See (DE 280-2), Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office, Public Records Request No.: 16-268, Disc 7 at p. 2305 (GIUFFRE007843). Despite the fact that this account was listed as her contact information in the home she shared with Epstein, and despite the fact that the username bears her initials, Defendant claims she does not recognize the account, and has no access to it.

B. The [REDACTED] Account

The mindspring account is also listed as part of Defendant's contact information gathered by the police. In her filing with this Court, Defendant represented that this was merely a "spam" account "to use when registering for retail sales notifications and the like," and that it contains no relevant documents. (DE 345 at pg. 8). However, it appears that Jeffrey Epstein created the mindspring.org accounts to communicate with his household and with his employees, and did, in fact, communicate with them this way.

As previously recounted, Jeffrey Epstein's house manager, Juan Alessi testified that MindSpring account was in daily use by the Epstein household to send and receive messages, a household to which Defendant belonged:

Q. So when there would be a message from one of them while they were out of town, they would call you, call you on the telephone?

A. I haven't spoken to Ghislaine in 12 years.

Q. Sorry. I'm talking about when you worked there and you would receive a message that they were coming into town, would that be by way of telephone?

A. Telephone, and also, there was a system at the house, that it was MindSpring, MindSpring I think it's called, that it was like a message system that would come from the office.

Q. What is MindSpring?

A. It was a server. I think it was -- the office would have, like, a message system between him, the houses, the employees, his friends. They would write a message on the computer. There was no email at that time.

Q. Okay. So what computer would you use?

A. My computer in my office.

Q. And so was part of your daily routine to go to your computer and check to see if you had MindSpring messages?

A. No. That was at the end of my stay. That was the very end of my stay. I didn't get involved with that too much. But it was a message system that Jeffrey received every two, three hours, with all the messages that would have to go to the office in New York, and they will print it and send it faxed to the house, and I would hand it to him.

Q. Did it look like the message pads that we've been looking at?

A. No, no, nothing like that.

Q. Was it typed-out messages?

A. Yes, typed-out messages.

Q. Just explain one example of how it would work. Let's say that Ghislaine wanted to send him a message on MindSpring. How would that work?

A. An example?

Q. Sure.

A. It got so ridiculous at the end of my stay, okay? That Mr. Epstein, instead of talking to me that he wants a cup of coffee, he will call the office; the office would type it; they would send it to me, Jeffrey wants a cup of coffee, or Jeffrey wants an orange juice out by the pool.

Q. He would call the office in New York. They would then type it in MindSpring?

A. Send it to me.

Q. How would you know to check for it? How would you know to look for this MindSpring?

A. Because I was in the office. I was there. I was there. And we have a signal when it come on and says, Hey, you've got mail.

Q. Okay.

A. Every day. Every day it was new things put in. That's why I left, too.

Q. Do you know who set up the mind spring system?

A. It was a computer guy. It was a computer guy who worked only for Jeffrey. Mark. Mark Lumber.

Q. Was he local to Palm Beach?

A. No. He was in New York. Everything was set up from New York. And Mark Lumber, I remember he came to Palm Beach to set up the system at the house.

Alessi Dep. Tr. at 223:5-225:17. (June 1, 2016) (McCawley Decl. at Sealed Exhibit 1).

Accordingly, mindspring was a domain name set up for Jeffrey Epstein and his household to communicate with one another, and was, in fact, used in this manner.

The sworn testimony of Janusz Banasiak, another of Epstein's house managers, from the case L.M. v. Jeffery Epstein and Sarah Kellen,<sup>2</sup> gives a fuller representation of how Defendant, and others in Epstein's sex-trafficking ring, used their accounts on Epstein's mindspring server:

Q. Okay. Were you aware that Mr. Epstein used a Citrix program to link various computers? Did you know that?

A. Yeah. I use Citrix too in my computer for exchanging e-mails and get through Internet.

***

---

Q. That's not something that you were, you were privy to? You weren't, you weren't in the loop of the sharing of information in the house in terms of the computers being connected through any server?

A. I don't really know what, how, how to answer your question because Citrix is for the whole organization to exchange e-mail between employees.

Q. All right. You used the term?

A. So, even my computer is connected to Citrix. I can receive mail and I can e-mail information to employee within organization. But I don't know if you can see to each computer what is going on on another computer.

***

Q. You have used the term organization; you can share within the organization. What do you -- just so I can understand what you're calling the organization, what do you mean by that word?

A. People employed by Jeffrey Epstein. There are a few groups of people, his office in New York and I guess --

***

Q. Okay. The other people mentioned as co-conspirators are Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, and Nadia Marcinkova. So we'll get to them in a minute but first just so we stay on the track of who was in the organization, is Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross and Nadia Marcinkova all people that you would also consider within the organization?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So, we just added three more names to it. Who else would you consider, Ghislaine Maxwell?

A. Yes.

Banasiak Deposition at 56:13-17; 57:2-14; 58:1-7; 60:21-61:7 (February 16, 2010) (Emphasis added) (McCawley Decl. at Sealed Composite Exhibit 2).

As Defendant was a member of Epstein's household, and claims to have been his employee (See McCawley Decl. at Sealed Exhibit 3, Maxwell's April 22, 2016 Dep. Tr. at 10:7-11:3), it is unlikely that her mindspring account was merely a "spam account" from 1999-2002. It is much more likely that this account has - or had - Defendant's communications with co-conspirators Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova, and Epstein. However, it is Defendant's representation that this account does not presently have responsive documents and was merely used for "spam."

C. Defendant's Non-Disclosed Email Account

If the Court accepts Defendant's claim that she used neither the earthlink.net account nor the mindspring.org "spam" account to communicate, logic dictates that Defendant must have had another email account - one that she actually used - from 2000 - 2002. Despite the Court's orders that Defendant produce responsive documents from all her email accounts from 1999 to the present, Defendant has neither disclosed nor produced from the email account that she actually used to communicate from 2000-2002. This refusal violates this Court's orders. Ms. Giuffre issued requests to Defendant on October 27, 2015. Nearly a year later, after this Court has specifically ordered Defendant to produce her responsive email from all her accounts, Defendant has produced none from this account. Not only has Defendant failed to produce emails from the account she actually used from 1999-2002, and she has not even disclosed what account it is.

II. ARGUMENT

A. An Adverse Inference Instruction is Appropriate

An adverse inference instruction is appropriate regarding documents from the email account Defendant actually used from 1999-2002. In light of this clear and persistent pattern of recalcitrance, the Court should instruct the jury that it can draw an adverse inference that the Defendant has concealed relevant evidence. Even if Defendant were, at this late date, to run Ms. Giuffre's proposed search terms over the data from the email account she used from 1999 - 2002 (which she refuses to disclose), such a production would be both untimely and prejudicial. Fact discovery has closed. Numerous depositions have already been taken by Ms. Giuffre without the benefit of these documents. The window for authenticating the documents through depositions has shut. Expert reports have been exchanged, so Ms. Giuffre's experts did not have the benefit of reviewing these documents. Late production of this information robs Ms. Giuffre of any practical ability to use the discovery, and, importantly, it was incumbent on Defendant to identify this account.

The Second Circuit has stated, “[w]here documents, witnesses, or information of any kind relevant issues in litigation is or was within the exclusive or primary control of a party and is not provided, an adverse inference can be drawn against the withholding party. Such adverse inferences are appropriate as a consequence for failure to make discovery.” Bouzo v. Citibank, N.A., 1993 WL 525114, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (internal citations omitted). The Defendant's continued systemic foot-dragging and obstructionism – even following the Court's June 20 Sealed Order and August 10, 2016 Order [DE 352] – makes an adverse inference instruction with regard to Defendant's documents appropriate. An adverse inference instruction is appropriate when a party refuses to turn over documents in defiance of a Court Order. See Lyondell-Citgo Refining, LP v. Petroleos de Venezuela, S.A., 2005 WL 1026461, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2005) (denying application to set aside Magistrate Judge Peck's order entering an adverse inference instruction against defendant for failure to produce documents that the Judge Peck had ordered Defendant to produce). Accordingly, because a “party's failure to produce evidence within its control creates a presumption that evidence would be unfavorable to that party” an adverse inference should be applied with respect to Defendant's failure to produce data from the email account she used from 1999 -2002 “in order to ensure fair hearing for [the] other party seeking evidence.” Doe v. U.S. Civil Service Commission, 483 F. Supp. 539, 580 (S.D. N.Y., 1980) (citing International Union v. NLRB, 148 U.S. App. D.C. 305, 312-317, 459 F.2d 1329, 1336-41 (D.C.Cir.1972)).

“An adverse inference serves the remedial purpose of restoring the prejudiced party to the same position he would have been in absent the wrongful destruction of [or willful refusal to produce] evidence by the opposing party.” Chevron Corp. v. Donziger, 296 F.R.D. 168, 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (granting an adverse inference when defendants refused to produce documents pursuant to the District Court’s order). Where “an adverse inference ... is sought on the basis that the evidence was not produced in time for use at trial, the party seeking the instruction must show (1) that the party having control over the evidence had an obligation to timely produce it; (2) that the party that failed to timely produce the evidence had ‘a culpable state of mind’; and (3) that the missing evidence is ‘relevant’ to the party’s claim or defense such that a reasonable trier of fact could find that it would support that claim or defense.” Id. (citing Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 108 (2d Cir. 2002)).

Furthermore, as discussed in detail in Ms. Giuffre’s Motion for an Adverse Inference Instruction (DE 315) and Supplement Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction (DE 338), an adverse inference is appropriate regarding the documents that Defendant is withholding under the Second Circuit’s test set forth in Residential Funding. Defendant has admitted to deleting emails as this Court noted in its Order. An adverse inference is equally appropriate if the non-compliance was due to Defendant’s destruction of evidence. See Brown v. Coleman, 2009 WL 2877602, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 8, 2009) (“Where a party violates a court order—either by destroying evidence when directed to preserve it or by failing to produce information because relevant data has been destroyed—Rule 37(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that the court may impose a range of sanctions, including dismissal or judgment by default, preclusion of evidence, imposition of an adverse inference, or assessment of attorneys’ fees and costs. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b); see Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306

F.3d 99, 106–07 (2d Cir.2002)’’). See also Essenter v. Cumberland Farms, Inc., 2011 WL 124505, at *7 (N.D.N.Y. Jan. 14, 2011); and Rule 37(e), Fed. R. Civ. P. (‘‘If electronically stored information that should have been preserved in the anticipation or conduct of litigation is lost because a party failed to take reasonable steps to preserve it . . . the court: (2) only upon finding that the party acted with the intent to deprive another party of the information’s use in the litigation may: (A) presume that the lost information was unfavorable to the party; (b) instruct the jury that it may or must presume the information was unfavorable to the party; or (C) dismiss the action or enter a default judgment.’’). Failure to disclose the email account Defendant actually used from 1992-2002 warrants an adverse inference instruction.

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that this Court compel Defendant to disclose what email account she actually used from 2009-1999, and that the court give the jury an adverse inference jury instruction concerning the documents from the undisclosed email account.

VIRGINIA L. GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,

v.

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

June 1, 2016

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOHN ALESSI, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401
Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida,
before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered
Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime
Reporter and Notary Public within and
for the State of Florida.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 Q. You never received emails from either of 3 them?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. So when there would be a message from one
6 of them while they were out of town, they would call
7 you, call you on the telephone?

8 A. I haven't spoken to Ghislaine in 12 years.

9 Q. Sorry. I'm talking about when you worked 10 there and you would receive a message that they were 11 coming into town, would that be by way of telephone?

12 A. Telephone, and also, there was a system at 13 the house, that it was MindSpring, MindSpring I
14 think it's called, that it was like a message system
15 that would come from the office.

16 Q. What is MindSpring?

17 A. It was a server. I think it was -- the 18 office would have, like, a message system between 19 him, the houses, the employees, his friends. They 20 would write a message on the computer. There was no
21 email at that time.

22 Q. Okay. So what computer would you use?

23 A. My computer in my office.

24 Q. And so was part of your daily routine to 25 go to your computer and check to see if you had

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 MindSpring messages?

3 A. No. That was at the end of my stay. That
4 was the very end of my stay. I didn't get involved
5 with that too much. But it was a message system
6 that Jeffrey received every two, three hours, with 7 all the messages that would have to go to the office
8 in New York, and they will print it and send it
9 faxed to the house, and I would hand it to him.

10 Q. Did it look like the message pads that 11 we've been looking at?

12 A. No, no, nothing like that.

13 Q. Was it typed-out messages?

14 A. Yes, typed-out messages.

15 Q. Just explain one example of how it would 16 work. Let's say that Ghislaine wanted to send him a
17 message on MindSpring. How would that work?

18 A. An example?

19 Q. Sure.

20 A. It got so ridiculous at the end of my 21 stay, okay? That Mr. Epstein, instead of talking to 22 me that he wants a cup of coffee, he will call the 23 office; the office would type it; they would send it
24 to me, Jeffrey wants a cup of coffee, or Jeffrey
25 wants an orange juice out by the pool.

1 JOHN ALESSI

2 Q. He would call the office in New York.
3 They would then type it in MindSpring?

4 A. Send it to me.

5 Q. How would you know to check for it? How
6 would you know to look for this MindSpring?

7 A. Because I was in the office. I was there.
8 I was there. And we have a signal when it come on 9 and says, Hey, you've got mail.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Every day. Every day it was new things
12 put in. That's why I left, too.

13 Q. Do you know who set up the mind spring
14 system?

15 A. It was a computer guy. It was a computer
16 guy who worked only for Jeffrey. Mark. Mark
17 Lumber.

18 Q. Was he local to Palm Beach?

19 A. No. He was in New York. Everything was 20 set up from New York. And Mark Lumber, I remember 21 he came to Palm Beach to set up the system at the 22 house.

23 Q. Did you become aware at some point in time
24 that there was a bag or a briefcase of cash that was 25 in the house?

1 Q. Is your computer in your office --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Let me finish. Is the computer in your
4 office linked up with the three computers that were
5 removed from the house? Meaning, can you look at 6 the system and see what is on those three computers?

7 A. No, no.

8 Q. Is it your understanding that those three
9 computers are linked with one another or do you
10 know?

11 A. I don't know, but I, I doubt it. They are
12 separate I guess.

13 Q. Okay. Were you aware that Mr. Epstein
14 used a Citrix program to link various computers?
15 Did you know that?

16 A. Yeah. I use Citrix too in my computer for
17 exchanging e-mails and get through Internet.

18 Q. Okay. So, is it your understanding that
19 the only connection then through Citrix with these 20 computers, these various computers that were in 21 Mr. Epstein's home, was for e-mail purposes?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, you're not
24 familiar with those computers sharing other files or
25 information?

1 A. No.

2 Q. That's not something that you were, you
3 were privy to? You weren't, you weren't in the loop
4 of the sharing of information in the house in terms
5 of the computers being connected through any server?

6 A. I don't really know what, how, how to answer
7 your question because Citrix is for the whole
8 organization to exchange e-mail between employees.

9 Q. All right. You used the term?

10 A. So, even my computer is connected to Citrix.
11 I can receive mail and I can e-mail information to 12 employee within organization. But I don't know if you
13 can see to each computer what is going on on another
14 computer.

15 Q. You don't know about --

16 A. Is that your question?

17 Q. You don't know about shared files?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You only know that the one computer can
20 e-mail the other?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. But that can happen with any two computers
23 in the world pretty much. You can send e-mails to 24 each other, right.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You have used the term organization, you
2 can share within the organization. What do you --
3 just so I can understand what you're calling the
4 organization, what do you mean by that word?

5 A. People employed by Jeffrey Epstein. There are
6 a few groups of people, his office in New York and I
7 guess --

8 Q. Who are those people by name that you
9 would consider within the Jeffrey Epstein
10 organization?

11 A. His accountant, his --

12 Q. Who is that?

13 A. Bella Klen.

14 Q. What is it?

15 A. Bella Klen. K-l-i-n. E-n, I'm sorry.

16 Q. Bella, B-e-l-l-a?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is that somebody in New York?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that a male or female?

21 A. Female.

22 Q. And you understand that's his accountant?

23 A. Right.

24 MR. GOLDBERGER: Just to get the spelling
25 correct is it K-l-e-i-n?

1 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

2 BY MR. EDWARDS:

3 Q. We'll go back to that but I tell you why I
4 ask. If you don't know then you don't know, but in
5 the course of Mr. Epstein's -- you're aware that he
6 did plead guilty to a couple felonies in state
7 court, right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Well, in the course of the negotiation
10 with the federal government and the U.S. Attorney's
11 Office, they, the agreement between Mr. Epstein and 12 the U.S. Attorney's office mentions people that are
13 called co-conspirators of Epstein. And Leslie Groff
14 is named as one of those co-conspirators.

15 Do you know what involvement, if any, that
16 she had with the crimes that were being
17 investigated?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I am not aware of this.

21 Q. Okay. The other people mentioned as
22 co-conspirators are Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, and
23 Nadia Marcinkova. So we'll get to them in a minute
24 but first just so we stay on the track of who was in
25 the organization, is Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross and

1       Nadia Marcinkova all people that you would also
2       consider within the organization?

3             A.    Yes.

4             Q.    Okay.  So, we just added three more names
5       to it.  Who else would you consider, Ghislaine
6       Maxwell?

7             A.    Yes.

8             Q.    And who else?

9             A.    Who was working there?

10            Q.    Bella, Richard Kahn, Leslie Groff,
11       Ghislaine Maxwell, Nadia, Sarah, Adriana.

12            A.    I think Harry was involved with the 13       accounting.

14            Q.    Okay.

15            A.    I don't recall his last name.

16            Q.    Somebody else involved with the
17       accounting?

18            A.    Yes.

19            Q.    Okay.  Any of those people that you just
20       named, were any of those people that you just named
21       the person that you described as the gentleman that
22       assisted Adriana in removing the computers from the
23       house prior to the search warrant being executed?

24            A.    No.  You mean the one who show up to do those
25       computers?

UNDER SEAL PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 5.4(b) AND MOTION TO PLACE THE ENTIRE DOCKET UNDER SEAL

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, respectfully submits this Unopposed Motion to file her Motion to Compel the Production of Documents and Testimony from Jeffrey Epstein under Seal Pursuant to Local Rule 5.4(b) and Motion to Place the Entire Docket Under Seal, and hereby states as follows.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The motion to compel seeks to compel production pursuant to a valid Rule 45 subpoena issued to Jeffrey Epstein in the above-styled case, pending in the Southern District of New York (the "New York case"). The case concerns a defamation action brought by a child victim of convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein against his live-in girlfriend who assisted him in procuring underage girls, including the plaintiff, Ms. Giuffre. Because of Epstein's central role in the New York case, it is important for Ms. Giuffre to have the requested documents from him in discovery.

United States District Court
Southern District of Florida

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: _____

Underlying Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

(Southern District of New York) (Sweet, J.)

v.

Jeffrey Epstein,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S SEALED AGREED MOTION TO FILE MOTION TO COMPEL THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND TESTIMONY FROM JEFFREY EPSTEIN
UNDER SEAL PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 5.4(b) AND MOTION TO PLACE THE
ENTIRE DOCKET UNDER SEAL

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, respectfully submits this Unopposed Motion to file her Motion to Compel the Production of Documents and Testimony from Jeffrey Epstein under Seal Pursuant to Local Rule 5.4(b) and Motion to Place the Entire Docket Under Seal, and hereby states as follows.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The motion to compel seeks to compel production pursuant to a valid Rule 45 subpoena issued to Jeffrey Epstein in the above-styled case, pending in the Southern District of New York (the "New York case"). The case concerns a defamation action brought by a child victim of convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein against his live-in girlfriend who assisted him in procuring underage girls, including the plaintiff, Ms. Giuffre. Because of Epstein's central role in the New York case, it is important for Ms. Giuffre to have the requested documents from him in discovery.

During his deposition, Epstein failed to answer questions or produce documents in response to a Rule 45 subpoena in the New York case. The instant motion seeks to compel production from Epstein in three areas, detailed more fully in the Motion to Compel, based on his improper invocation of the Fifth Amendment in refusing to comply with the subpoena. Epstein's invocation of the Fifth Amendment was invalid for several reasons, as discussed in detail in the Motion to Compel. One of those reasons, however, goes to the instant request to file the motion to compel under seal and to place the docket under seal. It should be noted that the entire deposition of Epstein is confidential, having been placed under the confidentiality order that exists in the case.

II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

The parties agree this case should be placed under seal because of the need for confidentiality. There is no valid invocation of the Fifth Amendment when there is no threat to self-incrimination, and there can be no threat to self-incrimination if the government is not aware of the information Ms. Giuffre seeks pursuant to her valid Rule 45 subpoena. Because Ms. Giuffre seeks to have all of the relevant proceedings to her motion to compel - including the motion itself - be placed under seal at this time, the Government will not be aware of Epstein's disclosure of materials, much less be in position to even file a motion to attempt alter the protective order. In such circumstances, Epstein faces no "real and substantial hazard" of his act of producing documents to Ms. Giuffre's counsel incriminating himself. See United States v. Kowalik, 809 F. Supp. 1571, 1577 (S.D. Fla. 1992), aff'd, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993), and aff'd, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993). Accordingly, by placing this case under seal, this Court can grant Ms. Giuffre's motion to compel and direct Epstein to produce the relevant documents over his improper Fifth Amendment objections because there is no risk of incrimination because these proceedings will be under seal.

Moreover, under the Protective Order issued by the New York case, Ms. Giuffre's counsel (and counsel for Ms. Maxwell,<sup>1</sup> the Defendant in the New York case) are forbidden to disclose the materials for "any purpose except the preparation and trial of this case." Protective Order, ¶ 4. Under the terms of the protective order, all materials secured in the case will be destroyed at the end of the case. Protective Order, ¶ 12. And while the Protective Order does not bar the use of confidential materials at trial, Protective Order ¶ 13, Ms. Giuffre's counsel represent that they will not use at trial any documents that Epstein produces without first notifying Epstein and seeking leave of Court to do so. As a result, Epstein can provide documents to Ms. Giuffre, allowing her to investigate this case without compromising any interest that Epstein may have in avoiding self-incrimination.

Additionally, the entire deposition has already been designated as "confidential" by defendant Maxwell, making these proceedings subject to a protective order. See Motion to Compel at Addendum A (copy of protective order). To enforce that previously-entered confidentiality order from the Southern District of New York, these proceedings should be confidential as well. Moreover, in such circumstances, there is no substantial risk of incrimination from the mere production of documents to Ms. Giuffre's counsel, who are subject to the protective order. See generally Marc Youngelson, The Use of 26(c) Protective Orders: "Pleading the Fifth" Without Suffering "Adverse" Consequences, 1994 Ann. Surv. Am. L. 245 (1995); see also Palmieri v. State of New York, 779 F.2d 861 (2d Cir. 1985).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 authorizes a court, for good cause, to enter a protective order to seal or to limit disclosure. Indeed, courts have the discretion to place entire cases under seal. See e.g. Beaches MLS, Inc. v. Miami Association of Realtors, Inc., 2015 WL 11170925, at *3 (S.D.Fla. 2015) (Marra, J.) (granting motion to file under seal and sealing the case). Local Rule 5.4(b) provides the procedure to follow when a party seeks to file something under seal: the party must file a motion, “setting forth a reasonable basis for departing from the general policy of a public filing,” and courts in this district routinely grant parties’ motions to file under seal for good cause. See e.g. Shire Development LLC v. Watson Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 932 F.Supp.2d 1349, 1359 (S.D.Fla. 2013) (Middlebrooks, J.); Air Turbine Technology, Inc. v. Atlas Copco AB, 2003 WL 22939256, at *1 (S.D.Fla. 2003) (Marra, J.).

Ms. Giuffre has articulated good cause to grant her motion to file under seal and to seal this case, as it would facilitate the execution of a valid Rule 45 subpoena issued upon Jeffrey Epstein and follow the confidentiality order previously entered in this case by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre has conferred with counsel for Epstein, and counsel for Epstein has agreed to the filing of the Motion to Compel under seal.

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, respectfully requests that the Court grant her Agreed Motion to file her Motion to Compel the Production of Documents and Testimony from Jeffrey Epstein under Seal Pursuant to Local Rule 5.4(b) and Motion to Place the Entire Docket Under Seal for the reasons set forth above.

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: _____

Underlying Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

(Southern District of New York) (Sweet, J.)

v.

Jeffrey Epstein,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S SEALED MOTION TO COMPEL THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND TESTIMONY FROM JEFFREY EPSTEIN

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, respectfully submits this motion to compel Jeffrey Epstein to produce documents and testimony in response to his repeated invocations of the Fifth Amendment at his recent deposition.

This motion seeks to compel production from Epstein in three areas. First, at his deposition, Epstein asserted that the Fifth Amendment allowed him to decline to produce any documents whatsoever. Epstein has the burden of demonstrating the applicability of the Fifth Amendment privilege, and he cannot carry that burden. He should be required to produce documents or, at the very least, a privilege log so that the Court (and opposing counsel) can assess the validity of his claims.

Second, Epstein was asked approximately 500 hundred substantive questions at his deposition, and he took the Fifth rather than answer even a single one of them (other than the question about his name). Some of the questions he refused to answer pose no substantial risk of

Jeffrey Epstein,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S SEALED MOTION TO COMPEL THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND TESTIMONY FROM JEFFREY EPSTEIN

Plaintiff Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, respectfully submits this motion to compel Jeffrey Epstein to produce documents and testimony in response to his repeated invocations of the Fifth Amendment at his recent deposition.

This motion seeks to compel production from Epstein in three areas. First, at his deposition, Epstein asserted that the Fifth Amendment allowed him to decline to produce any documents whatsoever. Epstein has the burden of demonstrating the applicability of the Fifth Amendment privilege, and he cannot carry that burden. He should be required to produce documents or, at the very least, a privilege log so that the Court (and opposing counsel) can assess the validity of his claims.

Second, Epstein was asked approximately 500 hundred substantive questions at his deposition, and he took the Fifth rather than answer even a single one of them (other than the question about his name). Some of the questions he refused to answer pose no substantial risk of incrimination. He should be ordered to answer these specific questions, which are enumerated in Section II, below.

Third, Epstein also took the Fifth when asked questions about Ghislaine Maxwell's interactions with females overseas. Maxwell was Epstein's live-in girlfriend who assisted him in procuring underage girls. The Supreme Court has made clear that a Fifth Amendment privilege cannot be asserted with respect to incrimination in a foreign crime. And certainly Epstein has no Fifth Amendment privilege involving sex crimes committed by another person. Epstein should be ordered to answer specific questions identified in Section III, below about Maxwell's actions in foreign countries.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Ms. Giuffre has filed a defamation action in the Southern District of New York against Ghislaine Maxwell. In brief, Ms. Giuffre alleges that defendant Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell defamed her by calling her a "liar" for filing documents alleging that Maxwell and her boyfriend, Jeffrey Epstein, had sexually abused her and trafficked her for sexual purposes. See McCawley Decl., Exhibit 1 (complaint in Giuffre v. Maxwell).

2. As discovery in this case has proceeded, Defendant initially suggested she would take the Fifth and refuse to answer questions. During her deposition, however, Defendant did not take the Fifth. Instead, she testified that she suffered from a series of memory lapses and could not recall many of the key issues in dispute in this case. For example, at her deposition, Defendant indicated that she lacked recollection of or was otherwise unable to specifically answer the following questions:<sup>1</sup>

- Whether Defendant observed a female under the age of 18 at Jeffrey Epstein's home in Palm Beach. See McCawley Decl., Ex. 2 (Maxwell Depo.) at 29;

<sup>1</sup> Maxwell has designated the entire contents of her deposition as confidential pursuant to the Protective Order entered in that case, and, therefore, the contents must be filed under seal.

- Whether Defendant had meet Ms. Giuffre and introduced her to Epstein. Id. at 33;
- Whether massage therapists at Epstein's mansions performed sexual acts. Id. at 52-54.
- Whether Defendant was ever present to view Ms. Giuffre massaging Epstein. Id. at 75;
- Whether Defendant could recall Ms. Giuffre staying at any of Epstein's six homes. Id. at 81.
- Whether Defendant remembered taking a trip with Ms. Giuffre to travel over to Europe, including London. Id. at 108.
- Whether Defendant ever flew on one of Epstein's planes with a 17 year old. Id. at 121-22.
- Whether the notation "GM" on flight logs for passengers on Epstein's planes represented the Defendant (i.e., Ghislaine Maxwell). Id. at 122-23.
- Whether Defendant could recall ever being on a flight on one of Epstein's planes with Ms. Giuffre. Id. at 132-33.
- Whether Defendant could explain why a minor would be calling Epstein to say they had a female for him. Id. at 164.
- Whether Defendant was aware of any interstate or international transportation of women, aged 18 to 28, for purposes of having sex with Epstein where they would receive compensation. Id. at 278-79.
- Whether Defendant could recall interacting with anyone, other than Ms. Giuffre, under the age of 18 on any of Epstein's properties. Id. at 384.

See McCawley Decl. at Exhibit 2.

3. As this Court is aware from another pending case, Epstein is a registered sex offender who entered into a non-prosecution agreement (NPA), barring his prosecution for federal crime for his sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre and multiple other victims. Several of Epstein's sexual abuse victims have filed a suit alleging that they were not properly notified of the NPA and the associated guilty plea that Epstein entered. The victims allege that Epstein sexually abused them and that the Government violated their rights under the Crime Victims' Rights Act (CVRA), 18 U.S.C. 3771, by not conferring with them about the deal that the Government reached with Epstein on that sex abuse. The case is currently pending. See Jane Does v. United States, No. 9:08-c-v-80736, DE 361 (S.D. Fla.).

4. Because of Epstein's central role in the sexual abuse of Ms. Giuffre, Ms. Giuffre has long been attempting to depose him in the action. Epstein, who is generally regarded as having vast financial resources, evaded those efforts to be served. Accordingly, on May 25, 2016, Ms. Giuffre sought leave to serve Epstein by alternative means. Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 1:15-cv-07433, DE 160 (S.D.N.Y.). Shortly thereafter, Epstein agreed through counsel to voluntarily appear for a deposition.

5. On August 25, 2016, Ms. Giuffre served a subpoena on Epstein through his counsel. See McCawley Decl., Exhibit 3 (Epstein subpoena). The document sought production of 22 categories of documents directly linked to the underlying lawsuit. For example, request for production ("RFP") 1 sought all photographs of Epstein in the presence of either Ms. Giuffre or Ms. Maxwell. RFP 6 sought Epstein's documents relating to Ms. Giuffre. RFP 7 sought Epstein's documents relating to Ms. Maxwell. The subpoena requested Epstein make the production of documents within the Southern District of Florida

6. On September 2, 2016, Epstein's legal counsel sent a letter to Ms. Giuffre's legal counsel raising various objections to production of documents, including a Fifth Amendment privilege. See McCawley Decl., Exhibit 4 (Goldberger letter). (Because the letter was sent via conventional mail, counsel did not receive it until September 8, 2016.)

7. On September 9, 2016, Epstein appeared pursuant to the subpoena and was deposed. See McCawley Dec., Exhibit 5 (transcript of Epstein's deposition). The deposition took place in West Palm Beach, Florida.

8. After Epstein was sworn in, he invoked his Fifth Amendment right on every single substantive question he was asked, except the question asking his name. He was asked approximately 500 substantive questions by counsel for Ms. Giuffre and approximately 100 substantive questions by counsel for defendant Maxwell. He did not answer a single one.<sup>2</sup>

9. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre attempted to confer with Epstein's counsel regarding the basis for the privilege objections, but Epstein's counsel declined to elaborate. Epstein Depo. Tr. at 10.

10. With regard to the subpoena producing documents, Epstein took the Fifth rather than answer questions about whether he had substantial financial resources that could minimize any burden in responding to the document production request. Id. at 164:22-25.

11. With regard to producing document, Epstein and his lawyers asserted a Fifth Amendment privilege:

Q. Did you bring any documents with you today pursuant to this subpoena?

A. Fifth.

MR. WEINBERG [counsel for Epstein]: We would assert the Fifth Amendment as well as the act of production for the protections against responding to that question or producing any documents, relying on the Supreme Court decision in Hubble, the second circuit August 1st decision in Greenfield.

Q. MR. CASSELL: Understood. I'll assume you have a standing objection based on the grounds that you just described to all my questions with regard to this subpoena?

<sup>2</sup> Maxwell has designated the entire contents of Epstein's deposition as confidential pursuant to the Protective Order entered in that case, and, therefore, the contents must be filed under seal.

MR. GOLDBERGER: Just so we're clear, the Fifth Amendment objection as to act of production is going to apply to everything that --

MR. CASSELL: Yeah. We disagree. You have an Fifth Amendment and act of production.

BY MR. CASSELL:

Q. You have made no effort to collect any of the documents requested here, right? . . .<sup>3</sup>

THE WITNESS: Fifth Amendment.

BY MR. CASSELL:

Q. In of the last three weeks you made no search at all for the 22 categories of documents requested here, right? . . .

THE WITNESS: Fifth.

BY MR. CASSELL:

Q. Where are the documents requested by these 22 requested categories?

A. Fifth.

Q. You have not produced a privilege log for these items, have you?

A. Fifth.

Q. It would not be burdensome for you to search for any of these documents, would it? . . .

THE WITNESS: Fifth.

BY MR. CASSELL:

Q. It would be quite simple for you[] to run search terms, such as Virginia, through your e-mail accounts, right? . . .

THE WITNESS: Fifth.

BY MR. CASSELL:

Q. And you have plenty of money to fund any of the searches that would be required to produce these documents, right? . . .

<sup>3</sup> Defense counsel for Ms. Maxwell raised various "form and foundation" objections to these questions, which are omitted for purposes of this motion, which seeks to compel actions by Epstein, not Maxwell.

THE WITNESS: Fifth.

Id. at 226-29.

12. Epstein was also asked specific questions with regard to his failure to produce certain records, such as telephone records regarding his communications with Maxwell. Epstein also took the Fifth rather than answer any such question. Id. at 229-30.

13. Epstein was also asked various questions about Maxwell's interactions with females overseas. In particular, he was asked about actions in England (id. at 140-47), France (id. at 152-54), Thailand (id. at 154-57), Brunei (id. at 157-59), the Czech Republic (and former Czechoslovakia) (id. at 159-63), and other foreign countries (id. at 163-64). Epstein refused to answer any of these questions. In latter questioning, Epstein took the Fifth rather than admit that part of his basis for asserting the Fifth Amendment privilege was fear of foreign prosecutions. Id. at 343.

14. Ms. Giuffre now files the motion to compel production of the documents pursuant to her duly-issued subpoena.

LEGAL STANDARDS

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45, a party may request any person to appear for a deposition to answer questions and to produce documents within his possession. Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(2)(B), a person who objects to production can lodge an objection. At that point, the party seeking production can move for an order compelling production of the documents, Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(2)(B)(i), which is the step that Ms. Giuffre is now taking. The motion for production of documents must be filed in the Court where production is required – i.e., in this Court. Similarly, with regard to production of testimony, a party seeking discovery can move for an order requiring disclosure. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(1). The motion must also be made in the Court where the discovery is to be taken – i.e., in this Court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(1).

A party contending that a subpoena should be quashed pursuant to Rule 45(c) (3)(A)(iv) must demonstrate that compliance with the subpoena would be unduly burdensome.” Bridgeport Music Inc. v. UMG Recordings, Inc., No. 05CIV.6430(VM)(JCF), 2007 WL 4410405, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 17, 2007). In addition, a party asserting that he is privileged not to produce a document has the burden of establishing that privilege. See MapleWood Partners, L.P. v. Indian Harbor Ins. Co., 295 F.R.D. 550, 583 (S.D. Fla. 2013) (applying Florida law) (“the burden of demonstrating that a privilege applies to a particular communication . . . is on the proponent of the privilege”); United States v. Bright, 596 F.3d 683, 691 (9th Cir. 2010) (witness asserting Fifth Amendment privilege “bears the burden of showing testimony or documents are privileged”).

While Epstein can assert a Fifth Amendment privilege in this civil case, “it is not for the witness to determine whether the answers are protected; it is a decision left to the sound discretion of the trial court after considering the circumstances of the case. [T]o assert the privilege there must be a “substantial and ‘real’ ” threat of incrimination and not one that is “merely trifling or imaginary.” Taubert v. State, Office of Atty. Gen., 79 So. 3d 77, 81 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 2011) (citing Marchetti v. United States, 390 U.S. 39, 53 (1968); State v. Mitrani, 19 So.3d 1065, 1068 (Fla. 5th DCA 2009) (other internal citations omitted)). After Epstein explains the basis for his invocation, and Ms. Giuffre responds, this Court then makes findings on a question-by-question basis. See, e.g., Capitol Prod. Corp. v. Hernon, 457 F.2d 541, 544 (8th Cir. 1972) (“To protect the right of both parties and assure satisfactory review, the court should clearly state the basis on which it sustains or rejects the defendant's objection to a particular question.”).

Because this case is a diversity action state law generally provides the rule of decision for substantive privilege issues. See Giuffre v. Maxwell, DE 135 at 6, 2016 WL 175918 at * 6 (applying New York privilege law) (citing Allied Irish Banks v. Bank of Am., N.A., 240 F.R.D. 96, 102 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“Because this Court’s subject matter jurisdiction is based upon diversity . . . state law provides the rule of decision concerning the claim of attorney-client privilege.”)). In this case, Epstein’s inability to provide a basis for Fifth Amendment invocations does not turn on peculiarities of the law of any one jurisdiction, and thus authorities from various jurisdictions are cited interchangeably.

ARGUMENT

I. EPSTEIN SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO PRODUCE THE REQUESTED DOCUMENTS.

A. It is Not Unduly Burdensome for Epstein to Produce the Requested Documents.

If Epstein wishes to establish undue burdensomeness in producing documents, it is his burden to carry. As recounted above, however, Epstein has refused to answer questions regarding undue burdensomeness. See Statement of Fact, at ¶ 10. Presumably this is because his vast wealth would make it difficult from him to prove that point.

In any event, even were Epstein to attempt to show undue burdensomeness, he could not establish that any burden is “undue.” Epstein is a central figure in this case – the most central figure, apart from the two parties, the plaintiff and the defendant. And the defendant is feigning memory loss over many of the most significant events in this case – including many events that involved Epstein. Because of his central role in the case, it is important for Ms. Giuffre to have the requested documents from him. No undue burden exists.

B. Epstein Cannot Assert a Fifth Amendment Privilege in the Documents Themselves.

As reflected in the transcript quoted above, Epstein asserted both a Fifth Amendment privilege not to produce the documents as well as a Fifth Amendment act-of-production privilege. The act of production issues will be addressed in the next section below. But Epstein's Fifth Amendment objection is frivolous.

The contents of pre-existing documents are not protected by the Fifth Amendment. The Fifth Amendment only protects a witness against testifying about certain events, not producing documents already in his position. In his deposition, Epstein's legal counsel referenced two cases: United States v. Hubbell, 530 U.S. 27 (2000); and United States v. Greenfield, --- F.3d ---, 2016 WL 4073250 (2d Cir. Aug. 2, 2016). But as both of those cases make clear, a defendant does not have a Fifth Amendment privilege to refuse to produce documents (as opposed to the privilege that does exist to refuse to give testimony verbally). The Supreme Court in Hubbell specifically noted "the settled proposition that a person may be required to produce specific documents even though they contain incriminating assertions of fact or belief because the creation of those documents was not 'compelled' within the meaning of the [Fifth Amendment] privilege." Hubbell, 530 U.S. at 35–36 (citing Fisher v. United States, 425 U.S. 391 (1976)). Similarly, the Second Circuit in Greenfield, following the Supreme Court's lead, held that "the contents of the records [do] not implicate the Fifth Amendment." --- F.3d ---, 2016 WL 4073250 at *5 (reviewing Fisher, 425 U.S. at 409-10). See also Braswell v. United States, 487 U.S. 99, 102 (1988) ("There is no question but that the contents of subpoenaed business records are not privileged."); United States v. Doe, 465 U.S. 605, 612 n. 10 (1984) ("If the party asserting the Fifth Amendment privilege has voluntarily compiled the document, no compulsion is present and the contents of the document are not privileged.").

In light of these controlling authorities, Epstein cannot rely on a Fifth Amendment self-incrimination argument to withhold the documents.

C. Epstein Cannot Assert an Act of Production Privilege to Refuse to Produce the Documents to Ms. Giuffre.

Epstein cannot demonstrate that the act of producing documents is incriminating for two separate and independent reasons. First, he will not be producing anything publicly or to the Government, but only confidentially to Ms. Giuffre – a private party. Because any such production will be confidential and pursuant to a protective order, Epstein faces no substantial threat of prosecution from making the disclosure. Second, Epstein’s act of production (as opposed to the documents themselves) is not incriminating.

1. Producing Documents Confidentially to a Private Party Under a Protective Order Does Not Create a Substantial Risk of Incrimination.

During his deposition, Epstein cited two cases as supporting his Fifth Amendment invocations: United States v. Hubbell, 530 U.S. 27 (2000); and United States v. Greenfield, ___ F.3d ___, 2016 WL 4073250 (2d Cir. Aug. 2, 2016). But as even a cursory review of the case captions in those cases makes clear, both of those cases involved litigation in which the Government was attempting to force a witness to disclose information to it. In Hubbell, the issue was whether the Government could issue a subpoena to force a witness to turn over documents to a grand jury investigating criminal charges. 530 U.S. at 30-31. In Greenfield, the issue was similarly whether the Government (specifically the Internal Revenue Service or IRS) could force a taxpayer to turn over records demonstrating possible tax evasion to it.

Here, no such disclosure to the Government will occur if Epstein is compelled to provide answers to Ms. Giuffre’s questions. Moreover, the entire deposition has already been designated as “confidential” by defendant Maxwell, making the proceedings subject to a protective order. See Addendum A (copy of protective order). In such circumstances, there is no substantial risk of incrimination from the mere production of documents to Ms. Giuffre's counsel. See generally Marc Youngelson, The Use of 26(c) Protective Orders: "Pleading the Fifth" Without Suffering "Adverse" Consequences, 1994 Ann. Surv. Am. L. 245 (1995); see also Palmieri v. State of New York, 779 F.2d 861 (2d Cir. 1985).

Pursuant to the protective order, Ms. Giuffre's counsel (and Ms. Maxwell's counsel<sup>4</sup>) are forbidden to disclose the materials for "any purpose except the preparation and trial of this case." Protective Order, ¶ 4. Under the terms of the protective order, all materials secured in the case will be destroyed at the end of the case. Protective Order, ¶ 12. And while the Protective Order does not bar the use of confidential materials at trial, Protective Order ¶ 13, Ms. Giuffre's counsel represent that they will not use at trial any documents that Epstein produces without first notifying Epstein and seeking leave of Court to do so. As a result, Epstein can provide documents to Ms. Giuffre, allowing her to investigate this case without compromising any interest that Epstein may have in avoiding self-incrimination. And most important, because all of the relevant proceedings to this motion – including this motion itself – are under seal at this time, the Government will not even be aware of Epstein's disclosure of materials, much less be in position to even file a motion to attempt alter the protective order. In such circumstances, Epstein faces no "real and substantial hazard" of his act of producing documents to Ms. Giuffre's counsel incriminating himself. United States v. Kowalik, 809 F. Supp. 1571, 1577 (S.D. Fla. 1992), aff'd, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993), and aff'd, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993).

2. Epstein's Mere Act of Producing Documents Does Not Incriminate Himself.

Epstein's act of producing documents to Ms. Giuffre's counsel will not only be unknown to the Government, but it is, in any event, not incriminating. It bears emphasizing – again – that the only possible claim Epstein can raise is not that the document he possesses are in some sense incriminating, but only that the act of producing those documents is incriminating. See United States v. Doe, 465 U.S. 605, __ (1984) (O'Connor, J., concurring) (“the Fifth Amendment provides absolutely no protection for the contents of private papers of any kind.”); United States v. Hubbell, 530 U.S. 27, 35–36 (2000) (noting that it is a “settled proposition that a person may be required to produce specific documents even though they contain incriminating assertions of fact or belief because the creation of those documents was not ‘compelled’ within the meaning of the privilege”); Sallah v. Worldwide Clearing LLC, 855 F. Supp. 2d 1364, 1371 (S.D. Fla. 2012) (“Where documents are voluntarily prepared before they are requested, for example, the Supreme Court has held that such documents do not contain ‘compelled testimonial evidence’ within the meaning of the Fifth Amendment, even if the contents are incriminating.”). The so-called “act of production doctrine” extends protection only to “communicative elements” of production, specifically where compliance with a subpoena could disclose to the Government incriminating information about “(1) the existence of the documents; (2) the [witness’s] possession or control of the documents; and (3) the authenticity of the documents.” United States v. Greenfield, 2016 WL 4073250 at *5 (citing Fisher v. United States, 425 U.S. 391, 411 (1976)).

Once again, Epstein will not be making any act of production to the Government. And, in any event, for many documents of the subpoenaed documents, no plausible claim of act-of-production testimony and incrimination<sup>5</sup> are possible. While Ms. Giuffre will respond to any effort that Epstein makes to carry his burden of establishing his privilege, a few simple

<sup>5</sup> Under the act of production doctrine, Epstein bears the burden of showing both that the production is incriminating and the testimony is incriminating.

illustrations will demonstrate that Epstein's claim that he need not produce even a single document is vastly overbroad.

a. Records Reflecting Communications with Maxwell

One simple example is the request for records reflecting communications between Epstein and defendant Maxwell, including cellular telephone records. See Subpoena, ¶¶ 7, 13. Cell phone records, which would obviously have been sent to Epstein by his carrier, can be easily authenticated by people other than Epstein – including representatives of the carrier or others knowledgeable in cell phone records. See Sallah, 855 F. Supp. 2d at 1374 (requiring production of contracts because “any contracts could be authenticated by someone other than [the person invoking the Fifth Amendment]”). As a result, such records are the kind of regularly-sent business records for which act of production claims are regularly rejected. See Greenfield, 2016 WL 4073250 at *11 (noting that “large commercial financial institutions . . . naturally would have sent regular account statements and other disclosures to account holders . . .”) (citing United States v. Norwood, 420 F.3d 888, 895-96 (8th Cir. 2005) (allowing production of documents “possessed by the owners of financial accounts as a matter of course” associated with specific identified accounts)); see Matter of Grand Jury Subpoenas Dated Oct. 22, 1991, & Nov. 1, 1991, 959 F.2d 1158, 1165 (2d Cir. 1992) (“the act of producing copies of the telephone company statements and bills would not cause Doe to incriminate himself”).

b. Bank Records Reflecting Payments

Another similar example is the request for financial records involving payments made to defendant Maxwell. See Subpoena, ¶ 21. Here again, the simple act of producing the bank records involved in such payments cannot be recorded as either testimonial or incriminating. This is a case where it can be shown “with reasonable particularity that, at the time that the act of production was sought to be compelled, . . . the materials were already known of, thereby making any testimonial aspect [of the production] a “foregone conclusion.”” Sallah v. Worldwide Clearing LLC, 855 F. Supp. 2d 1364, 1372 (S.D. Fla. 2012) (quoting In re Grand Jury Subpoena Duces Tecum Dated March 25, 2011, 670 F.3d 1335, 1346 (11th Cir.2012) (some internal citations omitted). Indeed, this Court has recently required the production of bank records over a Fifth Amendment objections. See Sallah, 855 F.Supp.2d at 1375 (“The Fifth Amendment does not shield [the witness’s] act of production in response to this request [seeking monthly bank account records].”). Moreover, because the documents involve payments to one specifically identified person – i.e., Maxwell – the request calls for Epstein to produce “an objectively determinable universe[] of documents and do[es] not require [him] to employ the contents of his mind to choose what documents might be responsive to the requests. Sallah, 855 F.Supp.2d at 1373 (internal quotations omitted).

c. Photographs Depicted Nude Females

Epstein also lacks any self-incrimination claim for failing to produce photographs of nude or partially nude females. See Subpoena, ¶ 5.<sup>6</sup> A photograph obviously does not involve testimony. And the authenticity of photographs can be established in different ways not involving Epstein. For example, if a photograph fairly and accurately depicts Ms. Giuffre, she herself could authenticate the photograph.

3. Epstein Must, at a Minimum, Produce a Privilege Log.

These examples of documents that could be produced without risk of incrimination could be easily multiplied – and Ms. Giuffre, by filing this motion, seeks to compel Epstein to respond to all 22 of her document requests. But in considering Fifth Amendment issues, a broader point becomes relevant. Epstein does not appear to have even bothered to first collect responsive documents before asserting a Fifth Amendment claim. For example, during his deposition, Epstein took the Fifth rather than answer a question about whether he had produced a privilege log. Epstein Depo. Tr. at 228.

<sup>6</sup> If Epstein possesses particular photographs that are “child pornography,” then production of those particular photographs could itself be incriminating. However, child pornography is narrowly defined as images of a minor “engaging in sexually explicit conduct.” See 18 U.S.C. 2256(8)(A). Ms. Giuffre is not seeking the production of any such contraband materials from Epstein.

Under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Epstein is required to produce a privilege log for the communications he is withholding. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(e)(2)(A) provides that “[a] person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged . . . must describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.” Epstein should have provided this log at the time of his deposition so that he could be questioned about it. He certainly should produce a log immediately, if he hopes to sustain his claim.

The “general rule” in this Court is that a “blanket refusal to produce records or to testify is simply insufficient to support a Fifth Amendment claim.” United States v. Kowalik, 809 F. Supp. 1571, 1577 (S.D. Fla. 1992), aff’d, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993), and aff’d, 12 F.3d 218 (11th Cir. 1993). Instead, a witness who has been subpoenaed to produce documents “must present himself with his records for questioning, and as to each question and each record elect to raise or not to raise the defense.” Id. (discussing taxpayer’s refusal to respond to IRS summons). In addition, the Court’s local rules require the production of a privilege log whenever materials are withheld on the basis of privilege. See Local 26.1(e)(2)(C) (“This rule requires preparation of a privilege log with respect to all documents, electronically stored information, things and oral communications withheld on the basis of a claim of privilege . . . except [attorney-client communications or work product materials created after the lawsuit].”).

Epstein was served with a subpoena from the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. That Court also requires production of a privilege log at the time of any objection to a subpoena. As that Court has explained:

Both Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) and 45(c) and S.D.N.Y. Civ. R. 26.2 require the submission of a privilege log where a person served with a document request or subpoena objects to the production of requested documents on the ground of privilege. Rule 26(b)(5) does not explicitly state exactly when the privilege log must be provided. Rule 45 is more precise, requiring that a person objecting to a subpoena must serve either written objections or move to quash within the earlier of the time fixed for compliance or fourteen days after service and, if withholding subpoenaed material on the ground of privilege, must provide a privilege log.<sup>46</sup> It thus suggests strongly that the privilege log, absent judicial relief, must accompany any objections or motion to quash. But Local Rule 26.2 is even more explicit. Paragraph (c) states:

“Where a claim of privilege is asserted in response to discovery or disclosure other than a deposition, and information is not provided on the basis of such assertion, the information set forth in paragraph (a) above shall be furnished in writing at the time of the response to such discovery or disclosure, unless otherwise ordered by the court.”

This reflects a 1997 modification to the local rules “to specifically require that the privilege list ... be furnished at the time of the response unless otherwise ordered by the court.”<sup>48</sup>

In re Chevron Corp., 749 F. Supp. 2d 170, 180–81 (S.D.N.Y.), aff’d sub nom. Lago Agrio Plaintiffs v. Chevron Corp., 409 F. App’x 393 (2d Cir. 2010).

Epstein should, at a minimum, be required to produce a privilege log for each of the 22 questions in the subpoena and explain the basis for his Fifth Amendment invocations. At that point, Ms. Giuffre will be in a position to further respond and show why his invocations are not well-founded.

II. EPSTEIN SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS THAT FACIALLY POSE NO REAL AND SUBSTANTIAL RISK OF SELF-INCRIMINATION.

Epstein also took the Fifth with regard to many questions for which there was no realistic risk of self-incrimination. As the Eleventh Circuit has explained, “[t]he central standard for the ... application [of the fifth amendment privilege against self-incrimination is] whether the claimant is confronted by substantial and ‘real’, and not merely trifling or imaginary, hazards of incrimination.” United States v. Argomaniz, 925 F.2d 1349, 1353 (11th Cir. 1991) (citing Marchetti v. United States, 390 U.S. 39, 53 (1968)). Thus, the privilege applies only in “instances where the witness has reasonable cause to apprehend danger” of criminal liability. Argomaniz, 925 F.2d at 1353 (citing Hoffman v. United States, 341 U.S. 479, 486 (1951)).

Not only does Epstein bear the burden of establishing the validity of his privilege claim, but a “court must make a particularized inquiry, deciding, in connection with each specific area that the questioning party wishes to explore, whether or not the privilege is well-founded.” Argomaniz, 925 F.2d 1349, 1355 (11th Cir. 1991). Here, there are a number of questions that does not appear to pose any “substantial and real” risk of incrimination. These questions include the following:

1. Q. Is there anything, including any physical conditions or ailments, that would prevent you from giving truthful testimony today? (Id. at 15).
2. Q. What state do you consider yourself to be a citizen of? (Id. at 15-16).
3. Q. You know the Defendant in this case, Ghislaine Maxwell, true? (Id. at 16).
4. Other questions of a similar nature about interactions with Maxwell. (Id. at 16-20).
5. Epstein has a joint defense agreement and common interest agreement with Maxwell. (Id. at 20-21).
6. Without going into the substance of any communications that you have had, you have communicated with Maxwell since September 21st, 2015, true? (Id. at 26.)
7. Q. What e-mail accounts has Maxwell used in her communications with you? (Id. at 27).

8. Q. In June 2008, in open court, you pled guilty to two Florida State felonies, correct? (Id. at 28.)
9. Other similar questions relating to the state crime to which Epstein has already plead guilty. (Id. at 28-42).
10. Q. In fact, at that time [around 2005], Maxwell was regularly at your Palm Beach mansion, true? (Id. at 43.)
11. Q. Sir, isn't it true that Mas. Maxwell was running your Palm Beach mansion in 2000 [and other years]? (Id. at 44-47.)
12. [Following a break in the deposition] Q. Without going into the substance of any communication, who[m] did you speak to during the break? (Id. at 48.)
13. Q. You have millions and millions of dollars available to your disposal to satisfy any need for assistance in responding to discovery in this case, true? (Id. at 165.)
14. Q. How much money have you given Maxwell since 1996? (Id. at 166.)
15. Other similar questions regarding financial payments to or transactions with Maxwell. (Id. at 166-69).
16. Q. In the period 1999 to 2005, what kind of donations did you make to the Palm Beach Police Department or to any organization associated with the Palm Beach Police Department? (Id. at 172.)
17. Q. Please describe all dinners you've ever had with Bill Clinton. (Id. at 176.)
18. Q. If we wanted to serve you with legal process in the future, what would be the simplest way to do that? (Id. at 179.)
19. Q. Please describe all your overseas travel in the last two years. (Id. at 179-80.)
20. Q. It's a matter of public record that you later settled that lawsuit [filed against you by Ms. Giuffre], right? (Id. at 196.)
21. Q. Sir, you are [un]willing to sign an unconditional waiver allowing Virginia to turn over the settlement agreement to Maxwell, right? (Id. at 198).<sup>7</sup>
22. Q. Sir, you know Harvard Law Professor, now former law professor, Alan Dershowitz? (Id. at 199.)

---

<sup>7</sup> The transcript errantly uses the term "willing," but in context the term should have been recorded by the stenographer as "unwilling." In either event, the point remains that Epstein took the Fifth rather than answer this question.

23. Q. Alan Dershowitz has sent drafts of books he was writing for you to review, right? (Id. at 200.)
24. Q. Without discussing any particular attorney-client communications, what was the general type of legal work [Dershowitz] did for you? (Id. at 200.)
25. Q. When did Dershowitz first become your lawyer? (Id. at 201.)
26. Q. Has Dershowitz ever provided you business advice of a nonlegal nature? (Id. at 201-02.)
27. Q. [Shortly after December 30, 2014] Did you authorize Dershowitz to make any public statements on your behalf? (Id. at 204.)
28. Q. Was that [statement to the media that “He’s as outraged as I am,” referring to Epstein] an authorized statement on your behalf by Alan Dershowitz? (Id. at 206.)
29. Related questions about Dershowitz’s statement to the media describing a statement made by Epstein. (Id. at 205-06.)
30. Q. In 2000 and 2001, Dershowitz came to visit you in your New York mansion, true? (Id. at 206.)
31. Q. If we focus in on the years 2000 and 2001, how many times did Dershowitz visit you in your various homes? (Id. at 207.)
32. Q. While you were negotiating with the U.S. Attorney’s Office, you were also working with [Assistant U.S. Attorneys] Menchel and Lurie to help them secure lucrative employment when they left the office, right? (Id. at 213.)
33. Q. Bill Clinton flew on your jet a number of times in 2002, right? (Id. at 219.)
34. Q. Maxwell frequently flew a helicopter in the U.S. Virgin Islands, right? (Id. at 221.)
35. Q. Please list every place you and Bill Clinton have ever been together. (Id. at 222-23.)

It is up to Epstein to show that each of these questions that he refused to answer posed a substantial risk of self-incrimination. Moreover, if Epstein can provide even some information in answer to the question without incriminating himself, he must provide that partial answer.

See, e.g., Nat'l Day Laborer Org. Network v. U.S. Immigration & Customs Enft Agency, 811 F. Supp. 2d 713, 740 (S.D.N.Y. 2011), amended on reconsideration (Aug. 8, 2011) (discussing documents “redacted to different degrees” to provide information without violating privilege); Jones v. B. C. Christopher & Co., 466 F. Supp. 213, 223 (D. Kan. 1979) (noting that witness “may make partial answers and stop when he believes further comment would incriminate him”). A “witness is not exonerated from answering merely because he declares that in so doing he would incriminate himself; his say-so does not of itself establish the hazard of incrimination.” Martin-Trigona v. Gouletas, 634 F.2d 354, 360 (7th Cir. 1980). Because Epstein cannot establish the hazard of incrimination with respect to each of the questions above, the Court should compel him to answer each of these questions (and permit counsel to ask reasonable follow-up questions in the same vein).

III. EPSTEIN SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT MAXWELL’S INVOLVEMENT WITH FEMALES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Epstein should also be compelled to answer questions about Maxwell’s involvement with females in foreign countries. The Supreme Court has made very clear that a witness may not invoke a Fifth Amendment privilege to refuse to answer questions that pose a risk of prosecution in foreign countries. United States v. Balsys, 524 U.S. 666 (1998). The Court reasoned that the Fifth Amendment creates rights only against the federal government (and, via incorporation through the Fourteenth Amendment, against state governments). Id. at 672-74. As a result, any argument that the Fifth Amendment has extra-territorial application has been foreclosed. Valenzuela v. United States, 286 F.3d 1223, 1229 (11th Cir. 2002).

In light of this controlling legal authority, Ms. Giuffre asked Epstein a series of very narrow and specific questions about purely foreign activities. The questions began with the limitation that Epstein was “to understand that the next series of questions we’ll be dealing just with your actions in England, not with any of your actions in the United States.” Epstein Depo. Tr. at 140. Epstein was then asked a series of questions – including a number of questions involving “English females.” This limitation is important because Epstein may seek to invoke a Fifth Amendment privilege with regard to his trafficking of American girls into England. See, e.g., 18 U.S.C. § 2421(a). But no such trafficking concerns exist with regard to females already located in England.

For these reasons, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to force Epstein to disclose even his activities with foreign females in foreign countries. But in this motion, Ms. Giuffre does not go so far. Instead, she moves the Court to compel answers to a much narrower set of questions – specifically, Maxwell’s interactions with females overseas in specific countries. The specific questions Ms. Giuffre moves to compel Epstein to answer are:

England

1. Q. While in England, in Miss Maxwell’s private residence, you observed Maxwell in the presence of English females under the age of 18, true? (Id.)
2. Q. While in England, Ms. Maxwell brought you English females to satisfy your sexual purposes, true? (Id.)
3. Q. Please describe how many times you have seen Maxwell in private locations with girls under the age of 18 in England? (Id. at 142)
4. Q. Based on your understanding of English criminal law, you have observed Maxwell commit English criminal offenses of a sexual nature in England, true? (Id.)
5. Q. Have you ever observed Maxwell commit a crime in England? (Id. at 143.)
6. Q. Please describe for me all the crimes you have seen Maxwell commit in England. (Id. at 144.)
7. Q. Please describe Maxwell’s interactions in England with females under the age of 18. (Id. at 144.)

France

8. Q. Maxwell has frequently been to your apartment in Paris, France, true? (Id. at 153.)

Thailand

9. Q. You saw Maxwell in the presence of Thai females under the age of 18 in Thailand, true? (Id. at 155.)

Brunei

10. Q. In 2002, you flew to Brunei with Maxwell on your private jet, true? (Id. at 157.)
11. Q. Are you aware of . . . interaction by Maxwell with women in Brunei? (Id. at 159.) Q. Are you aware of any interaction by Maxwell with girls under the age of 18 in Brunei? (Id.)
12. Q. Please describe all the interactions you saw between Maxwell and girls from Brunei in Brunei. (Id.)

Czech Republic/Czechoslovakia

13. Q. Was Maxwell ever with you when you were in the presence of girls under the age of 18 in the Czech Republic? (Id. at 161.)
14. Q. Has Maxwell ever interacted with minor girls from the former country known as Czechoslovakia? (Id. at 163.)

Other Countries

15. Q. Please name all of the countries, not including the United States, where you have seen Maxwell in the presence of females who lived in those countries under the age of 18. (Id. at 162.)
16. Q. Please describe for me Maxwell's sexual interactions with females under the age of 18 in foreign countries with citizens of those countries. (Id. at 162.)
17. Q. Has Maxwell ever interacted with females under the age of 18 in foreign countries? (Id. at 162-63.)
18. Q. Based on your understanding of the criminal laws of other countries, has Maxwell ever committed a crime of a sexual nature in another country? (Id. at 164.)

19. Q. Please describe all the crimes of a sexual nature that you understand Maxwell has committed foreign countries. (Id. at 164.)
20. Q. Epstein cannot claim a realistic risk of incriminating himself by discussing these specific events regarding Maxwell.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, respectfully requests that the Court grant her Motion to Compel and direct Jeffrey Epstein to: (1) produce the documents that he has been subpoenaed to produce (or, at the very least, produce a privilege log for each of the categories for which documents are sought); (2) answer the specific, identified questions identified in Section II above (and reasonable follow up questions) that pose no substantial and real risk of incrimination; and (3) answer specific questions about Maxwell's interactions with females in other countries (and reasonable follow up questions), as identified in Section III above.

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon a showing of good cause in support of the entry of a protective order to protect the discovery and dissemination of confidential information or information which will improperly annoy, embarrass, or oppress any party, witness, or person providing discovery in this case, IT IS ORDERED:

1. This Protective Order shall apply to all documents, materials, and information, including without limitation, documents produced, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, deposition testimony, and other information disclosed pursuant to the disclosure or discovery duties created by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
2. As used in this Protective Order, "document" is defined as provided in FED.R.CIV.P. 34(a). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

3. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be information that is confidential and implicates common law and statutory privacy interests of (a) plaintiff Virginia Roberts Giuffre and (b) defendant Ghislaine Maxwell.
4. CONFIDENTIAL information shall not be disclosed or used for any purpose except the preparation and trial of this case.
5. CONFIDENTIAL documents, materials, and/or information (collectively "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION") shall not, without the consent of the party producing it or further Order of the Court, be disclosed except that such information may be disclosed to:
  - a. attorneys actively working on this case;
  - b. persons regularly employed or associated with the attorneys actively working on this case whose assistance is required by said attorneys in the preparation for trial, at trial, or at other proceedings in this case;
  - c. the parties;
  - d. expert witnesses and consultants retained in connection with this proceeding, to the extent such disclosure is necessary for preparation, trial or other proceedings in this case;
  - e. the Court and its employees ("Court Personnel") in this case;
  - f. stenographic reporters who are engaged in proceedings necessarily incident to the conduct of this action;
  - g. deponents, witnesses, or potential witnesses; and

- h. other persons by written agreement of the parties.
6. Prior to disclosing any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to any person listed above (other than counsel, persons employed by counsel, Court Personnel and stenographic reporters), counsel shall provide such person with a copy of this Protective Order and obtain from such person a written acknowledgment stating that he or she has read this Protective Order and agrees to be bound by its provisions. All such acknowledgments shall be retained by counsel and shall be subject to in camera review by the Court if good cause for review is demonstrated by opposing counsel.
  7. Documents are designated as CONFIDENTIAL by placing or affixing on them (in a manner that will not interfere with their legibility) the following or other appropriate notice: "CONFIDENTIAL." Discovery material designated CONFIDENTIAL shall be identified by Bates number. To the extent practical, the respective legend shall be placed near the Bates number.
  8. Designation of a document as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION shall constitute a representation that such document has been reviewed by an attorney for the designating party, that there is a valid and good faith basis for such designation, made at the time of disclosure or production to the receiving party, and that disclosure of such information to persons other than those permitted access to such material would cause a privacy harm to the designating party.

9. Whenever a deposition involves the disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, the deposition or portions thereof shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL and shall be subject to the provisions of this Protective Order. Such designation shall be made on the record during the deposition whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions as CONFIDENTIAL after transcription, provided written notice of the designation is promptly given to all counsel of record within thirty (30) days after notice by the court reporter of the completion of the transcript, and until the expiration of such thirty (30) days after notice by the court reporter of the completion of the transcript, no party or counsel for any such party may share the contents of the deposition outside the limitations of this Protective Order.
10. Whenever a party seeks to file any document or material containing CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION with the Court in this matter, it shall be accompanied by a Motion to Seal pursuant to Section 6.2 of the Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions for the Southern District of New York.
11. A party may object to the designation of particular CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information. The written notice shall identify the information to which the objection is made. If the parties cannot resolve the objection within ten (10) business days after the time the notice is received, it shall be the obligation of the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL to file an appropriate motion requesting that the Court determine whether the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order. If such a motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. If the designating party fails to file such a motion within the prescribed time, the disputed information shall lose its designation as CONFIDENTIAL and shall not thereafter be treated as CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Protective Order. In connection with a motion filed under this provision, the party designating the information as CONFIDENTIAL shall bear the burden of establishing that good cause exists for the disputed information to be treated as CONFIDENTIAL.

12. At the conclusion of this case, unless other arrangements are agreed upon, each document and all copies thereof which have been designated as CONFIDENTIAL shall be returned to the party that designated it CONFIDENTIAL, or the parties may elect to destroy CONFIDENTIAL documents. Where the parties agree to destroy CONFIDENTIAL documents, the destroying party shall provide all parties with an affidavit confirming the destruction.
13. This Protective Order shall have no force and effect on the use of any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION at trial in this matter.

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Response to Plaintiff’s Motion To Compel Data From Defendant’s (Non-Existent) Undisclosed Email Account and For an Adverse Inference Instruction and states as follow:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff continues in her course of re-litigating issues, multiplying these proceedings and misstating the record. In what amounts to the fourth Motion on forensic examination of Ms. Maxwell’s computers and email accounts, Plaintiff now trumps up a claim that some unidentified and “undisclosed” email account should have been searched and was not. To the contrary, Ms. Maxwell has spent thousands of dollars to forensically image all of her devices, searching every account to which she has access, conducting extremely broad and over-reaching searches for the search terms Plaintiff requested and in complying with this Court’s Orders. The result of these exercises proved, as Ms. Maxwell has always maintained, that all non-privileged relevant and responsive documents in her possession, custody and control had already been searched for and produced prior to the excessive and redundant briefing on these issues, resulting in no additional production. Plaintiff’s Motion must be denied because no “undisclosed” email account exists and Ms. Maxwell has fully complied with this Court’s Orders.

ARGUMENT

I. PLAINTIFF HAS FAILED TO CONFER UNDER RULE 37(A)(1) OR THIS COURT’S ORDER

Despite the clear requirements of Rule 37(a)(1) requiring a certificate of conferral prior to filing any motion to compel, and this Court’s standing order regarding conferral on all discovery issues prior to Motions practice, the sum total of Plaintiff’s stated conferral attempt is a footnote stating that a letter was sent on September 23, 2016 “inquiring about the undisclosed account” – a letter not included in the exhibits to the Motion. Ms. Maxwell has been clear that she has searched all accounts that she can access. Had Plaintiff bothered to follow up on this alleged communication, Ms. Maxwell would have reaffirmed that there is no “undisclosed” email account. Instead, Plaintiff filed this frivolous and vexatious motion to waste both the Court and Ms. Maxwell’s time and needlessly multiply these proceedings.

Courts in this district routinely deny motions based on failure to confer prior to the motion when such conferral is required by the Rules or Court Order. Prescient Partners, L.P. v. Fieldcrest Cannon, Inc., No. 96 Civ. 7590 (DAB) JCF, 1998 WL 67672, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“Under ordinary circumstances,..., the failure to meet and confer mandates denial of a motion to compel.”); Excess Ins. Co. v. Rochdale Ins. Co., No. 05 CIV. 10174, 2007 WL 2900217, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 4, 2007) (Sweet, J.) (denying motion and cross motion based on failure to confer, noting “[m]ere correspondence, absent exigent circumstances not present here, does not satisfy the requirement”); Myers v. Andzel, No. 06 CIV. 14420 (RWS), 2007 WL 3256865, at *1 (Sweet, J.) (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 15, 2007) (denying motion based on failure to confer).

The Court has been abundantly clear on the necessity for conferral prior to motions practice. In the March 17, 2016 hearing, the Court ordered that prior to motions practice, the parties were to set an agenda on the disputed issue in writing and have a meeting of substance prior to filing a motion. “So I would say exchange writing as to what it's going to be and have a meeting. It doesn't have to be in person, but it certainly has to be a significant meeting; it can't be just one ten-minute telephone call. So that's how I feel about the meet and confer.” Tr. p. 3. As shown in the Plaintiff’s motion, no such call has occurred.

Based on Plaintiff’s failure to confer as required by both the Federal Rules and this Court’s standing order, Ms. Maxwell requests that the Motion be denied and attorneys’ fees and costs of responding be awarded to Ms. Maxwell.

II. MS. MAXWELL HAS DISCLOSED AND SEARCHED ALL EMAIL ACCOUNTS

a. All Devices Have Been Forensically Searched for Responsive Emails

As requested by Plaintiff and Ordered by the Court, Ms. Maxwell's computer and all of her electronic devices have been forensically imaged, searched for the search terms requested by Plaintiff, and all responsive documents produced. This expensive, costly and time consuming exercise in futility simply confirmed that all responsive documents, including all responsive emails, were produced in March and April 2016.

Most significantly, the devices were searched for all emails—whether saved or deleted – and irrespective of which account they came from; not a single responsive email was located from any MindSpring account and no emails were located from Earthlink or any other secret, hidden, “undisclosed” email account, as Plaintiff speculates must exist.

b. The MindSpring account

The first two accounts discussed in the Motion have already been fully discussed in prior briefings and at length in conferral conferences.<sup>1</sup> See DE 320. In addition to the search of Ms. Maxwell's computer and devices, the first account, [REDACTED] was forensically searched on its server using the search terms proposed by Defendants and as required by the Court. The search uncovered no responsive documents from any time period. See DE 320. This included both emails in the account, deleted emails, and any other information relating to the account retained on the MindSpring server. There can simply be no claim for an adverse inference where Plaintiff has already received exactly what she requested – a forensic search of the account for her own defined terms. It resulted in nothing.

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff conveniently omits the fact that the EarthLink and MindSpring accounts were in an address book purportedly recovered from Mr. Epstein's home by the Palm Beach Police in 2005. Thus, there is no indication or inference that either of these accounts were created or used in the 2000 to 2002 time frame as Plaintiff claims.

c. The EarthLink account

The second account, [REDACTED], is, as Ms. Maxwell has repeatedly explained to Plaintiff's counsel, an account that she does not recognize, that she does not recall having ever logged onto, and for which she has no password. See DE 320. Ms. Maxwell tried every avenue available online through EarthLink to reset the password or otherwise access the account. In fact, when one attempts to recover a password for that account, the system states "The email address you entered is not an EarthLink email address or ID." According to Plaintiff, such a message means the account has been permanently deleted by the host company. Plaintiff's counsel, Meredith Shultz, wrote on May 17, 2016, regarding an account of Plaintiff's (that she claims she cannot access but for which relevant and responsive emails were located on her computer):

"Regarding her live.com address, it appears that the account has been permanently deleted by the host Company. One method of telling if an account still exists for live.com (and for most web mail systems) is to perform an account password recovery. When you enter the e-mail address and enter the captcha code and hit Next, the website states that it does not recognize the email address. This means that the account has been permanently deleted from live.com's system."

Menninger Decl., Ex. A.

Plaintiff does not, and cannot, explain why she thinks that her own live.com email address has been permanently deleted by the host company, yet based on the exact same set of data, she thinks that an email account that Ms. Maxwell does not recall ever using (and from which no documents exist on her devices) from Earthlink still remains on its system. If there is some way to access the account, Plaintiff hasn't said what it is. Ms. Maxwell simply has no way to access this account and has no information, save Plaintiff's rank speculation.<sup>2</sup>

---

<sup>2</sup> Plaintiff has an account from which actual documents have been produced – proving she did use the account (unlike Ms. Maxwell's EarthLink account) and it contains relevant information. Yet Plaintiff claims she

Because Plaintiff claimed she cannot access her Microsoft account, Ms. Maxwell subpoenaed Microsoft for the documents. Plaintiff moved to quash the subpoena to obtain the information contained in the account and has refused to sign the release provided to her that would allow the production of that information under the terms of a subpoena issued to Microsoft. Menninger Decl., Ex. B. Tellingly, Plaintiff did not issue a subpoena to EarthLink regarding this account to see if it existed, has content or could be accessed. Instead, she seeks the drastic and improper sanction of an adverse inference knowing that it is far more beneficial to her than actually receiving information from EarthLink which would reveal nothing exists.

d. There is no “Undisclosed” Account

Plaintiff next argues that she is entitled to an adverse inference based on the failure to search a phantom e-mail account that she presumes (without support and based on pure speculation) must have existed, which she has never asked about in discovery, claiming that such an account was improperly “undisclosed” and not searched. Plaintiff bases her absurd argument on statistics suggesting that someone like Ms. Maxwell “likely” had an email account in the 2000 to 2002 timeframe and a specious claim that Ms. Maxwell has never denied having an email account from 2000 to 2002. Motion at 2. Notably absent from the Motion is a single interrogatory, request for admission, or deposition question in which Ms. Maxwell was asked to provide all email addresses she has used or asked if she ever had an email account in 2000 to 2002. No such question was ever posed to Ms. Maxwell on this issue.<sup>3</sup> How could she possibly deny the existence of an account when she was never asked the question?

cannot access her Microsoft account because she does not remember the password and does not have sufficient personal information to provide to gain access to the account. DE 207; DE 441. This is not dissimilar to Ms. Maxwell who does not even remember the account let alone the password.

<sup>3</sup> By contrast, Ms. Maxwell requested that Plaintiff identify all email and social media accounts which she had used since 1998. Plaintiff provided false information, and purposefully omitted accounts that have since been discovered, one of which Plaintiff still has failed to forensically search and disclose its responsive documents.

Plaintiff asks this Court to infer the existence of an undisclosed “email” account for Ms. Maxwell in the 2000-2002 timeframe based on witness accounts that Jeffrey Epstein had a “messaging system” on a private server. Of course, there is a big difference between having a private email account (gmail, aol, yahoo, etc.) and communicating through a private messaging system on an employer’s sever, as described by Mr. Alessi (“It was a server. I think it was --the office would have, like, a message system between him, the houses, the employees, his friends. They would write a message on the computer. There was no email at that time.”).<sup>4</sup> To the extent there was a private messaging system used by Mr. Epstein’s household employees maintained on a private server by Mr. Epstein, information from that system is not available to Ms. Maxwell. Ms. Maxwell has not been employed by Mr. Epstein for over 10 years and has not had any access to Mr. Epstein’s server through Citrix or otherwise since at least the end of her employment with him.

“Whether a party subject to a document request can be compelled to comply depends on two preliminary questions: (1) assuming the requested documents exist, does the party have possession, custody or control over them, and (2) if the party has such possession, custody or control, can the party be compelled to conduct a reasonable search for and, if found, to produce the documents.” Gross v. Lunduski, 304 F.R.D. 136, 142 (W.D.N.Y. 2014). Ms. Maxwell is not in the possession, custody or control of the server or any information it may contain. “Where control is contested, the party seeking production of documents bears the burden of establishing the opposing party's control over those documents.” Alexander Interactive, Inc. v. Adorama, Inc., No. 12 CIV. 6608 (PKC) (JCF), 2014 WL 61472, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 6, 2014). Plaintiff has made no showing that Ms. Maxwell has any control over the hypothetical documents she suspects may be on Mr. Epstein’s private server. As has been made clear by Mr. Epstein’s refusal to produce any documents in this matter or provide any testimony, instead invoking his Fifth Amendment privilege, there is no manner in which Ms. Maxwell could require Mr. Epstein to provide any information on Mr. Epstein’s private server. Notably, no such “messages” were located on any of Ms. Maxwell’s devices or within her email accounts.

<sup>4</sup> It appears this is what was also being described by Mr. Banasiak in the deposition from another case, a full copy of which has never been produced in this litigation. Indeed, Mr. Banasiak has not been identified as a person with relevant or discoverable information in any of the last three of Plaintiff’s Rule 26 Disclosures. In the cited testimony, Mr. Banasiak appears to have discussed accessing a private messaging system maintained on Mr. Epstein’s private server using Citrix, a program that allows such access to authorized users. Because Plaintiff has failed to disclose the transcript being quoted, Ms. Maxwell cannot fully decipher the obviously edited testimony quoted in the Motion, does not know what timeframe Mr. Banasiak was referring to regarding the computers or using Citrix, and cannot respond to the claims made regarding the nature of any inference that could be drawn from Mr. Banasiak’s selected testimony. The entire argument and reference to the transcript must be ignored and stricken based on Plaintiff’s failure to produce in discovery the transcript she relies on.

Simply put, there are no emails from any accounts, systems or electronic storage devices over which Ms. Maxwell has possession, custody or control that have not been searched and from which responsive non-privileged documents produced.

III. SANCTIONS AGAINST MS. MAXWELL NOT WARRANTED, RATHER COSTS OUGHT TO BE AWARDED TO HER

Plaintiff completely fails to identify which, if any, of the Rules of Civil Procedure she relies on to claim any right to request sanctions, let alone to receive an adverse inference instruction. The argument appears premised on a claim that Ms. Maxwell has not complied with the Court’s Order – a completely inaccurate claim:

On June 20, 2016, this Court ordered:

Defendant is ordered to collect all ESI by imaging her computers and collecting all email and text messages on any devices in Defendant's possession or to which she has access that Defendant used between the period of 2002 to present. Defendant is further directed to run mutually- agreed upon search terms related to Plaintiff's requests for production over the aforementioned ESI and produce responsive documents within 21 days of distribution of this opinion.

This was done. Plaintiff then expanded her request, imposed additional search terms, and added conditions concerning the manner in which she wanted devices searched. On August 9, 2016, the Court entered an Order adopting Plaintiff's expanded request and methodology. All accessible email accounts and devices, including deleted files and emails, were searched – again – at significant expense. Again, no additional non-privileged responsive documents were located. There is no non-compliance and no basis for any sanctions, let alone the draconian sanction of an adverse inference.

a. Plaintiff Fails to Identify or Prove the Factors Required for Sanctions Based on Alleged Violation of a Court Order

Absent from Plaintiff's motion is the actual legal standard required for imposition of sanctions, and certainly no argument or citation exist in this case to carry the burden of establishing the factors. In light of the fact that Ms. Maxwell has complied, Plaintiff has failed to demonstrate the minimum hurdle for any sanction. Thus, the factors are not addressed here, nor can they be addressed on Reply. What is clear is that the sanction of an adverse inference is not identified as a sanction that should or could be considered under the rules concerning the failure to comply with a Court Order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b)(2)(A).

b. Controlling Law Prohibits an Adverse Inference Instruction

An adverse inference instruction is considered an “extreme sanction” that “should not be given lightly.” Zubulake v. UBS Warburg LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212, 220 (S.D.N.Y. 2003). More importantly Plaintiff completely ignores the 2015 changes to Fed. R. Civ. P 37(e)(2), which now permits an adverse inference instruction only when the court finds that a spoliating party purposefully and willfully destroys evidence and that party “acted with the intent to deprive another party of the information's use in the litigation.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(e)(2). The new Rule 37 “rejects cases such as Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306 F.3d 99

(2d Cir. 2002)<sup>5</sup>, that authorize the giving of adverse-inference instructions on a finding of negligence or gross negligence.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(e)(2) Advisory Committee's Note to 2015 Amendment; see also Thomas v. Butkiewicz, No. 3:13-CV-747 (JCH), 2016 WL 1718368, at *7 (D. Conn. Apr. 29, 2016) (recognizing abrogation of Residential Funding). There is no claim of spoliation – no information has been lost or destroyed since the threat or initiation of litigation when there would have been a duty to preserve. There is no bad faith. Ms. Maxwell has completely complied with all Court Orders and there are no accessible accounts or electronic devices that have not been searched.

- i. The cases cited by Plaintiff are not the controlling standards, and Plaintiff fails to establish the elements required for an adverse inference

Plaintiff relies heavily on her previously briefed motion requesting an adverse inference relying on factors in a single case, Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Financial Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 108 (2nd Cir. 2002). This case sets forth the standard for an adverse inference based on the inherent powers of the Court (not under Rule 37(b)) where the party failed to produce relevant documents prior to the commencement of trial. Id. (“where, as here, an adverse inference instruction is sought on the basis that the evidence was not produced in time for use at trial, the party seeking the instruction must show (1) that the party having control over the evidence had an obligation to timely produce it; (2) that the party that failed to timely produce the evidence had “a culpable state of mind”; and (3) that the missing evidence is “relevant” to the party’s claim or defense such that a reasonable trier of fact could find that it would support that claim or defense”). By contrast, however, courts have repeatedly noted that an adverse inference, and application of the Residential Funding test, are not appropriate for a mere delay in production, especially when all documents are produced prior to depositions and trial. See

---

<sup>5</sup> This is the primary case relied on by Plaintiff in support of both of her Motions for an adverse inference.

Psihoyos v. John Wiley & Sons, Inc., No. 11CV01416, 2012 WL 3601087 (S.D.N.Y. June 22, 2012) (refusing to grant adverse inference instruction where Plaintiff did not confer to obtain requested discovery, and noting “Plaintiff does not cite to a single case where an adverse inference instruction was ordered based on the late production of a document”).<sup>6</sup> Here, there was no delay in production – there was and is nothing additional to produce. All documents were produced well in advance of trial, prohibiting an adverse inference.

Even if the Residential Funding factors were applicable, Plaintiff fails to carry her burden of proving those factors are present in this case. Defendant does not contest that she is obligated to comply with this Court’s Orders. She has done so. She has collected all of her electronically stored information, and run all agreed upon search terms – and then re-run the searches when Plaintiff further expanded her demands. The result of the application of these search terms is proof that she has been compliant with her discovery obligations all along. No new non-privileged documents were captured through utilization of the process demanded by Plaintiff. As Ms. Maxwell previously stated in response to the Motion for forensic examination, she had run comprehensive search terms, thoroughly reviewed her records and previously produced all responsive documents in her possession.<sup>7</sup>

The second factor, that “the party that failed to timely produce the evidence had ‘a culpable state of mind’” is likewise lacking. There is no claim of Defendant acting with a

<sup>6</sup> See also Phoenix Four, Inc., No. 05 CIV. 4837(HB), 2006 WL 1409413, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. May 23, 2006) (holding that a sanction as severe as an adverse inference was not warranted where defendants came forward with the evidence, even though it was after the close of discovery); Williams v. Saint-Gobain Corp., No. 00 Civ. 502, 2002 WL 1477618, at *2 (W.D.N.Y. June 28, 2002) (holding that no basis for adverse inference instruction existed where defendant failed to produce emails until the eve of trial and there was no evidence of bad faith); In re A & M Florida Properties II, LLC, No. 09-15173 (AJG), 2010 WL 1418861, at *6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 7, 2010) (declining to impose adverse inference instruction where documents were belatedly produced, but there was no bad faith).

<sup>7</sup> Plaintiff’s argument that she has been or will be prejudiced is illogical given that there are no documents that have not been produced, and there never have been any responsive documents missing from production.

culpable state of mind, nor is any argued. How can one have a culpable state of mind where there are no additional accounts to search or documents to be produced?

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, Plaintiff fails to provide a shred of evidence that “the missing evidence is ‘relevant’ to the party’s claim or defense such that a reasonable trier of fact could find that it would support that claim or defense.” Residential Funding Corp., 306 F.3d at 108. As discussed, completion of the multiple levels of forensic searches resulted in no responsive non-privileged documents. The hypothetical “undisclosed” email account does not exist. There can simply be no claim that there are any “missing” documents, let alone that they are relevant to Plaintiff’s claims or defenses. Giarrizzo v. Holder, No. 07-CV-0801 MAD/GHL, 2012 WL 716189, at *3 (N.D.N.Y. Mar. 5, 2012) (refusing request for adverse inference where Plaintiff failed to demonstrate relevance prong stating “Plaintiff only identifies the alleged missing documents and speculates, without proof, that the documents support his claim. Indeed, plaintiff has not proven that the aforementioned documents exist”); Sovulj v. United States, No. 98 CV 5550FBRML, 2005 WL 2290495, at *5 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 20, 2005) (plaintiff could not meet the requirements for obtaining an adverse inference because assertion that missing evidence was relevant was pure speculation); see also Orbit One Commc'ns, Inc. v. Numerex Corp., 271 F.R.D. 429, 439 (S.D.N.Y. 2010) (collecting spoliation cases holding that an adverse inference is inappropriate without proof beyond mere speculation allegedly lost information was relevant). “Without proof that defendant's actions, ‘created an unfair evidentiary imbalance, an adverse inference charge is not warranted.’” Giarrizzo, 2012 WL 716189, at *2 (citing Richard Green (Fine Paintings) v. McClendon, 262 F.R.D. 284, 291 (S.D.N.Y. 2009)). Here, Plaintiff cannot demonstrate that there is any missing or non-produced information. She hypothecates a non-existent email account and speculates that it must have discoverable relevant evidence. She has made no attempt to provide any proof or even proffer of relevance beyond mere speculation. Thus, an adverse inference is impermissible.

ii. Ms. Maxwell has never deleted any relevant emails

Ms. Maxwell has never “admitted” to deleting any emails that 1) might have any relevance to this case, or 2) after she was under a preservation obligation.<sup>8</sup> Rather, she has a regular practice of deleting spam emails, as do most people. Specifically, she testified:

A. I have not deleted anything that you have asked me for in discovery. I have given you everything that I have.

---

<sup>8</sup> By contrast, Plaintiff admits that in 2013 while she was in the process of trying to implead herself into the CVRA case and under a preservation obligation, she and her husband had a bonfire and purposefully burned her journal that she had kept for years containing relevant information. Specifically, she testified;

Q. The booklet that you gave pages from to Ms. Churcher where is that booklet?

A. Burned.

Q. When did you burn it?

A. In, I think it was 2013. Me and my husband had a bonfire.

Q. What did you put in the bonfire?

A. Any kind of memories that I had written down about all the stuff going on.

Q. Had you written anything about Professor Dershowitz?

A. He could have been there, yes.

Q. And you burned that?

A. I wanted to burn my memories. I wanted to get rid of it. It was very painful stuff.

Q. Other than what you had written down did you burn anything else? I don't mean the wood, when you talk about burning your memories, what were you burning?

A. I was burning like memories, thoughts, dreams that I had, just everything that was kind of I affiliated with the abuse I endured, and there was a lot of it in there. My husband is pretty spiritual so he said the best thing to do would be burn them.

Q. Is there anything you decided to keep and not burn?

A. Just the photographs.

Q. Anything else that you can think of?

A. Photographs, that's it.

...

Q. Did you ever look to see if you had any personal notes in your writing that pertain to Professor Dershowitz?

A. Like from my old journal, the one that I burned?

Q. From anywhere. Did you ever make an effort to look?

A. Dershowitz could have been in my journal, he could have been. We're talking about an 85 page, if not more, you know, things that I had written to get my story out of my head and into pages; and yes, Dershowitz could have been in there, but that's up in the clouds now, bonfire.

Q. That's what you call your journals, what you burned, right?

A. Yes.

Q. And you wrote that journal in order to collect your thoughts?

A. To get everything out of here and on to paper.

Menninger Decl., Ex. D at 64-65; 194-21.

Q. That is not my question, my question is, did you ever delete emails in January of 2015?

A. In the normal course of my work, there are emails from spam that I delete. That is the type of email I've deleted. Anything that is material to what you want, I have not deleted.

Q. How do you know that?

A. Well, anybody that's to do with Jeffrey or Alan or women or anything of which I know you were interested in, of which I have anything I would not have done because I don't want to subject myself to... [cut off by Plaintiff's counsel]

Menninger Decl., Ex. C at 370.

This Court permitted the forensic examination of all on Ms. Maxwell's electronic devices to ensure that there were no deleted emails or files that might contain relevant information. In that forensic examination, the entire devices and accounts were searched, including all deleted emails and files. Again, as stated, no relevant non-privileged documents resulted from this extensive and exhaustive examination. Plaintiff received the relief that she requested – a forensic examination – to ensure that no information had been lost or destroyed. It has not. Plaintiff cannot now claim that the non-existent hypothetical emails she suspected existed can form the basis for the severe and improper sanction of an adverse inference.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has now litigated this issue on four separate occasions, received a complete and exhaustive forensic examination, and the result is exactly what Ms. Maxwell has always contended – there is no relevant non-privileged information that was not originally produced. Having failed to find the smoking gun – because there is none – Plaintiff now weaves a convoluted argument attempting to get an adverse inference instruction because she cannot prove her case based on the actual law and facts. Such an inference is contrary to law, the rules of evidence, and the very notion of a fair trial. It is impermissible and must be denied.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell request that this Court 1) DENY Plaintiff's Motion To Compel Data From Defendant's Undisclosed Email Account and For an Adverse Inference Instruction, and 2) for attorneys' fees and costs associated with responding to this Motion pursuant to 37(a)(5)(B), and such other and further relief as this Court deems just.

Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell (“Ms. Maxwell”) files this Response to Plaintiff’s Motion to Reopen Defendant’s Deposition, and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff comes to this Court – for the third time – seeking to reopen the deposition of Ms. Maxwell based on the production of two innocuous documents which she received more than two months ago on August 16, 2016. Ms. Maxwell has twice sat for deposition, approaching 13 hours on the record, far more than the presumptive 7 hour limit under the Federal Rules. During that time, Plaintiff has had a full and fair opportunity to depose Ms. Maxwell on the subject matters she claims are raised by these two emails, and Plaintiff did in fact question Ms. Maxwell on the subjects covered by the emails. Moreover, despite having access to other email communications that are similar in nature and substance to the two email communications Plaintiff now claims are “key” documents, Plaintiff elected to not examine Ms. Maxwell on those similar documents for the purposes she now claims necessitate reopening the deposition. The deposition questions Plaintiff proposes are cumulative, duplicative and Plaintiff had the opportunity to and did obtain the information from other sources making a third deposition of Ms. Maxwell improper.

LEGAL STANDARD

“A person who has previously been deposed in a matter may be deposed again, but only with leave of the court.” Sentry Ins. v. Brand Mgmt. Inc., No. 10 Civ. 347, 2012 WL 3288178, at *8 (E.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2012) (citing Fed.R.Civ.P. 30(a)(2)(A)(ii)). “Leave should be granted to the extent that doing so is consistent with the factors set forth in Rule 26(b)(2), such as ‘whether the second deposition of the witness would be unnecessarily cumulative, whether the party requesting the deposition has had other opportunities to obtain the same information, and whether the burden of a second deposition outweighs its potential benefit.’” Id. (quoting Ganci, 2011 WL 4407461, at *2) (collecting cases); Exp.-Imp. Bank of the U.S. v. Asia Pulp & Paper Co., 232 F.R.D. 103, 112 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (same); see also Dash v. Seagate Tech. (US) Holdings, Inc., No. CV 13-6329 LDW AKT, 2015 WL 4257329, at *6 (E.D.N.Y. July 14, 2015) (refusing to reopen deposition where party neglected to or affirmatively opted not to inquire about information available at prior deposition and had or could obtain the information through other discovery devices).

Here, Plaintiff's sole justification for an extraordinary third deposition are two irrelevant documents that are cumulative of information previously produced, covering topics on which Ms. Maxwell already has been deposed at length, relating to lines of inquiry covered in other written discovery that have been fully responded to, making reopening the deposition cumulative and duplicative. Moreover, Ms. Maxwell has offered to provide responses to specific questions in writing (despite the fact that discovery has closed) which is the least burdensome and less expensive means of obtaining responses to the limited inquiry proposed regarding the two documents.

ARGUMENT

A. The Motion is Untimely

Pursuant to the Initial Scheduling Order entered in this matter, motions on discovery issues would not be considered after the date scheduled for disclosure of expert witnesses absent "showing of special circumstances." See DE 13, ¶ 2. By agreement of the parties and with approval of the court, that deadline was modified and occurred on September 8, 2016. No special circumstances exist to permit this additional discovery, well after the close of discovery on July 31, 2016. Plaintiff had the documents at issue in advance of September 8, 2016 and could have moved at any time between August 16, 2016 and September 8, but chose not to do so.

The Motion is untimely and no special circumstance exists, nor have any been claimed, requiring denial of the motion.

B. November 2015 Communication from Mr. Gow Concerning a Press Inquiry is Cumulative and Duplicative of Prior Discovery and Irrelevant to the Claimed Questions

Plaintiff's claim regarding the relevance of the Gow email is perplexing. It is a single line email from Gow to Ms. Maxwell to which Ms. Maxwell never responded. Plaintiff correctly points out that Ms. Maxwell's response is not included precisely because she did not respond. The email does not, as Plaintiff suggests, demonstrate that Ms. Maxwell was "in fact, involved in, and consulted about, what her press agent says on her behalf." Rather, it shows she did not respond to an inquiry for comment.

Plaintiff's Motion itself proves that Ms. Maxwell has already fully submitted to numerous discovery requests concerning whether she was "involved in, and consulted about" press communications issued by Mr. Gow, including Mr. Gow's January 2, 2015 email to the press that forms the basis of this lawsuit. Indeed, the question has been asked and answered in every conceivable form of discovery under the Federal Rules. She has answered a specific Request for Admissions on the issue, stating:

Maxwell admits that she has worked with Mr. Gow on occasion for several years and that she has corresponded with Mr. Gow regarding communications to members of the British press to reserve her right to seek redress for their repetition of defamatory statements about Ms. Maxwell.

See McCawley Decl., Ex. 3, Defendant's Responses to Plaintiff's Requests for Admission at 3.

Likewise, Plaintiff extensively questioned Ms. Maxwell in her depositions about her involvement and communications with Mr. Gow regarding press inquiries, all of which makes clear that the alleged "defamatory" statement at issue was composed by Mr. Gow and Ms. Maxwell's counsel Philip Barden and issued at the advice of counsel based on the requirements of British law. This is evidenced by the deposition testimony cited by Plaintiff (McCawley Decl., Ex. 2), as well as multiple additional pages of testimony that Plaintiff conveniently ignores. Ms. Maxwell clearly testified on this issue during her deposition (Menninger Decl., Ex. A at 272-274):

Q. I provided you with and I'm sorry, I don't know all the numbers, but the statement that was issued by Ross Gow that should be a single page still in your stack 4 of exhibits there.

MR. PAGLIUCA: Exhibit 10.

Q. Did you authorize Ross Gow to issue that statement on your behalf in January of 2015?

A. I already testified that that was done by my lawyers.

Q. So did you authorize your lawyers to issue a statement on your behalf through Ross Gow in January of 2015?

A. It was determined that I had to make a statement in the United Kingdom because of the appalling lies and I just thought of some new ones. Virginia's statement that I celebrated her 16 birthday with her. We can all agree that that's entirely impossible. I didn't meet her until she was 17 and other lies she perpetrated that she had a diary and we all know is a complete fake. That's not a diary. It was just a book she was writing that you helped sell to the press, as if it was a diary, when it was just a story that she is writing of fiction, fictional story for money.

Q. How did you arrive at the words that were put in that statement?

MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to object and instruct you to the extent this calls for any privileged communications between yourself and Mr. Barden or another lawyer representing you, we're asserting privilege. If you can answer that without that, feel free to answer.

Q. So what your counsel is saying, and I will exclude any privileged communications you had with your lawyers. The question is, how did you arrive at the words that were put in that statement, if you can tell me without disclosing privileged communications?

A. I'm not sure that I can.

She was questioned for a third time on the same subject, again answering fully to all non-privileged information (Menninger Decl., Ex. A at 360-363).

I will mark this as Maxwell 17.

Q. This is an email from you on January 10, 2015 to Philip Barden and Ross Gow. The statement you had before you earlier, that, if you can pull that in front of you, the one page press release that you gave. You might know from memory. Was the press release that you issued with the statement about Virginia issued in or around January 2, 2015?

A. As best as I can recollect.

Q. I want to turn your attention to the document I just handed you which is Bates No. 001044, from you to Philip Barden and Ross Gow. It says in the first sentence, I'm out of my depth to understand defamation, other legal hazards and I don't want to end up in a lawsuit aimed at me from anyone, if I can help it. Apparently, even saying Virginia is a liar has hazards. You knew at the time you called Virginia a liar in early January of 2015 that that was something that would result in a lawsuit, is that correct?

A. I have legal advice that I took.

Q. But you knew in early January by making a statement calling Virginia a liar that you were subjecting yourself to a legal dispute with her?

Q. I took legal advice as to what should be said and not be said and the legal advice that came from the United Kingdom was –

A. Sorry.

Q. So is it correct without telling me what you talked to your lawyers about that you knew because this is dated January 10 that when you made this statement in early January, January 2 of 2015 you knew that calling Virginia a liar would subject you to a legal action, isn't that correct?

A. All I can say is I asked a question and received legal advice.

Likewise, all the communications between Mr. Gow and Ms. Maxwell pre-dating the statement issued by Mr. Gow on January 2, 2015 that form the basis of this suit were produced in advance of both of Ms. Maxwell's depositions. See Menninger Decl., Ex. B, [GM_01036-01044]. Any questioning concerning Ms. Maxwell's involvement or input into the content of the single statement was available for exploration. Yet, Plaintiff either neglected to or decided not to question Ms. Maxwell about the majority of these documents at their own option, which cannot form the basis for reopening a deposition. Dash, 2015 WL 4257329, at *6 (refusing to reopen deposition where party neglected to or affirmatively opted not to inquire about information available at prior deposition).

Finally, Mr. Gow himself is scheduled to sit for a deposition himself during November on topics to include his correspondence with Ms. Maxwell and with the press concerning Ms. Maxwell, presumably to include the very email that forms the subject of this motion. Plaintiff will have a full and fair opportunity to question him under oath regarding the email that he wrote to Ms. Maxwell.

Finally, Plaintiff claims relevance and prejudice based on a one-line email, received by Ms. Maxwell and to which she never responded, on November 15, 2015 – almost a year after the alleged defamatory statement was issued by Mr. Gow. This document has no bearing on the issue Plaintiff claims requires reopening of her deposition – Ms. Maxwell’s input into the content of the January 2, 2015. And, again, nearly identical emails requesting input from Ms. Maxwell based on media and media inquiries post-dating January 2, 2015, including press inquiries after the filing of this lawsuit, were produced prior to the deposition and Plaintiff chose not to question Ms. Maxwell about these emails for the purposes she now claims are relevant. Menninger Decl., Ex. C [GM_01060-01068, 00594].

Ms. Maxwell has fully testified regarding the consultation she had on the January 2, 2015 email, produced all non-privileged documents prior to her depositions, and this later dated email is irrelevant to Ms. Maxwell’s clear sworn responses on the subject matter.

C. Plaintiff Misrepresents Previous Discovery Concerning Ms. Maxwell’s Communications with Jeffery Epstein

Plaintiff’s half-hearted attempt to claim that a communication between Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein related to a possible response to Plaintiff’s published false claims concerning Ms. Maxwell is somehow “new,” not previously explored, or relevant is provably inaccurate. The entirety of Plaintiff’s argument concerning the “key” nature of this email is:

[T]he email with Epstein regarding a reply to “one further allegation,” shows that Defendant is active in shaping her public statements regarding Ms. Giuffre, and giving drafts to Epstein for his approval. Accordingly, Defendant was never deposed on (1) why she was seeking Epstein's permission for having Barden make a "reply;" (2) what Epstein's relationship was with Barden; (3) or who drafted the original communication at the bottom of the email, as it does not appear to have been created by either Defendant or Epstein.

As Plaintiff is fully aware, Ms. Maxwell already fully deposed on "(1) why she was seeking Epstein's permission for having Barden make a 'reply'"; any claim to the contrary is simply false. Ms. Maxwell produced (prior to her depositions) several similar communications between herself and Mr. Epstein in which she sought input from Mr. Epstein on having her attorney, Mr. Barden, respond to allegations made by Plaintiff concerning Ms. Maxwell. Indeed in one email, Mr. Epstein advised Ms. Maxwell to go out and hold her head high because she had done nothing wrong. See Menninger Decl., Ex. D [GM_01069-01072; 01075; 01084-01099]. Further, Ms. Maxwell was specifically deposed on this issue:<sup>1</sup>

(Maxwell Exhibit 23, email, marked for identification.)

Q. This is an email from, if you look at the chain at the top, you will see it's from you to Jeffrey on January 27 and the email at the bottom of the chain is from Jeffrey to you on January 27. He states, What happened to you and your statement, question mark, question mark. And you put at the top, I have not decided what to do.

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Why was Jeffrey interested in you making a statement to the press?

A. I don't know that he was interested. We made a statement and then I was being advised to make an additional statement and I never did.

Q. Was Jeffrey communicating with you regularly on what additional statement you might make?

A. No, I've communicated with him very little, as little as possible.

Q. Why did you feel you had to keep him informed of statements you were making to the press?

A. I didn't feel I had to.

---

<sup>1</sup> As to the substance of the email – Plaintiff's fabricated claim that Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell requested Plaintiff to bear a child for them – Ms. Maxwell was extensively questioned in her first deposition. Menninger Decl. Ex. A, at 337-39.

Q. Then why you were communicating with him about statements you were making to the press?

A. Insofar as this is the case, it's really all about Jeffrey, it's not a case about me.

Menninger Decl., Ex. A at 392-94.

As to the second point, there is simply no basis for claiming any “relationship” exists between Mr. Barden and Mr. Epstein – there is none. Again, numerous communications were produced in advance of Ms. Maxwell’s depositions relating to Ms. Maxwell’s request for input on Mr. Barden’s draft statements to the press (Menninger Decl., Ex. D), thus making any line of inquiry available to Plaintiff had she believed it were actually relevant or “key.” Regardless, Plaintiff provides no reason to claim that there is any relevance to a line of inquiry regarding an alleged relationship between Mr. Epstein and Mr. Barden.

As for the final point, it is obvious from the subject line and content of the email that Ms. Maxwell was forwarding a non-privileged excerpt of a privileged communication from her attorney, Mr. Barden, to Mr. Epstein. This is certainly no basis to reopen a deposition as the document speaks for itself.

D. The Reopening of Plaintiff’s Deposition is Irrelevant

Plaintiff attempts to distract the Court from the legal standards required to reopen a deposition, instead arguing that she did not oppose reopening her own deposition. Of course, Plaintiff did not simply inadvertently miss two irrelevant documents in a 1,200 page production. Rather, prior to her deposition she failed to identify over thirteen (13) healthcare providers and failed to produce hundreds of pages of medical records, work records and educational records, all of which were requested prior to her deposition. She even omitted records from her current therapist and from the doctor who was (and is, apparently) prescribing substantial quantities of drugs at the time of her deposition. Indeed, Plaintiff’s second deposition still cannot be scheduled because Plaintiff persists in her failures to provide complete medical records. Despite Plaintiff's September 21, 2016 Motion for Court Approval of Plaintiff's Certification of Production claiming that she has completed production of medical records and emails, Plaintiff sent a release for health care information from her insurance companies on October 10, 2015 (Menninger Decl., Ex. E [GIUFFRE009094-009102])— a release and records that were requested in April. To date, those (and many other) records have not been produced.

Moreover, Plaintiff made substantive and completely contradictory changes to her deposition testimony in errata sheets after the conclusion of her deposition. As well, she was instructed by counsel not to answer questions about false statements published in the media attributed to her that were critically relevant and she refused to answer the questions. She later conceded no privilege precluded her answers, and that is among the reasons she agreed to sit for a second deposition. Unlike Plaintiff, Ms. Maxwell had no opportunity to depose Plaintiff on multiple and critical issues including unproduced medical records, and undisclosed treatment providers, undisclosed educational history, undisclosed employment, undisclosed intervening causes of her alleged emotional distress, her material contradictory changes to testimony, and any statements published and attributed to her by the media she admits are false. Ms. Maxwell did not request to reopen the deposition to seek cumulative, duplicative and/or irrelevant information. The two situations are vastly different and cannot be compared.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell requests that Plaintiff's Motion to Reopen her Deposition and permit a third deposition be denied.

Dated: October 24, 2016

Respectfully submitted,

2 Q. Is it your testimony that [REDACTED]

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
6 form and foundation.

7 A. I don't recollect, and I don't
8 recollect how I met [REDACTED] and I can't testify
9 to what [REDACTED] relationship is or is not with
10 Jeffrey.

11 Q. Have you ever talked to Jeffrey
12 about [REDACTED]

13 A. I don't know what you mean.

14 Q. In any way, have you ever had a
15 conversation with Jeffrey about [REDACTED]

16 A. In what context.

17 Q. In any context. Have you ever
18 talked to Jeffrey Epstein about [REDACTED]

19 A. [REDACTED] works for me so it's entirely
20 possible that in the course of conversations
21 since 2002, 2003 that a conversation in which 22 [REDACTED] name would have come up is entirely
23 possible.

24 Q. I provided you with and I'm sorry,
25 I don't know all the numbers, but the

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 statement that was issued by Ross Gow that
3 should be a single page still in your stack
4 of exhibits there.

5 MR. PAGLIUCA: Exhibit 10.

6 Q. Did you authorize Ross Gow to issue
7 that statement on your behalf in January of 8 2015?

9 A. I already testified that that was 10 done by my lawyers.

11 Q. So did you authorize your lawyers
12 to issue a statement on your behalf through 13 Ross Gow in January of 2015?

14 A. It was determined that I had to 15 make a statement in the United Kingdom
16 because of the appalling lies and I just 17 thought of some new ones.

18 Virginia's statement that I
19 celebrated her 16 birthday with her. We can
20 all agree that that's entirely impossible. I
21 didn't meet her until she was 17 and other
22 lies she perpetrated that she had a diary and 23 we all know is a complete fake. That's not a
24 diary. It was just a book she was writing
25 that you helped sell to the press, as if it

1           G Maxwell - Confidential
2       was a diary, when it was just a story that
3       she is writing of fiction, fictional story
4       for money.

5           Q.     How did you arrive at the words
6       that were put in that statement?

7           MR. PAGLIUCA:   I'm going to object
8       and instruct you to the extent this
9       calls for any privileged communications
10      between yourself and Mr. Barden or 11      another lawyer representing you, we're
12      asserting privilege.   If you can answer
13      that without that, feel free to answer.

14          Q.     So what your counsel is saying, and 15      I will exclude any privileged communications
16      you had with your lawyers.

17                 The question is, how did you arrive
18      at the words that were put in that statement,
19      if you can tell me without disclosing
20      privileged communications?

21          A.     I'm not sure that I can.

22          Q.     Is the statement that you issued
23      true?

24          A.     What do you mean by that?

25          Q.     Is the statement that you issued,

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. To become pregnant, did you or
3 Jeffrey Epstein ever ask any female to become 4 pregnant and carry Jeffrey Epstein's baby for 5 you or for Jeffrey?

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
7 and foundation.

8 A. You need to be very specific. I
9 have no idea what you are talking about.
10 That's completely rubbish.

11 Q. Did you or Jeffrey Epstein ask any 12 female to become pregnant and carry his baby
13 for either him or you?

14 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the 15 form and foundation. Go ahead.

16 A. I can't testify to anything Jeffrey
17 did or didn't do when I am not present, but I 18 have never asked anybody to carry a baby for 19 me.

20 Q. Or anything along those lines?

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form
22 and foundation.

23 Q. I want to make sure we are talking
24 about the same thing, not physically carry a
25 baby, I mean become pregnant with a baby?

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
3 form and foundation.

4 Q. I want to make sure we are clear.

5 A. I don't know what you are asking.

6 Q. That's why I want to make sure we
7 are clear.

8 A. We are clear. I never asked
9 anybody to carry a baby for me.

10 Q. Do you know if Jeffrey ever asked
11 anybody to carry a baby for him?

12 A. I'm not going to characterize any
13 conversation Jeffrey had with somebody else.

14 Q. You are not aware of that, is that 15 your testimony?

16 A. I am testifying I never have and I
17 will not testify for anything for Jeffrey.

18 Q. Did you ever hear Jeffrey ask
19 anybody to carry a baby for him?

20 A. I don't recollect conversation
21 about Jeffrey and babies in any form.

22 Q. Did Jeffrey ever tell he wanted to
23 have a baby?

24 A. I don't recollect baby
25 conversations with Jeffrey.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 Q. So he never told you he wanted to
3 have a baby?

4 A. I don't recollect any baby
5 conversations with him saying he wanted to
6 have a baby.

7 Q. Did you ever bring any females to 8 the Dubin's house that were not your friends'
9 children that were under the age of 18?

10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to form
11 and foundation.

12 A. I have never, to my knowledge,
13 brought anybody under the age of 18 that's 14 not a friend of my family or my nieces or 15 nephews to the Dubin household.

16 Q. Earlier today you testified, I
17 believe, that with respect to your town home
18 Jeffrey paid for some of that and then gave 19 you a loan, is that correct?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
21 form and foundation.

22 A. I said, actually I think it was a
23 loan, I believe it was a loan.

24 Q. The whole thing?

25 A. As best as I can recollect.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
3 form and foundation.

4 A. I was not coordinating with 5 Jeffrey. He had details that I did not have.
6 I was not party to his case. I needed to 7 have information in order to be able to 8 respond so I was not coordinating with him.
9 I was merely asking for details that I could 10 have.

11 Q. Did Jeffrey write any of your press
12 statements for you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. He didn't draft any of them?

15 A. I have a lawyer who was working on 16 this and that was -- I asked, I believe as I
17 recollect asked him for information to make 18 sure I was being accurate in the 19 representations for whatever I was 20 discussing.

21 Q. Did Jeffrey provide you with any
22 drafts of statements to provide to the press?

23 A. I only recall drafts from my 24 lawyer.

25 Q. I will mark this as Maxwell 17.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 (Maxwell Exhibit 17, email, marked
3 for identification.)

4 Q. This is an email from you on
5 January 10, 2015 to Philip Barden and Ross
6 Gow. The statement you had before you
7 earlier, that, if you can pull that in front
8 of you, the one page press release that you
9 gave. You might know from memory.

10 Was the press release that you
11 issued with the statement about Virginia
12 issued in or around January 2, 2015?

13 A. As best as I can recollect.

14 Q. I want to turn your attention to 15 the document I just handed you which is Bates
16 No. 001044, from you to Philip Barden and 17 Ross Gow. It says in the first sentence, I'm 18 out of my depth to understand defamation,
19 other legal hazards and I don't want to end
20 up in a lawsuit aimed at me from anyone, if I
21 can help it. Apparently, even saying
22 Virginia is a liar has hazards.

23 You knew at the time you called
24 Virginia a liar in early January of 2015 that 25 that was something that would result in a

2 lawsuit, is that correct?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
4 form and foundation.

5 A. I have legal advice that I took.

6 Q. But you knew in early January by
7 making a statement calling Virginia a liar
8 that you were subjecting yourself to a legal
9 dispute with her?

10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
11 form and foundation.

12 A. I took legal advice as to what
13 should be said and not be said and the legal 14 advice that came from the United Kingdom
15 was --

16 MR. PAGLIUCA: You are not allowed
17 to talk about any legal advice that you
18 got from anybody that's a lawyer.

19 A. Sorry.

20 Q. So is it correct without telling me
21 what you talked to your lawyers about that
22 you knew because this is dated January 10
23 that when you made this statement in early
24 January, January 2 of 2015 you knew that
25 calling Virginia a liar would subject you to

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 a legal action, isn't that correct?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
4 form and foundation. As to what you
5 knew -- whatever she knows would be
6 privileged.

7 MS. McCAWLEY: I'm asking if she
8 knows. I'm not asking her to tell me
9 about her privileged communications.

10 A. All I can say is I asked a question
11 and received legal advice.

12 (Maxwell Exhibit 18, email, marked
13 for identification.)

14 Q. This is an email dated January 15,
15 2015 from Jeffrey Epstein to you?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. It states in the first line, do you
18 want [REDACTED] to come out and say she was the
19 girlfriend during the time?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
21 form and foundation of the question and
22 actually the word is [REDACTED], there
23 is no vowel in there.

24 MS. McCAWLEY: I was just trying to
25 pronounce it.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 This will now end?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
4 form and foundation.

5 A. I have no idea.

6 Q. Did you discuss with him what he
7 meant by the statement, This will now end?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. Was he taking any action to ensure 10 that, quote, this will now end?

11 A. I have no idea.

12 (Maxwell Exhibit 23, email, marked
13 for identification.)

14 Q. This is an email from, if you look
15 at the chain at the top, you will see it's 16 from you to Jeffrey on January 27 and the 17 email at the bottom of the chain is from 18 Jeffrey to you on January 27.

19 He states, What happened to you and
20 your statement, question mark, question mark.
21 And you put at the top, I have not decided 22 what to do.

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. Why was Jeffrey interested in you
25 making a statement to the press?

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
3 form and foundation.

4 A. I don't know that he was
5 interested. We made a statement and then I
6 was being advised to make an additional
7 statement and I never did.

8 Q. Was Jeffrey communicating with you
9 regularly on what additional statement you
10 might make?

11 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
12 form and foundation.

13 A. No, I've communicated with him very 14 little, as little as possible.

15 Q. Why did you feel you had to keep 16 him informed of statements you were making to 17 the press?

18 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
19 form and foundation.

20 A. I didn't feel I had to.

21 Q. Then why you were communicating
22 with him about statements you were making to
23 the press?

24 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the
25 form and foundation.

1 G Maxwell - Confidential

2 A. Insofar as this is the case, it's
3 really all about Jeffrey, it's not a case
4 about me.

5 Q. In 2009, did you direct your 6 lawyer, either directly or indirectly, to 7 tell Brad Edwards that you were unavailable
8 to attend a deposition?

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: Objection to the

11 privileged communication as I understand
12 the question, what someone said or 13 didn't say to their lawyer. So don't 15 Q. Can you answer that question

16 without revealing a privileged communication?

17 A. Can you ask the question again?

18 Q. In 2009, did you direct your lawyer
19 to tell Brad Edwards that you were

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: Same instruction.

DECLARATION OF PAUL G. CASSELL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO PROPOSED INTERVENOR ALAN M. DERSHWITZ'S MOTION FOR PERMISSIVE INTERVENTION

I, Paul G. Cassell, declare that the below is true and correct to the best of my knowledge as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. I am a licensed attorney in the state of Utah. I am authorized to practice before this Court pursuant to this Court's Order granting my Application to Appear Pro Hac Vice.
2. I respectfully submit this Declaration in opposition to Proposed Intervenor Alan M. Dershowitz's Motion for Permissive Intervention and Unseal of Judicial Documents, or in the Alternative Modification of the Protective Order.
3. I am the Ronald N. Boyce Presidential Professor of Criminal Law and University Distinguished Professor of Law at the S.J. Quinney College of Law, where I teach criminal procedure, criminal, and crime victims' rights.

THE FLORIDA CRIME VICTIMS RIGHTS ACT CASE

4. Since July 2008, I have been involved in important and precedent-setting crime victims' rights litigation in the Southern District of Florida trying to protect the rights of various victims under the Crime Victims' Rights Act (CVRA), 18 U.S.C. § 3771. Along with Florida co-counsel Bradley J. Edwards, I have been pursuing a federal case pro bono on behalf of two young women who were sexually abused as underage girls by Dershowitz's close personal friend – Jeffrey Epstein.

5. On July 7, 2008, Mr. Edwards filed an emergency petition to enforce the rights of “Jane Doe No. 1” and “Jane Doe No. 2” under the CVRA, 18 U.S.C. § 3771, alleging that the Government had failed to provide them rights with regard to a plea arrangement it was pursuing with Epstein. DE 1,<sup>1</sup> Jane Doe No. 1 and Jane Doe No. 2 v. United States, No. 9:08-cv-80736 (S.D. Fla.). As the case developed, it became clear that the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida had concealed from Epstein's victims a non-prosecution agreement (NPA) that they had reached with Epstein.

6. During the litigation, Mr. Edwards and I have won several important victories for our clients, including a ruling that the CVRA can apply to protect crime victims' rights even before an indictment is filed. See Paul G. Cassell, Nathanael J. Mitchell & Bradley J. Edwards, Crime Victims' Rights During Criminal Investigations? Apply the Crime Victims' Rights Act Before Criminal Charges are Filed, 104 J. CRIM. L. & CRIMINOLOGY 58, 67-69 (2014) (describing litigation concerning Epstein).

7. In the course of that case, on October 11, 2011, the victims filed discovery requests with the Government, including requests specifically seeking information about

<sup>1</sup> In this section of the Declaration, all references to docket entries will be to CVRA case in the Southern District of Florida, No. 9:08-cv-80736.

Dershowitz, Prince Andrew, and others. Further efforts from the Government to avoid producing any discovery followed (see generally DE 225-1 at 4-5),<sup>2</sup> ultimately leading to a further Court ruling in June 2013 that the Government should produce documents. DE 189. The Government then produced about 1,500 pages of largely irrelevant materials to the victims (DE 225-1 at 5), while simultaneously submitting 14,825 pages of relevant materials under seal to the Court. The Government claimed that these pages were “privileged” for various reasons, attaching an abbreviated privilege log.

8. While these discovery issues were pending, in the summer of 2014, Mr. Edwards and I contacted Government counsel to request their agreement to add two additional victims to the case, including Ms. Virginia Giuffre (who was identified in court pleadings as “Jane Doe No. 3”). Edwards and I sought to have her added to the case via stipulation, which would have avoided the need to include any detailed facts about her abuse. Weeks went by and the Government – as it had done on a similar request for a stipulation to add another victim – did not respond to counsel’s request for a stipulation.

9. Finally, on December 10, 2014, despite having had four months to provide a position, the Government responded by email to counsel that it was seeking more time, indicating that the Government understood that victims’ counsel might need to file a motion with the court on the matter immediately. DE 291 at 3-5. Rather than file a motion immediately, victims’ counsel waited and continued to press the Government for a stipulation. See id. at 5. Finally, on December 23, 2014 – more than four months after the initial request for a stipulated joinder into the case – the Government tersely indicated its objection, without indicating any reason: “Our position is that we oppose adding new petitioners at this stage of the litigation.” See DE 291 at 5.

10. Because the Government now contested the joinder motion, Edwards and I prepared a more detailed pleading explaining the justification for granting the motion. One week after receiving the Government’s objection, on December 30, 2014, Ms. Giuffre (i.e., Jane Doe No. 3) and Jane Doe No. 4 filed a motion (and later a corrected motion) seeking to join the case. DE 279 and DE 280. Uncertain as to the basis for the Government’s objection, the motion briefly proffered the circumstances that would qualify the two women as “victims” eligible to assert rights under the CVRA. See 18 U.S.C. 3771(e) (defining “crime victim” protected under the Act). With regard to Ms. Giuffre, the motion indicated that when she was a minor, Jeffrey Epstein had trafficked her to Dershowitz and Prince Andrew (among others) for sexual purposes. Jane Doe No. 3 stated that she was prepared to prove her proffer. See DE 280 at 3 (“If allowed to join this action, Jane Doe No. 3 would prove the following . . . .”). The motion also provided specific reasons why Jane Doe No. 3’s participation was relevant to the case, including the pending discovery issues regarding Dershowitz and Prince Andrew. DE 280 at 9-10 (explaining several reasons participation of new victims was relevant to existing issues).

11. After the motion was filed, various news organizations published articles about it. Dershowitz also made numerous media statements about the filing, including calling Jane Doe No. 3 “a serial liar” who “has lied through her teeth about many world leaders.” <http://www.cnn.com/2015/01/06/us/dershowitz-sex-allegation/>. Dershowitz also repeatedly called Edwards and me “two sleazy, unprofessional, disbarable lawyers.” Id. He made many similar remarks of an equivalent character, and also stated in media appearance that if we had done one hour of work investigating Ms. Giuffre's allegations of sexual abuse against him, we would have immediately seen that those allegations were false.

12. On January 5, 2015, Dershowitz filed a motion to intervene to argue to have the allegations stricken. DE 282. Dershowitz also argued that Ms. Giuffre had not provided a sworn affidavit attesting to the truth of her allegations.

13. On January 21, 2015, Edwards and I filed a response for our clients, Ms. Giuffre and Jane Doe No. 4. DE 291. The response enumerated nine specific reasons why Ms. Giuffre's specific allegations against Dershowitz were relevant to the case, including the fact that Ms. Giuffre needed to establish that she was a "victim" in the case, that pending discovery requests concerning Dershowitz-specific documents were pending, and that Dershowitz's role as a defense attorney in the case was highly relevant to the motive for the Government and defense counsel to conceal the plea deal from the victims. DE 291 at 17-26 & n.17. The response included a detailed affidavit from Ms. Giuffre about the sexual abuse she had suffered from Epstein, Dershowitz, and other powerful persons. DE 291-1.

14. On February 6, 2015, Edwards and Cassell filed a further pleading (and affidavit from Ms. Giuffre, see DE 291-1) in support of her motion to intervene.

15. On April 7, 2015, Judge Marra denied Ms. Giuffre's motion to join the case. Judge Marra concluded that "at this juncture in the proceedings" details about the sexual abuse she had suffered was unnecessary to making a determination "of whether Jane Doe 3 and Jane Doe 4 should be permitted to join [the other victims'] claim that the Government violated their rights under the CVRA. The factual details regarding with whom and where the Jane Does engaged in sexual activities are impertinent to this central claim (i.e., that they were known victims of Mr. Epstein and the Government owed them CVRA duties), especially considering that the details involve non-parties who are not related to the respondent Government.” DE 324 at 5 (emphasis in original). While Judge Marra struck those allegations, he emphasized that “Jane Doe 3 is free to reassert these factual details through proper evidentiary proof, should [the victims] demonstrate a good faith basis for believing that such details are pertinent to a matter presented for the Court’s consideration. Judge Marra then denied Ms. Giuffre’s motion to join the case, but allowed her to participate as trial witness: “The necessary ‘participation’ of [Ms. Giuffre] . . . in this case can be satisfied by offering . . . properly supported – and relevant, admissible, and non-cumulative – testimony as needed, whether through testimony at trial . . . or affidavits supported in support [of] the relevancy of discovery requests.” DE 324 at 8 (emphasis deleted).

16. In a later supplemental order, Judge Marra stated that the victims “may re-refile these documents omitting the stricken portions.” DE 325. The victims have since refiled these documents.

17. The CVRA case continues to be litigated, and the victims filed a comprehensive motion for summary judgment earlier this year. See DE 361 (filed Feb. 10, 2016; government response not yet filed).

THE FLORIDA DEFAMATION CASE

18. In about early January 2015, following the filing of Ms. Giuffre’s motion to join the CVRA case, Dershowitz launched a media attack not only on Ms. Giuffre but also on Mr. Edwards and me. Dershowitz repeatedly and publicly attacked the two of us, saying such things as “if these lawyers, these sleazy unprofessional, unethical lawyers, Paul Cassell and Brad Edwards, if they had just done an hours’ worth of research and work, they would have seen she is lying through her teeth.”

<http://www.cnn.com/videos/world/2015/01/05/wrn-uk-sex-abuse-allegations-alan-dershowitz-intv.cnn>.

19. Rather than try these questions in the media, Mr. Edwards and I filed a defamation action in Florida against Dershowitz. We were represented by well-known Florida attorney Jack Scarola.

20. During the course of the defamation action, I explained the significant work – far in excess of one hour – that Mr. Edwards and I had done to investigate Ms. Giuffre’s sworn allegations that Dershowitz had repeatedly sexually abused her. I explained that work at length in my deposition in the case. Attached hereto as Sealed Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the first day of my deposition testimony in the case. Pages 61-117 explain some of the work that Mr. Edwards and I did to corroborate Ms. Giuffre’s allegations before filing them in the CVRA case.

21. My deposition testimony includes the following information that Mr. Edwards and I relied upon in believing the truth of Giuffre’s allegations:

- a. The Palm Beach Police Department put together an 87-page report based on witness interviews and other evidence documenting sexual abuse of dozens of minor girls occurring in Epstein’s Florida mansion – a location where Ms. Giuffre said Dershowitz had abused her;
- b. The Palm Beach police report showed the sexual abuse was occurring on a daily basis and, indeed, in some cases as much as two or three times in one day in circumstances that would have made it obvious to a visiting guest that young girls were coming to the home for sexual purposes;
- c. Flight logs for Epstein’s private jet showed that Epstein (accompanied by Ms. Maxwell) flew Ms. Giuffre to the New York City area, a location where Ms. Giuffre said Dershowitz had abused her;

- d. Epstein's flight logs appeared to be disguising the identity of all of the passengers on Epstein's plane by using such notations as "one female."
- e. A very well-regarded Florida lawyer (Bob Josefsberg), who was selected by the U.S. Government to represent the victims of Epstein's sexual abuse, had found Ms. Giuffre to be credible and in 2009 filed a civil complaint for her alleging not only sex abuse by Epstein but also by "academicians" -- a group into which Dershowitz fell;
- f. Shortly after Josefsberg filed the complaint for Ms. Giuffre alleging "academicians" had abuse her, one of Josefsberg's partners, Ms. Ezell, began conducting depositions in Epstein-related cases asking about Dershowitz's awareness of sexual abuse;
- g. Dershowitz showed up on flight logs for Epstein's private jet, including a flight with an (apparently young) woman named "Tatiana" who did not appear to serve any business purpose for Epstein;
- h. When asked about Dershowitz, Epstein took the Fifth rather than indicate that Dershowitz was not involved in any criminal activities -- a fact from which an obvious adverse inference could be drawn that Dershowitz was, indeed, involved in Epstein's crimes;
- i. In moving down from the top of Epstein's criminal conspiracy to the next echelon, three women -- Sarah Kellen, Adrianna Mucinska, and Nadia Marcinkova -- all took the Fifth when asked about Dershowitz's awareness of Epstein's sexual abuse of underage girls or whether Dershowitz was involved in massages with young girls;

- j. Kellen, Mucinska, and Marcinkova were all covered by a highly unusual non-prosecution agreement (negotiated by, among others, Epstein defense attorney Alan Dershowitz) that provided immunity from prosecution for sex trafficking not only to Epstein but also to his “potential co-conspirators”;
- k. One of Epstein’s household employees, Juan Alessi, said that Dershowitz visited Epstein’s Palm Beach mansion four or five times a year, staying two or three days when he went there – and Alessi was able to identify a photograph of Ms. Giuffre as someone who was at the mansion at the same time as Dershowitz;
- l. Another Epstein household employee, Alfredo Rodriguez, said that during the time of his employment (2005), Dershowitz visited Epstein’s mansion at the same time as “massages” by underage girls were occurring in the mansion;
- m. When Rodriguez was arrested by the FBI trying to sell Epstein’s “little black book” of contacts and phone numbers, he appeared to have circled the name of Alan Dershowitz as someone who had information about Epstein criminal activities;
- n. Dershowitz had indicated in 2003 that he was an extremely close friend of Epstein – indeed, that the only person outside his immediately family with whom he shared drafts of his books was Epstein;
- o. Attempts had been made to depose Dershowitz or otherwise obtain information from him about his knowledge of Epstein’s sexual abuse in 2009, 2011, 2013, and January 2015, and he had avoided all those efforts;

- p. Dershowitz had told the Palm Beach Police Department that he was going to make Epstein available to answer questions about sex abuse of underage girls, but then repeatedly rescheduled those meetings, ultimately never producing Epstein – a pattern of deception that appeared to be designed to deliberately delay the investigation;
- q. Dershowitz's pattern of avoiding depositions (and helping Epstein avoid questioning) was consistent with a pattern of other persons who were involved in Epstein's international sex trafficking organization evading efforts to obtain information from them;
- r. Ms. Giuffre had alleged abuse by other powerful friends of Epstein, including Prince Andrew, and there was a photograph showing Prince Andrew with his arm around Ms. Giuffre apparently taken in London (where she said the sex abuse had taken place).

Sealed Exhibit 1, Depo. of Paul Cassell (Oct. 16 & 17, 2015), at 61-117.

22. Ms. Giuffre was not a party to the litigation between Dershowitz, Mr. Edwards, and me.

23. During the course of the litigation, however, Dershowitz sought to obtain discovery from Ms. Giuffre. In particular, Dershowitz sought to obtain from Ms. Giuffre (a non-party to the action) all of her emails with the media. The Court denied his discovery request. Attached hereto as Sealed Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of the court's order denying that discovery.

24. Dershowitz produced many documents in the course of discovery in that case – and, ironically, he placed many document under a protective order in Florida. Attached hereto as

Sealed Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of the court's protective order, which Dershowitz used to keep documents under seal.

25. On January 16, 2016, Dershowitz took Ms. Giuffre's deposition. As noted earlier, Ms. Giuffre recounted in detail repeated acts of sexual abuse by Dershowitz. See McCawley Dec., Ex. 4 at 88-91.

26. Ultimately, Dershowitz settled the defamation case. That settlement included both a public statement and confidential monetary payments. As part of the settlement, Edwards and I withdrew our allegations against Dershowitz in the defamation case contained in the then-pending summary judgment motion and Dershowitz withdrew his allegations of unethical conduct, as reflected in the Notice of Withdrawal of Motion for Partial Summary Judgment attached hereto as Sealed Exhibit 4.

27. As Mr. Edwards and I explained in the notice of withdrawal of this motion, "the withdrawal of the referenced filings is not intended to be, and should not be construed as being, an acknowledgement by Edwards and Cassell that the allegation made by Ms. Giuffre were mistaken. Edwards and Cassell do acknowledge that the public filing in the Crime Victims' Rights Act case of their client's allegation against Defendant Dershowitz became a major distraction from the merits of the well-founded Crime Victims' Rights Act by causing delay and, as a consequence, turned out to be a tactical mistake." Id.

28. Contrary to representations made by Dershowitz in his brief (DEC ¶24 at pg. 5), in settling our personal defamation case against Dershowitz, Edwards and I have never reached any conclusion that Ms. Giuffre – our client -- was mistaken in her allegations that Dershowitz sexually abused her.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

EXHIBIT A

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT'S FIRST SET OF DISCOVERY REQUESTS TO PLAINTIFF

Plaintiff hereby serves her responses and objections to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests violates Local Civil Rule 33.3. Defendant has served interrogatories that are in direct violation of that Rule because the interrogatories are not "restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with knowledge of information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the computation of each category of damage alleged, and the existence, custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent insurance agreements, and other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature." Local Civil Rule 33.3(a). Instead, they seek information under subsections (b) and (c) of Local Civil Rule 33.3, and therefore, they should not be served because they are not "a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition," and because they were served in advance of the period "30 days prior to the discovery cut-off date." Local Civil Rule 33.3(b), (c). The interrogatories you served violate Local Rule 33.3 and we ask that you immediately withdraw those interrogatories. See Rule 33.3, Local Rules for the Southern District of New York; see also Shannon v. New York City Transit Auth., No. 00 CIV. 5079 (Sweet, J.), 2001 WL 286727, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 22, 2001); accord Gary Friedrich Enterprises, LLC v. Marvel Enterprises, Inc., No. 08 CIV. 1533 BSJ JCF, 2011 WL 1642381, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 26, 2011). Specifically, Rule 33.3 provides:

- (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, at the commencement of discovery, interrogatories will be restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with knowledge of information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the computation of each category of damage alleged, and the existence, custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent insurance agreements, and other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature.
- (b) During discovery, interrogatories other than those seeking information described in paragraph (a) above may only be served (1) if they are a more practical method of obtaining the information sought than a request for production or a deposition, or (2) if ordered by the Court.
- (c) At the conclusion of other discovery, and at least 30 days prior to the discovery cut-off date, interrogatories seeking the claims and contentions of the opposing party may be served unless the Court has ordered otherwise.

Similarly, Requests for Production numbers 1, 2, 4, 6(i), 9, 12, 30, 35 and 37 also violate Local Rule 33.3 in that they rely on the offending interrogatory requests. The Rule provides that a party must first try to obtain discovery through document production and testimony. Discovery does not close in this case until July 1, 2016, and Defendant has not yet noticed a deposition. As such, these interrogatories violate Local Rule 33.3 and are premature.

Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests also violates Rule 33, Fed. R. Civ. P., which provides "a party may serve on any other party no more than 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts" – in that Defendant has served a total of 59 interrogatories, including subparts, in violation of Rule 33. We ask that you immediately withdraw those interrogatories that exceed the 25 interrogatory limit set by Rule 33.

Ms. Giuffre objects to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests to the extent they seek information that is protected by any applicable privilege, including but not limited to, attorney client privilege, work product privilege, joint defense/common interest privilege, agency privilege, investigative privilege, spousal privilege, doctor/patient privilege, accountant/client privilege, and any other applicable privilege.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests call for the production of documents or information that is already in the possession, custody, or control of the Defendant. Ms. Giuffre further objects to the requests to the extent that Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests is duplicative of documents and information that can equally or more readily be obtained by the Defendant.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they seek documents that are not relevant, material, or necessary to this action and, thus, are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Many of the requests in the Defendant's First Set of Discovery seek documents that are in no way limited to their relation to this case. Indeed, they seek documents that are not important to resolving the issues; documents that are not relevant to any party's claim or defense; and documents that are not proportional to the needs of the case. Such requests create a heavy burden on Ms. Giuffre that outweighs any benefit. Such discovery is prohibited by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly under the 2015 amendments to Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P., and is wholly inappropriate.

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent that they are overly broad and unduly burdensome, as individually logging all privileged responsive documents would be overly burdensome. Plaintiff contends that requests targeting such privileged information are overly broad under Rule 26(b)(1), Fed. R. Civ. P. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous and ever-increasing privileged communications between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel after the date litigation commenced on September 21, 2015. Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests as overly burdensome to the extent that they would require logging voluminous privileged documents between Ms. Giuffre and her counsel related to Jane Doe #1 and Jane Doe #2 v. United States, Case no. 08-80736-CIV-Marra, pending in the Southern District of Florida; Bradley Edwards and Paul Cassell v. Alan Dershowitz, Case no. CACE 15-000072, pending in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, Broward County, Florida; and Jane Doe No. 102 v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 09-80656-CIV-Marra/Johnson (Southern District of Florida). Accordingly, due the undue burden of individually logging responsive privileged documents related to Defendant's overly broad requests, Plaintiff has employed categorical logging of such privileged responsive documents pursuant to Local Civil Rule 26.2(c).

Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests in that they seek to invade her privacy for the sole purpose of harassing and intimidating Ms. Giuffre who was a victim of sexual trafficking. Ms. Giuffre objects to the requests to the extent they are overly broad and unduly burdensome.

Ms. Giuffre objects to Defendant's definition of "your attorneys" because it includes names of attorneys that do not represent her, including Spencer Kuvin and Jack Scarola.

Ms. Giuffre's responses to Defendant's First Set of Discovery Requests are being made after reasonable inquiry into the relevant facts, and are based only upon the information and documentation that is presently known to her. Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to modify and/or supplement her responses. Ms. Giuffre is producing documents and information herewith, and she will continue to review and produce relevant documents until completion.

Ms. Giuffre incorporates her above-listed general objections in the responses herein.

Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it violates Rule 33.3. Ms. Giuffre objects to this request in that it is overly broad and seeks information solely to harass and intimidate Ms. Giuffre.

For the period of 1998 to the present Ms. Giuffre provides the following information. Dear Ross,

I'm writing to you as you have in the past represented Ghislaine Maxwell. As you are no doubt aware, fresh allegations have been levelled against Ms Maxwell in new US court filings made in Florida on 30 December, which some outlets have already been reported.

I would urgently seek any comment on behalf of your client, or notification of her new representation if you no longer act for her.

Many thanks for your help,
James

I am out of my depth to understanding defamation and other legal hazards and don't want to end up in a law suit aimed at me from anyone if I can help it. Apparently even saying Virginia is a liar has hazard! I have never been in a suit criminal or civil and want it to stay that way.

The US lawyers for the Jane Does are filling additional discovery motions and if I speak I open my self to being part of discovery apparently. I am trying to stay out of litigation and not have to employ lawyers for years as I get lost in US legal nightmare. I stand no legal risk currently on these old charges and civil suits against Jeffrey We need to consult with US lawyers on any statement I make and the complaints too

Perhaps we make a statement of the legal risk of saying anything for potential defamation or something that prevents a full and frank detailed rebuttal + the press not being the place for that? Regardless, Philip plse call jeffrey lawyer and see what you can understand from him and pehaps craft something in conjunction with him? Either way I think you need to speak to him to understand my risk so you can help me understand it - too may cooks in the kitchen and I can't make good decisions. Plse reach out to him today

+ I have already suffered such a terrible and painful loss over the last few days that I can't even see what life after press he'll even looks like - statements that don't address all just lead to more questions..what is my relationship to clinton ? Andrew on and on.

Let's rest till monday. I need head space

Agreed

We agreed to release a statement

We should support our friends and deny the allegations as Dershowitz urges and Prince Andrew has.

We run the real risk of guilt by silence and that is likely to feed false claims and false suits as we saw with the BBC

I advised the soldiers in Bloody Sunday not to give interviews so I am cautious and this is the time to speak.

I can say no more. I hope our advice is followed.

MoS first then Sunday Times. Otherwise we lose any chance of ownership of the narrative.

Please give it some serious thought...

Dershowitz is out on Monday with a big push in The Times and we run the risk of looking less than gripped.

I believe the next 18hrs is the best chance we have to leverage some transparency advantage on this. MoS first then Sunday Times. Otherwise we lose any chance of ownership of the narrative.

Please give it some serious thought...

Dershowitz is out on Monday with a big push in The Times and we run the risk of looking less than gripped. best

Hi Ross, I'm working on a story about a defamation suit filed by Virginia Roberts against Ghislaine Maxwell.

Virginia alleges that Ghislaine defamed her by calling her claims "obvious lies," among other denials. Those denials were released through you. (To be clear, you're not named as a defendant.)

I'm wondering if Ghislaine has a response to the suit, which is attached.

Thank you,

Saying nothing is reputational suicide. Even if AR is discredited by AD people will know JE paid her off and believe G was complicate absent a credible denial.

Now it is reported that G engaged in direct abuse - as I feared would happen. Next reports to the authorities will be made.

It is necessary from a litigation, investigatory and reputational reason to issue a cogent denial.

I can see why JE doesn't want this as it may not suit him but he is already toast.

I am back on line now.

I see the statement didn't go. Monday? Maybe tomorrow?

I will speak to Jeffery Epstein's lawyer but JE has a conflict with you and will want your silence as whilst you are being attacked there is less heat on him.

Either Virginia Roberts is lying or not. If we let her lie without challenge then the lies become the reality and that may lead to you facing investigation. These are serious allegations and In the UK prosecuting people who face allegations of sex abuse is now common place and a lot of resources are focused on this.

We can't sit back and let you be a conspirator by silence.

Your are not guilty and must follow Dershowtiz line. He is a leading lawyer and he hasn't followed the don't say anything for fear of litigation. He has rightly called VR bluff and shouted his innocence.

You have to stand up and deny the allegations or be branded guilty by association and that may lead to other investigations and worse.

I feel I am going around in circles.

I know what is right to do and that is to shout your innocence.

Try and get some rest. Call me tomorrow if you want anytime.

Speak to Deshowitz.

Don't allay yourself to JE as that is not the way to go.

The US lawyers for the Jane Does are filling additional discovery motions and if I speak I open my self to being part of discovery apparently. I am trying to stay out of litigation and not have to employ lawyers for years as I get lost in US legal nightmare. I stand no legal risk currently on these old charges and civil suits against Jeffrey We need to consult with US lawyers on any statement I make and the complaints too

Perhaps we make a statement of the legal risk of saying anything for potential defamation or something that prevents a full and frank detailed rebuttal + the press not being the place for that? Regardless, Philip plse call jeffrey lawyer and see what you can understand from him and pehaps craft something in conjunction with him? Either way I think you need to speak to him to understand my risk so you can help me understand it - too may cooks in the kitchen and I can't make good decisions. Plse reach out to him today

+ I have already suffered such a terrible and painful loss over the last few days that I can't even see what life after press he'll even looks like - statements that don't address all just lead to more questions..what is my relationship to clinton ? Andrew on and on.

Let's rest till monday. I need head space

Since JE was charged in 2007 for solicitation of a prostitute I have been the target of outright lies, innuendo, slander, defamation and salacious gossip and harrasment; headlines made up of quotes I have never given, statements I have never made, trips with people to places I have never been, holidays with people I have never met, false allegations of impropriety and offensive behavior that I abhor and have never ever been party to, witness to events that I have never seen, living off trust funds that I have never ever had, party to stories that have changed materially both in time place and event depending on what paper you read, and the list goes on.

I have never been a party in any criminal action pertaining to JE

For the record:

At the time of Jeffrey's plea I was in a very long-term committed relationship with another man and no longer working with Jeffrey. Whilst I remained on friendly terms with him up until his plea, , I have had limited contact since

Every story in the press innuendo and comment has been taken from civil depositions against JE, which were settled many years ago. None of the depositions were ever subject to cross examination , not one. any standard of truth and were used for those who claimed they were victims to receive financial payment to be shared between them and their lawyers. One firm created and sold fake cases against Mr. Epstein – the firm subsequently imploded and the Rothstein, the owner of the firm was sent to jail for 50 years for his crime. The lawyer who is currently representing Virginia was his partner. need I say more!

These so called ‘new revelations’ stem from an alleged diary from VR that reads like the memoirs she is purporting to be selling. Also perhaps pertinent - in a previous complaint against others, her claims were rejected by the police

“due to.. VR ..lack of credibility ”

The new interest in this old settled case results from lawyers representing some of JE victims filed a suit against the US government not JE . They contend that the Us govt violated their rights.

The document and deal that JE negotiated with the government was given to the lawyers 6 years ago and is a public document.

I am not part of, nor did you have anything to do with, JE plea bargain

I have never even seen the proceedings nor any of the depositions

I reserve my right to file complaint and sue for defamation and slander

As discussed - here is the new affidavit from Virginia Roberts. She claims to have had sex with Ms Maxwell when Roberts was 15 years old.

She alleges that Ms Maxwell was "heavily involved in the illegal sex" and "she had sex with underage girls virtually every day when I was around her".

Roberts also says that Ms Maxwell "had large amounts of child pornography that she personally made".

Please do pass on any comment or response Ms Maxwell would like to make.

Thanks and all best

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF’S REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO REOPEN DEFENDANT’S DEPOSITION BASED ON LATE PRODUCTION OF NEW, KEY DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files her Reply in Support of her Motion to Reopen Defendant’s Deposition Based on Late Production of New, Key Documents. Because Ms. Giuffre has shown the importance of reopening Defendant’s deposition on these several important documents, because Defendant has not offered any substantial countervailing consideration, the Court should allow Ms. Giuffre to question Defendant in a deposition about these late produced communications.

I. INTRODUCTION

As the Court is well aware, Ms. Giuffre has alleged that Defendant defamed her when she called her a liar after Ms. Giuffre spoke out about being a child victim of sex abuse at the hands of Defendant and Defendant’s long-time boyfriend, convicted pedophile, Jeffrey Epstein. The two documents at issue in the instant motion are Defendant’s communications with her press agent and with Epstein concerning potential statements to the media regarding Ms. Giuffre. Therefore, not only do they involve two key individuals, but also a key topic in this litigation: Defendant’s defamation of Ms. Giuffre through the media. Multiple documents show Epstein’s involvement in crafting Defendant’s various draft statements to the media concerning Ms. Giuffre, and one of the late produced documents at issue in this pending motion is an email chain showing Epstein's involvement in crafting yet another draft statement. The other late produced document is a communication between Defendant and her press agent, Ross Gow. It also concerns a potential statement to the media about Ms. Giuffre. This email shows Gow's continued involvement in handling press inquiries concerning Ms. Giuffre on Defendant's behalf. That is relevant to Ms. Giuffre's claims for multiple reasons, not least of which is Defendant's nonsensical attempts to distance herself from Gow's statement, as recounted in the moving brief. Her continuance of working with him after he issued the defamatory statement, and after the commencement of this litigation (as shown by the document at issue) is evidence to the contrary. Ms. Giuffre should be able to cross her with that email and ask related questions. Therefore, both of these documents are highly relevant. Whatever Defendant argues about her prior deposition, she cannot claim that she was questioned about these two emails. Ms. Giuffre deserves the opportunity to ask Defendant about them.

II. ARGUMENT

A. Discovery Concerning These Emails is Not Duplicative, and it is Highly Relevant

As the Court will recall, a Defendant's initial deposition, she answered the questions put to her with evasive, non-responsive answers, unqualified refusals to answer, feigned memory loss, and feigned ignorance over the meaning of basic sentences and basic words ("I don't know what you mean by puppet"<sup>1</sup>). As a result, Ms. Giuffre was forced to file a Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions (DE 143). On June 20, 2016, this Court granted Ms. Giuffre's Motion and directed Defendant to sit again for her deposition (June 20, 2016 Sealed Order, filed in redacted form at DE 264-1). As recounted in Ms. Giuffre's Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions (DE 314/356), Defendant was again evasive and refused to answer questions during her second deposition, despite the court's specific direction that she sit for her deposition and answer topic areas that she avoided during her first deposition. See id. Ms. Giuffre attempted to solicit Defendant's testimony pursuant to the Court's Order, but Defendant defied that Order and again refused to answer many questions, thus requiring Ms. Giuffre to file the Motion to Enforce the Court's Order, to attempt to obtain another deposition with a stern direction from the Court to the Defendant that she must answer questions during her deposition as originally directed by this Court. That motion is currently pending before this Court (DE314/356).

Thereafter, in this case where Defendant's production of email communications has been miniscule, Defendant stated that she "inadvertently" failed to produce two critical emails, and produced them after Defendant's second deposition was complete. While Ms. Giuffre attempted to confer with Defendant to secure her agreement to be deposed on this new information, Defendant refused to sit for a follow up deposition (despite the fact that Ms. Giuffre agreed to sit for her deposition under these same circumstance), thereby forcing Ms. Giuffre to file this motion with the Court to secure the Defendant's deposition on these two e-mails.

Defendant's paltry justification for opposing Ms. Giuffre's motion is that she previously answered questions concerning certain other communications with Epstein and Gow. That argument is unavailing.

First, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to question the Defendant on these specific communications. One is an email chain with her joint defense partner Jeffrey Epstein, who was also a co-abuser with her. The other is a communication with Ross Gow, Defendant's press agent who she refused to produce for a deposition, despite him being her agent and despite their sharing the same attorney, forcing Ms. Giuffre to litigate the issue in the London courts, against Defendant's counsel, and at significant expense. An English Court has since ordered Gow to sit for his deposition, despite Defendant and her counsel's obstructionist refusal to produce him prior to that litigation.

Second, these documents are relevant precisely for the reason Defendant attempts to say they are not: their date. Notably, the questioning that Defendant cites in her brief surrounds communications in January of 2015, whereas this newly- produced communication shows discussions with Gow from November of 2015 - after this litigation had commenced. Therefore, Ms. Giuffre is entitled to ask the Defendant about her relationship with her agent in dealing with press and other inquires after the commencement of litigation.

This is particularly relevant, because, again, Defendant has been less than forthright in answering questions relating to her authorization of the issuance of the January statement. Ms. Giuffre will refer the Court to her discussion on pages 4-7 of her moving brief, describing the evasive answers Defendant gave regarding Gow, including that she “denies in part” simple statements concerning Gow, offering a non-responsive answer instead. The fact that she continued to engage with her agent Gow, after this litigation was filed, refutes any suggestion that she did not authorize her agent to act on her behalf in January 2015. Indeed, Defendant’s continued use of her press agent and her continued reliance upon Epstein’s input informs a pattern and practice that is echoed by the per-defamatory communications.

In sum, contrary to Defendant’s argument, the fact that Ms. Giuffre questioned Defendant regarding her older communications with Epstein and Gow does not render redundant questions concerning her more recent communication with Epstein and Gow, nor could it.

Seeming to acknowledge the relevance of Ms. Giuffre asking questions about the Gow email, Defendant suggests that Ms. Giuffre could simply ask Defendant’s press agent, Ross Gow, about the email he sent, instead of asking her. This is a flippant suggestion, as Defendant and her counsel have played an expensive game of cat-and-mouse with Mr. Gow’s deposition, refusing to accept service of his Rule 45 subpoena. Mr. Gow, however, likely will be unable to answer questions about what Defendant thought about his inquiry, or what she did next, and similar questions.

Similarly, only Defendant can testify to her understanding of why she was explaining herself to Epstein on April 22, 2015, seemingly seeking his approval on a draft statement, and only she can testify what she did after receiving Epstein's "ok." The fact that Defendant was seeking Epstein's permission with respect to her media communications regarding Ms. Giuffre shows a high level of coordination among these co-conspirators,<sup>2</sup> and Ms. Giuffre should not be precluded from asking about critical communications because Defendant failed to produce the communications until after so many key witnesses, including the Defendant, had testified.

B. This Court has Already Held that Reopening a Deposition is Appropriate for Question concerning Documents Produced After the Deposition

This Court has already ruled that reopening a party deposition is appropriate where important<sup>3</sup> documents are produced after the deposition is completed. This ruling is in accord with relevant precedent. See Wesley v. Muhammad, 2009 WL 1490607, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) ("while

<sup>2</sup> Incorrectly, in Footnote 1, Defendant claims that Ms. Giuffre fabricated her claim that Maxwell and Epstein asked Ms. Giuffre to bear a child for them. Ms. Giuffre's statement is directly corroborated by another young woman Defendant recruited to provide sexual massages to Epstein. Indeed, Johanna Sjoborg testified that Epstein asked her to bear a child for him:

Q. Have you ever been propositioned by anyone to have a baby for someone?

A. Yes.

Q. Who propositioned you?

A. Jeffrey asked me.

Q. Did he ask you more than once?

A. Yes.

Q. And what did he say?

A. Basically just said, I want you to be the mother of my baby.

See Schultz Dec. at Exhibit 1, May 18, 2016, Sjoborg Dep. Tr. at 39:25-40:9. There is no "fabrication" here.

<sup>3</sup> Defendant attempts to distinguish her two emails with key players in this case from the documents that Ms. Giuffre produced after her deposition, namely, medical and employment records. There is a distinction, but not what Defendant suggests. Not only are Ms. Giuffre's documents ancillary to the matter, but unlike the Defendant, Ms. Giuffre is cooperating with a follow up deposition on these documents – whereas Defendant is refusing to be deposed. This is not a personal injury action or a medical malpractice action wherein medical records are highly relevant. This is also not a wage-and-hour case, or a non-compete case, or an employment discrimination case wherein employment records are highly relevant. This is a defamation case. And the communications among the individuals who formed and then disseminated the defamatory statement (particularly when those communications address potential future statements about Ms. Giuffre) are more relevant - by orders of magnitude - than any of the medical or employment records about which Defendant will ask Ms. Giuffre at her second deposition, particularly when those medical records cover such topics so far afield, such as Ms. Giuffre's treatment for an animal bite.

defendants' delay in producing documents may have interfered with the completeness of depositions, plaintiff will be free to reopen any depositions for which he deems the newly produced documents to be a relevant source of questions”); Ganci v. U.S. Limousine Serv., Ltd., 2011 WL 4407461 at *2 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 21, 2011) (“Courts will typically reopen a deposition where there is new information on which a witness should be questioned”).

Here, Defendant produced important documents - communications with Jeffrey Epstein and her press agent who disseminated her defamatory statement - well after her deposition, and well after she was served with the discovery request seeking those documents. These are not auxiliary documents. They are communications with two of the most important witnesses in this case: Jeffrey Epstein and Ross Gow. As key witnesses, Ms. Giuffre has spent considerable resources seeking their depositions and answers to the deposition questions. For Gow, Ms. Giuffre’s efforts included service through The Hague Convention (twice), hiring an English firm to attempt personal service (Gow left the country); and initiating a separate action in England pursuant to this Court’s Letter Rogatory. For Epstein, Ms. Giuffre deposed Epstein, but he improperly invoked the Fifth Amendment and improperly refused to produce documents. Accordingly, pending before this Court is Ms. Giuffre’s Sealed Motion to Compel Epstein to answer questions and produce documents. Defendant’s lately-produced communications with these two witnesses are critical evidence.

Defendant’s error should not prejudice Ms. Giuffre, particularly since, pursuant to this Court’s Order, Defendant will have the opportunity to depose Ms. Giuffre on her lately produced documents. The same standard that this Court applied to Defendant’s motion to open Ms. Giuffre’s deposition should apply to Ms. Giuffre’s motion for the same relief, made on the same grounds. See e.g., Robinson v. T.J. Maxx, Inc., 148 F.R.D. 490, 492 (N.D.N.Y. 1993) (holding that discovery ruling regarding extension of discovery deadline applied to both parties equally); In re 650 Fifth Ave., No. 08 CIV. 10934 KBF, 2013 WL 1870090, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 24, 2013) (applying equal standards to the parties' privilege logs, explaining "what's good for the goose is good for the gander.").

Well-reasoned precedent, as well as the facts in this case, requires the re-opening of Defendant's deposition. Accordingly, the Court should grant Ms. Giuffre's request to reopen Defendant's deposition to answer questions relating to her lately produced documents.

C. Ms. Giuffre's Motion is Not Untimely

Without any supporting case law or authority, Defendant has the gumption to argue that Ms. Giuffre's motion is somehow "untimely" when it was the Defendant who withheld these critical e-mails during the entire discovery period, denying Ms. Giuffre the benefit of being able to use these e-mails at multiple witness depositions. The only "untimeliness" claim that can be made here is against the Defendant.

The two emails in question are responsive to a Request for Production served on Defendant on February 2, 2016. Defendant produced these two emails on August 16, 2016, after her deposition and after the fact discovery period closed on July 29, 2016 (D.E. 317). Defendant wrongly suggests to this Court that the fact discovery closure date was September 8, 2016 but that is incorrect. The only deadline modified to September 8, 2016, was the expert disclosure deadline. (D.E. 413). Defendant's documents were clearly produced after the close of fact discovery. The only party that is untimely here is the Defendant.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, and the reasons set forth in the moving brief, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that this Court Reopen Defendant's deposition to (1) answer lines of questions discussed in Ms. Giuffre's Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed under Seal (DE 315) which is pending before the Court; and (2) answer questions related to the two key late produced documents.

D. Computation of damages:

1. Physical, psychological and psychiatric injuries and resulting medical expenses – in an amount of approximately $ 102,200 present value.
  - a. Computation Analysis:
    - i. Giuffre has had to receive treatment for the psychological harm as a result of Maxwell's conduct towards Giuffre.
    - ii. The average annual expenditures for mental health services for adults 18-64 in the United States is $1,751.
    - iii. Giuffre needs continuing care as a result of the harm she has suffered. Ms. Giuffre was born August 9, 1983 and was 31.4 years old at the beginning of 2015 when the alleged harm occurred. The average remaining life expectancy for a 31 year old female is 51.1 years.
    - iv. Based on a remaining life expectancy of 51.1 years, annual healthcare cost growth of 3.3% and a discount rate of 2.7%, the present value of expected treatment costs is $102,200 as of 1/1/2015.

b. Supporting Evidence:

- i. Ms. Giuffre is in the process of collecting records from her physicians
- ii. Ms. Giuffre's testimony
- iii. Ms. Giuffre is in the process of retaining an expert to calculate damages, and will provide further information through expert disclosure.

2. Past, present and future pain and suffering, mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, loss of standing in the community, loss of dignity and invasion of privacy in her public and private life not less than $30,000,000.00.

a. Computation Analysis

- i. Under New York law, defamation per se as alleged in this case presumes damages and special damages do not need to be plead and proven. See Celle v. Filipino Reporter Enterprises Inc., 209 F.3d 163, 179 (2nd Cir. 2000) (Second Circuit holding that '[i]f a statement is defamatory per se, injury is assumed. In such a case 'even where the plaintiff can show no actual damages at all, a plaintiff who has otherwise shown defamation may recover at least nominal damages' and the Second Circuit also confirmed an award of punitive damages). Ms. Giuffre has been severely damaged by the defamation of the defendant, by calling her claims of sexual abuse "obvious lies". The defamation caused Ms. Giuffre to re-live the sexual abuse she previously endured. Ms. Giuffre has suffered and continues to suffer from the pain, mental anguish, humiliation, embarrassment, loss of self-esteem, loss of standing in the community, loss of dignity and invasion of privacy in her public and private life. The computation of this amount is in the province of the jury but Ms. Giuffre contends, including but not limited to, awards in other similar matters, that the amount is not less than $30,000,000.00. Ms. Giuffre is in the process of retaining an expert, and will provide further information through expert disclosure.

b. Supporting Evidence

- i. Ms. Giuffre's testimony

- ii. Witness testimony
  - iii. Awards in similar matters
  - iv. Ms. Giuffre is in the process of retaining an expert, and will provide further information through expert disclosure.
3. Punitive Damages - to be based upon all relevant factors, including the egregious nature of Defendant, Ghislaine Maxwell's conduct and the need for a large award to punish and deter conduct in view of the vast wealth of Defendant Maxwell, in an amount not less than $50,000,000.00.
- a. This calculation is in the province of the jury.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

VIRGINIA GIUFFRE,

Plaintiff,

-against-

GHISLAINE MAXWELL,

Defendant.

Index No. 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS)

REPLY DECLARATION OF
ALAN M. DERSHOWITZ IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF MOTION TO INTERVENE AND UNSEAL

ALAN M. DERSHOWITZ declares under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

1. I am personally familiar with the facts set forth in this Reply Declaration, which I submit in further support of my pending motion to intervene and to unseal the “Requested Documents,” as that term is defined in Paragraph 3 of my August 11, 2016 Declaration.

Introduction and Overview

2. Rather than offering a valid and proper basis for opposing my motion, the papers submitted on behalf of plaintiff Virginia Roberts Giuffre—particularly, the lengthy declaration of Paul Cassell, one of Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers and a former federal judge—are little more than an effort to revive and further the false and scurrilous allegations of sexual misconduct that compelled me to seek the Court’s assistance in the first place. As his declaration makes clear, Mr. Cassell has crossed the line from being a legitimate advocate for a client, to being a lawyer who is seeking to justify his own conduct in the face of compelling evidence that his client is a thoroughgoing liar. That was, after all, the gravamen of Mr. Cassell’s defamation case against me: the assertion, now repeated at length before this Court, that Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers had a valid basis for disseminating her false, grotesque and impertinent allegations against me in a public filing. And it is that “fight,” essentially, that Mr. Cassell reignites in his declaration in this matter. To be clear, this not a fight that that I started and it is certainly not one that I am asking this Court to referee or resolve in any way. I am only asking that the Court refuse to allow its Protective Order, which was entered based upon a stipulation that explicitly contemplated that the Order might be modified, from being used to prevent me from disclosing documents that reveal the truth. Having now, again, been subjected to an unfair and unwarranted false attack on my credibility and reputation for personal rectitude, I have no choice but to respond on the merits.

3. I begin by, again, swearing under oath that I did not sexually abuse Virginia Roberts Giuffre, and that any allegation or suggestion to the contrary is categorically false. I never had sexual contact with Ms. Giuffre of any kind, and, to my knowledge, I never even met her until her deposition in 2016. By swearing to this, I am deliberately exposing myself to a perjury prosecution and disbarment if I am not telling the truth. If Ms. Giuffre were to submit an affidavit repeating her false allegations against me, I would welcome and cooperate with a criminal investigation by any prosecutorial office as to whether it is Ms. Giuffre or I who is committing perjury. It is inescapably clear that one of us is lying under oath. I know it is not me.

4. Against this backdrop, and the facts set forth in my August 11, 2016 Declaration, Mr. Cassell, on his client’s behalf, has put into the record a declaration replete with factual inaccuracies, omissions, and flat-out misrepresentations. Among other things, he misstates important elements of both the Crime Victims’ Rights Act lawsuit filed by Ms. Giuffre, and others, in Florida (the “CVRA Action”), and the defamation lawsuit that he and his colleague, Bradley Edwards, brought against me (Edwards v. Dershowitz, Case No. CACE 15-000072 (Cir. Ct., Broward Cnty., Fla.)). Moreover, he elides or mischaracterizes testimony gathered in those and other proceedings in order to make them appear inculpatory of me when, in fact, they are just the opposite.

5. In doing so, Mr. Cassell seeks to accomplish two goals simultaneously: first, to suppress information—the Requested Documents—which exculpates me from the charges of sexual misconduct, while allowing Ms. Giuffre and her allies to publicly disseminate those selected “facts” that, they believe, support her allegations against me; and, second, to prove that Mr. Cassell—and, by extension, his colleague Mr. Edwards and Ms. Giuffre’s current lawyers at Boies Schiller & Flexner, LLP—have a valid factual basis for continuing to press Ms. Giuffre’s false allegations. Mr. Cassell’s effort is an unmitigated failure, as this declaration demonstrates.

6. While much of the Cassell Declaration goes far beyond what is reasonably required to respond to the instant motion, and while it surely has the distinct air of “protesting too much,” I cannot stand mute in the face of this continuing assault on my character. As this declaration and the accompanying reply brief will demonstrate, the charges against me are baseless, and unsealing the Requested Document is the only proper response to Ms. Giuffre’s efforts to smear me through the legal process.

7. In its effort to block the unsealing of the Requested Documents and to justify Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers’ decision to represent her, the Cassell Declaration cites five sources: (i) a Palm Beach Police Department Report dated July 19, 2006; (ii) flight logs for the aircraft owned by Jeffrey Epstein; (iii) the fact that a “very well-regarded Florida” lawyer filed a civil complaint against Mr. Epstein on Ms. Giuffre’s behalf which accused “academicians” associated with Mr. Epstein of abusing her; (iv) the testimony of Juan Alessi and Alfredo Rodriguez, two household employees of Mr. Epstein; and (v) what Mr. Cassell alleges is a “pattern of deception” by me to keep the “truth” from coming out. I will address each of these, in detail, in turn. As will immediately become clear, the information presented by Mr. Cassell in no way substantiates Ms. Giuffre’s claims. To the contrary, much of the evidence contradicts Ms. Giuffre’s version of events. In addition, I offer a few final points about matters that demonstrate clearly that Ms. Giuffre is not a credible witness.

The Palm Beach Police Department Report

8. The Cassell Declaration cites a July 2006 Palm Beach Police Department Report, which identified Jeffrey Epstein’s home in Palm Beach as a location at which Mr. Epstein allegedly abused minor victims. Mr. Cassell contends that this Report supports Ms. Giuffre’s account that I abused her at the Palm Beach home. See Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(a)-(b). But, as Mr. Cassell conceded in his deposition in the Edwards defamation case, my name does not even appear in the Palm Beach Police Department Report—much less does the Report contain an allegation that I sexually abused someone. See Ex. O at 31 (Deposition Transcript of Paul G. Cassell, October 16-17, 2015).

9. Mr. Cassell asserts that the Palm Beach Police Report “showed the sexual abuse was occurring on a daily basis” at the Epstein mansion, and thus “that [it] would have made it obvious to a visiting guest that young girls were coming to the home for sexual purposes.” Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(b). Putting aside the conclusory nature of the inference (For example, by what means would it be “obvious,” and to which “guests?” I would think that if someone were doing something illegal, such as arranging trysts with underage girls, they would take measures to conceal their conduct), the statement is entirely irrelevant to me. First, I was not present in that home—or on Mr. Epstein’s private island, or at his New Mexico ranch, or on his airplane—during the time Ms. Giuffre was associated with him. Dershowitz Decl.,<sup>1</sup> ¶ 9. Nothing about Ms. Giuffre’s relationship with Mr. Epstein, or her age, could have been “obvious” to me, because I never met her. Second, there is simply no evidence that Mr. Epstein’s alleged abuse of minor victims at his home in Palm Beach was “obvious” or known to any “visiting guests,” given that the abuse took is alleged to have taken place in a separate part of the house, namely Mr. Epstein’s private bedroom.

10. Ms. Giuffre and her counsel have alleged that she was not the only “young girl” that I had sexual contact with – i.e., that there were others. Of course, no such persons have ever presented themselves to corroborate this accusation. Nonetheless, Mr. Cassell latched on to this allegation as a “basis” for his filing in the CRVA Action, which named me as a serial abuser.

11. Demonstrating how little Mr. Cassell really had to go on in this regard, I ask the Court to consider Mr. Cassell’s response to a question put to him in deposition concerning who, other than his client, he had reason to believe was abused by me. All Mr. Cassell could muster was this:

[CASSELL]: ...I have 24 names in mind as possible sexual abuse victims that Dershowitz may or may not have abused. And I have not been able to pinpoint exactly what happened, because the people who would be in the best position to help me sort out what the names were [--] specifically Jeffrey Epstein, among others [--] have refused to cooperate and give me those names” (emphasis added).

Ex. O at 36-37.

12. The very idea that Mr. Cassell could claim that, without more, a mere list of alleged victims that he believes that I “may or may not have abused” would provide a basis for publicly accusing me of heinous crimes, well illustrates Mr. Cassell’s mindset.

<sup>1</sup> Citations to “Dershowitz Decl.” refer to my August 11, 2016 moving declaration. Exhibits O through X are attached to this Reply Declaration.

13. As the record demonstrates, I could not have abused Virginia Roberts Giuffre because, as the records establish, I was never in Mr. Epstein's Palm Beach home, private island, ranch or airplane during the two years that she was associated with Mr. Epstein. The Palm Beach Police Department Report neither corroborates Ms. Giuffre's false accusation, nor supports the decision by Mr. Cassell, Mr. Edwards and the other lawyers for Ms. Giuffre to publicly accuse me of such pedophilia.

The Flight Logs

14. In his Declaration, Mr. Cassell suggests that the flight logs of Mr. Epstein's private jet showing Ms. Giuffre travelling to New York support the conclusion that I abused Ms. Giuffre in New York, because I was a visiting scholar at N.Y.U. and lived in N.Y.U. housing during the 2000-2001 academic year. See Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(c). This allegation, and the string of inferences necessary to make it "work," is patently absurd. Millions of people were present in the New York City area when Ms. Giuffre travelled there; it is simply not reasonable to infer from my presence in New York at the same time, apparently, as Ms. Giuffre that I sexually abused her—there or anywhere else.

15. In his deposition in the defamation case against me, Mr. Cassell acknowledged that my name did not appear in the aircraft flight logs during the time period in which Ms. Giuffre was associated with Mr. Epstein:

[CASSELL]: The face of the flight logs for the relevant period of time, we can call it the hot period of time or whatever you want, did not reveal the presence of Mr. Dershowitz on those flights, yes.

Q: Okay. So during the period—well, actually, there's no flight log that shows Virginia Roberts and Professor Dershowitz on the same airplane, correct?

A: That's my understanding, yes.

Ex. O at 205.

16. Desperate to draw some connection between me and young girls on the airplane, Mr. Cassell also states that the flight logs show me and “an apparently young woman named ‘Tatiana’ who did not appear to serve any business purpose for Epstein” flying together on Mr. Epstein’s plane with Mr. Epstein and other individuals. See Cassell Decl. ¶ 21(g) (internal parentheses omitted). What his declaration conveniently fails to mention is that the flight in question took place on November 17, 2005, years after Ms. Giuffre’s association with Mr. Epstein concededly ended. See McCawley Decl., Ex. 2 at GIUFFRE007135. The connection between a flight in 2005 and Ms. Giuffre’s alleged abuse is, of course, non-existent: by 2005, Ms. Giuffre was living in Australia.

17. But that is just a detail. As Mr. Cassell well knows, Tatiana Kovylna, the woman who flew on Mr. Epstein’s plane with us and several other people in 2005, was 24 years old at the time of the flight. During my deposition in the Edwards case, I was asked about and shown photos of “Tatiana”; I said that I thought she appeared to “about 25” years old. It turned out that my estimate was correct. This exchange followed:

[DERSHOWITZ]: ... I must say that during the recess, my wife Googled Tatiana and found out that she was, in fact, 24 years old in 1995 [sic - 2005]<sup>2</sup>, at the time she flew on that airplane. So that my characterization of her as about 25 years old is absolutely correct. And the implication that you sought to draw by showing me those pictures was not only demonstrably false, but you could have easily discovered that the implication you were drawing was demonstrably false by simply taking one second and Googling her name as my wife did.”

Ex. P at 216-17 (Deposition Transcript of Alan M. Dershowitz, October 16, 2015).

<sup>2</sup> In fact, I meant the year 2005. According to Wikipedia, Ms. Kovylna was born on November 4, 1981. See https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tatiana\_Kovylna.

18. Mr. Cassell was present at my October 2015 deposition in the Edwards case, and he is aware of Tatiana Kovyлина’s actual age. Yet, in his Declaration to this Court, he continues to suggest that her presence on Mr. Epstein’s airplane in 2005 supports the inference that I was aware of Mr. Epstein’s alleged abuse of Ms. Giuffre in 2000-2002, and that I participated in such conduct. Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(g). While Mr. Cassell cloaks this suggestion in language concerning “information [he and Mr. Edwards] relied upon in believing the truth of Ms. Giuffre’s allegations,” that is too clever by half. Id. at 21. The inference that he asks this Court to draw is that the presence of Ms. Kovyлина supports the allegations against me. That is simply false.

Ms. Giuffre’s Civil Complaint and Her Claim of Abuse by “Academics”

19. In his Declaration, Mr. Cassell states that he believed Ms. Giuffre’s allegations that I sexually abused her, in part, because Bob Josefsberg, “a very well regarded Florida lawyer,” apparently believed her, having filed a civil complaint against Mr. Epstein on her behalf. Cassell Decl., ¶21(e). The Josefsberg-filed civil complaint did not name me.

20. Mr. Cassell was not relieved of his professional obligation to investigate the bona fides of Ms. Giuffre’s claims simply because a different lawyer had already decided to file a case on her behalf. Mr. Cassell’s reliance on the case filed by Mr. Josefsberg is particularly inappropriate because the Josefsberg-drafted case does not name me as an abuser. Moreover, Mr. Josefsberg has continued to maintain a personal and professional relationship with me, something he would not have done if he believed I had abused his client—a fact that Mr. Cassell and the other lawyers could have readily ascertained.

21. Nor was it reasonable to accuse me of pedophilia based on the fact that Ms. Giuffre alleged in the Josefsberg-drafted civil complaint that she had been trafficked by Jeffrey

Epstein to “academicians.” Id. As Mr. Cassell is well aware, Jeffrey Epstein was heavily involved in funding academic research at Harvard and kept an office there,<sup>3</sup> and he was consequently friendly with many academics, including David Gergen, Marvin Minsky, Larry Summers, Stephen Kosslyn, Henry Rosovsky, Howard Gardner, and Stephen Jay Gould, among others. Many of these academics engaged in the same behavior that apparently led Mr. Cassell to believe Ms. Giuffre’s allegations that I had abused her. According to workers at Mr. Epstein’s Palm Beach mansion, he received visits from “friends from Harvard” and other “very important people.” Ex. U at 28 (Deposition Transcripts of Alfredo Rodriguez, July 29, 2009 and August 7, 2009). All of the “evidence” that Ms. Giuffre and her lawyers claim implicates me is equally applicable to dozens of other academics and public figures who were associated with Mr. Epstein—including Larry Summers, Stephen Hawking, Henry Rosovsky, Nathan Myhrvold, Steven Pinker, Martin Nowak, Daniel C. Dennett, David Gergen, George Church, Richard Dawkins, Gerard ‘t Hooft, David Gross, Frank Wilzek, Howard Gardner, Stephen Jay Gould, and many others.

22. Of course, Ms. Giuffre’s credibility on these matters is nil. To cite one example, Harvard Professor [REDACTED] is one of the “academicians” Ms. Giuffre has accused. In the Manuscript that I am trying to unseal, Ms. Giuffre describes having sex with [REDACTED] in great detail:

Two weeks later, as if Jeffrey was trying to lighten my spirits, he told me I would be going to his island to meet a new client. He is a

<sup>3</sup> My relationship with Jeffrey Epstein, prior to when he was accused and I became one of his lawyers, was academic and intellectual in nature. Along with many prominent academics, I attended seminars and other events, mostly at his office in Cambridge. I did send him my manuscripts to review and I acknowledged his intellectual input in the acknowledgments to several of my books. Many other academics were acquaintances of Mr. Epstein. They interacted with him on a somewhat regular basis, including during the time period in which he was allegedly abusing Ms. Giuffre, and yet, to my knowledge, they had no idea that he may have engaged in sex acts with minors, because he kept his private life completely separate from his academic life. I have never seen Mr. Epstein with an underage girl.

[REDACTED]. I would be spending two days with him showing him around the island, dining with him, and treating him to a massage whenever he wanted. Without Jeffrey even verbalizing the need to have sex with him, he told me to keep him happy like I had my first client... [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] ... By the time dinner was served and another red wine bottle later, he seemed to get funnier. I made fun of his tousled hair and he poked at me for my skinny legs, calling me a wanna-be-anorexic. When dessert was brought out he asked if he could receive one of the delightful massages he has been hearing about from Jeffrey. I gulped more red wine down and sweetly complied with his offer, dreading the moment I'd have to see his naked body, let alone touch it... I gave the massage my earnest as I always had, and quickly got through having intercourse with him. Not wanting to make any foreplay or anything extravagant out of it, I let him think that's as good as it got, and by the smile on his face, I thought I had done enough.

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. B at GIUFFRE004192-93.

In her deposition in the Edwards defamation lawsuit, she later denied having sex with

[REDACTED]

“Q: Have you ever met a [REDACTED]?”

A: Possibly.

Q: Do you know one way or the other?

A: Do I know?

Q: You said possibly?

A: I was introduced to lots of political, scientific, academic, so there is a possibility I could have met him.

Q: Did you ever have sex with [REDACTED]?

A: No.

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. G at 27.

23. It is inconceivable that Ms. Giuffre could have forgotten about having sex with a man she described in such detail in her Manuscript. She either lied for money in her Manuscript, or committed perjury in her deposition.

24. The same Manuscript that names [REDACTED] and describes a sexual encounter with him in great detail does not mention me as someone with whom she claims to have had sex. To the contrary, it mentions me only as someone who had a discussion with Mr. Epstein in his bedroom after he had had sex with Ms. Giuffre. See Dershowitz Decl., ¶ 37. This entirely fabricated story was obviously inserted as the result of the email exchange between Ms. Giuffre and Sharon Churcher in which Ms. Churcher urges Ms. Giuffre to include my name in her manuscript in order to make it more marketable. See Dershowitz Decl., ¶ 35. It is imperative for me to be able to use those currently-sealed documents—the Emails and the Manuscript in particular—to refute the false allegations against me that have been repeated in public filings in this case, and to support the truth, i.e., that Ms. Giuffre never accused me prior to the CVRA Action. Indeed, because they show that the story about me is of very recent vintage, such documents corroborate the information provided to me by Ms. Giuffre’s best and oldest friend: namely that Ms. Giuffre had never accused me of having had sex with her until she felt pressured to do so by her lawyers. This point—that her accusation against me is a recent fabrication—is central to my defense against the false charges that the lawyers in this case continue to level against me, and I have a right to be able to respond to them by self-proving documents.

25. Ms. Giuffre has also claimed to have had sex with such prominent individuals as former [REDACTED], former Governor of New Mexico Bill Richardson, the late renowned M.I.T professor Marvin Minsky, the chairman of the Hyatt Corporation Tom Pritzker, the former Prime Minister of Israel Ehud

Barak, Prince Andrew of England, another unnamed prince, and several unnamed “foreign presidents,” among others. See, e.g., Dershowitz Decl., Ex. G at 10, 15, 18, 20, 24, 38. She has even claimed that all of these individuals, and me, had sex with her without using a condom.<sup>4</sup>

26. To summarize: before choosing to file the Motion for Joinder in the CVRA lawsuit that publicly accused me of pedophilia, Mr. Cassell and Mr. Edwards were aware, or should have been aware, of several other individuals who would fit the description of “academicians” described in the civil complaint submitted by Bob Josefsberg. Moreover, they were aware, or should have been aware, of glaring problems in Ms. Giuffre’s credibility. Yet, Ms. Giuffre’s lawyers decided to treat her as a credible witness, and to accuse me of a heinous crime on the basis of her inconsistent and incoherent testimony alone. I was the only “academician” named as an abuser, despite the fact that Ms. Giuffre had identified other prominent academics as sexual partners. I believe that I was accused by her because my name—along with that of Prince Andrew—was certain to garner international publicity.

Mr. Epstein’s Associates Plead the Fifth

27. In his Declaration, Mr. Cassell asserts that, because three of Epstein’s associates—Sarah Kellen, Adrianna Mucinska, and Nadia Marcinkova—asserted their Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination when questioned about me, it was reasonable for him to draw “adverse inference” to the effect that I “was, indeed, involved in Epstein’s crimes.”

---

<sup>4</sup> Q. Were condoms ever used with Professor Dershowitz?

A: No, and they weren’t used with any other people as well.

Q: Were the other people that you were sexual [sic] trafficked to?

A: No.

Dershowitz Decl., Ex. G at 177-78.

Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(h). Mr. Cassell’s assumption would be laughable, were not so insidious and improper.

28. In the first place, even a second-year law student knows that adverse inferences can only be drawn against a party who either invokes the Fifth Amendment in a civil case him or herself, or controls the witness who does so (as in an employer-employee relationship). See LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 123-24 (2d Cir. 1997). Obviously, I have never refused to answer questions about Ms. Giuffre’s absurd and false allegations against me—I have repeatedly denied them outright, under oath—and I exercise no control over any of Mr. Epstein’s associates who invoked their Fifth Amendment privilege. There is absolutely no legal basis for an “adverse inference” to be drawn against me by virtue of the privilege invocation by people I barely know and do not control.

29. More importantly, Mr. Cassell’s “reliance” on this invocation is, itself, based on a distortion. The fact is, the three women—Sarah Kellen, Adriana Mucinska, and Nadia Marcinkova—all asserted their Fifth Amendment privileges when answering every single question posed to them in their depositions, not solely in response to questions about me. For example, here is this exchange from the deposition of Ms. Kellen:

Q: Did you ever meet Bill Clinton?

....

A [Kellen]: On the instruction of my lawyer, I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

Q: Did you ever fly with these three gentlemen and Jeffrey Epstein to Africa on Jeffrey Epstein’s 727 airplane?

....

A: At the instruction of my lawyer, I must invoke my Fifth Amendment right.

Ex. R at 39-40 (Deposition Transcript of Sarah Kellen, March 24, 2010).

30. Of course, Mr. Cassell did not draw an “adverse inference” against President Clinton, nor did he accuse the former president of abusing Ms. Giuffre. It would have been unreasonable to have done so.<sup>5</sup>

31. As Mr. Cassell well knows, witnesses risk waving their Fifth Amendment privilege by invoking it only selectively. This is why defense attorneys generally advise their clients to claim the Fifth as to all questions. Therefore, the associates’ invocation of their Fifth Amendment privilege when questioned about me cannot substantiate any claim that I abused Ms. Giuffre. Had these individuals been asked if they knew whether I had assassinated John F. Kennedy, they would have taken the Fifth. It is irresponsible for Mr. Cassell, who should know better given his experience as a federal judge, to make that absurd claim.

32. In truth, I sincerely wish that Mr. Epstein’s associates had not invoked the Fifth Amendment with regard questions about me. Had they testified fully and truthfully, I would have been shown to have done nothing wrong.

The Testimony of Juan Alessi and Alfredo Rodriguez

33. In his Declaration, and in the CVRA filings in December 2014 and January 2015, Mr. Cassell attempts to “place” me at Mr. Epstein’s Palm Beach mansion in the time period during which Ms. Giuffre alleges she was there, to connect me to “sex toys” alleged

---

<sup>5</sup> Likewise, Ms. Kellen, Ms. Mucinska, and Ms. Marcinkova asserted their Fifth Amendment privilege when questioned about a number of celebrities, including David Copperfield, Kevin Spacey, and Les Wexner, among others. One of the prosecuting attorneys, frustrated by this tactic observed:

I think it’s absolutely absurd that she’s objecting to some for these questions or taking the Fifth to some of these questions. I mean, I want to Sid [sic] to ask her now if the sky is blue. I think she’s going to take the Fifth to that question, as well.

Ex. R at 12.

to have been inside the mansion, to imply that I had received a sexual “massage” at the mansion, and to suggest that the appearance of my name, circled, in Jeffrey Epstein’s address book was inculpatory—all by reference to the testimony of two of Jeffrey Epstein’s “household employees,” Juan Alessi and Alfredo Rodriguez. Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(k)-(m). This effort fails under even cursory scrutiny.

34. First, Mr. Cassell asserts that “Juan Alessi said that [Alan] Dershowitz visited Epstein’s Palm Beach mansion four or five times a year, staying two or three days when he went there.” Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(k). He then asserts that “Alessi was able to identify a photograph of Ms. Giuffre as someone who was at the mansion as [sic] the same time as Dershowitz.” Id. Mr. Cassell’s characterization of the Alessi testimony is simply false. Juan Alessi never testified that Ms. Giuffre was at Epstein’s home in Florida at the same time as me.

35. Mr. Cassell’s assertion is apparently based on the following portion of Juan Alessi’s deposition:

Q: Do you have any recollection of V.R. coming to the house when Prince Andrew was there?

A: It could have been, but I’m not sure.

Q: Not sure. When Mr. Dershowitz was visiting,--

A: Uh-huh.

Q: --how often did he come?

A: He came pretty -- pretty often.

McCawley Decl., Ex. 6 at 73.

36. But, as the audio recording of this testimony makes clear (and I am happy to provide it), Mr. Alessi’s “uh-huh” was simply an acknowledgment that he was about to respond to a question about how often I came to the home during the many years he worked there. It was not, as Mr. Cassell misleadingly suggests, an affirmation that Ms. Giuffre and I were present at Mr. Epstein's house at the same time.

37. In fact, Mr. Alessi has since provided an affidavit flatly denying that he saw both Ms. Giuffre and I at the Palm Beach mansion at the same time.

"I was never asked by any attorneys if Virginia Roberts came to the house when Mr. Dershowitz was there. If I had been asked, I would have answered that I never saw Virginia Roberts at the house when Mr. Dershowitz was there."

Ex. Q at ¶ 19 (Affidavit of Juan P. Alessi, January 13, 2016). Indeed, in his affidavit, Mr. Alessi goes on to say, "I never saw Mr. Dershowitz do anything improper or be present while anyone else was being improper." Id.

38. Juan Alessi's affidavit also confirms that Mr. Cassell and Edwards failed to interview him as part of their supposed "investigation" into Ms. Giuffre's claims, and consequently grossly misrepresented the statements he made in his deposition:

The following statement made by Virginia Roberts's attorneys and their own attorney in a filing on December 4, 2015 is not accurate and is a misrepresentation of what I said in my deposition: "Alessi was able to identify a photograph of Ms. Giuffre as someone who was at the mansion as [sic] the same time as Dershowitz.

As far as I can recall, since I gave my deposition in 2009, I have never been asked by Brad Edwards or Paul Cassell about my knowledge regarding Virginia Roberts or Alan Dershowitz or about my 2009 deposition testimony.

Id. at ¶¶ 20-21.

39. In an effort to "place" me in proximity to "sex toys" at the Palm Beach mansion, Mr. Cassell and Mr. Edwards also misrepresented other aspects of Juan Alessi's testimony. For example, in an affidavit, Mr. Alessi states that:

The following statement made by Virginia Roberts’s attorneys in a filing on January 21, 2015 is not accurate and is a misrepresentation of what I said in my deposition: “the private, upstairs room where Dershowitz got his ‘massages’ was one that contained a lot of vibrators—Maxwell had a ‘laundry basket... full of those toys’ in that room.””

....

I did not state or imply that vibrators or sex toys were found after massages in other rooms used by guests because that was not the case. Guests having massages did not have massages in Mr. Epstein’s private bedroom suite. This area was private and off-limits to guests, which I explained to the lawyers during my deposition.

Id. at ¶¶ 9-10.

40. Juan Alessi undermines numerous other elements of Ms. Giuffre’s account as well. For example, Mr. Alessi did not see “any photographs of Virginia Roberts in Mr. Epstein’s house”—partially naked or otherwise. Id. at ¶ 17. And, contrary to Ms. Giuffre’s description, massages were not simply a code word for sexual encounters. Many guests at the Epstein mansion received massages from professional masseuses—and all of whom were, as Mr. Alessi testified, “overage” to “maybe mid-forties.” Id. at ¶ 8. Indeed, despite working for Jeffrey Epstein for many years, Mr. Alessi was “unaware of any masseuses being under the age of 18.” Id. This statement in itself completely undermines Mr. Cassell’s underlying assumption—that I, at the very least, should have known of Mr. Epstein’s alleged wrongdoing by virtue of visiting his Florida home on several occasions.

41. To be clear, the only massage I recall receiving at the Epstein home was conducted by a professional masseuse—a woman in her 30s or 40s. This occurred well outside the timeframe when Ms. Giuffre was associated with Mr. Epstein and I acknowledged this in numerous interviews shortly after Ms. Giuffre accused me.<sup>6</sup> In addition, there were never any sex toys in any room I ever stayed in, nor were there any visible pictures of naked young women. My children and grandchildren stayed in the rooms in question at Mr. Epstein's home during Christmas of 2005. I would never have allowed my family to stay in a home with such items, nor would I have stayed in such a home.

42. Mr. Cassell also seeks to rely upon the deposition of Alfredo Rodriguez, an employee of Jeffrey Epstein for the proposition that I was present in Mr. Epstein's home in 2005 at the same time as some young women—including Ms. Kellen and Ms. Marcinkova<sup>7</sup>—and “local girls” who gave massages. See Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(l). But Mr. Rodriguez was clear that he did not know whether I received a massage, and did not know if I was aware that there were young girls present in the house:

“Q: Okay. When Alan Dershowitz was at the house I understood you to say that these local Palm Beach girls would come over to the house while he was there but you're not sure if he had a massage from any of those girls.

A: Exactly.

Q: And what would he do while those girls were at the house?

....

A: He will read a book with a glass of wine by the pool, stay inside.

Q: Did he ever talk to any of the girls?

A: I don't know, sir.

Q: Certainly he knew that they were there?

....

prostitute. I never denied having one professional massage. I did truthfully state that it was a lie to claim that I had sexual massages in a room full of sex toys.

<sup>7</sup> Ms. Kellen was in her late 20s and to my knowledge, was a legitimate employee of Mr. Epstein. Ms. Marcinkova was, to my knowledge, an adult friend of Mr. Epstein.

A: I don't know sir."

Ex. U at 426-27.

43. Mr. Rodriguez's testimony contained nothing inculpatory of me and, inasmuch as it concerned the period 2005 and later, it has absolutely no bearing on Ms. Giuffre's allegations about me, since Ms. Giuffre left Mr. Epstein's orbit in 2002.

44. Mr. Cassell also refers to Mr. Epstein's "little black book" of contacts and phone numbers, which Alfredo Rodriguez had stolen. Mr. Cassell claims that "[Rodriguez] appeared to have circled the name of Alan Dershowitz as someone who had information about Epstein['s] criminal activities." Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(m). Of course, what Mr. Rodriguez did or didn't write or circle in Mr. Epstein's address book is probative of nothing. In fact, however, the address book contained the circled names of many celebrities and other individuals, including Donald Trump, Flavio Briatore, and Courtney Love, among others.<sup>8</sup> Even the late Elie Wiesel's name and redacted phone number was in the "black book." And yet, Mr. Cassell seems to have falsely assumed that, among those individuals whose names were in the book circled, only I was a possible accomplice of Mr. Epstein:

Q: Donald Trump was a friend of Jeffrey Epstein; is that not correct?

A: I really don't -- my understanding is yes, but I -- I don't have a lot of information about Trump.

Q: It's true also, is it not, that Mr. Trump was a frequent visitor to Mr. Epstein's residence?

A: I -- I know that he visited frequent. I -- I don't have a lot of information about Trump.

Q: And his name is circled in this book; is it not?

---

A: I believe it is.

Q: Based on him -- assuming he's a frequent visitor to Mr. Epstein's home, and that he's a friend of Mr. Epstein's, and that his name is circled in this book, do you infer that he was engaged in criminal sexual abuse of minors?

A: No.

Ex. O at 233.

The Allegation That I Engaged in a "Pattern of Deception"

45. The Cassell Declaration asserts that "[a]ttempts had been made to depose Dershowitz or otherwise obtain information from him about his knowledge of Epstein's sexual abuse in 2009, 2011, 2013, and January 2015, and he had avoided all those efforts." Cassell Decl., ¶ 21(o). Mr. Cassell also claims that I did not make Epstein "available to answer questions about sex abuse of underage girls." Id. ¶ 21(p). Mr. Cassell describes this as "a pattern of deception" that was "consistent with a pattern of other persons involved in Epstein's international sex trafficking organization." Id. ¶ 21(p)-(q). Again, these assertions are false or misleading, and absurd in equal measure.

46. During my representation of Jeffrey Epstein, I was a member of an extensive legal team, which collectively decided how Epstein should interact with law enforcement during their investigation. Together with other members of the legal team, I, among others, communicated with the Palm Beach State Attorney's Office—including scheduling meetings to depose Epstein—at the behest of the client. This behavior does not constitute a "pattern of deception;" instead, it reflects a legal strategy, devised by a team of defense lawyers aiming to secure the best possible result for their client.

47. Moreover, Mr. Cassell's claim that I dodged a subpoena or systematically avoided providing information to his and Mr. Edwards' lawyer, Jack Scarola, is demonstrably false.

48. Although a legal assistant for Bradley Edwards, one of Ms. Giuffre's lawyers, once claimed that I was served with a subpoena in 2009, this was not true; I was never served with a subpoena, and contemporaneous documentary evidence proves as much.

49. In August 2011, another attorney representing Ms. Giuffre, Jack Scarola, called me to ask that I provide information on Mr. Epstein's alleged abuse of minors, and particularly young women. I responded on August 15th, in writing that, if Mr. Scarola were to provide me with a more detailed request, I would try to provide any relevant non-privileged information. See Ex. S at SCAROLFA 016566 (Scarola Correspondence, August-September 2011). Mr. Scarola wrote back to me on August 23rd, stating that "We . . . have reason to believe that you have personally observed Jeffrey Epstein in the presence of underage females, and we would like the opportunity to question you under oath about those observations." Id. at SCAROLA 016567. I replied that "If you in fact have such testimony it is perjurious. I have never seen Epstein in the presence of an underage female." Id. at SCAROLA 016570.

50. Despite this unambiguous answer, Mr. Edwards and Mr. Scarola attempted to subpoena me in 2013. This time, they left a subpoena with an assistant to another faculty member at Harvard Law School—an improper form of service. I again made it clear to them that I had no relevant non-privileged information to provide, and that I had been instructed by my client not to volunteer any information. There was no follow up by Mr. Scarola and no attempt to serve me properly.

51. At no point did Mr. Edwards, Mr. Scarola, or any of their associates tell me that Ms. Giuffre had accused me of sexual abuse, because, at that point, she had not. Had I been accused at that time, I would have provided records demonstrating the falsity of any such allegations.

Other Facts That Show that Ms. Giuffre Lacks Credibility

52. Inasmuch as Mr. Cassell is inviting this Court to accept Virginia Roberts Giuffre's assertions about me, other examples of her lack of credibility are relevant.

53. In the first place, Ms. Giuffre has been demonstrated to have made up wildly implausible tales for financial gain. In 2011, for example, Ms. Giuffre was interviewed by Sharon Churcher at The Daily Mail, and provided detailed accounts of an alleged encounter with Bill Clinton on Jeffrey Epstein's private island in the Caribbean. In exchange for that interview, Ms. Giuffre was paid $160,000. Ms. Giuffre's account of meeting Clinton is both completely unbelievable on its face, and demonstrably untrue. For example, she claims that: "Ghislaine Maxwell went to pick up Bill [Clinton] in a huge black helicopter that Jeffrey had bought her. She'd always wanted to fly and Jeffrey paid for her to take lessons, and I remember she was very excited because she got her license around the first year we met. I used to get frightened flying with her but Bill had the Secret Service with him and I remember him talking about what a good job she did." Ex. T at 2-3 (Daily Mail Article, March 5, 2011). Ms. Giuffre then described, in detail, a dinner with President Clinton, Jeffrey Epstein and others on Little St. James Island, which Mr. Epstein owned.<sup>9</sup>

54. Ms. Giuffre’ entire account is fabricated out of whole cloth: President Clinton was never on the island during the relevant period. A FOIA request submitted by former FBI Director Louis Freeh for “all shift logs, travel records, itineraries, reports, and other records for USSS personnel travelling with former President Bill Clinton to Little St. James Island and the US Virgin Islands” revealed that “Bill Clinton did not in fact travel to, nor was he present on, Little St. James Island between January 1, 2001, and January 1, 2003.” See Dershowitz Decl., Ex. I. Moreover, the notion that the Secret Service would allow a former president to be flown by an amateur pilot is ridiculous on its face.

55. In that same Daily Mail article, Ms. Giuffre claimed “that Mr. Clinton’s vice-president Al Gore and his wife, Tipper, were also guests of Epstein on his island” on a different occasion. Ex. T at 4. Ms. Giuffre purported to provide specific details of this encounter: “I had no clue that anything was up. The Gores seemed like a beautiful couple when I met them. All I knew was that Mr. Gore was a friend of Jeffrey’s and Ghislaine’s. Jeffrey didn’t ask me to give him a massage. There might have been a couple of other girls there on that trip but I could never have imagined this guy would do anything wrong. I was planning to vote for him when I turned 18. I thought he was awesome.” Id. at p. 5.

56. This story too was made up – a fiction peddled for money. By all available accounts, Mr. Gore and his wife never set foot on Mr. Epstein’s private island, nor even met Mr. Epstein. Ms. Giuffre’ lawyers, who included David Boies, could easily have ascertained as much. Vice President Gore had been Mr. Boies’s client and Mr. Boies could have simply asked him whether he had ever visited Mr. Epstein’s island in the Caribbean. Had he done so, Mr. Boies would have learned that Ms. Giuffre’s account was false.

57. Critically, Ms. Giuffre also lied about her age—specifically, the age she was during the time period in which she was associated with Jeffrey Epstein. Contrary to previous statements that she was fifteen when she was trafficked by Mr. Epstein, Ms. Giuffre could not have even have met him until 2000, the year she turned seventeen. There is documentary evidence, recently discovered and undisputed, that Ms. Giuffre’ father—who arranged her employment at The Mar-A-Lago Club in Palm Beach—did not begin working there until April 11, 2000. Ms. Giuffre has repeatedly stated that she first met Ghislaine Maxwell at the Mar-A-Lago where she had a summer job as a changing room assistant—indeed it is one of the few aspects of her story that has remained consistent from the outset.<sup>10</sup> Ms. Giuffre turned seventeen in the summer of 2000. By the time Mr. Epstein is alleged to have begun trafficking her to his acquaintances—six to nine months after their first encounter,<sup>11</sup> or in at least one telling two years later,<sup>12</sup> Ms. Giuffre may have been over eighteen.

58. The issue of Ms. Giuffre’s age at the time of certain events is important as a legal matter—and her lack of credibility about it is telling. The age of consent in New York is seventeen. As to the other locations with varying ages of consent—in Florida it is eighteen—it is impossible to know whether Ms. Giuffre is claiming to have been a minor because she has never specified—presumably even to her own lawyers—when the alleged acts were supposed to have occurred. She has not even provided the year in which she claims specific events occurred. So it cannot be presumed—by her lawyers or by anyone else—that she was a minor when she claims that Mr. Epstein trafficked her. It is much more likely, in light of when she actually met Jeffrey Epstein and when she says she began to have sex with his acquaintances, that she was not a minor when she claimed to have had sex with any such people.

<sup>12</sup> See Sharon Churcher, Prince Andrew and the 17-year-old Girl His Sex Offender Friend Flew to Britain to Meet Him, DailyMail.com (Mar. 2, 2011) (“‘After about two years, he started to ask me to ‘entertain’ his friends.’”). Available at <http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-1361039/Prince-Andrew-girl-17-sex-offender-friend-flew-Britain-meet-him.html?ito=feeds-newsxml>.

59. Moreover, Ms. Giuffre has perjured herself by claiming that she was 15 when she met Ms. Maxwell and Mr. Epstein, most notably by submitting an untruthful declaration in the Edwards defamation lawsuit. On November 20, 2015 Ms. Giuffre executed an affidavit in which she alleged that: “In approximately 1999, when I was 15 years old, I met Ghislaine Maxwell . . . Soon after that I went to Epstein’s home in Palm Beach on El Brillo Way. From the first time I was taken to Epstein’s mansion that day, his motivations and actions were sexual, as were Maxwell’s.... Epstein and Maxwell forced me into sexual activity with Epstein. I was 15 years old at the time.” Ex. W at ¶ 4-5 (Declaration of Virginia Roberts, January 21, 2015).

60. She also asserted that when she “was approximately 15 or 16 years old” when Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell began trafficking her to Epstein’s acquaintances. These statements are disproven by documentary evidence, and Ms. Giuffre has herself admitted that they are not true.

Conclusion

61. In his Declaration before this Court, Paul Cassell has provided an accounting of the “evidence” that he claims supports the truth of Virginia Roberts Giuffre’s accusations against me. It is a woefully inadequate presentation, as the preceding paragraphs demonstrate. The irony, of course, is that Mr. Cassell’s accounting is in service to his and his client’s goal of keeping sealed far more compelling evidence—namely, the Requested Documents—that undercuts the accusations against me and shows them to be a recent fabrication. This is part of an overarching plan by Ms. Giuffre's lawyers to cherry-pick the evidence they want to publically reveal while using this Court's powers to suppress evidence damaging to them. There is a further irony as well, which is that the entire basis of Ms. Giuffre's participation in the CVRA Action was a complaint that the Government unlawfully kept secret the details of her alleged victimization at Mr. Epstein's hands. Yet it is now Ms. Giuffre and her lawyers who are seeking to keep secret the whole truth about Ms. Giuffre's story.<sup>13</sup>

62. I believe that the law and basic notion of fairness should permit me to prove the whole truth, namely, that Ms. Giuffre never accused me of misconduct until 2014, and that her belated complaint against me is, as I have always said, a fabrication from start to finish. The Requested Documents help prove those critical points. This Court ought not allow itself to be a tool of secrecy used by Ms. Giuffre and her lawyers to keep the whole truth from coming out.

<sup>13</sup> As described in my opening Declaration, Ms. Giuffre's legal assault on me, conducted through her lawyers at Boies Schiller & Flexner LLP ("BSF"), continues in the form of a motion for sanctions in Florida state court. There, she claims that I violated a court order in the Edwards defamation lawsuit by testifying truthfully in a deposition about discussions that I had had with David Boies. Prior to my testimony, my lawyers submitted an affidavit from me to the Florida court describing these discussions, and the Florida judge sealed the affidavit. He did not direct that I refrain from testifying about the matter, nor did he sanction me for disclosing the discussion in an affidavit, as Ms. Giuffre's lawyers requested. When asked whether he was making a ruling on the BSF motion for sanctions regarding the content of the affidavit, Judge Lynch replied "No. I'm just sealing these [the affidavit] because I think they should be sealed." Ex. X at 24 (Transcript of Emergency Motion to Seal, December 18, 2015). Thus, contrary to the later motion for sanctions, there was no "gag order" placed in me when the affidavit was submitted, nor did I violate any court order by truthfully answering a question put to me by the opposing lawyer and offering to seal my answer. The BSF motion for sanctions was subsequently dismissed for lack of jurisdiction and standing, and is now being appealed by Ms. Giuffre.

IT APPEARING that the United States Attorney's Office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have conducted their own investigation into Epstein's background and any offenses that may have been committed by Epstein against the United States from in or around 2001 through in or around September 2007, including:

- (1) knowingly and willfully conspiring with others known and unknown to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to use a facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce to knowingly persuade, induce, or entice minor females to engage in prostitution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2422(b); all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371;
- (2) knowingly and willfully conspiring with others known and unknown to travel in interstate commerce for the purpose of engaging in illicit sexual conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2423(f), with minor females, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2423(b); all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2423(e);

of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2423(b); and

- (5) knowingly, in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, recruiting, enticing, and obtaining by any means a person, knowing that the person had not attained the age of 18 years and would be caused to engage in a commercial sex act as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1591(c)(1); in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1591(a)(1) and 2; and

IT APPEARING that Epstein seeks to resolve globally his state and federal criminal liability and Epstein understands and acknowledges that, in exchange for the benefits provided by this agreement, he agrees to comply with its terms, including undertaking certain actions with the State Attorney's Office;

IT APPEARING, after an investigation of the offenses and Epstein's background by both State and Federal law enforcement agencies, and after due consultation with the State Attorney's Office, that the interests of the United States, the State of Florida, and the Defendant will be served by the following procedure;

THEREFORE, on the authority of R. Alexander Acosta, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida, prosecution in this District for these offenses shall be deferred in favor of prosecution by the State of Florida, provided that Epstein abides by the following conditions and the requirements of this Agreement set forth below.

If the United States Attorney should determine, based on reliable evidence, that, during the period of the Agreement, Epstein willfully violated any of the conditions of this Agreement, then the United States Attorney may, within ninety (90) days following the expiration of the term of home confinement discussed below, provide Epstein with timely notice specifying the condition(s) of the Agreement that he has violated, and shall initiate its prosecution on any offense within sixty (60) days' of giving notice of the violation. Any notice provided to Epstein pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided within 60 days of the United States learning of facts which may provide a basis for a determination of a breach of the Agreement.

After timely fulfilling all the terms and conditions of the Agreement, no prosecution for the offenses set out on pages 1 and 2 of this Agreement, nor any other offenses that have been the subject of the joint investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Attorney's Office, nor any offenses that arose from the Federal Grand Jury investigation will be instituted in this District, and the charges against Epstein if any, will be dismissed.

Terms of the Agreement:

1. Epstein shall plead guilty (not nolo contendere) to the Indictment as currently pending against him in the 15th Judicial Circuit in and for Palm Beach County (Case No. 2006-cf-009495AXXXMB) charging one (1) count of solicitation of prostitution, in violation of Fl. Stat. § 796.07. In addition, Epstein shall plead guilty to an Information filed by the State Attorney's Office charging Epstein with an offense that requires him to register as a sex offender, that is, the solicitation of minors to engage in prostitution, in violation of Florida Statutes Section 796.03;
2. Epstein shall make a binding recommendation that the Court impose a thirty (30) month sentence to be divided as follows:
  - (a) Epstein shall be sentenced to consecutive terms of twelve (12) months and six (6) months in county jail for all charges, without any opportunity for withholding adjudication or sentencing, and without probation or community control in lieu of imprisonment; and
  - (b) Epstein shall be sentenced to a term of twelve (12) months of community control consecutive to his two terms in county jail as described in Term 2(a), supra.
3. This agreement is contingent upon a Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit accepting and executing the sentence agreed upon between the State Attorney's Office and Epstein, the details of which are set forth in this agreement.
4. The terms contained in paragraphs 1 and 2, supra, do not foreclose Epstein and the State Attorney's Office from agreeing to recommend any additional charge(s) or any additional term(s) of probation and/or incarceration.
5. Epstein shall waive all challenges to the Information filed by the State Attorney's Office and shall waive the right to appeal his conviction and sentence, except a sentence that exceeds what is set forth in paragraph (2), supra.
6. Epstein shall provide to the U.S. Attorney's Office copies of all proposed agreements with the State Attorney's Office prior to entering into those agreements.

7. The United States shall provide Epstein's attorneys with a list of individuals whom it has identified as victims, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2255, after Epstein has signed this agreement and been sentenced. Upon the execution of this agreement, the United States, in consultation with and subject to the good faith approval of Epstein's counsel, shall select an attorney representative for these persons, who shall be paid for by Epstein. Epstein's counsel may contact the identified individuals through that representative.
8. If any of the individuals referred to in paragraph (7), supra, elects to file suit pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2255, Epstein will not contest the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida over his person and/or the subject matter, and Epstein waives his right to contest liability and also waives his right to contest damages up to an amount as agreed to between the identified individual and Epstein, so long as the identified individual elects to proceed exclusively under 18 U.S.C. § 2255, and agrees to waive any other claim for damages, whether pursuant to state, federal, or common law. Notwithstanding this waiver, as to those individuals whose names appear on the list provided by the United States, Epstein's signature on this agreement, his waivers and failures to contest liability and such damages in any suit are not to be construed as an admission of any criminal or civil liability.
9. Epstein's signature on this agreement also is not to be construed as an admission of civil or criminal liability or a waiver of any jurisdictional or other defense as to any person whose name does not appear on the list provided by the United States.
10. Except as to those individuals who elect to proceed exclusively under 18 U.S.C. § 2255, as set forth in paragraph (8), supra, neither Epstein's signature on this agreement, nor its terms, nor any resulting waivers or settlements by Epstein are to be construed as admissions or evidence of civil or criminal liability or a waiver of any jurisdictional or other defense as to any person, whether or not her name appears on the list provided by the United States.
11. Epstein shall use his best efforts to enter his guilty plea and be sentenced not later than October 26, 2007. The United States has no objection to Epstein self-reporting to begin serving his sentence not later than January 4, 2008.

12. Epstein agrees that he will not be afforded any benefits with respect to gain time, other than the rights, opportunities, and benefits as any other inmate, including but not limited to, eligibility for gain time credit based on standard rules and regulations that apply in the State of Florida. At the United States' request, Epstein agrees to provide an accounting of the gain time he earned during his period of incarceration.
13. The parties anticipate that this agreement will not be made part of any public record. If the United States receives a Freedom of Information Act request or any compulsory process commanding the disclosure of the agreement, it will provide notice to Epstein before making that disclosure.

Epstein understands that the United States Attorney has no authority to require the State Attorney's Office to abide by any terms of this agreement. Epstein understands that it is his obligation to undertake discussions with the State Attorney's Office and to use his best efforts to ensure compliance with these procedures, which compliance will be necessary to satisfy the United States' interest. Epstein also understands that it is his obligation to use his best efforts to convince the Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit to accept Epstein's binding recommendation regarding the sentence to be imposed, and understands that the failure to do so will be a breach of the agreement.

In consideration of Epstein's agreement to plead guilty and to provide compensation in the manner described above, if Epstein successfully fulfills all of the terms and conditions of this agreement, the United States also agrees that it will not institute any criminal charges against any potential co-conspirators of Epstein, including but not limited to Sarah Kellen, Adriana Ross, Lesley Groff, or Nadia Marcinkova. Further, upon execution of this agreement and a plea agreement with the State Attorney's Office, the federal Grand Jury investigation will be suspended, and all pending federal Grand Jury subpoenas will be held in abeyance unless and until the defendant violates any term of this agreement. The defendant likewise agrees to withdraw his pending motion to intervene and to quash certain grand jury subpoenas. Both parties agree to maintain their evidence, specifically evidence requested by or directly related to the grand jury subpoenas that have been issued, and including certain computer equipment, inviolate until all of the terms of this agreement have been satisfied. Upon the successful completion of the terms of this agreement, all outstanding grand jury subpoenas shall be deemed withdrawn.

By signing this agreement, Epstein asserts and certifies that each of these terms is material to this agreement and is supported by independent consideration and that a breach of any one of these conditions allows the United States to elect to terminate the agreement and to investigate and prosecute Epstein and any other individual or entity for any and all federal offenses.

By signing this agreement, Epstein asserts and certifies that he is aware of the fact that the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial. Epstein further is aware that Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provides that the Court may dismiss an indictment, information, or complaint for unnecessary delay in presenting a charge to the Grand Jury, filing an information, or in bringing a defendant to trial. Epstein hereby requests that the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida defer such prosecution. Epstein agrees and consents that any delay from the date of this Agreement to the date of initiation of prosecution, as provided for in the terms expressed herein, shall be deemed to be a necessary delay at his own request, and he hereby waives any defense to such prosecution on the ground that such delay operated to deny him rights under Rule 48(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States to a speedy trial or to bar the prosecution by reason of the running of the statute of limitations for a period of months equal to the period between the signing of this agreement and the breach of this agreement as to those offenses that were the subject of the grand jury's investigation. Epstein further asserts and certifies that he understands that the Fifth Amendment and Rule 7(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure provide that all felonies must be charged in an indictment presented to a grand jury. Epstein hereby agrees and consents that, if a prosecution against him is instituted for any offense that was the subject of the grand jury's investigation, it may be by way of an Information signed and filed by the United States Attorney, and hereby waives his right to be indicted by a grand jury as to any such offense.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Deposition of JOSEPH RECAREY, pursuant to notice, taken by Plaintiff, at the offices of Boies Schiller & Flexner, 401 Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before Kelli Ann Willis, a Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter and Notary Public within and for the State of Florida.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

3 Q. Then there's a category, victim
4 information, and then we have listed, I believe, a
5 total of 17 individuals that the Palm Beach Police
6 Department incident report lists as alleged victims
7 in this case, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And are you aware as to whether or not
10 that list was supplemented after July 25th, 2006, in
11 the investigative incident report?

12 A. I'm not sure if it was updated or not.

13 MR. PAGLIUCA: I don't know if we want to
14 mark this or not. I can hand you what I
15 believe to be a more recent, or I think you
16 actually brought one with you --

17 THE WITNESS: I did.

18 MS. SCHULTZ: If you're talking about the
19 document that he brought with him, I had it
20 Bates labeled.

21 MR. PAGLIUCA: We can show him that. I
22 think I have the same document here. And we
23 can -- I guess we'll mark that as 11.

24

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 (The referred-to document was marked by
3 the court reporter for Identification as
4 Deposition Exhibit 11.)

5 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

6 Q. If you look at the -- is that what you're
7 looking at?

8 MS. SCHULTZ: That's mine. I just wanted
9 to make sure it's the same.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. If you go into the third -- I think it's
12 the third page of that document, we then end with VI
13 17 Juno.

14 Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So that would tell me that there were no
17 individuals listed as additional victims as of the 18 conclusion of your investigation in this case; is
19 that correct?

20 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
21 foundation.

22 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. Okay. So let's stick with Exhibit 1, and
25 let's go to Narrative No. 1, which is on page 11 of

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Exhibit 1. Are you with me?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. Okay. Again, this was information that
5 was obtained by Detective Pagan, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And it's true, is it not, that this
8 alleged victim never claimed to have been recruited
9 by Ghislaine Maxwell; true?

10 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Correct.

13 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

14 Q. And this individual, alleged victim No. 1,
15 never identified Ghislaine Maxwell as being at
16 Mr. Epstein's house when she was there, correct?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so.

20 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

21 Q. You don't believe so --

22 A. I don't believe so.

23 Q. That she ever identified Ghislaine Maxwell
24 as being in the house?

25 A. Right.

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. Okay. She never -- this individual,
3 victim No. 1, never claimed that Ghislaine Maxwell
4 paid her any money, correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And this individual No. 1 never claimed
7 that Ms. Maxwell instructed her what to wear,
8 correct?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. This individual never claimed that
11 Ghislaine Maxwell told her how to act, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. This individual never claimed to have met
14 Ghislaine Maxwell ever, correct?

15 A. I don't believe so, no.

16 Q. This individual never claimed to even have
17 spoken to Ghislaine Maxwell ever, correct?

18 A. I don't believe so, no.

19 Q. And when you say "I don't believe so, no,"
20 that means my statement to you is correct; is that
21 right?

22 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form, foundation.

23 THE WITNESS: Well, you're saying "ever."

24 I don't know if she's ever, ever spoken to --

25

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

3 Q. To Detective Pagan.

4 A. Right. To my knowledge, I don't know,
5 because Detective Pagan is the one who actually
6 interviewed her. So I don't know to the answer of
7 "ever." So not to my knowledge.

8 Q. Certainly, nothing in Exhibit 1, Narrative
9 1 reflects that this individual ever met or talked
10 to or spoke to Ghislaine Maxwell, right?

11 A. Right. Not to my knowledge.

12 Q. And, indeed, you would agree with me that 13 if this individual claimed that Ms. Maxwell had
14 something to do with the events listed in Narrative
15 1, you would have folded up on it, as the
16 investigating detective, right?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

18 THE WITNESS: Either myself or Detective
19 Pagan would have.

20 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

21 Q. Sure. And when you got the case six
22 months later, if there hadn't been follow-up, you
23 would have followed up on it, right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

25 THE WITNESS: Correct.

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And then you asked various individuals who
4 was there when you went to Mr. Epstein's house,
5 right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And you then, to the best of your ability,
8 recorded those answers, I take it, as to who was
9 there, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And with regard to [REDACTED] she never said
12 anything about Ghislaine Maxwell being at
13 Mr. Epstein's house, did she?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
15 foundation.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. To you?

18 A. I don't believe she did.

19 Q. Okay. And if she did, it's likely that
20 you would have recorded it, correct?

21 A. Correct, and it would be on the -- it
22 would be on the tape.

23 Q. Right.

24 She never claimed, [REDACTED] that Ms. Maxwell
25 paid her, right?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
3 foundation.

4 THE WITNESS: Correct.

5 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

6 Q. She never claimed that -- ■ never claimed
7 that Ms. Maxwell instructed her about what to wear,
8 correct?

9 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

10 THE WITNESS: Correct.

11 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

12 Q. ■ never claimed that Ms. Maxwell told her
13 how to act at Mr. Epstein's house, correct?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

15 THE WITNESS: Correct.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. ■ never claimed to have met Ghislaine
18 Maxwell anywhere, correct?

19 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

20 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so, no.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. Okay. If we go on to individual alleged
23 victim No. 3, AY, the same question: AY never
24 identified Ms. Maxwell as someone she knew or
25 interacted with in any fashion, correct?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. No, she did not?

6 A. No, she did not.

7 Q. Okay. The same with individual No. 4,
8 alleged victim FP: Again, FP never claimed to have
9 met with Ms. Maxwell, correct?

10 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so, no.

13 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

14 Q. Okay. And FP never identified Ms. Maxwell
15 as someone being at Mr. Epstein's house, correct?

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

19 Q. And if you need to look at your report --

20 A. No, I don't -- I don't believe so. The 21 only people that recalled Ghislaine at the house
22 was --

23 Q. Sjoberg?

24 A. Johanna Sjoberg.

25 Q. Who was over the age of 18, correct?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
3 foundation.

4 THE WITNESS: And Venero, Christina
5 Venero.

6 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

7 Q. Who is an adult as well?

8 MS. O'CONNOR: Object to form.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. So out of your entire report, the only two 12 people who ever said anything about Ms. Maxwell were 13 Ms. Sjoberg, who I believe was 23 when you
14 interviewed her?

15 A. Right, but she was --

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 THE WITNESS: She was -- she had worked
19 there for quite some time, so you would have to 20 back up, I think, a year or two.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. She was an adult when she worked there?

23 A. Right. She was over the age of 18, right,
24 let's put it that way.

25 Q. And she was not listed by you as a victim

1 JOSEPH RE CAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 as part of this case, right?

3 A. Correct, because it was between two
4 consenting adults.

5 Q. Exactly.

6 And so that's Ms. Sjoberg, and then the
7 other individual, I think you said Bolero; is that
8 right?

9 A. Venero, Christina Venero. She's a --

10 Q. Adult masseuse, correct?

11 A. Yes. I remember she had lots of tattoos.

12 Q. Tatts, right.

13 But the 17 individuals that you listed in
14 Exhibit 1, none of those individuals ever said the
15 word -- the words "Ghislaine Maxwell" during the
16 course of this investigation to you, correct?

17 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
18 foundation.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so. It
20 would be on the tapes if they did.

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. Well, or it would be in your report,
23 right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
25 foundation.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And then Mr. Epstein is arrested and ends
4 up pleading guilty and all of that, right?

5 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

6 THE WITNESS: I think there was a
7 non-prosecution agreement prepared between the
8 Feds and some kind of agreement was made. But,
9 yes, he did end up pleading guilty.

10 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

11 Q. All right.

12 Now, based on the questions that were
13 asked of you in the grand jury, it's fair to say
14 that Ms. Maxwell was not a target of the grand
15 jury's investigation, correct?

16 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
17 foundation.

18 THE WITNESS: Not based on the questions
19 that the state was asking me, no, the state
20 wasn't...

21 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

22 Q. In fact, it's fair to say that you never
23 said Ms. Maxwell's name in the grand jury, right?

24 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
25 foundation.

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 THE WITNESS: No. Based on the questions
3 that the state was asking, no.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. Were you aware of who was being issued
6 subpoenas by the grand jury?

7 A. No. But it wasn't the actual subpoena
8 from the grand jury; it came from the State
9 Attorney's Office.

10 Q. At the direction of the grand jury,
11 though, right?

12 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
13 foundation.

14 THE WITNESS: I don't know. Again, I
15 don't know.

16 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

17 Q. I would like to talk a little bit about
18 the surveillance that you initiated at Mr. Epstein's
19 house, okay?

20 Can you tell me when the surveillance
21 began?

22 A. It would have started under Detective
23 Pagan and gone through --

24 Q. The entire investigation?

25 A. Pretty much trash pulls. We stopped the

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. And so these were video cameras?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And so whoever was coming and going,
5 whenever -- an officer saw somebody coming or going,
6 they would videotape that person; is that correct?

7 A. Or they would just leave the video
8 rolling, time lapse.

9 Q. And did you have the opportunity to
10 observe any of that video?

11 A. I did observe a couple, but the person who
12 actually set it up would review it and then submit a
13 supplement to the report.

14 Q. Okay. It's true that none of the video of 15 the surveillance led to the identification of
16 Ghislaine Maxwell as coming or leaving the house
17 during the time of surveillance, correct?

18 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
19 foundation.

20 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I didn't see
21 all of the video, so I can't -- I can't attest
22 to that.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. Okay. Did anybody report to you that
25 Ms. Maxwell was seen coming or going?

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form, foundation.

3 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

4 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

5 Q. If someone had reported to you that
6 Ms. Maxwell was seen coming or going, you would have
7 recorded it in your Palm Beach Police Department
8 incident report, Exhibit No. 1, correct?

9 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
10 foundation.

11 THE WITNESS: I would have told the
12 officer who was conducting the surveillance or 13 reviewing the video to document it in the
14 supplements.

15 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

16 Q. And there is no documentation in the
17 supplement of Ms. Maxwell either coming or going
18 from Mr. Epstein's house during this time frame,
19 correct?

20 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to the form.

21 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so. I
22 don't -- I don't -- I don't believe so.

23 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

24 Q. And, again, so we're on the same page,
25 when you say "I don't believe so," I interpret that

1 JOSEPH RECAREY - CONFIDENTIAL

2 as her name is not in here as someone who was
3 incoming or going; am I correct in my
4 interpretation?

5 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
6 foundation.

7 THE WITNESS: Again, I don't know. I
8 don't believe so.

9 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

10 Q. I'm just trying to understand what "I
11 don't believe so" means, okay?

12 A. I don't -- I don't believe it's in the
13 report, no.

14 Q. Okay. "I don't believe it's in the 15 report" that she was ever seen coming or going,
16 right?

17 A. Right, that's what I'm saying.

18 Q. All right. We're on the same page.

19 The trash pulls, do you recall how many
20 trash pulls were done?

21 A. There were numerous trash pulls done.
22 There was trash pulls down under Detective Pagan and
23 under my request.

24 Q. As I understand the trash pull protocol,
25 you or someone at your direction or Detective

2 A. I don't believe clothing was seized.

3 Q. To your knowledge, did you seize any
4 property belonging to Ghislaine Maxwell from the
5 home?

6 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form and
7 foundation.

8 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure. Not to my
9 knowledge.

10 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

11 Q. Okay. No one ever came to you and said,
12 Could you please return these items to Ms. Maxwell,
13 correct?

14 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

15 THE WITNESS: No.

16 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

17 Q. All right.

18 You did that with Janush?

19 A. Yes, he had photos and --

20 Q. But nothing like that ever happened with 21 Ms. Maxwell, correct?

22 MS. SCHULTZ: Object to form.

23 THE WITNESS: No.

24 BY MS. SCHULTZ:

United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Virginia L. Giuffre,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

---

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO REOPEN DEFENDANT'S DEPOSITION BASED ON DEFENDANT'S LATE PRODUCTION OF NEW, KEY DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff, Virginia Giuffre, by and through her undersigned counsel, files this Motion to Reopen Defendant's Deposition Based on Defendant's Production of New, Key Documents because Defendant produced documents subsequent to her deposition about which she should answer questions. The Court has already ruled that reopening a party deposition is appropriate where important documents are produced after the deposition is completed. Accordingly, the Court should grant Ms. Giuffre's request to reopen Defendant's deposition to answer questions relating to her lately produced documents.

I. BACKGROUND

The Court will recall Defendant's case-long, unjustified recalcitrance regarding her testimony. She first attempted to avoid her deposition (causing unnecessary motion practice), and, then, she failed to answer questions at her deposition, upon which the Court ordered her to sit for her deposition again. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre started her quest to obtain Defendant's deposition back on February 2, 2016, by serving a Notice of Deposition. Defendant filed a Motion for Protective Order trying to avoid her deposition. After a hearing on the issue, the Court directed Maxwell to sit for her deposition on April 22, 2016. During her deposition Defendant refused to answer the majority of the questions asked or stated that she had no memory of any of the events. As a result, Ms. Giuffre was forced to file a Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed under Seal (DE 143). On June 20, 2016, this Court granted Ms. Giuffre's Motion and directed Defendant to sit for a second deposition to answer the questions she originally failed to answer. (June 20, 2016 Sealed Order, filed in redacted version DE 264-1).

Yet again at her second deposition, she continued to refuse to answer key questions. As a result, on July 29, 2016, Ms. Giuffre was forced to file a Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed under Seal. (DE 314/356). That motion is still pending before this Court.

Discovery closed in this case on July 31, 2016. On August 16, 2016, after the close of discovery, and after Defendant's second deposition was taken, Defendant produced two critical documents which were e-mail communications: one between her and her press agent, Ross Gow, and another between her and her former boyfriend, convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein. See McCawley Decl. at Sealed Composite Exhibit 1, August 16, 2016, email from Laura Menninger; November 10, 2015, Email from Ross Gow to Defendant, GM_01141-01142; Email between Defendant and Epstein, GM_01143-1144.

It is important for Ms. Giuffre to ask questions about these newly-produced communications with Gow and Epstein. In the former, Gow asks Defendant, "Please advise how you wish to respond [to a press inquiry regarding Ms. Giuffre]." As the Court will recall, Ross Gow is Defendant's English press agent who shares an attorney with Defendant. The history of Ms. Giuffre's multiple and expensive attempts to serve Mr. Gow with a Rule 45 subpoena through the Hague Convention and various other means (Defendant's attorney refused to accept service) recently culminated in an English Court commanding Gow to sit for his deposition by November 1, 2016.

Accordingly, a follow up deposition of Defendant is critical. It is necessary both to ensure that she answers the questions she refused to answer, (as set forth in Plaintiff's Motion to Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions (DE 314/356)), and to ensure that Ms. Giuffre can ask Defendant questions about the critical and late produced e-mail communications with her press agent, Ross Gow, and with her former boyfriend, convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein.

Indeed, Defendant cannot credibly oppose Ms. Giuffre's request because Defendant herself previously sought and received a deposition based on newly produced documents. Defendant previously argued before this Court that Ms. Giuffre's deposition should be reopened, in part, because Ms. Giuffre obtained and produced certain documents that Defendant wanted to ask her about after Ms. Giuffre's deposition was taken. Specifically, Defendant's motion stated "Plaintiff's production of key documents after her deposition necessitates additional examination." See (DE 230) at 3. Defendant's brief continued: "All of the new information that has come to light . . . justifies the reopening of Plaintiff's deposition." Id. at 5-6.

The Court granted Defendant's motion in a sealed Order that stated: "The deposition of the Plaintiff was held on May 3, 2016, and thereafter the Plaintiff produced additional documents and made supplemental responses . . . The Plaintiff may be questioned about any documents produced subsequent to the May 3 deposition relating to employment and education." See Sealed August 30, 2016 Order. As the Court has already ruled that reopening a deposition is appropriate when where important documents are produced after the deposition is completed, the same relief is appropriate for Ms. Giuffre upon this motion.

II. ARGUMENT

The same standard set forth in the Court's August 30, 2016, Order applies to Defendant's post-deposition production of key documents. Defendant's late production of two key documents similarly "necessitates" and "justifies" the reopening of Defendant's deposition for questioning upon them. Therefore, Ms. Giuffre should receive the same relief from the Court that Defendant obtained: the reopening of Defendant's deposition to answer questions about these key documents. See Wesley v. Muhammad, 2009 WL 1490607, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) ("while defendants' delay in producing documents may have interfered with the completeness of depositions, plaintiff will be free to reopen any depositions for which he deems the newly produced documents to be a relevant source of questions"); Ganci v. U.S. Limousine Serv., Ltd., 2011 WL 4407461 at *2 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 21, 2011) ("Courts will typically reopen a deposition where there is new information on which a witness should be questioned").

Moreover, it was after Defendant's deposition was complete, and after the briefing to reopen her deposition (on other grounds) was complete, and after discovery closed, that Defendant produced these key documents. Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to ask Defendant questions concerning them.

A. The Gow Email

These documents are of particular importance because one is an email communication from her agent, Ross Gow to Defendant that took place after the commencement of this litigation. It states: "Hi Ghislaine and Philip [sic] Please advise how you wish to respond... Best Ross." GM_01141. Ms. Giuffre did not have the opportunity to question Defendant about the content of that email, a communication with a key witness, nor did she have the opportunity to use it to cross some of Defendant's evasive answers. Additionally, due to the late production, Ms. Giuffre did not have the opportunity to include these facts in her briefing related to her Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed under Seal (DE 315).

a. Gow Deposition Testimony

Defendant refused to give a straight answer regarding Mr. Gow at her first deposition, making a line of questions related to the lately-produced email communication important and non-redundant. For example, when asked about Mr. Gow, Defendant gave evasive, and non-responsive answers:

Q. Did you issue a statement to your press agent, Ross Gow in 2015, stating that Virginia Roberts' claims were, quote, obvious lies?

Q. You can answer.

A. You need to reask me the question.

Q. Sure.

Did you issue a press statement through your press agent, Ross Gow, in January of 2015, stating that Virginia Roberts' claims were, quote, obvious lies?

A. Can you ask it a different way, please?

Q. I will ask it again and you can listen carefully. Did you issue a press statement through your press agent, Ross Gow, in January of 2015, where you stated that Virginia Roberts' claims were, quote, obvious lies?

A. So my lawyer, Philip Barden instructed Ross Gow to issue a statement.

See McCawley Decl. at Sealed Composite Exhibit 2, Maxwell Depo. Tr. at 201:17-202:11.

Q. Are you saying that it's an obvious lie that Jeffrey Epstein engaged in sexual conduct with Virginia while Virginia was underage?

A. Again, I'm telling you, first of all, it was a statement that was issued by my lawyer and -- through my lawyer to Ross Gow.

Q. I understand that. I'm asking you, are you saying that it's an obvious lie that Jeffrey Epstein engaged in sexual conduct with Virginia while Virginia was underage. Is that a lie?

Q. You can answer.

A. So I cannot testify to what Ross Gow and Philip Barden decided to put -- I can testify to what Virginia's obvious lies are as regards to me. I cannot make representations about all the many lies she may or may not have told about Jeffrey.

See McCawley Decl. at Sealed Composite Exhibit 2, Maxwell Depo. Tr. at 202:24-204:6. Ms. Giuffre should not be prejudiced or penalized by Defendant's late production, just as Defendant was not prejudiced nor penalized by Ms. Giuffre late production.

b. Gow Requests for Admission Responses

Importantly, Defendant's evasive responses regarding Ross Gow in her Answers to Ms. Giuffre's Requests for Admission<sup>1</sup> necessitate reopening of questioning regarding the newly-produced, post-lawsuit communication with Mr. Gow. For example, Defendant stated as follows:

1. Admit that Ross Gow was authorized by You or your agents to make statements to the public on your behalf.

Ms. Maxwell objects to this Request based on the vagueness of the terms "authorized", "statements to the public," and "agents". Without waiver of the foregoing, Ms. Maxwell responds as follows:

Denied in part. Ms. Maxwell admits that she has worked with Mr. Gow on occasion for several years and that she has corresponded with Mr. Gow regarding communications to members of the British press to reserve her right to seek redress for their repetition of defamatory statements about Ms. Maxwell.

See McCawley Decl. at Sealed Exhibit 3, Defendant's Responses to Plaintiff's Requests for Admission at 3. Defendant's evasive response claims the word "authorize" is too "vague," but, at the same time, she appears to deny "in part" that she authorized Gow to make the defamatory statement. However, the newly-produced communication with Gow shows an ongoing and continuing working relationship, where Gow is seeking Defendant's approval and input on issuing a statement to the press. Ms. Giuffre should be entitled to ask Defendant questions about that communication, wherein Gow asks her: "Please advise how you wish to respond." Notably,

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff attempted to meet and confer with Defendant in order to obtain a follow up deposition regarding these newly produced documents without Court intervention. Defendant refused stating that she would consider responding to written questions. However, as the Court can see from Defendant's pattern of evasive written responses, an oral deposition is necessary in order to attempt to obtain a complete response.

Defendant did not produce her response to Gow’s email. Additionally, since the communication appears to directly contradict her deposition testimony as well as her responses to Requests for Admission, Ms. Giuffre should be entitled to use this post-litigation communication, where Gow asks Defendant, “Please advise how you wish to respond,” to cross Defendant on her prior deposition answers. An email in which Gow is actively soliciting instructions for how to make a public response to the media is evidence that Defendant is, in fact, involved in, and consulted about, what her press agent says on her behalf.

B. Communication with Jeffrey Epstein

Similarly, the email with Epstein regarding a reply to “one further allegation,” shows that Defendant is active in shaping her public statements regarding Ms. Giuffre, and giving drafts to Epstein for his approval. Accordingly, Defendant was never deposed on (1) why she was seeking Epstein’s permission for having Barden make a “reply;” (2) what Epstein’s relationship was with Barden; (3) or who drafted the original communication at the bottom of the email, as it does not appear to have been created by either Defendant or Epstein.

C. Ms. Giuffre Did Not Oppose the Relief Sought When Defendant Brought The Same Motion and the Court Ruled that this Relief was Appropriate

As the Court will recall, Ms. Giuffre did not oppose the relief sought in Defendant’s motion to reopen her deposition. (“Ms. Giuffre agrees to reopen the deposition for a limited amount of time, and for discrete lines of questioning.” DE 259 at 1). And, Ms. Giuffre specifically agreed to the relief of answering questions about, inter alia, documents produced after her deposition: “Ms. Giuffre agrees to reopening the deposition for certain questions related to the following: 1) Any medical care records that were produced subsequent to her deposition.” (DE 259 at 12). Accordingly, as Defendant sought and received the same relief upon her motion, which was unopposed by Ms. Giuffre, Defendant can put forth no valid argument against reopening Defendant's deposition to ask questions about these newly-produced documents, particularly given the case law that also requires the re-opening of a deposition in these circumstances.

III. CONCLUSION

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that the Court Reopen Defendant's deposition to (1) answer lines of questions discussed in Ms. Giuffre's Motion to Enforce the Court's Order and Direct Defendant to Answer Deposition Questions Filed under Seal (DE 315) which is pending before the Court; and (2) answer questions related to the two key documents produced by Defendant after her deposition.

Dear Sigrid:

Attached please find documents produced pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum issued to Mar-a-Lago Club, Inc., on July 14, 2016 which have been Bates numbered Mar-A-Lago 0075-0595.

Also attached are two documents Bates numbered GM_01141-01144. These emails were collected as responsive to Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents in February 2016 but through clerical error were not produced at that time or following the Court's in camera review in April. A recent review of documents revealed the error.

Regarding further detail of the interview which I have reviewed I would like to add one further point to underscore the lack of probity in Ms Roberts claims

At no point in Ms Maxwell's life has she ever contemplated thought or wanted to bring up someone's child as her own and or ask the mother to sign her rights away to the child. In fact the mere idea of such a suggestion is abhorrent. Further, the idea that Ms Maxwell would contemplate an arrangement with someone who abused drugs and alcohol contemporaneously and who was living with her fiancé beggars belief. No document has ever been contemplated, created nor lawyer nor other approached to write such a document at anytime

2 spoke to police?

3 A. No, sir. I just want to make it very --
4 pardon me. I didn't mean to interrupt.

5 MR. JOSEFSBURG: Let me explain something
6 to both of you.

7 MR. EDWARDS: Sure.

8 MR. JOSEFSBURG: And for the record, [REDACTED]
9 has, since these events of 12 years ago,
10 received a lot of professional advice and gone
11 through an awful lot based upon what happened
12 12 years ago.

13 She has been advised and has followed the 14 advice to forget, suppress, repress what 15 happened, and that's how she goes on with her
16 life.

17 So she doesn't remember a lot of things,
18 and she doesn't want to remember them. So you
19 might interpret in other matters as hostility
20 from a witness. This is called
21 self-preservation and mental health.

22 So both her attitude and her memory is 23 based on that. We have someone who is badly
24 injured and is very frail and wants to take 25 care of herself. So you might think it's

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 snippy, but it's just that she --

3 THE WITNESS: I truly don't know the
4 answers to your questions if I say I don't.
5 I'm trying to answer everything I know.

6 BY MR. EDWARDS:

7 Q. I can appreciate that.

8 When you spoke with police officers back
9 in October of 2005, did you tell them the truth?

10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
11 foundation.

12 THE WITNESS: Of course, yes.

13 BY MR. EDWARDS:

14 Q. Okay. And do you remember someone
15 named -- I think it's spelled phonetically in 16 here -- Shana Jasmine or something along those 17 lines, Shana Casman?

18 A. No, I do not recall.

19 Q. Do you remember a friend of yours being in 20 the room when you spoke with the police?

21 A. No, I do not.

22 Q. Do you remember how many police officers
23 you spoke with?

24 A. Over the course of all the years?

25 Q. That particular investigation.

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 know the extent of their relationship. But she
3 would schedule his appointments and handle clerical
4 things for him as far as I can see.

5 Q. All right.

6 And when you first went to his house,
7 where did -- where were you taken within the house?

8 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
9 foundation.

10 THE WITNESS: Kitchen, up to the room, up
11 to his master suite.

12 BY MR. EDWARDS:

13 Q. And which stairwell did you go up to his 14 suite?

15 A. I do not remember.

16 Q. Was it the stairs off by the kitchen?

17 A. I do not recall.

18 Q. And when you went into his bedroom, were 19 you under the belief that it was going to be you
20 providing some sort of a massage?

21 A. It certainly didn't involve any sexual 22 activity. That's what I was under the assumption.
23 I don't recall exactly how I was propositioned to 24 get there. I just was there, and all of a sudden
25 something horrible happened to me.

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Q. Did you, at 16 years old or 17 years old,
3 have any massage training or experience?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did [REDACTED] have any massage
6 experience?

7 A. I do not -- I can't speak to her
8 experience. I do not know. She was not really a
9 friend of mine. Barely an acquaintance. We maybe
10 spoke three times in our entire going to school
11 together and everything.

12 Q. Did you ever learn what her incentive was 13 to bring you to Jeffrey Epstein's house?

14 A. Later I found out that they would get 15 kickbacks for bringing people over.

16 Q. Do you remember seeing Jeffrey Epstein
17 give her money that day?

18 A. I don't recall, no.

19 Q. If you said that in your statement, that 20 you remember [REDACTED] getting money for bringing you
21 here that day, would that be a true statement?

22 A. Yes, absolutely. Everything in there is 23 the truth. I do not remember from years ago at this
24 point.

25 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 foundation.

3 BY MR. EDWARDS:

4 Q. If you want to --

5 A. I don't. It's okay.

6 Q. I understand.

7 A. Thank you.

8 Q. On page 6, you're telling the police that 9 "[REDACTED] and me were waiting on the couch in the 10 bathroom, and Jeffrey comes up and says -- he's 11 like, Hey, I'm Jeffrey. He just introduced himself,
12 and he hands [REDACTED] -- I remember this because I was 13 pissed off that she got paid to bring me. He hands
14 her a wad of hundred dollar bills and says, Thank 15 you. And she says, I'll wait for you downstairs.
16 And I was like, All right, I'll see you in a little 17 bit."

18 Does that remind you of [REDACTED] getting
19 paid to bring you?

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
21 foundation.

22 THE WITNESS: It sounds like a familiar
23 scenario. I do not recall at this time.

24 BY MR. EDWARDS:

25 Q. Okay.

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. I don't remember.

3 Q. I appreciate that.

4 MR. JOSEFSBURG: I'll make it easier for 5 both of you. Here's her testimony. As you
6 notice, she's not looking at this. She doesn't
7 want to look at it.

8 MR. EDWARDS: Yeah.

9 MR. JOSEFSBURG: She doesn't want to read
10 it. But this is a statement that she gave to 11 the police. She's saying that whatever she 12 said in it is true. Does she remember it now?
13 No, because she has done a good job of 14 forgetting it. But if she said it, she said
15 the truth. And when you read it to her now --

16 THE WITNESS: These are things I forgot.

17 MR. EDWARDS: It's not going to refresh
18 her.

19 MR. JOSEFSBURG: She doesn't want to 20 remember. So everything in it is true; she can 21 tell you without looking at it. She doesn't 22 want to look at it and she doesn't remember it.

23 Most of the important details that either
24 of you are looking for, she'll say it's the 25 truth but I don't remember that.

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MR. EDWARDS: Okay. I can appreciate
3 that.

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: Counsel, I appreciate the
5 record and I appreciate the clarification. So
6 as you know, I mean, there may be an attempt to 7 use any of this transcript as substantive
8 evidence at trial. So while I accept your 9 representation, I don't believe it lays any 10 foundation for any of the statements to the 11 police department. It doesn't lay any 12 foundation as to the truth or non-truth as to 13 the statement.

14 As I understand it, the witness has no
15 present recollection of these events. Looking 16 at this statement would not refresh her
17 recollection, is what has been established on 18 the record. The witness doesn't want to look
19 at the statement. And the witness' testimony
20 will be that she has no recollection of these 21 events; is that correct?

22 MR. JOSEFSBURG: Everything you said is 23 correct, with one other addition: That 24 whatever she said to the police back then was 25 the truth.

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 MR. PAGLIUCA: That's where we may have a
3 disagreement.

4 MR. JOSEFSBURG: Okay, but that's what she
5 said.

6 MR. PAGLIUCA: I understand, but she did
7 testify to that earlier. I accept that.

8 MR. JOSEFSBURG: Right. She doesn't
9 remember and doesn't want to.

10 MR. PAGLIUCA: Understood.

11 MR. EDWARDS: I will proceed under those 12 parameters. I got it.

13 MR. JOSEFSBURG: By the way, just so -- is 14 what I just said correct?

15 THE WITNESS: Absolutely, yes. Thank you.

16 BY MR. EDWARDS:

17 Q. When you gave the statement to the police,
18 was your motivation to tell the truth?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to the form and
21 foundation.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, it was, absolutely.

23 BY MR. EDWARDS:

24 Q. Did you have any motivation in any part of 25 it not to tell the truth?

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 Epstein?

3 MR. PAGLIUCA: Object to form and
4 foundation.

5 THE WITNESS: Yes.

6 MR. EDWARDS: All right. I don't have
7 anything further for you. I apologize that we 8 even had to go through this, all right?

9 THE WITNESS: Okay.

12 Q. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] by name is Jeff Pagluica. I
13 live in Denver, Colorado. And, like you, I don't 14 want to be here today either, okay? I would rather 15 be in Denver.

16 I just want to -- as I understand it, and 17 I'm not trying to get into any of your treatment
18 over the last, let's say, 10 years, because I don't 19 know how long it's been, but as I understand what 20 you and your lawyer have said here today, you have 21 been involved in some number of years of therapy, in 22 which the purpose -- part of the purpose of the 23 therapy has been to forget all of these events that 24 Mr. Edwards was asking you questions about; is that
25 correct?

1 [REDACTED] - CONFIDENTIAL

2 A. How specific do I have to get about my

4 Q. I'm not asking --

5 MR. JOSEFSBURG: Not at all.

6 BY MR. PAGLIUCA:

7 Q. I'm not asking those questions. I'm just
8 asking, if, as your lawyer has said --

9 A. I understand the question.

10 Part of the therapy, yes, it did encompass
11 copings skills, and this is the one I have chosen to 12 use.

13 Q. Which is, I don't want to remember
14 anything?

15 A. Yes. Repression. I don't want to 16 reminisce.

17 Q. And you indicated as you sit here today,
18 you don't recall specifics related to these events?

19 A. That's correct. I have worked very hard
20 not to.

21 Q. Back in 2005, and, again, if you have no
22 recollection of these things, that's fine, you were 23 contacted by a Detective Recarey.

24 Do you recall that or not?

25 A. No, I don't.

| Page 439 1 Q. And you said that that was -- the massage2 table was similar in kind to that used by Mr.3 Epstein?4 A. That's correct.5 Q. And others had massage oils and that was6 similar in kind to Mr. Epstein's as well?7 A. Yes.8 Q. And you didn't think that the massage9 table at a home was unusual?10 A. No.11 Q. All right. Did any of the other houses12 where you worked have masseuses that were 14, 15,13 and 16 years old?14 MR. CRITTON: Form.15 THE WITNESS: No, sir.16 BY MR. EDWARDS:17 Q. And did any of the other homes where you18 worked have different girls of that age coming19 every single day?20 A. Yes.21 MR. CRITTON: Form.22 BY MR. EDWARDS:23 Q. They had different girls?24 A. Yes.25 Q. Okay. And how old were the girls that   | Page 441 1 MR. EDWARDS: I don't have anything else.2 MS. EZELL: I have a few.3 EXAMINATION4 BY MS. EZELL:5 Q. Mr. Rodriguez, I may have missed6 something. Did you say that there weren't any7 wild parties ever at El Brillo Way?8 A. I never saw what was going on inside the9 house, Ma'am.10 Q. So you don't know whether there were or11 were not?12 A. No, ma'am.13 Q. There wasn't just one massage table14 there; was there?15 A. We used to have two and we have an extra16 reserve, I think there were three in the house.17 Excuse me, I'll take that back. All the bedrooms18 used to have one.19 Q. Okay. Thank you. Did you ever hear20 about a girl named V.R.?21 A. No, no, ma'am.22 Q. And those pictures on Ms. Maxwell's23 computer, did you ever see one of a girl naked in24 a hammock?25 MR. CRITTON: Form. Asked and answered. |

Yes.6 Q. And did you ever work at a place where7 there would be girls calling up on the phone to8 say I have girls to bring him and --9 A. No, sir.10 Q. -- coming over in teams --11 A. No.12 Q. -- or pairs?13 A. No.14 Q. So there were a lot of things about Mr.15 Epstein's house and his arrangement that were very16 unusual compared to the other places where you17 worked?18 MR. CRITTON: Form.19 THE WITNESS: Yes.20 BY MR. EDWARDS:21 Q. And there were no drugs and alcohol or no22 wild parties at Mr. Epstein's house, that is23 somewhat different from some of the other places24 where you worked?25 A. Yes. | Page 442 1 THE WITNESS: I saw on a book not on a2 computer.3 BY MS. EZELL:4 Q. You saw a picture of a girl naked in a5 book or on a book?6 A. The book was done for [REDACTED] and she was7 on the hammock, that's the only one I saw.8 Q. I'm sorry, the book was done for [REDACTED]9 A. She was on the cover.10 Q. Then there were other people inside the11 book?12 A. Yes, ma'am.13 Q. And in that book there was a picture of a14 girl naked in a hammock?15 A. Yes.16 Q. Where did [REDACTED] keep that book?17 A. There were a few of those examples but I18 don't know where she kept it.19 Q. Was it laying around the house somewhere?20 A. Yes.21 Q. Downstairs?22 A. Downstairs, yes, ma'am.23 Q. Did Nadia keep scrapbooks or photograph24 books --25 A. Yes.                                                                           |

Dear Judge Sweet,

This is a reply letter in support of Ms. Giuffre's letter motion to allow for the newly-discovered witness, Sarah Ransome, to be called as a witness at trial because she can testify about Defendant's involvement in Epstein's sex trafficking ring based on first-hand experiences and first-hand observations.

Defendant Violated Rule 26 By Failing To Disclose This Critical Witness

Defendant argues that Ms. Giuffre is somehow to blame for the fact that Sarah Ransome is only now being discussed as a witness in this case. But Ms. Giuffre only recently learned about this witness because Defendant failed to properly disclose her months earlier. In her response, Defendant does not address the fact that Ms. Ransome and Ms. Maxwell know each other. Indeed, Defendant does not address the fact that Ms. Ransome and she spent time together on Mr. Epstein's private island, as reflected in the flight logs showing Ms. Ransome flying to and from the island (where Ms. Maxwell was present):

Confidential Sealed Filing

As reflected in the above flight log, on December 10, 2006 (Flight #1919), Sarah Ransome flew from EWR (Newark, NJ) to TIST (USVI) with Jeffrey Epstein, Jennifer Kalin, and Natalya Malyshev. On December 14, 2006 (Flight #1920), Sarah Ransome flew from TIST (USVI) to EWR (Newark, NJ) with Jeffrey Epstein and Nadia Marcinkova. See Giuffre 07139. Ms. Ransome was also flown commercially to Jeffrey Epstein's Island several times.

Defendant was obligated under Rule 26 to include Ms. Ransome in her Rule 26 disclosures: Defendant knows that Ms. Ransome is an "individual likely to have discoverable information." Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(A)(i). As Ms. Ransome will testify, Defendant was on the island with her and interacted with her on a regular basis. Defendant's refusal to disclose her is not only (yet another) discovery violation, but also a part of the secrecy that Defendant and Epstein strove to maintain surrounding their sex trafficking ring. Defendant should not be allowed to participate in a sex trafficking ring, conceal the witnesses (and victims) of that ring, and then proclaim "surprise" when Ms. Giuffre succeeds in locating one of the victims. Simply put, she should not be allowed to benefit from her obvious failure to properly disclose Ms. Ransome.

Ms. Ransome's Testimony is Not Cumulative And Has Highly Relevant Evidence

Defendant also advances the remarkable argument that it is "unlikely" that Ms. Ransome will have relevant information. Yet Ms. Ransome witnessed – first hand – Defendant's involvement in sex trafficking with Jeffrey Epstein. Nor will her testimony be cumulative. First, at the heart of this case is Defendant's sworn testimony that she was not involved in sex trafficking with Epstein. Ms. Ransome can directly refute Defendant's sworn testimony under oath in numerous ways.

...the primary purpose of those visits was to have me have sexual relations with Jeffrey, Nadia Marcinkova, and various other girls and guests brought to the island...During one of my first visits to the island I met Ghislaine Maxwell. Watching her interact with the other girls on the island, it became clear to me that she recruited all or many of them to the island. Once they were there, she appeared to be in charge of their activities, including what they did, who they did it with, and how they were supposed to stay in line. She assumed the same supervisory role with me as soon as I arrived. Some of the girls appeared to be 18 or older but many appeared to be young teenagers.

Exhibit A, Affidavit of Sarah Ransome. In addition, Defendant has made known her plan to put forth Alan Dershowitz as a witness at trial to testify that Ms. Giuffre is lying, and that he never had sex with her or anyone else provided by Jeffrey Epstein. While Ms. Giuffre contends that Dershowitz's testimony is not relevant to this case concerning Defendant, in the event that the Court disagrees, Ms. Ransome directly contradicts this testimony because, as part of her involvement in the sex trafficking ring, like Ms. Giuffre, Ms. Ransome was also required to engage in sexual acts with Jeffrey Epstein and Alan Dershowitz.

In addition to spending time with Jeffrey on his island, I spent time with him in New York City...Among the people he lent me to was his friend Alan Dershowitz. On one occasion I was in a bedroom at Jeffrey's New York townhouse with Jeffrey and Nadia Marcinkova. After a short time, Alan Dershowitz entered the room after which Jeffrey left the room and Nadia and I had sex with Dershowitz...

See Exhibit A. Affidavit of Sarah Ransome. The testimony of Ms. Ransome goes to the heart of this defamation claim – whether or not Ms. Giuffre was truthful in her claims about Defendant's involvement in Epstein's sex trafficking ring, and the Court should allow the jury to hear her.

Ms. Giuffre Has Diligently Participated In Discovery And Promptly Disclosed Ms. Ransome After Conducting Due Diligence

Defendant also insinuates that Ms. Giuffre has delayed in disclosing Ms. Ransome. But as the Court is well aware, Ms. Giuffre has previously diligently disclosed close to 100 individuals who may have relevant information in her Rule 26 disclosures. By contrast, Defendant's Rule 26 disclosures never listed Ms. Ransome as a witness, despite the fact that Defendant was in her company on several occasions including on Epstein's island, where Ms. Ransome was one of several girls being sexually trafficked for Epstein upon the direction and insistence of Defendant. After being contacted by Ms. Ransome, counsel for Ms. Giuffre properly conducted a due diligence investigation into whether the information she provided had merit. Specifically, Ms. Giuffre's counsel undertook the expense to fly to Europe to meet in person with this newly disclosed witness on January 4, 2017, returning on January 6, 2017, to fully evaluate her credibility. Upon evaluating the witness and upon the witness confirming that she was willing to sign an affidavit under oath regarding her testimony, Ms. Giuffre arranged to have a sworn affidavit executed at the U.S. Embassy in the country where Ms. Ransome resides. Ms. Giuffre then issued revised Rule 26 disclosures on January 13, 2017 and informed Defendant that she would produce Ms. Ransome for a deposition as a newly-disclosed witness immediately so as to avoid any prejudice or delay in the March 13, 2017 trial date. In short, Ms. Giuffre acted promptly and reasonably after being contacted by this victim of Epstein's and Defendant's sex trafficking ring.

Defendant Will Not Be Prejudiced Because Ms. Ransome is Readily Available for Deposition

Confidential Sealed Filing

Defendant's argument about her alleged burden from allowing this one additional witness also rings hollow.<sup>1</sup> Defendant complains about her alleged lack of resources, but as this Court is aware, Defendant is a wealthy socialite (who recently sold her New York Townhome for $15 million dollars) who has heavily litigated this case in ways that were completely unnecessary.<sup>2</sup>

Moreover, deposition discovery is still ongoing in this case. Ms. Kellen sat for her deposition last week (wherein she invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked about Defendant's involvement in Epstein's sex trafficking ring) along with Ms. Marcinkova who was recently deposed on January 17, 2017. Due to Defendant's unwillingness to produce her agent, Ross Gow for deposition, Ms. Giuffre did not get to depose him until November 18, 2017 at which time he produced never-before-seen documents that are critical to this case. Defendant has yet to sit for her follow-up deposition that was directed by the Court but for which Defendant filed a "Motion for Reconsideration" on November 16, 2016, which is still pending. Needless to say, while the official discovery deadline has closed, certain depositions have been taken more recently due to issues with witness cooperation. Of course, if Defendant does not desire to take Ms. Ransome's deposition, then Ms. Giuffre is content simply calling her at trial. But Defendant will hardly be prejudiced by allowing a witness to testify who is available for deposition.

<sup>1</sup> Defendant argues that because Jane Doe 43 (who for purposes of this sealed filing we can identify as Ms. Ransome) has recently filed a complaint against multiple defendants for violations of sex trafficking laws that Defendant should get to reopen discovery and further investigate everyone named as a Defendant. Notably, these are all individuals that were part of the sexual trafficking ring that Defendant was a party to and she has known about them and interacted with them for years. Ms. Ransome's claim had to be filed swiftly because her statute of limitations was continuing to run and the details of her allegations only recently became known to counsel. In any event, the questions that need to be asked of Ms. Ransome are simply and straightforward: Was Defendant involved in Epstein's sex trafficking ring? That question has been at the heart of this case for many months and exploring it does not raise any new issues.

<sup>2</sup> For example, Defendant litigated over the production of facially non-privileged documents; Defendant filed no fewer than three frivolous sanctions motions; Defendant filed Daubert challenges to all six of Ms. Giuffre's expert witnesses; and Defendant has filed discovery motions without even conferring with Ms. Giuffre in advance, including one for which Ms. Giuffre did not oppose the relief sought (Defendant's motion to reopen Ms. Giuffre's deposition). Further, Defendant apparently had the resources to file approximately 100 pages of single-spaced objections to Ms. Giuffre deposition designations, an unorthodox volume that stands out not simply because this is a one-count defamation claim, but because she objects to the same type of testimony that she has designated for admission.

The Case Law Supports Allowing Ms. Ransome As A Trial Witness

Ms. Giuffre has offered Defendant, subject to this Court's approval, the opportunity to take Ms. Ransome's deposition. And, as this Court has already explained, taking the deposition of a newly-discovered witness cures any prejudice: "[t]his and other courts have adopted the taking of depositions as an appropriate mechanism to address late-disclosed witnesses." MBIA Ins. Corp. v. Patriarch Partners VIII, LLC, 201 WL 2568972, at *14-15 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 29, 2003) (concluding that plaintiff should be given the opportunity to depose a late-identified witness).

The cases that Defendant cites are all vastly different from the case before this Court and are easily distinguishable. In Gray v. Town of Darien, 927 F.2d 69 (2d Cir.1991), the court denied the motion to reopen discovery and granted summary judgment because the plaintiff failed to seek any discovery during the six-month discovery period set forth by the court. In stark contrast, Ms. Giuffre has actively engaged in discovery. The fact that this witness had critical information as a victim of Epstein and Defendant's sex trafficking ring could not have been known by Ms. Giuffre until the witness contacted Ms. Giuffre's lawyers. In Trebor Sportswear Co., Inc. v. The Limited Stores, Inc., 865 F.2d 506 (2d Cir. 1989), a case involving a statute of frauds issue, the court would not let the parties re-open discovery because there was no reason to believe that they would find a missing written agreement. Here, Ms. Giuffre has found a witness who has will provide to the jury critical information about Defendant's involvement in sex trafficking that directly contradicts Defendant's sworn testimony. In Smith v. United States, 834 F.2d 166 (10th Cir. 1987), the plaintiff made his request for a new witness on the morning of trial, having had eight months to conduct depositions. Additionally, the Tenth Circuit found that the new witness would not even be relevant to the narrow issue being addressed at trial. Id. at 169. In contrast, Ms. Giuffre has provided Defendant ample time to conduct discovery on Ms. Ransome, a witness who has vital evidence on the central issues in this case. In Vineberg v. Bissonnette, 548 F.3d 50, 55 (1st Cir. 2008), the First Circuit found that the defendant failed to point to any "relevant leads" that she might have obtained had the court reopened discovery. Here, it is patently obvious that Ms. Ransome holds a wealth of valuable information and is, as Defendant herself admits, a significant witness. Finally, in Jeannite v. City of N.Y. Dept., of Buildings, 2010 WL 2542050, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. June 21, 2010), plaintiff waited until the very end of discovery to make the request and had not sent any document requests or sought to depose any witnesses, which is in contrast to Ms. Giuffre having actively participated in discovery. Furthermore, there was no way for Ms. Giuffre to know that Ms. Ransome had such critical information until she called us because Defendant never disclosed her. Accordingly, Defendant fails to accurately support her claims with any relevant case law.

For the foregoing reasons, this Court should allow Ms. Giuffre to include Ms. Ransome as a witness to be called at the trial scheduled to begin on March 13, 2017. Again, Ms. Giuffre commits to making Ms. Ransome available for deposition at the reasonable convenience of Defendant's counsel.

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

v.

Ghislaine Maxwell,

Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT

I, Sarah Ransome, swear and affirm as follows:

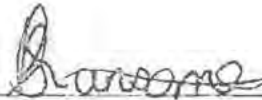

1. I am currently over the age of 18 and presently reside in the country of Spain.
2. In the summer of 2006, when I was twenty-two years old and living in New York, I was introduced to Jeffrey Epstein by a girl I had met named Natalya. Malyshev. Shortly after meeting Jeffrey he invited me to fly to his private island in the US Virgin Islands, which I did. After that first trip I traveled to the island several more times, usually on one of Jeffrey's private airplanes, and always at his direction. I am told that my name appears on the flight logs of one or more of those trips. On a few occasions, Jeffrey also arranged to have me flown to the island on commercial flights. As it turned out, the primary purpose of those visits was to have me have sexual relations with Jeffrey, Nadia Macinkova, and various other girls and guests he brought to the island.
3. During one of my visits to the island I met Ghislaine Maxwell. Watching her interact with the other girls on the island, it became clear to me that she recruited all or many of them to the island. Once they were there, she appeared to be in charge of their activities, including what they did, who they did it with, and how they were supposed to stay in line. She assumed the same supervisory role with me as soon as I arrived. Some of the girls appeared to be 18 or older, but many appeared to be young teenagers. I recall seeing a particularly young, thin girl who looked well under 18 and recall asking her her age. I later learned was a ballerina. She refused to tell me or let me see her passport.
4. In addition to spending time with Jeffrey on his island, I spent time with him in New York City. At his town house I was also lent out by him to his friends and associates to have sex. Among the people he lent me to was his friend, Alan Dershowitz. On one occasion I was in a bedroom at Jeffrey's New York townhouse with Jeffrey and Nadia Marcinkova. After a short time, Alan Dershowitz entered the room, after which Jeffrey left the room and Nadia and I had sex with Dershowitz. I recall specific, key details of his person and the sex acts and can describe them in the event it becomes necessary to do so.

I affirm under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Plaintiff Ms. Giuffre respectfully submits this Response in Opposition to Defendant's Motion in Limine to Exclude in Certain Depositions Designated by Plaintiff for Use at Trial.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

In carrying through on her threat to object to every piece of evidence that Ms. Giuffre intends to use at trial, Defendant Maxwell has raised three general objections to various depositions Ms. Giuffre has designated for use at trial.

First, Defendant argues that Jeffrey Epstein is not an unavailable witness and should appear as a live witness. Ms. Giuffre would like to have him appear at trial and it appears that Epstein's counsel is willing to accept a subpoena for him. If so, the issue is moot. But if for any reason that trial subpoena fails to secure his attendance, it is clear he is an unavailable witness since he previously evaded more than a dozen efforts to serve him with a pre-trial deposition subpoena.

Second, Defendant raises certain objections based on the fact that Jeffrey Epstein, [REDACTED] and Philip Esplin gave testimony that is helpful to Ms. Giuffre during their depositions and therefore she seeks to exclude that damaging testimony. This hardly provides a basis for excluding their evidence. Epstein should be allowed to testify so that Ms. Giuffre can obtain adverse inferences from his Fifth Amendment invocations. [REDACTED] and Esplin should be allowed to testify, via deposition, because they have information relevant for the jury.

Finally, Defendant objects to the use of a deposition of Alfredo Rodriguez. But because he has since passed away, the choice is between preventing the jury from hearing any of his testimony and using the earlier transcript. The transcript should be allowed.

ARGUMENT

I. EPSTEIN AND, POTENTIALLY, ESPLIN ARE UNAVAILABLE WITNESSES.

A. Jeffrey Epstein is a Witness who is more than 100 miles from the place of hearing, or at a Minimum a Witness Who Cannot Be Subpoenaed.

Defendant argues that Jeffrey Epstein can simply appear live at the trial since he “reside[s]” within 100 miles of the courthouse, Mot. at 2, and thus Ms. Giuffre can simply subpoena him. It appears that this issue has been resolved because Epstein’s attorneys have agreed to accept a trial subpoena on his behalf. See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 1, Letter from Jack Goldberger, Esq. Epstein’s lawyers have also indicated they will be moving to quash his subpoena. If Epstein appears live at trial, then Ms. Giuffre will, of course, simply present that live testimony rather than rely on his recorded deposition.

In her motion, Defendant fails to mention the extraordinary efforts that Ms. Giuffre had to undertake to obtain the pre-trial deposition of Epstein. As the Court will recall from Ms. Giuffre’s Motion for Leave to Serve Three Deposition Subpoenas by Means Other Than Personal Service, filed May 25, 2016, Ms. Giuffre began by asking Epstein’s legal counsel to accept service of a subpoena in this matter. Epstein’s counsel refused. Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre was forced to retain an investigative company to attempt to locate Epstein for purposes of personal service. What followed were no less than sixteen attempts to personally service Epstein, including affixing subpoenas to his “temporary” address in New York. A copy of the subpoena was also provided to Epstein’s counsel.

As the Court will recall, Epstein was not the only person in the sex trafficking ring who was evading service. Sarah Kellen and Nadia Marcincova, two other conspirators who (along with Defendant), helped Epstein in his sex abuse and sex trafficking efforts were also evading service.

As a result of these efforts to evade service, Ms. Giuffre filed a motion for leave to proceed by way of alternative service with regard to Epstein. Before the Court could rule on the motion regarding Epstein, Epstein's legal counsel agreed to have Epstein appear for his deposition – in Florida.

Epstein has every motivation to evade service because the questions he would be asked at trial would involve his sexual abuse of minors. And given Epstein's success at evading sixteen earlier efforts to serve him, the Court should permit Ms. Giuffre to use Epstein's deposition at the upcoming trial – if, for any reason, he does not appear live. Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(4)(D), a party may use a deposition of a witness when “the party offering the deposition could not procure the witness's attendance by subpoena.” A showing that the witness has evaded attempts to be served with a subpoena suffices to make the showing of unavailability. See In re Ashley, 903 F.2d 599, 603 (9th Cir. 1990). Furthermore, Defendant will suffer no prejudice if Epstein appears by way of deposition rather than through live testimony. As discussed at greater length in Part II below, Epstein is being called for purposes of securing an adverse inference from his invocation of his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination. In these circumstances, live testimony will not provide any significantly different testimony from that which has already been secured by deposition.

Notably, Ms. Giuffre has already attempted to serve a trial subpoena upon Epstein in New York. On February 8, 2017, an investigator from Alpha Group Investigations went to 9 East 71st Street, New York, New York, a mansion where Epstein had previously resided (and sexually abused Ms. Giuffre). See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 2, Affidavit of Anna Intrigo.

Even if Epstein is somehow deemed to be “available,” the Court retains discretion to allow the use of his deposition, where “on motion and notice” the Court finds “that exceptional circumstances make it desirable – in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of live testimony in open court – to permit the deposition to be used.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(4)(E). Given the importance of Epstein to this case, if for any reason he fails to appear, the Court should also exercise its discretion to allow his deposition to be used.

Defendant also argues that Rinaldo Rizzo is a witness who should appear live at the trial, rather than through deposition testimony. Ms. Giuffre agrees that it would be optimal if Rizzo were to appear in person at trial. Ms. Giuffre has contacted Mr. Rizzo’s counsel to attempt to secure his appearance at trial. She anticipates that he will indeed appear at trial. But should it appear that those efforts to secure his attendance at trial be unsuccessful, Ms. Giuffre reserves the right to ask the Court to present his testimony via the deposition designations she has made, as he would be, at that point, “unavailable.”

B. Esplin May Be an Unavailable Witness.

Ms. Giuffre has also designated certain excerpts from the deposition of one of Defendant’s own experts, Dr. Phillip Esplin. This designation was a defensive measure. Some of Esplin’s testimony was so favorable to Ms. Giuffre that she wanted to ensure it would be available to present to the jury. Counsel for Ms. Giuffre has contacted defense counsel to confirm that Defendant will still be calling Esplin to trial. Defense counsel has, thus far, refused to respond to this inquiry in any way.

If Defendant calls Esplin as a witness at trial, Ms. Giuffre would then have no need to rely upon his deposition testimony, as she would simply cover the same terrain via live questions before the jury. Should, however, Defendant decide to withhold Esplin as a witness, Ms. Giuffre would like to use limited parts of his testimony at trial.

Of course, Defendant can hardly claim any sort of unfair prejudice from having testimony from her own expert witness presented at trial. Defendant also argues that the designated excerpts are somehow beyond the scope of Esplin's expertise. Ms. Giuffre will address this concern at the appropriate time in the appropriate pleading which deals with relevance issues.

II. EPSTEIN, [REDACTED] AND ESPLIN SHOULD ALL BE ALLOWED TO TESTIFY VIA DEPOSITION TESTIMONY.

Defendant next objects to testimony from Jeffrey Epstein, [REDACTED] and Philip Esplin, claiming that they all "refused to respond to questions." Mot. at 5. Contrary to Defendant's argument, all three of the witnesses did, in fact, answer questions and provide useful information. Epstein answered questions by invoking his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination. [REDACTED] answered questions after her recollection about certain events was refreshed. And Esplin answered questions in which he testified favorably for Ms. Giuffre, which led to Ms. Giuffre designating certain parts of his deposition for use at trial. Accordingly, Defendant's arguments lack merit with respect to all three of these witnesses and her motion should be denied.

A. Jeffrey Epstein.

Jeffrey Epstein is a pivotally important witness in this case. Ms. Giuffre should be permitted to call him, either live or via deposition, to have him invoke his Fifth Amendment right to refuse to answer pivotal questions in this case. The jury should then, in its discretion, be permitted to draw such adverse inferences as may be appropriate.

This procedure is very clearly recognized in the leading case of LiButti v. United States, 107 F.3d 110, 121 (2d Cir. 1997). LiButti articulated several non-exclusive factors to be considered, in light of the circumstances of the case, which should guide a district court in making a determination about whether to allow the jury to hear a Fifth Amendment invocation. LiButti, 107 F.3d at 123–24. The Second Circuit emphasized, however, that whether these or other circumstances unique to a particular case are considered by the trial court, "the overarching concern is fundamentally whether the adverse inference is trustworthy under all of the circumstances and will advance the search for the truth.” Id. at 124 (emphasis added). A number of subsequent decisions from the Southern District of New York have allowed evidence of a third party’s invocations to be used against a party in litigation. See, e.g., Amusement Indus., Inc. v. Stern, No. 07CIV11586LAKGWG, 2016 WL 4249965, at *8 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 11, 2016) (drawing negative inference against defendant based on key witness’ invocation of privilege); S.E.C. v. Durante, No. 01 CIV. 9056 DAB AJP, 2013 WL 6800226, at *11 (S.D.N.Y. Dec. 19, 2013) (drawing negative inference when Fifth Amendment invoked by a “prominent figure in the case”), report and recommendation adopted, No. 01 CIV. 9056 DAB, 2014 WL 5041843 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 25, 2014), aff’d, 641 F. App’x 73 (2d Cir. 2016); John Paul Mitchell Sys. v. Quality King Distributors, Inc., 106 F. Supp. 2d 462, 471 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) (drawing inference from invocation and noting alignment of interests).

All of the LiButti factors tip in favor of allowing Ms. Giuffre to call Epstein. Ms. Giuffre has analyzed this issue at length in her contemporaneously filed Motion to Present Testimony from Jeffrey Epstein for Purposes of Obtaining an Adverse Inference. To avoid burdening the Court with duplicative briefing, Ms. Giuffre specifically adopts and incorporates by reference all of the briefing and arguments in that motion in the response here. For all of the reasons given in that motion, Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to call Epstein. Accordingly, Defendant’s motion to exclude Epstein should be denied.

To be clear, as part of calling Epstein, Ms. Giuffre has no objection to the jury being given appropriate cautionary instructions about the adverse inferences. Those instructions should make clear that the jury is not required to draw any inference at all from Epstein’s invocations, and that it should only draw inferences if it finds that there is an independent foundation for the question being asked and independent corroboration for the adverse inference being drawn. The jury can also be instructed that it should draw such an inference only where, in light of all the other evidence presented at trial, the inference “is trustworthy under all of the circumstances.” LiButti, 107 F.3d at 124. The Defendant may also request additional cautionary instructions, and the Court (after hearing from Ms. Giuffre) may determine to give such cautionary instructions. But the best course of action is to allow a properly-instructed jury to consider Epstein’s invocations, along with all of the other evidence in the case, to reach a fair decision.

Finally, it is important to recognize that the Court has before it very specifically designated excerpts from Epstein’s deposition transcript. While Ms. Giuffre intends to call Mr. Epstein live at trial, the Court can review each deposition excerpt to insure that the inference that might be drawn would be appropriate. The Court can then instruct Ms. Giuffre’s counsel to ask only those specific questions that it approves. This approval process provides an additional safeguard against unfair prejudice.

LiButti specifically recognizes that “[s]ilence is often evidence of the most persuasive character.” 107 F.3d at 124 (quoting United States ex rel. Bilokumsky v. Tod, 263 U.S. 149, 153-54 (1923) (Brandeis, J.)). Ms. Giuffre should be allowed to present that persuasive evidence here.

B. [REDACTED] Deposition Should Be Allowed.

Defendant next challenges testimony from one of Epstein’s victims, [REDACTED] who was very similarly situated to Ms. Giuffre. The basis for this meritless argument is that, according to Defendant, [REDACTED] has “little or no memory of most or all of the events surrounding the time she knew Mr. Epstein.” Mot. at 12.

This is a misleading summary of the testimony provided by [REDACTED]. During her deposition, [REDACTED] explained that when she was about 16 years of age, she was brought to Epstein's mansion under the guise of providing him with a massage. She was then led up to his bedroom, where Epstein sexually abused her in the same ways that Ms. Giuffre was also sexually abused. To be sure, because this happened a number of years ago, [REDACTED] will unsurprisingly not be able to recall every tiny detail of her sexual abuse. But such lapses in memory are simply fodder for cross-examination. They do not provide any basis for excluding her testimony in its entirety. See Fed. R. Evid. 601 (providing presumption of competency to testify); see, e.g., United States v. Sinclair, 109 F.3d 1527, 1536-37 (10th Cir. 1997) (even being "very strung out" on morning of events did not disqualify witness from testifying).

Defendant also raises technical objections to aspects of [REDACTED] testimony. In doing so, Defendant simply repeats objections that she has already lodged at [REDACTED] testimony in her separate pleading on that subject. Ms. Giuffre will respond in detail to those objections in a dedicated pleading, but a few general responses are appropriate herein.

Defendant seems to argue that Rule 612, Federal Rules of Evidence, somehow requires the exclusion of this evidence. Yet Rule 612 is not a rule of exclusion, but simply a rule of procedure that gives an adverse party the right to examine a writing used to refresh a witness's memory. Defendant does not claim that Ms. Giuffre's counsel in any way violated Rule 612, so it is not clear what her argument is for exclusion under that rule.

Defendant also makes reference to the Palm Beach police report, which details Epstein's sexual abuse of many young girls. With respect to claims that aspects of [REDACTED] testimony simply read into evidence passages from the police report, those specific objections will be dealt with in Ms. Giuffre's specific responses to Defendant's objections to the testimony. Such objections concern only a tiny fraction of [REDACTED] testimony, most of which involves recounting Epstein's sexual abuse.

With regard to Defendant's general objections that the Palm Beach Police Report is inadmissible hearsay, her claim that it is simply inadmissible is clearly overbroad. The Court will need to address any objection to admission of the police report in the context of the particular occasion in which it arises. For example, Defendant's own expert – Dr. Esplin – has apparently reviewed the police report as part of his testimony. Presumably, this is because he believes that under Rule 703 the report is the kind of information that experts in this area need to rely upon.

More broadly, the Palm Beach police report, which was properly used to try and refresh [REDACTED] recollection during her deposition, may be admitted at trial for multiple reasons. To begin with, the report may be admissible for various non-hearsay purposes – e.g., admissible because it would not be admitted for the truth of any matters asserted in the report. For instance, Defendant has indicated that she was aware of the police report. Accordingly, the report may be admissible - not to show that its contents are true - but to show Defendant's state of mind – specifically that when Defendant called Ms. Giuffre a liar, she not only knew, she herself had abused Ms. Giuffre, she was doing so knowing that the Palm Beach Police Department had found that dozens of girls in circumstances similar to Ms. Giuffre's had been abused. Moreover, the report may come in to show Defendant's strong ties to Epstein – i.e., that after she knew, by way of the police report, that he had sexually abused several dozen minor girls, she continued to associate with him.

Beyond that, the report may be properly admissible under exceptions to the hearsay rule. For example, it seems likely to qualify for admission under Rule 804(8) as a public record for an investigating government agency. Or, if for any reason it fails to fit Rule 804(8), it would be admissible under Rule 807, the residual hearsay clause.

Nevertheless, the Court need not resolve these evidentiary issues here, in a motion to exclude testimony by [REDACTED]. Instead, the Court should assess these issues either at trial or pre-trial if a motion in limine is filed.

C. Esplin's Deposition Should Be Allowed if Defendant Decides Not to Make Him Available at Trial.

Defendant also argues that Ms. Giuffre should not be permitted to designate extremely helpful testimony provided by Defendant's own expert, Dr. Esplin. While Defendant is apparently fine with Esplin's opinions that are helpful to her case, she claims that portions of his testimony that happen to be favorable to Ms. Giuffre are "outside the scope of his opinion." This pick-and-choose approach is not permitted, and Defendant is required to take the bitter with the sweet. Ms. Giuffre has properly designated portions of Esplin's deposition which are helpful to her and within the scope of his expertise. For example, Defendant offered Esplin as an expert on memory issues, and Ms. Giuffre is entitled to ask for his opinions concerning various memory issues in this case. Ms. Giuffre will respond specifically to Defendant's argument at greater length in response to his objections to her designation.

III. ALFREDO RODRIGUEZ'S TESTIMONY IN AN EARLIER DEPOSITION SHOULD BE ALLOWED SINCE HE HAS SINCE DIED.

Ms. Giuffre has designated excerpts from a deposition of Alfredo Rodriguez, conducted in July 2009. Mr. Rodriguez worked inside Epstein's Palm Beach mansion, and therefore had intimate details about how girls were being sexually trafficked by Epstein and Defendant. Ms. Giuffre would call Mr. Rodriguez as a witness at trial, but he has since died. Accordingly, the only way that his testimony can be presented to the jury is through the deposition transcript.

Mr. Rodriguez's previously-taken deposition testimony is admissible for two reasons. First, the testimony is admissible under Fed. R. Evid. 804(b)(1), as Mr. Rodriguez is unavailable and he is Defendant's predecessor in interest – her co-conspirator, Jeffrey Epstein – had an opportunity to cross-examine Mr. Rodriguez earlier. Second, even if for some technical reason Mr. Rodriguez's deposition does not meet the requirements of Rule 804(b)(1), his testimony is clearly trustworthy and should be admitted under the residual hearsay provision of the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 806.

A. Mr. Rodriguez's Deposition Testimony is Admissible Under Fed. R. Evid. 804(b)(1).

While Defendant has challenged virtually everything else in this case, she does not challenge that Mr. Rodriguez, who is dead, is an "unavailable" witness at the trial. Defendant does, however, contend that his previously-taken testimony must be excluded because it is, in her view, "inadmissible" under Fed. R. Civ. P. 32. Defendant claims that Rule 32 sets out the "prerequisite[s] to use of a deposition at trial." Mot. at 14. But, in fact, Rule 32 is not the only way to admit a prior deposition. The Federal Rules of Evidence also contain provisions allowing the use of a prior deposition. In fact, although not cited in Defendant's motion, Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(8) specifically provides: "A deposition previously taken may also be used as allowed by the Federal Rules of Evidence." This provision was specifically added to the Rules of Civil Procedure because, as the Advisory Committee Notes explain, "the Federal Rules of Evidence permit a broader use of depositions previously taken under certain circumstances." Adv. Comm. Notes, Fed. R. Civ. P. 32, 1980 Amendments.

The relevant provision of the Federal Rules of Evidence is Rule 804(b)(1). Prior deposition testimony of an unavailable witness (such as Mr. Rodriguez) is admissible so long as it meets these requirements:

- (1) Former Testimony. Testimony that:
  - (A) was given as a witness at a trial, hearing, or lawful deposition, whether given during the current proceeding or a different one; and
  - (B) is now offered against a party who had — or, in a civil case, whose predecessor in interest had — an opportunity and similar motive to develop it by direct, cross-, or redirect examination.

Defendant obviously cannot dispute that the requirements of item (A) are met, since Mr. Rodriguez's former testimony was given in a deposition.

The only remaining issue for admissibility concerns item (B), which allows use, in a civil case, of a deposition so long as the party (in this case, the Defendant) had a "predecessor in interest" who had "an opportunity and similar motive" to develop the testimony through cross-examination. The earlier deposition was taken in the case of Jane Doe No. 6 v. Jeffrey Epstein, Case No. 08-CV-80994, on August 7, 2009, as well as other civil cases brought by other victims of Epstein. See McCawley Dec. at Exhibit 3, Rodriguez Dep. Tr. at 271.

As the case caption itself makes clear, Defendant had a "predecessor in interest" in the case – namely, her co-conspirator, Jeffrey Epstein. To determine whether there is a predecessor in interest, the courts look to whether there was a "community of interest" between the two persons. See Lloyd v. American Export Lines, Inc., 580 F.2d 1179, 1185-87 (3d Cir. 1978). In making such determinations, courts should give a "realistically generous" interpretation that presents a "complete picture" of the situation. Id. at 1187. For example, both the Coast Guard and a seaman were found to have the same interest in asking questions about an incident at sea. Id.

Similarly here, Epstein and Defendant had the same interest in asking questions about the sex abuse taking place in the Palm Beach mansion they cohabitated for years. At the deposition in question, Epstein was represented by legal counsel, Robert Critton, Esq. Id. at 275. Following questioning from counsel for Epstein's victims that suggested Mr. Rodriguez had seen evidence of sexual abuse going on in Epstein's mansion, Critton cross-examined Mr. Rodriguez. See id. at 338-419. Critton specifically asked an entire series of questions about Defendant. See id. at 364-

69, 375-76, 416-17. Indeed, several of the passages that Ms. Giuffre has designated for use in this trial come from questions asked of Mr. Rodriguez by Epstein's counsel.

Epstein also had a similar motive to ask questions during the deposition. Under Rule 804(b)(1), "'similar motive' does not mean 'identical motive.'" United States v. Salerno, 505 U.S. 317, 326 (Blackmun, J., concurring). Determining whether a motive is sufficiently similar is a "factual inquiry, depending in part on the similarity of the underlying issues and on the context." Id. "A motive to develop testimony is sufficiently similar for purposes of Rule 804(b)(1) when the party now opposing the testimony would have had, at the time the testimony was given, an interest of substantially similar intensity to prove (or disprove) the same side of a substantially similar issue now before the court." United States v. Carneglia, 256 F.R.D. 366, 372 (E.D.N.Y. 2009) (internal quotations omitted).

Here, Epstein's motive and Defendant's motive are the same – to deny that sexual abuse occurred. Both the victims in that case – and Ms. Giuffre here – are alleging that Epstein and Defendant worked together to sexually abuse minor girls. Epstein asked numerous questions designed to undercut those aspects of Mr. Rodriguez's deposition that could be used to support such claim. His motive was identical to Defendant's, and Mr. Rodriguez's deposition transcript should accordingly be presented to the jury. Rule 804 "expresses preferences: testimony given on the stand in person is preferred over hearsay, and hearsay, if of the specified quality, is preferred over complete loss of the evidence of the declarant." Lloyd, 580 F.2d at 1185. The jury should not suffer "complete loss" of the evidence of Mr. Rodriguez.

B. If the Rodriguez Deposition is Not Admissible Under the Former Testimony Exception, It Should Be Admitted Under the Residual Hearsay Exception.

For all the reasons just explained, Mr. Rodriguez's deposition testimony falls within the former testimony exception to the hearsay rule. However, if for any reason the court concludes that the testimony does not fall within that exception, the question would at least be a close one. In such “near miss” situations, the residual hearsay exception provided in Federal Rule of Evidence 807 comes into play. See United States v. Valdez-Soto, 31 F.3d 1467, 1472 (9th Cir. 1994) (almost fitting another exception cuts in favor of admitting).

To qualify for admission of a statement under the residual hearsay clause, four factors must apply, as explained in Rule 807:

- (1) the statement has equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness;
- (2) it is offered as evidence of a material fact;
- (3) it is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence that the proponent can obtain through reasonable efforts; and
- (4) admitting it will best serve the purposes of these rules and the interests of justice.

Each of the four factors applies here.
